23 And of Iezabel ſpake the Lorde, ſayeing, The dogges ſhal eate Iezabel by the wal of Iezrahel.

24 * And whoſoeuer of Ahab dyeth in the towne, hym ſhal dogges eate: & whoſo dieth in the fielde, hym ſhal the fowles of the ayre eate.

The.xxij.Chapter.

2 Iehoſaphat and Ahab fight againſt the king of Syria. 15 Michea ſheweth the king, what ſhal be the ſucceſſe of their enterpriſe. 24 Zedekia the falſe prophete ſmiteth him. 34 Ahab is ſlayne. 40 Ahazia his ſonne ſucceedeth. 41 The raigne of Iehoſaphat, 51 and Ioram his ſonne.

A 1 AND they continued three yeeres without warre betweene Syria and Iſrael.

2 And * in the thirde yeere dyd Iehoſaphat the kyng of Iuda comme downe to the kyng of Iſrael.

2.Par.18.a

3 (And the kyng of Iſrael ſayde vnto his ſeruantes, Know ye not, that Ramoth [in] Gilead is ours, and we ſit ſtil, and take it not out of the hande of the kyng of Syria?)

4 And he ſayde vnto Iehoſaphat, Wylt thou comme with me to battayle agaynſt Ramoth [in] Gilead? And Iehoſaphat ſaide vnto the kyng of Iſrael, * I am as thou art: my people as thy people: and my horſes as thy horſes.

4.Reg.2.a

5 And Iehoſaphat ſayde vnto the king of Iſrael, (a) Aſke counſel, I pray thee, at the woord of the Lorde to day.

(a) In al oure enterpriſes we ought firſt to aſke counſel of God.

6 And then the kyng of Iſrael geathered the prophetes togeather, vpon * foure hundred menne, and ſayde vnto them, Shal I goe againſt Ramoth [in] Gilead to battaile, or ſhal I let it alone? And they ſayd, Goe vp: for the Lorde ſhal deliuer it into the handes of the king.

3.Reg.18.c

B 7 And Iehoſaphat ſayde, Is there here neuer a prophete of the Lorde more, that we might inquire of hym?

8 And the kyng of Iſrael ſayde vnto Iehoſaphat, There is yet one man (Michea yͤ ſonne of Imla) by whom we may aſke counſel of the Lorde: But I hate him: for he dooth not propheſie good vnto me, but euyl. And Iehoſaphat ſayde, Let not the kyng ſay ſo.

9 Then the king of Iſrael called a chamberlayne, and ſayde, Fet Michea the ſonne of Imla hyther at once.

10 And the kyng of Iſrael, and Iehoſaphat the kyng of Iuda ſate, eyther of them in his ſeate, and their apparel on them, in a voyde place beſyde the entring in of the gate of Samaria, and al the prophetes propheſied before them.

11 And Zedekia the ſonne of Chanaana made hornes of iron, and ſaide, thus ſaith the Lord, With theſe [hornes] ſhalt thou puſhe the Syrians vntil thou haue made an ende of them.

12 And al the prophetes propheſied euen ſo, ſayeing, Goe vp to Ramoth [in] Gilead, and proſper: for the Lorde ſhal deliuer it into the kynges hande.

13 And the meſſenger that was gonne to calle Michea, ſpake vnto hym, ſayeing, Beholde, the wordes of the prophetes ſpeake good vnto the kyng with one mouth: Let thy woord therefore, I pray thee, be lyke the woorde of euery one of them, to ſpeake that, whiche is good.

C 14 And Michea ſayde, As the Lorde lyueth, whatſoeuer the Lorde ſayth vnto me, (b) that wyl I ſpeake.

(b) The true prophete wyl ſpeake no other, then that he hath learned of God.

15 And ſo he came to the kyng, and the kyng ſayde vnto hym, Michea, ought we to goe agaynſt Ramoth [in] Gilead to battayle, or to be ſtyl? He anſweared to hym, (c) Goe, and proſper: the Lord ſhal deliuer it into the hand of the kyng.

(c) He ſpeaketh this in deriſion.

16 And the kyng ſayde vnto hym, So and ſo many tymes doo I charge thee, that thou tel me nothyng, but that whiche is true, in the name of the Lorde.

17 He ſayde, I ſawe al them of Iſrael ſcattered vpon the hylles, as ſheepe that haue not a ſheepehearde. And the Lorde ſayd, Theſe haue no maiſter: let euery man returne to his houſe in peace.

18 (And the kyng of Iſrael ſayde vnto Iehoſaphat, Dyd I not telle thee, that he woulde propheſie no good vnto me, but euyl?)

19 And he ſayde agayne, Heare thou therefore the worde of the Lorde. I ſawe the Lorde ſit on his ſeate, and al the hoſt of heauen ſtood about hym on his ryght hande, and on his left.

2.Par.18.b.

20 And the Lorde ſayd, *Who ſhal perſwade Ahab, that he may goe and falle at Ramoth [in] Gilead? And one ſayde on this manner, and another on that.

D 21 And there came foorth a certayne ſpirite, & ſtoode before the Lorde, and ſayde, I wyl perſwade him. And the Lord ſaid vnto him, Wherewith?

22 And he ſayde, I wyl goe out, and be a falſe ſpirite in the mouth of al his prophetes. He ſayde, Thou ſhalt perſwade hym, and preuayle: Goe foorth then, and doo euen ſo.

Iere.14.c.

23 Nowe therefore beholde * the Lorde hath put a lyeing ſpirite in the mouth of al theſe thy prophetes, and the Lorde hath ſpoken euyl towarde thee.

24 But Zedekia the ſonne of Chanaana went to, and ſmote Michea on the cheeke, and ſayd, When went the ſpirite of the Lord from me, to ſpeake vnto thee?

25 And Michea ſayde, Beholde, thou ſhalt ſee in that day, when thou ſhalt goe from chamber to chamber to hyde thee.

26 And the kyng of Iſrael ſayde, Take Michea, and carrie hym vnto Amon the gouernour of the citie, and vnto Ioas the kynges ſonne, 27 And ſay, Thus ſayeth the kyng, Put this felowe in the priſon houſe, and feede hym with bread of affliction, and with water of trouble, vntyl I returne in peace.

28 And Michea ſaid, If thou returne in peace, the Lorde hath not ſpoken by me. And he ſayde, Hearken ye people euery one of you. E

29 And ſo the king of Iſrael, and Iehoſaphat the kyng of Iuda, went vp to Ramoth [in] Gilead.

30 And the kyng of Iſrael ſayde vnto Iehoſaphat, I wyl change my apparrel, and wyl enter into the battayle: but put thou on thyne apparel. And the king of Iſrael changed him ſelfe, and went to battayle.

31 But the kyng of Syria commaunded the thirtie and two captaynes, that had rule ouer his charettes, ſayeing, Fyght neyther with ſmal nor with great, ſaue onely agaynſt the kyng of Iſrael.

32 And when the captaynes of the charettes ſawe Iehoſaphat, they ſayde, Surely it is the kyng of Iſrael. And they turned to fyght agaynſt him: And Iehoſaphat cryed.

33 And ſo it came to paſſe, that when the captaynes of the charettes ſawe, that he was not the kyng of Iſrael, they turned back from hym.

34 And a certayne man drewe a bowe ignorantly, and ſmote the king of Iſrael betwene the ribbes and his harneſſe: Wherfore he ſayd vnto the driuer of his charettes, Turne thy hande, and carrie me out of the hoſt: for I am hurt.

35 (And the battayle encreaſed that day: and the king ſtoode ſtyl in his charet agaynſt the Syrians) & died at euen: And the blood ranne out of the wound into yͤ middes of the charet. F

36 And there went a proclamation throughout the hoſt about the goeyng downe of the ſunne, ſayeing, Euery man to his citie, and to his owne countrey.

37 So the king dyed, & was brought to Samaria, & they buried the king in Samaria.

38 And one waſhed the charet in the poole of Samaria: and the dogges lycked vp his blood: and they waſhed his armour, accordyng vnto the worde of the Lorde, whiche he ſpake.

39 The reſt of the wordes, that concerne Ahab, and al that he did, and the iuorie houſe, which he made, & al the cities that he buylded, are they not written in the booke of the chronicles of the kynges of Iſrael?

40 And ſo Ahab ſlept with his fathers, and Ahazia his ſonne raigned in his ſteede.

41 *Iehoſaphat the ſonne of Aſa began to raigne vpon Iuda, in the fourth yeere of Ahab kyng of Iſrael.

2.Par.20.c

42 And Iehoſaphat was thirtie & fiue yeeres olde, when he began to raigne, and raigned G twentie and fiue yeeres in Hieruſalem: his mothers name was Azuba, the daughter of Silhi.

43 And he walked in al the wayes of Aſa his father, and bowed not therefrom, but dyd that whiche was right in the eyes of the lord: Neuertheleſſe the high places were not taken out of the way: for the people offered and burnt incenſe yet in the hygh places.

44 And Jehoſaphat made peace with the king of Iſrael.

3.Reg. 15.f

45 * The reſt of the woordes, that concerne Jehoſaphat, and the might that he vſed, & how he warred, are they not written in the booke of the chronicles of the kynges of Juda?

46 And the remnant of the ſtewes of the males, whiche remayned in the dayes of his father Aſa, he put cleane out of the lande.

(d) In the tyme of this king, Idumea was ſubiect to Juda, & was gouerned by whom they of Juda appoynted.

47 (d) There was then no kyng in Edom: the deputie was kyng.

48 And Jehoſaphat made ſhippes in the ſea, to comme through Tharſis to Ophir for golde: but they went not: for the ſhippes brake at Ezion Gaber.

49 Then ſayd Ahazia the ſonne of Ahab vnto Jehoſaphat, Let my ſeruantes goe with thy ſeruantes in the ſhippes. But Jehoſaphat woulde not.

50 And Jehoſaphat dyd ſleepe with his fathers, and was buryed with his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father: And Jehoram his ſonne raigned in his ſteede.

51 Ahazia the ſonne of Ahab began to raigne ouer Iſrael in Samaria the ſeuentienth yeere of Jehoſaphat king of Juda, and raigned two yeeres ouer Iſrael.

52 But he dyd euyl in the ſyght of the Lorde, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam, the ſonne of Nabat, whiche made Iſrael to ſinne.

53 For he ſerued Baal, & woorſhipped hym, & prouoked the lord god of Iſrael vnto wrath, according to al that his father had donne.

The firſt Chapter.

2 Ahazia by a falle becommeth ſicke, and conſulteth with Beelzebub. 3 He is reproued by Elias. 10 The captaynes ouer fiftie were ſent to Elias, whereof two were burnt with fyre from heauen by his prayer. 17 Ahazia dyeth, and Jehoram his brother ſucceedeth hym.

A 1 THen Moab rebelled agaynſt Iſrael, after the death of Ahab.

2 And Ahazia felle through a latteſſe wyndow of his vpper chamber, that he had in Samaria: & while he was in his ſickneſſe, he ſent meſſengers, and ſayd vnto them, Goe, & enquire of (a) Beelzebub the god of Ekrom, whether I ſhal recouer of this my diſeaſe.

(a) The God of flies: ſo called, eyther for that the people thought that he coulde preſerue them from the flies, wherewith that countrey was infected, or becauſe flies were ingendred in great aboundance of the blood of the ſacrifices to that idol.

3 But the angel of the Lorde ſpake to Elias the Theſbite, Aryſe, and goe vp agaynſt the meſſengers of the kyng of Samaria, and ſay vnto them, Is there not a God in Iſrael, that ye goe to aſke counſel of Beelzebub the god of Ekrom?

4 Wherefore thus ſayth the Lorde, Thou ſhalt not comme downe from the bed, on whiche thou art gonne vp, but ſhalt dye the death. And Elias departed.

5 And when the meſſengers turned backe agayne vnto hym, he ſayde vnto them, Why are ye nowe comme agayne?

6 They anſweared him, There came a man vp agaynſt vs, and ſayde vnto vs, Goe, and turne agayne vnto the kyng that ſent you, and ſay vnto hym, Thus ſayth the Lorde, Is there not a God in Iſrael, that thou ſendeſt to enquire of Beelzebub the god of Ekrom? Therefore thou ſhalt not comme downe from the bed, on whiche thou art gonne vp, but ſhalt dye the death.

7 And

B 7 And he ſayd vnto them, What manner of man was that, whiche came vp & met you, and tolde you theſe woordes?

Mat.3.b.

8 And they anſweared him, It was an heary man, * and girt with a girdel of leather about his loynes. And he ſayde, It is Elias the Theſbite.

9 Then the kyng ſent vnto hym a captayne ouer fiftie, with his fiftie menne: whiche came to him (and beholde he ſate on the top of an hil) and he ſpake vnto him, Thou man of God, the king hath ſayd, Comme downe.

10 Elias anſweared and ſaide to the captayne ouer the fiftie: If I be a man of God, let fire comme downe from heauen, and conſume thee, & thy fiftie. (b) And there came fyre from heauen, and conſumed hym and his fiftie.

(b) The threatninges of gods prophetes are effectual agaynſt the wycked.

11 Agayne alſo he ſent vnto hym another captayne ouer fiftie, with his fiftie: And he ſpake and ſayde vnto hym, O man of God, thus hath the king ſayd, Make haſte, and comme downe.

12 Elias anſweared, and ſayde vnto them, If I be a man of God, let fire comme downe from heauen, and conſume thee and thy fiftie. And there came fyre of GOD from heauen, and conſumed hym and his fiftie.

13 And the kyng yet agayne ſent the third captaine ouer fiftie, with his fiftie menne: And the thirde captayne ouer fiftie went vp, and came and felle on his knees before Elias, and beſought hym, and ſayde vnto hym, O man of God, I pray thee, let my lyfe and the lyfe of the fiftie thy ſeruantes be pretious in thy ſyght.

14 Beholde, there came fyre downe from heauen, & burnt vp the two foremere captaynes ouer fiftie with theyr fifties: therefore let my lyfe nowe be pretious in thy ſyght. C

15 And the angel of the Lorde ſayde vnto Elias, Goe downe with hym, and (c) be not afrayd of hym. And he aroſe, and went downe with him vnto the kyng.

(c) God boldeneth his miniſters to doo their meſſage.

16 And he ſayde vnto him, Thus ſayth the Lord, Foraſmuche as thou haſt ſent meſſengers, to aſke counſel of Beelzebub the god of Ekrom, as though there had benne no God in Iſrael, whoſe woorde thou mighteſt ſeeke after: therefore thou ſhalt not comme downe of the bed, on whiche thou art gonne vp, but ſhalt dye the death.

17 And ſo he dyed accordyng to the woorde of the Lorde, whiche Elias had ſpoken: And Iehoram [his brother] began to raigne in his ſteede, in the ſeconde yeere of Iehoram, the ſonne of Iehoſaphat kyng of Iuda, becauſe he had no ſonne.

18 The reſt of the woordes that concerne Ahazia, what thinges he did, are they not written in the booke of the chronicles of the kynges of Iſrael.

The.ii.Chapter.

8 Elias diuideth the waters with his cloke. 11 He is taken vp into heauen. 13 Eliſa taketh his cloke, and diuideth Iordane. 20 The bitter and venemous waters are healed. 23 The children that mocke Eliſa, are rent in peeces with beares.

2 And Elias ſayde vnto Eliſa, Tarie here, I pray thee, for the Lorde hath ſent me to Bethel. Eliſa ſaid vnto him, * As the Lord liueth, and as thy ſoule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. And they came downe to Bethel:

1.Re,28.d

3 (a) And the children of the prophetes, that were at Bethel, came out to Eliſa, and ſayd vnto him, Knoweſt thou not, howe that the Lorde wyl take away thy maiſter from thy head this day? He ſayd, I knowe it alſo: hold you your peace.

(a) The chyldren of the prophetes, that is, the diſciples of the prophetes

4 And Elias ſaid vnto hym, Eliſa, tarie here, I pray thee: for the Lorde hath ſent me to Iericho. He ſayde, As the Lorde liueth, and as thy ſoule liueth, I wyll not leaue thee. And ſo they came to Iericho.

5 And the children of the prophetes, that were at Iericho, came to Eliſa, and ſaid vnto him, Knoweſt thou not, that the Lorde wyl take away thy maiſter from thy head this day? He anſweared, I knowe it alſo: hold ye your peace.

6 And Elias ſaid vnto him, Tarie, I pray thee, here: for the Lorde hath ſent me to Iordane. He ſaid, As the Lorde liueth, aud as thy ſoule lyueth, I wyl not leaue thee. And ſo they two went togeather.

7 And fiftie menne of the ſonnes of the prophetes came, and ſtoode on the other ſyde a farre of: and they two ſtoode by Iordane. B

8 And Elias tooke his mantel, and wrapt it togeather, and ſmote the waters: and they were diuided, part the one way, and part the other, ſo that they two went ouer through the drye lande.

9 And it fortuned, that as ſoone as they were ouer, Elias ſayde vnto Eliſa, Aſke what I ſhal doo for thee, ere I be taken away from thee. And Eliſa ſayde, I pray thee, let thy ſpirite be double vpon me.

10 And he ſayde, Thou haſt aſked an harde thyng: Neuertheleſſe, if thou ſee me, when I am taken away from thee, thou ſhalt haue it ſo: yf thou doo not, it ſhal not be.

11 And it fortuned, that as they went walking and talkyng, beholde there appeared a charet of fyre, and horſes of fyre, and parted them both a ſunder: * and Elias went vp through the whorle winde into (b) heauen.

Eccl.48.a.
(b) A teſtimonie of the reſurrection.

12 And Eliſa ſawe, and cryed, O my father, O my father, the charet of Iſrael, & the horſeman thereof. And he ſawe hym no more: and he tooke his owne clothes, & rent them in two peeces.

13 He tooke vp alſo the mantel of Elias that fel from hym, and went backe agayne, and ſtoode by the ſyde of Iordane.

C 14 And tooke the mantel of Elias that fel from hym, and ſmote the waters, and he ſayde, Where is the lord God of Elias, and he hym ſelfe? And when he had ſmitten the waters, they parted this way and that way: and Eliſa went ouer.

15 And when the chyldren of the prophetes whiche were at Iericho, ſawe hym from a farre, they ſayde, The ſpirite of Elias dooth reſt on Eliſa: And they came to meete hym, and fel to the grounde before hym,

16 And ſayde vnto hym, See, nowe there be with thy ſeruantes fiftie ſtrong menne, let them goe, we pray thee, and ſeeke thy maiſter: yf happily the ſpirite of the Lord haue taken hym vp, and caſt him vpon ſomme mountayne, or into ſomme valley. And he ſayd, Ye ſhal ſende none.

17 And when they lay vpon hym tyl he was aſhamed, he ſayde, Sende. They ſent therefore fiftie menne, whiche ſought hym three dayes, but founde hym not.

18 And when they came againe to him (whiche taried at Iericho) he ſaid vnto them, Did I not ſay vnto you, that ye ſhoulde not goe?

19 And the menne of the citie ſayde vnto Eliſa, Beholde ſir, the dwellyng of this citie is pleaſant, as thou thee ſelfe ſeeſt: but the water is naught, and the grounde barren.

20 He ſayde, Bryng me a newe cruſe, and put ſalt therein. And they brought it to hym.

21 And he went vnto the ſpryng of the waters, and caſt the ſalt in thyther, and ſayde, Thus ſayth the Lorde, I haue healed theſe waters: there ſhal not comme hencefoorth either death, or barrenneſſe. D

22 So the waters were healed vnto this day, accordyng to the ſayeing of Eliſa, whiche he ſpake.

23 And he went vp from thence vnto Bethel: And as he was goeyng vp the way, there came litle children out of the citie, and mocked hym, and ſayde vnto hym, Goe vp thou balde head: goe vp thou balde head.

24 And he turned backe, and looked on them, and curſed them in the name of the Lorde: And there came two ſhee beares out of the wood, and tare fourtie and two chyldren of them.

25 And he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he turned agayne to Samaria.

The.iij.Chapter.

1 The raigne of Iehoram. 6 He and Iehoſaphat goe to warre agaynſt Moab, whiche rebelled. 13 Eliſa reproueth hym, 17 and geueth theyr hoſt water. 24 The Moabites are ouercomme. 27 Theyr kyng ſacrificeth his ſonne.

A 1 NOwe Iehoram the ſonne of Ahab began to raigne vpon Iſrael in Samaria the eightienth yeere of Iehoſaphat kyng of Iuda, & raigned twelue yeeres.

2 And he wrought euil in the ſight of the Lord: but not like his father, & lyke his mother: for he put away the images of Baal, that his father had made.

3 Neuertheleſſe, he cleaued vnto the ſinnes of Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat, whiche made Iſrael to ſinne, and departed not therefrom.

4 And Meſa kyng of Moab was a lorde of ſheepe, and rendered vnto the kyng of Iſrael an hundred thouſande lambes, and an hundred thouſande rammes with the woolle.

5 But when Ahab was dead, it fortuned, that the kyng of Moab rebelled agaynſt the kyng of Iſrael.

6 And king Iehoram went out of Samaria the ſame ſeaſon, and numbred al Iſrael:

7 And went, and ſent to Iehoſaphat the king of Iuda, ſayeing; The kyng of Moab hath rebelled agaynſt me, wilt thou comme with me againſt Moab in battaile? He anſweared, I wyl comme vp: for as I am, ſo art thou: and as my people be, ſo are thy people: and thy horſes, as myne. B

8 And he ſayde, What way ſhal we goe vp? And he anſweared, The way through the wylderneſſe of Edom.

9 And ſo the king of Iſrael tooke his iourney, and the kyng of Iuda, & the kyng of Edom: And when they had compaſſed the way ſeuen dayes, they had no water for the hoſt, and for the cattel that folowed them.

10 And the kyng of Iſrael ſayde, Alas, the lord hath called theſe three kynges togeather, to deliuer them ouer into the hande of Moab.

3,Reg,22.a 11 But Jehoſaphat ſayde, * Is there not here a prophete of the Lord, that we may enquire of the Lorde by him? And one of the king of Iſraels ſeruantes anſweared and ſayde, Here is Eliſa the ſonne of Saphat, whiche powred water on the handes of Elias.

12 And Jehoſaphat ſayde, The woord of the Lorde is with him. And ſo the kyng of Iſrael, and Jehoſaphat, and the kyng of Edom went downe to hym.

13 And Eliſa ſayde vnto the kyng of Iſrael, What haue I to doo with thee? Geat thee to the prophetes of thy father, and to the prophetes of thy mother. And the kyng of Iſrael ſayd vnto hym, Oh nay: for the Lorde hath called theſe three kynges togeather, to deliuer them into the hande of Moab.

C 14 And Eliſa ſayde, As the Lorde of hoſtes liueth, in whoſe ſyght I ſtande, and it were not that I regard the preſence of Jehoſaphat the kyng of Juda, I woulde (a) not looke towarde thee, nor yet ſee thee.

(a) God ſuffereth his woord to be declared to the wycked, becauſe of the godly that are among them.

15 But nowe bryng me a minſtrel. And when the minſtrel playde, the hande of the Lorde came vpon hym:

16 And he ſayd, Thus ſayth the Lord, Make this valley ful of diches:

17 For thus ſayth the Lorde, Ye ſhal ſee neyther wynde, nor rayne, yet the valley ſhalbe filled with water, that ye may drynke, both ye, and your beaſtes, and your cattel:

18 And this is yet but a ſmal thing in the ſight of the Lord, foraſmuche as he wil geue ouer the Moabites alſo into your handes.

19 And ye ſhal ſmyte euery ſtrong towne, and euery goodly citie, and ſhal felle euery pleaſant tree, and ſtoppe euery well of water, and marre euery good plat of grounde with ſtones.

20 And in the mornyng, when the meate offeryng was offered, beholde, there came water by the way of Edom, and the countrey was filled with water.

D 21 And when al the Moabites heard, that the kings were comme vp to fight againſt thē, they geathered al that was hable to put on harneſſe, and ſtoode in the border of the land:

22 And they were vp early in the mornyng, and the ſunne ſhone vpon the water, that the Moabites ſawe the water a farre of as red as blood.

23 And they ſayd, This is the blood of ſlaughter: The kynges are ſlayne, and they haue ſmitten one another: Nowe therfore Moab geat thee to the ſpoyle.

24 And when they came to the hoſt of Iſrael, the Iſraelites ſtoode vp and ſmote the Moabites, ſo that they fled before them: but they folowed vpon them, and ſmote Moab:

25 And they ouerthrew the cities, and on euery good parcel of land caſt euery man his ſtone, and fylled it, and they ſtopt al the welles of water, and felde al the good trees, only in Kirharaſeth leaft they the ſtones thereof: howbeit they went about it with ſlings, and ſmote it.

26 And when the kyng of Moab ſaw, that the battaile was to ſoare for him, he tooke with hym ſeuen hundred menne that drewe the ſwoorde, to haue gonne through [euen] vnto the kyng of Edom: but they coulde not.

27 And then he tooke his eldeſt ſonne, that ſhould haue raigned in his ſteede, and offered hym for a burnt offering vpon the wal: And there was (a) great indignation againſt Iſrael, and they departed from hym, and returned to theyr owne lande.

(b) The Iſraelites were greatly offended, becauſe of the crueltie of the facte.

The.iiij.Chapter.

4 God increaſeth the oyle to the poore wydowe by Eliſa. 12 He obteyneth for the Sunamite a ſonne at Gods hande. 28 Who dyeing, 32 he rayſeth hym vp agayne. 40 He maketh ſweete the potage. 41 And multiplieth the loaues.

A 1 AND there cryed a certayne woman of the wyues of the ſonnes of the prophetes vnto Eliſa, ſayeing, Thy ſeruant my huſband is dead, and thou knoweſt, that thy ſeruant did feare the Lorde: And the creditour is comme to fet my two ſonnes to be his bondmen.

2 Eliſa ſayde vnto her, Tel me, what I ſhal doo for thee? What haſt thou in thine houſe? She ſaid, Thine handmaide hath nothyng at al in the houſe, ſaue a pitcher with oyle.

3 He ſayde vnto her, Goe, and borowe veſſels for thee [of them that are] without [euen] of al thy neyghbours, emptie veſſels, and that not a fewe.

4 And when thou art comme in, thou ſhalt ſhut the doore after thee, and after thy ſonnes, and powre out into [a] al thoſe veſſels: and ſet aſyde that whiche is ful.

[a] God euer prouideth for them that truſt in hym.

5 And ſo ſhe went from hym, and ſhut the doore after her, and after her ſonnes: And they brought to her, and ſhe powred out.

6 And it came to paſſe, that when the veſſels were ful, ſhe ſaid vnto her ſonne, Bryng me yet a veſſel. And he ſayd vnto her, I haue no mo. And the oyle ceaſſed.

B

7 Then ſhe came, and tolde the man of God, and he ſayde, Goe, and ſelle the oyle, and pay them, that thou art in debt vnto: but liue thou and thy chyldren of the reſt.

8 And it fel on a day, that Eliſa came to Sunem, where was a great woman, that tooke hym in for to eate bread: And ſo it came to paſſe, that from that tyme foorth (as oft as he came that way) he turned in thyther to eate bread.

9 And ſhe ſayde vnto her huſband, Beholde, I perceiue, that this is an holy man of God, whiche paſſeth by vs continually.

10 Let vs make hym a litle chamber, I pray thee, with walles, and let vs ſet hym there a bed, and a table, and a ſtoole, & a candelſticke: that he may turne in thyther, when he commeth to vs.

11 And it fortuned on a day that he came thyther, and turned into the chamber, and lay therein,

12 And ſayde to Gehezi his ſeruant, Cal this Sunamite. And when he called her, ſhe preſented her ſelfe before hym.

13 And agayne he ſayde vnto hym, Tel her, beholde, thou haſt benne careful for vs with al this care: [b] What ſhal we nowe doo for thee? Wouldeſt thou be ſpoken for to the king, or to the captayne of the hoſt? She anſweared, I dwel among mine owne people.

C

14 And he ſayde agayne, What is to be donne for her? Gehezi anſweared, Verely ſhe hath no childe, and her huſbande is olde.

15 And he ſaid, Cal her. And when he had called her, ſhe ſtoode in the doore.

Gen.18.b.

16 And he ſayde, * At this tyme appoynted, accordyng to the tyme of lyfe, thou ſhalt imbrace a ſonne. And ſhe ſayd, Oh nay my lord, thou man of God, doo not lye vnto thyne handemayde.

17 And the wyfe conceiued, and bare a ſonne that ſame ſeaſon, that Eliſa had ſayde vnto her, accordyng to the tyme of lyfe.

18 And when the childe was growen, it felle on a day, that he went out to his father, and to the reapers, 19 And he ſayd vnto his father, My head, my head. And he ſayde to a lad, Carie hym to his mother.

20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he ſate on her knees tyl noone, and then dyed.

D

21 And ſhe went vp, and layde him on the bed of the man of God, and ſhut [the doore] vpon hym, and went out,

22 And called vnto her huſbande, and ſayde, Send with me, I pray thee, one of the yong menne, and one of the aſſes: for I wyl runne to the man of God, and comme agayne.

23 And he ſayde, Wherefore wylt thou goe to him? ſeeyng that to day is neyther newe moone, nor ſabboth day. And ſhe anſweared, Al ſhalbe wel.

24 Then ſhe ſadled an aſſe, and ſayde to her ſeruant, Dryue, and goe forewarde: ſtay not for me to geat vp, except I byd thee.

25 And ſo ſhe went, and came vnto the man of God to mount Carmel: And it fortuned, that when the man of God ſaw her farre of, he ſayde to Gehezi his ſeruant, Beholde, yonder is the Sunamite:

26 Runne therefore to meete her, and ſay vnto her, Is al wel with thee, and with thy huſband, and with the lad? And ſhe anſweared, Al is wel.

27 And when ſhe came to the man of God vp to the hyl, ſhe caught hym by the feete: But Gehezi went to her, to thruſt her away. And the man of God ſayde, Let her alone, for her ſoule is vexed within her: and the Lorde hath hyd it from me, and hath not tolde it me.

E

28 Then ſhe ſayde, Did I deſyre a ſonne of my Lord? did I not require thee, that thou ſhouldeſt not deceiue me?

4.Reg.9.a

29 Then he ſayde to Gehezi, * Girde vp thy loynes, and take my ſtaffe in thyne hande, and goe thy way: * If thou meete any man, [c] ſalute hym not: And yf any ſalute thee, anſweare hym not agayne: And lay my ſtaffe vpon the face of the chylde.

Luke.x.a.

[c] Make ſuch ſpeede, that nothyng may let thee in the way. Luke. x.

1.Re.28.b.

30 And the mother of the childe ſayde, * As the Lorde lyueth, and as thy ſoule lyueth, I wil not leaue thee. And he aroſe, and folowed her.

31 Gehezi went before them, and layde the ſtaffe vpon the face of the chylde, but there was neither voyce, nor any feeling: Wherfore he went agayne to meete him, and told him, ſayeing, The chylde is not awaked.

32 And when Eliſa was comme into the houſe, beholde the chylde was dead, and layd vpon his bed.

33 He went in therfore, & ſhut the doore vpon them twayne, and prayed vnto the Lorde.

2.Re.17.d 34 * And went vp, and lay vpon the lad, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes vpon his eyes, & his handes vpon his hands: and when he ſo lay vpon the chyld, the fleaſh of the chylde waxed warme.

F 35 And he went agayne, and walked once vp and downe in the houſe, and then went vp, and layde hym ſelfe vpon him agayne: And then the chylde [n] gaſped ſeuen tymes, and opened his eyes.

[n] Or, ſneeſed,

36 And he called Gehezi, and ſayde, Calle for this Sunamite. So he called her: Whiche when ſhe was comme in vnto hym, he ſayd vnto her, Take thy ſonne.

Luke.v.c.

37 Therfore ſhe went in, and fel at his feete, and bowed her ſelfe to the grounde, and tooke vp her ſonne, and went out.

38 Eliſa came agayne to Gilgal, and there was a dearth in the lande, and the chyldren of the prophetes dwelt with hym: And he ſayde vnto his ſeruant, Set a great pot on [the fyre] and make pottage for the chyldren of the prophetes.

39 And one went out into the felde to geather herbes, and founde a wylde vine, and geathered therof wylde gourdes his lappe full, and came and ſhred them into the pot of pottage: for they knewe it not.

40 So they powred out for the menne to eate: and it fortuned, that when they taſted of the potage, they cryed out, and ſayde, O thou man of God, there is death in the pot. And they coulde not eate therof.

41 But he ſayde, Bryng meale. And he caſt it into the pot, and he ſayde, Fille for the people, that they may eate. And there was no more harme in the pot. G

42 There came a man from Baal Saliſa, and brought the man of god bread of the firſt fruites, euen twentie loaues of barly, and ful eares of corne in the huſke. And he ſaid, Geue vnto the people that they may eate.

43 And his miniſter anſweared, Why ſhal I ſet this before an hundred menne? He ſayde agayne, Geue it vnto the people, that they may eate: For thus ſayth the Lorde, * They ſhal eate, and there ſhalbe leaſt ouer. Iohn.vi.a

44 And ſo he ſet it before them, and they dyd eate, and leaſt ouer, accordyng to the worde of the Lorde.

The.v.Chapter.

1 Naaman the Syrian is healed of his leproſie. 16 Eliſa refuſeth his gyftes. 27 Gehezi is ſtriken with leproſie, becauſe he tooke money, and rayment of Naaman.

A 1 Naaman captayne of the hoſt of the kyng of Syria, was a great man, and honourable in the ſyght of his maiſter, becauſe that by hym the Lorde had geuen health vnto Syria: He was alſo a myghty man, and expert in warre: [but he was] a leper.

2 And the Syrians had gonne out by companies, and had brought out of the countrey of Iſrael a litle mayde, and ſhe was with Naamans wyfe.

3 And ſhe ſayde vnto her lady, Woulde God, my lorde were with the prophete, that is in Samaria: for he woulde deliuer hym of his leproſie.

(a) Naaman.

4 And he (a) went in, & tolde his lord, ſayeing, Thus and thus ſayde the mayde, that is of the lande of Iſrael.

5 And the kyng of Syria ſayde, Goe thy way thyther, and I wyl ſende a letter vnto the kyng of Iſrael. And he departed, and tooke with him ten talentes of ſiluer, and ſixe thouſande peeces of golde, and tenne chaunges of raymentes.

6 And brought the letter to the kyng of Iſrael, conteynyng this tenour. Nowe, when this letter is comme vnto thee, beholde, I haue therewith ſent Naaman my ſeruant to thee, that thou mayeſt ridde him of his leproſie.

7 And it fortuned, that when the kyng of Iſrael had red the letter, he rent his clothes, and ſayde, * Am I God, that I ſhoulde ſlay, and make alyue? For he dooth ſende to me, that I ſhoulde deliuer a man from his leproſie: Wherefore conſyder, I pray you, and ſee how he ſeeketh a quarrel agaynſt me. B

Deu.32.f.

8 Whiche when Eliſa the man of God had hearde, how that the kyng of Iſrael had rent his clothes, he ſent to the king, ſaying, Wherfore haſt thou rent thy clothes? Let hym comme nowe to me: and he ſhal know, that there is a prophete in Iſrael.

9 And ſo Naaman came with his horſes, and with his charettes, and ſtoode at the doore of the houſe of Eliſa.

10 And Eliſa ſent a meſſenger vnto hym, ſayeing, Goe, and waſhe thee in Iordane ſeuen tymes, and thy fleaſhe ſhal comme agayne to thee, and thou ſhalt be cleanſed.

11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and ſayde, Beholde, I thought with mee ſelfe, he woulde ſurely comme out, and ſtande, and cal on the name of the Lorde his God, and put his hande on the place, that he may heale the leproſie.

12 Are not Abana & Pharphar riuers of Damaſco, better then al the waters of Iſrael? If I waſhe me alſo in them, ſhal I not be cleanſed? And ſo he turned hym, & departed with diſpleaſure.

13 And his ſeruantes came, and communed with hym, and ſayde, Father, yf the prophete had byd thee to doo ſomme great thyng, oughteſt thou not to haue donne it? Howe muche rather then, when he ſayth to thee, Waſhe, and be cleane?

C 14 Then went he downe, and waſhed hym ſelfe ſeuen tymes in Iordane, according to the ſayeing of the man of God: & his fleaſhe came agayne lyke vnto the fleaſhe of a litle chylde,* and he was cleanſed.

Luk, 4, e.

15 And he turned agayne to the man of God, he & al his companie, and ſtoode before hym, and ſayde, Beholde, I knowe nowe, that there is no God in al the worlde, but in Iſrael: Nowe therefore, I pray thee, take a ″ bleſſing of thy ſeruant.

16 But he ſayde, * As the Lorde lyueth, before whom I ſtande, I wyl receiue none: And when the other woulde haue conſtreyned hym to receiue it, he woulde not.

3, Reg, 17, a

17 And Naaman ſayde, Shal there not be geuen to thy ſeruant, as muche of this earth as two mules may beare? For thy ſeruant wil henceforth offer neyther burnt ſacrifice, nor offeryng vnto any other God, ſaue vnto the Lorde.

18 But herein the Lorde be merciful vnto thy ſeruant, that when my maiſter goeth into the houſe of Rimmon for to worſhip there, and leaneth on my hande, and I bowe mee ſelfe in the houſe of Rimmon, when I doo bowe downe, I ſay in the houſe of Rimmon, The Lorde be merciful vnto thy ſeruant becauſe of this thyng.

19 Unto whom he ſayd, (a) Goe in peace. And when he was departed from hym, as it were a furlong of grounde,

(a) The prophet did not approue his act, but after the common manner of ſpeache byd him farewel.

20 Gehezi the ſeruant of Eliſa the man of God, ſayde, Beholde, my maiſter hath ſpared Naaman this Syrian, that he woulde not receiue at his hande thoſe thynges, that he offered. As the Lorde liueth, I wyl runne after hym, and take ſommewhat of hym.

D 21 And ſo Gehezi folowed Naaman: And when Naaman ſawe hym runnyng after hym, he lighted downe from the charet to meete him, and ſayde, * Is al wel?

4, Re, 4. d,

22 He anſweared, Al is wel: Beholde, my maiſter hath ſent me, ſayeing, See, there be come to me euen nowe from mount Ephraim, two young menne of the chyldren of the prophetes: Geue them I pray thee, one talent of ſiluer, and two change of garmentes.

23 And Naaman ſayd, With a good wyl, take two talentes: And he conſtreyned hym, and bound two talentes of ſiluer in two bagges, with two change of garmentes, and layde them vpon two of his ſeruantes to beare them before hym.

24 And when he came to the lower place, he tooke [them] from theyr hand, and beſtowed [them] in the houſe, and he let the menne goe, and they departed.

25 But he went in, and ſtoode before his maiſter. And Eliſa ſayd vnto him, Whence commeſt thou Gehezi? He ſayde, Thy ſeruant went no whyther.

26 But he ſayde vnto hym, (b) Went not mine hart [with thee,] when the man turned agayne from his charet to meete thee? Is it nowe a tyme to receiue money, to receiue garmentes, oliue trees, vineyardes, ſheepe, and oxen, menne ſeruantes, and mayde ſeruantes.

(b) Was not I preſent with thee in ſpirite?

27 (c) The leproſie therefore of Naaman ſhal cleaue vnto thee, and vnto thy ſeede for euer. * And he went out from his preſence a leper, as whyte as ſnowe.

(c) Couetouſneſſe puniſhed.

The. vj. Chapter.

6 Eliſa maketh iron to ſwimme aboue the water. 8 He diſcloſeth the kyng of Syriaes counſel to the kyng of Iſrael. 13 The kyng of Syriaes menne ſent to take Eliſa, were kept faſt in Samaria. 24 Samaria is beſieged, and endureth extreme famine.

A 1 THE children of the prophetes ſayde vnto Eliſa, Beholde, we pray thee, the place where we dwelle with thee, is to litle for vs:

2 Let vs goe, we pray thee, vnto Iordane, and take thence euery man a beame, and build vs a place to dwel in. And he anſweared, Goe.

3 And one ſayde, Be content, I pray thee, and comme with thy ſeruantes. And he anſweared, red, I wyl comme.

4 And ſo he went with them: And when they came to Joꝛdane, they cut downe wood.

5 But it foꝛtuned, that as one was fellyng downe of a tree, the axe head fel into the water: And he cryed, and ſayde, Alas maiſter, it was lent me.

6 And the man of God ſayde, Where felle it? And he ſhewed hym the place: And he cutte downe a ſticke, and caſt it in thyther, and immediatly the iron dyd ſwimme.

B 7 Therfoꝛe ſayd he, Take it vp. And he ſtreched out his hande, and tooke it vp.

8 But the king of Syꝛia warred againſt Iſrael, and tooke counſel with his ſeruantes, and ſayde, In ſuche and ſuche a place ſhalbe my campe.

9 And the man of God ſent vnto the kyng of Iſrael, ſayeing, Beware that thou goe not ouer to ſuch a place, foꝛ there the Syꝛians are lurkyng.

10 Therefoꝛe the kyng of Iſrael ſent to the place, whiche the man of God tolde him, and warned hym of, (a) and ſaued hym ſelfe from it, not once, noꝛ twyſe.

(a) God wyl diſcloſe the craftie counſel of the wicked.

11 And the hart of the kyng of Syꝛia was troubled foꝛ this thyng: and he called foꝛ his ſeruantes, and ſayde vnto them, Wyl ye not ſhew me, which of our meine [betrayeth me] to the kyng of Iſrael?

12 And one of his ſeruantes ſayde, None, my loꝛde, O king: But Eliſa the prophete, that is in Iſrael, telleth the kyng of Iſrael, yea euen the woꝛdes, that thou ſpeakeſt in thy priuy chamber.

13 He ſayd, Goe, and ſpye, where he is, that I may ſende, and fet hym. And one tolde hym, ſayeing, Beholde, he is in Dothan.

C 14 Therefoꝛe ſent he thither hoꝛſes and charettes, and a myghty hoſt: and they came by nyght, and compaſſed the citie about.

15 And when the ſeruant of the man of God roſe vp early to goe out, beholde, there was an hoſt rounde about the towne with hoꝛſes and charettes: And his ſeruant ſayde vnto hym, Alas maiſter, what ſhal we doo?

16 He anſweared, * Feare not: foꝛ they that be with vs, are moe then they, that be with them.

2,Par, 22.a

17 And Eliſa prayed, and ſayde, Loꝛde, I beſeche thee, open his eyes, that he may ſee. And the Loꝛd opened the eyes of the young man: and he looked: and beholde the mountayne was ful of hoꝛſes, and charettes of fyꝛe round about Eliſa.

18 And when they came downe to hym, Eliſa prayed vnto the Loꝛde, and ſayd, Smite this people, I pray thee, with * blyndeneſſe. And he ſmote them with blyndeneſſe, accoꝛdyng to the woꝛde of Eliſa.

Gen. 19,c. Sapi, 19,c,

19 And Eliſa ſayde vnto them, This is not the way, neyther is this the towne: folowe me, and I wyl bꝛing you to the man whom ye ſeeke. But he led them to Samaria.

20 But it foꝛtuned, that when they were come to Samaria, Eliſa ſayde, Loꝛde open theyꝛ eyes, that they may ſee. And the Loꝛde opened theyꝛ eyes, and they ſawe, and beholde they were in the middes of Samaria.

21 And the kyng of Iſrael ſayde vnto Eliſa, when he ſawe them: My father, ſhal I ſmite them? ſhal I ſmite them? D

22 And he anſweared, Thou ſhalt not ſmyte them: But ſmite thoſe, that thou haſt taken with thyne owne ſwoꝛde, and with thyne owne bowe: But rather ſet bꝛead and water befoꝛe them, that they may eate & dꝛynke, and goe to theyꝛ maiſter.

23 And he pꝛepared a great refection foꝛ them, and when they had eaten and dꝛunken, he ſent them away, and they went to their maiſter: And ſo the ſouldiours of Syꝛia came no moꝛe into the lande of Iſrael.

24 After this it chanced, that Benhadad kyng of Syꝛia geathered al his hoſt, & went vp, and beſieged Samaria.

25 But there was a great dearth in Samaria: and beholde, they beſieged it, vntil an aſſes head was ſolde foꝛ foureſcoꝛe ſiluer pence, & the fourth part of a (b) cab of doues doung was ſolde foꝛ fiue peeces of ſiluer.

(b) The Hebꝛues wꝛite, that they burned it in the ſiege foꝛ lacke of wood.

26 And as the kyng of Iſrael was goeyng vpon the walle, there cryed a woman vnto him, ſayeing, Helpe me, my loꝛd, O kyng.

27 He ſayde, If the Loꝛd doo not ſuccour thee, wherewith can I helpe thee? With the barne, oꝛ with the wynepꝛeſſe?

28 And the kyng ſayde vnto her, What wylt thou? She anſweared, Yonder woman ſayde vnto me, Bꝛyng thy ſonne, that we may eate hym to day, and we wyl eate mine to moꝛowe. E

29 * And ſo we dꝛeſſed my ſonne, and dyd eate him: And I ſayd to her the other day, Bꝛing thy ſonne, that we may eate hym: And ſhe hath hyd her ſonne.

Leui. 26.d Deut.28.f. Thre.4.b.

30 And it came to paſſe, that when the kyng hearde the woꝛdes of the woman, he rent his clothes, and went vp on the wal, and the people looked, and behold, he had a ſackcloth vnder (c) vpon his fleaſhe.

(c) Thus hypocrites ſeyng gods iudgement, thinke to pleaſe hym with outward ceremonies, whom in pꝛoſperitie they wyl not knowe.

31 Then he ſayde, * God doo ſo, and moꝛe alſo to me, yf the head of Eliſa the ſonne of Saphat ſhal ſtande on hym this day.

3,Re,19,a.

32 But Eliſa ſate in his houſe (and the elders ſate by hym) And the kyng ſent a man before him: but ere the meſſenger came to him, he ſayde to the elders, Haue ye not ſeene, how that the ſonne of this murtherer hath ſent to take away myne head? Be circumſpect, when the meſſenger commeth, and ſhut the doore, and holde hym at the doore: Is not the ſounde of his maiſters feete behynd hym?

33 Whyle he yet talked with them: beholde, the meſſenger came downe vnto hym, and ſayde, Beholde, this euyl is of the Lorde: And what more ſhal I looke for of the Lorde?

The.vii.Chapter.

1 Eliſa propheſieth plentie of vittayle, and other thinges to Samaria. 6 The Syrians runne away, and haue no man folowyng them. 17 The prince that woulde not beleue the worde of Eliſa, is trodden to death.

A 1 Then Eliſa ſayde, Heare ye the worde of the Lorde: To morowe by this time [ſhal] a buſhel of fine flowre [be ſolde] for a ſicle, and two buſhels of barley for a ſicle, in the gate of Samaria.

2 Then a certayne lorde (on whoſe hand the kyng leaned) anſweared the man of God, & ſayde, Beholde, yf the Lorde woulde make windowes in heauen, myght this ſayeing comme to paſſe? He ſayde, Beholde, thou ſhalt ſee it with thyne eyes, but ſhalt not eate thereof.

3 And there were foure leperous menne at the entring in of the gate: And they ſayde one to another, Why ſit we here vntil we dye?

4 If we ſay, we wyl enter into the citie: beholde, the dearth is in the citie, and we ſhal dye therein: And yf we ſit ſtil here, we dye alſo. Nowe therefore comme, and let vs falle vpon the hoſt of the Syrians: If they ſaue our lyues, we ſhal liue: If they kille vs, then are we dead.

5 And they roſe vp in the twylyght, to goe to the hoſt of the Syrians: and when they were comme to the vtmoſt part of the hoſte of Syria, beholde there was no man there.

6 For the Lord had made the hoſt of the Syrians * to heare a noyſe of charettes, and a noyſe of horſes, and the noyſe of a great hoſte: Inſomuche that they ſayde one to another, Lo, the kyng of Iſrael hath hyred agaynſt vs the kynges of the Hethites, & the kynges of the Egyptians, to comme vpon vs.

Eſai.13.a.

B 7 Wherefore they aroſe, and fled in the twylyght, and leaft their tentes, theyr horſes, and theyr aſſes, and the feelde, whiche they had pitched, euen as it was, (a) and fled for theyr lyues.

8 And when theſe lepers came to the edge of the hoſt, they went into a tent, and dyd eate and drynke, and caryed thence ſiluer, & golde, and rayment, and went and hyd it: & came agayne, and entred into another tent, and caryed thence alſo, and went and hyd it.

9 Then ſayd one to another, We do not wel this day, foraſmuche as it is a day to bryng good tydynges, and we holde our peace. If we tarrie tyl the day lyght, ſomme miſcheefe wyl comme vpon vs: Now therefore cōme, that we may goe & tel the kinges houſehold.

10 And ſo they came, and called vnto the porter of the citie, and tolde them, ſayeing, We came to the pauilions of the Syrians, & ſee there was no man there, neyther voyce of man: but horſes, and aſſes tied, and the tentes were euen as they were wont to be.

11 And ſo the man called vnto the porters, and they tolde the kinges houſe within.

12 And the kyng aroſe in the nyght, and ſaide vnto his ſeruauntes, (b) I wyl ſhew you now, what yͤ Syrians haue donne vnto vs: They knowe, that we be hungry: and therefore are they gonne out of the pauilions to hyde themſelues in the feelde, ſayeing, When they cōme out of the citie, we ſhal catche them aliue, & geat in to the citie.

13 And one of his ſeruauntes anſweared, and ſayde, Let menne take, I pray you, fiue of the horſes, that remayne and are leaft in the multitude: (behold, they are euen as al yͤ multitude of Iſrael, that are leaft in the citie: Beholde [I ſay] they are euen as al the multitude of the Iſraelites, that are conſumed) and we wyl ſende, and ſee.

C 14 They tooke therefore the horſes of two charettes, and the kyng ſent after the hoſte of the Syrians, ſayeing, Goe, and ſee.

15 And they went after them euen vnto Iordane, and loe, al the way was ful of clothes, and veſſels, whiche the Syrians hadde caſt from them in their haſte: And the meſſengers returned, and tolde the kyng.

16 And the people went out, and ſpoyled the tentes of yͤ Syrians: And ſo it came to paſſe, that a buſhel of fine flowre was ſolde for a ſicle, and two buſhels of barly for a ſicle, according to the worde of the Lorde.

17 And the kyng appoynted that Lorde (on whoſe hand he leaned) to be at the gate: And

(a) The wicked neede no greater enimie, then theyr owne conſcience to purſue them.

(b) He miſtruſted the prophetes wordes, and as one more politike then godly, caſt more perils then needed.

(c) The faithleſſe derider of Gods prophete puniſhed.

the people[c] trode vpon hym in the gate, and he dyed, accordyng to the woorde of the man of GOD, whiche he ſayde, when the kyng came downe to hym.

4.Reg.7.a

18 And ſo came the thyng to paſſe, that the man of God had ſpoken to the kyng, ſayeing, Two buſhelles of barly for a ſicle, and a buſhel of fine flowre for another, ſhalbe * to morowe this tyme in the gate of Samaria.

19 Whereunto that lorde anſwered the man of God, and ſayde, Yea, and yf the Lorde made windowes in heauen, myght it cōme to paſſe? And he ſayde, Beholde, thou ſhalt ſee it with thyne eyes, and ſhalt not eate thereof.

20 And euen ſo chaunced it vnto hym: For the people trode vpon hym in the gate, and he dyed.

The. viii. Chapter.

1 Eliſa propheſied vnto the Sunamite, the dearth of ſeuen yeeres. 11 He propheſieth to Hazael that he ſhalbe kyng of Syria. 15 Hazael raigneth after Benhadad. 16 Ioram raigneth ouer Iuda. 20 Edom falleth from Iuda. Ohoziah ſucceedeth Ioram.

4.Reg.7.a

A 1 Then ſpake * Eliſa vnto the woman (whoſe ſonne he had reſtoared to lyfe agayne) ſayeing, Up, and goe thou & thyne houſe, and ſoiourne whereſoeuer thou canſt: For the Lorde hath called for a dearth, and the ſame ſhal comme vpon the lande ſeuen yeeres.

2 And the woman aroſe, and dyd after the ſayeing of the man of God, and went both ſhe and her houſholde, and ſoiourned in the lande of the Philiſtines ſeuen yeeres.

3 And at the ſeuen yeeres ende, it fortuned, that the woman came againe out of the land of the Philiſtines, and went out to calle vpon the kyng for her houſe, and for her lande.

4 And the kyng talked with Gehezi the ſeruant of the man of God, ſayeing, Tell me, I pray thee, al the great deedes, that Eliſa hath donne.

5 He tolde the kyng howe he had reſtoared a dead body to lyfe agayne: but in the meane time the woman, whoſe ſonne he had rayſed vp agayne, cryed to the kyng for her houſe, & for her lande: And Gehezi ſayd, My lorde, O kyng, this is the woman, & this is her ſonne, whom Eliſa rayſed vp agayne.

(a) The kyng cauſed that to be iuſtly reſtored, whiche was wrongfully holden from her.

6 And when the kyng aſked the woman, ſhe tolde hym: And ſo the kyng deliuered her a chamberlayne, ſayeing, Reſtoare thou vnto her al that is hers, and al the (a) fruites of the feelde, ſence the day that ſhe leaſt the lande, vnto this tyme.

3.Reg.19.c

B 7 And * Eliſa came to Damaſco: and Benhadad the kyng of Syria was ſicke: And one tolde hym, ſayeing, The man of God is comme hyther.

3.Reg.14.a

8 And the kyng ſayde vnto Hazael, * Take a preſent in thyne hande, and goe meete the man of GOD, that thou mayeſt inquire of the Lorde by hym, ſayeing, Shal I recouer of this diſeaſe?

9 And ſo Hazael went to meete hym, & tooke the preſent with hym, & of euery good thyng of Damaſco, euen as muche as fourtie cammelles coulde beare: and came and preſented hym ſelfe before hym, and ſayde, Thy ſonne Benhadad kyng of Syria hath ſent me to thee, ſayeing, Shal I recouer of this diſeaſe?

10 And Eliſa ſayde vnto hym, Goe, and ſay vnto hym, Thou ſhalt (b) recouer: howbeit the Lorde hath ſhewed me, that he ſhal ſurely dye.

(b) Meanyng that he ſhould not dye of that diſeaſe, yet he ſhoulde dye by the hande of Hazael the meſſenger.

11 He looked vpon hym ſtedfaſtly, vntyl he was aſhamed: and the man of God wept.

12 And Hazael ſayde, Why weepeth my lorde? He anſwered, For I know the euil thinges, that thou ſhalt doo vnto the chyldren of Iſrael: for their ſtrong cities ſhalt thou ſet on fire, and their young menne ſhalt thou ſlay with the ſworde, and ſhalt daſhe out the braynes of their ſuckyng chyldren, and al to teare their women with chylde.

13 But Hazael ſayde, What is thy ſeruant a dogge, that I ſhoulde doo this great thyng? And Eliſa anſwered, The Lorde hath ſhewed me, that thou ſhalt be kyng of Syria.

14 And ſo he departed from Eliſa, and came to his maiſter: whiche ſayde to hym, What ſayde Eliſa to thee? He anſwered, He tolde me, that thou ſhouldeſt recouer. C

15 And on the morowe it fortuned, that he tooke a thicke cloth, & dypt it in water, and (c) ſpreade it on his face: and he died, and Hazael raigned in his ſteede.

(c) Hazael vnder pretence to refreaſh the kyng, ſtyfeled him with this cloth.

16 The fifth yeere of Ioram the ſonne of Ahab kyng of Iſrael, Iehoſaphat beeyng alſo kyng of Iuda, Ioram the ſonne of Iehoſaphat kyng of Iuda began to raigne.

2.Par.21.a

17 * Thirtie & two yeeres olde was he, when he began to raigne, and he raigned eyght yeeres in Hieruſalem.

18 And he walked in the wayes of the kinges of Iſrael, as they, that were of the houſe of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his wyfe, and he dyd euyl in the ſyght of the Lorde.

2.Reg.7.e. 19 And the Lorde woulde not deſtroy Iuda [and that] becauſe of Dauid his ſeruant,* as he promiſed him, to geue him alway a lyght among his chyldren.

2.Reg.8.c. 3.Re.22.g. 1.Par.21.a. 20 In thoſe dayes Edom rebelled from vnder the hand of Iuda: for they made them a king of their owne.

D 21 So Ioram went to Zair, he and al his charettes with him: And he roſe by nyght, and ſmote the Edomites, whiche compaſſed him in with the captaynes of his charettes, and the people fled into their tentes.

22 But Edom rebelled, ſo that he would not be vnder the hande of Iuda vnto this day: Then Libnah rebelled that ſame tyme.

23 The reſt of the wordes, that concerne Ioram, and al that he dyd, are they not written in the booke of the chronicles of the kynges of Iuda?

24 And Ioram reaſted with his fathers, and was buryed beſide his fathers in the citie of Dauid: And* Ahaziahu his ſonne raigned in his ſteede. 2.Par.22.a

25 In the twelfth yeere of Ioram the ſonne of Ahab kyng of Iſrael, dyd Ahaziahu the ſonne of Ioram kyng of Iuda beginne to raigne.

26 Two and twentie yeeres olde was Ahaziahu, when he began to raigne, & he raigned one yeere in Hieruſalem: and his mothers name was Athaliahu, the daughter of Omri king of Iſrael.

27 But he walked in the way of the houſe of Ahab, & dyd euyl in the ſight of the Lorde [euen] as dyd the houſe of Ahab: for he was the ſonne in lawe of the houſe of Ahab. E

28 And he went with Ioram the ſonne of Ahab, to warre againſt Hazael kyng of Syria in Ramoth Gilead, and the Syrians wounded Ioram.

29 And* kyng Ioram went backe agayne to be healed in Iezrahel of the woundes, whiche the Syrians had geuen him at Ramoth, when he fought agaynſt Hazael kyng of Syria: And Ahaziahu the ſonne of Ioram, kyng of Iuda, went downe to ſee Ioram, the ſonne of Ahab in Iezrahel, becauſe he was ſicke there. 4.Re.9.c.

The.ix.Chapter.

6 Iehu is made kyng of Iſrael. 24 And kylleth Ioram the kyng thereof, 27 and Ahaziah, otherwyſe called Ochozias the kyng of Iuda. 33 And cauſeth Iezabel to be caſt downe out of a windowe, and the dogges dyd eate her.

1 AND Eliſa the prophete called one of the chyldren of the prophetes, and ſayd vnto hym,* Gyrde vp thy loynes, and take this boxe of oile in thine hand, and geat thee to Ramoth [in] Gilead. 4.Re.4.c.

2 And when thou commeſt thyther, looke where is Iehu, the ſonne of Iehoſaphat, the ſonne of Nimſi: and goe to hym, and make hym ryſe vp from among his brethren, and carrie hym to a ſecrete chamber.

3 Then take the boxe of oyle, and powre it on his head, and ſay, Thus ſayth the Lorde, I haue annoynted thee to be kyng ouer Iſrael: And then open the doore, and flee without any taryeing.

4 And ſo the ſeruant of ẏͤ prophete gate hym to Ramoth Gilead:

5 And when he came in, behold, the captaines of the hoſte were ſitting togeather: And he ſaide, I haue an errande to thee, O captaine.

3.Re.19.d. (a) This annoyntyng was for kynges, prieſtes, and prophetes, which were al figures of Meſſias, in whom theſe three offices were accompliſhed.

6 And Iehu ſayde, Unto whiche of al vs? He ſayde, To thee, O captayne. And he aroſe, and went into the houſe, and he powred the oyle on his head, and ſayde vnto hym, Thus ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael,* I haue(a) annoynted thee to be kyng ouer the people of the Lorde, euen ouer Iſrael.

B 7 Thou ſhalt ſmite the houſe of Ahab thy maiſter, that I may auenge the blood of my ſeruantes the prophetes, and the blood of al the ſeruantes of the Lorde, of the hande of Iezabel:

8 For the whole houſe of Ahab ſhalbe deſtroyed, and* I wyl deſtroy from Ahab [euen] hym, that maketh water agaynſt the wal, and hym that is pryſoned and forſaken in Iſrael: 3.Re.21.f.

9 And I wyl make the houſe of Ahab, lyke the houſe of Ieroboam, the ſonne of Nabat, & like the houſe of Baaſa the ſonne of Ahia.

10 And as for Iezabel,* the dogges ſhal eate her in the feelde of Iezrahel: and there ſhalbe none to burie her. And he opened the doore, and fled. 4.Re.19.f.

11 Iehu came out to the ſeruantes of his lord, and one ſayde vnto hym, Is al wel? Wherefore came this mad felowe to thee? And he ſayde vnto them, Ye knowe, what manner of man it is, & what his communication is.

12 They ſayde vnto hym agayne, It is not ſo: telle vs. He ſayde, Thus and thus ſpake he to me, ſayeing, Thus ſayth the Lorde, I haue annoynted thee to be kyng ouer Iſrael.

13 Then they haſted, and tooke euery man his garment, and put it vnder hym on the toppe of the ſtaires, and blewe with trumpettes, ſayeing, Iehu is kyng.

C 14 And ſo Iehu the ſonne of Iehoſaphat, the ſonne of Nimſi, conſpired agaynſt Ioram: (Ioram kept Ramoth Gilead, he and al Iſrael, becauſe of Hazael kyng of Syria:

4.Re.8.g. 15 And* kyng Ioram returned to be healed in Iezrahel of the woundes, whiche the Syrians had geuen hym when he fought with Hazael kyng of Syria) And Iehu ſayde, If it be your mindes, then let no man departe, and eſcape out of the citie, to goe and telle in Iezrahel.

16 So Iehu gate vp [into a charet] and went to Iezrahel, where Ioram lay: and Ahaziahu kyng of Iuda was comme downe thyther to ſee Ioram.

17 And the watcheman, that ſtoode on the towre in Iezrahel, ſpied the companie of Iehu as he came, and ſayde, I ſee a companie. And Ioram ſayde, Take an horſeman, and ſende to meete them, that he may aſke, whether be peace.

18 And ſo there went one on horſebacke, to meete hym, and ſayde, Thus ſayth the king, Is it peace? And Iehu ſayde, What haſt thou to doo with peace? turne thee behynde me. And the watcheman tolde, ſayeing, The meſſenger came to them, but he commeth not agayne.

19 Then he ſent out another on horſebacke, whiche came to them, and ſayd, Thus ſayth the king, Is it peace? Iehu anſweared, What haſt thou to doo with peace? turne thee behynde me.

D 20 And the watcheman tolde, ſayeing, He came to them alſo, & commeth not agayne: And the dryuing is lyke the dryuing of Iehu the ſonne of Nimſi: for he dryueth the charet as he were mad.

21 And Ioram ſayde, Make ready. And the charet was made ready. And Ioram kyng of Iſrael, and Ahaziahu kyng of Iuda, went out eyther of them in his charet agaynſt Iehu, and met him in the feelde of Naboth the Iezrahelite.

22 And it fortuned, that when Ioram ſawe Iehu, he ſayd, Is it peace Iehu? He anſweared, What peace ſhoulde there be, ſo long as the whoredomes of thy mother Iezabel, & her wytchcraftes are ſo great?

23 And Ioram turned his hande, and fled, and ſayde to Ahaziahu, There is falſhood, O Ahaziahu.

24 And Iehu tooke a bowe in his hande, and ſmote Ioram betweene the armes, and the arrow went through his hart, & he fel downe flat in his charet.

25 Then ſayde Iehu to Bidkar a captayne, Take [him] and caſt hym in the plat of the ground of Naboth the Iezrahelite: For I remember, that when I and thou rode togeather after Ahab his father, the Lorde layed his heauy burthen vpon hym:

26 I haue ſeene yeſterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his ſonnes, ſayde the Lorde: and I wil requite it thee in this ground, ſaith the Lorde. Nowe therefore take [him] and caſt hym in the plat of grounde, accordyng to the woorde of the Lorde. E

27 But when Ahaziahu the kyng of Iuda ſawe this, he fled by the way of the garden houſe: And Iehu folowed after hym, and ſayde, Smite him alſo in the charet, at the goeing vp to Gur by Iebleam. And he fled to Megiddo, and there dyed.

28 And his ſeruantes caryed hym in a charet to Hieruſalem, and buried hym there in his ſepulchre with his fathers in the citie of Dauid.

29 And in the eleuenth yeere of Ioram the ſonne of Ahab, beganne Ahaziahu to raigne ouer Iuda.

30 And when Iehu was comme to Iezrahel, Iezabel hearde of it, and painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window.

31 And as Iehu entred at the gate, ſhe ſayde, Had (b) Zimri peace, which ſlue his maiſter?

(b) As though ſhe ſhould ſay, treaſon can haue no good ſucceſſe.

32 And he lyfted vp his eyes to the window, & ſayde, Who is of my ſide? Who? And there looked out to hym two or three chamberlaynes.

33 And he ſayd, Throwe her downe. So they threwe her downe, and her blood daſhed towarde the wal, and towarde the horſes: and he troode her vnder foote. F

34 And when he was comme in, he dyd eate and drinke, and ſayd, Goe and viſite, I pray you, yonder curſed creature, and burie her:* for ſhe is a kynges daughter. 3.Re.16.g.

35 And ſo when they came to burie her, they founde no more of her, then the ſkul, and the feete, and the palmes of her handes.

36 Wherefore they came agayne, and tolde hym: And he ſayde, This is the woord of the Lorde, whiche he ſpake by the hande of his ſeruant Elias the Theſbite, ſayeing,* In the feelde of Iezrahel ſhal dogges eate the fleaſh of Iezabel. 3.Re.21.f.

37 And ſo the carkeſſe of Iezabel was euen as dounge vpon the earth in yͤ feelde of Iezrahel, ſo that no man might ſay, This is Iezabel.

The .x. Chapter.

6 Iehu cauſeth the ſeuentie ſonnes of Ahab to be ſlayne. 13 And after that, fourtie and two of Ahaziahs brethren. 25 He kylleth alſo al the prieſtes of Baal. 35 After his death his ſonne raigneth in his ſteede.

A 1 Ahab had * threeſcore and ten ſonnes in Samaria: And Iehu wrote letters, and ſent to Samaria, vnto the rulers of Iezrahel, to the elders, and to them, that brought vp Ahabs chyldren, ſayeing, Ioſ.viii.g.

2 Nowe when this letter commeth to you, (ye that haue with you your maiſters ſõnes, ye haue with you both charettes and horſes; a ſtrong citie haue ye alſo, and harneſſe)

3 Looke, whiche of your maiſters ſonnes is beſt and moſt meete: and ſet hym on his fathers ſeate, and fight for your lordes houſe.

4 But they were exceedyngly afrayde, and ſayde, See, two kynges were not hable to ſtande before hym: how ſhal we then be hable to ſtande?

5 And he, that was gouernour of Ahabs houſe, and he that ruled the citie, the elders alſo, and the tutours, ſent to Iehu, ſayeing, We are thy ſeruantes, and wyl doo al that thou ſhalt bid vs: we wyl make no man kyng, therefore doo thou, what ſeemeth good in thyne eyes.

6 Then he wrote another letter to them, ſayeing, If ye be myne, and wyl hearken vnto my voyce, then take the heades of the menne that are your maiſters ſonnes, and comme to me to Iezrahel by to morow this time: (And the kynges ſonnes were threeſcore and tenne perſones, & they were with the great menne of the citie, whiche brought them vp.)

B 7 And when the letter came to them, they tooke the kynges chyldren, and ſlue them, euen threeſcore and ten perſones, and layed their heades in baſkettes, and ſent them to hym to Iezrahel.

8 And there came a meſſenger, and tolde him, ſayeing, They haue brought the heades of the kynges ſonnes. And he ſayde, Let them lay them on two heapes in the entryng in of the gate, vntyl the mornyng.

9 And when it was day, he went out, and ſtoode, and ſayde to al the folke, Ye [illegible] ryghteous: Behold, I conſpired againſt my maiſter, and ſlue hym: But who ſlue al theſe?

10 Learne here, that there ſhal falle vnto the earth nothyng of the woorde of the Lorde, whiche he ſpake, concernyng the houſe of Ahab: for the Lorde hath brought to paſſe the thinges, that he ſpake by the hande of his ſeruant * Elias.

3.Re.21.f.

11 And ſo Iehu ſlue al that remayned of the houſe of Ahab in Iezrahel, and al that were great with hym, and his kinſfolkes, and his prieſtes, ſo that he let nothyng of hym remayne.

12 And he aroſe, and departed, and came to Samaria: And when Iehu was in the way of the houſe, where yͤ ſhepheardes dyd ſheare their ſheepe,

C 13 He met with the brethren of Ahaziahu king of Iuda, and ſayde, What are ye? They anſweared, The brethren of Ahaziahu are we, and goe downe to ſalute the chyldren of the kyng, and of the queene.

14 And he ſayde, Take them aliue. Whom when they had taken aliue, they ſlue them at the wel, whiche was beſide the houſe, where the ſheepe are ſhorne, euen two and fourtie menne, neyther leaft he any of them.

15 And when he was departed thence, he met with Iehonadab, the ſonne of * Rechab commyng agaynſt hym, and he bleſſed him, and ſayde to hym, Is thyne hart ryght, as myne hart is true with thyne? And Iehonadab anſweared, Yea, that it is. Then geue me thine hande. And when he had geuen hym his hande, he tooke hym vp to hym into the charette, Iere.25.a.

16 And ſayde, Comme with me, and ſee the zeale, that I haue for the Lorde. And ſo they made hym ryde in his charet.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he ſlue al that remayned vnto Ahab in Samaria, tyll he had wiped hym out, accordyng to the ſayeing of yͤ Lorde, whiche he ſpake to Elias.

18 And Iehu gathered al the people togeather, and ſayde vnto them, * Ahab ſerued (a) Baal a litle: but Iehu ſhal ſerue hym more.

2.Re.16.g.

(a) Baal ſignifieth Aſtaroth, the idol of the Sidonions.

D 19 Nowe therefore calle vnto me al the prophetes of Baal, al ſuche as ſerue hym, and al his prieſtes, and let none be lackyng: For I haue a great ſacrifice to doo to Baal: & therefore whoſoeuer is miſſed, he ſhal not liue. But Iehu dyd it for a ſutteltie, to the intent that he might deſtroy the ſeruantes of Baal.

20 And Iehu ſayde, Proclayme an holy conuocation for Baal. And they proclaymed it.

21 And Iehu ſent vnto al Iſrael, and al the ſeruantes of Baal came, that there was not a man leaft behinde that came not: And they came into the houſe of Baal, and the houſe of Baal was ful from one ende to another.

22 And he ſayde vnto hym that was the keeper of the veſtrie: Bryng foorth garmentes for al the ſeruantes of Baal. And he brought them out garmentes.

23 And when Iehu went with Iehonadab, the ſonne of Rechab into the houſe of Baal, he ſaid vnto the ſeruantes of Baal, Search, and looke, that there be here with you none of the ſeruantes of yͤ Lorde, but the ſeruantes of Baal only.

24 And when they went in to offer ſacrifice, and burnt offering, Iehu appoynted foure ſcore menne without, and ſayde, If any of the menne whō I haue brought vnder your handes eſcape, he that letteth hym goe, ſhal dye for hym.

25 And it fortuned, that as ſoone as he hadde made an ende of offering the burnt ſacrifice, Iehu ſaide to the menne of warre, and to the captaynes, Goe in, and ſlay them: let none comme out. And they ſmote them with the edge of the ſwoorde: And yͤ menne of warre, and the captaynes caſt them out, and went to the citie of the temple of Baal,

26 And fette the images out of the temple of Baal, and burnt them.

E 27 And they brake the image of Baal, and brake the houſe of Baal, and made a draft houſe of it vnto this day.

28 And ſo Iehu deſtroyed Baal out of Iſrael.

29 But from the ſinnes of Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat, which made Iſrael to ſinne, Iehu departed not from them, [neither from] the golden calues that were in Bethel and in Dan.

30 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Iehu, Becauſe thou haſt donne ryght wel, in bringyng to paſſe the thyng, that is ryght in myne eyes, and haſt donne vnto the houſe of Ahab accordyng to al thinges, that are in myne hart, therefore ſhal thy * chyldren vnto the fourth generation ſit on the ſeate of Iſrael. 4.Re.15.c.

31 But Iehu cared not for this, to walke in the lawe of the Lorde God of Iſrael with al his hart: for he departed not from the ſinnes of Ieroboam, whiche made Iſrael to ſinne.

32 In thoſe dayes the Lorde began to cut Iſrael ſhort, * and Hazael ſmote them in al the coſtes of Iſrael, 4.Re.8.c.

33 From Iordane eaſtward, euen al the land of Gilead, the Gadites, the Rubenites, and them that were of Manaſſes, from Aroer, (whiche is by the riuer Arnon) euen Gilead and Baſan.

34 The reſt of the woordes, that concerne Iehu, and al that he dyd, and al his power, are they not wrytten in the booke of the Chronicles of the kynges of Iſrael: F

35 And Iehu ſlept with his fathers, and they buryed him in Samaria, and Iehoahas his ſonne, raigned in his ſteede.

36 And the tyme, that Iehu raigned vpon Iſrael in Samaria, is twentie and eyght yeeres.

The.xi.Chapter.

1 Athalia putteth to death al the kynges ſonnes, except Ioas the ſonne of Ohoſiah. 4 Ioas is appoynted kyng. 15 Iehoiada cauſeth Athalia to be ſlayne. 17 He maketh a couenant betweene God and the people. 18 Baal and his prieſtes are deſtroyed.

A 1 AND Athalia the mother of Ahaziahu, when ſhe ſawe, that her ſonne was dead, ſhe aroſe, and deſtroyed al the kynges ſeede.

2 But Iehoſaba, yͤ daughter of kyng Ioram, and ſyſter of Ahaziahu, tooke Ioas the ſonne of Ahaziahu, and ſtale hym from among the kynges ſonnes, that were ſlayne, and his nurſe with hym in the bedde chamber: and hyd hym from Athalia, that he was not ſlayne.

3 And he was with her hid in the houſe of the Lorde ſixe yeeres: And Athalia dyd raigne ouer the lande.

4 And the ſeuenth yeere Iehoiada ſent and fet the rulers ouer hundredes, with the captaynes, and them of the garde, & tooke them to him into the houſe of the Lord, and made a bonde with them, & tooke an othe of them, in the houſe of the Lorde, and ſhewed them the kynges ſonne.

5 And he commaunded them, ſayeing, This it is, that ye muſt doo: One third part of you, whoſe duetie is to comme in on yͤ Sabboth day, ſhal keepe the watche of the kynges houſe:

6 And another thirde part ſhal keepe the gate of Sur: And another thirde part ſhal keepe the gate, whiche is behinde them of yͤ garde: and ſo ſhal ye keepe the watche of the houſe of Meſſah.

7 And two partes of you, that is, al that goe out on the Sabboth day, ſhal keepe the watche of the houſe of the Lorde about the kyng.

8 And ye ſhal compaſſe the king round about, and euery man ſhal haue his weapon in his hande: And whoſoeuer commeth within the ranges, let hym be ſlayne: And ſee, that ye be with the kyng, as he goeth out and in. B

2.Par.24.a

9 And the captaynes ouer the hundredes dyd accordyng to al thynges, that * Jehoiada the prieſte commaunded: and they tooke euery man his menne, that were to cōme in on the Sabboth day, with them, that ſhoulde goe out on the Sabboth, and came to Jehoiada the prieſt.

10 And to the captaynes ouer hundredes, dyd the prieſte geue kyng Dauids ſpeares and ſhieldes, that were in the temple.

11 And they of the garde ſtoode, & euery man had his weapon in his hande rounde about the kyng, from the right corner of the temple to the leaft, along by the aulter and the temple.

12 And he brought out the kinges ſonne, and put the crowne vpon hym, & deliuered hym * (a) the witneſſe, and made hym kyng, and annointed him: And they clapt their handes, and ſayde, God ſaue the kyng.

14 (b) And when ſhe looked, beholde, the king ſtood by a piller as the manner was, and the ſingers and the trumpettes by the kyng, and al the people of the lande reioyſed, and blewe with trumpettes: And Athalia rent her clothes, and cryed, Treaſon, treaſon.

15 But Jehoiada the prieſt commaunded the captaines of the hundredes, that had the rule of the hoſt, and ſayde vnto them, Haue her foorth of the ranges: and yf any folowe her, kyl hym with the ſworde. For the prieſt had ſayde, She may not be ſlayne in the houſe of the Lorde.

16 And they layde handes on her, tyl ſhe came into the way, by the whiche the horſes went in to the kynges palace, and there was ſhe ſlaine.

2.Par.23.c

17 * And Jehoiada made a bonde betweene the Lorde, and the kyng, and the people, that they ſhoulde be the Lordes people: and alſo betweene the kyng and the people.

18 And al the people of the land went into the houſe of Baal, and deſtroyed it: his aulters alſo, and his images brake they downe luſtily, and ſlue Mathan the prieſte of Baal before the aulters: And the prieſt ſet watche ouer the houſe of the Lorde.

19 And tooke the rulers ouer hundredes, the captaynes, and them of the garde, and al the people of the lande: & they brought the kyng from the houſe of the Lorde, and came by the way of the gate of them of the garde to the kynges palace: and he ſate hym downe on the ſeate of the kynges.

1 AND Jehoas beganne to raigne in yͤ ſeuenth yeere of Jehu, fourtie yeeres raigned he in Hieruſalē: and his mothers name was Zebiah of Beerſeba.

(a) So long as rulers geue eare to the true miniſters of god, they proſper.

2 And he dyd that whiche was good in the ſyght of the Lorde, as long as (a) Jehoiada the prieſt enfourmed hym.

3 But the high places were not taken away: for the people offered & burnt incenſe yet vpon the hygh places.

4 And Jehoas ſayde to the prieſtes, Al the ſiluer of the dedicate thinges that be brought to the houſe of the Lorde, that is, the money of them that were numbred, the money that euery man is ſet at, & al the money that euery man with a wyllyng hart geueth & bringeth into the houſe of the Lorde:

5 Let the prieſtes take it to them, euery man of his acquaintance, to repayre the broken places of the houſe whereſoeuer any decaye is founde.

6 And ſo it came to paſſe, that vnto the three and twentith yeere of king Jehoas, the prieſtes had mended nothyng that was decayed in the temple.

7 Then kyng Jehoas called for Jehoiada the prieſt, and the other prieſtes, and ſayd vnto them, Why repayre ye not the broken places of the temple? Nowe therefore, ſee that ye receaue no more money of your acquayntance, except ye deliuer it to repayre the temple withal.

8 And yͤ prieſtes conſented to receaue no more money of the people, except to repayre the decayed places of the temple.

9 But Jehoiada the prieſt tooke a cheſt, and bored a hole in the lyd of it, and ſet it beſyde the aulter, on the ryght ſide as euery man commeth into the temple of the Lorde, and the prieſtes that kept the veſſels, put therein al the money that was brought into yͤ houſe

10 And it fortuned, that when they ſawe there was muche money in the cheſt, * the kinges ſcribe and the hye prieſt came vp, and told the money that was founde in the houſe of the Lord, and put it into a bagge.

4.Re.22.a.

11 And they gaue the money ſealed into the handes of them that executed the woorke, & that had the ouerſyght of the houſe of the Lord: and they brought it out to the carpenters and buylders that wrought vpon the houſe of the Lorde,

12 And to maſons, and hewers of ſlone: And they brought timber and free ſtone to repaire the decay in the houſe of the Lorde, and to al that went out to mende the temple.

13 Howbeit, there was not made for the houſe of the Lorde bowles of ſiluer, inſtrumentes of muſicke, baſons, trumpettes, or any veſſels of golde, or veſſels of ſiluer, of the money that was brought into yͤ houſe of the Lorde.

C 14 But they gaue that to the woorkemen, & repaired therewith the houſe of the Lorde.

15 Moreouer, they reckened not with the men into whoſe handes they deliuered that money to be beſtowed on woorkemen: for they dyd theyr buſineſſe faythfully:

16 Howbeit, treſpaſſe money, and ſinne money, was not brought into the houſe of the Lorde, for it was the prieſtes.

17 Then came Hazael kyng of Syria vp, and fought agaynſt Geth, and tooke it: And Hazael ſet his face to goe vp to Hieruſalem.

18 And Iehoas king of Iuda, tooke al the halowed thinges that Iehoſaphat, Iehoram, and Haziahu his fathers kynges of Iuda had dedicate, and that he hym ſelfe had dedicated, and al the golde that was founde in the treaſures of the houſe of the Lorde, and in the kynges houſe, & ſent it to Hazael kyng of Syria, and ſo he departed from Hieruſalem.

The.xiii.Chapter.

3 Iehoahaz the ſonne of Iehu is deliuered into the handes of the Syrians. 5 He prayeth vnto God, and is deliuered. 9 Ioas his ſonne raigneth in his ſteede. 24 Hazael dyeth. 26 Eliſa dyeth.

A 1 IN the three & twentith yeere of Ioas the ſonne of Ahaziahu kyng of Iuda, Iehoahaz the ſonne of Iehu began to raigne ouer Iſrael in Samaria ſeuēteene yeeres.

2 And he wrought that whiche was euil in the ſyght of the Lorde, & folowed the ſinnes of Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat, whiche made Iſrael to ſinne, and departed not therefrom.

3 And the Lorde was angry with Iſrael, and deliuered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hande of Benhadad the ſonne of Hazael al their dayes.

4 And Iehoahaz beſought the Lorde, and the Lorde hearde hym: For he conſydered the trouble of Iſrael, wherewith the kyng of Syria troubled them.

5 (And the Lorde gaue Iſrael a deliuerer, ſo that they went out from vnder the ſubiection of the Syrians: And the chyldren of Iſrael dwelt in their tentes as before tyme.

6 Neuertheleſſe, they departed not from the ſinnes of yͤ houſe of Ieroboam whiche made Iſrael ſinne, but walked in them: And there remayned an idols groue ſtil alſo in Samaria.)

7 Neither did he leaue of the people to Iehoahaz but fiftie horſemen, ten charettes, and ten thouſande footemen: * for the kyng of Syria deſtroyed them, and made them lyke threſhed duſt.

5 *And then the kyng of Aſſyria came vp throughout al the land, and gate vp agaynſt Samaria, and beſieged it three yeeres.

3.Eſd.13.c.

6 In the nynth yeere of Hoſea, the* kyng of Aſſyria tooke Samaria, and carryed Iſrael awaye vnto Aſſyria, and put them in Hala, and in Habor, by the ryuer of Goza, and in the cities of the (a) Medes.

(a) At that tyme the Medes and Perſians were ſubiect to the Aſſyrians.

7 For it came to paſſe, that the chyldren of Iſrael ſynned agaynſte the Lorde their God

B whiche had brought them out of the land of Egypt, from vnder the hande of Pharao kyng of Egypt, and feared other gods.

8 And they walked in the ceremonies of the heathen whom the Lorde caſt out before the chyldren of Iſrael, & [in the ceremonies] whiche the kynges of Iſrael had made:

9 And the chyldren of Iſrael went about to hyde thoſe thynges that were not wel from the lord their God, and they buylt them high places in al their cities, both in the townes where they kept watche, & alſo in the ſtrong townes:

10 And they made them images and groaues in euery hye hyl, and vnder euery thicke tree.

11 And there they burnt incenſe in al the hygh places, as dyd the heathen whom the Lorde carryed awaye before them, and wrought wicked thynges to anger the Lorde withal:

12 For they ſerued moſt vyle idols, wherof the Lorde had ſayd vnto them, * Ye ſhal doo no ſuche thyng.

Deu.4.c.

13 And the Lorde teſtified in Iſrael and in Iuda, by al the prophetes, and by al the ſears, ſayeing, Turne from your wicked wayes, & keepe my commaũdementes & my ſtatutes, accordyng to al the law which I commaunded your fathers, and whiche I ſent to you by my ſeruantes the prophetes.

Ier.25.b.

14 Notwithſtandyng, they would not heare, * but rather hardened their neckes, like to the ſtubbernneſſe of their (b) fathers, that dyd not beleue in the Lorde their God.

Deu.21.g.
Mala.3.b.

(b) It is not ſafe to folowe our fathers, except we can proue them godly.

15 For they refuſed his ſtatutes, & his appointment, that he made with their fathers, and the witneſſes wherewith he witneſſed vnto them, & they folowed vanitie, and became vaine, and went after the heathen that were rounde about them, concernyng whom the Lorde had charged them that they ſhoulde not doo lyke them.

16 But they leaft al the commaundementes of the Lord their God, and made them images of metal, *euen two calues, & [made] idol groaues, and woorſhypped al the (c) hoſte of heauen, aud ſerued Baal.

3.Re.12.c.

(c) That is the ſunne and the moone, & the ſtarres.

17 * And they ſacrificed their ſonnes and their daughters in fyre, and vſed witchecraftes, & enchauntmentes, euen ſellyng them ſelues to woorke wickedneſſe in the ſight of the lord, and to anger hym.

18 And the Lorde was exceedyng wroth with Iſrael, and put them out of his ſyght, * that there was leaft but the tribe of Iuda only.

3.Reg.12.d

19 Neuertheleſſe, Iuda alſo kept not the commaundementes of the Lorde their God, but walked in the ceremonies of Iſrael whiche they made.

20 And the Lorde caſt of al the ſeede of Iſrael, and vexed them, and delyuered them into the handes of ſpoylers, vntyl he had caſte them out of his ſyght.

21 For he (d) cut of Iſrael from the houſe of Dauid, and made them a king, euen Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat: And Ieroboam drewe

(d) That is the ten tribes.

Iſrael away that they ſhoulde not folowe the Lorde, and made them ſynne a greate ſynne.

22 For the chyldren of Iſrael walked in al the ſynnes of Jeroboam whiche he dyd, and departed not therfrom, 23 Untyl the Lord put Iſrael away out of his ſyght, as he had ſayde by al his ſeruantes the prophetes: And ſo was Iſrael carryed away out of their owne lande to Aſſyria, euen vnto this day.

24 And the kyng of Aſſyria brought menne from Babylon, from (e) Cutha, from Aua, from Hamath, and from Sepharuaim, and put them in the cities of Samaria, in ſteede of the chyldren of Iſrael: and they poſſeſſed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

(e) Of theſe people came the Samaritanes, of whom mention is made in the goſpel.

25 And it fortuned, that at the begynnyng of their dwelling there, they feared not the lord, and the lord ſent lions among them, whiche ſlue them.

26 Wherfore they ſpake to the kyng of Aſſyria, ſayeing, The nations which thou haſt tranſlated & put in the cities of Samaria, knowe not the lawe of the God of the lande: therfore he hath ſent lions vpon them, and beholde they ſlaye them, becauſe they knowe not the manner of woorſhyppyng the God of the lande.

E 27 Then the kyng of Aſſyria commaunded, ſayeing, Carrye thyther one of the prieſtes whom ye brought thence, and let hym goe & dwel there, and teache them the faſhion how to ſerue the God of the countrey.

28 And thē one of the prieſtes whom they had carryed from Samaria, came and dwelt in Bethel, and taught them howe they ſhoulde feare the Lorde.

29 Howbeit, euery nation made them gods of their owne, and put them in the houſes of the hygh places whiche the Samaritanes had made, euery nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 The menne of Babylon made Socoth Benoth, and the menne of Cuth made Nergal, and the menne of Hamath made Aſima, 31 The Auites made Nibhaz and Tharthak: and the Sepharuites burnt their chyldren in fyre for Adramelech & Anamelech, the gods of Sepharuaim.

32 And ſo they feared the Lorde, and made them prieſtes of yͤ baſiſt of them, which ſacrifiſed for them in the houſes of yͤ hygh places. F

33 And ſo (f) they feared the Lorde, and ſerued their owne gods, after the manner of the people whom they carryed thence.

(f) We canne not worſhyp God and idols

34 And vnto this day, they doo after the olde manner: and neyther feare God, neyther doo after their ordinances and cuſtomes, and after the lawe and commaundement whiche the Lord cōmaunded the chyldren of Jacob, * whom he called Iſrael. Gen, 32. c.

35 And the Lorde made an appoyntment with them, & charged them, ſayeing, * Feare none other goddes, nor bowe your ſelues to them, nor ſerue them, nor ſacrifice to them: Iud. 6. b. Iere. 10, a.

36 But feare the Lorde whiche brought you out of the lande of Egypt with great power, and a ſtretched out arme, hym feare, and to hym bowe, and to hym doo ſacrifice.

37 The ſtatutes, ordinances, lawe, and commaundemente whiche he wrote for you, ſee that ye be diligent to doo for euermore, and feare not any other gods.

38 And the appoyntment that I haue made with you, ſee ye forget not, and feare none other gods.

38 But the Lorde your God ye ſhal feare, and he ſhal delyuer you out of the handes of al your enemies.

40 Howbeit, they dyd not hearken, but dyd after their olde cuſtome.

41 And ſo theſe nations feared the Lord, and ſerued their images alſo, lyke as dyd their chyldren, and their chyldrens chyldren: euen as did their fathers, ſo doo thei vnto this day.

The. xviii. Chapter.

4 Hezekia kyng of Juda putteth downe the braſen ſerpent, and deſtroyeth the idols, 7 and proſpereth. 11 Iſrael is carryed away captiue. 30 The blaſphemie of Sennacherib.

A 1 IN the thirde yeere of Hoſea ſonne of Ela kyng of Iſrael, it came to paſſe that Hezekia the ſonne of Ahaz kyng of Juda dyd raigne.

2. Par, 29. f. 2 * Twentie and fyue yeeres olde was he when he beganne to raigne, and raigned twenty and nyne yeeres in Hieruſalem: His mothers name alſo was Abi, the daughter of Zacharia.

3 And he dyd that whiche is ryght in the ſyght of the Lorde, accordyng to al as dyd Dauid his father.

4 He (a) put away the high places, and brake the images, and cut downe the groaues, and al to brake the * braſen ſerpent that Moſes had made: For vnto thoſe dayes the children of Iſrael dyd burne ſacrifice to it: and he called it Nehuſtan. Num, 21. c

(a) It perteyneth to a good prince, to purge the churche of god

5 He truſted in the lorde God of Iſrael, ſo that after hym was none lyke hym among al the kynges of Juda, neyther were there anye ſuche before hym.

6 For he claue to the Lorde, and departed not from hym: but kept his commaundements, whiche the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

7 And the Lorde was with hym, ſo that he proſpered in al thynges whiche he tooke in hande: And he rebelled agaynſt the kyng of Aſſyria, and ſerued hym not.

8 He ſmote the Philiſtines euen vnto Azza, and the coaſtes thereof, both caſtelles where they kept watches, and ſtrong cities.

9 * And in the fourth yeere of kyng Hezekia, (which was the ſeuēth yeere of Hoſea ſonne of Ela kyng of Iſrael) it fortuned that Salmanazar kyng of Aſſyria came vp agaynſte Samaria, and beſieged it.

10 And after three yeeres they tooke it: euen in the ſyxth yeere of Hezekia (that is to ſaye, the nynth yeere of Hoſea king of Iſrael) Samaria was wonne.

11 And the kyng of Aſſyria dyd carrye awaye Iſrael vnto Aſſyria, and put them in Halah, and in Habor, by the ryuer of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes:

12 Becauſe they would not hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde their God, but tranſgreſſed his appoyntment, and al that Moſes the ſeruant of the Lorde commaunded: ⁊ would neyther heare them, nor doo them.

2.Par.32.a. Eſa.36.a. Eccl.48.d.

13 *Therefore in the fourtienth yeere of kyng Hezekia, dyd Sennacherib kyng of Aſſyria comme vp agaynſt al the ſtrong cities of Juda, and tooke them.

C

14 And Hezekia kyng of Juda, ſent to the kyng of Aſſyria to Lachis, ſaying, I haue offended: departe from me, and al that thou putteſt on me, that wyl I beare. And yͤ king of Aſſyria appoynted vnto Hezekia kyng of Juda, three hundred talentes of ſyluer, and thirtie talentes of golde.

4.Re.12.d.

15 * And Hezekia gaue hym al the ſyluer that was founde in the houſe of the Lord, and in the treaſures of the kynges houſe.

16 At the ſame ſeaſon dyd Hezekia rente of the doores of the temple of the Lord, and the pyllers (whiche the ſayde Hezekia kyng of Juda had couered ouer) and gaue them to the kyng of Aſſyria.

17 And the kyng of Aſſyria ſent (b) Tharthan, and Rabſaris, and Rabſakeh from Lachis, to kyng Hezekia with a great hoſt againſt Hieruſalem: and they went vp, and came to Hieruſalem, and gate them vp, & ſtoode by the conduite of the vpper poole, whiche is in the way of the fullers fielde.

(b) After certayne yeeres when Hezekia ceaſed to pay the appoynted tribute, the king of Aſſyria ſent his captaynes agaynſt hym.

Matth.1.b

18 And when they had called to the king, there came out to them * Eliakim the ſonne of Elkia, which was ſteward of the houſhold, and Sobna the ſcribe, and Joah the ſonne of Aſaph the recorder.

19 And Rabſakeh ſayde vnto them, Telle ye Hezekia, I praye you, thus ſayth the great kyng, euen the kyng of Aſſyria, What confidence is this that thou haſt?

D

20 Thou thynkeſt ſurely, I haue eloquence, but counſel & ſtrength are for the warre: On whom then dooeſt thou truſte, that thou rebelleſt agaynſt me?

Eſai.36.a. Eze.29.a.

21 *Dooeſt thou truſt to yͤ ſtaffe of this broken reede Egypt, on which if a man leane, it wil goe into his hand, & pearſe it: Euen ſo is Pharao king of Egypt vnto al that truſt on him.

2.Par.32.c.

22 * If ye ſaye vnto me, We truſt in the Lorde our God: Is not that he, whoſe hygh places & whoſe aulters Hezekia hath (c) put downe? and hath ſayde to Juda and Hieruſalem, Ye ſhal worſhyp before this aulter here in Hieruſalem.

(c) Idolaters thynke that gods religion is deſtroyed, when idolatry and ſuperſtition are remoued.

23 Nowe therfore, I pray thee, geue hoſtages to my lorde the kyng of Aſſyria, and I wyl delyuer thee two thouſande horſes, yf thou be able to ſet ryders vpon them:

24 Why thynkeſt thou ſcorne at the preſence of one of the leaſte dukes of my maiſters ſeruants, and truſteſt to Egypt for charets and horſemen?

25 Moreouer, am I comme nowe without the byddyng of the Lorde to this place, to deſtroy it? The Lorde ſayde to me, Goe vp to this lande, and deſtroy it.

26 And Eliakim the ſonne of Helkia, & Sobna, and Joah, ſaid vnto Rabſakeh, Speake, I pray thee, to thy ſeruantes in the Syrians language (for we vnderſtande it) and talke not with vs in the Jewes tongue, in the eares of this people that are on the wal.

27 And Rabſakeh ſaide vnto them, Hath my maiſter ſent me to thy maiſter and thee, to ſpeake theſe woordes? Hath he not ſent me becauſe of the menne whiche ſyt on the wal, that they maye eate their owne dongue, and drynke their owne pyſſe with you?

28 And ſo Rabſakeh ſtoode, and cryed with a lowde voyce in the Jewes language, and ſpake, ſayeing, Heare the woords of the great kyng, euen of the kyng of Aſſyria.

29 Thus ſayth the kyng, Let not Hezekia beguyle you, for he ſhal not be able to delyuer you out of myne hande:

30 Neyther let Hezekia make you to truſt in the Lorde, ſayeing, The Lorde ſhal ſurely delyuer vs, and this citie ſhal not be geuen ouer into the hande of the kyng of Aſſyria.

31 Hearken not vnto Hezekia: for thus ſayth yͤ kyng of Aſſyria, Deale kyndly with me, and comme out to me, and then eate euery man of his owne vine, and of his owne figge tree, and drynke euery man of the water of his owne wel,

32 Tyl I comme & fet you to as good a lande as yours is, a land of corne and wyne, a land of bread and vineyardes, a lande of oyle, of Olyue trees, and of hony, that ye maye lyue, and not dye: And hearken not vnto Hezekia, for he beguileth you, ſayeing, The Lord ſhal delyuer vs.

Eſai,20.d. 33 * Hath euery one of the goddes of the nations delyuered his lande out of the hande of the kyng of Aſſyria?

34 Where is the god of Hamath, and of Arphad? and where is the god of Sepharuaim, Hena, and Iua? Dyd they delyuer Samaria out of myne hande?

35 And what God is among al the goddes of the nations, that hath delyuered his land out of myne hande? (b) Shal the Lorde delyuer Hieruſalem out of myne hande?

(b) An execrable blaſphemie, to compare dead idols with the lyuyng God.

36 But the people helde their peace, & anſwered not him a woorde: for the kyng had commaunded, ſayeing, Anſweare hym not.

37 Then Eliakim the ſonne of Helkia, which was the ſtewarde of the houſhold, & Sobna the ſcribe, and Ioah the ſonne of Aſaph the recorder, came to Hezekia with their clothes rent, & tolde hym the woordes of Rabſakeh.

The.xix.Chapter.

6 God promiſeth Iſai victorie to Hezekia. 35 The angel of the Lord killeth an hundred & fourescore & fyue thouſande menne of the Aſſyrians. 37 Sennacherib is kylled of his owne ſonnes.

A 1 SO it came to paſſe, that whē kyng Hezekia hearde it, he rent his clothes, and put on ſacke, & came into the houſe of the Lorde, Eſa.38,a.

2 And ſent Eliakim whiche was the ſtewarde of the houſeholde, and Sobna the ſcribe, and the elders of the prieſtes clothed in ſacke, to Iſai the prophete, the ſonne of Amoz.

3 And they ſayde vnto hym, Thus ſayth Hezekia, This day is a day of tribulation, and of rebuke and blaſphemie: For the chyldren are comme to the byrth, & there is no ſtrength to be delyuered.

4 Peraduenture the lord thy God wyl heare al the woords of Rabſakeh, whom the king of Aſſyria his maiſter hath ſent to rayle on the lyuyng God, and to rebuke hym with woordes whiche the Lorde thy God hath hearde: and lyfte thou vp thy prayer for the remnant that are leaft.

5 So the ſeruantes of kyng Hezekia came to Iſai.

6 And Iſai ſayde vnto them, So ſhal ye ſaye to your maiſter, Thus ſayth the Lorde, Be not afraide of the woordes whiche thou haſt hearde, with which the young menne of the kyng of Aſſyria haue rayled on me.

B 7 Behold, I wyl put hym in an other mind, and he ſhal heare tydynges, and ſo returne to his owne lande, * and I wyl bryng to paſſe, that he ſhal falle vpon the ſwoorde, * euen in his owne lande.

2,Par.32,d.

8 And Rabſakeh went backe agayne, and founde the king of Aſſyria fyghtyng againſt Libna, for he had hearde howe that he was departed from Lachis.

9 And when he hearde menne ſay of Thirhaka kyng of the blacke Mores, Behold he is comme out to fyghte agaynſt thee: he departed, & ſent meſſengers vnto Hezekia, ſayeing,

10 Thus ſpeake to Hezekia kyng of Iuda, ſayeing, Let not thy God deceaue thee in whom thou truſteſt, ſayeing, Hieruſalem ſhal not be delyuered into the hande of the kyng of Aſſyria.

11 Beholde, thou haſt hearde what yͤ kynges of Aſſyria haue donne to al landes, how they haue vtterly deſtroyed them: And ſhalt thou eſcape?

12 Haue the gods of the heathen delyuered thē, whiche myne aunceſtours haue deſtroyed? As Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the chyldren of Eden which were in Thelaſſar?

13 Where is the kyng of Hamath, and the kyng of Arphad, the kyng of the citie of Sepharuaim, and of Hena, and Iua?

C 14 And Hezekia receiued the letter of the hand of the meſſengers, and read it: And Hezekia went vp into the houſe of the Lorde, and layde it abrode before the Lorde.

15 And Hezekia (a) prayed before the Lorde, and ſayde, O Lorde God of Iſrael, whiche dwelleſt betweene the Cherubs, thou art God alone ouer al the kingdomes of the earth, thou haſt made heauen and earth.

(a) It is the true refuge & ſuccour in al daungers, to flee vnto the Lorde by earneſt prayer.

16 Lorde bowe downe thine eare, and heare: Open lord thyne eyes, [I beſeeche thee,] & ſee: and heare the woords of Senacherib which hath ſent [this man] to rayle on yͤ liuing god.

17 Of a trueth Lorde, the kynges of Aſſyria haue deſtroyed nations, and their landes,

18 And haue ſet fyre on their goddes: For they were no goddes, but the worke of ẏ handes of man, euen of wood and ſtone: and they deſtroyed them.

19 Now therfore, O Lord our God, I beſeche thee, ſaue thou vs out of his hande, that al the kyngdomes of the earth may knowe, that thou only art the Lorde God.

D 20 And Iſai the ſonne of Amoz ſent to Hezekia, ſayeing, Thus ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael, That whiche thou haſt prayed me concernyng Sennacherib kyng of Aſſyria, I haue hearde it.

21 This is therefore the woord that the Lord hath ſayde of hym, (b) The virgin, euen the daughter of Sion hath deſpiſed thee, and laughed thee to ſcorne [O thou king of Aſſyria] the daughter of Hieruſalem hath ſhaken her head at thee.

(b) Hieruſalem is called virgin, becauſe as yet it had not ben taken by the enimie.

Mat.23.d.
Actes.9.a.

22 * Whom haſt thou rayled on? and whom haſt thou blaſphemed? Agaynſt whom haſt thou exalted thy voyce, and lyfted vp thyne eyes ſo hye? Euen agaynſt the holy of Iſrael.

23 By the hand of thy meſſengers thou haſt rayled on the Lorde, and ſayde, With the multitude of my charettes, I am comme vp to the toppes of the mountaynes, euen along by the ſides of Libanon, & I wyl cut downe the hye Cedar trees, and the luſtie fyrre trees thereof: and I wyl goe into the lodgyng of his borders, and into the wood of his Carmel.

24 I haue digged, and drunke ſtrange waters: and with the ſteppe of my goyng, wyl I drye al the water pooles that are beſieged.

25 Haſt thou not hearde howe I haue ordeyned ſuche a thing a great whyle agoe, and haue prepared it from the beginnyng? And ſhal I not nowe bryng it foorth that it may deſtroy, and bryng ſtrong cities into waſte heapes of ſtones?

26 And the inhabiters of them ſhalbe of litle power, and faynt hearted, and confounded, and * ſhalbe lyke the graſſe of the feelde, or greene hearbe, or as the hay on the toppes of the houſes, or as the corne that is vnripe and ſmitten with blaſting.

27 I knowe thy dwellyng, thy commyng out, and thy goeing in, and thy furie againſt me.

E 28 And becauſe thou rageſt agaynſt me, and thy tumult is comme vp to myne eares, I wyl put my hooke in thy noſtrels, and my byt in thy lippes, and wyl bryng thee backe agayne the ſame way thou cameſt.

29 And this ſhalbe a ſigne vnto thee, O Hezekia: Ye ſhal eate this yeere of ſuche thynges as growe of them ſelues, and the next yeere ſuche as comme vp of thoſe that dyd growe of theyr owne accorde, and the thirde yeere ſowe ye and reape, plant vineyardes, & eate the fruites thereof.

30 And it that is eſcaped and leaſt of ẏ daughter of Iuda, ſhal yet agayne take rootyng downewarde, and beare fruite vpwarde.

31 For out of Hieruſalem ſhal goe a remnant, and a number that ſhal eſcape out of mount Sion: The zeale of the Lorde of hoſtes ſhal bryng this thing to paſſe.

32 Wherefore thus ſayth the Lorde concernyng the king of Aſſyria: he ſhal not comme to this citie, nor ſhoote an arrowe into it, nor comme before it with ſhield, nor caſt a banke agaynſt it.

33 But ſhal goe backe agayne the way he came, & ſhal not comme into this citie, ſayth the Lorde.

34 For I wyl defende this citie, to ſaue it for myne owne ſake, & for Dauid my ſeruantes ſake.

F 35 And it came to paſſe, that the ſelfe ſame nyght the angel of the Lorde went out, and ſmote in the hoſte of the Aſſyrians, an hundred foureſcore and fiue thouſand: And when the remnant were vp early in the mornyng, beholde they were al dead coarſes.

Tobi.1.d.

36 * And ſo Sennacherib kyng of Aſſyria auoyded and departed, and went agayne, and dwelt at Niniue.

37 And it fortuned, that as he was in a temple woorſhipping Niſroch his God, Adramelech & Sareſar his owne ſonnes, (c) ſmote hym with the ſworde: And they eſcaped into the lande of Armenia, and Aſarhaddon his ſonne raigned in his ſteede.

(c) This was the iuſt iudgement of God, for his blaſphemie.

The.xx.Chapter.

1 Hezekia is ſicke, and receiueth the ſigne of his health. 12 He receiueth rewardes of Berodach, 13 ſheweth his treaſures, and is reprehended of Iſai. 22 He dyeth, and Manaſſe his ſonne raigneth in his ſteede.

2.Par.32.f.
Eſai.38.a.

1 ABout that tyme * was Hezekia ſicke vnto the death: And the prophete Iſai the ſonne of Amoz came to him, and ſaide vnto hym, Thus ſayth the Lorde, Put thyne houſholde in an order, for thou ſhalt dye, and not lyue.

2 And Hezekia turned his face to the wal, and prayed vnto the Lorde, ſayeing,

3 I beſeche thee, O Lorde, remember nowe

howe I haue walked before thee in trueth, and with a perfect hart, and haue donne that whiche is good in thy ſyght. And Hezekia wept ſoare.

4 And it fortuned, that afore Iſai was gone out into the middle of the court, the woord of the Lorde came to hym, ſayeing,

5 Turne againe, and tel Hezekia the captaine of my people, Thus ſayth the Lorde GOD of Dauid thy father, (a) I haue hearde thy prayer, and ſeene thy teares, and beholde, I wyl heale thee, ſo that on the thirde day thou ſhalt goe vp into the houſe of the Lorde.

(a) God is moued with true prayer, and vnfaigned repentance.

6 And I wil adde vnto thy dayes yet fifteene yeeres, and I wyl deliuer thee and this citie out of the hande of the kyng of Aſſyria, and wyl defende this citie, for myne owne ſake, and for Dauid my ſeruantes ſake.

7 And Iſai ſayde, Take a lumpe of dryed figges. And they tooke and layed it on the ſore, and he recouered.

B 8 And Hezekia ſayde vnto Iſai, What ſhalbe the ſigne that the Lord wyl heale me, and that I ſhal goe vp into the houſe of the Lord the thirde day?

9 Iſai anſweared, This ſigne ſhalt thou haue of the Lorde, that the Lord wyl doo that he hath ſpoken: * Shal the ſhadowe goe forwarde ten degrees? or goe backe agayne ten degrees?

Eccle.48.c

10 Hezekia anſweared, It is a lyght thing for the ſhadowe to goe downe ten degrees, I deſyre not [that:] but let the ſhadowe goe backwarde ten degrees.

11 And Iſai the prophete called vnto the lord, * and he brought the ſhadowe tenne degrees backwarde, by whiche it had gone downe in the dyal of Ahaz.

Ecel,48.c.

12 * The ſame ſeaſon Berodach Baladan the ſonne of Baladan king of Babylon, ſent letters and a preſent vnto Hezekia: for he had hearde howe that Hezekia was ſicke.

Eſai,39,a.

13 And Hezekia was glad of them, and ſhewed them al his treaſure houſe, ſiluer, golde, odours, pretious ointment, al the houſe of his armorie, and al that was founde in his treaſures: There was nothyng in his houſe, and in al his Realme, that Hezekia ſhewed them not.

C 14 And Iſai yͤ prophete came vnto king Hezekia, & ſayd vnto hym, What ſayd theſe men? and from whence came they to thee? And Hezekia ſayde, They be comme from a farre countrey, euen from Babylon.

15 And he ſayde agayne, What haue they ſeene in thy houſe? Hezekia anſweared, All the things that are in my houſe haue they ſeene: there is nothyng among my treaſures, that I haue not ſhewed them.

16 And Iſai ſayde vnto Hezekia, Heare the woorde of the Lorde,

17 Beholde, the dayes comme, that al that is in thy houſe, & whatſoeuer thy fathers haue layde vp in ſtore vnto this day, * ſhalbe caried into Babylon: and nothyng ſhalbe leaſt ſayth the Lorde.

18 And of thy ſonnes that ſhal proceede out of thee, and whiche thou ſhalt beget, ſhal they take away, and they ſhalbe chamberlaynes in the palace of the king of Babylon.

19 And Hezekia ſayd vnto Iſai, (b) Welcome be the woorde of the Lord whiche thou haſt ſpoken. And he ſayd, Shal there not be peace and trueth in my dayes?

(b) He humbleth him ſelfe vnto the word of the prophet.

A 1 AND yͤ Philiſtines fought agaynſt Iſrael, * and the menne of Iſrael fled before the Philiſtines, and were ouerthrowen and wounded in mount Gilboa.

1.Re.31.a.

2 And the Philiſtines folowed after Saul and his ſonnes, and the Philiſtines ſmote Jonathan and Abinadab, and Malchiſua the ſonnes of Saul.

3 And the battayle went ſore agaynſt Saul, and the archers founde hym, and he was wounded of ſhooters.

4 Then ſayde Saul to his harneſſe bearer, * Drawe thy ſworde, and thruſt me through therewith, that theſe vncircumciſed comme not, and doo me ſhame. But his harneſſe bearer woulde not, for he feared exceedingly: So Saul caught a ſworde, and fel vpon it.

Iudi.9.g.

5 And when his harneſſe bearer ſawe that Saul was dead, he fel on a ſworde alſo, and dyed.

6 And thus Saul and his three ſonnes, and

7 And when al the men of Iſrael that were in the valley, ſawe howe they fled, and that Saul and his ſonnes were dead, they forſoke their cities, aud ranne away: and the Philiſtines came, and dwelt in them.

B 8 * And it fortuned, that on the morowe when the Philiſtines came to ſtrippe the dead bodyes, they founde Saul and his ſonnes ouerthrowen in mount Gilboa.

1.Re,31.c.

9 And when they had ſtript hym, they tooke his head and his harneſſe, and ſent them into the lande of the Philiſtines rounde about, to ſhew them vnto their idols, & to the people.

10 And they put his harneſſe in the houſe of theyr god, and ſet vp his head in the temple (a) of Dagon.

13 So Saul dyed for his treſpaſſe that he treſpaſſed agaynſt the Lorde, in that he kept not the woord of the Lord, and in that he ſought & aſked counſaile of a woman that wrought with a ſpirite:

C 14 And aſked not of the Lorde, and therefore he ſlue hym, and turned the kyngdome vnto Dauid the ſonne of Iſai.

A 1 Then al Iſrael geathered them ſelues to Dauid vnto Hebron, * ſayeing,

2,Re,5,a.

2 Beholde, we be thy bones, and thy fleaſh: And moreouer in tyme paſt, euen when Saul was king, thou leddeſt Iſrael out and in: And the Lorde thy God ſayde vnto thee, Thou ſhalt feede my people Iſrael, and thou ſhalt be captayne ouer my people Iſrael.

3 Therefore came al the elders of Iſrael to the kyng to Hebron, and Dauid made a couenant with them in Hebron before the Lord: And they annoynted Dauid king ouer Iſrael * accordyng to the woorde of the Lorde, by the hande of Samuel.

6 And Dauid* ſayd, Whoſoeuer ſmyteth the Iebuſites firſt, ſhalbe the principal captaine, and a lorde. So Ioab the ſonne of Zaruia went firſt vp, and was made the chiefe captayne.

2,Re,5,b.

7 And Dauid dwelt in the caſtel [Sion] and therefore they called it the citie of Dauid.

B 8 And he buylt the citie on euery ſyde, euen from Millo rounde about: and Ioab repayred the reſt of the citie.

17 And Dauid longed, and ſayde, * Oh that one woulde geue me drynke of the water of the wel that is at the gate at Bethlehem.

18 And the three brake through the hoſt of the Philiſtines, and drewe water out of the wel that was by the gate of Bethlehem, & tooke it, and brought it to Dauid: Neuertheleſſe, Dauid woulde not drinke of it, but rather offered it to the Lorde,

24 The chyldren of Iuda that bare ſhielde and ſpeare, were ſixe thouſande, and eyght hundred, redy prepared to the warre.

25 Of the chyldren of Simeon, menne of myght to warre. vii. M. and one hundred.

The .xiii. Chapter.

7 The arke is brought agayne from Kiriathiarim to Hieruſalem. 9 Vzza dyeth becauſe he toucheth it.

A 1 AND Dauid counſayled with yͤ captaines of thouſandes and hundreds, and with al the lordes,

2 And ſayde vnto al the congregation of Iſrael, If it ſeeme you good, and to be of the Lorde our GOD, we wyl ſende abrode vnto our brethren that are leaft in al the land of Iſrael, and with them alſo to the prieſtes and Leuites whiche are in their ſuburbes, to geather them togeather vnto vs:

3 And we wyl bryng agayne the (a) arke of our God to vs: for we regarded it not in the dayes of Saul.

4 And al the congregation was content that he ſhould doo ſo: for the thyng ſeemed good in the eyes of al the people.

5 So Dauid geathered al Iſrael togeather from (b) Sihor in Egypt, vnto the enteryng of Hemath, to bryng the arke of the Lorde from Kiriathiarim.

6 And Dauid went vp and al Iſrael, to an hygh place towarde Kiriathiarim, that was in Iuda, to fet thence the arke of the Lorde God that dwelleth betweene the Cherubs, where his name is called on.

7 And they carryed the arke of God in a newe carte out of the houſe of Abinadab: and Vzza and his brother guyded the carte. B

8 And Dauid and al Iſrael played before the arke of God with al theyr myght, with ſingyng, and harpes, pſalteries, and tymbrels, and cymbales, and trumpettes.

9 And when they cams vnto the threſhyng floore of Chidon, Vzza put foorth his hande to holde the arke, for the oxen ſtumbled.

11 And Dauid was out of quiet becauſe the Lorde had rent a rent in Vzza, and he called the name of that place, the renting of Vzza, vnto this day.

12 And Dauid was afrayd of God that day, ſayeing, Howe ſhal I bryng the arke of god home to me?

13 And ſo Dauid brought not the arke home to hym to the citie of Dauid: but caried it into the houſe of Obed Edom a Gethite.

14 And the arke of God remayned with Obed Edom, euen in his houſe, three monethes: And the Lorde bleſſed the houſe of Obed Edom, and al that he had. C

(a) His firſt care was to reſtore religion.

(b) That is, Nilus.

(c) Vzza puniſhed, becauſe he tooke vpon hym an office wherevnto he was not called.

The .xiiii. Chapter.

2 Hiram ſendeth wood and workemen to Dauid. 4 The names of his chyldren. 8, 14 By the counſel of God he goeth agaynſt the Philiſtines, and ouercommeth them. 15 God fighteth for hym.

A 1 SO Hiram the kyng of Tyre ſent meſſengers to Dauid, and timber of Cedar trees, with Maſons and Carpenters, to buylde hym an houſe.

2 And Dauid perceaued that the Lorde hadde confirmed hym kyng vpon Iſrael, and that his kyngdome was lyft vp on hygh becauſe of his (a) people Iſrael:

3 And Dauid tooke yet mo wyues at Hieruſalem, and begate mo ſonnes and daughters.

4 These are the names of his chyldren, whiche were borne vnto hym at Hieruſalem: Samua, Sobab, Nathan, and Solomon,

5 Ibhar, Eliſua, and Eliphalet,

6 Noga, Nepheg, and Iaphia,

7 Eliſama, Beeliada, and Eliphalet.

8 And when the Philiſtines heard that Dauid was annoynted kyng vpon al Iſrael, al yͤ Philiſtines went vp to ſeeke Dauid: And Dauid heard of it, & went out agaynſt them. B

9 And the Philiſtines came in, and ſpread them ſelues through the valley of Rephaim.

10 And Dauid (b) aſked counſaile at GOD, ſayeing, Shal I goe agaynſt yͤ Philiſtines? & wylt thou deliuer them into myne hande?

11 And the Lorde ſayde vnto hym, Goe vp, for I wyl deliuer them into thine hand. And ſo they came vp to Baal Perazim, and Dauid ſmote them there, and Dauid ſayd, God hath diuided myne enimies with myne hande, as a man woulde diuide water, and therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim.

12 And when they had left their goddes there, Dauid gaue a commaundement, and they were burnt with fyre.

(a) Becauſe of Gods promiſe made to the people of Iſrael.

(b) Dauid aſketh counſel at God, before he enterpriſed warre.

13 And the Philiſtines came togeather againe, and ruſſhed into the valley.

C 14 And Dauid aſked agayne at GOD: And God ſayde to hym, Goe not vp after them, but turne away from them, that thou mayeſt comme vpon them ouer agaynſt the (c) peretrees.

(c) Baca beyng the Hebrue woorde, ſignifieth a Mulberie tree.

15 And when thou heareſt a ſounde goe in the toppes of the peretrees, then goe out to batayle: for God is gone foorth before thee, to ſmyte the hoaſt of the Philiſtines.

16 Dauid therefore dyd as God commaunded him, and they ſmote the hoſte of the Philiſtines, from Gibeon to Gazer.

17 And the fame of Dauid went out into al landes, and the Lorde made al nations feare hym.

The.xv.Chapter.

1 Dauid prepareth an hoſt for the arke. 4 The number and order of the Leuites. 16 The ſingers are choſen out among them. 25 They bryng agayne the arke with ioy. 29 Dauid dauncing before it, is deſpiſed of his wyfe Michol.

A 1 AND Dauid made hym houſes in the citie of Dauid, and prepared a place for the arke of God, and pitched for it a tent.

2 Then Dauid ſayd, The arke of God ought not to be carried but of the Leuites: For them hath the Lord choſen to beare the arke of the lord, and to miniſter vnto hym for euer.

3 And Dauid geathered al Iſrael togeather to Hieruſalem, to fetche the arke of the Lord vnto his place whiche he had ordeyned for it.

4 And Dauid brought togeather the chyldren of Aaron and the Leuites.

5 Of the ſonnes of Caath, was Uriel the chiefe, and of his brethren there were an hundred and twentie.

6 Of the chyldren of Merari, Aſaia the chiefe, and of his brethren two hundred and twentie.

7 Of the ſonnes of Gerſom, Ioel the chiefe, and of his brethren an hundred and thirtie.

B 8 Of the chyldren of Elizaphan, Semaia the chiefe, and of his brethren two hundred.

9 Of the ſonnes of Hebron, Eliel the chiefe, and of his brethren fowreſcore.

10 Of the ſonnes of Uzziel, Aminadab the chiefe, and of his brethren an hundred and twelue.

11 And Dauid called Zadoc and Abiathar the prieſtes: and the Leuites, Uzziel, Aſaia, Ioel, Semaia, Eliel, and Aminadab, 12 And ſayde vnto them, Ye that are the principal fathers of the Leuites, ſee that ye be holy with your brethren, that ye may bryng in the arke of the Lorde God of Iſrael vnto the place that I haue prepared for it.

13 For becauſe ye were not there at the fyrſt, the Lorde our God made a rent among vs, for that we ſought hym not as the faſhion ought to be.

C 14 So the prieſtes and the Leuites ſanctified them ſelues, to fet the arke of the Lorde God of Iſrael.

15 And the chyldren of the Leuites bare the arke of GOD vpon theyr ſhoulders with ſtaues thereon, as Moſes commaunded, accordyng to the woorde of the Lorde.

16 And Dauid ſpake to the chiefe heades of the Leuites, that they ſhoulde appoynt certayne of theyr brethren to ſing with inſtrumentes of muſicke, pſalteries, harpes, and Cymbales, that they myght make a ſounde, and to ſyng on hygh with ioyfulneſſe.

17 And the Leuites appoynted Heman the ſonne of Ioel, and of his brethren, Aſaph the ſonne of Berechia, and of the ſonnes of Merari and of theyr brethren, Ethan the ſonne of Cuſaiahu.

18 And with them their brethren of the ſecond degree, Zacharia, Ben, Iaziel, Semiramoth, Iehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiahu, Maaſiah, Mathathiahu, Eliphalehu, Mikniahu, Obed Edom, and Ieiel, porters.

19 So Heman, Aſaph, and Ethan the ſingers, made a ſounde with Cymbales of braſſe.

D 20 And Zacharia, Aziel, Semiramoth, Iehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaſiahu, & Benaiahu, played with pſalteries on an (a) Alamoth.

21 Mathathiahu, Eliphalehu, Mikniahu, Obed Edom, Ieiel, and Azaiahu, played vpon harpes an eyght aboue, with courage.

22 And Chenaniahu the chiefe of the Leuites was maiſter of the ſong: for he taught other to ſing, becauſe he was a man of vnderſtandyng.

23 Berechia and Elcana kept the doore of the arke.

24 And Sebaniahu, Iehoſaphat, Nathanael, Amaſai, Zachariahu, Banaiahu, and Eliezer the prieſtes, dyd blowe with trumpettes before the arke of God: And Obed Edom and Iehia were keepers of the doore of the arke.

25 *And Dauid and the elders of Iſrael, and the captaynes ouer thouſandes, went to fette the arke of the appoyntment of the Lorde, out out of the houſe of Obed Edom with gladneſſe.

26 And when God helped the Leuites that bare the arke of the appoyntmente of the Lorde, they offered ſeuen oxen, and ſeuen rammes.

D 27 And Dauid had on him a linnen garment, lyke as had alſo al the Leuites that bare the arke, and ſo had the ſyngers, and Chenania the ruler of the ſonge, with the ſyngers: and Dauid had vpon hym an Ephod of lynnen.

28 And al they of Iſrael brought the arke of the Lordes couenante with ſhowtyng, and blowyng of the ſhawme, and trumpettes, makyng a noyſe with cymbales, pſalteries, and harpes.

29 And as the arke of the appoyntmente of the Lorde came into the citie of Dauid, Michol the daughter of Saul lookyng out at a wyndowe, ſawe king Dauid daunſing and playing, and ſhe deſpiſed hym in her hart.

The.xvi.Chapter,

1 The arke beyng placed, they offer ſacrifices. 4 Dauid ordeyneth Aſaph and his brethren to miniſter before the Lorde. 8 He appoynteth a notable pſalme to be ſong in the prayſe of the Lorde.

A 1 SO they brought in the arke of God, and ſet it in the myddeſt of the tente that Dauid pitched for it: and they offered burnt ſacrifices & peace offeringes before God.

2 And when Dauid had made an ende of offeryng the burnt offerynges and peace offerynges, he bleſſed the people in the name of the Lorde.

3 And he dealt to al Iſrael both man and woman, a cracknel of bread, and a good peece of fleaſhe, and a flacket of wyne.

4 And he appoynted certayne of the Leuites to miniſter before the arke of the Lorde, and to repeate, and to thanke and prayſe the lorde God of Iſrael.

5 And Aſaph was the chiefe, and next to him Zacharia, Ieiel, Semiramoth, Iehiel, Mathathia, Eliab, Benaia, * Obed Edom, and Ieiel with inſtrumentes, pſalteries, & harpes: But Aſaph made a ſounde with cymbales.

2.Reg.6.b

6 Banaia and Iahaziel prieſtes blewe with trumpettes continually before the arke of the couenant of God.

B 7 And that ſame tyme Dauid dyd appoynte chiefely to thanke the Lorde by Aſaph and his brethren.

9 Syng vnto hym, ſyng pſalmes vnto hym: talke you of al his wonderous workes.

10 Glorye ye in his holy name: let the harte of them reioyce that doo ſeeke God.

11 Seeke God and his ſtrength: ſeeke his face euermore.

24 Tel of his glorye among the heathen: his woonderful deedes among al nations.

25 For great is the Lorde, and woorthy to be prayſed exceedyngly: he is to be feared aboue al gods.

26 For al the gods of the people are " but idols: but the Lorde made heauen.

" Vanitie, and no God.

27 Prayſe and honour are in his preſence: ſtrength and gladneſſe are in his place.

28 Aſcribe vnto the Lorde ye kynredes of people: aſcribe to the Lorde glory and dominion.

29 Aſcribe vnto the Lorde the glory due vnto his name: bryng ſacrifices, and comme before hym, and woorſhyppe the Lorde in his glorious ſanctuarie.

30 Let al the earth feare hym: ſurely the Lord ſhalbe ſtable, and not moue.

31 Let the heauens reioyce, and let the earth be glad, and let menne telle among the nations that the Lorde is kyng.

32 Let the ſea rore, and the fulneſſe thereof: let the fieldes reioyce, and al that is therein.

33 Then ſhal the trees of the wood reioyce at the preſence of the Lorde, becauſe he commeth to iudge the earth.

34 O geue thankes vnto the Lorde, for he is good, for his mercie endureth for euer:

35 And ſaye ye, Saue vs O God our ſaluation, geather vs togeather, & delyuer vs from among the heathen, that we may geue thankes to thy holye name, and triumph in the prayſe of thee.

36 Bleſſed be the Lorde God of Iſrael for euer and euer: and let al people ſay, Amen, & prayſe the Lorde.

37 And ſo he leaft there before the arke of the Lordes couenant Aſaph and his brethren, to miniſter before the arke continually, [in ſuch thynges as were to be donne] day by day.

38 And Obed Edom and his brethren, threeſcore and eyght, and Obed Edom the ſonne of Jeduthun, and Hoſa, were appoynted to be porters.

39 And Zadoc the prieſte and his brethren the prieſtes were before the tabernacle of the lorde, in the hygh place that was at Gibeon, 40 To offer burnt offerynges vnto the Lorde vpon the burnt offeryng aulter perpetually, in the mornyng and euenyng, accordyng to al that whiche is wrytten in the lawe of the Lorde whiche he commaunded Iſrael.

41 And with them were Heman and Jeduthun, & other that were choſen, whoſe names were expreſſed to geue thankes to the Lorde, That his mercie laſteth euer. C

42 And with them dyd Heman & Jeduthun ſyng with the trumpettes and cymbales, makyng a ſweete melodie with inſtrumẽts of muſicke & godly ſongues: and the ſonnes of Jeduthun were porters.

43 And al the people departed euerye man to his houſe, and Dauid returned to bleſſe his houſe.

The.xvii.Chapter.

3 Dauid is forbydden to buylde an houſe vnto the Lorde. 12 Chriſte is promiſed vnder the fygure of Solomon. 18 Dauid geueth thankes, 23 and prayeth vnto God.

A 1 AND it fortuned, that whẽ Dauid dwelt in his houſe, he ſayd to Nathan the prophet, Loe, I dwel in * an houſe of Cedar tree, but the arke of the Lordes couenant remayneth vnder (a) curtaynes.

2.Re.7.a.

(a) In tentes couered with ſkynnes.

2 And Nathan ſayde vnto Dauid, Doo al that is in thyne hart, for God is with thee.

3 And the ſame nyght, it fortuned that the woorde of God came to Nathan, ſayeing.

4 Goe and tel Dauid my ſeruant, thus ſayth the Lord, Thou ſhalt not build me an houſe to dwelle in:

3 For I haue dwelt in no houſe ſince the day that I brought out the chyldrẽ of Iſrael, vnto this day: but haue gonne from tent to tent, and from one habitation to an other.

6 And whereſoeuer I haue walked with al Iſrael, ſpake I euer one woorde to any of the Judges of Iſrael, whom I commaunded to feede my people, ſayeing, Why haue ye not buylt me an houſe of Cedar tree?

B 7 Nowe therefore thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto my ſeruante Dauid, Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, I tooke thee from the ſheepe coate, and from folowyng the ſheepe, that thou ſhouldeſt be captaine ouer my people Iſrael:

8 And I haue benne with thee whytherſoeuer thou haſt walked, and haue weeded out al thyne enimies out of thy ſyght, and haue made thee a name lyke the name of the greateſt menne that are in the earth.

9 And I haue ordeyned a place for my people Iſrael, and made it faſt, ſo that nowe they may dwel in their place, and moue no more: Neyther ſhal the chyldren of wickedneſſe vexe them any more as at the begynnyng.

10 And ſince the tyme that I commaunded iudges to be ouer my people Iſrael, I haue ſubdued al thyne enimies: and I tolde thee that the Lorde would buylde thee an houſe.

11 This alſo ſhal comme to paſſe: when thy dayes be expired that thou muſt goe vnto thy fathers, I wyl rayſe vp thy ſeede after thee, whiche ſhalbe of thy ſonnes, and I wyl ſtabliſhe his kyngdome.

12 He ſhal buylde me an houſe, and I wyl ſtabliſhe his ſeate for euer.

13 I wylbe his father, and he ſhalbe my ſonne, and I wyl not take my mercie awaye from hym, as I tooke it from hym that was before thee.

14 But I wyl ſtabliſhe hym in myne houſe & my kyngdome for euer, and his ſeate ſhalbe ſure for euermore. C

15 Accordyng to al theſe woordes, and accordyng to al this viſion dyd Nathan tel kyng Dauid.

16 And Dauid the kyng came and ſate before the Lorde, and ſayde, What am I, O Lorde

God, and what is myne houſhold, that thou haſt promoted me thus farre?

17 And yet this ſeemed litle in thyne eyes, O God: But thou haſt alſo ſpoken of thy ſeruantes houſe for a great whyle to comme, and haſt looked vpon me as vpon a man of hygh degree, O Lorde God.

18 What ſhal Dauid deſyre more of thee for the honour of thy ſeruant? for thou haſt knowen thy ſeruant.

19 O Lorde, for thy ſeruantes ſake, euen accordyng to thyne owne hart, haſt thou donne al this magnificence, to ſhew al great thinges.

D 20 Lorde there is none lyke thee, neyther is there anye God ſaue thou, accordyng to al that we haue hearde with our eares.

21 Moreouer, what nation on the earth is lyke thy people Iſrael, to whom god hath vouchſafed to comme and redeeme them to be his owne people, and to make thee a name of excellencie and terribleneſſe, with caſtyng out nations from before the people, whom thou haſt delyuered out of Egypt?

22 Thy people of Iſrael dyddeſt thou make thyne owne people for euer, and thou becameſt their God.

23 Therefore nowe Lorde, let the thyng that thou haſt ſpoken concernyng thy ſeruant and his houſe, be true for euer, that thou lorde doo as thou haſt ſayde:

24 Let it come to paſſe, that thy name may be magnified for euer, that it may be ſaide, The Lorde of hoſtes is the God of Iſrael, euen the God of Iſrael, and the houſe of Dauid thy ſeruant endureth ſtable before thee.

25 For thou, O my God, haſt told thy ſeruant that thou wylt buylde hym an houſe, and therefore thy ſeruant hath found in his hart, to pray before thee.

26 And nowe Lorde, thou art God, and haſt promiſed this goodneſſe vnto thy ſeruant.

27 Now therfore let it be thy pleaſure to bleſſe the houſe of thy ſeruant, that it maye continue before thee for euer: For whom thou bleſſeſt O Lorde, the ſame is bleſſed for euer. E

A 1 AND after this, it fortuned that Dauid ſmote the Philiſtines, and ſubdued them, and tooke Geth & the townes that *longed thereto out of the handes of the Philiſtines.

2.Re.8.a.

2 And he ſmote Moab, and the Moabites became Dauids ſeruantes, and payde hym tribute.

3 And Dauid ſmote Hadarezer kyng of Zoba vnto Hanath, as he went to ſtabliſhe his dominion by the ryuer Euphrates.

4 And Dauid tooke from hym a thouſande charrettes, and ſeuen thouſande horſemenne, and twentie thouſande footemenne, and lamed al the charret horſes, & reſerued of them an hundred charrettes.

5 And when the Syrians of Damaſcon came to helpe Hadarezer kyng of Zoba, Dauid ſlue of the Syrians twentie and two thouſande.

6 And Dauid put ſouldiers in Syria Damaſcon, and the Syrians became Dauids ſeruantes, and brought hym tribute: And the Lord preſerued Dauid in al that he went to.

B 7 And Dauid tooke the ſhieldes of golde that were on the ſeruantes of Hadarezar, and brought them to Hieruſalem.

8 And from Tebhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezar, brought Dauid exceedyng muche braſſe, wherewith Solomon made the braſen lauatorie, *the pyllers, and the veſſels of braſſe.

12 And Abiſai the ſonne of Zaruia ſlue of the Edomites in the ſalt valley eyghteene thouſande, 13 And put ſouldiers in Edom, and al the Edomites became Dauids ſeruantes: Thus the Lorde kept Dauid in al that he tooke in hande.

14 And Dauid raigned ouer al Iſrael, and executed iudgement and righteouſnes among al his people. C

15 And Ioab the ſonne of Zaruia was ouer the hoſt, and Iehoſaphat the ſonne of Ahilud recorder:

16 And Zadoc the ſonne of Ahitob, and Abimelech the ſonne of Abiathar, were the prieſtes, and Sauſa was ſcribe, 17 And Benaiahu the ſõne of Jehoiada was ouer the Crethites and the Phelethites: And the ſõnes of Dauid were next vnto the king.

2 And Dauid ſaide, I wyl ſhew kyndeneſſe vnto Hanon the ſonne of Nahas, because his (a) father dealt kyndly with me. And Dauid ſent meſſengers to comfort hym ouer the death of his father: And the ſeruantes of Dauid came into the lande of the chyldren of Ammon, to Hanon, to comfort hym.

(a) Becauſe Nahas receiued Dauid and his companie when Saul perſecuted hym, he woulde nowe ſhew pleaſure to his ſonne for the ſame.

3 But the lordes of the chyldren of Ammon ſayde to Hanon, Thynkeſt thou that Dauid dooth honour thy father in thy ſyght, that he hath ſent comforters vnto thee? Are not his ſeruantes comme to (b) ſearche, to looke, and eſpye out the lande?

5 And there went certayne, and tolde Dauid howe the menne were ſerued: And the kyng ſent to meete them (for the menne were exceedyngly aſhamed) and the kyng ſayde, Tarrie at Jericho vntil your beardes be growen, and then returne.

6 And when the chyldren of Ammon ſawe that they ſtanke in the ſyght of Dauid, Hanon and the children of Ammon, ſent a thouſande talentes of ſyluer to hyre them charrettes and horſemenne out of Meſopotamia, and out of Syria Maacha, & out of Zoba.

B 7 And they hyred thirtie and two thouſande charrettes, and the kyng of Maacha and his people, whiche came and pitched before Medeba: And the chyldren of Ammon geathered them ſelues togeather from their cities, and came to batayle.

8 And when Dauid hearde of it, he ſent Joab and al the hoſt of ſtrong menne.

9 And the chyldren of Ammon came out, and put them ſelues in aray to batayle before the gate of the citie: And the kynges that were comme, kepte them by them ſelues backe in the fielde.

10 When Joab alſo ſawe that the frunte of the batayle was agaynſt hym before and behynde, he choſe out of al the choſen menne of Iſrael, and put them in aray agaynſte the Syrians.

11 And the reaſt of the people he delyuered vnto the hande of Abiſai his brother, and they put them ſelues in aray agaynſt the chyldren of Ammon.

12 And he ſayde, If the Syrians be to ſtrong for me, thou ſhalt ſuccour me, and if the chyldren of Ammon preuayle agaynſt thee, I wyl helpe thee.

13 Plucke vp thyne harte, and let vs play the menne for our peoples ſake, and for the cities of our God: and the Lorde ſhal doo that whiche is good in his owne ſyght.

19 And when the ſeruantes of Hadarezer ſawe that they were put to the woorſe before them of Iſrael, they made peace with Dauid, & became his ſeruantes: Neyther would the Syrians helpe the chyldren of Ammon any more.

The.xxi.Chapter.

1 Dauid cauſeth the people to be numbred. 14 And there dye ſeuentie thouſande menne of the peſtilence.

A 1 AND Satan ſtoode vp agaynſt Jſrael, and prouoked Dauid to number Jſrael.

2 And Dauid ſayde to Joab and to the rulers of the people: Goe ye and number Jſrael from Beerſeba vnto Dan: and bryng it to me, that J may knowe the number of them.

3 And Joab anſweared, The Lorde make his people an hundred tymes ſo manye moe as they be: But my lorde, O kyng, are they not al my lordes ſeruantes? Why then dooth my lorde requyre this thyng? Why wyl my lorde be a cauſe of (a) treſpaſſe to Jſrael?

(a) Dauid offended in numbring the people, partely becauſe he dyd it of ambition, but chiefly for that he payed not to the vſe of the temple: for euery one numbred halfe a ſicle, accordyng to the lawe. Exo.30

4 Neuertheleſſe, the kynges woorde preuayled agaynſt Joab: And Joab departed, and walked throughout al them of Jſrael, and came to Hieruſalem agayne,

5 And gaue the ſumme of the number of the people vnto Dauid: and al they of Jſrael were a thouſand thouſande, and an hundred thouſand menne that drue ſwoorde: and Juda was foure hundred threeſcore & ten thouſande menne that drue ſwoorde.

6 But the Leuites and Beniamin counted he not among them: For the kynges woord was abominable to Joab.

B 7 And the Lorde was diſpleaſed with this thyng, and ſmote Jſrael.

8 And Dauid ſayde vnto God, J haue ſynned exceedyngly in dooyng this thyng: And nowe J beſeeche thee, doo away the wickedneſſe of thy ſeruante, for J haue donne verye fooliſhly.

9 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Gad Dauids ſear, ſayeing,

10 Goe, and telle Dauid, ſayeing, Thus ſaith the Lorde, J geue thee the choyſe of three thinges: chooſe the one of them, that J may doo vnto thee.

11 And Gad came to Dauid, and ſayde vnto hym, Thus ſayth the Lorde, Chooſe thee

12 Eyther three yeeres famiſhment, or three moonethes to be deſtroyed before thyne aduerſaries, and that the ſwoorde of thyne enimies may ouertake thee: or els the ſwoord of the Lorde, and peſtilence in the lande three dayes, and the angel of the Lorde deſtroying throughout al the coſtes of Jſrael: and nowe aduiſe thee ſelfe, what woorde J ſhal bryng agayne to hym that ſent me.

13 And Dauid ſayde vnto Gad, J am in an exceedyng ſtrayte: Let me falle nowe into the hande of the Lorde (for paſſyng great are his mercies) but let me not falle into the hande of menne.

14 So the Lorde ſent peſtilence vpon Iſrael: and there were ouerthrowen of Iſrael threeſcore and ten thouſande menne.

15 And God ſent the angel into Hieruſalem to deſtroye it:and as he was about to deſtroye, the Lorde behelde, and had compaſſion on the euyl,and ſayd to the angel that deſtroyed, It is yenough, let nowe thyne hande ceaſſe. And the angel of the Lord ſtoode by the threſhyng floore of Ornan the Iebuſite.

16 And Dauid lyfte vp his eyes, and ſawe the angel of the Lord ſtande betweene the earth and heauen, hauing a drawen ſwoord in his hande, ſtretched out towarde Hieruſalem: Then Dauid and the elders of Iſrael which were clothed in ſacke,felle vpon their faces.

17 And Dauid ſayde vnto God, Is it not I that cõmaunded the people to be numbred? It is I that haue ſynned and donne euyl in deede: and what haue theſe ſheepe donne? Let thyne hande, O Lorde my God, be on me,and on my fathers houſe:but not on thy people,that they ſhoulde be pouniſhed.

18 And the angel of the Lorde commaunded Gad to ſaye to Dauid, that Dauid ſhoulde goe vp,and ſet vp an aulter vnto the Lorde in the threſhyng floore of Ornan yͤ Iebuſite.

19 And Dauid went vp accordyng to the ſayeing of Gad, which he ſpake in the name of the Lorde.

D 20 And Ornan turned about,and ſawe the angel, and his foure ſonnes were with hym, and hydde them ſelues: But Ornan was threſhyng wheate.

21 And as Dauid came to Ornan,Ornan looked and ſawe Dauid, and went out of the threſhing floore, and bowed him ſelfe to Dauid with his face to the grounde.

22 And Dauid ſayde to Ornan, Geue me the place of the threſhyng floore, that I maye buylde an aulter therein vnto the Lorde: Thou ſhalt geue it me for as muche money as it is woorth, that the plague maye ceaſſe from the people.

23 And Ornan ſayde vnto Dauid, Take it to thee, & let my lorde the kyng doo that which ſeemeth good in his eyes: Loe, I geue thee oxen alſo for burnt ſacrifices, and threſhyng inſtruments for wood, and wheat for meate offeryng, I geue it al.

24 And kyng Dauid ſayde to Ornan, Not ſo, but I wyl bye it for as muche money as it is woorth: For I wyl not take that whiche is thyne for the Lorde, nor offer burnt offerynges without coaſt.

25 And ſo Dauid gaue to Ornan for that place ſicles of golde,ſyxe hundred by weyght.

26 And Dauid buylte there an aulter vnto the Lorde, and offered burnt offerynges, & peace offerynges, and called vpon the Lorde,and he hearde hym from heauen in fyre, vpon the aulter of burnt offeryng.

27 And when the Lord had ſpoken to the angel, he put vp his ſwoorde agayne into the ſheathe of it. E

28 At that tyme when Dauid ſawe that the Lorde had hearde hym in the threſhyng floore of Ornan the Iebuſite, he vſed to offer there:

29 For the tabernacle of the Lord which Moſes made in the wyldernesse,and the aulter of burnt offeryng, were at that ſeaſon in the hyl of Gibeon:

30 And Dauid coulde not goe before it, to aſke counſel at God, for he was afrayde of the ſwoorde of the angel of the Lorde.

The.xxii.Chapter.

2 Dauid prepareth thynges neceſſary for the buyldyng of the temple. 6 He commaundeth his ſonne Solomon to buylde the temple of the Lorde, whiche thyng he hym ſelfe was forbydden to doo. 9 Vnder the fygure of Solomon, Chriſte is promiſed.

A 1 AND Dauid ſayde, This is the houſe of the Lorde god, and this is the aulter for the burnt offeryng of Iſrael.

2 And Dauid commaunded to geather togeather the ſtrangers that were in the lande of Iſrael, and he ſette Maſons to hewe and puliſhe ſtones for the buyldyng of the houſe of God.

3 And Dauid prepared plentye of iron for nayles, and doores of the gates, and to ioyne withal, and abundance of braſſe without weyght.

4 And Cedar trees without number: For the Sidons, and they of Tyre, brought muche Cedar wood to Dauid.

5 And Dauid ſayde, Solomon my ſonne is young and tender,and the houſe that is to be buylded for the Lorde muſt be magnifical, excellent, and of greate fame and dignitie throughout al countreyes: I wyl therefore make ordinances for it. And ſo Dauid prepared many thynges before his death.

6 And he called Solomon his ſonne,and charged hym to buylde an houſe for the Lorde God of Iſrael.

7 And Dauid ſayde to Solomon, * My ſonne, I thought [as it was] in myne harte 2.Reg.7.b. 3.Reg.5.a.

to buylde an houſe vnto the name of the Lorde my God:

8 But the woorde of the Lorde came to me, ſayeing, Thou haſt ſhead muche blood, and haſt made great batayles: thou ſhalt therfore not buyld an houſe vnto my name, for thou haſt ſhead muche bloode vpon the earth in my ſyght.

9 Beholde, a ſonne is borne to thee, and he ſhalbe a man of reaſt, for I wyl geue hym reaſt from al his enimies rounde about: For his name is Solomon, and I wyl ſend reaſt and peace vpon Iſrael in his dayes.

10 He ſhal buylde an houſe for my name, and he ſhalbe my ſonne, and I wyl be his father, & I wyl eſtabliſh the ſeate of his kyngdome vpon Iſrael for euer.

11 Nowe therfore my ſonne, the Lord be with thee, and proſper thee, and thou ſhalt buylde an houſe to the Lorde thy God, as he hath ſayde of thee.

12 And the Lord ſhal geue thee wiſedome and vnderſtandyng, and ſhal geue thee commaundementes for Iſrael, that thou mayeſt keepe the lawe of the Lorde thy God.

13 For then thou ſhalt proſper, euen when thou takeſt heede, and fulfylleſt the ſtatutes, and lawes whiche the Lorde charged Moſes with for Iſrael: Plucke vp thyne hart therefore, & be ſtrong, dread not, nor be diſcoraged.

14 Beholde, accordyng to my pouertie haue I C alſo prepared for the houſe of the Lorde, an hundred thouſande talentes of golde, and a thouſande thouſande talentes of ſyluer: and as for braſſe and iron, it can not be numbred, (for it is verie muche) and I haue prepared tymber and ſtone, and thou mayeſt prouide more thereto.

15 Moreouer, thou haſt woorkmen with thee inowe, and maſons, and carpenters [to woorke in ſtone and tymber,] and manye menne that be actiue for euery woorke.

16 And of golde, ſyluer, braſſe, and iron, there is no number: Up therefore, and be dooyng, and the Lorde ſhalbe with thee.

17 And Dauid commaunded al the lordes of Iſrael to helpe Solomon his ſonne, ſayeing, 18 Is not the Lorde your God with you? and hath he not geuen you reaſt on euerye ſyde? for he hath geuen the inhabitours of the land into my hande, and the lande is ſubdued before the Lorde, and before his people.

(a) He was not only liberal hym ſelfe towarde the buyldyng of gods houſe, but alſo procured others.
(b) That is, may offer to the buyldyng of the houſe of the Lorde.

10 And Dauid bleſſed the Lorde before al the congregation, and ſayde, Bleſſed be thou Lorde God of Iſrael, our father from euer, and for euer.

11 Thyne, O Lord, is greatneſſe, and power, glorie, victorie, & praiſe: for al that is in heauen and in earth is thyne, and thyne is the kingdome, O Lord, and thou excelleſt aboue al, euen as the head of al.

12 And richeſſe and honour comme of thee, and thou raigneſt ouer al, and in thyne hand is power and ſtrength, & in thyne hande it is to make great, and to geue ſtrength vnto al.

13 And nowe our God we thanke thee, and prayſe thy glorious name.

C 14 But who am I? and what is my people? that we ſhoulde enforce our ſelues to geue theſe thynges ſo wyllyngly? But al thinges comme of thee, and of that whiche we receiued at thy hand, we haue geuen thee.

Gen.47.b 15 * For we be but ſtrangers before thee, and ſoiourners, as were al our fathers: Our dayes on the earth alſo are but as a * ſhadowe, and there is none abydyng. Sapi.2.b.

16 O Lorde our God, al this ſtuffe that we haue prepared, to buylde thee an houſe for thy holy name, commeth of thyne hande, and is al thyne.

17 I wote alſo my God, that thou tryeſt the hartes, and haſt pleaſure in vnfaynedneſſe, and in the vnfaynedneſſe of my hart, I haue wyllyngly offered al theſe thinges: And now haue I ſeene thy people whiche are founde here, to offer vnto thee wyllyngly, and with gladneſſe.

18 O Lorde God of Abraham, Iſahac, and of Iſrael our fathers, (c) keepe this for euer in the deſyre of the thoughtes of the hart of thy people, and prepare their hartes vnto thee.

(c) Continue them in this good minde, that they may ſerue thee wyllingly

19 And geue vnto Solomon my ſonne a perfect hart, to keepe thy commaundementes, thy teſtimonies, and thy ſtatutes, and to doo al, and buylde the houſe, for the whiche I haue made prouiſion.

20 And Dauid ſayde to al the congregation, Nowe bleſſe the Lorde your GOD. And al the congregation bleſſed the Lorde God of their fathers, and bowed downe their heads, and woorſhipped the Lorde, and the kyng. D

23 * And Solomon ſate on the ſeate of the Lord, and was kyng in ſteede of Dauid his father, and proſpered: and al they of Iſrael obeyed hym. 3.Reg.2.c.

24 And al the lordes and men of power, and al yͤ ſonnes of kyng Dauid, ſubmitted them ſelues, and were vnder kyng Solomon.

13 And ſo Solomon came from the hygh

16 Alſo Solomon had horſes brought out of receiued the fine linnen for a price.

17 They came alſo and brought out of Egypt a charet for ſixe hundred peeces of ſiluer, euen an horſe for an hundred and fiftie: And ſo

3 * And Solomon ſent to Hiram the kyng of Tyre, ſayeing, As thou dyddeſt deale with Dauid my father, and * dyddeſt ſende hym Cedar wood to buyld hym an houſe to dwel in [euen ſo deale with me:]

3.Reg.5.a.

2.Reg.5.b.

4 Beholde, I buylde an houſe for the name of the Lorde my God, to offer vnto hym holy thynges, and to burne ſweete incenſe, and to ſet ſhewe bread before hym continually, to offer burnt ſacrifices of the mornyng & euenyng on the Sabboth dayes, in the fyrſt day of euery newe moone, and in the ſolempne feaſtes of the Lorde our God: for it is an ordinance to be continually kept of Iſrael.

5 And the houſe which I buyld ſhalbe great: for great is our God aboue al goddes.

6 But who is hable to buylde him an houſe? When that heauen, and heauen aboue al heauens is not able to receiue hym: What am I then that ſhoulde buylde him an houſe? nay, but euen to burne ſacrifice before hym [ſhal this buyldyng be.]

7 Sende me now therefore a cunning man, that can woorke in golde and ſiluer, in braſſe and iron, in purple, crymoſin, (b) yelow ſilke, and that can ſkil to graue with the cunning men that are with me in Iuda and Hieruſalem, whom Dauid my father did prepare.

(b) Others reade, ſilke of a violet colour.

B 8 Sende me alſo Cedar trees, pine trees, and (c) algume trees, out of Libanõ: For I wote that thy ſeruantes can ſkil to hewe tymber in Libanon: and beholde, my menne ſhalbe with thyne,

(c) Some take it for braſel.

9 That they may prepare me timber yenough: For the houſe whiche I am determined to buylde, ſhalbe wonderful great.

10 And beholde, for the vſe of thy ſeruantes, the cutters and hewers of timber, I haue geuen twentie thouſande quarters of beaten wheate, and twentie thouſande quarters of barly, and twentie thouſand battes of wine, and twentie thouſande battes of oyle.

11 And Hiram the kyng of Tyre anſweared in wrytyng, whiche he ſent to Solomon: Becauſe the Lorde hath loued his people, therefore hath he made thee kyng ouer them.

12 And Hiram ſaide moreouer, Bleſſed be the Lorde GOD of Iſrael, whiche made heauen and earth, and that hath geuen Dauid the kyng a wyſe ſonne, and one that hath diſcretion, prudence, & vnderſtandyng, to buyld an houſe for the Lorde, and a palace for his kyngdome.

13 And nowe I haue ſent a wyſe man, and a man of vnderſtandyng, whom my father Hiram dyd vſe:

14 * The ſonne of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, and he can ſkil to woorke in gold and ſiluer, in braſſe and iron, in ſtone & timber, in purple & " yelowe ſilke, in fine whyte & crymiſon, and can graue ſundry manner of grauinges, and to finde out diuers manner of ſubtil woorke that ſhalbe ſet before hym, with thy cunnyng men, and with the cunnyng men of my lorde Dauid thy father.

3.Re.7.b.

" Or, violet colour.

15 Nowe therefore, the wheate and barly, oyle and wine, whiche my lorde hath ſpoken of, let hym ſende vnto his ſeruantes:

16 And we wyl cut wood in Libanon as muche as thou ſhalt neede, and wyl bryng it to thee in flotes by ſea to Iapho, frõ whence thou mayeſt carrie them to Hieruſalem.

17 And Solomon numbred al the ſtrangers that were in the lande of Iſrael, after ẏ number of them whom his father Dauid hadde numbred: And they were found an hundred fiftie and three thouſande, and ſixe hundred.

18 And he ſet threeſcore and ten thouſande to beare burthens, and foureſcore thouſande to hewe ſtones in the mountayne, and three thouſande and ſixe hundred officers to ſet the people a woorke.

6 And he ouerlayde the houſe with precious ſtone beautifully: And the golde was golde of Paruaim.

B 7 The houſe [I ſay] the beames, poſtes, wals, and doores thereof ouerlayde he with golde, and graued Cherubs on the walles.

8 And he made the houſe moſt holy: whoſe length was twentie cubites, lyke to the breadth of the houſe, and the breadth thereof was alſo twentie cubites: and he ouerlayde it with good golde, euen with ſyxe hundred talentes.

9 And the weyght of the nayles of gold was fiftie ſicles, and he ouerlaide the vpper chambers with golde.

10 * And in the houſe moſt holy he made two Cherubims of image woorke, lyke children, and ouerlayde them with golde.

12 And euen ſo the one wyng of the other Cherub was fyue cubites, reachyng to the walle of the houſe: and the other wyng was fyue cubites alſo, and reached to the wyng of the other Cherub.

13 So that the wynges of the ſayde Cherubs were ſtretched out twentie cubites: and they ſtoode on their feete, and looked inwardes.

4 And it ſtoode alſo vpon twelue oxen: three looked towarde the north, three towarde the weaſt, three towarde the ſouth, and three towarde the eaſt: and the lauatorie was ſet vpon them, and al their backes were towarde the lauatorie.

5 And the thickeſt of it was an hand breadth, and the brym lyke the brym of a cup, with floures of lilies: and it receiued and held three thouſande battes,

6 * And he made tenne lauers, and put fyue on the ryght hande, and fyue on the leaſt, to waſhe and cleanſe in them ſuch thynges as they offered for a burnt offering: But yͤ great lauatorie was for the prieſtes to waſhe in.

3.Reg.7.a.

13 And foure hundred pomegranates on the two wreathes: two rowes of pomegranates on one wreath to couer the two bowles of the pommelles.

C 14 And he made two bottomes, and lauers made he vpon the bottomes.

15 The great lauatorie, and twelue oxen vnder it.

16 Pottes alſo, ſhouels, and fleaſhhookes: and al theſe veſſels did (a) Hiram his father make to king Solomon for the houſe of the Lord, of bryght braſſe.

(a) Hiram is called Solomons father, becauſe Solomon reuerenced hym, and fauoured hym as his father.

17 In the playne of Iordane dyd the kyng caſt them, euen in the clay ground that is betweene Socoth and Zaredatha.

The.v.Chapter.

1 The thynges dedicated by Dauid, are put in the temple. 2 The arke is brought into the temple. 10 What was within it. 12 They ſyng prayſe vnto the Lorde.

A 1 AND ſo al the worke that Solomō made in the houſe of the Lord was finiſhed: And * Solomon brought in al the thyngs that Dauid his father had dedicated, with the ſyluer and golde, & al the iewels, and put them among the treaſures of the houſe of God.

3.Re.7.g.

3.Re.8.a. 2 Then Solomon geathered the elders of Iſrael togeather, and al the heades of the tribes, and auncient fathers of the chyldren of Iſrael, vnto Hieruſalem, to bryng the arke of the couenant of the Lorde out of the citie of Dauid, whiche is [in] Sion.

3 Wherefore al the menne of Iſrael reſorted vnto the kyng in the feaſte, euen in the (a) ſeuenth mooneth.

4 And al the elders of Iſrael came, and the Leuites tooke vp the arke.

5 And the prieſtes and the Leuites brought awaye the arke of the tabernacle of the congregation, and al the holye veſſels that were in the tabernacle, and they bare them.

6 And kyng Solomon and al the congregation of Iſrael that were aſſembled vnto him before the arke, offered ſheepe and oxen, ſo many, that they coulde not be told, nor numbred for multitude.

7 And the prieſtes brought the arke of the appoyntmente of the Lorde vnto his place, euen into the quier of the temple within the place moſt holy, and ſet it vnder the winges of the Cherubs, B

8 So that the Cherubs ſtretched out their wynges ouer the place of the arke, and the Cherubs couered both the arke & her barres aboue on hygh.

9 And the barres of the arke were ſo long, that the heades of yͤ barres were ſeene without the arke within the quier, but not without: and there the arke remayned vnto this day.

3.Re.8.f. 10 But there was nothyng in the arke, * ſaue the two tables whiche Moſes put therein at Horeb, when the Lorde made a couenant with the chyldren of Iſrael after they were comme out of Egypt.

11 And it fortuned, that when the prieſtes were come out of the holy place (for al the prieſtes that were preſent, were ſanctified, and dyd not then wayte by courſe,)

12 That both the Leuites and the ſingers, vnder Aſaph, Heman, and Ieduthun, were appoynted to ſundrye offices, with their chyldren and brethren, and were arayed in fyne white, hauing cymbales, pſalteries, & harpes, and ſtoode at the eaſt ende of the aulter, and by them an hundred and twentie prieſtes blowyng with trumpettes.

13 And the trumpet blowers, and the ſyngers ſo agreed, that it ſeemed but one voyce in prayſing & thankyng the Lorde: and when they lyft vp their voyce with the trumpets, cymbales, & other inſtrumentes of muſicke, and when they prayſed the Lorde, how that he is good, and that his mercye laſteth euer: the houſe of God was filled with a cloude,

14 So that the prieſtes coulde not endure to miniſter by the reaſon of the cloude: For the Maieſtie of the Lorde had fylled the houſe of God. C

The.vi.Chapter.

3 Solomon bleſſeth the people. 4 He prayſeth the Lorde. 14 He prayeth vnto God for thoſe that ſhal pray in the temple.

A 1 Then Solomon ſayde, * The Lorde hath ſpoken, howe that he wyl dwelle in the darcke cloude. 3.Reg.8.b.

2 And I haue buylte thee an houſe of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwellyng for euer.

3 And the kyng turned his face, and bleſſed the whole congregation of Iſrael, and al the congregation of Iſrael ſtoode.

4 And he ſayde, Bleſſed be the Lorde God of Iſrael, whiche hath with his handes fulfylled it that he ſpake with his mouth to my father Dauid, ſayeing,

2.Reg.7.a. 3.Reg.13.b 5 Since the daye that I brought my people out of the lande of Egypt, I choſe no citie among al the tribes of Iſrael to buylde an * houſe in, that my name myght be there, neyther choſe I any man to be a ruler ouer my people Iſrael: * Or, temple.

2.Par.7.d. and.12.d. 6 Sauyng that * I haue choſen Hieruſalem, that my name might be there, and haue choſen Dauid to be ouer my people Iſrael.

2.Reg.7.a. 3.Reg.8.b 1.Par.22.b. 7 * And when it was in the harte of Dauid my father to buylde an houſe for the name of the Lorde God of Iſrael.

B 8 The Lorde ſaide to Dauid my father, Foraſmuche as it was in thyne hart to buyld an houſe for my name, thou dyddeſt wel that thou thoughteſt in thyne hart.

9 Notwithſtandyng, thou ſhalt not buylde the houſe: but thy ſonne whiche is proceeded out of thy loynes, he ſhal buylde an houſe for my name.

10 The Lorde therefore hath made good his ſayeing that he hath ſpoken: and I am ryſen vp in the roome of Dauid my father, and am ſet on the ſeate of Iſrael, as the Lord promiſed, and haue buylte an houſe for the name of the Lorde God of Iſrael.

11 And in it haue I put the arke, wherin is the (b) couenant of the Lorde that he made with the chyldren of Iſrael. (b) Meanyng the two tables

12 And the king ſtoode before the aulter of the Lorde in the preſence of al the congregation of Iſrael, and ſtretched out his handes.

13 (For nowe Solomon had made a braſen ſcaffolde of fyue cubites long, & fyue cubites broade, and three of heyght, and had ſet it in the myddes of the great courte, and vpon it he ſtoode, and kneeled downe vpon his knees before al the congregation of Iſrael, and ſtretched out his handes towarde heauen,)

14 And ſayde, * O Lorde God of Iſrael, there is no god lyke thee in heauen and earth, which keepeſt couenant, and ſheweſt mercy vnto thy ſeruantes that walke before thee with al their hartes. 3.Reg.8.c. C

15 Thou whiche haſt kept with thy ſeruante Dauid my father the thinges that thou promiſedſt him, thou ſaideſt it with thy mouth, and haſt fulfylled it with thyne handes, as it is to ſee this day.

16 And nowe Lorde GOD of Iſrael, keepe with thy ſeruante Dauid my father the thynges that thou promiſedſt hym, ſayeing, * Thou ſhalt in my ſyght not be without a man that ſhal ſytte vpon the ſeate of Iſrael, ſo that thy chyldrẽ take heede to their wayes to walke in my lawe, as thou haſt walked before me. 3.Reg.2.a. and.6.b. 2.Par.7.d.

17 And now Lord God of Iſrael, let thy ſayeing be true which thou ſpakeſt vnto thy ſeruant Dauid.

18 (And wyl God in verye deede dwelle with menne on earth? Beholde, * heauen & heauen aboue al heauens doo not conteyne thee, how muche leſſe, the houſe whiche I haue buylded?) 3.Reg.8.c. Eſai.66.a. Actes.7.f.

19 Let it be thy pleaſure therefore, to turne to the prayer of thy ſeruant, and to his ſupplication, O Lorde my God, to hearken vnto the voyce and prayer which thy ſeruant prayeth before thee,

20 And let thyne eyes be open towarde this houſe day and nyght, ouer this place whereof thou haſt ſayde that thou wouldeſt put thy name there, to hearken vnto the prayer whiche thy ſeruant prayeth in this place.

21 Hearken vnto the prayers of thy ſeruant, and of thy people Iſrael, whiche they pray in this place: heare thou, I ſay, out of thy dwellyng place, euen out of heauen, heare, and be mercyful.

3.Reg.8.d. 22 *If a man ſinne agaynſt his neyghbour, & take an othe agaynſt hym, and make hym to ſweare, and they both comme before thine aulter in this houſe:

23 Then heare thou from heauen, and doo and iudge thy ſeruantes, that thou rewarde the vngodly, and recompence hym his way vpon his head, and iuſtifie the ryghteous, and geue hym accordyng to his ryghteouſneſſe.

24 And if thy people Iſrael be put to the worſe before the enimie, becauſe they haue ſynned agaynſt thee: yet if they turne and geue thankes vnto thy name, and make interceſſion, and pray before thee in this houſe:

25 Then heare thou from heauen, and be mercyful vnto the ſinne of thy people Iſrael, and bryng them agayne vnto the lande whiche thou gaueſt to them, and to their fathers.

Deut.10.b 3.Reg.17.a 26 *When heauen is ſhut vp, and there be no rayne, becauſe they haue ſinned agaynſt thee: yet if they praye in this place, and confeſſe thy name, and repent from their ſynne for the whiche thou chaſteneſt them:

E 27 Then heare thou in heauen, and be mercyful vnto the ſynne of thy ſeruantes, and of thy people Iſrael, and guyde thou them into the good way to walke in, and ſende rayne vpon thy lande which thou haſt geuen vnto thy people for an inheritance.

28 And if there be dearth in the lande, or peſtilence, corruption, or blaſtyng of corne, graſhoppers, or caterpillers, or that their enimies beſiege them in the * cities of their lande, or whatſoeuer plague or ſickneſſe it be:

* Or, in the lande of their gates.

29 Then what ſupplications and prayers ſoeuer ſhalbe made of anye man, and of al thy people Iſrael, which ſhal knowe euery man his owne ſoare and his owne griefe, and ſhal ſtretche out their handes toward this houſe:

30 Thou ſhalt heare from heauen, euen from thy dwellyng place, and ſhalt be mercyful, & geue euery mā accordyng vnto al his waies, euen as thou dooeſt know euery mans hart: (for thou (d) onlye knoweſt the hartes of the chyldren of menne,)

(d) God onlye knoweth the hart of menne.

31 That they may feare thee, and walke in thy wayes as long as they lyue, in the land whiche thou gaueſt vnto our fathers.

3.Reg.8.c. Iohn.12.c. Actes,8.f. 32 Moreouer, the ſtraunger whiche is not of thy people Iſrael, if he comme from a farre lande for thy great names ſake, & thy myghtie hande, and thy ſtretched out arme: If they comme, I ſay, and pray in this houſe: F

33 Thou ſhalt heare from heauen, euen from thy dwellyng place, and ſhalt doo according to al that the ſtranger calleth to thee for: that al people of the earth maye knowe thy name, and feare thee as dooth thy people Iſrael, and that they may knowe how that in this houſe whiche I haue buylte, thy name is called vpon.

34 If thy people goe out to warre agaynſte their enimies by the waye that thou ſhalte ſend them, and they pray to thee in the way * towarde the citie whiche thou haſt choſen, euen towarde the houſe which I haue built for thy name: Deut.6.d.

35 Then heare thou from heauen their ſupplication and prayer, and healpe them in their ryght.

36 If they ſinne agaynſt thee (as* there is nō man but he dooth ſynne) and thou be angry with them, and delyuer them ouer before their enimies, and they take them, and carry them awaye captiues vnto a lande farre or neare: 3.Reg.8.e. 1.Iohn.1.d.

37 Yet if they repent in their harte in the lande where they be in captiuitie, and turne, and praye vnto thee in the lande of their captiuitie, ſayeing, We haue ſinned, we haue donne euyl and wickedly:

38 And turne agayne to thee with al their harte, and al their ſoule, in the lande of their captiuitie where thei kepe them in bondage, and ſo pray towarde their land, whiche thou gaueſt vnto their fathers, euen towarde the citie whiche thou haſt choſen, and towarde yͤ houſe whiche I haue buylt for my name:

39 Then heare thou from heauen, euen from thy dwellyng place, their ſupplication and their prayer, and iudge their cauſe, and be mercyful vnto thy people whiche haue ſynned agaynſt thee.

40 Nowe my God, let thyne eyes be open, and thyne eares attent vnto the prayer that is made in this place. G

41 Nowe vp,* O Lord God, into thy (e) reaſtyng place, thou & the arke of thy ſtrength: O Lord God, let thy prieſtes be clothed with health, and let thy ſaintes reioyce in goodneſſe. Pſal.132.a

(e) That is, into thy temple.

42 O Lorde God, turne not awaye the face of thyne (f) annoynted: remember the mercies which thou haſt promiſed to Dauid thy ſeruant.

1 The fyre conſumeth the ſacrifice. 2 The glory of the Lorde fylleth the temple.
12 He heareth his prayer. 17 And promiſeth to exalt hym and his throne.

A 1 AND* when Solomon had made an end of praying,* there came downe fyre from heauen, & conſumed the burnt offering and the ſacrifices: and the houſe was fylled with the glory of the Lorde.

3.Reg.8.f.
Leui.9.d.
3.Reg.8.g.

2 And the prieſtes coulde not goe into the houſe of the Lorde, becauſe the glorye of the Lorde had fylled the Lordes houſe.

3 And when al the chyldren of Iſrael ſawe howe the fyre and the glory of the lord came downe vpon the houſe, they felle downe flat vpon their faces to the earth vpon the pauement, and woorſhypped and confeſſed vnto the Lorde, that he is gracious, and that his mercy laſteth euer.

4 And the kyng and al the people offered ſacrifices before the Lorde.

5 And kyng Solomon offered a ſacrifice of twentie and two thouſande oxen, and an hundred and twentie thouſande ſheepe: and ſo the kyng and al the people dedicated the houſe of God.

6 And the prieſtes waited on their offices, and the Leuites had the inſtruments of muſicke of the Lorde, which kyng Dauid had made to confeſſe vnto the Lorde, that his mercye laſteth euer, Dauid prayſing God by them: And the prieſtes blewe with trumpettes before them, and al they of Iſrael ſtoode.

B 7 Moreouer, Solomon halowed the myddle of the court that was before the houſe of the Lorde, for there he offered burnt offerynges: and the fatte of the peace offerynges, becauſe the braſen aulter whiche Solomon hadde made, was not able to receiue the burnt offerynges, and the meate offeringes, and the fat.

1.Mac.3.g.
(a) That was the feaſt of tabernacles.

8 So at the ſame tyme Solomon kept * a (a) feaſte of ſeuen dayes, and al they of Iſrael with hym, an exceeding great congregation, euen from the entryng in of Hamath, vnto the ryuer of Egypt.

9 And in the eygth daye they made an aſſemblie: for they kept the dedication of the aulter ſeuen dayes, and the feaſt ſeuen dayes.

10 And the three and twentieth day of the ſeuenth moneth, he let the people departe into their tentes gladde and mery in harte, for the goodneſſe that the Lord had ſhewed to Dauid and to Solomon, & to Iſrael his people.

3.Reg.9.a. 11 * And ſo Solomon finiſhed the houſe of the Lorde, and the kynges houſe: and al that came in his harte to make in the houſe of the Lorde, and in his owne houſe, went proſperouſly forewarde.

12 And the Lorde appeared to Solomon by nyght, and ſayde to hym, I haue hearde thy petition, and * haue choſen this place for my ſelfe to be an houſe of ſacrifice.

2.Par.6.a.

13 If I ſhut vp heauen that there be no rayne, or if I commaunde the locuſtes to deuoure the lande, or if I ſende peſtilence among my people:

15 And from henceforth myne eyes ſhalbe open, and myne eares attent vnto the prayer that is made in this place.

16 And therefore nowe * I haue choſen and ſanctified this houſe, that my name maye be there for euer: and myne eyes and myne hart ſhalbe there perpetually.

2.Par.6.a.

17 And if thou wylt walke before me, as Dauid thy father walked, to doo al that I haue commaunded thee, and ſhalt obſerue my ſtatutes and my lawes:

18 Then wyl I ſtabliſhe the ſeate of thy kingdome, accordyng as I made the couenante with Dauid thy father, ſaieing, * Thou ſhalt not be without a man to be ruler in Iſrael.

2.Reg.2.a. and.20.a.

19 But and if ye turne away, and forſake my ſtatutes & my commaundementes whiche I haue ſet before you, and ſhal goe and ſerue other gods, and woorſhyp them:

20 Then wil I plucke them vp by the rootes, out of my land whiche I haue geuen them, and this houſe whiche I haue ſanctified for my name, wyl I caſte out of my ſyght, and wyl make it to be a prouerbe & a ieſt among al nations. D

21 And this houſe whiche is moſt hygh, ſhalbe an aſtoniſhment to euery one that paſſeth by, and ſhal ſay, * Why hath the Lorde dealt on this faſhion with this lande, and with this houſe?

3 And Solomon went to Hamath, Zoba,[(b)] and ſtrengthed it.

(b) Other reade, he ouercame it.

4 And he buylt Thadmor in the wyldernesse, and repayred al the ſtore cities whiche were in Hamath.

5 And he built Bethhoron the vpper, & Bethhoron the neather, ſtrong cities, hauyng walles, gates, and barres:

6 And Baalah, and al the ſtore cities that Solomon had, and al the charret cities, and the cities of the horſemenne, and euerye pleaſant place that Solomon had luſt to buylde in Hieruſalem and Libanon, and throughout al the lande of his dominion.

B 7 And al the people that were leaft of the Hethites, Amorites, Pherezites, Heuites, and Iebuſites, which were not of the chyldren of Iſrael,

8 But were the chyldren of them whiche were leaft after them in the lande, and were not conſumed of the chyldren of Iſrael, them dyd Solomon make to pay tribute, vntyl this day.

9 But of the children of Iſrael dyd Solomon make no bondemenne for his worke: but they were menne of warre, and rulers, and great lordes with hym, and captaynes ouer his charrettes and horſemenne.

10 And kyng Solomons officers that ouerſawe and ruled the people, were two hundred and fyftie.

11 And Solomon brought the daughter of Pharao out of the citie of Dauid, into the houſe that he had buylded for her: for he ſayd, My wyfe ſhal not dwel in the houſe of Dauid kyng of Iſrael, for it is holy, becauſe that the arke of the Lorde is comme vnto it.

12 Then Solomon offered burnt offeryngs vnto the Lorde on the aulter of the Lorde, whiche he had buylt before the porche:

1.Par.9.d

15 And they omitted not the commaundement of the kyng vnto the prieſtes and Leuites, concernyng any manner of thyng, and concernyng the treaſures.

16 For Solomon made prouiſion for the charges, from the firſte day that the fundation of the houſe of the Lorde was layde, tyl it was finiſhed, that the houſe of the Lorde was perfect.

17 Then went kyng Solomon to Ezion Gaber, and to Eloth at the ſea ſyde in the lande of Edom.

18 And Hiram ſent hym by the handes of his ſeruantes, ſhippes, and ſeruantes that had knowledge of the ſea: and they went with the ſeruants of Solomon to Ophir, & caried thence foure hundred and fyftie talentes of golde, and brought it to kyng Solomon.

A 1 AND* when the Queene of Saba hearde of the fame of Solomon, ſhe came to proue hym in harde queſtions at Hieruſalem, with a very great companie, with camels that bare ſpices, and plenty of golde, and precious ſtones: And when ſhe was comme to Solomon, ſhe communed with hym of al that ſhe had in her hart.

3.Reg.10.a Mat.14.d. Luke.10.b

2 And Solomon ſoyled her al her queſtions: and there was not one woorde hyd from Solomon whiche he tolde her not.

3 And when the Queene of Saba had ſeene the wyſedome of Solomon, and the houſe that he had buylt,

5 And ſhe ſayde to the kyng, The ſayeing which I hearde in myne owne land of thine actes, and of thy wyſedome, is true.

6 I beleued not the woordes of them, vntyl I came, and myne eyes had ſeene it: and beholde, the one halfe of thy wyſedome was not tolde me: for thou exceedeſt the fame that I hearde.

B 7 Happy are thy menne, and happy are theſe thy ſeruantes whiche ſtande before thee alway, and heare thy wyſedome.

8 Bleſſed be the Lorde thy God, whiche had luſt to thee, to ſet thee [kyng] on his ſeate, that thou myghteſt be kyng for the Lorde thy God: becauſe thy God loueth Iſrael [and hath delyte] to make them continue euer, therfore made he thee kyng ouer them to doo ryght and equitie.

9 And ſhe gaue the king an hundred & twentie talentes of golde, and of ſpyces exceedyng great abundance, and precious ſtones: Neyther was there anye more ſuche ſpice as the queene of Saba gaue kyng Solomon.

10 And the ſeruantes of Hiram, and the ſeruantes of Solomon, whiche brought golde from Ophir, brought alſo Algume woode and precious ſtones.

11 And the kyng made of the Algume woode ſtayres in the houſe of the Lorde, and in the kynges palace, and harpes, and pſalteries for ſyngers: and there was none ſuche woode ſeene before in the lande of Iuda.

12 And kyng Solomon gaue to the Queene of Saba euerye pleaſante thyng that ſhe aſked, (c)beſydes that whiche ſhe had brought vnto the kyng, and ſo ſhe turned, and went away to her owne lande with her ſeruantes.

(c) Beſyde that, that is to ſay, the recompence of that which ſhe had brought vnto the kyng.

C 14 Beſydes that whiche chapmen and marchantes brought: and al the kynges of Arabia, and rulers of that countrey, brought gold and ſyluer to Solomon.

15 And kyng Solomon made two hundred targettes of beaten golde: and ſyxe hundred ſicles of beaten golde were ſpente vpon one target.

16 And three hundred ſhieldes made he of beaten golde, and one ſhielde coſt three hundred peeces of gold: and the kyng put them in the houſe that was in the forreſt of Libanon.

17 And the kyng made a great ſeate of iuory, and ouerlayde it with pure golde.

18 And there were ſyxe ſteps to the ſeate, with a footeſtoole of gold faſtened to the ſeate: and pommelles on eche ſyde of the ſyttyng place, and two lions ſtandyng by the pommelles.

19 And twelue lions ſtoode on the one ſyde and on the other vpon the ſixe ſteppes: ſo that there was no ſuche woorke made in anye kyngdome.

20 And al the drynkyng veſſels of kyng Solomon were of golde, and al the veſſels of the houſe that was in the forreſt of Libanon were of precious golde: for ſyluer was counted nothyng woorth in the dayes of Solomon. D

21 For the kynges ſhyppes went to Tharſis with the ſeruantes of Hiram, euerye three yeeres once came the ſhippes to Tharſis, and brought golde, ſyluer, iuorie, and apes, and pecockes.

22 *And kyng Solomon paſſed al the kings of the earth, in richeſſe and wyſdome. 3.Re.10.d.

23 And al the kynges of the earth ſought the preſence of Solomon, to heare his wiſedome that God had put in his hart.

24 And they brought euerye man his preſent, veſſels of ſyluer, & veſſels of golde, rayment, harneſſe, ſpices, horſes, and mules, and whatſoeuer myght be gotten yeere by yeere.

25 *And Solomon had foure thouſand ſtalles for horſes, and charrettes, and twelue thouſand horſemenne, whom he beſtowed in the charret cities, and [ſomme were] with the kyng at Hieruſalem. 3.Re.4.d.

26 And he raigned ouer al the kynges that were from Euphrates, vnto the lande of the Philiſtines, and to the border of Egypt.

27 And the kyng made ſyluer in Hieruſalem as plenteous as ſtones, and Cedar trees as plenteous as the mulberie trees that growe in the valleys: 3.Re.10.d.

28 And they brought vnto Solomon horſes out of Egypt, and out of al landes.

29 *The reaſt of the actes of kyng Solomon firſt and laſt, are they not written in the ſayeinges of Nathan the prophet, and in the propheſie of Ahiah the Silonite, and in the viſions of Iddo the ſear of viſions agaynſt Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat: 3.Reg.11.g

30 And Solomon raigned in Hieruſalem vpon al Iſrael fourtie yeeres.

5 And he ſayde to them, Comme agayne vnto me after three daies. And the people departed.

6 And kyng Rehoboam counſailed with the elders that had ſtande before Solomon his father whyle he yet lyued, & he ſayde, What counſayle geue ye me, to anſweare this people agayne?

B 7 And they tolde hym, ſayeing, If thou be kynd to this people, and ſhew thee ſelfe lowlie to them, and ſpeake louyng woordes to them, they wyl be thy ſeruantes for euer.

8 But he leaft the counſayle which the elders gaue hym, and tooke counſayle with the young menne that were growen vp with hym, and (a) that ſtoode in his preſence.

(a) whiche were of his counſel and ſecrete.

9 And he ſaide vnto them, What aduiſe geue ye, that we maye anſweare this people, whiche haue cōmuned with me, ſayeing, Abate ſomewhat of the yoke whiche thy father did put vpon vs?

10 And the young menne that were growen vp with hym, ſpake vnto hym, ſayeing, Thus ſhalt thou anſweare the people that ſpake to thee, ſayeing, Thy father made our yoke heauie, but make thou it ſomewhat lyghter for vs: Thus ſhalt thou ſaye vnto them, My litle fynger ſhalbe heauier then my fathers loynes.

11 * For where my father put a heauie yoke vpon you, I wil put more to your yoke: My father chaſtiſed you with whyppes, but I wyl chaſtiſe you with ſcourges. 3.Re.11.e.

12 And ſo Ieroboam and al the people came to Rehoboam the thirde day, as the kyng bade, ſayeing, Come agayne to me the thirde day.

13 And the kyng anſweared them cruelly: and kyng Rehoboam leafte the counſayle of the aged menne.

C 14 And anſweared them after the aduiſe of the young menne, ſayeing, My father made your yoke greeuous, and I wyl adde therto: my father chaſtiſed you with whyppes, but I wyl chaſtiſe you with ſcourges.

15 And ſo the kyng hearkened not vnto the people: but the occaſion came of God, that the Lorde myght make good his ſayeing * which he ſpake by the hand of Ahia the Silonite to Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat. 3.Reg.11.f.

16 And when al they of Iſrael ſawe that the king would not agree vnto them, the people anſweared the kyng, ſayeing, What portion haue we in Dauid? For we haue no inheritance in the ſonne of Iſai: Euery man to his tent oh Iſrael, * and nowe Dauid ſee to thyne owne houſe. And ſo al Iſrael gate thē to their tentes. 3.Re.12.d.

4 Thus ſayth the Lord, ye ſhal not goe vp, nor fyght agaynſt your brethren: returne euery man to his houſe, for this thyng is donne of me. And they obeyed the woordes of the Lorde, & returned from going againſt Jeroboam.

5 And Rehoboam dwelt in Hieruſalem, and buylt ſtrong cities in Juda.

6 He buylt vp Bethlehem, and Etam, and Thekoa,

7 Bethzur, Socho, and Adullam,

B 8 Gath, and Mareſa, and Ziph,

9 Adurahim, Lachis, and Azechah,

10 Zoraa, Aialon, and Hebron, whiche is in Juda and Beniamin, ſtrong cities.

11 And he repaired the ſtrong holdes, and put captaynes in them, and ſtoare of vitayle, and wine, and oyle:

12 And in al cities he put ſhieldes and ſpeares, and made them exceedyng ſtrong, hauyng Juda and Beniamin on his ſyde.

13 And the prieſtes and the Leuites that were in al Iſrael, reſorted to hym out of al theyr coaſtes.

C 14 For the Leuites left theyr ſuburbes, and their poſſeſſion, and came to Juda and Hieruſalem:* For Jeroboam and his ſonnes had caſt them out from miniſtring vnto the lord.

2.Par,13.d.

15 * And he ordeyned hym prieſtes for the high places, for the (a) deuils, and for the calues which he had made.

3.Re,12.g.

(a) Meanyng idols.

16 And after the Leuites, there went out al the tribes of Iſrael, ſuche as ſubmitted theyr hartes to ſeeke the Lorde God of Iſrael, and came to Hieruſalem to offer vnto the Lorde God of theyr fathers.

17 And ſo they ſtrengthed the kyngdome of Juda, & made Rehoboam the ſonne of Solomon myghty three yeeres long: for three (b) yeeres they walked in the way of Dauid and Solomon.

(b) So long as they feared God, and ſet foorth his woorde, they proſpered.

18 And Rehoboam tooke hym Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the ſonne of Dauid to wyfe, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the ſonne of Iſai:

19 Whiche bare hym chyldren, Jeus, Samaria, and Zaham.

20 And after her he tooke* Maacha the daughter of Abſolon, which bare him Abia, Atthai, Ziza, and Selomith.

3.Re.15.a.

21 And Rehoboam loued Maacha the daughter of Abſolon, aboue al his wyues and concubines: for he tooke eyghtiene wyues and threeſcore concubines, and begate twentie and eyght ſonnes, and threeſcore daughters. D

22 And Rehoboam made Abia the ſonne of Maacha, the chiefe ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make hym kyng.

23 (c) And he played wyſely, and ſcattered al his chyldren throughout al the countreys of Juda and Beniamin vnto euery ſtrong citie, and he gaue them abundance of vitayle, and obteyned many wyues.

(c) Others reade, and he taught hym.

The .xii. Chapter,

1 Rehoboam forſaketh the Lorde, and is puniſhed by Seſac. 6 Semeia reproueth hym.
6 He humbleth hym ſelfe. 7 God ſendeth hym ſuccour. 9 Seſac taketh his treaſures.
13 His raigne and death. 16 Abia his ſonne ſucceedeth hym.

A 1 AND it came to paſſe, that when Rehoboam hadde ſtabliſhed the kingdome, and became myghty, he forſooke the lawe of the Lorde, and (a) al Iſrael with hym.

(a) As the prince is, ſo for the moſt part the people wyl be.

2 And it fortuned, that in the fifth yeere of kyng Rehoboam, Seſac the kyng of Egypt came vp agaynſt Hieruſalem, because they had tranſgreſſed agaynſt the Lorde,

3 With twelue hundred charettes, and threeſcore thouſande horſemen: And the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt, Lubim, (b) Suckim, and the blacke Moores.

(b) Whiche were a people in Africa, called the Troglodites, becauſe they dwelt in holes

4 And he tooke the ſtrong cities in Juda, and came to Hieruſalem.

5 Then came Semeia the prophete to Rehoboam, and to the lordes of Juda that were geathered togeather within Hieruſalem for Seſac, and ſayd vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lorde, ye haue leaft me, and therefore haue I alſo (c) leaft you in the handes of Seſac.

(c) God neuer leaueth vs, vntyl we haue caſt hym away.

6 Whereupon the lordes of Iſrael & the kyng humbled them ſelues and ſayde, The Lorde is ryghteous.

7 And when the Lorde ſawe that they ſubmitted them ſelues, the woorde of the Lorde came to Semeia, ſayeing, They ſubmit them ſelues, therfore I wil not deſtroy them, but I wyl deliuer them ſomewhat, and my wrath ſhal not be powred out vpon Hieruſalem by the hande of Seſac.

B 8 Neuertheleſſe, they ſhalbe his ſeruantes: to knowe what difference is betweene (d) my ſeruice, and the ſeruice of the kyngdomes of the worlde.

(d) God puniſheth his, not to deſtroy them, but to reforme them.

9 And ſo Seſac kyng of Egypt came to Hieruſalem, and tooke away the treaſures of the houſe of the Lorde, and the treaſures of the kynges houſe, he tooke euen al: and he caryed away the ſhieldes of golde * whiche Solomon made.

3.Re.10.a.

10 In ſteede of whiche, kyng Rehoboam made ſhieldes of braſſe, & committed them to the handes of the chiefe of the garde, and that kept the entrance of the kynges houſe.

11 And it came to paſſe, that when the kyng entred into the houſe of the Lorde, the garde came, and fet them, & brought them agayne vnto the garde chamber.

12 And when he humbled hym ſelfe, yͤ wrath of the Lord turned from him, that he would not deſtroy altogeather: and in Iuda al was wel.

13 And ſo kyng Rehoboam waxed myghty, and raigned in Hieruſalem: And Rehoboam was one and fourtie yeeres olde when he beganne to raigne, and he raigned ſeuentiene yeeres in Hieruſalem, the citie whiche the Lorde had choſen out of al the tribes of Iſrael, to put his name there: And his mothers name was Naama, an Ammoniteſſe.

14 * And he dyd euyl, becauſe he prepared not his hart to ſeeke the Lorde.

3.Re.14.f.

15 The actes alſo of Rehoboam firſt and laſt, are they not written in the ſayeinges of Semeia the prophete, and of Iddo the Sear, which noted the genealogie? And there was warre alway betweene Rehoboam and Ieroboam.

16 And Rehoboam ſleapt with his fathers, and was buried in the citie of Dauid, and Abia his ſonne raigned in his ſteede.

The.xiii.Chapter.

1 Abia maketh warre agaynſt Ieroboam. 4 He ſheweth the occaſion. 12 He truſteth in the Lorde, and ouercommeth Ieroboam. 21 Of his wyues and chyldren.

A

4.Re.15.a.

1 THE eyghtienth yeere of kyng Ieroboam * beganne Abia to raigne ouer Iuda.

2 And he raigned three yeeres in Hieruſalem: (His mothers name alſo was Michaiahu, the daughter (a) of Vriel of Gibea:) And there was warre betweene Abia and Ieroboam.

(a) Called otherwyſe Abſalon.

3 And Abia ſet the batayle in aray, with the armie of valiant menne of warre, euen foure hundred thouſande choſen men: And Ieroboam ſet hym ſelfe in aray, to fyght agaynſt hym, with eyght hundred thouſande pickt men, which were ſtrong, and men of armes.

4 And Abia ſtoode vp vpon Zemaraim, an hil whiche is in mount Ephraim, and ſayd, Heare me thou Ieroboam, and al Iſrael.

5 Doo not you knowe howe that the Lorde GOD of Iſrael gaue the kyngdome ouer them of Iſrael to Dauid for euer, euen to hym and to his ſonnes, with a (b) ſalted couenant?

(b) With a firme and perpetual.

6 And Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat, the ſeruant of Solomon the ſonne of Dauid, is ryſen vp, and hath rebelled agaynſt his lorde.

7 And there geathered to hym lewde men, the children of Belial, and preuayled againſt Rehoboam the ſonne of Solomon, when Rehoboam was (c) young and tender harted, and coulde not ſtande before them.

(c) In hart and courage.

B

8 And now ye ſay, that ye be hable to preuaile agaynſt the kyngdome of the Lord, whiche is in the hande of the ſonnes of Dauid, and ye be a great multitude, and haue the golden calues * whiche Ieroboam made you for goddes.

3.Re.12.f.

2.Par.11.c.

9 * And haue ye not caſt out the prieſtes of the Lorde, the ſonnes of Aaron, and the Leuites, and haue made you prieſtes, after the manner of the nations of other landes? ſo that whoſoeuer commeth and conſecrateth his hand with a young oxe and ſeuen rammes, the ſame may be a prieſt of them that are no goddes.

10 But we belong vnto the Lorde our God, whom we haue not forſaken, and the prieſts are the ſonnes of Aaron, whiche miniſter vnto the Lorde, and the Leuites wayte vpon their office.

11 They burne vnto the Lorde euery mornyng and euenyng burnt ſacrifices, & ſweete incenſe: the ſhewe bread ſet they in order vpon a pure table, and prepare the candelſticke of golde, with yͤ lampes of the ſame, to burne euer at euen: And truely we kept the watche of the Lorde our God, but ye haue forſaken hym.

12 And beholde, GOD hym ſelfe is our captayne, and his prieſtes blow with the * trumpettes, and crie alarum agaynſt you. O ye chyldren of Iſrael, fight not agaynſt the lord God of your fathers: for it wyl not proſper with you.

Leuit.10.a

13 But for al that, Ieroboam conueyed men priuily about, to comme behinde them: and ſo they were before Iuda, and the layers in wayte were behinde them.

14 And when they of Iuda looked about, beholde the batayle was before and behinde, and they cryed vnto the Lorde, & the prieſtes blewe with the trumpettes,

15 And the menne of Iuda gaue a ſhowte: And as the menne of Iuda ſhowted, it came to paſſe, that GOD ſmote Ieroboam and al Iſrael before Abia and Iuda.

16 And the chyldren of Iſrael fled before Iuda, and God deliuered them into their hand.

17 And Abia & his people ſlue a great ſlaughter of them: There fel downe wounded of Iſrael fiue hundred thouſande choſen men.

18 And ſo the chyldren of Iſrael were brought vnder at that tyme, and the chyldren of Iuda preuayled, (b) becauſe they leaned vnto the Lorde God of theyr fathers.

(b) The cauſe of victory.

19 And Abia folowed after Ieroboam, and tooke cities from hym, Bethel with the townes belongyng thereto, Ieſana with the townes that belonged thereto, and Ephron with theyr townes.

20 And Ieroboam recouered no ſtrength agayne in the dayes of Abia: And the Lorde plagued hym, and he dyed. D

21 And Abia waxed myghty, and maried fourtiene wyues, and begate twentie & two ſonnes, and ſixtiene daughters.

22 The reſt of the actes of Abia, his manners, and his ſayeinges, are written in the ſtory of the prophete Iddo.

The .xiiii. Chapter,

3 Aſa deſtroyeth idolatrie, and commaundeth his people to ſerue the true God. 11 He prayeth vnto God, when he ſhoulde goe to fyght. 12 He obteyneth the victorie.

A 1 SO Abia ſleapt with his fathers, and they buryed him in the citie of Dauid, and * Aſa his ſonne raigned in his ſteede, in whoſe dayes the lande was in quietneſſe tenne yeeres.

Math.1.b

3.Reg.15.a 2 And * Aſa dyd that was good and ryght in the eyes of the Lorde his God.

3 For he tooke away ſtrange aulters, and the hygh places, and brake downe the images, and cut downe the groues:

4 And commaunded Iuda to ſeeke the lord God of theyr fathers, and to doo accordyng to the lawe and commaundement.

5 And he put away out of al the cities of Iuda the hygh places and the images: and the kyngdome was quiet before hym.

6 And he buylt ſtrong cities in Iuda, becauſe the lande was in reſt, and he hadde no warre in thoſe yeeres: for the lorde had geuen hym reſt.

7 Therefore he ſayde vnto Iuda, Let vs buylde theſe cities, and make about them walles, towres, gates, & barres, for the lande is yet in reaſt before vs: becauſe we haue ſought the Lorde our God, we haue ſought him, & he hath geuen vs reaſt on euery ſide. And ſo they buylt, & it proſpered with them.

B 8 And Aſa had an armie of menne that bare ſhieldes and ſpeares out of Iuda three hundred thouſande, and out of Beniamin that bare ſhieldes and drewe bowes, two hundred and foureſcore thouſande: al theſe were valiant menne.

9 And there came out agaynſt them Zarah, the blacke Morian * with an hoſt of tenne hundred thouſande, and three hundred charettes, and came as farre as Mareſa. 2.Par.16.c.

10 And Aſa went out before hym, and they ioyned the batayle in the valley of Zephata, beſide Mareſa.

11 And Aſa cryed vnto the Lorde his GOD, and ſayde, Lorde, * it is no harde thyng with thee to helpe with many, or them that haue no power: Helpe vs therefore, O Lorde our God, for we truſt to thee, and in thy name we goe agaynſt this multitude: Thou art the Lorde our GOD, and no man ſhal preuayle agaynſt thee. 1.Re.14.d.

12 So the Lorde ſmote the blacke Moores before Aſa and Iuda, and the blacke Moores fledde.

13 And Aſa & the people that was with hym, folowed after them vnto Gerar: And the blacke Moores hoſt was ouerthrowen, that there was none of them leaft, but were deſtroyed before the Lorde, and before his hoſt: And they caryed away a myghty great pray. C

14 And they ſmote al the cities rounde about Gerar, for the feare of the Lorde came vpon them: And they ſpoyled al the cities, & there was exceedyng muche ſpoyle in them.

15 They ſmote alſo the tentes of catayle, and caryed away plentie of ſheepe and cammels, and returned to Hieruſalem.

The.xv.Chapter.

1 The exhortation of Azaria. 8 Aſa purgeth his countrey of idolatrie. 11 He ſacrifiſeth with the people. 14 They ſweare togeather to ſerue the Lorde. 16 He depoſeth his mother for her idolatrie.

A 1 AND the ſpirite of GOD came on Azaria the ſonne of Obed,

2 And he went out to meete Aſa, and ſayde vnto hym, Heare me Aſa, and al Juda and Beniamin, the Lorde is with you, whyle ye be with hym: and when ye ſeeke hym, he wyl be founde of you: and agayne when ye forſake hym, he alſo wyl forſake you.

3 Nowe for a long ſeaſon, Iſrael hath benne without the true God, and without prieſtes to teache, and without lawe.

4 And when any man in his trouble, dyd turne vnto the Lorde God of Iſrael, & ſought hym, he was founde of them.

5 And in that time there was no peace to him that dyd goe out and in, but great ſedition was there among al the inhabiters of the earth.

6 And nation was deſtroyed of nation, and citie of citie: for God dyd moue al aduerſitie among them.

7 Play ye therefore the men, and let not your handes ſlacke: for your worke ſhal be rewarded.

B 8 And when Aſa hearde thoſe wordes, and the prophecie (a) of Azaria the ſonne of Obed the prophete, he tooke courage, & put away the abominable idols out of al the lande of Juda and Beniamin, and out of the cities whiche he wanne in mount Ephraim, and renued the aulter of the Lorde, that was before the porche of the Lorde.

(a) He had two names, both Azaria, and Obed.

9 And he geathered al Juda and Beniamin, and the ſtrangers with them, out of Ephraim, Manaſſe, & Simeon: For there fel many to hym out of Iſrael, when they ſawe that the Lorde his God was with hym.

10 So they aſſembled togeather at Hieruſalem the (b) thirde moneth, the fiftienth yeere of the raigne of Aſa.

(b) May.

11 And they offered vnto the Lorde the ſame tyme of the ſpoyle whiche they had brought, ſeuen hundred oxen, & ſeuen thouſand ſheepe.

12 And they made a couenant to ſeeke the lord God of theyr fathers, with al theyr hart, and al theyr ſoule.

13 And whoſoeuer woulde not ſeeke the Lord God of Iſrael, (c) ſhoulde dye for it, whether he were ſmal or great, man or woman.

(c) A lawe of death for al idolaters. Deut.xiii.

C 14 And they ſware vnto the Lorde with a loude voyce, ſhowtyng and blowyng with trumpettes and ſhawmes.

15 And al they in Juda reioyced at the othe: for they had ſworne vnto the Lorde with al theyr hart, and ſought him with al theyr luſt, and he was founde of them: And the Lorde gaue them reaſt rounde about on euery ſide.

16 And kyng Aſa put (d) Maacha his mother out of aucthoritie, becauſe ſhe had made an abominable idol in a groue: And Aſa broke downe her idol, and ſtamped it, and burnt it at the brooke Cedron.

(d) His grandmother.

17 But al the hygh places were not taken away out of Iſrael, though the hart of Aſa was perfect al his dayes.

18 And he brought into the houſe of God the thynges that his father had dedicate, and that he hym ſelfe had dedicate: euen ſiluer, and golde, and iewels.

19 And there was no more warre vnto the * thirtie and fiue yeere of the raigne of Aſa.

Iudi,3.b,

The.xvi. Chapter.

1 Aſa for feare of Baaſa kyng of Iſrael, maketh a couenant with Benhadad kyng of Syria. 7 He is reproued by the prophete, 10 whom he putteth in priſon. 12 He putteth his truſt in the phiſitions. 13 His death.

A 1 IN the thirtie and ſixth yeere of the raigne of Aſa, came * Baaſa kyng of Iſrael againſt Juda, and buylt Rama, to thintent that he woulde let none paſſe out or in to Aſa king of Juda.

3,Re.15.c.

2 And Aſa fet out golde and ſiluer out of the treaſures of the houſe of the Lorde, and [out] of the kynges houſe, and ſent to Benhadad kyng of Syria, that dwelt at Darmeſec, and ſayde,

3 There is a confederation betweene me and thee, betweene my father and thyne: beholde, I haue ſent thee ſiluer and golde, that thou wylt comme & breake thyne appoyntment with Baaſa kyng of Iſrael, that he may depart from me.

4 And Benhadad graunted vnto king Aſa, and ſent the captaynes of his armies to the cities of Iſrael: and they ſmote Jion, Dan, & Abelmaim, and al the ſtrong cities of Nephthali.

5 And when Baaſa heard this, he leaſt buyldyng of Rama, and let his woorke ceaſſe.

6 And then Aſa the kyng tooke al Juda, and caryed away the ſtones & timber of Rama, wherewith Baaſa was a buyldyng, and he buylt therewith Geba, and Miſpah.

7 At that time Hanani the Sear came to Aſa kyng of Juda, and ſayd vnto hym, (a) Becauſe thou haſt truſted in the kyng of Syria, and not rather put thy truſt in the Lorde thy God, therefore is the hoſt of the kyng of Syria eſcaped out of thyne hande.

(a) God reproueth ſuche leagues as are made with infidels.

B 2.Par.14.c.

8 * Had not the blacke Moores and Lubim, an exceedyng great hoſt, with many charets and horſemenne? And yet becauſe thou truſtedſt in the Lorde, he deliuered them into thyne hande.

9 For the eyes of the Lorde beholde al the earth, to ſtrengthen them that are of perfect hart towarde hym: * Herein thou haſt donne fooliſhly, and therfore from hencefoorth, thou ſhalt haue warre.

Gen.31.d.

10 And ſo Aſa was wroth with the Sear, and put hym into a (b) priſon houſe, for he was diſpleaſed with hym becauſe of this thyng: And Aſa deſtroied [certayne] of the people the ſame ſeaſon.

(b) The prophete of God puniſhed, for ſpeakyng his meſſage.

11 And beholde, theſe deedes of Aſa firſt and laſt, are written in the booke of the kynges of Juda and Iſrael.

12 And Aſa in the thirtie and ninth yeere of his raigne, fel ſicke in his feete, and that his diſeaſe continued very long: And * in his ſickneſſe he ſought not the Lorde, but phiſitions.

Eccle.38.a

13 And Aſa ſleapt with his fathers, and dyed in the fourtie and one yeere of his raigne.

14 And they buried hym in his owne ſepulchre whiche he had made for hym ſelfe in the citie of Dauid, and layde hym in the bedde whiche he had filled with diuers kyndes of ſpices, and ſweete odours made by the crafte of the apothecaries: and burnt very muche ſpice about hym. C

The.xvii.Chapter.

5 Jehoſaphat truſting in the Lorde, proſpereth in richeſſe and honour. 6 He aboliſheth idolatrie, 7 and cauſeth the people to be taught. 11 He receaueth tribute of ſtrangers. 13 His munitions and menne of warre.

A Matth.1.b

1 AND * Jehoſaphat his ſonne raigned in his ſteede, and preuayled agaynſt Iſrael.

2 And he put ſouldiers in al the ſtrong cities of Juda, and ſet rulers in the lande of Juda, and in the cities of Ephraim, whiche Aſa his father had wonne.

3 And the Lorde was with Jehoſaphat, becauſe he walked in the olde wayes of his father Dauid, and ſought not Baalim,

4 But ſought the Lorde God of his father, and walked in his commaundementes, and not after the dooynges of Iſrael.

5 And the Lorde ſtabliſhed the kyngdome in his hande, and al they that were in Juda, brought hym preſentes, ſo that he had abundance of richeſſe and honour.

6 And he lyft vp his hart vnto the wayes of the Lorde, and he put downe yet more of the hygh places and groues out of Juda.

7 In the thirde yeere of his raigne he ſent to his lordes, euen to Benhail, Obadia, Zacharia, Nathanel, and to Michaiahu, that they ſhoulde (a) teache in the cities of Juda:

(a) Jehoſaphat ſent viſitours abrode into the countreys, to ſee religion reformed, and the people truely inſtructed.

8 And with them he ſent Leuites, euen Semeiahu, Nethaniahu, Zebadiahu, Aſael, Semiramoth, Jehonathan, Adoniahu, Tobiahu, and Tob adoniahu, and with them Eliſama, and Jehoram, prieſtes.

9 And they taught in Juda, and had yͤ booke of the lawe of God with them, and went about throughout al the cities of Juda, and taught the people. B

10 And the feare of the Lorde fel vpon al the kyngdomes of the landes, that were rounde about Juda, and they fought not agaynſt Jehoſaphat.

11 And ſome of the Philiſtines brought Jehoſaphat gyftes, and tribute ſiluer, and therto the Arabians brought hym catayle, euen ſeuen thouſand and ſeuen hundred rammes, and ſeuen thouſande and ſeuen hundred hee goates.

12 And ſo Jehoſaphat proſpered, and grewe vp an high: and he buylt in Juda caſtels and cities of ſtoare.

13 And he had great ″ ſubſtance in the cities of Juda: but the menne of armes and ſtrongeſt ſouldiers were in Hieruſalem.

″ Or, great woorkes.

14 And theſe are the ″ offices of them in the houſe of theyr fathers: the captaynes ouer thouſandes in Juda, Adna the captayne, and with him of fyghtyng menne, three hundred thouſande.

″ Or, numbers.

15 And next to his hande was Jehohanan a captayne, and with hym, two hundred and fourescore thouſande.

16 And next hym was Amazia the ſonne of Zichri, whiche of his owne good wyl offered hym ſelfe vnto the Lorde, and with hym two hundred thouſande myghty menne of warre.

17 And of the chyldren of Beniamin, Eliada a man of myght, and with him armed men, with bowe and ſhielde two hundred thouſande.

18 And next hym was Iehoſabad, and with hym an hundred and fourescore thouſande, that were prepared for the warre.

19 Theſe wayted on the kyng, beſides thoſe whiche the kyng put in the ſtrong cities thorowout al Iuda.

The. xviii. Chapter.

1 Iehoſaphat maketh affinitie with Ahab. 10 Foure hundred prophetes counſel Ahab to goe to warre. 14 Michea is agaynſt them. 23 Zedekia ſmyteth hym. 25 The kyng putteth hym in priſon. 29 The effect of his prophecie.

A 1 AND Iehoſaphat had abundance of richeſſe and honour, and ioyned affinitie with Ahab.

3.Re.22,a. 2 And * after certayne yeeres, he went downe to Ahab to Samaria: And Ahab ſlue many ſheepe & oxen for hym and for the people that he had with hym, and entreated hym to goe vp with hym vnto Ramoth [in] Gilead.

3 And Ahab kyng of Iſrael ſaide vnto Iehoſaphat kyng of Iuda: Wylt thou goe with me to Ramoth [in] Gilead? And he anſweared hym, I wyl be as thou, and my people ſhalbe as thyne [and we wyl goe] with thee to the warre.

4 And Iehoſaphat ſayde vnto the kyng of Iſrael, Seeke counſel I pray thee at yͤ woord of the Lorde this ſame day.

5 Therefore the kyng of Iſrael geathered togeather of prophetes foure hundred menne, and ſayde vnto them, Shal we goe to Ramoth [in] Gilead to fyght, or ſhould I ceaſſe? And they ſayde, Goe vp, and God ſhal deliuer it into the kynges hande.

6 But Iehoſaphat ſayde, Is there yet here neuer a prophete more of the Lordes, that we might aſke of hym?

7 And the kyng of Iſrael ſayde vnto Iehoſaphat, There is yet one man by whom we may aſke the Lorde: but I hate hym, for he neuer prophecieth me good, but alway euyl, and the ſame is Michea the ſonne of Iemla. And Iehoſaphat ſayde, Let not the king ſay ſo.

B 8 And the kyng of Iſrael called one of his chamberlaynes, and ſayde, Fetche hyther quickely Michea the ſonne of Iemla.

9 And the kyng of Iſrael, and Iehoſaphat king of Iuda, ſate eyther of them on his ſeate in theyr apparel, in a threſſhing floore beſyde the gate of Samaria, and al the prophetes prophecied before them.

10 And one Zedekia the ſonne of Chanaana had made hym * hornes of iron, and ſayde, Thus ſayth the Lord, With theſe thou ſhalt puſh Syria, vntil they be brought to nought.

3.Reg.22.

11 And al the prophetes prophecied euen ſo, ſayeing, Goe vp to Ramoth [in] Gilead, and it ſhal proſper with thee: for the Lorde ſhal deliuer it into the hande of the kyng.

12 And the meſſenger that went to calle Michea, ſpake to hym, ſayeing, Beholde, the woordes of the prophetes ſpeake good to the kyng with one aſſent: let thy woordes therefore, I pray thee, be lyke one of theyrs, that thou ſpeake that whiche is pleaſant.

13 And Michea ſayde, As the Lorde liueth, euen what my god ſayth, that wil I ſpeake.

14 And when he was comme to the kyng, C the kyng ſayde vnto hym, Michea, ſhoulde we goe to Ramoth [in] Gilead to fyght, or leaue of? And he ſayde, Goe vp, and al ſhalbe wel, and they ſhalbe deliuered into your hande.

15 And the kyng ſayde to hym, So and ſo many times doo I charge thee, that thou ſay nothyng but the trueth to me in the name of the Lorde.

16 Then he ſayde, I dyd ſee all them of Iſrael ſcattered in the mountaines, as ſheepe that haue no ſhepheard: And the Lorde ſayde, [b] Theſe haue no maiſter, let them returne euery man therefore to his houſe in peace.

17 And the kyng of Iſrael ſayde vnto Iehoſaphat, Dyd I not tel thee, that he would not prophecie good vnto me, but euyl?

22 And nowe therefore beholde, * the Lorde hath put a lying ſpirite in the mouthes of [al] theſe thy prophetes, and the Lorde hath ſpoken euyl agaynſt thee.

23 And Zedekia the ſonne of Chanaana went to, and ſmote Michea vpon the cheeke, and ſayde, By what way went the ſpirite of the Lorde from me, to ſpeake with thee?

24 And Michea ſayde, Beholde, thou ſhalt ſee the day when thou ſhalt goe from chamber to chamber, for to hyde thee ſelfe.

28 And ſo the kyng of Iſrael, and Jehoſaphat the kyng of Juda, went vp to Ramoth [in] Gilead.

29 And the kyng of Iſrael ſayde vnto Jehoſaphat, I muſt change me when I goe to the batayle: but ſee that thou haue thyne owne apparel vpon thee. And the kyng of Iſrael changed hym ſelfe, and they came to the batayle.

30 But the kyng of Syria had commaunded the captaines of the charettes that were with hym, ſayeing, See that ye fyght not againſt ſmal or great, ſaue agaynſt the kyng of Iſrael only.

31 And when the captaynes of the charettes ſawe Jehoſaphat, they ſayde, It is the kyng of Iſrael: And therfore they compaſſed about hym to fyght. But Jehoſaphat cryed out, and the Lorde helped hym, ⁊ God ″ chaſed them away from hym.

The.xix.Chapter.

1 After Jehoſaphat was rebuked by the prophete, he calleth agayne the people to the honoring of the Lorde. 5 He appoynteth iudges and miniſters, 9 and exhorteth them to feare God.

A 1 AND Jehoſaphat the king of Juda, came home agayne in peace to Hieruſalem.

2 And Jehu the ſonne of Hanani the Sear went out to meete hym, and ſayde to kyng Jehoſaphat, Wouldeſt thou helpe the vngodly, and loue them that hate the Lorde? Therefore is wrath comme downe vpon thee from before the Lorde:

3 Neuertheleſſe, there are ſomme good actes founde in thee, in that thou haſt hewen downe the groues out of the lande, and haſt prepared thyne hart to ſeeke God.

4 And Jehoſaphat dwelt at Hieruſalem, and turned, [a] and went out to the people from Beerſeba to mount Ephraim, and brought them agayne vnto the Lorde God of theyr fathers.

(a) He viſited al his countrey, and brought his people from idolatrie to the knowledge of the true God.

5 And he ſet iudges in the lande throughout al the ſtrong cities of Juda, citie by citie:

6 And ſayde to the iudges, Take heede what ye doo: for ye execute not the iudgementes of man, but of God, whiche is [b] with you in the iudgement.

B 8 Moreouer, in Hieruſalem dyd Jehoſaphat ſet of the Leuites, and of the prieſtes, and of the auncient fathers, ouer Iſrael, in the iudgement and cauſe of the Lorde: And they returned agayne to Hieruſalem.

9 And he charged them, ſayeing, Thus ſhal ye doo in the feare of the Lorde faythfully, and with a pure hart:

10 What cauſe ſoeuer comme to you of your brethren that dwel in theyr cities, betweene blood and blood, betweene lawe and commaundement, betweene ſtatutes and ordinances: ye ſhal warne them that they treſpaſſe not agaynſt the Lorde, and ſo wrath comme vpon you and your brethren: Thus doo, and ye ſhal not offende.

11 And beholde, Amaria the hye prieſte is among you in al matters of the Lorde, and

The,xx.Chapter.

3 Jehoſaphat and the people pray vnto the Lorde. 22 The marueylous victorie that the Lorde gaue hym agaynſt his enimies. 30 His raigne and actes.

A 1 AFter this alſo, it fortuned that the chyldren of Moab & the chyldren of Ammon, and with them other of the Ammonites, came agaynſt Jehoſaphat to batayle.

2 And there came ſomme that tolde Jehoſaphat, ſayeing, There commeth a great multitude agaynſt thee from the other ſide of the ſea, and out of Syria, and beholde they be in Haſaſon Thamar, whiche is Engadi.

3 And Jehoſaphat feared, and ſet hym ſelfe to ſeeke the Lord: and proclaymed faſting thorowout al Juda.

4 And they that were in Juda, geathered them ſelues togeather, to aſke counſel of the Lorde: And they came out of al the cities of Juda, " to make interceſſion to the Lorde.

" Or, to enquire of the Lorde.

5 And Jehoſaphat ſtoode betweene the congregation of Juda & Hieruſalem in the houſe of the Lorde before the newe court,

6 And ſayde, O Lorde God of our fathers, art not thou GOD in heauen, and raigneſt not thou on al the kyngdomes of the Heathen, and in thyne hand is power & might, & there is no man that is hable to withſtande thee?

7 Art not thou our God, whiche dyddeſt caſt out the inhabiters of this lande, before thy people Iſrael, and gaueſt it to the ſeede of Abraham thy louer for euer?

B 8 And they dwelt therein, and haue built thee a temple therein for thy name, ſayeing,

2. Par.6.c. 9 * Yf euyl comme vpon vs, as the ſwoorde of iudgement, peſtilence, or hunger: then, yf we ſtande before this houſe in thy preſence, (for thy name is in this houſe) and crye vnto thee in our tribulation, heare thou, & helpe.

10 And nowe beholde, the chyldren of Ammon & Moab, and mount Seir, by whom thou wouldeſt not let them of Iſrael goe, when they came out of the lande of Egypt, but they departed from them, and deſtroyed them not:

11 See howe they rewarde vs, to comme for to caſt vs out of thy poſſeſſion, whiche thou haſt geuen vs to inherite.

12 O our God, wylt thou not iudge them? for we haue no myght agaynſt this great companie that cõmeth agaynſt vs: neither wote we what to doo, but our eyes[a] be vnto thee.

[a] We only put our truſt in thee, and wayte for our deliuerance from heauen.

13 And al Juda ſtoode before the Lorde, with their young ones, their wiues, and theyr chyldren.

14 And there was Jahaziel the ſonne of Zacharia, the ſonne of Banaia, the ſonne of Jehiel, the ſonne of Matthania, a Leuite, of the ſonnes of Aſaph, and vpon hym came the ſpirite of the Lorde, euen in the middes of the congregation: C

15 And he ſayde, Hearken al Juda, and ye inhabiters of Hieruſalem, and thou kyng Jehoſaphat, thus ſayth the Lorde vnto you, Be not afrayde nor faynt hearted, by reaſon of this great multitude: for the batayle is not yours, but Gods.

16 To morowe goe ye downe agaynſt them: beholde they comme vp by the clift of Ziz, and ye ſhal finde them at the end of yͤ brooke before the wyldernesse of Jeruel.

17 Ye ſhal not neede to fight in this batayle: but ſteppe foorth and ſtande, and behold the helpe of the Lorde whiche is with you: feare not, nor let your hartes fayle you, O ye of Juda & of Hieruſalem: To morowe goe out agaynſt them, for the Lord wylbe with you.

18 And Jehoſaphat [b] bowed his face to the earth, and al Juda, and the inhabiters of Hieruſalem fel before the Lorde, woorſhipping the Lorde.

[b] Declaring his fayth and obedience, to the woorde of the Lorde.

19 And the Leuites of the chyldren of the Caathites, and of the chyldren of the Corahites, ſtoode vp to prayſe the Lorde God of Iſrael with a loude voyce on hygh.

20 And when they aroſe early in the mornyng, they gate them out vnto the wyldernesse of Thekoa, and as they went out, Jehoſaphat ſtoode, and ſayde, Heare me O Juda, and ye inhabiters of Hieruſalem: Put your truſt in the Lorde your God, that ye may be founde faythful: Geue credence to his prophetes, and ſo ſhal ye proſper. D

21 When he had conſulted with the people, and ſet ſomme to ſyng vnto the Lorde, and to prayſe hym in the beautie of holineſſe, and to goe out before the armie, and to ſay, Praiſe the Lorde, for his mercie laſteth euer:

22 And when they beganne to ſhowte and to prayſe, the Lorde layde ambuſhementes agaynſt the chyldren of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, whiche were comme agaynſt Juda: and they were ouerthrowen with ſtrokes among them ſelues.

23 For the chyldren of Ammon and Moab, roſe agaynſt the inhabiters of mount Seir, and they ſlue and deſtroyed them: and when they had made an ende of the inhabiters of Seir, euery one healped to deſtroy another among them ſelues.

24 And when Juda came toward Miſpah in the wyldernes, they looked vnto the multitude: and beholde, they were dead carkaſſes fallen to the earth, and none eſcaped.

25 And when Jehoſaphat & his people came to take away the ſpoyle of them, they found among them abundance of goods, rayment, and pleaſant iewels, whiche they tooke for them ſelues, more then they coulde carrye away: ſo that they were three dayes in geatheryng of the ſpoyle, it was ſo muche.

26 And the fourth day they aſſembled in the valley of bleſſyng, for there they (c) bleſſed the Lorde: and therefore they called the name of the ſame place, the valley of bleſſyng, vnto this day.

(c) Gaue thankes vnto the Lorde for that victorie.

27 And ſo al the menne of Juda and Hieruſalem, returned with Jehoſaphat their head, for to goe agayne to Hieruſalem with gladneſſe: for the Lord had made them to reioyce ouer their enimies.

28 And they came to Hieruſalem with pſalteries, and harpes, and ſhawmes, euen to the houſe of the Lorde.

29 And the feare of God felle on the kyngdomes of al landes, when they hadde hearde that the Lorde fought agaynſt the enimies of Iſrael.

30 And ſo the Realme of Jehoſaphat was in tranquilitie, and his God gaue hym reaſt on euery ſyde.

31 And * Jehoſaphat raigned vpon Juda, and was thirtie and fyue yeeres old when he beganne to raigne, and he raigned twentie and fyue yeeres in Hieruſalem: and his mothers name was Azuba, the daughter of Silhi.

4.Re.22.f.

32 And he walked in the waye of Aſa his father, and bowed not therefrom, dooyng that whiche was ryght in the ſyght of the Lord.

33 Howbeit the hygh places were not taken away: for the people hadde not yet prepared their hartes vnto the God of their fathers.

34 The reaſt of the actes of Jehoſaphat fyrſt and laſt, behold they are wrytten among the ſayeinges of Jehu the ſonne of Hanani, whiche noted them in the booke of the kynges of Iſrael.

35 After this dyd Jehoſaphat kyng of Juda ioyne hym ſelfe with Ahaziahu kyng of Iſrael, whoſe mynde was to doo wickedly.

36 He coupled hym ſelfe with hym, to make ſhyppes to goe to Tharſis: and they made the ſhyppes in Ezion Gaber.

37 And Eliezer the ſonne of Dodauah of Mareſa propheſied againſt Jehoſaphat, ſayeing, Becauſe thou haſt (d) ioyned thee ſelfe with Ahaziahu, the lord hath broken thy woorks. And the ſhyppes were broke͞ that they were not able to goe to Tharſis.

(d) God would not haue his to ioyne in ſocietie with idolaters and wicked menne

11 Moreouer, he made hygh places in the mountaynes of Iuda, and cauſed the inhabiters of Hieruſalem to commit fornication, and prouoked Iuda [to idolatrie.]

21 He ſtoneth to death Zecharia the prophete. 25 Ioas is kylled of his owne ſeruantes.
27 After hym raigneth Amaziahu.

A 1 IOas was ſeuen yeeres olde when he beganne to raigne, and * he raigned fourty yeeres in Hieruſalem: His mothers name alſo was Zibia of Berſeba.

4.Reg.11.a

2 And Ioas dyd that whiche was ryght in the ſyght of the Lorde, al the dayes of (a) Iehoiada the prieſt.

(b) who was a faithful counſeler, and gouerned hym by the woorde of God.

3 And Iehoiada tooke hym two wyues, and he begate ſonnes and daughters.

4 And it chaunced after this, that Ioas was mynded to renue the houſe of the Lorde.

5 And he geathered togeather the prieſtes and the Leuites, and ſayde to them, Goe out vnto the cities of Iuda, and geather of al Iſrael money to repayre the houſe of your God from yeere to yeere, and ſee that ye haſte the thyng: Howbeit the Leuites were ſlacke.

6 And the kyng called Iehoiada that was the (b) chiefeſt, and ſayde vnto hym, Why requyreſt thou not of the Leuites to bryng in out of Iuda and Hieruſalem * the collection of money, accordyng to the commaundement of Moſes the ſeruant of the Lorde, and of the congregation of Iſrael, for the tabernacle of wytneſſe?

(b) For he was the hygh prieſt.

Exo.30.b.

B 7 For wicked Athaliahu and her chyldren brake vp the houſe of God, and al the things that were dedicate for the houſe of the Lord, dyd they beſtowe for Baalim.

8 And at the kynges commaundement * they made a cheſt, and ſet it without at the gate of the houſe of the Lorde.

4.Re.12.b.

9 And made a proclamation through Iuda and Hieruſalem, to bryng in to the Lorde, * the taxation of money that Moſes the ſeruant of God ſet vpon Iſrael in the wyldernesſe.

Exo.30.b.

10 And the lordes and al the people reioyced, and brought in, and caſt into the cheſt, " vntil it was ful.

" Or, vntyl they had made an ende.

11 And it fortuned, that at the ſame tyme, they brought in the cheſt vnto them which were in the kynges buſyneſſe, by the hande of the Leuites, and when they ſaw that there was muche money, the kynges ſcribe, and one appoynted by the hygh prieſt, came, ⁊ emptied the cheſt, and tooke it, and carryed it to his place agayne. Thus they did day by day, and geathered muche money.

12 And the kyng and Iehoiada gaue it to ſuch as dyd the labour and woorke in the houſe of the Lorde, and hyred maſons and carpenters to repayre the houſe of the Lorde, and ſo dyd the artificers in iron and braſſe, to mend the houſe of the Lorde.

13 And ſo the woorkmenne wrought, and the woorke mended through their handes: and they made the houſe of God as it ought to be, and ſtrengthed it.

C 14 And whẽ they had finiſhed it, they brought the reaſt of the money before the kyng and Iehoiada, and therewith were made veſſels for the houſe of the Lorde, euen veſſels to miniſter withal, [⁊ to ſerue for burnt offeringes,] " chargers and ſpoones, veſſels of golde and ſyluer: And they offered burnt offerynges in the houſe of the Lorde continuallye, al the dayes of Iehoiada.

" Or, Morters, or bowles.

15 But Iehoiada waxed olde, and dyed ful of dayes: for an hundred and thirtie yeeres olde was he when he dyed.

16 And they buryed hym in the citie of Dauid among the kynges, because he dealt wel with Iſrael, and with God, and with his houſe.

17 And after the death of Iehoiada, came the (c) lordes of Iuda, and made obeyſance to the kyng: and the kyng hearkened vnto them.

(c) whiche were flatterers, and idolaters.

18 And ſo they leaft the houſe of the Lord God of their fathers, and ſerued groues and idols, and then came the wrath of God vpon Iuda and Hieruſalem for this their treſpaſſes ſake.

19 And he ſent prophetes to them, to bryng them agayne vnto the Lorde, and they teſtified vnto them: but they woulde not heare. D

20 And the ſpirite of God came vpon Zacharia the ſonne of Iehoiada the prieſt, whiche ſtoode by the people, and ſayde vnto them, Thus ſayth God, Why tranſgreſſe you the commaundementes of the Lorde, that ye can not proſper? For becauſe ye haue forſaken the Lorde, he alſo hath forſaken you.

21 * And they conſpired agaynſt hym, (b) and ſtoned him with ſtones at the commaundement ment of the kyng, euen in the court of the houſe of the Lorde.

22 And ſo Ioas the kyng remembred not the kyndeneſſe whiche Iehoiada his father had donne to hym, but ſlue his ſonne: And when he dyed, he ſayde, The Lorde looke vpon it, and requyre it.

23 And when the yeere was out, it fortuned that the hoſt of Syria came vp againſt him, and they came agaynſt Iuda and Hieruſalem, and deſtroyed al the lordes of the people from among the people, and ſent al the ſpoile of them vnto the kyng to Damaſcon.

24 For the Syrians came with a ſmal companie of menne, and the Lorde delyuered a very great hoſt into their hande, becauſe they had forſaken the Lord God of their fathers: and they gaue ſentence agaynſt Ioas.

25 And when they were departed from hym, they leaſt hym in great diſeaſes: and * his owne ſeruantes conſpired agaynſt hym for the blood of the (e) chyldren of Iehoiada the prieſt, and ſlue hym on his bed, and he dyed: and they buryed hym in the citie of Dauid, but not in the ſepulchres of the kynges.

4.Re,12.d.

26 And theſe are they that conſpired agaynſt hym: Zabad the ſonne of Simeath an Ammonite, and Iehoſabad the ſonne of Simrith a Moabite.

27 (f) And his ſonnes, and the ſumme of the taxe that was rayſed in his tyme, and the repayring of the houſe of God, beholde they are written in the ſtorie of the booke of yͤ kinges: & Amaziahu his ſonne raigned in his ſteede.

The.xxv.Chapter.

3 Amazia putteth them to death whiche ſlue his father. 10 He ſendeth backe them of Iſrael. 11 He ouercommeth the Edomites. 14 He falleth to idolatrie. 17 And Ioas kyng of Iſrael ouercommeth Amazia. 27 He is ſlayne by a conſpiracie.

A 1 Amaziahu was twentie & fiue yeeres old when he beganne to raigne, and he raigned twentie and nine yeeres in Hieruſalem: His mothers name was Iehoadan, of Hieruſalem.

4.Re.14.a.

2 And he dyd that whiche is (a) ryght in the ſyght of the lord, but not with a perfect hart.

(a) Meanyng in reſpect of his predeceſſours, albeit he had his imperfections.

3 And aſſoone as he was ſetled in the kyngdome, he ſlue his ſeruantes that had kylled the kyng his father.

4 But he ſlue not their chyldren, becauſe it is wrytten thus in the lawe and booke of Moſes, where the Lorde commaunded, ſayeing, * The fathers ſhal not dye for the chyldren, neyther ſhal the chyldren dye for the fathers, but euery man ſhal dye for his owne ſynne.

5 And Amaziahu geathered Iuda togeather, and made them captaynes ouer thouſandes, and ouer hundredes, accordyng to the houſes of their fathers throughout al Iuda & Beniamin: and he numbred them from twentie yeeres olde and aboue, and founde among them three hundred thouſande choſen men, able to goe to batayle, and that could handle ſpeare and ſhielde.

6 He hyred alſo an hundred thouſande ſtrong fighting menne out of Iſrael, for an hundred talentes of ſyluer.

B 7 And there came a man of God to hym, & ſaid, O king, let not the armie of Iſrael come with thee: for the Lorde is not with Iſrael, [to wit] with al the chyldren of Ephraim.

8 But if thou wilt needes [be faythleſſe:] come on, & take the batayle in hand, and God ſhal make thee falle before the enimie: For God hath power to helpe, and to caſt downe.

9 And Amaziahu ſayde to the man of God, What ſhal we doo then for the hundred talentes which I haue geuen for yͤ hoſt of Iſrael: The man of God anſweared, The Lord is able to geue thee much more then they be.

10 And Amaziahu ſeparated them, [to wit] the armie that was comme to hym out of Ephraim, to goe home agayne: Wherfore they were exceedyng wroth with Iuda, and returned home in great anger.

11 And Amaziahu tooke hart, and carryed out his people, and went to the ſalt valley, and * ſmote of the chyldren of Seir ten thouſande.

4.Re.14.b

12 And other ten thouſand dyd the chyldren of Iuda take alyue, and carryed them vnto the top of a rocke, & caſte them downe from the top of the rocke, that they al to burſt.

13 But the ſouldiers of the (b) armie whiche Amaziahu ſent away, that they ſhoulde not goe with his people to batayle, felle vpon the cities of Iuda frō Samaria vnto Bethron, and ſmote three thouſand of them, and tooke muche ſpoyle.

(b) That is, the hundred thouſande of Iſrael.

14 And it chaunced, after that Amaziahu was comme from the ſlaughter of the Edomites, he brought the gods of the chyldren of Seir, and ſet them vp to be his gods, and bowed hym ſelfe before them, and burned incenſe vnto them.

15 Wherfore the lord was wroth with Amaziahu, & ſent vnto hym a prophet, which ſaid vnto him: Why haſt thou ſought the gods of the people whiche were not able to (c) deliuer their owne people out of thyne hande?

(c) That which can not deliuer others nor ſaue it ſelfe, is no god, but an idol.

16 And it chaunced, that as the prophet talked with hym, the kyng ſayde vnto hym, Haue menne made thee of the kynges counſel: Ceaſſe, why wylt thou be beaten? And the prophete ceaſſed, & ſayd, I am ſure that god is mynded to deſtroy thee, becauſe thou haſt donne this, & agreeſt not vnto my counſel.

4.Re.14.b 17 *Then Amaziahu kyng of Juda tooke aduiſe, and ſent to Joas the ſonne of Jehoahaz the ſonne of Jehu kyng of Iſrael, and ſayde, Comme, that we may ſee eyther other.

18 And Joas kyng of Iſrael ſent to Amaziahu kyng of Juda, ſayeing, A thiſtle that is in Libanon, ſent to a Cedar tree of Libanon, ſayeing,* Geue thy daughter to my ſonne to wyfe: And there came a wylde beaſt of Libanon, and trode downe the thiſtle. 4.Re.14.c, 19 Thou ſayeſt, Loe thou haſt ſmytten the Edomites, & thyne hart maketh thee proude to glorifie thee ſelfe: Nowe therefore byde at home, why dooeſt thou prouoke vnto euyl, that thou mayeſt periſhe, both thou and Juda with thee?

D 20 But Amaziahu woulde not hearken vnto hym: for it came of god, euen to deliuer them into the hande of their enimies, becauſe they ſought counſel at the gods of Edom.

21 And ſo Joas the kyng of Iſrael came vp, and they ſaw eyther other, both he and Amaziahu kyng of Juda, at Bethſames which is in Juda.

22 And Juda was put to the worſe before Iſrael, and they fled euery man to his tent.

23 And Joas the kyng of Iſrael tooke Amaziahu kyng of Juda the ſonne of Joas the ſonne of Jehoahaz at Bethſames, & brought hym to Hieruſalem, and tare the walle of Hieruſalem (from the gate of Ephraim, vnto the gate that was ouer agaynſt it) foure hundred cubites.

24 And he tooke awaye alſo al the golde and ſyluer, and al the iewels that were founde in the houſe of God with Obed Edom, the treaſures of the kynges houſe, and the young wardes, and returned to Samaria.

The.xxvi.Chapter.

14 Uzzia obeying the Lorde, proſpereth in his enterpriſes. 16 He wareth proude, and vſurpeth the prieſtes office. 19 The Lorde plagueth hym. 20 The prieſtes driue hym out of the temple, and exclude hym out of the Lordes houſe. 23 His buryal, and his ſucceſſour.

A 1 Then al the people of Juda tooke Uzzia, whiche was *ſyxtiene yeeres olde, and made hym kyng in the roome of his father Amaziahu. 4.Reg.15.a

2 And he buylt Eloth, and brought it agayne to Juda, after that the kyng was layde to ſleepe with his fathers.

3 Syxtiene yeeres olde was Uzzia when he beganne to raigne, and he raigned fyftie and two yeres in Hieruſalem: his mothers name alſo was Jecholia, of Hieruſalem.

4 And he dyd that whiche was ryght in the ſyght of the Lorde, accordyng to al, as dyd his father Amaziahu.

4.Re.12.b. 5 And [it came to paſſe that] he ſought God* in the dayes of Zachariahu, who had vnderſtandyng in the viſions of God: And as long as he ſought the lord, God made him to proſper.

6 And he went to batayle agaynſt the Philiſtines, and brake downe the wal of Geth, and the wal of Jabne, and the wal of Aſdod, and buylte cities about Aſdod, and among the Philiſtines.

7 And God holpe hym agaynſt the Philiſtines, and agaynſt the Arabians that dwelt in Gur baal, and Hamehunim. B

8 And the Ammonites gaue tribute to Uzzia, and his name ſpread abrode euen to the entryng in of Egypt: for he played the man exceedyngly.

9 Moreouer, Uzzia buylte towres in Hieruſalem by the corner gate, and by the valley gate, and at the turnyng of the walle, and made them ſtrong.

10 And he buylte towres in the wyldernesſe, and dygged many wels: For he had muche cattayle in the valleys and playnes, plowemenne, and vine dreſſers in the mountaines, and in Charmel: for he loued huſbandry.

11 And Uzzia had an hoſt of fyghting menne, that went out to warre in the armie, accordyng to the number of their office, vnder the hande of Jeiel the ſcribe, and Maaſiahu the ruler, and vnder the hande of Hananiahu, whiche was one of the kynges lordes.

12 And the whole number of the auncient fathers, and of the menne of myght, were two thouſande and ſyxe hundred.

13 And vnder the hande of them was the armie of the menne of warre, euen three hundred and ſeuen thouſande, and fyue hundred that made warre with the power of an armie, helpyng the kyng agaynſt the enimies.

C 14 And Uzzia prouided them throughout al the hoſte, ſhieldes, ſpeares, helmettes, haberginnes, bowes, and ſlinges for to caſt ſtones.

15 And he made ſubtil engins in Hieruſalem, whiche he inuented, and layde on the towres and corners, to ſhoote arrowes and great ſtones withal: And his name ſpread farre abroade, because he had prepared to him ſelfe marueylous ſtrength.

16 But in his ſtrength (a) his harte aroſe to his deſtruction: For he tranſgreſſed agaynſt the Lorde his God, and went into the temple of the Lorde to burne incenſe vpon the aulter of incenſe.

(a) Proſperitie puffeth vp the harte of man, and maketh hym often to forget God.

17 And Azariahu the prieſt went in after hym, and with hym foureſcore prieſtes of the lord, that were valiant menne:

18 And they ſtoode by Uzzia the kyng, and ſaid vnto hym, It parteyneth not to thee Uzzia to burne incenſe vnto the Lorde, but to the prieſtes the chyldren of Aaron, that are conſecrated for to offer incenſe: (b) Comme therfore out of the ſanctuary, for thou haſt treſpaſſed, and it is no woorſhyp to thee before the lorde God.

(b) Though his zeale & intention ſeemed good, yet becauſe they were not ruled by Gods woorde, his fact was wicked, and iuſtly puniſhed.

19 And Uzzia was wroth, and had incenſe in his hand to burne it, and ſo whyle he had indignation agaynſt the prieſtes, * the leproſie ſprang in his forehead before the prieſtes in the houſe of the Lord, euen beſide the incenſe aulter.

3.Re.15.a.

20 And Azariahu the chiefe prieſte, with al the other prieſtes, looked vpon hym, and behold he was becomme a leper in his forehead, and they vexed hym thence: and he was fayne to goe out, becauſe the Lorde had ſmitten him. D

21 And Uzzia the kyng continued a leper vnto the daye of his death, and dwelt ſeueral in an houſe, beyng a leper, and ſhutte out of the houſe of the Lorde: and Iotham his ſonne hadde the gouernance of the kynges houſe, and iudged the people of the lande.

22 The reaſt of the actes of Uzzia fyrſte and laſt, dyd Iſai the prophet, the ſonne of Amos, wryte.

4.Re.15.b.

2 And he dyd that whiche was ryght in the ſyght of the Lorde, in al poyntes as dyd his father Uzzia, ſaue that he came not into the (a) temple of the Lorde: and the people dyd yet wickedly.

(a) To wit, to offer incenſe agaynſt Gods woorde.

3 He buylt the hygh gate of the temple of the Lorde, and on the walle (where the houſe of ordinance was) he buylt muche.

4 Moreouer, he built cities in the mountaines of Iuda, and in the wood countrey he buylt caſtels and towres.

5 He fought with the kyng of the chyldren of Ammon, and preuayled agaynſt them: And the chyldren of Ammon gaue hym the ſame yeere an hundred talentes of ſyluer, and tenne thouſande quarters of wheate, & tenne thouſande of barlye: ſo muche dyd the chyldren of Ammon geue him the ſeconde yeere, and the thirde alſo.

6 So Iotham became myghtie, (b) becauſe he directed his waye before the Lorde his God.

6 For Pecah the ſonne of Remaliahu ſlue in Iuda an hundred and twentie thouſande in one daye, whiche were al fyghtyng menne: and that becauſe they had forſaken the lorde God of their fathers.

8 And the chyldren of Iſrael tooke pryſoners of their brethren two hundred thouſand women, ſonnes, and daughters, and carryed away muche ſpoyle of them, and brought the ſpoyle to Samaria.

9 But there was a prophete of the Lordes, whoſe name was Obed: and he wente out before the hoſt that came to Samaria, and ſayde vnto them, Beholde, becauſe the Lord God of your fathers is wroth with Iuda, (a) he hath delyuered them into your hande, and ye haue ſlaine them with cruelneſſe, that reacheth vp to heauen.

(a) A victorie commeth of God.

10 And nowe ye purpoſe to keepe vnder the chyldren of Iuda and Hieruſalem, and to make them bondmenne and bond women: And do ye not lade your ſelues with ſynne in the ſyght of the Lorde your God?

11 Nowe heare me therefore, and delyuer the captiues agayne whiche ye haue taken of your brethren: or els ſhal the great wrath of God be vpon you.

12 Wherefore certayne of the heades of the chyldren of Ephraim, as Azariahu the ſonne of Iehohanan, Berechiahu the ſonne of Meſillemoth, and Iehezkiahu the ſonne of Sallum, and Amaſa the ſonne of Hadlai, ſtoode vp againſt them that came from the warre, 13 And ſayd vnto them, Bryng not in the captiues hyther: for where as we haue offended towarde God already, ye entende to adde more to our ſynnes and treſpaſſe: for our treſpaſſe is great already, and there is a fierce wrath agaynſt Iſrael.

14 And vpon that, the menne of armes leaft the captiues and the ſpoyle before the lordes, and al the congregation: C

15 And the menne that were nowe rehearſed by name, roſe vp, and tooke the pryſoners, and with the ſpoyle clothed al that were naked among them, and arayed them, and ſhoed them, and gaue them to eate & to drynke, and annoynted them, and carryed al that were feeble of them vpon aſſes, and brought them to Iericho the citie of Paulme trees, to their brethren: and then they returned to Samaria agayne.

16 * At that ſame tyme dyd kyng Ahaz ſende vnto the kynges of the Aſſyrians, to haue healpe of them. 4.Re.16.b.

17 And the Edomites came agayne, and ſlue ſomme of Iuda, and carried away captiues.

18 And the Philiſtines inuaded the cities in the lowe countrey, and towarde the ſouth of Iuda: and tooke Bethſames, and Aialon, and Gederoth, and Socho with the townes belongyng thereto, and Thimna with the townes of the ſame, Gimſo and the townes thereof, and dwelt there.

19 For the Lorde brought Iuda lowe, becauſe of Ahaz kyng of Iuda, whiche made Iuda naked, and tranſgreſſed ſoare agaynſt the Lorde.

20 And Thiglath Pilneſer kyng of the Aſſyrians came vpon hym, and troubled him rather then ſtrengthed hym.

21 For Ahaz tooke awaye a portion out of the 22 And in the very time of his tribulation, dyd kyng Ahaz treſpaſſe yet more agaynſt the Lorde.

6 For our fathers haue treſpaſſed, and donne euyl in the eyes of the Lorde our God, and haue forſaken hym, and turned away their faces from the habitation of the Lorde, and turned their backes on it.

7 And beſide that, they haue ſhut vp yͤ doores of the porche, and quenched the lampes, and haue neyther burnt incenſe, nor offered burnt offeringes in the holy place vnto the God of Iſrael.

11 Nowe therefore my ſonnes, be not negligent: for the Lord * hath choſen you to ſtand before hym, and for to miniſter & ſerue hym, and to burne incenſe.

Nu.18.a.

12 Then the Leuites aroſe, Mahath the ſonne of Amaſai, and Ioel the ſonne of Azariahu, of the chyldren of the Caathites: And of the ſonnes of Merari, Cis the ſonne of Abdi, and Azariahu the ſonne of Iahaleel: And of the ſonnes of the Gerſonites, Ioah the ſonne of Simma, and Eden the ſonne of Ioah:

13 And of the ſonnes of Elizaphan, Simri and Iehiel: And of the ſonnes of Aſaph, Zechariahu and Matthaniahu:

14 And of the ſonnes of Heman, Iehiel, and Semei: And of the ſonnes of Ieduthun, Semaia and Uzziel, C

15 And they geathered their brethren, and purified them ſelues, and came according to the commaundement of the kyng, & the woordes of the Lord, for to clenſe the houſe of the lord:

16 And the prieſtes went into the inner partes of the houſe of the Lord to clenſe it, & brought out al the vncleanneſſe that they founde in the temple of the Lorde, into the court of the houſe of the Lorde: And the Leuites tooke it, to cary it out into the brooke Cedron.

17 They beganne the firſt day of the firſt moneth to purifie, and the eyght day of the moneth, came they to the porche of the Lorde: So they ſanctified the houſe of the Lorde in eyght dayes, and in the ſixtienth day of the firſt moneth they made an ende.

18 And they went in to Hezekia the kyng, and ſayde, We haue cleanſed al the houſe of the Lorde, the aulter of burnt offering, with al his veſſels, and the ſhewe bread table, with * al his apparel:

* Or, veſſels.

19 And al the veſſels whiche kyng Ahaz dyd caſt aſide, when he raigned, and tranſgreſſed, them we haue prepared, and ſanctified, and behold they are before the aulter of the Lord.

D 20 And Hezekia the kyng roſe early, and geathered the lordes of the citie, and went vp to the houſe of the Lorde.

21 And they brought ſeuen Oxen, ſeuen Rammes, ſeuen Sheepe, & ſeuen he Goates, to be a ſinne offeryng for the kyngdome, for the ſanctuarie, and for Iuda: And he commaunded the prieſtes the ſonnes of Aaron, to offer them on the aulter of the Lorde.

22 And they ſlue the oxen, and the prieſtes receiued the blood, and (b) ſprinckled it on the aulter: lykewyſe when they had ſlayne the rammes, they ſprinckled the blood vpon the aulter: They ſlue alſo the ſheepe, and they ſprinckled the blood vpon the aulter.

(b) For without ſprinckelyng of blood, nothyng could be ſanctified. Heb.ix. Exo.xxiiii.

23 And then they brought foorth ỹ hee goates for the ſinne offering, before the kyng and the congregation, and put theyr handes vpon them.

24 And the prieſtes ſlue them, and with the blood of them they clenſed the aulter, to make ſatiſfaction for al Iſrael: for the kyng commaunded, that the burnt offering, and the ſinne offering, ſhoulde be made for al Iſrael:

25 And ſet the Leuites in the houſe of ỹ Lord, with cymbales, pſalteries, and harpes, *according to the commaundement of Dauid and of Gad the kynges Sear, and Nathan the prophete: For ſo was the commaundement of the Lorde, through the hande of his prophetes.

1.Par,25.a.

26 And the Leuites ſtoode, hauing the inſtrumentes of Dauid: and the prieſtes helde the trumpettes.

E 27 And Hezekia commaunded to offer the burnt offering vpon the aulter: And when the burnt offering beganne, the ſong of the Lord beganne alſo, and the trumpettes, with the inſtrumentes that were ordayned by the hande of Dauid kyng of Iſrael.

28 And al the congregation woorſhipped, ſinging a ſong, and blowyng with the trumpettes, and al this [continued] vntyl the burnt offeryng was finiſhed.

29 And when they had made an ende of offering, the kyng, and al that were preſent with hym, bowed them ſelues, and woorſhipped.

4.Re,16.b.

30 And Hezekia the king and the lordes, ſpake to the Leuites to prayſe the Lorde, with the wordes of Dauid, and of Aſaph the Sear: And they ſang prayſes with gladneſſe, and the other bowed them ſelues, and woorſhipped.

31 And Hezekia anſweared, and ſayde, Nowe ye haue conſecrated your handes to the lorde: goe to therefore, and bryng the ſacrifices and thanke offeringes into the houſe of the Lord. And the congregation brought in the ſacrifices and thanke offeringes, & burnt offerings, as many as were of a free liberal hart.

32 And the number of the burnt offeringes which the congregation brought, was threeſcore and tenne oxen, an hundred rammes, and two hundred ſheepe, whiche were al for the burnt offering of the Lorde.

33 And there were dedicated ſixe hundred oxen, and three thouſande ſheepe.

34 And the prieſtes were to fewe to flay al the burnt offeringes: but theyr brethren the Leuites dyd helpe them, tyl they had ended the woorke, and vntyl the prieſtes were ſanctified: For the Leuites were purer harted to be ſanctified, then the prieſtes.

35 And thereto the burnt offeringes were many, with the fat of the peace offeringes, and the drinke offerings, that belong to the burnt offering: And ſo the ſeruice parteynyng to the houſe of the Lorde, was finiſhed.

36 And Hezekia reioyced, and al the people, that God had made the folke ſo ready, and that the thyng was ſo ſoone donne.

The .xxx. Chapter.

1 The keeping of the paſſeouer by the kynges commaundement. 6 He exhorteth Iſrael to turne to the Lorde. 18 He prayeth for the people. 24 His oblation, and the princes. 27 The Leuites bleſſe the people.

A 1 AND Hezekia ſent to al Iſrael and Iuda, & wrote letters to Ephraim and Manaſſe, that they ſhuld comme to the houſe of the Lord at Hieruſalem, and offer paſſeouer vnto the Lorde God of Iſrael.

2 And the king held a counſel with his lordes, and al the congregation of Hieruſalem, * to keepe the feaſt of paſſeouer in the (a) ſeconde moneth:

3 For they coulde not keepe it at that tyme, becauſe the prieſtes were not ſanctified ſufficiently, ciently, neyther was the people geathered togeather to Hieruſalem.

4 And the thyng pleaſed the kyng and al the congregation.

5 And they decreed that it ſhoulde be proclaimed throughout al Iſrael from Beerſeba to Dan, that they ſhoulde comme and hold the feaſt of Paſſeouer vnto the Lord God of Iſrael at Hieruſalem: For they had not donne it of a great ſeaſon, as it was written.

6 So the poſtes went with letters of the king and of his lordes throughout al Iſrael and Iuda, and at the commaundement of the kyng they ſayde, Ye chyldren of Iſrael, turne agayne vnto the Lorde God of Abraham, Iſahac, and Iſrael, and he wil returne to the remnant that are eſcaped of you, out of the hande of the kynges of the Aſſyrians.

7 And be not ye lyke your fathers and your brethren, whiche treſpaſſed agaynſt the Lord God of theyr fathers, whiche gaue them vp to be deſtroyed, as ye ſee.

B 8 And nowe be not ye ſtiffe necked, lyke as were your fathers: but yeelde your ſelues vnto the Lorde, and enter into his holy place whiche he hath ſanctified for euer, and ſerue the Lorde your GOD, and the fierceneſſe of his wrath ſhal turne away from you.

9 For yf ye turne agayne vnto the Lord, then ſhal your brethren and your chyldren finde compaſſion in the preſence of them that toke them captiue, and they ſhal comme agayne vnto this lande: * For the Lorde your God is gratious and merciful, and wyl not turne away his face from you, yf ye conuert vnto hym.

Exo.34.a.

10 And ſo the poſtes went from citie to citie, in the lande of Ephraim and Manaſſe, euen vnto Zabulon: but they laughed them to ſcorne, and mocked them.

11 Neuertheleſſe, yet diuers of Aſer, Manaſſe, and of Zabulon, ſubmitted them ſelues, and came to Hieruſalem.

12 And the hande of God was in Iuda, and he gaue them one hart to doo the commaundement of the kyng and of the rulers, accordyng to the woorde of the Lorde.

13 And there aſſembled to Hieruſalem muche people, and there was preſent a mighty great congregation, to holde ẏ feaſt of ſweete bread in the ſeconde moneth.

2.Par.28.d

C 14 And they aroſe, and remoued * the aulters that were in Hieruſalem: And al the aulters for incenſe did they away, and caſt them into the brooke Cedron.

15 And they ſlue Paſſeouer the fourtienth day of the ſeconde moneth: And the prieſtes and Leuites whiche were (b) aſhamed, ſanctified them ſelues, and brought in the burnt offeringes into the houſe of the Lorde.

(c) Seeyng theyr owne negligence, and the readineſſe of the people.

16 And they ſtoode in theyr office after theyr manner, and accordyng to the lawe of Moſes the man of God: And the prieſtes ſprinckled the blood, [whiche they receaued] of the hande of the Leuites.

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not ſanctified, and therfore the Leuites hadde the charge of the kyllyng of the Paſſeouer, for euery one that was not cleane, to ſanctifie hym vnto the Lorde.

18 For many of the people, and very many out of Ephraim, Manaſſe, Iſachar, and Zabulon, were not cleanſed, and yet dyd eate Paſſeouer agaynſt the lawe appoynted: but Hezekia prayed for them, ſayeing, The good Lorde be merciful towarde euery one

19 That prepareth his hart to ſeeke the Lord God, the God of his fathers: though he be not [cleanſed] accordyng to the purification of the ſanctuarie.

D 20 And the Lorde hearde Hezekia, and healed the people.

21 And the chyldren of Iſrael that were preſent at Hieruſalem, helde the feaſt of ſweete bread ſeuen dayes, with great gladneſſe: and the Leuites and the prieſtes prayſed the lorde day by day, ſinging with loude inſtrumentes vnto the Lorde.

22 And Hezekia ſpake comfortablie vnto al the Leuites that hadde good knowledge [to ſing] vnto the Lorde: and they dyd eate thorowout that feaſt ſeuen dayes long, and offered peace offeringes, and thanked the Lord God of theyr fathers.

23 And the whole aſſemblie tooke counſel to doo ſo other ſeuen dayes: and they helde thoſe ſeuen dayes with gladneſſe:

24 For Hezekia kyng of Iuda, dyd geue to the congregation (c) a thouſand young oxen, and ſeuen thouſande ſheepe: And the lordes gaue out to the congregation a thouſande oxen, and ten thouſande ſheepe, and a great number of the prieſtes were ſanctified.

(c) Hezekia beſtowed his goodes liberally, for the ſetting foorth of gods glory.

25 And al the congregation of Iuda, with the prieſtes and Leuites, and al the congregation that came out of Iſrael, and the ſtrangers that came out of the lande of Iſrael, and that dwelt in Iuda, reioyced.

26 And there was great gladneſſe in Hieruſalem: For ſince the tyme of Solomon, the ſonne of Dauid kyng of Iſrael, there was no ſuche [ioy] in Hieruſalem.

27 And the prieſtes and the Leuites aroſe, and bleſſed the people: and theyr voyce was heard [of the Lorde] and theyr prayer came vp vnto heauen his holy dwellyng place.

The,xxxi. Chapter.

1 The people deſtroy idolatrie. 2 Hezekia appoynteth prieſtes and Leuites, 4 and prouideth for theyr liuing. 13 He ordeyneth ouerſeers to diſtribute to euery one his portion.

A 1 AND when al theſe thynges were finiſhed, al they of Iſrael that were preſent in the cities of Iuda, went out and brake the images, and * cut downe the idol groues, and al to brake the hygh places and * aulters throughout al Iuda and Beniamin, in Ephraim alſo and Manaſſe, vntil they had vtterly deſtroyed them al: And al the chyldren of Iſrael returned euery man to his poſſeſſions, and to their owne cities.

2.Par.33.c.

2 And Hezekia appoynted ſundry companies of the prieſtes and Leuites, after the diuerſitie of theyr miniſtrations, euery man accordyng to his office both prieſtes and Leuites, for the burnt offering and peace offeringes, to miniſter and to geue thankes and prayſe in the gates of the (a) hoſt of the Lorde.

(a) That is, in the temple where they aſſembled.

3 And the kinges portion of his ſubſtance that he gaue, were dayly burnt offeringes in the mornyng and euenyng, and burnt offeringes for the Sabboth dayes, newe moones, and ſolempne feaſtes, accordyng * as it is written in the lawe of the Lorde.

Nu.28.b.

4 And he bade the people that dwelt in Hieruſalem, to geue a (b) parte to the prieſtes and Leuites, that they myght ſubſtancially apply them ſelues to the lawe of the Lorde.

(b) The tithes and firſt fruites, for the maintenance of the prieſtes and Leuites.

5 And as ſoone as the kynges commaundement came abrode, the chyldren of Iſrael brought abundance of firſt fruites, of corne, wine, oyle, hony, and of al manner of fruites of the feelde, and the tithes of al manner of thynges brought they in plenteouſly.

6 And the chyldren of Iſrael and Iuda that dwelt in the cities of Iuda, they alſo brought in the tithes of oxen and ſheepe, and other holy tythes whiche were conſecrate vnto the Lorde theyr God, they dyd offer and brought them al by heapes.

7 In the thirde moneth, they beganne to lay the heapes in maner of a fundation, and finiſhed them in the ſeuenth moneth.

(c) The miniſters were liberally prouided for.

11 And Hezekia bade prepare * the chambers in the houſe of the Lorde: And they dyd prepare them,

* Or, ſtore houſes.

12 And caried in the fyrſt fruites, the tithes, and the dedicate thynges faythfully: ouer whiche Chonaniahu the Leuite had the rule, & Semei his brother next to hym:

13 And Iehiel, Azariahu, Nahath, Aſael, Ierimoth, Ioſabad, Eliel, Ieſmachiahu, Mahath, and Banaiahu, were ouerſeers ordeyned by Chonaniahu, and Semei his brother was an officer of Hezekia the kyng, and Azariahu was the ruler of the houſe of God. C

14 And Core the ſonne of Imna the Leuite, and porter of the eaſt doore, had the ouerſight of the thynges that were offered of a free wyl vnto God, and were geuen in manner ſeuerally vnto the Lorde, and ouer the thynges moſt holy.

15 And vnder his hande were Eden, Miniamin, Ieſua, Semeiahu, Amariahu, and Sechaniahu, in the cities of the prieſtes [appoynted] of theyr fidelitie to geue to theyr brethren theyr portions, aſwel to the ſmal, as to the great.

16 Beſide theyr generation, beyng males, from three yeeres olde and vpward, euen vnto euery one that entereth into the houſe of the Lorde, they ſhoulde geue day by day, for theyr miniſtration, and for theyr geuing attendance, and for theyr diuers waytinges by courſe,

17 Both to the generation of the prieſtes and Leuites throughout the houſholde of theyr fathers, from twentie yeeres and aboue, to wayte when their courſes came:

18 And to the families of al their babes, wiues, ſonnes and daughters through al the congregation: For vpon the fidelitie of them were the holy thinges beſtowed.

19 And to the chyldren of Aaron the prieſtes, whiche were in the feeldes and ſuburbes of theyr cities, citie by citie, the menne whoſe names were expreſſed afore, ſhoulde geue portions, euen to al the males among the prieſtes, and to al the Leuites, accordyng to theyr number.

20 And of this manner did Hezekia throughout al Iuda; and wrought it that is good, D and right and true before the Lord his God.

21 And in al the woorkes that he beganne, for ſeruice of the houſe of God, for the lawe, and for the commaundementes, he ſought his God: and that dyd he with al his harte, and proſpered.

The.xxxii.Chapter.

1 Sennacherib inuadeth Iuda. 3 Hezekia prepareth for the warre. 7 He exhorteth the people to put theyr truſt in the Lord. 9 Sennacherib blaſphemeth God. 20 Hezekia prayeth. 21 The angel deſtroyeth the Aſſyrians, & the kyng is ſlayne. 25 Hezekia is not thankeful towarde the Lorde. 33 His death.

A 1 After that theſe deedes were faythfully donne, *Sennacherib kynge of the Aſſyrians came, and entred into Iuda, & compaſſed the ſtrong cities, and thought to winne them for hym ſelfe.

4.Re.18.c. Eſa,36.a. Eccl.48.c.

2 And ſo when Hezekia ſawe that Sennacherib was comme, and that he was purpoſed to fyght agaynſt Hieruſalem,

3 He tooke counſel with his lordes & menne of myght, to ſtoppe the water of the fountaynes without the citie: And they did helpe hym.

4 For there geathered many of the people togeather, and ſtopte al the welles, and the brooke that ranne through the myddes of the lande, ſayeing, Why ſhal the kynges of the Aſſyrians come and fynde much water?

5 And Hezekia went to luſtily, and buylte vp the walle where it was broken, and made ordinance vpon the towres, and to the other walle without, and repayred Millo in the citie of Dauid, and made many dartes and ſhieldes.

6 And he ſet captaynes of warre ouer the people, and geathered them togeather to hym in the large ſtreete of the gate of the citie, and ſpake gentilly to them, ſayeing,

B 7 Plucke vp your hartes, and be ſtrong: be not afrayde nor diſcouraged for the kyng of the Aſſyrians, and for al the multitude that he hath with hym: *For there be moe with vs then with hym.

4.Re.16.c

8 With him is an *arme of fleaſhe: but with vs is the Lorde our God for to helpe vs, and to fyght our batayles. And the people tooke a courage through the woordes of Hezekia kyng of Iuda.

Ier,17.a.

9 *After this, dyd Sennacherib kyng of the Aſſyrians, ſende of his ſeruantes to Hieruſalem (but he hym ſelfe remayned beſyde Lachis, hauing al his power with hym) vnto Hezekia kyng of Iuda, and vnto al Iuda that were at Hieruſalem, ſayeing,

4.Re.18.c.

10 Thus ſayth Sennacherib kyng of the Aſſyrians, *Wherein doo ye truſte, O ye that dwel in Hieruſalem which is beſieged?

4.Re.18.c.

11 Dooth not Hezekia entice you to geue ouer your ſelues vnto death, hunger, and thyrſte, ſayeing, The Lorde our God ſhal rydde vs out of the hand of the kyng of the Aſſyrians?

12 Hath not the ſame Hezekia put downe his hygh places, & his [a] aulters, and commaunded Iuda and Hieruſalem, ſayeing, Ye ſhal woorſhyppe before one aulter, and burne incenſe vpon the ſame?

13 Know ye not what I and my fathers haue donne vnto the people of al landes? Were the Gods of the people of other landes, able or myghtie to ſaue theyr landes out of my hande?

C 14 Which of al the gods of thoſe nations that my fathers deſtroyed, coulde deliuer his people out of my hande? And ſhal your God be able to delyuer you out of my hande?

15 Wherfore now let not Hezekia deceiue you, nor perſwade you of this faſhion, nor yet beleue hym: For as no god, among al nations and kyngdomes, was able to rydde his people out of my hande, and out of the hand of my fathers: How much leſſe ſhal your gods be able to keepe you out of my hande?

16 And yet moe thynges dyd his ſeruantes ſpeake agaynſt the Lorde God, and againſt his ſeruant Hezekia.

17 And Sennacherib alſo wrote a letter to raile on the Lorde God of Iſrael, & ſpake againſt hym, ſayeing, As the gods of the nations of [other] landes haue not benne able to deliuer theyr people out of my hande: Euen ſo ſhal not the god of Hezekia deliuer his people out of my hande.

18 And they cryed with a loude voyce in the Iewes ſpeache vnto the people of Hieruſalem that were on the walle, to feare them, and to make them faynt harted, and that they myght ſo take the citie.

19 And they ſpake agaynſt the God of Hieruſalem, as agaynſt the Gods of the nations of the earth, [whiche were] the woorkes of the handes of menne.

20 But Hezekia the kyng, and the prophete Eſai the ſonne of Amos, [b] prayed agaynſte that [blaſphemie,] and cryed vp to heauen,

4.Re.19.g.

22 And ſo the Lorde ſaued Hezekia, and the inhabiters of Hieruſalem, out of the hande of Sennacherib the kyng of the Aſſyrians, and from the hande of al other, and maynteyned them on euery ſyde.

23 And manye brought offerynges vnto the Lorde to Hieruſalem, and preſentes to Hezekia kyng of Iuda: ſo that he was magnified in the ſyght of al nations from thenceforth.

4.Re.20.a Eſai.38.a.

24 * In thoſe dayes Hezekia was ſicke to the death, and prayed vnto the Lorde: whiche anſweared hym, and ſhewed hym a woonderful miracle.

25 But Hezekia dyd not agayne vnto God accordyng to it that he had ſhewed hym: for his harte aroſe, and there came wrath vpon hym, and vpon Iuda and Hieruſalem.

26 Notwithſtanding, Hezekia ſubmitted him ſelfe after that his hart was ryſen vp, he and the inhabiters of Hieruſalem: and the wrath of the Lorde came not vpon them in the dayes of Hezekia.

27 And Hezekia had exceedyng muche riches and honour: And he gate hym treaſures of ſyluer and golde, pretious ſtones, and ſpices, ſhieldes, and of al manner pleaſant iewels:

28 And made ſtore houſes for the fruites of corne, for wyne, and oyle, and ſtalles for al manner of beaſtes, and foldes for ſheepe.

29 And he made hym cities, and had of ſheepe and oxen great abundance: For God hadde geuen hym ſubſtance exceedyng muche.

30 This ſame Hezekia ſtopped the vpper water ſprynges of (c) Gihon, and brought them downe to the weaſt ſyde of the citie of Dauid: and Hezekia proſpered in al his workes.

33 And Hezekia ſleapt with his fathers, and they buryed hym in the moſte worthy place of the ſepulchres of the ſonnes of Dauid, and al Iuda and the inhabiters of Hieruſalem dyd hym worſhippe at his death: and Manaſſe his ſonne raigned in his ſteede.

16 And he prepared the aulter of the Lord, and ſacrifiſed thereon peace offeringes & thanke offeringes, & charged Iuda to ſerue the Lord God of Iſrael.

17 Neuertheleſſe, the people dyd offer ſtil in the hygh places, howebeit vnto the Lorde their God only.

18 The reaſt of the actes of Manaſſe, and his prayer vnto his GOD, and the wordes of the Sears that ſpake to him in the name of the Lorde God of Iſrael, beholde they are [written] in the ſayeinges of the kinges of Iſrael.

D 20. And Manaſſe sleapt with his fathers, and they buried hym in his [c] owne houſe, and Amon his ſonne raigned in his roome.

[c] Becauſe he had ſo horrible offended agaynſt the Lord, they did not burie hym in the ſepulchre of the kinges, but in the garden of the kynges houſe.

21 Amon was two and twentie yeeres olde, when he began to raigne, and raigned two yeeres in Hieruſalem.

22 But he dyd euyl in the ſight of the Lorde, lyke as dyd Manaſſe his father: for Amon ſacrifiſed to al the carued images which Manaſſe his father had made, and ſerued them.

23 And ſubmitted not hym ſelfe before yͤ lord, as Manaſſe his father had meekened hym ſelfe: but Amon treſpaſſed greatly.

24 And his owne ſeruantes conſpired againſt hym, and ſlue hym in his owne houſe.

25 But the people of the lande, ſlue al them that had conſpired agaynſt kyng Amon: and the ſame people of the lande made Ioſia his ſonne kyng in his roome.

3 In the eygth yeere of his raigne, when he was yet a childe, he beganne to ſeeke after the God of Dauid his father: And in the twelfth yeere he beganne to purge Iuda and Hieruſalem from the hygh places, groues, carued images, and images of metal.

7 He plucked aſunder the [b] aulters and the groues, and dyd beate the images, & ſtampe them to powder, and cut downe al the idols throughout al the lande of Iſrael, and returned to Hieruſalem agayne.

[b] The godly zeale of this good prince is a worthy example for al princes to folowe.

10 And they put it in the handes of the woorkemenne that had the ouerſyght of the houſe of the Lorde, and they gaue it to the labourers, that wrought in the houſe of the Lorde, to repayre and mende the houſe.

11 Euen to maſons and carpenters gaue they it, to geat heawed ſtone, and timber for couples, and for beames of the houſes which the kynges of Juda had deſtroyed.

4.Re.22.b

15 And Helkia anſweared, and ſayde to Saphan the ſcribe, J haue founde the booke of the lawe in the houſe of the Lorde. And Helkia gaue the booke to Saphan.

21 Goe and enquire of the Lorde for me, and for them that are leaft in Iſrael and Juda, concerning the woordes of the booke that is founde: For great is the wrath of the Lorde that is fallen vpon vs, becauſe our fathers haue not kept the woorde of the Lord, to doo after al that is written in this booke.

22 And Helkia, and they that the kyng had [appoynted] went to Hulda, a prophetiſſe, the wyfe of Sallum, the ſonne of Thecuath, the ſonne of Haſra, keeper of the wardrope (for ſhe dwelt in Hieruſalem, within the ſeconde wal:) and ſo they communed with her.

23 She anſweared them, Thus ſayth the lord God of Iſrael, Tel ye the man that ſent you to me,

24 Euen thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde, J wyl bryng euyl vpon this place, and vpon the inhabiters thereof, euen al the curſes that are written in the booke whiche they haue read before the kyng of Juda:

25 Becauſe they haue forſaken me, and haue offered vnto other goddes, to anger me with al manner woorkes of theyr handes: therefore is my wrath ſet on fyre agaynſt this place, and ſhal not be quenched.

26 And as for the kyng of Juda, whiche ſent you to enquire of the Lord, ſo ſhal ye ſay vnto hym, Thus ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael, concernyng the woordes which thou haſt hearde:

27 Becauſe thyne hart dyd (e) melt, and thou dyddeſt meeke thee ſelfe before God, when thou heardeſt his woords againſt this place, and againſt the inhabiters thereof, and humbledſt thee ſelfe before me, and tareſt thy clothes, and weepedſt before me: that haue J heard alſo, ſayth the Lorde.

(e) The ende of gods threatnynges, is for our repentance.

28 Beholde, J wyl take thee to thy fathers, and thou ſhalt be put in thy graue in peace, and thyne eyes ſhal not ſee al the miſchiefe that J wyl bryng vpon this place, and vpon the inhabiters of the ſame. And they brought the kyng woorde agayne.

29 * Then the king ſent and geathered al the elders of Juda and Hieruſalem:

4.Re.22.a.

30 And the kyng went vp into the houſe of the Lord, and al the menne of Juda, and the inhabiters of Hieruſalem, and the prieſtes, and Leuites, and al the people great ⁊ ſmal, and [the kyng] dyd reade in theyr eares al the woordes of the booke of the couenant, that was founde in the houſe of the Lorde.

31 And the kyng ſtoode at his ſtandyng, and made a couenant before the Lorde, to folowe the Lorde, and to keepe his commaundementes, his witneſſe, and his ſtatutes, with al his harte, and with al his ſoule, and to fulfil

32 And he ſet in their roome al them that were founde in Hieruſalem and Beniamin: and the inhabiters of Hieruſalem dyd according to the couenant of the Lorde God of their fathers.

33 And Ioſia put away al manner of Abominations out of al landes that parteined to the chyldren of Iſrael, and brought in al that were founde in Iſrael, to woorſhyp and to ſerue the Lorde their God: and they turned not aſyde from after the Lorde God of their fathers, as long as he lyued.

2 And he ſet the prieſtes in their offices, and ayded them in the ſeruice of the houſe of the Lorde,

3 And ſayde vnto the Leuites that taught al Iſrael, and were ſanctified vnto the Lorde: Put the holy arke in the houſe which Solomon the ſonne of Dauid kyng of Iſrael dyd buylde, it ſhalbe no more a burden vpon your ſhoulders: But nowe ſerue the Lorde your God, and his people Iſrael:

4 And prepare your ſelues by your auncient houſholdes, & companies, accordyng to the wrytyng of Dauid kyng of Iſrael, and the wrytyng of Solomon his ſonne:

5 And ſtande in the holy place, accordyng to the diuiſion of the auncient houſholdes of your brethren the chyldren of the people, and after the diuiſion of the auncient houſholdes of the Leuites:

6 Kylle Paſſeouer, and ſanctifie your ſelues, and prepare your brethren, that they maye doo accordyng to the woorde of the Lord by the hande of Moſes.

B 7 And Ioſia gaue to the people flockes of ſheepe, and kyddes, al for Paſſeouer, and for al that were preſent, thyrtie thouſand by tale, and three thouſand oxen: and theſe were euen of the kynges ſubſtance.

8 And his lordes gaue wyllyngly, both vnto the people and to the prieſtes, and vnto the Leuites: Helkia alſo, Zacharia, and Iehiel, rulers of the houſe of God, gaue vnto the prieſtes for Paſſeouer offerynges two thouſand and ſyxe hundred ſheepe, and three hundred oxen.

9 (a) Conania, and Semaiahu, and Nathanael, his brethren, and Haſabiah, and Iehiel, and Ioſabad, rulers of the Leuites, gaue vnto the Leuites Paſſeouer offerynges [euen] fyue thouſande ſheepe, & fyue hundred oxen.

(a) Liberal prouiſion for the miniſterie.

10 And ſo the ſeruice was prepared, and the prieſtes ſtoode in their places, & the Leuites in their diſtinct companies, at the kynges commaundement.

11 And they ſlue Paſſeouer, and the prieſtes ſprinckled the blood with theyr hande, and the Leuites pulled of the ſkynnes of the beaſtes.

12 And they ſet away the burnt offerynges, to geue them vnto the people that were diuided by auncient houſes, and that they ſhould offer vnto the Lorde, lyke * as it is wrytten in the booke of Moſes: and ſo dyd they with the oxen alſo.

Leuit.1.a.

13 And they dreſſed the Paſſeouer with fyre, as the manner was: & the other dedicate beaſtes ſodde they in pottes, caldrons, and pannes, and diuided them among al the people.

Exod.12.b

14 And afterwarde they made ready for them ſelues, and for the prieſtes: for the prieſtes the chyldren of Aaron, were buſyed in offeryng of burnt offerynges, and the fat, vntil nyght: therefore yͤ Leuites prepared for them ſelues, and for the prieſtes the ſonnes of Aaron. C

15 And the ſyngers the childrẽ of Aſaph ſtoode in their ſtandyng, * accordyng to the commaundement of Dauid, & Aſaph, Heman, and Ieduthun the kynges (b) ſear: and the porters wayted at euery gate, and myght not departe from their ſeruice: for theyr brethren the Leuites prepared for them.

16 And ſo al the ſeruice of the Lorde was prepared the ſame day, to offer Paſſeouer, and to offer burnt offerynges vpon the aulter of the Lorde, accordyng to the commaundement of kyng Ioſia.

17 And the chyldren of Iſrael that were preſent, kept the Paſſeouer the ſame tyme, and the feaſt of ſweete bread ſeuen dayes.

18 And there was no Paſſeouer lyke to that kept in Iſrael frõ the dayes of Samuel the prophete, neyther dyd al the kynges of Iſrael holde ſuche a Paſſeouer feaſte, as dyd Ioſia, and the prieſtes and Leuites, and al Iuda & Iſrael that were preſent, and the inhabiters of Hieruſalem.

19 This Paſſeouer was holden in the eyghtienth yeere of the raigne of Ioſia.

4.Reg.23.f 20 *After al this when Ioſia had prepared the temple, Necho kyng of Egypt came vp to fight againſt Charcamis beſide Euphrates: and Ioſia went out agaynſt hym.

21 Whiche ſent meſſengers to hym, and ſayde, What haue I to doo with thee thou kyng of Iuda? " Be not thou agaynſt thee ſelfe this day, for my warre is agaynſt another houſe, and God bade me make haſt: leaue of therefore, and meddle not with God whiche is with me, leſt he deſtroy thee.

" Or, I come not agaynſt thee this day, but agaynſt the houſe of myne enimie.

22 Neuertheleſſe, Ioſia woulde not turne his face from hym, " but rather tooke aduiſe to fight with him, and hearkened not vnto the woordes of Necho out of the mouth of god, and came to fight in the valley of Mageddo.

" Or, changed his apparel to fyght with hym.

23 And the ſhooters ſhot dartes at kyng Ioſia: And the kyng ſayde to his ſeruantes, Carrye me away, for I am ſoare wounded.

24 His ſeruantes therefore hadde hym out of that charret, and put hym in an other charret that they hadde; And when they hadde brought hym to Hieruſalem, he dyed, and was buryed in the ſepulchre of his fathers: *And al Iuda and Hieruſalem mourned for Ioſia. Zach.12.a.

25 And Ieremia lamented Ioſia, and al ſynging men & ſyngyng women mourned for Ioſias in their lamentations to this day, and made the ſame lamentations an ordinance in Iſrael: and beholde they are written in the lamentations.

The.xxxvi.Chapter.

1 After Ioſia raigneth Iehoahaz. 4 After Iehoahaz Iehoiacim. 8 After hym Iehoiacin. 11 After hym Zedekia, 14.17. in whoſe tyme al the people were carryed away to Babylon, for contemnyng the admonitions of the prophetes, 22 and were reſtoared agayne the seuentieth yeere after, by kyng Cyrus.

A 4.Re.23.f. 1 AND the people of the land tooke Iehoahaz the ſonne of Ioſia, and made hym kyng in his fathers ſteede in Hieruſalem.

2 And Iehoahaz was twentie and three yeeres olde when he began to raigne, & he raigned three moonethes in Hieruſalem.

3 And the kyng of Egypt put hym downe at Hieruſalem, " and merced the lande in an hundred talentes of ſyluer, and a talent of golde.

" Or, condemned.

4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother kyng vpon Iuda and Hieruſalem, and turned his name to Iehoiacim: and Necho tooke Iehoahaz his brother, and carryed hym to Egypt.

5 Iehoiacin was twentie and fyue yeeres old when he beganne to raigne, and he raigned a leuen yeeres in Hieruſalem, and he dyd euyl in the ſyght of the Lorde his God.

6 Agaynſt hym came vp Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon, and bounde hym with two chaynes, to carry hym to Babylon.

4.Re.24.a 7 The kyng* Nabuchodonoſor alſo carryed of the veſſels of the houſe of the Lord to Babylon, & put them in his temple at Babylon.

B 8 The reaſt of the actes of Iehoiacim, and his abominations whiche he did, (a) and that whiche was founde vpon hym, behold they are wrytten in the booke of the kynges of Iſrael and Iuda; and Iehoiacin his ſonne raigned in his ſteede.

(a) He meaneth the markes of idolatrie, whiche were founde prynted in his body when he was dead.

9 And Iehoiacin was eyght yeeres old when he beganne to raigne, and he raigned three moonethes and tenne dayes in Hieruſalem, and dyd euyl in the ſyght of the Lorde.

10 And when the yeere was out, kyng Nabuchodonoſor ſent, & fet hym to Babylon, with the goodly veſſels of the houſe of the Lorde, and made Zedekia his fathers brother king ouer Iuda and Hieruſalem.

11 *Zedekia was one and twentie yeeres old when he beganne the raigne, and raigned a leuen yeeres in Hieruſalem. Ier.55.a. 3.Re.24.d.

12 And he dyd euyl in the ſyght of the Lorde his God, & humbled not hym ſelfe before Ieremia the prophete, at the mouth of the Lorde.

13 And he rebelled agaynſt Nabuchodonoſor, whiche had receiued an othe of him by God: but he was ſtifnecked, and to hard harted to turne vnto the Lorde God of Iſrael.

14 Moreouer, al the chiefe of the prieſtes and the people treſpaſſed woonderfully after al manner of abominations of the heathen, and polluted the houſe of the Lorde whiche he had halowed in Hieruſalem.

15 *And the Lorde God of their fathers ſent to thē by his meſſengers, ryſyng vp betimes, and ſendyng: for he had compaſſion on his people, and on his dwellyng place. Ie.25.a.

16 But they mocked the meſſengers of God, and deſpiſed his woordes, and miſuſed his prophetes, vntil the wrath of the Lord aroſe agaynſt againſt his people, and tille there was no remedie.

4.Re,25,a. 17 And ſo * he brought vpon them the kyng of Chaldee, whiche ſlue their young menne with the ſwoorde in their holy temple, and ſpared neither young man, mayden, olde man, nor him that ſtouped for age: He gaue them al into his hande.

18 And al the veſſels of the houſe of God, both great and ſmal, & the treaſures of the houſe of the Lorde, and the treaſures of the kyng, and of his lordes: al theſe caried he to Babylon.

19 And they burnt the houſe of God, & brake downe the wal of Hieruſalem, and burnt al the pallaces thereof with fire, and deſtroyed al the goodly iewels thereof.

D 20 And the reaſt that had eſcaped the ſwoord, caried he to Babylon: Where they were bondmen to him and his children, vntil the time that Perſia had the Empire:

21 To fulfil the woorde of the Lorde * by the mouth of Ieremie, vntil the lande had her pleaſure of her Sabbothes: for as long as ſhe lay deſolate, ſhe kept Sabboth, vntil threeſcore and ten yeeres were fulfilled. Iere,25.b.

22 * And the (b) firſt yeere of Cyrus kyng of Perſia (when the woorde of the Lorde * ſpoken by the mouth of Ieremie was finiſhed) the Lord ſtirred vp the ſpirite of Cyrus king of Perſia, that he made a proclamation throwe out al his kingdome, and that by writing, ſayeing, Iere,25.c. and.26,c.

23 Thus ſayth Cyrus king of Perſia, Al the kyngdomes of the earth, hath the lord God of heauen geuen me, and hath charged me to buylde him an houſe in Hieruſalem, that is in Iuda: Wherefore, whoſoeuer is among you of al his people, the Lorde his God be with him, and let him goe vp.

The ſumme of the yeeres of the monarchie of the Perſians is.191.and of Nabuchodonoſor 261.

Of the yeeres that the Monarchies of Perſia raigned. Of the difference of Aucthours therein: and of the diuerſitie and confuſion of the names of the ſaide Monarchies.

The difference of aucthours, aſwel hiſtoriographers as expoſitours, of the holy ſcriptures is great, touching the time and yeeres that the two Monarchies of the Babylonians and Perſians continued, & alſo touching the names of the Monarchies herein deſcribed, wherein there is great confuſion. And therefore al other opinions ſet aparte, we wyl herein folowe Philo Iudeus, and Metaſthene, auncient aucthours, whoſe opinions doo neereſt agree with the holy ſcripture.

Cyrus hauing conquered the kingdome of the Medes againſt Aſtyages, leaft the ſaid kyngdome to his vncle Darius: by whoſe aide he tooke Babylon, and tranſported the Monarchie of Babylon to the Perſians. Two yeeres after, the ſaid Darius returned into Mede, & Cyrus raigned alone in Babylon. Then he mooued warre againſt the Scythians, & marched toward them, and in the meane whyle leaft Cambyſes his ſonne, king of the countrey in his abſence, according to the cuſtome of the Perſians: whiche was to appoynt the neereſt of the kinges blood, to be kyng ouer the countrey, when the king went out to fight againſt any ſtrange nation. This is the cauſe why Cambyſes was not ſet in the ſucceſſiue order of the monarchies. Neither is there any mention of two brethren that were Magitians, whiche guilefully vſurped the kingdome: but their guile being knowẽ, they continued but a fewe monethes, and Darius, ſonne to Hyſtaſpis, was choſen kyng.

Xerxes the ſonne of the ſaid Darius, ſucceeded him: but is not here placed in the number of the monarchies, for that he leaft his kingdome to Darius longhande his ſonne, (according to the cuſtome of yͤ Perſians) when he went to warre agaynſt the Grekes. The Greke hiſtoriographers, not reſpecting that cuſtome, number the ſaid Xerxes and Cambyſes, aboue mentioned, among the ſaid monarches ſucceſſiuely in order, whiche is the cauſe that they count more yeeres in the ſaid monarchie: that is to ſay.226.yeres.

As touching their confuſed names, ye ſhal vnderſtande, that among the Perſians, Darius ſignifieth he that ſubdueth: Xerxes, a warriour: Artaxerxes, a great warriour. Alſo, that this name Aſſuerus, is drawen from the Hebrues, in ſteede of Artaxerxes. Further, that Artaxerxes was the common name of al kinges of Perſia, as Pharao was the common name of the kinges of Egypt, and Caeſar of the Romiſhe Emperours. Therefore where ye finde many indifferently named Darius, or Artaxerxes, or both togeather, that is the cauſe of the difficultie, howe to vnderſtande vnder what king that happened, which is reſited in the ſaide bookes of Eſdras, Nehemias, Eſther, Daniel, & other places of yͤ holy ſcriptures, except ye wel marke them, and wel vnderſtande the contentes of this table.

A 1 AND when the ſeuenth mooneth came, and the chyldren of Iſrael were nowe in their cities, yͤ people came togeather euē as one man to Hieruſalem. 2.Eſd.8.a.

2 And there ſtoode vp Ieſua the ſonne of Ioſedec, and his brethren the prieſtes, and Zorobabel the ſonne of Salathiel, and his brethren, and buylded the aulter of the God of Iſrael, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is wrytten in the lawe of Moſes the man of God.

* Or, baſes. 3 And the aulter ſet they vpon his * ſockets: for there was a fearefulneſſe among them, becauſe of the people of thoſe countreys, therfore they offered burnt offerynges thereon, vnto the Lorde, euen burnt offerynges in the mornyng, and at euenyng.

4 And they helde the feaſte of tabernacles as it is wrytten, and offered burnte ſacrifices dayly, accordyng to the number and cuſtome, day by day.

5 Afterwarde they offered dayly burnt offerynges alſo, and in the newe moones, and in al the feaſt dayes that were conſecrated vnto the Lorde, and for al them whiche dyd of their owne free wyl offer vnto the Lorde.

6 From the firſt day of the ſeuenth mooneth, beganne they to offer burnt ſacrifices vnto the Lorde: euen when the fundation of the temple of the Lorde was not yet layde.

B * Or, workmenne. 7 They gaue money alſo vnto the maſons and * carpenters, and meate and drynke, and oyle vnto them of Sidon and of Tyre, to bryng the Cedar tymber from Libanus by ſea vnto Ioppa, accordyng to the graunt that they had of Cyrus the kyng of Perſia.

8 In the ſeconde yeere of their commyng vnto the houſe of God at Hieruſalem, in the ſeconde mooneth, beganne Zorobabel the ſonne of Salathiel, and Ieſua the ſonne of Ioſedec, and the remnant of their brethren, the prieſtes and Leuites, and al they that were comme out of the captiuitie vnto Hieruſalem: and appoynted the Leuites from twentie yeeres olde and aboue, to ſee that the worke of the houſe of the Lorde went forewarde.

10 And when the buylders layde the fundation of the temple of the Lorde, they appointed the prieſtes in their * araye with trumpettes, * Or, apparel and the Leuites the children of Aſaph with cymbales, to prayſe the Lorde * after 1.Par.16.b the maner of Dauid kyng of Iſrael.

11 And they ſang togeather when they gaue prayſe and thankes vnto the Lord, Becauſe he is gracious, and becauſe his mercie endureth for euer vpon Iſrael: and al the people ſhowted loude in prayſyng the Lorde, becauſe the fundation of the houſe of the Lord was layde.

12 Manye alſo of the prieſtes and Leuites, and chiefe fathers, and auncient menne whiche had ſeene the fyrſt houſe, when the fundation was layde before their eyes, wepte with a loude voyce, & many ſhowted aloude with ioy:

13 So that the people coulde not diſcerne the ioyful ſounde and gladneſſe, from the noyſe of the weepyng among the people: for the people ſhowted with a loude crye, and the noyſe was hearde farre of.

The.iiii.Chapter.

2 The buyldyng of the temple is hyndered, and howe. 11 Letters to Artaxerxes, and the anſweare.

A 1 BVT* the aduerſaries of Juda and Beniamin, hearde that the chyldren of the captiuitie buylded the temple vnto the Lorde God of Iſrael:

3.Eſd.5.g.

2 And they came to Zorobabel, and to the principal fathers, and ſaid vnto them, We wyl buyld with you, for we ſeeke the Lorde your God, as ye doo, and we haue donne ſacrifice vnto hym ſince the tyme of Asor Hadon the kyng of Aſſur * whiche brought vs vp hyther.

3.Reg.12,d

3 And Zorobabel, and Jeſua, and the other auncient fathers of Iſrael, ſayde vnto them, " It can not be, that you and we togeather ſhoulde buyld the houſe vnto our God: for we our ſelues wyl buylde alone vnto the Lorde our God of Iſrael, * as Cyrus the kyng of Perſia hath commaunded vs.

" Or, it is not for you, but for vs to.

1.Eſ.1.a.

4 And it came to paſſe, that the folke of the lande diſcouraged the people of Juda, and troubled them as they were buyldyng:

5 And hyred counſelours agaynſt them, to hynder their deuiſe, as long as Cyrus the kyng of Perſia lyued, vntyl the raigne of Darius kyng of Perſia.

6 And in the raigne of Ahaſuerus, euen at the begynnyng of his raigne, wrote they vnto hym a complaynt agaynſt the inhabiters of Juda and Hieruſalem.

B 7 And in the dayes of Artaxerxes, wrote Mithridath, Tabel, and the other of his counſel, vnto Artaxerxes the kyng of Perſia with fayre woordes: And the wrytyng of the letter was in the Syrians ſpeache, and interpreted in the language of the Syrians:

8 Rehum the recorder, & Samſai the ſcribe, wrote a letter " frō Hieruſalem to Artaxerxes the kyng, as it foloweth.

" Or, againſt

9 Then Rehum the recorder, and Samſai the ſcribe, and other of their companie, they of Dina, of Apharſath, of Tharpelai, of " Perſia, of Arache, of Babylon, of Suſan, of Deha, of Elan.

" Or, Apharſa.

10 And other of the people * whom the great and noble Asnappar brought ouer, and ſet in the cities of Samaria, and other that are now beyond the water, and Cheeneth.

4.Re.18.a

11 This is the copie of the letter that they ſent vnto kyng Artaxerxes: Thy ſeruantes, and the menne that are nowe beyond the water, and Cheeneth.

12 Be it knowen vnto the kyng, that the Jewes whiche came vp from thee to vs, are comme vnto Hieruſalem, a citie ſeditious & froward, and buyld the ſame, and ſet vp the walles thereof, and lay the fundations.

13 Be it knowen nowe vnto the kyng, that yf this citie be buylded, & the walles made vp againe, then ſhal not they geue toule, tribute, and cuſtome, and the kynges profite ſhal incurre damage.

14 And nowe " in the meane ſeaſon we haue deſtroyed the temple, and woulde no longer ſee the kynges diſhonour, therefore ſent we out alſo, and certified the kyng,

" Or, we remembryng that we were brought vp in the kynges pallace, and would, &c.

15 That it maye be ſought in the booke of the chronicles of thy progenitours, and ſo ſhalt thou fynd in the booke of the chronicles, and perceiue that this citie is ſeditious and noyſome vnto the kinges and " landes, and that they cauſe other alſo among them to rebel of olde: and for the ſame cauſe was this citie deſtroyed.

" Or, prouinces.

16 Therefore doo we certifie the kyng, that yf this citie be buylded agayne, and the walles thereof made vp, thou ſhalt hereafter haue no portion beyond the water.

17 Then ſent the kyng an anſwere vnto Rehum the recorder, and Samſai the ſcribe, and to the other of their companions that dwel in Samaria, and vnto the other that were beyond the water in Selam & " Cheeth,

" Or, Cheeneth.

18 The letter whiche ye ſent vnto vs, hath benne openly read before me.

19 And I haue commaunded to make ſearch, and it is founde that this citie of olde hath made inſurrecteon agaynſt kynges, and that rebellion & ſedition hath ben cōmitted therin.

20 There haue ben mightie kings alſo at Hieruſalem, whiche haue raigned ouer al countreys beyonde the water: and toule, tribute, and cuſtome was geuen vnto them,

21 Geue ye nowe therefore commaundement, that the ſame menne be forbydden, and that the citie be not buylded agayne, tyl I haue geuen another commaundement.

22 Take heede nowe that ye be not negligent to doo this: for why ſhoulde the kyng haue harme therethrough?

23 Nowe when the copie of kyng Artaxerxes letter was read before Rehum, and Samſai the ſcribe, and their companions, they went vp in al the haſte to Hieruſalem vnto the Jewes, and forbad them with violence and power.

24 Then ceaſſed the woorke of the houſe of God at Hieruſalem, and continued ſo vnto the ſecond yeere of Darius kyng of Perſia.

The .v. Chapter

1 Aggeus and Zacharie doo propheſie. 3 The woorke of the temple goeth forwarde, contrary to the minde of Thathanai. 6 His letters to Darius.

A 1 The prophetes Aggeus, and Zachari the ſonne of Iddo, prophecied vnto the Iewes that were in Iuda and Hieruſalem, in the name of the God of Iſrael, euen vnto them.

Agge.1.a. 2 *Then gate vp Zorobabel the ſonne of Salathiel, and Ieſua the ſonne of Ioſedec, and beganne to buylde the houſe of God at Hieruſalem: and with them were the prophetes of God, whiche helped them.

3 At the ſame tyme came to them Thathanai, whiche was captayne beyonde the water, and Stharbuzanai, and their companions, and ſayde thus vnto them, Who hath commaunded you to buylde this houſe, and to make vp theſe walles?

4 Then ſayde we vnto them after this maner, What are the names of the menne that make this buyldyng?

5 But the eye of theyr God was vpon the elders of the Iewes, that they coulde not cauſe them to ceaſſe, tyl the matter was brought to Darius: and then they anſweared by letters thereunto.

6 This is the copie of the letter that Thathanai, whiche was captayne beyonde the water, and Stharbuzanai, and the counſailours of Apharſath, whiche were beyonde the water, ſent vnto kyng Darius.

7 And the matter that they ſent vnto hym, was written thus within the letter: Unto Darius the kyng, al peace.

B 8 Be it knowen vnto the king, that we went into the prouince of Iurie, to the houſe of the great God, whiche is buylded with mighty great ſtones, and beames are layde in the walles, and the woorke goeth faſt foorth, & proſpereth in their handes.

9 Then aſked we the elders, and ſayde vnto them as it foloweth, Who cõmaunded you to buylde this houſe, and to make vp the walles thereof?

10 We aſked their names alſo, that we might certifie thee, and write the names of the men that were theyr rulers.

11 But they anſweared vs with theſe woordes, and ſayde, We are the ſeruantes of hym that is God of heauen and earth, and buylde the houſe that was buylded of olde and many yeeres ago, *whiche the great kyng of Iſrael buylded, and ſet vp. 3.Reg.6.a.

12 But after our fathers hadde prouoked the God of heauen vnto wrath, *he gaue them ouer into the hande of Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon and of the Chaldees, whiche brake downe this houſe, and caryed the people away captiue vnto Babylon. 4.Re.24.b C

13 *But in the fyrſt yeere of Cyrus the kyng of Babylon, yͤ ſame kyng Cyrus gaue commaundement concernyng this houſe of god, that it ſhoulde be buylt agayne. 1.Eſd.1.a.

14 And the veſſels of golde and ſiluer of the houſe of god, which Nabuchodonoſor tooke out of the temple that was at Hieruſalem, and brought them into the temple at Babylon: thoſe dyd Cyrus the kyng take out of the temple at Babylon, *and they were deliuered vnto one Saſbazar by name, whom he made captayne, 1.Eſd.1.d.

15 And ſayde vnto hym, Take theſe veſſels, and goe thy way, and ſet them in the temple, that is at Hieruſalem, and let the houſe of God be buylded in his place.

16 Then came the ſame Saſbazar, and layed the fundation of the houſe of God, whiche is at Hieruſalem: Since that tyme alſo vntyl nowe hath it benne in buyldyng, and yet is it not finiſhed.

17 Nowe therefore yf it pleaſe the kyng, let there be ſearche made in the kynges librarie, whiche is there at Babylon, whether it haue benne kyng Cyrus commaundement that this temple of God at Hieruſalem ſhould be buylded: and let the kyng ſende his minde concernyng the ſame matter.

The .vi. Chapter.

At the commaundement of Darius kyng of Perſia, after the temple was buylded and dedicated, the chyldren of Iſrael keepe the feaſt of vnleauened bread.

A 1 Then commaunded king Darius: and they made ſearche in the librarie, euen in yͤ place where they layed vp the treaſure at Babylon:

2 And there was found in a coffer, in the palace that is in the prouince of the Medes, a volume: and therein was it thus written as a memorial.

3 In the fyrſt yeere of kyng Cyrus, gaue the ſame kyng Cyrus commaundement concernyng the houſe of God at Hieruſalem, that the ſame houſe ſhoulde be buylded in yͤ place where they offer the ſacrifices, and to ioyne the walles togeather of threeſcore cubites heygth, and threeſcore cubites breadth.

4 Three rowes of rough ſtones, & one rowe of newe timber: and the expences ſhalbe geuen of the kynges houſe.

5 And let the golde and ſiluer veſſelles of the houſe of god, which Nabuchodonoſor tooke out of the temple at Hieruſalem, and brought vnto Babylon, be reſtored, and brought againe vnto the temple at Hieruſalem to their place in the houſe of God.

6 Nowe therefore thou Thathanai captaine beyonde the water, and Stharbuzanai, and your counſaylours, & Apherſechei whiche are beyond the water, geat ye away from them.

7 Let the woorke of the houſe of this God alone, that the captayne of the Iewes & theyr elders may build yͤ houſe of God in his place.

8 I haue commaunded what ye ſhal doo to the elders of Iuda, for the buyldyng of the houſe of God, that of yͤ kynges goodes, euen of the tribute beyonde the water, foorthwith expences be geuen vnto the men, that they be not hyndred. B

9 And yf they haue neede of calues, rammes, and lambes, for the burnt offering of the god of heauen, wheate, ſalte, wine and oyle, after the cuſtome of the prieſtes at Hieruſalem, let the ſame be geuen them dayly without any delay:

10 That they may haue to offer ſweete ſauours vnto the God of heauen, and pray for the kynges lyfe, and for his chyldren.

11 And ſuche a commaundement haue I geuen, that what man ſoeuer he be that altereth this woorde, there ſhal a beame be taken from his houſe, & ſet vp, and he ſhalbe hanged thereon, and his houſe ſhalbe made a dounghil for the ſame thing.

12 And the God that ſet his name there, deſtroy al kynges and people that put to theyr hande to alter & to breake downe the houſe of God, whiche is at Hieruſalem. I Darius haue made a decree, that this be donne with ſpeede.

13 Then Thathanai the captaine [of the countrey] beyonde the water, and Stharbuzanai, with theyr counſaylours, accordyng to that whiche kyng Darius had ſent, ſo they dyd ſpeedyly theyr diligence.

14 And the elders of the Iewes buylded, and they proſpered through the prophecying of Aggeus the prophete, and Zachari the ſonne of Iddo, and they buylded, and they finiſhed it accordyng to the commaundement of the God of Iſrael, and after the commaundement of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes, kynges of Perſia. C

15 And this houſe was finiſhed the third day of the moneth Adar, euen in the ſixth yeere of the raigne of kyng Darius.

16 *And the chyldren of Iſrael, the prieſtes, the Leuites, and the other chyldren of the captiuitie, held the dedication of this houſe of God with ioy: 2.Par.7.d.

17 And offered at the dedication of this houſe of God an hundred oxen, two hundred rammes, foure hundred lambes: and for the reconciling of al Iſrael, twelue hee goates, accordyng to the number of the tribes of Iſrael:

18 And ſet the prieſtes in their ſundry courſes, and the Leuites in their diuers offices, to miniſter vnto God at Hieruſalem, as it is written in the booke of Moſes.

19 And the chyldren of the captiuitie helde Paſſeouer vpon the fourtienth day of the firſt moneth.

20 For the prieſtes and Leuites were purified al togeather, and killed Paſſeouer for al the chyldren of the captiuitie, and for theyr brethren the prieſtes, and for them ſelues. D

21 And the chyldren of Iſrael whiche were comme agayne out of captiuitie, and al ſuche as had ſeparated them ſelues vnto them frõ the filthyneſſe of the heathen of the lande, to ſeeke the Lorde God of Iſrael, dyd eate,

22 And helde the feaſt of vnleauened bread ſeuen dayes with ioy: For the Lord had made them glad, and turned the hart of the king of Aſſur vnto them, to ſtrengthen their handes in the woorke of the houſe of God, euen the God of Iſrael.

The.vii.Chapter.

1 By the commaundement of the kyng, Eſdras and his companions comme to Hieruſalem.

" Or, ready, or prompt.

8 And he came to Hieruſalem in the fifth moneth, euen in the ſeuenth yeere of the kyng.

9 For vpon the fyrſt day of the firſt moneth, beganne he to goe from Babylon: and on the firſt day of the fifth moneth came he to Hieruſalem, accordyng to the good hande of his God that was vpon hym.

10 For Eſdras prepared his hart to ſeeke the lawe of the Lord, and to doo it, and to teache the preceptes and iudgementes in Iſrael.

11 And this is the copie of the letter that kyng Artaxerxes gaue vnto Eſdras the prieſt, and ſcribe, whiche was a writer of the wordes and commaundementes of the Lorde, and of his ſtatutes ouer Iſrael.

12 Artaxerxes a king of kynges, vnto Eſdras the prieſt and ſcribe of the lawe of the God of heauen, peace and ſalutation.

13 I haue commaunded that al they of the people of Iſrael, and of the prieſtes and Leuites in my Realme, whiche are minded of theyr owne good wyl to goe vp to Hieruſalem, goe with thee:

C

14 And therefore art thou ſent of the king and of his ſeuen counſaylours, to viſite Iuda and Hieruſalem, accordyng to the lawe of thy God, whiche is in thy hande:

15 And that thou ſhouldeſt take with thee ſiluer and golde which the kyng and his counſaylours offer of theyr owne good wyl vnto the god of Iſrael, whoſe habitation is at Hieruſalem:

16 And al the ſiluer and golde that thou canſt finde in al the " countrey of Babylon, with it that the people offer of theyr owne good wyl, and the prieſtes geue wyllyngly for the houſe of their God whiche is at Hieruſalem:

" Or, prouince.

17 That thou mayſt bye diligently with the ſame money, oxen, rammes, & lambes, with their meate offeringes and drinke offeringes, and thou ſhalt offer them vpon the aulter of the houſe of your God whiche is at Hieruſalem.

18 And looke what lyketh thee and thy brethren to doo with the remnant of the ſiluer and gold, that doo after the wil of your God.

19 And the veſſels that are geuen thee for the miniſtration in the houſe of thy God, thoſe deliuer thou before God at Hieruſalem.

20 And whatſoeuer thing more ſhalbe needeful for the houſe of thy God, whiche is neceſſarie for to ſpende, thou ſhalt receiue the charges out of the kynges treaſure houſe.

21 I kyng Artaxerxes haue commaunded al the treaſurers beyonde the water, that looke what ſoeuer Eſdras the prieſt & ſcribe in the lawe of the God of heauen requireth of you, that ye fulfil the ſame ſpeedyly,

D

22 Vntil an hundred talentes of ſiluer, and til an hundred quarters of wheate, and til an hundred battes of wine, and til an hundred * battes of oyle, and ſalt without meaſure.

3.Re.7.d.

23 Whatſoeuer alſo is by the commaundement of the God of heauen, let the ſame be donne without any delay, for the houſe of the God of heauen, that he be not wroth agaynſt the Realme, and agaynſt the kyng and his chyldren.

24 And we certifie you, that ye haue no auctoritie to require taxing and cuſtome, & yerely rentes, vpon any of the prieſtes, Leuites, ſingers, porters, Nethinims, and miniſters in the houſe of his God.

25 And thou Eſdras, after the wyſedome of thy God that is in thine hand, ſet iudges and arbitters [by my auctoritie] to iudge al the people that is beyond the water, euen al ſuch as knowe the lawe of thy GOD: and them that knowe it not, thoſe ſee that ye teache.

26 And whoſoeuer wyl not fulfil the lawe of thy God, and the kinges lawe, let hym haue his iudgement without delay, whether it be vnto death, or to be rooted out, or to be condempned in goodes, or to be put in priſon.

E

27 * Bleſſed be the Lord God of our fathers, whiche ſo had inſpired the kynges harte, to garniſhe the houſe of the Lord that is at Hieruſalem:

3.Eſd,8.a.

28 And hath enclined mercie vnto me in the preſence of the kyng and his counſaylours, and before al the kynges hygh eſtates: And I was comforted euen as the hande of the Lorde my God was vpon me, and ſo geathered I the heades of Iſrael togeather, that they myght goe vp with me.

The.viii.Chapter.

A 3.Eſd.8.e. " Or, genealogie.

1 These are nowe the principal fathers of them, and this is the " regiſter of them that went vp with me from Babylon, what tyme as kyng Artaxerxes raigned.

2 Of the chyldren of Phinehes, Gerſom: of the chyldren of Ithamar, Daniel: of the chyldren of Dauid, Hattus:

3 Of the chyldren of Zechania, among the chyldren of Pharos, Zachari: and with him were numbred an hundred and fiftie men.

4 Of the chyldren of the captayne of Moab, Elioenai the ſonne of Zerahia, & with hym two hundred menne.

5 Of the chyldren of Zechania the ſonne of Iahaſiel, and with hym three hundred men.

8 Of the chyldren of Saphatia, Zebadia the ſonne of Michael, and with hym fourescore menne.

9 Of the chyldren of Ioab, Obadia the ſonne of Iehiel, and with hym two hundred and eyghtiene menne.

10 Of the chyldren of Selomith, the ſonne of Ioſephia, and with hym an hundred and threeſcore menne.

11 Of the chyldren of Bebai, Zachari the ſonne of Bebai, and with hym twentie and eyght menne.

12 Of the chyldren of Agad, Iohanan the ſonne of Hakatan, and with hym an hundred and ten menne.

13 Of the chyldren of Adonicam that were the laſt, whoſe names are theſe: Eliphelet, Iehiel, and Samaiah, and with them threeſcore menne.

C

14 Of the chyldren of Biguai: Uthai, & Zabud, and with them ſeuentie menne.

15 And I geathered them togeather by the water that runneth towarde Ahaua, & there abode we three dayes: And I looked among the people and the prieſtes, and founde there none of the chyldren of Leui.

16 Then ſent I to Eliezer, to Ariel, Semeia, Elnachan, Iarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zacharia, and to Meſullam, the rulers, and to Ioiarib, and Elnathan, whiche were menne of vnderſtandyng.

" Or, and I ſent vnto.

17 " And to thoſe gaue I commaundement vnto Iddo the chiefeſt at Caſphia, & I tolde them what they ſhoulde ſay vnto Iddo and to his brethren the Nethinims at Caſphia, that they ſhoulde cauſe the miniſters of the houſe of our God to comme vnto vs.

18 And through the good hande of our God vpon vs, they brought vs a very wyſe man from among the chyldren of Moholi yͤ ſonne of Leui, the ſonne of Iſrael, and Sarabia with his ſonnes and his brethren, euen eyghtiene.

19 And Haſabia, and with him Iſai of yͤ chyldren of Merari, with his brethren, and theyr ſonnes, twentie.

D

20 And of the Nethinims whom Dauid and the princes gaue to miniſter vnto the Leuites, two hundred and twentie of Nethinims: whiche al were named by name.

21 And euen there at the water beſide Ahaua, I proclaimed a faſt, that we myght humble our ſelues before our God, and ſeeke of hym a ryght way for vs, and for our children, and for al our ſubſtance.

22 For I was aſhamed to require of the king ſouldiers and horſemen, to helpe vs agaynſt the enimie in the way: for we hadde ſpoken vnto the kyng, ſayeing, The hande of our god is vpon al them that ſeeke him in goodneſſe, and his power and wrath is agaynſt al them that forſake hym.

23 So we faſted, and beſought our God for this, and he was entreated of vs.

24 And I tooke out twelue of the chiefe prieſtes, Sarabia, and Haſabia, and ten of theyr brethren with them,

25 And wayed them the ſiluer and gold, and veſſels that were appoynted for the houſe of our God, whiche the kyng and his counſailours, and his lordes, and al Iſrael that were there at hande, had geuen togeather.

26 And I wayed vnto their hande, ſixe hundred and fiftie talentes of ſiluer, and in ſiluer veſſels an hundred talentes, and in golde an hundred talentes:

27 Twentie baſons of golde of a thouſande drammes, & two coſtly veſſels of good braſſe, as cleare as golde.

28 And I ſayde vnto them, ye are conſecrate vnto the Lorde, lyke as the veſſels are holy alſo: and the golde and ſiluer are geuen of a good wil vnto the lord God of your fathers.

29 Watche ye and keepe them: for ye ſhal way them downe before the chiefe prieſtes, & Leuites, and auncient fathers of Iſrael at Hieruſalem, ruſalem, in the treaſuries of the houſe of the Lorde.

30 Then tooke the prieſtes and Leuites the wayed ſiluer and golde, and veſſels, to bring it to Hieruſalem vnto the houſe of our God.

31 And we brake vp from the water of Ahaua, on the twelfth day of the firſt moneth, to goe vnto Hieruſalem: and the hande of our God was vpon vs, and deliuered vs from the hande of the enimies, and of ſuche as layed wayte for vs by the way.

32 And we came to Hieruſalem, and abode there three dayes.

33 But on the fourth day was the ſiluer and golde, and veſſels wayed in the houſe of our God, by the hande of Meremoth, the ſonne of Uria the prieſt, and with hym was Eleazar the ſonne of Phinehes, and with them was Joſabad the ſonne of Jeſua, and Noadia the ſonne of Bennoi the Leuites.

34 According to the number and weyght of euery one, was the wayght al written vp at the ſame time.

35 And the chyldren of the captiuitie, whiche were comme out of captiuitie, offered burnt offeringes vnto the GOD of Iſrael, twelue bullockes for al Iſrael, ninetie & ſixe rammes, ſeuentie & ſeuen lambes, twelue hee goates for ſinne [offering] al to the burnt offering of the Lorde.

36 And they deliuered the kynges commiſſion vnto the kynges officers, and to the captaines that were beyond the water: And they promoted the people, and the houſe of God.

The.ix.Chapter.

1 Eſdras complayneth on the people that had turned them ſelues from God, and maryed with the gentiles. 5 He prayeth vnto God.

A 1 When theſe thynges were donne, the rulers came to me, & ſayde, The people of Iſrael, and the prieſtes & Leuites are not ſeparated from the people of the landes, as touchyng their abominations: namely of the Chanaanites, Hethites, Pherezites, Jebuſites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amorites.

Deut.7.a. Ioſue.23.c Iud.3.a.

2 * For they haue taken the daughters of the ſame to them ſelues and to their ſonnes, and the holy ſeede is mixed with the nations of the landes, and the hande of the princes and the rulers hath ben principal in the treſpaſſe.

3.Eſd.8.c.

3 * And when I hearde this ſayeing, I rent my clothes and my garment, and pluckt of the heare of my head and of my bearde, and " ſate mournyng.

" Or, ſate downe aſtonied.

4 And there reſorted vnto me al ſuche as feared the woordes of the God of Iſrael, becauſe of the tranſgreſſion of the [people] of the captiuitie: And I ſate " mournyng vntyl the euenyng ſacrifice.

" Or, aſtonied.

5 And about the euenyng ſacrifice, I aroſe vp from my heauineſſe, and rent my clothes and my rayment, and felle vpon my knees, and ſpread out my handes vnto the Lorde my God,

6 And ſayde, My God, I am aſhamed, and dare not lyft vp myne eyes vnto thee my God: for our wickedneſſes are growen ouer our heade, and our treſpaſſe is waxed great vnto the heauen.

7 Since the tyme of our fathers haue we benne in great treſpaſſe vnto this day, * and becauſe of our wickedneſſes, haue we, & our kynges, and our prieſtes, benne deliuered into the hande of the kynges of the nations, vnto the ſwoord, into captiuitie, into a ſpoile, and into confuſion of face, as it is to ſee this day.

Deut.18 a. 2.Par.32.b. 3.Re.24.d.

8 And now for a litle ſpace, grace hath benne ſhewed from the Lorde our God, in cauſing a remnant to eſcape, & in geuing vs a nayle in his holy place, that our God may light our eyes, and geue vs a litle lyfe to take breath in our bondage:

9 For we were bondmen, and yet our God hath not forſaken vs in our bondage, but hath enclined mercie vnto vs, in the ſyght of the kyng of Perſia, to geue vs lyfe to ſet vp the houſe of our God, and to redreſſe the deſolation thereof, and to geue vs a wal in Juda and Hieruſalem.

10 And nowe, O our God, what ſhal we ſay after this? for we haue forſaken thy commaundementes, 11 Which thou haſt commaunded by thy ſeruantes the prophetes, ſayeing, The land vnto whiche ye goe to poſſeſſe it, is an vncleane lande, becauſe of the filthyneſſe of the people of the landes, whiche with their abominations haue made it ful of vncleanneſſe on euery ſyde.

12 * Therefore ſhal ye not geue your daughters vnto their ſonnes, and their daughters ſhal ye not take vnto your ſonnes, nor ſeeke their peace and wealth for euer: that ye may be ſtrong and " enioy the goodneſſe of the lande, and that ye and your chyldren may haue the inheritance of it for euermore.

13 And after that al theſe thynges are comme vpon vs, becauſe of our euyl deedes & great treſpaſſes, ſeeyng that thou our GOD haſt ſtayed vs from being beneath for our iniquities, and haſt geuen vs ſuche deliuerance:

14 Shoulde we returne to breake thy commaundementes, and ioyne in affinitie with the people of theſe abominations? wouldeſt not thou be angry towards vs, til thou hadſt conſumed vs, ſo that there ſhould be no remnant, nor any eſcaping?

15 O Lorde God of Iſrael, thou art ryghteous, for we remayne yet eſcaped, as it is to ſee this day: Behold alſo, in thy preſence are we in our treſpaſſes, and becauſe of it may we not ſtande before thee.

The. x. Chapter.

1 The people repent and turne, and put away their ſtrange wyues.

A 1 AND when* Eſdras prayed after this manner, and knowledged, wept, and lay before the houſe of God, there reſorted vnto hym out of Iſrael a very great congregation, of menne, and women, and chyldren: and the people wept very ſore.

3. Eſd. 8. g.

2 And Sechania the ſonne of Iehiel, one of the chyldren of Elam, anſweared, and ſayde vnto Eſdras, We haue treſpaſſed agaynſt our God, and haue taken ſtrange wyues of the people of the lande: Yet nowe there is hope in Iſrael concernyng this thyng.

3 For nowe we wyl make a couenant with our God, and put away al the wiues, and ſuche as are borne of them, accordyng to the counſel of the Lorde: and we wyl be in the " feare of the commaundementes of our God, that we may doo according to the law.

" Or, and of thoſe that.

4 Geat thee vp, for this matter belongeth vnto thee, we alſo wyl be with thee: be of good comfort therefore, and doo it.

5 * Then roſe Eſdras, and tooke an oth of the chiefe prieſtes and Leuites, and of al Iſrael, that they ſhould doo accordyng to this word: And they ſware.

3. Eſd, 9. a.

6 And Eſdras roſe vp from before the houſe of God, and went into the chamber of Iohanan the ſonne of Eliaſib: and when he came thyther, he dyd eate no bread, nor drunke water: for he mourned, becauſe of the tranſgreſſion of ẏͤ people that had benne in captiuitie.

7 And they cauſed a proclamation to goe thorowout Iuda and Hieruſalem, vnto al them of the captiuitie, that they ſhoulde geather them ſelues togeather vnto Hieruſalem:

B 8 And that whoſoeuer came not within three dayes, accordyng to the deuice of the rulers and elders, al his ſubſtance ſhoulde be forfeited, and he ſhoulde be put out from the congregation of them of the captiuitie.

9 Then al the men of Iuda and Beniamin, geathered them ſelues togeather vnto Hieruſalem within three dayes, euen the twentith day of the ninth moneth: and al the people ſate in the ſtreete of the houſe of God, & trembled, becauſe of this matter, and for the raine.

10 And Eſdras the prieſt ſtoode vp, and ſayde vnto them, * Ye haue tranſgreſſed, and haue taken ſtrange wyues, to make the treſpaſſe of Iſrael yet more.

Deut. 7. a.
Iud, 3, a.

11 " Confeſſe nowe therefore vnto the Lord God of our fathers, and doo his pleaſure: and ſeparate your ſelues from the people of the lande, and from the ſtrange wyues.

" Or, giue prayſe.

12 And al the congregation anſweared, and ſayde with a loude voyce: It ſhalbe ſo, and we wyl doo as thou haſt ſayde.

13 But the people are many, and it is a rayny weather, and the people are to faint to tary without in ẏͤ ſtreete, neither is this a worke of one day or two: for " we haue offended very ſore in this thing.

" Or, we are many that haue offended in this thyng.

C

14 Let our rulers ſtande therefore in al the congregation, and let al them whiche haue taken ſtrange wyues in our cities, comme at the time appoynted, and let the elders of euery citie, and their iudges, be with them, til the fierce wrath of our GOD for this matter be turned from vs.

15 Then were appoynted Ionathan the ſonne of Aſahel, and Iahaſia the ſonne of Thecua ouer this matter: and Meſullam and Sabathai the Leuites helped them.

16 And the children of the captiuitie dyd euen ſo: And Eſdras the prieſt, and the auncient heades through the houſe of their fathers, al men of great fame, ſeparated them ſelues, & ſate them downe in the firſt day of the tenth moneth, to examine the matter.

17 And vntyl the fyrſt day of the fyrſt moneth, they were finiſhing the buſineſſe, with al the menne that had taken ſtrange wyues.

18 And among the chyldren of the prieſtes, there were menne founde that hadde taken ſtrange wyues, namely among the chyldren of Ieſua, the ſonne of Ioſedec, and of his brethren, Maaſia, and Eliezer, Iarib, and Gedalia.

The ſeconde booke of Eſdras, otherwyſe called the booke of Nehemia.

The firſt Chapter.

1 Nehemia bewayleth the calamitie of Hieruſalem. 5 He confeſſeth the ſinnes of the people, and prayeth God for them.

A 1 The woordes of Nehemia the ſonne of Hachalia. In the moneth Chiſleu, in ẏ twentie yeere, as I was in the caſtel at Suſan,

2 Came Hanani, one of my brethren, he and the menne of Iuda: and I aſked them howe the Iewes dyd, that were deliuered and eſcaped from the captiuitie, and howe it went at Hieruſalem.

3 And they ſayd vnto me, The remnant that are leaſt of the captiuitie there in the lande, are in great affliction and rebuke: * the wal of Hieruſalem alſo is broken downe, and the gates thereof are burnt with fyre.

4.Re.25.b.

4 And when I hearde theſe woordes, I ſate downe and wept, and mourned certayne dayes, and faſted, and prayed before the God of heauen,

5 And ſayde, O Lorde God of heauen, thou great and terrible God, * thou that keepeſt couenant and mercie for them that loue thee, and obſerue thy commaundementes:

6 Let thyne eares hearken, I beſeche thee, and let thyne eyes be open, that thou mayſt heare the prayer of thy ſeruant, which I pray now before thee day and nyght for the chyldren of Iſrael thy ſeruantes, and knowledge the ſinnes of the chyldren of Iſrael whiche we haue ſinned agaynſt thee: I and my fathers houſe haue ſinned.

7 We haue greeuouſly ſinned agaynſt thee, and haue not kept thy commaundementes, ſtatutes, and iudgementes, which thou commaundedſt thy ſeruant Moſes.

B 8 I beſeche thee cal to remembrance the woord that thou commaundedſt thy ſeruant Moſes, and ſaydeſt, Ye wyl tranſgreſſe, and * I wyl ſcatter you abrode among the nations:

9 But yf ye turne vnto me, and keepe my commaundementes, and doo them: though ye were caſt out vnto the vttermoſt part of heauen, yet wyl I geather you from thence, and wyl bryng you vnto the place that I haue choſen, to ſet my name there.

10 They are thy ſeruantes, and thy people, whom thou haſt deliuered through thy great power, and in thy myghty hande.

11 O Lord, I beſeche thee, let thyne eare hearken to the prayer of thy ſeruant, and to the prayer of thy ſeruantes, whoſe deſyre is to feare thy name: and let thy ſeruant proſper this day, and graunt hym mercie in the ſight of this man. For I was the kynges butler.

The, ii. Chapter.

1 After Nehemia had obteyned letters of Artaxerxes, 11 he came to Hieruſalem, 17 and buylded the walles.

A 1 IT came to paſſe, that in the moneth Niſan, in the twentith yeere of kyng Artaxerxes, the wine ſtoode before hym: and I tooke vp the wine, and gaue it vnto the kyng: And I had not benne before heauy in his preſence.

2 And the kyng ſayde vnto me, Why lookeſt thou ſo ſadly, ſeyng thou art not ſicke? It is nothing els, but that thou art heauy hearted. And I was ſoare afrayde,

3 And ſayde vnto the kyng, GOD ſaue the kyng for euer: Howe ſhoulde I not looke ſadly, when the citie and place of my fathers burials lye waſte, and the gates thereof are conſumed with fyre?

4 And the kyng ſayd vnto me, What is then thy requeſt? I made my prayer alſo to the God of heauen,

5 And ſayde vnto the kyng, If it pleaſe the kyng, and yf thy ſeruant haue found fauour in thy ſyght, ſende me vnto Iuda vnto the citie of my fathers burialles, that I may buylde it.

6 And the kyng ſayde vnto me (the queene his wyfe ſitting by hym:) Howe long ſhal thy iourney continue, and when wylt thou comme agayne? And it pleaſed the kyng to ſende me, and I ſet hym a tyme,

7 And ſayde vnto the kyng, If it pleaſe the kyng, let hym geue me letters to the captaines whiche are beyonde the water, that they may conuay me ouer, til I cōme into Iuda:

B 8 And letters vnto Aſaph the lord of yͤ kinges wood, that he may geue me timber to make beames, for the gates of the palace, whiche is harde by the houſe, and for the walles of the citie, and for the houſe that I ſhal enter into. And the kyng gaue me accordyng to the hande of my God, whiche was good vpon me.

9 And when I came to the captaynes beyond the water, I gaue them the kynges letters: And the kyng had ſent captaynes of the armie, and horſemen with me.

10 Sanaballat alſo the Horonite, and Tobia a ſeruant the Ammonite hearde of it, and it greeued them ſore, that there was comme a man, whiche ſought the wealth of the chyldren of Iſrael.

11 And I came to Hieruſalem, and was there three dayes,

12 And I gate me vp in the nyght ſeaſon, and a fewe menne with me, neither tolde I any man what God had geuen me in my hart, to doo at Hieruſalem: and there was not one beaſt with me, ſaue it that I rode vpon.

13 And I departed in the nyght by the valley port, before the dragon wel, and to the doung port, and conſydered the walles of Hieruſalem howe they were broken downe, and the portes thereof conſumed with the fyre.

14 And I went ouer vnto the wel port, and to the kynges " conduite, and there was no roome for the beaſt that was vnder me to paſſe. C " Or, the poole.

15 Then went I on in the nyght by the brooke ſide, and conſydered the wal, ⁊ turned backe, and came home agayne by the valley port.

16 And the rulers knewe not whyther I went, or what I dyd: neither dyd I as yet tel it vnto the Iewes, to the prieſtes, to yͤ noble men, to the rulers, and to the other that laboured in the worke.

17 Afterwarde ſayde I vnto them, Ye ſee the miſerie that we are in, howe Hieruſalem lyeth waſte, and howe the gates thereof are burnt with fyre: comme therefore, and let vs buylde vp the wal of Hieruſalem, and that we be no more a rebuke.

18 Then I tolde them of the hande of my God, that it was gratious ouer me, and the kinges woordes that he hadde ſpoken vnto me: And they ſayde, Let vs geat vp ⁊ buyld. And they ſtrengthed their hands to good.

19 But when Sanaballat the Horonite, and Tobia the ſeruant an Ammonite, and Geſem the Arabian hearde it, they laughed vs to ſcorne, and deſpiſed vs, and ſayde, What is this that ye doo? wyl ye falle away from the kyng?

20 Then anſweared I them, and ſayde, The God of heauen, he it is that hath graunted vs proſperitie, and we his ſeruantes wyl get vp and buylde: as for you, ye haue no portion, nor ryght, nor remembrance [illegible] Hieruſalem.

The.iii.Chapter.

The.iiii.Chapter.

7 The buyldyng of Hieruſalem is hyndered, 15 but God breaketh theyr enterpriſe. 17 The Jewes buylde with one hande, and holde theyr weapon in the other.

A 1 BUT when Sanaballat hearde that we buylded the walle, he was wroth in hym ſelfe, and tooke great indignation, and mocked the iewes:

2 And ſayde before his brethren ⁊ the ſouldiers of Samaria, What doo theſe impotent Jewes? " Wyl the [heathen] ſuffer them? ſhal they offer? ſhal they perfourme it in one day? ſhal they make the ſtones whole agayne that are brought to duſt and brent?

" Or wil they fortifie them ſelues.

3 And Tobiah the Ammonite was beſyde hym, and ſayde, Though they buylde, yet if a foxe goe vp, he ſhal breake downe theyr ſtony walle.

4 Heare O thou our God, for we are deſpiſed, turne theyr ſhame vpon theyr owne head, and geue them ouer " into deſpiſing in the lande of theyr captiuitie.

" Or, for a pray.

5 Couer not theyr wickedneſſe, and let not theyr ſinne be put out in thy preſence: for they haue prouoked the buylders.

6 And ſo buylded we the walle, and it was ioyned whole togeather vnto ẏ halfe height thereof: and the people were mynded to labour.

B 7 But when Sanaballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, Ammonites, and Aſdodites, hearde that the walles of Hieruſalem were made vp, and that the breaches began to be ſtopped, they were very wroth,

8 And conſpired altogeather to comme and fyght agaynſt Hieruſalem, and to make an hynderance therein.

9 Neuertheleſſe, we made our praier vnto our God, and ſet watchmenne by them day and nyght, becauſe of them.

10 And Juda ſayde, The ſtrength of the bearers is feeble, ⁊ there is yet muche more morter, and we are not able to builde on the wal.

11 And our aduerſaries ſayde, They ſhal not knowe, neyther ſee, tyl we comme in the myddes among them, and ſlay them, ⁊ cauſe the woorke to ceaſſe.

12 But when the Jewes whiche dwelt beſide them, came, they tolde vs as good as tenne tymes, that in al places where ye goe vnto, they are appoynted to falle vpon vs.

13 Therefore ſet I the people after theyr kynredes, with theyr ſwoordes, ſpeares, and bowes, beneath in the lowe places behynde the walle vpon the toppes of the ſtones.

C 14 And I looked, and gate me vp, and ſayde vnto the chiefe menne, to the rulers, and to the other people, Be not ye afrayde of them: but * thynke rather vpon the great Lorde which ought to be feared, and fyght for your brethren, your ſonnes, your daughters, your wyues, and your houſes.

2.Eſd.1.b. and.9.f.

15 Neuertheleſſe, when our enimies hearde that we had gotten woord of it, god brought theyr counſel to naught: and we turned al agayne to the wal, euery one vnto his labour.

16 And from that tyme foorth, the halfe part of the young men dyd the labour, and the other halfe part of them helde the ſpeares, ſhieldes, bowes, and breſtplates: and the rulers ſtoode behynde al the houſe of Juda.

17 They whiche builded on the wal, and they that bare burdens, & thoſe that laded them, with one hande dyd euery one his woorke, and with the other helde his weapon.

18 For euery one that buylded, had his ſwoord girded by his thigh, and ſo builded they: And he that blew the trumpet was beſyde me.

19 And I ſayde vnto the principal menne, to the rulers, & to the other people: The woorke is great and large, and we are ſeparated vpon the walle one farre from another.

D 20 Looke in what place therefore ye heare the noyſe of the trumpet, reſorte ye thyther vnto vs,* and our God ſhal fyght for vs:

Exod.14.c

21 And we wyl be labouryng in the woorke. And the halfe part of them held theyr ſpeares from the mornyng ſpryng, tyl the ſtarres came foorth.

22 And at the ſame tyme ſayd I vnto the people, Let euery one with his ſeruant lodge within Hieruſalem, that in the nyght ſeaſon we may watch, and labour on the day time.

23 As for me and my brethren, my ſeruantes, and the menne of the watche whiche folowed me, we put neuer of our clothes, ſaue only becauſe of the waſhyng.

The.v.Chapter.

1 The people are oppreſſed and in neceſſitie. 7 Nehemia remedieth it. 15 He tooke not the portion of others that had ruled before, leſt he ſhoulde greeue the people.

A 1 AND there aroſe a great complaynt of the people and theyr wyues agaynſt theyr brethren the Iewes.

2 For there were ſomme that ſayde, Our ſonnes & daughters and we are very many: therefore wyl we take corne for them, that we may eate and lyue.

3 Somme alſo there were that ſayde, Let vs ſet our landes, vineyardes, and houſes to pledge, and take vp corne in the dearth.

4 But ſomme there were that ſayd, We haue borowed money for the kynges tribute, and that vpon our landes and vineyardes.

5 And now our fleaſhe is as the fleaſhe of our brethren, and our chyldren as theyr chyldren: and loe we bryng into ſubiection our ſonnes and our daughters as ſeruantes, and ſomme of our daughters are ſubdued vnto bondage alreadie, & no ſtrength is there in our handes to redeeme them, and other menne haue our landes and vineyardes.

6 And when I hearde theyr complaynt, and ſuche woordes, it diſpleaſed me ſore.

B 7 And I aduiſed ſo in my mynde, that I rebuked the counſellers and the rulers, and ſaid vnto them, Euery one of you layeth great burdens vpon his brother. And I brought a great congregation agaynſt them,

8 And ſayd vnto them, We after our habilitie haue redeemed our brethren the Iewes, whiche were ſolde vnto the heathen: And wyl you ſelle your brethren agayne, and ſhal they be ſolde vnto vs? Then helde they theyr peace, & coulde fynde nothyng to anſweare.

9 And [Nehemia] ſayd, It is not good that ye doo: Ought ye not to walke in the feare of our God, becauſe of the rebuke of the heathen that are our enimies?

10 I and my brethren and my ſeruantes doo lende them money and corne: I pray you let vs leaue of this burden.

11 Therfore this ſame day I pray you ſee that ye reſtore them theyr landes agayne, theyr vineyardes, Oliue gardens, and theyr houſes, and remit the hundred part of the money, of the corne, wyne, and oyle that ye haue exacted of them.

12 Then ſayde they, We wyl reſtore them agayne, and wyl requyre nothyng of them, and wyl doo as thou haſt ſpoken. And I called the prieſtes, and tooke an oth of them that they ſhoulde doo ſoo.

13 And I ſhooke my lappe, and ſayde, God ſhake out euery man after the ſame manner, from his houſe and labour, that mainteineth not this woorde, euen thus be he ſhaken out, and voyde. And al the congregation ſayde, Amen, and prayſed the Lord: And the people dyd accordyng to this promiſe.

14 And from the tyme foorth that the kyng committed vnto me to be captayne of them that were in the land of Iuda, euen from the twentieth yeere, vnto the thirtie & two yeere of kyng Artaxerxes, that is twelue yeeres, I with my brethren lyued not of ſuche ſuſtinance as was geuen vnto a captayne. C

15 For the old captaynes that were before me, had ben chargeable vnto the people, and had taken of them bread & wyne, beſyde fourtie ſicles of ſyluer, yea and theyr ſeruantes had oppreſſed the people: But ſo dyd not I, and that becauſe of the feare of God.

16 "But I laboured alſo in the woorke vpon the walle, and we bought no lande: and al my ſeruantes came thyther togeather vnto the woorke.

" Or, but rather, I fortified a porcion, in the woorke of this walle.

17 Moreouer, there were at my table an hundred and fiftie of the Iewes and rulers, which came vnto me from among the heathen that are about vs.

18 And there was prepared for me dayly an oxe, and syxe choſen ſheepe, and byrdes were prepared for me: and euer once in tenne dayes wyne for al, in abundance: yet required not I the ᵃ lyuyng of a captayne, for the bondage was greeuous vnto the people.

ᵃ Or, bread.

19 * Thinke vpon me my God vnto the beſt, according to al that I haue donne for this people.

The. vi. Chapter.

3 Nehemia anſwareth with great wyſedome and zeale to his aduerſarie. 11 He is not diſcouraged by the falſe prophetes.

A 1 AND when Sanaballat, Tobia, and Geſem, the Arabian, and the other of our enimies, heard that I had buylded the wal, and that there were no moe ᵃ gappes therein: (Howbeit at the ſame tyme hadde I not hanged the doores vpon the gates,) ᵃ Or, breaches.

2 Sanaballat and Geſem ſent vnto me, ſayeing, Comme, that we maye meete and take counſel togeather in the villages that are in the playne of the citie Ono. Neuertheleſſe, they thought to doo me euyl.

3 And I ſent meſſengers vnto them, ſayeing, I haue a great buſyneſſe to doo, & I can not comme downe: Why ſhoulde the worke ceaſſe, whyleſt I leaue it, and comme downe to you?

4 Howebeit, they ſente vnto me as good as foure tymes after the ſame manner: And I gaue them the ſame anſweare.

5 Then ſent Sanaballat his ſeruant agayne vnto me the fyft time, with an open letter in his hande,

6 Wherein was wrytten: It is tolde the heathen, and Geſem hath ſayde it, that thou and the Iewes thinke to rebel: for the which cauſe thou buyldeſt the walle, that thou mayeſt be theyr kyng, according to theſe woordes:

B 7 And haſt ordeyned the prophetes to preach of thee at Hieruſalem, and to ſay, He is kyng of Iuda. And nowe ſhal this comme to the kynges eares: comme nowe therefore, and let vs take our counſayle togeather.

8 And I ſent vnto hym, ſayeing, There is no ſuche thyng donne as thou ſayeſt, for thou faygneſt them out of thyne owne hart.

9 For they were al mynded to make vs afrayde, ſayeing, They ſhal withdrawe theyr handes from theyr woorke, that it ſhal not be finiſhed: Nowe therefore ſtrengthen thou my hande.

10 And I came vnto the houſe of Semaia the ſonne of Delaia, the ſonne of Mehetabeel, and he hadde ſhut hym ſelfe within, and ſayde, Let vs comme togeather in the houſe of God, euen vnto the middeſt of the temple, and ſhut the doores of the temple, for they wyl comme to ſlay thee, yea euē in the night wyl they comme to put thee to death.

11 And I ſayde, Shoulde any ſuche man as I flee? Who is, that beyng as I am, wil goe into yͤ temple to ſaue his lyfe? I wil not goe in.

12 And loe, I perceiued that God hath not ſent hym, but that he pronounced this propheſie agaynſt me: for Tobia and Sanaballat had hyred hym for money.

13 Therefore was he hyred, that through feare I ſhoulde ſo doo, and ſynne, that they might haue an euyl reporte of me to laye to my charge.

14 My God, thynke thou vpon Tobia and Sanaballat, accordyng vnto theſe theyr woorkes, & on the prophetiſſe Noadia, and the other prophetes that woulde haue put me in feare. C

15 And the wal was finiſhed on the twentie and fyfth daye of the mooneth Elul, in fyftie and two dayes.

16 And when al our enimies hearde thereof, al the heathen that was about vs were afrayd, and theyr courage fayled them: For they perceiued that this woorke came of our God.

17 And at the ſame tyme were there manye of the chiefe of Iuda, whoſe letters wente vnto Tobia, and agayne from Tobia vnto them.

18 For there were many in Iuda that were ſworne vnto hym: for he was the ſonne in lawe of Sechania, the ſonne of Arah, and his ſonne Iehonathan had the daughter of Meſullam the ſonne of Barachia, 19 And they ſpake good of hym before me, and told hym my woordes: and Tobia ſent letters to put me in feare.

3 And he read therein in the ſtreete that was before yͤ water gate, from the mornyng vntyl the noone day, before menne and women that dyd hearken to it: and the eares of al the people were inclined vnto the booke of the lawe.

4 And Eſdras the ſcribe ſtoode vpon a pulpet of wood whiche they had made for the preachyng, and beſyde hym ſtoode Mathathia, Sema, and Anaiah, Uriah, Helkia, Maaſeiah, on his ryght hande: and on his leafte hande ſtoode Pedaia, Miſael, & Melchia, & Haſum, Haſabadana, Zachari, & Meſullam.

5 And Eſdras opened the booke before al the people, (For he ſtoode aboue al the people:) & when he opened it, al the people ſtoode vp.

6 And Eſdras prayſed the Lorde the great God: and al the people anſweared, Amen, Amen, lyftyng vp theyr handes, and bowed them ſelues, and worſhypped the Lorde, fallyng downe vpon theyr faces to the ground.

B 7 And Jeſua, Bani, Serebiah, Jamin, Accub, Sebbethai, Hodaia, Maaſia, Celita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Leuites cauſed the people to geue heede vnto the lawe: and the people ſtoode in theyr place.

8 And they read in the booke of the lawe of God diſtinctly, and gaue the ſenſe, and cauſed them to vnderſtand the readyng.

9 And Nehemia, whiche is Athirſatha, and Eſdras the prieſt and ſcribe, and the Leuites that cauſed the people to take heede, ſayd vnto al the people, This daye is holye vnto the Lorde your God, be not ye ſory, and weepe not: For al the people wept, when they heard the wordes of the lawe.

3.Eſd.9.g. 10 And he ſayde vnto them, *Goe your way, and eate the fatte, and drynke the ſweete, and ſende part vnto them alſo that haue not prepared for them ſelues, for this day is holy vnto our Lorde: be not ye ſory therefore, for the ioy of the Lorde is your ſtrength.

11 And the Leuites ſtylled al the people, & ſayd, Holde your peace, for the day is holy, be not ſad therefore.

12 And al the people went theyr way to eate, and to drynke, and to ſende part vnto other, and to make great myrth, becauſe they had vnderſtand the wordes that were declared vnto them.

13 And on the next day were geathered togeather the chiefe fathers among al the people, and the prieſtes, and Leuites, vnto Eſdras the ſcribe, that they myght vnderſtande the wordes of the lawe.

14 And they founde wrytten in the lawe* which the Lord had commaunded by Moſes, that the chyldren of Iſrael ſhoulde dwel in boothes in the feaſte of the ſeuenth mooneth: C Leuit.23.f.

15 And that they ſhould cauſe it to be declared and proclaymed in al their cities, & throughout Hieruſalem, ſayeing, Goe foorth vnto the mount, and fetch Oliue branches, Pine branches, Myrtel branches, Palme branches, and branches of the thicke tree, to make boothes, as it is wrytten.

16 And ſo the people went foorth, and fet them, and made them boothes, euery one vpon the roofe of his houſe, and in theyr courtes, and in the courtes of the houſe of God, and in the ſtreete by the water gate, and in the ſtreete of the porte of Ephraim.

17 And al the congregation of them that were comme agayne out of the captiuitie, made boothes, and ſate vnder the boothes: for ſince the tyme of Joſua the ſonne of Nun, vnto this day, had not the chyldrē of Iſrael donne ſo: And there was very great gladneſſe.

18 And euery day from the fyrſte day vnto the laſt, reade Eſdras in the booke of the lawe of God: And ſeuen dayes helde they the feaſte, and on the eygth day they geathered togeather, accordyng vnto the manner.

The.ix.Chapter

1 The people repent, and forſake theyr ſtrange wyues. 5 The Leuites exhort them to prayſe God, 6 declaryng his woonders, 26 and theyr ingratitude, 30 and Gods great mercies toward them.

A 1 IN the twentie and fourth daye of this mooneth, came the chyldren of Iſrael togeather agayne, with *faſtyng and ſacke clothes, and earth vpon them, 3.Eſd.9,a.

2 And they that were of the ſeede of Iſrael, were ſeparated from al the ſtrange chyldren, and ſtoode and knowledged theyr ſynnes, and the wyckedneſſes of theyr fathers:

3 And ſtoode vp in theyr place, and read in the booke of the lawe of the Lord theyr God foure tymes on the day, & they knowledged and worſhipped the Lord theyr God foure tymes on the day.

4 Then ſtoode vp vpon the ſtayres of the Leuites, Jeſua, Bani, Cadmiel, Sabaniah, Bunni,

Bunni, Serebiah, Bani, and Chanani, and cryed loude vnto the Lorde theyr God:

5 And the Leuites, Jeſua and Cadmiel, Bani, and Haſabnia, Serebiah, and Hodia, Sebania, and Phathahia ſayd, Stande vp and prayſe the Lorde your God for euer, and let thankes be geuen vnto the name of thy glorye, whiche excelleth al thankes geuyng and prayſe.

6 Thou art Lord alone, thou haſt made heauen and the heauen of al heauens, with al their hoſt, the earth and al thynges that are therin, the ſea and al that is therein, and thou preſerueſt them al, and the hoſt of heauen worſhyppeth thee.

B 7 Thou arte, O Lorde, the God that haſt choſen Abraham, and broughteſt hym out of Ur in Chaldea, * & calledſt hym Abraham: Gen.11.d.

8 And foundeſt his hart faythful before thee, * and madeſt a couenant with hym, to geue vnto his ſeede the lande of the Chanaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Pherezites, Jebuſites, and Gergeſites, and haſt made good thy woordes: for thou art ryghteous, 9 * And haſt conſydered the miſerie of our fathers in Egypt, and hearde theyr complaynt by the red ſea: Exod.3.d.

10 And ſhewed tokens and woonders vpon Pharao and al his ſeruantes, and on al the people of his lande: For thou knoweſt that they were preſumptuous and cruel agaynſt them: and ſo madeſt thou thee a name as it is this day.

11 And the [red] ſea dyddeſt thou diuide in ſunder before them, ſo that they went through the myddes of the ſea " drye ſhod: and theyr perſecuters threweſt thou into the deepe, as a ſtone in the myghtie waters: * Or, on drye lande.

12 And leddeſt them on the day time in a cloudie pyller, and on the nyght ſeaſon in a pyller of fyre, to ſhewe them lyght in the way that they went.

13 * Thou cameſt downe alſo vpon mount Sinai, and ſpakeſt vnto them from heauen, and gaueſt them ryght iudgementes, true lawes, good commaundementes, and ſtatutes: Exod.19.a

C 14 And declaredſt vnto them thy holye Sabboth, and commaundedſt them preceptes, ordinances, and lawes, by the hande of Moſes thy ſeruant:

15 And * gaueſt them bread from heauen when they were hungrye, and * broughteſt foorth water for them out of the rocke when they were thyrſty, and promiſedſt them that they ſhould goe in and take poſſeſſion of the land ouer which thou haddeſt lyft vp thyne hand for to geue them. Exod.16.b Exod.17.d

16 But they and our fathers were proude and hardenecked, ſo that they folowed not thy commaundementes:

17 And woulde not obey, neither were myndful of the woonders that thou dyddeſt for them: but hardened theyr neckes, and had in theyr heades to returne to theyr bondage by theyr rebellion: But thou O God of mercyes, gracious, and fulle of compaſſion, of long ſufferyng, and of great mercie, yet forſookeſt them not.

18 Moreouer, when they hadde made them a moulten calfe, and ſayde, This is thy God that brought thee out of the lande of Egypt, and dyd blaſphemies:

19 Yet forſookeſt thou them not in the wylderneſſe, accordyng to thy great mercyes: * And the cloudye pyller departed not from them on the day tyme, to leade them the way, neyther the pyller of fyre in the nyght ſeaſon, to ſhewe them lyght in the waye by whiche they ſhoulde goe. Exod.13.b

20 And thou gaueſt them thy good ſpirite to enfourme them, * and withheldeſt not thy Manna from theyr mouth, * and gaueſt them water when they were thyrſtie. Exod.16.d Exod.17.d

D 21 Fourtie yeeres long diddeſt thou feede them in the wylderneſſe, ſo that they lacked nothing, theyr clothes waxed not old, and theyr feete ſwelled not. Deut.8.b

22 And thou gaueſt them kingdomes and nations, and ſcatteredſt them into the corners: ſo they poſſeſſed * the lande of Sehon, and the lande of the kyng of Heſebon, and the lande of Og kyng of Baſan. Num.21.f.

23 And theyr children multipliedſt thou as the ſtarres of heauen, and broughteſt them into the lande whereof thou haddeſt ſpoken to theyr fathers, that they ſhoulde goe into it, and haue it in poſſeſſion.

24 And the children went in, and poſſeſſed the lande, * and thou ſubduedſt before them the inhabiters of the lande, euen yͤ Chanaanites, and gaueſt them into theyr handes, with theyr kynges and the people of the land, that they myght doo with them what they woulde. Ioſue.2.a.

25 And they wanne theyr ſtrong cities, and a fat lande, and tooke poſſeſſion of houſes that were ful of al manner of goodes, welles digged out, vineyardes, oliue gardens, " and many fruiteful trees: and they dyd eate, and were fylled, and became fatte, and lyued in pleaſure through thy great goodneſſe. * Or, ciſternes.

" Or, whiche proteſted among them, to turne them to thee.

27 Therefore thou gaueſt them ouer into the hande of their enimies that vexed them: And in the time of their trouble, when they cryed vnto thee, thou heardeſt them from heauen, and through thy great mercie thou gaueſt them ſauiours, whiche helped them out of the hande of their enimies.

E 28 But when they came to reaſt, they turned backe agayne to doo euil before thee: therfore lefteſt thou them in yͤ hande of their enimies, ſo that they had the dominion ouer them: And when they conuerted, and cryed vnto thee, thou heardeſt them from heauen, and many times haſt thou deliuered them accordyng to thy great mercie, 29 And " teſtifiedſt vnto them, that thou myghteſt bryng them againe vnto thy law: Notwithſtandyng they were proude, & hearkened not vnto thy commaundementes, but ſinned " in thy lawes, *which if a man doo, he ſhal liue in them: and turned the ſhoulder away, and were ſtiffe necked, and woulde not heare.

" Or, againſt thy iudgementes.
Leui,18.a.

30 Yet many yeeres dyddeſt thou forbeare them, and " teſtifiedſt vnto them through thy ſpirite, euen by the hand of thy prophetes, and yet woulde they not heare: therefore gaueſt thou them into the hande of the nations of the landes.

31 And for thy great mercies ſake, thou haſt not vtterly conſumed them, neither forſaken them: for thou art a gratious and merciful God.

32 *Now therefore our God, thou great God mighty and terrible, thou that keepeſt couenant and mercie, regarde not a litle al the trauaile that hath comme vnto vs, & our kinges, our princes, our prieſtes, our prophetes, and our fathers, and al the people ſince the time of the kynges of Aſſur, vnto this day.

2.Eſd.1.b.

33 And truely thou art iuſt in al that thou haſt brought vpon vs, for thou haſt donne right: As for vs, we haue benne vngodly,

34 And our kynges, and our princes, our prieſtes, & our fathers, haue not donne thy lawe, nor regarded thy commaundementes, and thy " earneſt exhortations, wherewith thou haſt " exhorted them,

" Or, proteſtations.
" Or, proteſted among them.

35 And they haue not ſerued thee in their kingdome, and in thy great goodneſſe that thou gaueſt them, and in the large and " plenteous lande, whiche thou gaueſt before them, and haue not conuerted from their wicked workes.

" Or, fatte.

36 Beholde, we are in bondage this day, and ſo is the lande that thou gaueſt vnto our fathers, to eate the fruites and goodneſſe thereof, beholde there are we bondmen.

37 And great is the increaſe of it, vnto yͤ kings whom thou haſt ſet ouer vs, becauſe of our ſinnes, and they haue dominion ouer our bodyes & catayle, euen as they wyl them ſelues: and we are in great trouble.

38 Nowe becauſe of al this, make we a ſure couenant and write it, and our princes, Leuites, and prieſtes, ſeale vnto it.

35 And certayne of the prieſtes chyldren, with trumpettes: namely Zacharie the ſonne of Jonathan, the ſonne of Semeia, the ſonne of Mathania, the ſonne of Michaia, the ſonne of Zaccur, the ſonne of Aſaph, 36 And his brethren, Semeia, Azarael, Melalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nathanael, and Juda, and Hanani, with the muſical inſtrumentes of Dauid the man of God: And Eſdras the ſcribe went before them.

37 And beſyde the wel gate, they went vp ouer agaynſt them, vpon the ſteppes of the citie of Dauid, at the goyng vp of the wal, beyonde the houſe of Dauid, vnto the water gate eaſtwarde.

38 The other quier of them that gaue thankes went ouer agaynſt them, and I after them, and the halfe part of the people vpon the wal beyonde the fornace gate, vntyl the brode wal,

39 And beyonde the port of Ephraim, and beyonde the olde gate, beyonde the fiſhe gate, and the towre of Hananeel, and the towre of Mea, euen vnto the ſheepe gate, and they ſtoode ſtil in the " priſon gate. " Or, the gate of the warde.

40 And ſo ſtoode the two quiers of them that gaue thankes in the houſe of god, and I, and the halfe of the rulers with me:

41 And the prieſtes, namely Eliakim, Maaſia, Miniamin, Michaia, Elionai, Zachari, and Hanania, with trumpettes:

42 And Maaſia, Semeia, Eleaſer, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Melchiah, Elam, and Ezer: And the ſingers ſang loude, hauyng Jeſrahiah for theyr ouerſeer.

43 And the ſame day they offered great ſacrifices, and reioyced: for God had geuen them great gladneſſe, ſo that both the wyues and chyldren were ioyful, and the mirth of Hieruſalem was hearde farre of.

44 And the ſame tyme were the menne appoynted ouer the treaſure houſes, wherein were the heaue offeringes, the fyrſtlynges, & the tythes, that they ſhoulde geather them out of the feeldes about yͤ cities, to diſtribute them vnto the prieſtes and Leuites, accordyng to the lawe: for Juda was glad of the prieſtes and Leuites that ſerued.

45 And there ſtoode and wayted vpon the office of theyr God, which is a pure office, both the ſingers and porters, after the commaundement of Dauid, & of Solomon his ſonne:

46 For

1.Par.23.a. 46 * For in the tyme of Dauid and Aſaph, of olde were the chiefe ſingers [founded] and the ſonges of prayſe and thankeſgeuyng vnto God.

47 In the tyme of Zorobabel and Nehemia, dyd al they of Iſrael geue portions vnto the ſingers and porters, euery day his portion: and they gaue tythes vnto the Leuites, and the Leuites gaue tythes agayne vnto the chyldren of Aaron.

The .xiii. Chapter.

1 The lawe is read. 3 They ſeparate from them al ſtrangers. 15 Nehemia reprooueth them that breake the Sabboth. 30 An ordinance to ſerue God.

A 1 AND that day dyd they reade in the booke of Moſes, in the audience of the people, and therein was founde written, * that the Ammonites, ⁊ Moabites ſhoulde neuer comme into the congregation of God, Deut.34.a

2 Becauſe they met not the chyldren of Iſrael with bread and water, * but hyred Balaam agaynſt them, that he ſhould curſe them: and our God turned the curſe into a bleſſing. Num,23.a

3 Nowe when they had heard the lawe, they ſeparated from Iſrael, euery one that hadde mixt hym ſelfe therein.

4 And before this, had the prieſt Eliaſib the ouerſyght of the treaſurie of the houſe of our God, and he was kynſman vnto Tobia,

5 And had made hym a great chamber, and there had they afore time layd the offeringes, frankencenſe, veſſels, and the tythes of corne, wine, and oyle, accordyng to the commaundementes geuen to the Leuites, ſingers, and porters, ⁊ the heaue offeringes of the prieſtes.

6 But in al this tyme, was not I at Hieruſalem: for in the two ⁊ thirtieth yeere of Artaxerxes kyng of Babylon, came I vnto the kyng, and after certayne dayes obtayned I licence of the king, to comme to Hieruſalem.

7 And I gate knowledge of the euil that Eliaſib dyd for Tobia, in that he hadde made him a chamber in the court of the houſe of God,

B 8 And it greeued me ſore: therefore I caſt foorth al the veſſels of the houſe of Tobia out of the chamber:

9 And commaunded them to cleanſe yͤ chambers, and thyther brought I agayne the veſſels of the houſe of God, with the meate offering, and the incenſe.

10 And I perceiued that the portions of the Leuites hadde not benne geuen them, and that euery one was fled to his lande, euen the Leuites ⁊ ſingers that executed the worke.

11 Then reprooued I the rulers, and ſayde, Why is the houſe of God forſaken? And I geathered them togeather, and ſet them in theyr place.

12 Then brought al Iuda the tithes of corne, and wine, and oyle, vnto the treaſure.

13 And I made treaſurers ouer the treaſure, euen Selemiah the prieſt, and Zadoc the ſcribe, and of the Leuites, Phadaia: and vnder theyr hand, was Hanan the ſonne of Zacur, the ſonne of Mathania: for they were counted faythful, and theyr office was to diſtribute [the portions] vnto theyr brethren.

14 Thinke vpon me, O my God herein, and wype not out my " mercie that I haue ſhewed on the houſe of my God, and on the offices thereof. C " Or, kyndneſſe.

15 And the ſame tyme ſawe I in Iuda ſome treadyng wine preſſes on the Sabboth, and bryngyng in ſheaues, and whiche laded aſſes alſo with wine, grapes, and figges, and al burdens, and brought them into Hieruſalem vpon the Sabboth day: And I rebuked them earneſtly the ſame day that they ſolde the vitayles.

16 There dwelt menne of Tyre alſo therein, whiche brought fiſhe ⁊ al manner of ware, and ſolde on the Sabboth vnto the chyldren of Iuda, euen in Hieruſalem.

17 Then reprooued I the rulers in Iuda, and ſayde vnto them, What euil thyng is this that ye doo, and breake the Sabboth day?

18 Dyd not your fathers euen thus, and our God brought al this plague vpon vs, and vpon this citie? And ye make yͤ wrath more yet vpon Iſrael, in that ye breake the Sabboth?

19 And when the portes of Hieruſalem began to be darke in the euenyng before the Sabboth, I commaunded to ſhut the gates, and charged that they ſhoulde not be opened tyl after the Sabboth: and ſomme of my ſeruantes ſet I at the gates, that there ſhoulde no burden be brought in on the Sabboth day.

20 Then remayned the chapmen and marchantes once or twyſe ouer nyght without Hieruſalem, with al maner of wares. D

21 Then reprooued I them ſore, ⁊ ſayde vnto them, Why tary ye al night about the wal? If ye doo it once agayne, I wyl lay handes vpon you: From that tyme foorth came they no more on the Sabboth.

22 And I ſayde vnto the Leuites, that they ſhoulde cleanſe them ſelues, and that they ſhoulde comme and keepe the gates, to halowe the Sabboth day: Thinke vpon me, O my God, concernyng this alſo, and ſpare me, accordyng to thy great mercie.

23 In thoſe dayes alſo, ſawe I Iewes that maried wyues of Aſdod, of Ammon, and of Moab, 24 And their chyldren ſpake halfe in the ſpeache of Aſdod, and coulde not ſpeake in the Iewes language, but accordyng to the language of the one people & of the other people.

25 Then I reprooued them, and curſed them, and ſmote certayne menne of them, & made them bare: and tooke an oth of them by god, Ye ſhal not geue your daughters vnto their ſonnes, neither ſhal ye take their daughters vnto your ſonnes, or for your ſelues.

3.Reg.3.b.

26 * Dyd not Solomon the kyng of Iſrael ſinne by theſe thinges? and yet among many heathen, was there no kyng lyke hym, whiche was deare vnto his God, and God made hym kyng ouer al Iſrael: and yet neuertheleſſe outlandiſh women cauſed him to ſinne.

3.Reg.11,a.

27 Shal we then obey vnto you to doo al this great euyl, and to tranſgreſſe agaynſt our God, and marry ſtrange wyues?

28 And one of the chyldren of Iehoiada the ſonne of Eliaſib the hye prieſt, was the ſonne in lawe of Sanaballat the Horonite: but I chaſed hym from me.

29 O my God, thinke thou vpon them that defile the prieſthood, and the couenant of the prieſthood, and of the Leuites.

30 Thus cleanſed I them from al ſuche as were outlandiſhe, and appoynted the courſes of the prieſtes and Leuites, euery one in his office:

31 And to offer the wood at times appoynted, and the firſt fruites: Thinke thou vpon me, O my God, for the beſt.

The booke of Eſther.

The firſt Chapter.

3 Kyng Ahaſuerus maketh a royal feaſt. 10 Whereunto the queene Vaſthi wyl not comme.
19 For which cauſe ſhe is diuorced. 20 The kynges decree touching the preeminence of man.

A

1 IT came to paſſe, that in the dayes of Ahaſuerus, (this is Ahaſuerus whiche raigned from India vnto Ethiopia, ouer an hundred & twentie and ſeuen prouinces)

2 Euen in thoſe dayes, when the kyng Ahaſuerus ſate on his ſeate royal, whiche was in Suſan the chiefe citie:

3 In the thirde yeere of his raigne, he made a feaſt vnto al his princes and ſeruantes: and the myghty menne of Perſia and Media, the captaynes alſo & rulers of his countreys were before hym.

4 And he ſhewed the richeſſe and glorie of his kyngdom, and the glorious worſhip of his greatneſſe, many dayes long, [euen] an hundred and foureſcore dayes.

5 And when theſe dayes were expired, the kyng made a feaſt vnto al the people, that were in Suſan the chiefe citie, both vnto great & ſmal, ſeuen dayes long, in the courte of the garden by the kynges palace.

6 Where there hanged white, greene, and " yelowe clothes, faſtened with cordes of fine ſilke and purple, in ſiluer ringes, vpon pillers of marble ſtones: The " benches alſo were of golde and ſiluer made vpon a pauement of " greene, white, yelowe, and blacke marble.

" Or, blewe, or violet coloured clothes

" Or, beddes, or tables.

" Or, porphire, marble, alabaſter, and blewe colour.

7 And they dranke in veſſels of golde, and changed veſſel after veſſel, and royal wine in abundance, accordyng to the power of the kyng.

B

8 And the drinking was by an order, none myght compel: for ſo the kyng had appoynted to al the officers of his houſe, that they ſhoulde doo accordyng to euery mans pleaſure.

9 And the queene Vaſthi made a feaſt alſo for the women in the palace of Ahaſuerus.

10 And on the ſeuenth day, when the kyng was merry after the wine, he commaunded Mehuma, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagthan, Zethar, and Charchas, the ſeuen chamberlaines, that dyd ſeruice in the preſence of kyng Ahaſuerus, 11 To fetche the queene Vaſthi with ẏ crowne regal into the kynges preſence, that he might ſhewe the people and princes her faireneſſe: for ſhe was beautiful.

12 But the queene Vaſthi, would not comme at the kinges worde by his chamberlaines: Then was the kyng very wroth, and his indignation kindled in hym.

13 And the king ſpake to the wiſe menne whiche knewe the times (for ſo was the kinges manner, towardes al that knewe the lawe and the iudgementes:

C 14 And the next vnto him were, Carſena, Sethar, Admata, Therſis, Mares, Marſena, & Memuchan, the ſeuen princes of Perſia and Media, whiche ſawe the kinges face, and ſate the firſt in the kyngdome,)

15 What, ſhal we doo vnto the queene Vaſthi according to the lawe, becauſe ſhe dyd not according to the worde of the kyng Ahaſuerus, whiche he commaunded by his chamberlaines:

16 And Memuchan anſweared before ẏ king and the princes: The queene Vaſthi hath not only donne euyl agaynſt the king, but alſo againſt al the princes, and againſt al the people, that are in al the prouinces of king Ahaſuerus.

17 For this deede of the queene ſhal comme abrode vnto al women, ſo that they ſhal deſpiſe their huſbandes before theyr eyes, and ſhal ſay, The king Ahaſuerus commaunded Vaſthi the queene, to be brought in before him, but ſhe woulde not comme.

18 And ſo ſhal the princes in Perſia and Media, ſay likewyſe this day vnto al the kinges princes, when they heare of this deede of the queene: thus ſhal there aryſe to muche deſpitefulneſſe and wrath.

19 If it pleaſe the king, let there goe a commaundement from him, and let it be written according to the lawes of the Perſians and Medians, & not to be tranſgreſſed, that Vaſthi comme no more before king Ahaſuerus, and let the king geue her royal eſtate vnto an other that is better then ſhe.

20 And when this commaundement of the king whiche ſhalbe made, is publiſhed thorowout al his empire, whiche is great, al women ſhal holde their huſbandes in honour both among great and ſmal. D

21 This ſaying pleaſed the king & the princes, and the king dyd according to the worde of Memuchan.

22 For he ſent letters foorth into al the kinges prouinces, into euery lande according to the writing thereof, and to euery people after their language, that euery man ſhoulde be lorde in his owne houſe: and this to be publiſhed after the language of his people.

The.ii.Chapter.

2 After the queene is put away, certayne young maidens are brought to the kyng. 14 Eſther pleaſeth the kyng, and is made queene. 22 Mardocheus diſcloſeth vnto the kyng, thoſe that woulde betray hym.

A 1 AFter theſe actes, when the diſpleaſure of kyng Ahaſuerus was nowe " alayed, he thought vpon Vaſthi, & what ſhe had donne, and what was decreed agaynſt her.

" Or, appeaſed.

2 Then ſayde the kinges ſeruantes that miniſtred vnto him, Let there be faire young virgins ſought for the king,

3 And let the kyng appoynt officers in al the prouinces of his empire, that they ſhoulde bryng togeather al the faire young virgins vnto Suſan, the head citie, to the womens buylding, vnder the hande of Hegai the kinges chamberlaine that kept the women, to geue them their " apparel:

" Or, thinges for purification.

4 And that the mayden whiche pleaſeth the kyng, ſhoulde be queene in Vaſthis ſteede. And this pleaſed the kyng, and he dyd ſo.

5 In the citie of Suſan there was a certayne Iewe, whoſe name was Mardocheus, the ſonne of Iair, the ſonne of Semei, the ſonne of Cis, a man of Iemini,

6 Whiche was caryed away from Hieruſalem with the captiuitie,* when Iekonia the kyng of Iuda was lead away, whom Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon caryed thence:

1.Re.24.e. Iere.24.a.

7 And he nouriſhed Hadaſſa (that is Eſther) his vncles daughter: for he had neither father nor mother, and ſhe was a faire & beautiful mayden, whom Mardocheus (when her father and mother were dead) receiued for his owne daughter,

8 So when the kinges commaundement and commiſſion was publiſhed, and many maydens were brought togeather into the citie of Suſan vnder the hand of Hegai, Eſther was brought alſo vnto the kinges houſe vnder the hande of Hegai the keeper of the women.

9 And the mayden pleaſed hym, & ſhe founde fauour in his ſight: and he cauſed ʺ ornamentes to be geuen her ſpeedily, and ſuche thinges as belonged to her, and appoynted her ſeuen comely maydens out of the kinges houſe, ʺ and fauoured both her & her gentlewomen ſingularly in the houſe of the women.

ʺ Or, her thynges for purification.

ʺ Or, and he gaue charge to her, and to her maidēs, of the beſt in the houſe of the women.

10 But Eſther ſhewed not her people and her kinred: for Mardocheus hadde charged her, that ſhe ſhoulde not tel it.

11 And Mardocheus walked euery day before the court of ẏ womens houſe, that he might knowe howe Eſther dyd, and what ſhoulde becomme of her.

12 And when the appoynted tyme of euery mayden came, that ſhe ſhoulde goe in to the king Ahaſuerus, after that ſhe hadde benne twelue monethes, accordyng to the manner of the women (for ſo were the dayes of their purification accompliſhed, ſixe monethes with oyle of myrre, and ſixe monethes with ſweete odoures, and in the purifiyng of the women:

13 And thus went the maydens vnto the kyng) whatſoeuer ſhe required, that muſt be geuen her to goe with her out of the womens buyldyng vnto the kinges palace.

C 14 In the euenyng ſhe went, and on the morowe ſhe returned into the ſeconde houſe of the women, abidyng vnder the hand of Saaſgaz the kinges chamberlayne, which kept the concubines: And ſhe came in vnto the kyng no more, except it pleaſed the kyng to haue her, and that ſhe were called by name.

15 Nowe when the courſe came of Eſther the daughter of Abihail, the vncle of Mardocheus (whiche hadde receiued her as his owne daughter) that ſhe ſhoulde comme in vnto the kyng, ſhe deſyred nothyng but what Hegai the kynges chamberlayne, the keeper of the women ſayde. And Eſther found fauour in the ſight of al them that looked vpon her.

16 And Eſther was taken vnto kyng Ahaſuerus into his houſe royal, in the tenth moneth (whiche is the moneth Tebeth) in the ſeuenth yeere of his raigne.

17 And the kyng loued Eſther aboue al the women, & ſhe found grace and fauour in his ſight more then al the virgins, ſo that he ſet the crowne of the kingdome vpon her head, and made her queene in ſteede of Vaſthi.

18 And the king made a great feaſt vnto al his princes and ſeruantes, whiche feaſt was becauſe of Eſther, and cauſed the prouinces to be in quietneſſe, and gaue gyftes, as became the royaltie of a kyng.

19 And when the virgins were geathered togeather, the ſeconde tyme, Mardocheus ſate in the kynges gate.

20 And as yet had not Eſther ſhewed her kinred and her people, accordyng as Mardocheus hadde bidden her: for Eſther dyd after the woorde of Mardocheus, lyke as yf ſhe hadde benne yet vnder his gouernance. D

21 At the ſame tyme (whyle Mardocheus ſate in the kynges gate) two of the kynges chamberlaynes, Bigthan and Theres, whiche kept the doore, were wroth, and ſought to lay their handes on the kyng Ahaſuerus:

22 Whereof alſo Mardocheus gate knowledge, * and tolde it vnto queene Eſther, and Eſther certified the kyng thereof in Mardocheus name.

23 And when inquiſition was made, it was founde ſo, and they were both hanged on tree: and it was written in the Chronicles before the kyng.

The.iii.Chapter.

1 Haman after he was exalted, obteyned of the kyng, that al the Iewes ſhoulde be put to death, becauſe Mardocheus had not donne him woorſhip as other had.

A 1 After theſe actes, dyd kyng Ahaſuerus promote Haman the ſonne of Amadatha the Agagite, and ſet hym on hygh, and ſet his ſeate aboue al the princes that he had with him.

2 And al the kinges ſeruantes that were in the kynges gate, bowed their knees, and reuerenced Haman, for the kyng had ſo commaunded concernyng hym: But Mardocheus bowed not the knee, neither dyd hym reuerence.

3 Then the kinges ſeruantes, which were in the kinges gate, ſaide vnto Mardocheus, Why tranſgreſſeſt thou ẏ kinges commaundement?

4 And though they ſpake this dayly vnto hym, yet would he not heare them, therefore they tolde Haman, that they myght ſee how Mardocheus matters woulde ſtande, for he had tolde them that he was a Iewe.

5 And when Haman ſawe that Mardocheus bowed not the knee vnto him, nor did reuerence vnto hym, he was ful of indignatiō,

6 And thought it to litle to laye handes only on Mardocheus, for they had ſhewed hym ẏ nation of Mardocheus: Wherefore he ſought to deſtroy al the Iewes that were throughout the whole empire of Ahaſuerus, and that were of the nation of Mardocheus.

7 And

B 7 In the fyrſte moneth (that is, the moneth Niſan) in the twelfth yeere of kyng Ahaſuerus, they caſt Phur, that is a lot, before Haman, from day to day, and from moneth to moneth, to the twelfth moneth, that is, the moneth Adar.

8 And Haman ſayde vnto kyng Ahaſuerus, There is here a people ſcattered abrode, and diſpearſed among al people in al the prouinces of thyne empire, and theyr lawes are diuers from al people, and doo not after the kynges lawes, therefore it is not the kynges profite to ſuffer them after this manner.

9 If it pleaſe the kyng, let it be wrytten that they may be deſtroyed: aud ſo wyl I waye downe ten thouſand talentes of ſyluer by the handes of them that haue the charge of this buſynes, to bryng it into the kinges treaſury.

10 And the king tooke his ring from his hand, and gaue it vnto Haman the ſonne of Hamadatha the Agagite, the Iewes enimie.

11 And the kyng ſayde vnto Haman, Let the ſyluer be thyne, and doo with that people as it pleaſeth thee.

12 Then were the kynges ſcribes called on the thirtienth day of the fyrſt moneth, & there was wrytten, according as Haman commaunded, vnto al the kynges officers, and to the captaines that were ouer euery prouince, and to the rulers of euery people in the countreys on euery ſyde, according to the writing thereof, and to euery nation after theyr language, in the name of king Ahaſuerus was it wrytten, and ſealed with the kynges ring.

13 And the letters were ſent by poſtes into al the kynges prouinces, to roote out, to kylle, and to deſtroye al Iewes, both young and olde, chyldren, and women, in one day, [namely] vpon the thirtienth daye of the twelfth moneth (whiche is the moneth Adar) and to ſpoyle them as a pray.

14 This was the ſumme of the wrytyng, C that there ſhoulde be a commaundement geuen in al prouinces, and publiſhed vnto al people, that they ſhoulde be ready agaynſte the ſame day.

15 And the poſtes went in al the haſte accordyng to the kynges commaundement, and in Suſan the chiefe citie was the commaundement deuiſed: And the kyng and Haman ſate and dranke, when in the meane tyme the citie of Suſan was diſquieted.

The .iiii. Chapter.

5 Mardocheus geueth the queene knowledge of the cruel decree of the kyng agaynſt the Iewes. 16 She wylleth that they pray for her.

A 1 When Mardocheus perceiued al that was donne, he rent his clothes, and put on ſackcloth with aſhes, and went out into the myddeſt of the citie, and cryed loude, and lamentably,

2 And came before the kynges gate: but he myght not enter within the kynges gate, becauſe he had ſackcloth on.

3 And in al prouinces, countreys, and places, as farre as the kynges woorde and commaundement extended, there was great lamentation among the Iewes, faſtyng, weepyng, and mournyng, and many lay in ſackclothes, and in aſhes.

4 So Eſthers maydens, and her chamberlaynes, came and tolde it her: Then was the queene exceedingly aſtonied, and ſhe ſent raiment that Mardocheus ſhoulde put on, and lay the ſackcloth from hym: But Mardocheus woulde not take them.

5 Then called Eſther Hathach one of the kynges chamberlaynes which ſtoode before her, and gaue hym a commaundement vnto Mardocheus, to knowe what it was, wherefore he dyd ſo.

6 So Hathach went foorth to Mardocheus, vnto the ſtreete of the citie whiche was before the kynges gate:

7 And Mardocheus tolde hym of al that had B comme vnto hym, & of the ſumme of ſyluer that Haman had promiſed to waye downe into the kynges treaſurie, becauſe of the Iewes if he woulde deſtroy them.

8 And he gaue hym the copie of the kynges commaundement that was deuiſed at Suſan to deſtroy them, that he myght ſhewe it vnto Eſther, and to ſpeake to her, & charge her that ſhe ſhoulde goe in vnto the kyng, and make her prayer and ſupplication vnto hym for her people.

9 And when Hathach came in, he told Eſther the woordes of Mardocheus:

10 And agayne Eſther ſpake vnto Hathach, & cõmaunded hym to ſay vnto Mardocheus,

11 All the kynges ſeruantes, & the people in the prouinces of the kyng knowe, that whoſoeuer commeth within the court in to the king, whether it be man or woman, which is not called, ″ the commaundemente is, that the ſame ſhal dye, except the kyng holde out the golden ſcepter vnto him, for then he ſhal liue: As for me, I haue not benne called to come in vnto the kyng now this thirtie dayes.

″ Or, there is a lawe of his.

12 And they certified Mardocheus of Eſthers woordes.

13 And Mardocheus bad ſay agayne vnto Eſther, Thynke not with thee ſelfe that thou ſhalt eſcape in the kynges houſe more then al the Iewes.

14 For if thou holdeſt thy peace at this tyme, then ſhal the Iewes haue " healpe & deliuerance out of an other place, and thou and thy fathers houſe ſhalbe deſtroyed: And who knoweth whether thou art comme to the kyngdome " for this cauſes ſake?

" Or, breathing.

" Or, for ſuche a tyme.

15 Eſther bad them geue Mardocheus this anſweare:

16 Goe thou thy way, and geather togeather al the Iewes that are founde at Suſan, & faſte ye for me, that ye eate not and drynke not in three dayes, neither day nor nyght, I and my maydens wyl faſt lykewyſe: And ſo wyl I goe in to the kyng, whiche thyng yet is contrary to the commaundement: and if I periſhe, I periſhe.

17 So Mardocheus went his way, and dyd accordyng to al that Eſther had commaunded hym.

The .v. Chapter.

1 Eſther entreth in to the kyng, and byddeth hym and Haman to a feaſt.
11 Haman prepareth a galous for Mardocheus.

A 1 AND on the thyrde day it came to paſſe, that Eſther put on her royal apparel, and ſtoode in the court of the kinges palace within, ouer againſt the kinges houſe: and the kyng ſate vpon his royal ſeate in the kynges palace ouer againſt the gate of the houſe.

2 And when the king ſawe Eſther the queene ſtandyng in the court, ſhe founde grace in his ſyght: And the king held out the golden ſcepter that was in his hande: So Eſther ſtept foorth and touched the top of the ſcepter.

3 Then ſayde the king vnto her, What wilt thou queene Eſther? and what requyreſt thou? [aſke] euen the halfe of the empyre, and it ſhalbe geuen thee.

4 And Eſther anſweared, If it pleaſe yͤ king, let the king and Haman come this day vnto the banquet that I haue prepared for him.

5 And the king ſaid, Cauſe Haman to make haſte, that he may doo as Eſther hath ſayde. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Eſther had prepared.

6 And the kyng ſayd vnto Eſther at the banquet of wyne, What is thy petition, that it may be geuen thee? And what requyreſt thou? If it be euen the halfe of the empyre, it ſhalbe donne.

B 7 Then anſweared Eſther, and ſayde, My petition and deſyre is,

8 If I haue founde grace in the ſyght of the king, and if it pleaſe the king to geue me my petition, and to fulfylle my requeſte, then let the kyng and Haman comme to the banquet that I ſhal prepare for them: and ſo wyl I doo to morow as the kyng hath ſaid.

9 Then went Haman foorth the ſame day ioyful and mery in his mynde: But when the ſame Haman ſawe Mardocheus in the kynges gate, that he ſtoode not vp nor moued for hym, he was fulle of indignation at Mardocheus.

10 Neuertheleſſe, Haman refrayned hym ſelfe, and when he came home, he ſent and called for his friendes, and Zares his wyfe.

11 And Haman tolde them of the glorye of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and al the thinges wherein the king had promoted hym ſo greatly, and howe that he had ſet hym aboue the princes and ſeruantes of the kyng.

12 Haman ſayde moreouer, Yea, Eſther the queene dyd let no man comme in with the kyng into the banquet that ſhe had prepared, except me: and to morowe am I bydden vnto her alſo with the kyng.

13 But in al this am I not ſatiſfied, as long as I ſee Mardocheus the Iewe ſyttyng at the kynges gate.

14 Then ſayde Zares his wyfe and al his friendes vnto him, Let them make a galous of fyftie cubites high, and to morowe ſpeake thou vnto the kyng that Mardocheus may be hanged thereon: then goe thou in meryly with the kyng vnto the banquet. And Haman was wel content withal, and cauſed the galous to be made. C

The.vi.Chapter.

1 The king turneth ouer the Chronicles, and findeth the fidelitie of Mardocheus,
10 and commaundeth Haman to cauſe Mardocheus to be had in honour.

A 1 The ſame nyght could not the kyng ſleepe, and he commaunded to bryng ‶ the chronicles and ſtories: and they were read before the kyng.

‶ Or, the booke of recordes & the chronicles.

2 Then it was founde wrytten, howe * Mardocheus had tolde that Bigthana and Theres the kynges two chamberlaynes, whiche kept the ‶ threſholdes, ſought to lay handes on kyng Ahaſuerus.

Eſther.2.b

‶ Or, doores.

3 And the kyng ſaide, What honour and dignitie hath benne geuen to Mardocheus therfore? Then ſayde the kynges ſeruantes that miniſtred vnto hym, There is nothyng at al donne for hym.

B 4 And the kyng ſayde, Who is in the courte? (for Haman was comme into the courte without before the kynges houſe, that he myght ſpeake vnto the kyng to hang Mardocheus on the tree that he had prepared for hym.)

5 And the kynges ſeruantes ſayde vnto him, Beholde, Haman ſtandeth in the court. And the kyng ſayde, Let hym comme in.

6 And when Haman came in, the kyng ſayd vnto hym, What ſhalbe donne vnto the mā whom the kyng woulde fayne bryng vnto woorſhyp? (Haman thought in his harte: Whom deſyreth the kyng to bryng vnto woorſhyp more then me?)

7 And Haman anſweared the kyng, Let the man whom the kyng pleaſeth to bryng vnto woorſhyp, be brought hyther,

C 8 That he may be arayed with the royal garmentes which the kyng vſeth to weare, and the horſe that the king rideth vpon, and that the crowne royal maye be ſet vpon his head:

9 And let this rayment and horſe be delyuered vnder the hande of one of the kynges moſt noble princes, that they may aray the man withal whom the kyng is diſpoſed to bryng to honour, and carrye hym vpon the horſe through the ſtreete of the citie, and proclayme before hym, Thus ſhal it be donne to the mā whom the kyng pleaſeth to bryng to honour.

10 And the kyng ſaid to Haman, Make haſte, and take, as thou haſt ſayde, the rayment and the horſe, and doo euen ſo vnto Mardocheus the Jew that ſitteth before the kinges gate, and let nothyng fayle of al that thou haſt ſpoken.

D

11 Then tooke Haman the rayment and the horſe, and arayed Mardocheus, and brought hym on horſebacke through the ſtreete of the citie, and proclaymed before him, Euen this ſhal it be donne vnto the man, whom the kyng is diſpoſed to honour.

12 And Mardocheus came agayne to the kynges gate: But Haman gate hym home in al the haſte mourning, ⁊ his head couered, 13 And tolde Zares his wyfe, ⁊ al his friendes, euery thyng that had befallen hym. Then ſayde his wyſe menne and Zares his wyfe vnto hym, If it be Mardocheus, of the ſeede of the Jewes, before whom thou haſt begun to fal, thou ſhalt not preuayle agaynſt hym, but ſhalt ſurely fal before hym.

14 And whyle they were yet talkyng with hym, came the kynges chamberlaynes, and cauſed Haman to make haſte to comme vnto the banquet that Eſther had prepared.

The.vii.Chapter.

3 The queene biddeth the king and Haman againe, and prayeth for her ſelfe and her people. She accuſeth Haman, and he is hanged on the gallous whiche he had prepared for Mardocheus.

A 1 AND the kyng and Haman came to banquet with the queene Eſther,

2 And the kyng ſayde againe vnto Eſther on the ſeconde day at the banquet of wyne: What is thy petition queene Eſther, that it maye be geuen thee? ⁊ what requyreſt thou? if it be euen to the halfe of ȳ empire, it ſhalbe donne.

3 And Eſther ȳ queene anſweared, ⁊ ſayd, If I haue found grace in thy ſight O king, ⁊ if it pleaſe the king, then graunt me my lyfe at my deſire, ⁊ my people for my petitions ſake.

4 For we are ſolde, I and my people, to be deſtroyed, to be ſlayne, and to periſhe: And woulde God that we were ſolde to be bondmen and bond women, then woulde I hold my tongue: although the enimie could not recompence the kynges loſſe.

5 The kyng Ahaſuerus anſweared, and ſayd vnto queene Eſther, Who is he? And where is he, that dare preſume in his mynde to doo after that manner?

6 And Eſther ſayde, The enimie and aduerſarie is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was exceedyngly afrayde before the kyng and the queene.

B 7 And the kyng aroſe from the banquet, and from the wyne, in his diſpleaſure, and wente into the palace garden: And Haman ſtoode vp, and beſought queene Eſther for his life: for he ſaw that there was a miſchiefe prepared for hym of the kyng already.

8 And when the kyng came agayne out of the palace garden, into the place where they dranke wyne: Haman had laide hym vpon the bed that Eſther ſate vpon. Then ſaid the kyng, Wyl he force the queene alſo before me in the houſe? As ſoone as that woorde went out of the kynges mouth, they couered Hamans face?

9 And Harbona, one of the chamberlaynes that ſtoode before the kyng, ſayde, Beholde, there ſtandeth yet a galous in Hamans houſe, fyftie cubites hye, whiche he hadde made for Mardocheus, that ſpake good for the kyng. Then the kyng ſayde, Hang hym thereon.

10 So they hanged Haman on the galous that he had made for Mardocheus: then was the kynges wrath pacified.

The.viii.Chapter.

1 After the death of Haman, was Mardocheus exalted. 14 Comfortable letters are ſent vnto the Iewes.

A 1 The ſame day dyd kyng Ahaſuerus geue the houſe of Haman, the Iewes enimie, vnto queene Eſther, and Mardocheus came before the kyng, for Eſther told what he was vnto her.

2 And the kyng tooke of his ryng whiche he had taken from Haman, and gaue it vnto Mardocheus. And Eſther ſet Mardocheus ouer the houſe of Haman.

3 And Eſther ſpake yet more before the king, and felle downe at his feete weepyng, and beſought him that he woulde put away the wickedneſſe of Haman the Agagite, and his deuice that he hadde imagined agaynſte the Iewes.

4 And the kyng helde out the golden Scepter toward Eſther. Then roſe Eſther, & ſtood before the kyng,

5 And ſayde, If it pleaſe the kyng, and if I haue founde grace in his ſyght, and if it be acceptable before the king, and I pleaſe him, then let it be wrytten, that the letters of the deuice of Haman the ſonne of Hamadatha the Agagite may be called agayne, whiche letters he wrote to deſtroy the Iewes which are in al the kynges prouinces.

6 For howe can I ſuffer and ſee the euyl that ſhal comme vnto my people? or howe can I beare and looke vpon the deſtruction of my kynred?

B 7 And the kyng Ahaſuerus ſayde vnto queene Eſther, & to Mardocheus the Iewe, Beholde, I haue geuen Eſther the houſe of Haman, whom they haue hanged vpon a tree, becauſe he layde hand vpon the Iewes.

8 Wryte ye alſo for the Iewes as it lyketh you, in the kynges name, and ſeale it with the kynges ryng: For the wrytynges that were wrytten in the kynges name, & ſealed with the kinges ring, durſt no man diſanul.

9 Then were the kynges ſcribes called at the ſame tyme, euen in the thirde moneth (that is the moneth Siuan,) on the three and twentieth day thereof, & it was wrytten according to al as Mardocheus commaunded vnto the Iewes, and to the princes, to the deputies and captaines in the prouinces which are from India vnto Ethiopia, namely an hundred twentie and ſeuen prouinces, vnto euery prouince accordyng to the wrytyng thereof, and vnto euery people after theyr ſpeache, and to the Iewes according to theyr wrytyng and language.

10 And he wrote in yͤ kyng Ahaſuerus name, and ſealed it with the kynges ryng, and by poſtes that rode vpon horſes, and ſwyfte young Mules, ſent he the wrytynges,

11 Wherein the kyng graunted the Iewes in what cities ſoeuer they were, to geather them ſelues togeather, and to ſtande for theyr lyfe, and for to roote out, to ſlay and to deſtroy al the power of the people and prouince that woulde trouble them, both chyldren and women, and to ſpoyle theyr good:

12 Upon one day in al the prouinces of kyng Ahaſuerus, namely vpon the thirtienth day of the twelfth moneth, which is the moneth Adar.

13 The ſumme of the wrytyng was, howe there ſhoulde be a commaundement geuen in al and euery prouince, and publiſhed among al people, and that the Iewes ſhould be ready agaynſt that day, to auenge them ſelues on theyr enimies.

14 And ſo the poſtes that rode vpon the ſwyft horſes and mules, made haſte with al ſpeede to execute the kynges woorde: and the commaundement was deuiſed in Suſan the chiefe citie. C

15 And Mardocheus went out from the kyng in royal apparel, of yelow ″ and whyte, and with a great crowne of golde, beyng arayed with a garment of ″ ſylke and purple: and the citie of Suſan reioyſed, and was glad.

″ Or, blewe.

″ Or, fyne lynnin.

16 And vnto the Iewes there was comme lyght and gladneſſe, ioy and worſhyp.

17 In al prouinces & cities into what places ſoeuer the kinges woorde and commaundement reached, there was ioy and myrth, a feaſt and good dayes among the Iewes: inſomuche, that many of the people in the land became Iewes, for the feare of the Iewes came vpon them.

The.ix.Chapter.

1 At the commaundement of the kyng, the Iewes put theyr aduerſaries to death.
14 The ten ſonnes of Haman are hanged. 17 The Iewes keepe a feaſt in remembrance of theyr deliuerance.

A 1 IN the twelfth mooneth (that is the mooneth Adar) vpon the thirtienth day of the ſame, when the kynges woorde and commaundemente drue neare to be put in executiō in the day that the enimies of the Iewes hoped to haue power ouer them, it turned contrary: for the Iewes had rule ouer them that hated them.

2 For then geathered the Iewes togeather in theyr cities within al the prouinces of king Ahaſuerus, to lay hande on ſuche as woulde doo them euyl, and no man could withſtand them: for the feare of them was comme ouer al people.

3 And al the rulers in the prouinces, & princes, and deputies, and officers of the kyng, promoted the Iewes: for the feare of Mardocheus came vpon them.

4 For Mardocheus was great in the kinges houſe, and the reporte of hym was noyſed in al the prouinces: for this man Mardocheus waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Iewes ſmote al theyr enimies with the ſtroke of the ſwoord, and ſlaughter, and deſtruction, and dyd what they woulde vnto theyr enimies.

6 And at Suſan the chiefe citie, ſlue yͤ Iewes and deſtroyed fyue hundred menne.

B 7 And ſlue Pharſandatha, Dalphon, Alphatha,

8 Phoratha, Adalia, Aridatha.

9 Pharmaſtha, Ariſai, Aridai, and Vaizatha,

10 The ten ſonnes alſo of Haman the ſonne of Hamadatha the enimie of the Iewes: but on ″ his goodes they layed no handes.

″ Or, on the pray.

11 At the ſame tyme was the kyng certified of the number of thoſe that were ſlayne in the citie of Suſan.

12 And the kyng ſayde vnto Queene Eſther, The Iewes haue ſlayne and deſtroyed fyue hundred menne in the citie of Suſan, and the ten ſonnes of Haman: What haue they donne [thinkeſt thou] in other landes of the kyng? And what is thy petition, that it may be geuen thee? or what requyreſt thou more to be donne?

13 Eſther anſweared, If it pleaſe the kyng, let hym ſuffer the Iewes whiche are in Suſan, to morowe alſo to doo accordyng vnto this dayes decree, that they may hang Hamans ten ſonnes vpon the tree.

14 And the kyng charged to doo ſo: and the decree was deuiſed at Suſan, and they hanged Hamans ten ſonnes. C

15 For the Iewes that were in Suſan geathered them ſelues togeather, vpon the fouretienth day of the moneth Adar, and ſlue three hundred menne at Suſan: but on theyr goodes they layed no handes.

16 As for the other Iewes that were in the kynges prouinces, they came togeather, and ſtoode for theyr lyues, and hadde reaſt from theyr enimies, and ſlue of theyr enimies ſeuentie and fyue thouſande: howebeit they layde no handes on theyr goodes.

17 [This they dyd] on the thirtienth day of the mooneth Adar, and on the fouretienth day of the ſame mooneth reaſted they, whiche day they helde with feaſtyng and gladneſſe.

18 But the Iewes that were at Suſan came togeather, both on the thirtienth day, and on the fourtienth: and on the fiftienth day of the ſame they reaſted, and helde that day with feaſtyng and gladneſſe.

19 And therefore the Iewes that dwelt in the villages and vnwalled townes, held the fourtienth day of the mooneth Adar with gladneſſe and feaſtyng, and kept holy day, and euery one ſent preſentes vnto his neyghbour.

20 And Mardocheus wrote theſe woordes, & ſent letters vnto al the Iewes that were in al the prouinces of kyng Ahaſuerus, both nye and farre:

21 That they ſhoulde make a lawe among them ſelues, and hold the fourtienth and fyftienth day of the mooneth Adar, yeerely,

22 As the dayes wherein the Iewes came to reaſt from theyr enimies, and as a mooneth wherein theyr payne was turned to ioy, and theyr ſorowe into a ioyful day: and that in thoſe dayes they ſhoulde make feaſtes and gladneſſe, and one to ſende gyftes vnto another, and to diſtribute vnto the poore.

23 And the Iewes promiſed to doo as they had begunne, and as Mardocheus had written vnto them:

24 Becauſe Haman the ſonne of Hamadatha the Agagite, al the Iewes enimie, had deuiſed agaynſt the Iewes howe he myght deſtroy them, and cauſed to caſt Phur (that is a lot) for to conſume them, & to bryng them to nought.

25 But when Eſther came before the king, he commaunded by letters, that his wicked deuice, which he imagined againſt the Iewes, ſhoulde be turned vpon his owne head, and that he and his ſonnes ſhoulde be hanged on the tree.

26 For the which cauſe they called theſe daies Phurim, becauſe of the name of the lot, and becauſe of al the woordes of this wrytyng, and what they them ſelues had ſeene, and what had comme vnto them:

27 And the Iewes ordeyned, and tooke it vpon them and theyr ſeede, and vpon al ſuch as ioyned them ſelues vnto them, that they would not miſſe but obſerue theſe two daies yeerely, according as they were wrytten, and appoynted in theyr ſeaſon,

28 And that theſe dayes are to be remembred, and to be kept of chylders chyldren among al kynredes in al landes and cities: In theſe dayes of Phurim, whiche are not to be ouerſlypt among the Iewes, & the memorial of them ought not to periſhe from theyr ſeede.

29 And Queene Eſther the daughter of Abihail, and Mardocheus the Iew, wrote with al aucthoritie, to confyrme this ſeconde wrytyng of Phurim.

30 And he ſent the letters vnto al the Iewes to the hundred twentie and ſeuen prouinces of the empyre of Ahaſuerus, with woordes of peace and trueth:

31 To confyrme theſe daies of Phurim in their tyme appoynted, according as Mardocheus the Iew, and Eſther the queene had appointed them: and they bounde theyr ſoule, and theyr ſeede, to faſtyng and prayer.

32 And the decree of Eſther confyrmed theſe woordes of Phurim, and was wrytten in the booke, E

33 And the kyng Ahaſuerus layed tribute vpon the lande, and vpon the iles of the ſea.

34 And al the actes of his power and of his myght, and the declaration of the dignitie of Mardocheus wherewith the kyng magnified hym, be they not wrytten in the bookes of the chronicles of the kinges of Medes and Perſia?

35 For Mardocheus the Iew, was the ſecond next vnto kyng Ahaſuerus, & great among the Iewes, and accepted among the multitude of his brethren, as one that ſeeketh the wealth of his people, and ſpeaketh peaceably for al his ſeede.

The firſt Chapter.

1 The holyneſſe, riches, and care of Job for his chyldren. 11 Satan hath permiſſion to tempt hym. 13 He tempteth hym by takyng away his ſubſtance, and his chyldren. 20 His faythe and patience.

A 1 IN the lande of (a)* Hus there was a man, whoſe name was Job, (b) and the ſame was a perfecte and iuſt man, one that feared God, and eſchewed euyl.

2 And he had ſeuen ſonnes and three daughters.

3 His (c) ſubſtance alſo was ſeuen thouſande ſheepe, and three thouſande cammels, fyue hundred yoke of Oxen, & fiue hundred ſhee aſſes, and a very great houſholde: ſo that he was one of the moſt principal " men among al them of the (d) eaſt [countrey.]

4 And his ſonnes went and (e) banquetted in their houſes, euery one his day, & ſent for their three ſyſters to eate and drynke with them.

5 And when the dayes of theyr banquettyng were gonne about, Job ſent (f) and ſanctified them, and gate vp early, and (g) offered for euery one a burnt offeryng: For Job ſayde, It maye be that my ſonnes haue donne ſomme offence, and haue benne (h) vnthankful to God in theyr hartes. Thus dyd Job euery day.

6 And vpon a day when the (i) chyldren of God came and ſtoode before the Lorde, Satan came alſo among them.

7 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Satan, (k) Whence commeſt thou? Satan anſweared the Lorde, and ſayde, (l) From compaſſyng the earth to and fro, and from walkyng through it.

8 And the Lord ſayd vnto Satan, Haſt thou not conſydered my ſeruant Job, howe there is none lyke hym in the earth? a perfect and a iuſt man, one that feareth God, and eſchueth euyl?

9 Satan anſweared, and ſaid vnto the Lord, Dooth Job feare God for nought?

10 Haſt thou not " preſerued hym and his houſe, & al that he hath, on euery ſyde? Thou haſt bleſſed the woorke of his handes, and his poſſeſſion is increaſed in the lande.

11 But lay thyne hande nowe vpon hym, and touche al that he hath, and he ſhal (m) curſe thee to thy face.

12 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Satan, Loe, (n) al that he hath be in thy " power, only vpon hym ſelfe ſee that thou laye not thyne hande. And Satan went foorth from the preſence of the Lorde.

13 And vpon a certayne day when his ſonnes and daughters were eatyng and drynkyng wyne in theyr eldeſt brothers houſe,

14 There came a meſſenger vnto Job, and ſayde, The oxen were plowyng, and the aſſes feedyng beſyde them:

15 (o) And the Sabees came violentlye & tooke them away, yea they haue ſlayne thy ſeruantes with the edge of the ſwoorde: and I only am eſcaped alone to tel thee.

16 Whyle he was yet ſpeakyng, there came another, and ſayde, The fyre of God is fallen from heauen, and hath brente vp thy ſheepe and ſeruantes, and conſumed them: and I onlye am eſcaped alone to telle thee.

17 And whyle he was yet ſpeakyng, there came another, and ſaide, The Caldees made out theyr bandes, and fel vpon the cammels, and haue carried them away, yea and ſlayne thy ſeruantes with the ſwoorde: and I onely am gotten away alone to telle thee.

18 And whyle he was yet ſpeaking, there came another, and ſaide, Thy ſonnes & thy daughters were eatyng and drynkyng wyne in theyr eldeſt brothers houſe, 19 And beholde there came a myghty great wynde from beyonde the wyldernesse, and ſmote the foure corners of the houſe, whiche fel vpon thy chyldren, and they are dead: and I am gotten away alone to tel thee.

20 Then Job ſtoode vp, and (p) rent his clothes, and ſhaued his head, felle downe vpon the grounde, woorſhypped, 21 And ſayde, Naked came I out of my mothers wombe, and naked ſhal I turne thyther agayne: The Lorde gaue, and the Lord hath taken away, bleſſed be the name of the Lorde.

22 In (q) al theſe thynges dyd Job not offend, nor charged God fooliſhly.

The.ii.Chapter.

6 Satan hath permiſſion to afflict Job. 9 His wyfe tempteth hym to forſake God.
11 His three freendes viſite hym.

A 1 AND on a daye the (a) chyldren of God came & ſtood before the Lorde, and Satan came alſo among them, and ſtood before the Lorde.

2 And the Lord ſayd vnto Satan, Frõ whence commeſt thou? Satan anſweared the Lorde, and ſayde, I haue gonne about the lande, & walked thorow it.

3 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Satan, Haſt thou not conſydered my ſeruant Job? howe there is none lyke vnto hym in the earth, a perfect & a iuſte man? one that feareth God, and eſcheweth euyl, and continueth ſtyl in his vpryghtneſſe, although thou mouedſt me agaynſt hym, to (b) deſtroy him without cauſe.

4 And Satan anſweared the Lorde, and ſayde, (c) Skinne for ſkinne, yea a man wyl geue al that euer he hath for his lyfe.

5 But lay thyne hande now vpon hym, and touche [once] his bone and his fleaſhe, and he ſhal curſe thee to thy face.

6 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Satan, Loe, he is in thyne hande, but (d) ſaue his lyfe.

7 So went Satan foorth from the preſence of the Lorde, and ſmote Job with ſore byles, from the ſole of his foote, vnto his crowne.

8 And he tooke a potſharde to ſcrape hym: and he ſate downe among the aſhes.

9 Then ſayde his wyfe vnto hym, (e) Dooeſt thou continue yet in thy perfectneſſe, curſe God, and dye.

10 But he ſayde vnto her, Thou ſpeakeſt lyke a fooliſhe woman: ſhal we (f) receiue good at the hande of God, and not receiue euyl? In al theſe thynges dyd not Job ſynne with his lyppes.

11 Nowe (g) when Jobs three freendes hearde of al the trouble that came vpon hym, they came euerye one frõ his owne place [namely] Eliphas the Themanite, Bildad ỹ Suhite, and Sophad the Naamathite: for thei were agreed togeather to comme to ſhewe theyr compaſſion vpon hym, and to comfort him.

12 So when they lyft vp theyr eyes a farre of, they knewe hym not: then they cryed and wept, and euery one of them rent his clothes, and ſprynkeled (h) duſt vpon theyr heades in "the ayre.

13 They ſate them downe by hym alſo vpon the grounde ſeuen dayes and ſeuen nyghtes, and none ſpake a woorde vnto him: for they ſawe that his greefe was very great.

(a) wherein is conteyned as wel al godly and vpryght perſons, as angels, as it is taken in the chapter before. (b) Not but that he deſerued plague for his offence, beyng vnder the lawe: but for that he was renued and purified by fayth and by the innocencie of Chriſte, al ſuche pouniſhmentes were vnwoorthylye executed on hym, as not deſerued. (c) Skynne for ſkynne: that is, a man wyl offer to danger the ſkynne of an other, rather then to venture his owne: for as a man wyl ieoparde his woorſt goodes to ſaue his better, as to obiect, his arme to the ſtroke to ſaue his head, and as the Mariner in tempeſt wyl caſt out his goodes out of the ſhyppe to ſaue his lyfe: ſo would Job beare the loſſe of his chyldrens ſkinnes, lyues, and bodyes in patience, rather then patiently to ſuffer his owne ſkynne and body to be touched: and therefore ſayth the deuyl, Touche hym on his owne ſkynne, and thou ſhalt ſee that he wyl to thy face curſe thee. (d) Declaryng that in al affliction there are certayne boundes and limittes, beyonde the whiche Satan can not goe.

(e) A cruel temptation of an euyl and vngodly wyfe. (f) Teachyng that we ought to reioyce in Gods gyftes when he ſendeth them, and be thankful, and to be patient when he taketh them agayne, and not to diſpaire. (g) That is, true freendeſhyp, whiche abydeth as wel in aduerſitie as in proſperitie: and as in proſperitie to reioyce with hym: ſo in aduerſitie to lament with hym. (h) Whiche was a cuſtome when great ſorowe was declared, ſhewing theyr humbleneſſe, that from the duſt they came, and thyther they ſhal returne. " Heb. Towarde the heauen.

The.iii.Chapter.

1 Job complayneth and curſeth the day of his byrth. 11 He deſyreth to dye, as though death were the ende of al mans miſerie.

A 1 AFter (a) this opened Job his mouth, and curſed his day,

2 And Job anſweared and ſayde,

3 Let (b) the day periſhe wherein I was borne, (c) and the nyght in the whiche it was ſayde, There is a man chylde conceiued.

4 The ſame day be [turned to] darkeneſſe, and not regarded of God from aboue, neyther let the lyght ſhyne vpon it:

5 But let it be ſtayned with darkeneſſe, and the ſhadowe of death, let the [dimme] cloude falle vpon it, which may make it terrible as a moſt bitter day.

6 Let the darke ſtorme ouercomme that nyght, & let it not be ioyned vnto the dayes of the yeere, nor counted in the number of the moonethes.

7 Deſolate be that night, & without gladnes.

8 Let them that curſe the day, & that be ready to raiſe vp mourning, geue it alſo their curſe.

9 Let the ſtarres of that "nyght be dimme thorowe darkneſſe of it, let it looke for lyght, but haue none, (d) neyther let it ſee the dawnyng of the day:

10 Becauſe it ſhut not vp ỹ doores of my mothers wombe, nor hid ſorow from mine eies.

11 [Alas] why dyed I not in the byrth? why dyd not I periſhe as ſoone as I came out of [my mothers] wombe?

12 Why ſet they me vpon theyr knees? why gaue they me ſucke with theyr breſtes?

13 Then ſhoulde I nowe haue lyen ſtyl, I ſhoulde haue ſleapt and beene at reaſt,

14 Lyke as the kynges and "lordes of the earth, whiche haue buylded them ſelues" ſpecial places,

15 Or as the prynces that haue had gold, and theyr houſes ful of ſyluer:

16 Or [why] was not I hyd, as a thyng borne out

(a) That is, after that ſeuen dayes were fully finiſhed. (b) Job being ſore afflicted in the fleaſhe, ſeemeth after a ſort to yeeld to it, breakyng out into theſe woordes, becauſe he ſawe that that day was the begynnyng of al theſe afflictions. (c) He curſed not his dayes becauſe he was weery of it, as one deſperate, but rather wiſhyng to be diſſolued, leſt by farther troubles he ſhoulde be forced to offende God.

" Heb. Twylight. (d) The Hebrue ſpeach is, the eye liddes of the mornyng. " Heb. counſelers. " Heb. Deſolations.

out of tyme, [eyther] as young children, whiche neuer ſawe the lyght?

17 There (e) muſt the wicked ceaſſe from their tyranny, and there ſuche as laboured valiantly be at reaſt:

18 There the (f) priſoners reaſt togeather, they heare no more the voyce of the oppreſſour:

19 There are ſmal and great, and the ſeruant [is] free from his maiſter.

20 Wherefore is the lyght geuen to hym that is in miſerie? and lyfe vnto them that haue heauy hartes?

21 Whiche long for death, and finde it not, though they ſearche more for it, then for treaſures:

22 Whiche reioyce exceedyngly, and be gladde when they can finde the graue,

23 From whom their endes are hid, and conſealed by God?

24 For my ſyghes comme before I eate, and my roryngs are powred out lyke the water:

25 For the thyng that (g) I feared, is comme vpon me, and the thyng that I was afrayde of, is happened vnto me.

26 Was I not happy? Had I not quietneſſe? Was I not in reaſt? And nowe commeth ſuche miſerie vpon me.

(e) That is, death is the end and helpe from the tyrannie & wickedneſſe of them.

(f) Here Job declareth the ſore plagues he bare, countyng hym ſelfe in worſe ſtate, then the vileſt perſons and bond priſoners: of whiche cares, after opinion of the fleaſhe, he accompteth death the onlye ende.

(g) That is, aduerſitie, whiche beyng in proſperitie he feared.

The .iiii. Chapter.

5 Job is reprehended of impacience, 7 and vniuſtice, 17 and of the preſumption of his owne ryghteouſneſſe.

A 1 AND Eliphas the Themanite anſweared, and ſayde,

2 If we aſſay to comme with thee, wylt thou be diſcontent? (a) But who can withholde hym ſelfe from ſpeakyng?

3 Behold, thou haſt benne an inſtructer of many, and haſt ſtrengthned the (b) weery hands:

4 Thy woordes haue ſet vp hym that was falling, thou haſt refreaſhed ẏ weake knees.

5 But (c) nowe it is comme vpon thee, and thou art greeued: it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Was not thy feare accordyng to thy hope? and the perfectneſſe of thy wayes, accordyng to thy expectation?

7 Conſyder I pray thee, who euer periſhed (d) beyng an innocent? or when were the godly deſtroyed?

8 For as I haue prooued by experience, they that plow iniquitie, and ſowe wretchedneſſe, reape the ſame.

9 With the blaſt of God they periſhe, with the breath of his noſtrels are they conſumed away.

10 The roring of the Lion, and the voyce of the Lion, and the teeth of the Lions whelpes are pulled out.

11 The (e) Lion periſheth for lacke of pray, and the Lions whelpes are ſcattered abrode.

12 But whereas a thyng was (f) hydde from me, yet mine eare hath receiued a litle therof.

13 In the thoughtes and viſions of the night when ſleepe commeth on men, 14 (g) Feare came vpon me, and dreade, whiche made al my bones to ſhake.

15 The winde paſſed by before my preſence, and made the heares of my fleaſhe to ſtande vp.

16 He ſtoode thereon, and I (h) knewe not his face, an image there was before myne eyes, and in the ſtilneſſe hearde I a voyce.

17 Shal (i) man be more iuſt then God? or ſhal a man be purer then his maker?

18 Beholde, he founde not trueth in his ſeruantes, and in (k) his angels there was folly:

19 Howe muche more in them that dwel in (l) houſes of clay, and whoſe fundation is but duſt, whiche ſhal be conſumed as it were with a moth?

20 They ſhalbe ſmitten (m) from the mornyng vnto the euenyng: yea they (n) ſhal periſhe for euer, when no man regardeth them.

21 Is not their royaltie gonne away with them? they ſhal dye truely, and not in wyſedome.

(a) Becauſe of thy ſore affliction, and thy impatience.

(b) Meanyng thou haſt holpen and comforted many in miſerie, and canſt thou not rule thy ſelfe nowe?

(c) As concludyng hym to be but an hypocrite.

(d) This is Eliphas his carnal reaſon, but innocents periſh not, but are afflicted, they are not ouerthrowen, but they are oppreſſed, Abel was ſlayne, but he dyed not, Job was afflicted, but he periſhed not.

(e) That is, God wyl puniſh tyrantes, whiche are compared to Lions, although menne neglectyng theyr office, doo wincke at them.

(f) Here Eliphas ſheweth the manner of diuine reuelation by the holy ghoſt, ſayeing that that whiche he wyl nowe declare, is not humane reaſon, but as reuealed vnto hym from God.

(g) Alwayes feare commeth with ſuche reuelations from God, to ſhewe the reuerence and aucthoritie of them.

(h) This is the deſcription of the winde, not knowyng from whence it commeth, or whyther it wyl, as Saul alſo hearde a voyce, but ſawe not any man.

(i) This is Eliphas weake argument, to proue Job an euyl man, becauſe God plagued hym; or els yf God afflicteth innocentes, carnal reaſon woulde iudge the creature more iuſt, then the creator, whiche is blaſphemie, for God oft puniſheth the rygheous to proue them. (k) Take from goddes chyldren, and from the angels that whiche is goddes, and they are altogeather vnperfect and fooliſhe. (l) Meanyng mans body, whiche is nothyng but duſt and clay. (m) This expreſſeth mans ſhort lyfe, and the dangers and miſeries in the ſame. (n) O mans blindneſſe, that ſeeth not his owne miſerie.

The .v. Chapter.

1, 2. Eliphas ſheweth the difference betweene the chyldren of God and the wicked. 3 The falle of the wicked. 9 Gods power, who deſtroyeth the wicked, and deliuereth his.

A 1 CRye, (a) I pray thee, yf there be any that wyl anſweare thee, and looke thou vpon any of the holy.

2 As for the fooliſhe man, wrathfulneſſe killeth hym, and enuie ſlayeth the ignorant.

3 I haue ſeene my ſelfe when the (b) fooliſhe was deepe rooted, and (c) ſodenly I curſed his habitation.

(a) An other argument of Eliphas agaynſt Job, that he can not be godly: for none of the good and godly menne were euer ſo afflicted: agaynſt whiche ſore temptations, we haue only to comfort our ſelues, whom the father loueth, hym he doth correct: the Lorde is nygh to them that are of a contrite hart. &c.

(b) Eliphas reprehendeth agayne Job ſorely, becauſe the ſame hath happened vnto hym that doth falle vpon the wicked.

(c) That is, I was perſwaded, that God had curſed hym and al his, whereby it greeued not me to ſee his proſperitie.

4 His children were without proſperitie, and they were [d] ſlaine in the gate, and there was no man to deliuer them.

5 His harueſt was eaten of the hungry, and taken from among the thornes, & the thyrſty drunke vp their labour: It is not the earth that bryngeth foorth iniquitie,

6 Neither commeth ſorowe out of the [e] grounde:

7 But man is borne vnto labour, [f] lyke as the ſparkes flee vp [out of the hot coles.]

8 But [g] I woulde aſke counſel at the Lord, and talke with God:

9 Whiche doth great thinges and vnſearcheable, [and] maruels without number.

10 He geueth raine vpon the earth, and powreth water vpon the ſtreetes,

11 To ſet vp them that be of lowe degree, and that thoſe whiche are in heauineſſe, may be exalted to ſaluation.

12 He deſtroyeth the deuices of the ſubtil, ſo that their handes are not hable to perfourme that, whiche they doo enterpriſe.

13 He compaſſeth the wyſe in their owne craftineſſe, and maketh fooliſhe the counſel of the wicked.

[d] That is, by publique iudgement condempned, whiche was vſed to be donne in the gates of the cities.
[e] Declaring that it is not of the earth that barennes and afflictions doo aryſe, neyther is it by any externe thynges, but only ſuche aduerſitie falleth for mans offence, whereof he is the authour.
[f] wherein is the ſigne of our corrupt nature, euen from the fal of Adam.
[g] If I were in thy caſe, I would craue helpe of God, ſayth Eliphas.

14 They runne into [h] darkneſſe by faire day, and grope at the noone day, as in the nyght.

15 But he deliuereth the [i] poore from the ſwoorde, from their threatninges, and from the violence of the mighty.

16 He is the hope of the poore, and the mouth of the wicked ſhalbe ſtopped.

[h] That is, in thynges manifeſt and playne, they want godly wyſedome and grace to ſee.
[i] That is, from the crueltie of the wicked, which is compared to the ſwoord.

17 Beholde, bleſſed is the man whom God correcteth, therefore refuſe not thou the chaſtening of the almighty:

18 For he maketh a wounde, and he healeth: he ſmyteth, and his hande maketh whole agayne.

19 He ſhal deliuer thee in [k] ſixe troubles, and in the ſeuenth, there ſhal no euyl comme to thee.

20 In hunger he ſhal ſaue thee from death, and when it is warre, from the power of the ſwoorde.

21 Thou ſhalt be hyd from the ſcourge of the tongue, & when deſtruction commeth, thou ſhalt not neede to feare.

[k] Alludyng to the ſixe dayes of gods firſt worke, and the ſeuenth day he reaſted, meanyng, that of al thy cares and troubles, God wyl deliuer thee, and bryng thee to reaſt as in the ſeuenth day.

22 In deſtruction and dearth, thou ſhalt be meery, and ſhalt not be afrayde of the beaſtes of the earth.

23 For the [l] ſtones of the lande ſhalbe confederate with thee, and the beaſtes of the feelde ſhalbe at peace with thee.

24 And thou ſhalt knowe, that thy dwellyng place ſhalbe in reaſt, and thou ſhalt viſite thy habitation, and ſhalt [m] not ſinne.

25 Thou ſhalt ſee alſo, that thy ſeede ſhalbe great, and thy poſteritie as the graſſe vpon the earth.

26 Thou ſhalt comme alſo to thy graue in a ful age, lyke a corne ſheafe cut downe in due ſeaſon.

27 Loe, this we our ſelues haue prooued by experience, and euen thus it is: Hearken thou to it alſo, that thou mayeſt take heede to thy ſelfe.

[l] Shewyng that when we haue God our freende, al creatures of his wyl ſerue to our good.
[m] Shalt not be offended at any thing, and here followeth the exceedyng great bleſſinges of God, towarde his.

The.vi.Chapter.

1 Job anſweareth, that his payne is more greeuous then his fault. 8 He wyſheth death.
14 He complaineth of his freendes.

A

1 But Job anſweared, and ſayde,

2 O that my complaynt were [a] truely wayed, & my puniſhment layde in the balances togeather:

3 For nowe it woulde be heauier then the ſande of the ſea: and this is the cauſe, that my woordes fayle me.

4 For the arrowes of the almyghty are vpon me, the poyſon thereof hath drunke vp my ſpirite, and the terrible [b] feares of God are ſet agaynſt me.

5 Dooth the [c] wylde aſſe rore when he hath graſſe? or loweth the oxe when he hath fodder [ynough?]

6 That whiche is vnſauerie, [d] ſhal it be eaten without ſalt? or is there any taſte in the whyte of an egge?

7 The thynges that ſometime I myght not away withal, are nowe my meate for very ſorowe.

8 O that I myght haue my deſyre, and that GOD woulde graunt me the thing that I long for:

9 O that God would beginne and ſmite me, that he woulde let his hande goe, and take me cleane away:

10 Then ſhould I haue ſomme comfort, yea I woulde deſyre hym in my payne, that he woulde not ſpare, [e] for I wyl not be againſt the woordes of the holy one.

11 [f] For what power haue I to endure? And what is myne ende, “that my ſoule myght be patient?

12 Is my ſtrength the ſtrength of ſtones? or is my

[a] Meaning that his troubles are exceſſiue, and vnmeaſurable, as the ſandes of the ſea.
[b] Declaring that he was not afflicted only bodyly, but alſo pricke in his conſcience.
[c] As though he had ſayde, I crye not without cauſe, ſeeyng neither the wylde aſſe nor the oxe doo crye when they want not.
[d] Can we beare tribulations that are vnſauerie and vnpleaſant.
[e] Meanyng that he had rather dye, then to deny the woordes of the holy one, that is, then through his impatience, to diſtruſt in gods promiſe.

my fleaſhe of braſſe?

13 Is it not ſo that there is in me no helpe? and that my " ſubſtance is taken from me?

14 He that is in tribulation, ought to be comforted of his neyghbour: but the feare of the almyghty is cleane away.

15 Myne owne brethren paſſe ouer by me (g) as the water brooke, and as the ouerflowing of waters, whiche doo haſtly goe away,

16 Whiche are blackiſhe by reaſon of the ice, and wherein the ſnowe is hyd.

17 Whiche when they haue paſſed by, doo vaniſhe, and when the heate commeth, they fayle out of theyr place.

18 They depart from the courſe of their wonted chanel to other places, they runne in vaine and periſhe.

19 They that went to (h) Theman conſydered them, & they that went to (i) Saba, wayted for them.

20 But they were confounded in their hope, they came thyther, and were aſhamed.

21 Euen ſuche truely are ye, nowe that yee ſee my miſerie, ye are afrayde.

22 Dyd I deſyre you to bryng vnto me, or to geue me any of your ſubſtance?

23 To deliuer me from the enimies hand, or to ſaue me from the hande of the tyrantes?

24 Teache me, and I wyl holde my tongue: and wherein I haue erred, cauſe me to vnderſtande.

23 Howe ſtrong are the woordes of trueth? and whiche of you can rebuke or reproue them?

26 Doo ye imagine to reproue (k) woordes, that the talke of the afflicted ſhould be as the winde?

27 Ye fal vpon the fatherleſſe, and digge a pit to ouerthrowe your owne freende.

28 And therefore be content, and (l) looke now vpon me, and I wyl not lye before your face.

29 Turne I pray you, " be indifferent iudges: turne agayne, and ye ſhal ſee myne vngiltineſſe, whether there be any vnryghteouſneſſe in my tongue, or vaine woordes in my mouth.

* Or, ſtrength, wyſedome, or lawe.

(g) For as the brooke ruſheth with vehemencie, and paſſeth by the places neare it: ſo they haue obbrayed me, and ruſhed on me with indignation, and nowe haue forſaken me.

(h) Thema was one of the twelue princes of Iſrael, and inhabited the ſouth part of Arabia, of whom the region was called Thema.

(i) Scheba was the ſonne of Reima, of whom, Arabia felix was called Saba.

(k) Doo ye goe about by your tauntes to make me deeme that I ſpeake fondly, becauſe I am in this miſerable ſtate.

(l) To conſyder my cauſe, whether I faine or no.

" Hebr. Let there be none iniquitie.

The. vii. Chapter.

1 Iob ſheweth the ſhortneſſe and miſerie of mans lyfe.

A

1 IS there not an appoynted tyme to manne vpon earth? Are not his dayes alſo lyke the dayes of an (a) hyred ſeruant?

2 For lyke as a bond ſeruant deſyreth ỹ ſhadow, and as an hyrelyng would faine haue the rewarde of his woorke:

3 Euen ſo haue I laboured whole monethes long in vayne, & many a careful night haue I tolde.

4 When I layde me downe to ſleepe, I ſaid, O when ſhal I aryſe? and (b) meaſuring the euenyng, I am euen ful with toſſing to and fro vnto the dawning of the day.

5 My fleaſhe (c) is clothed with wormes, and duſt of the earth: my ſkinne is withered, and becomme horrible.

6 My dayes paſſe ouer more ſpeedyly, then a weauers ſhuttle, and are ſpent without hope.

7 (d) O remember that my lyfe is but a wind, and that mine eye ſhal no more ſee pleaſures:

8 Yea, and the eye that hath ſeene me, ſhal ſee me no more: for yet thou (e) faſten thyne eye vpon me, I comme to nought.

9 The cloude is conſumed and vaniſhed away: ſo he that goeth downe to the graue, (f) ſhal comme no more vp,

10 Nor turne agayne into his houſe, neyther ſhal his place knowe hym any more.

11 Therefore (g) I wyl not ſpare my mouth, but I wil ſpeake in the trouble of my ſpirite, and muſe in the bitterneſſe of my minde.

12 Am (h) I a ſea or a whale fiſhe, that thou keepeſt me [ſo] in priſon?

13 When I ſay, My bedde ſhal comfort me, I ſhal haue ſomme refreaſhing, by talkyng to my ſelfe vpon my couche:

14 Then feareſt thou me (i) with dreames, and makeſt me ſo afrayde through viſions,

15 That my ſoule wiſheth rather to periſhe and dye, then my bones to remayne.

16 I can ſee no remedie, I ſhal liue no more: (k) O ſpare me then, for my dayes are but vanitie.

17 What (l) is man that thou doeſt magnifie hym? and that thou ſetteſt thy hart vpon hym?

18 Thou viſiteſt hym early, and euery day, euery moment doeſt thou trie hym.

19 Why (m) goeſt thou not fro me, nor letteſt me alone, ſo long til I may ſwalowe downe my ſpittle?

20 I (n) haue offended, what ſhal I doo vnto thee, O thou preſeruer of menne? Why haſt thou ſet me [as a marke] agaynſt thee, ſo that I am a burden to my ſelfe?

21 Why doeſt thou not pardon my treſpaſſes,

(a) Meaning, that his caſe is worſe then eyther the hyrelyng or bondman.

(b) Declaring his ſore paines, in that eche houre was lothed, and greeuous vnto hym.

(c) Hereby he ſheweth why he was ſo deſpiſed, in that his diſeaſe was very ſtrange and horrible.

(d) Iob, ſeing the ſhortneſſe of mans lyfe, that is but a vapour, and paſſeth away as the winde, deſireth God to remember it, and to pitie hym, otherwyſe his eye ſhal neuer ſee felicitie.

(e) That is, faſten thy iudgement, whiche is ſo heauy, that I can not beare it.

(f) Before the general iudgement.

(g) That is, ſeeing my lyfe vaniſheth as the wind, and that there is no returne after death, I wyl refreaſhe my ſelfe by expreſſing the greefes of my burdened minde.

(h) As though he ſhould ſay to God, I am no mighty creature, hable to trouble or diſquiet any, as the whale in the ſea: but am a poore wretche, why then plagueſt thou me ſo ſoare.

(i) That is, I am in extreme affliction continually night and day.

(k) Seeing I haue ſo litle tyme to lyue, geue me ſome reaſt.

(l) As though Iob had ſayd, there is no cauſe why thou ſhouldeſt eſteeme man.

(m) Why doeſt thou not ceaſſe to puniſhe me.

(n) Iob beginneth to drawe to repentance.

and take away myne iniquitie? Beholde, nowe muſt I ſleepe in the duſt, and yf thou ſeekeſt me to morowe in the mornyng, (o) I ſhal not be.

(o) For I ſhalbe dead.

The .viii. Chapter.

1 Bildad ſheweth that Job is a ſinner, becauſe God pouniſheth the wicked, and preſerueth the good.

A 1 THen anſweared Bildad the Suhite, and ſayde,

2 Howe long wylt thou talke of ſuche thynges? how long ſhal the woordes of thy mouth be as a mighty winde?

3 Dooth God paruert the thing that is lawful? or dooth the almyghty deſtroy the thing that is ryght?

4 For ſeeing that (a) thy ſonnes ſinned againſt him, dyd not he ſende them into the place of their iniquitie?

5 If thou wouldeſt nowe reſorte vnto God betymes, and make thy prayer to the almyghty,

6 If thou wouldeſt liue a pure and godly life: ſhould he not awake vp vnto thee immediatly, and make the habitation of thy ryghteouſneſſe proſperous?

7 In ſo much that wherein ſo euer thou haddeſt litle afore, thou ſhouldeſt haue nowe great abundance.

8 Enquire I pray thee (b) of the former age, and ſearche diligently among their fathers:

9 (For we are but of (c) yeſterday, and conſyder not, that our dayes vpon earth, are but a ſhadowe.)

10 Shal not they ſhewe thee, and tel thee, yea and gladly confeſſe the ſame, and vtter the woordes of their hart?

11 May a (d) ruſhe be greene without moyſtneſſe? or may the graſſe growe without water?

12 No, but whilſte it is nowe in his greeneneſſe, though it be not cut downe, yet withereth it before any other hearbe:

13 So are the pathes of al that forgeat God, and the (e) hypocrites hope ſhal comme to nought.

14 His confidence ſhalbe deſtroyed, and his truſt ſhalbe a (f) ſpiders webbe.

15 He ſhal leane vpon his houſe, but it ſhal not ſtande: he ſhal holde hym faſt by it, yet ſhal it not endure.

16 It is a greene [tree] (g) before the ſunne, and ſhooteth foorth the branches ouer his garden.

17 The rootes thereof are wrapped about the fountaine, and are folden about the houſe of ſtones.

18 If (h) any plucke it from his place, and it denie, ſayeing, I haue not ſeene thee:

19 Beholde it wyl reioyce by this meanes, yf it may growe in another mould.

20 Beholde, G O D (i) wyl not caſt away a vertuous manne, neither wyl he " helpe the vngodly.

21 Thy mouth ſhal he fil with laughing, and thy lippes with gladneſſe.

22 They alſo that hate thee, ſhalbe clothed with ſhame, and the dwelling of the vngodly ſhal comme to nought.

(a) And therefore are iuſtly plagued, but thou rather art more bound to god, becauſe he hath geuen thee ſpace to repent.

(b) Here Bildad confirmeth his ſayeinges, by the auctoritie of the fathers.

(c) That is, lately borne, and therefore our ſayeinges haue leſſe auctoritie, wherby is ſhewed the ſhortneſſe of mans lyfe, which though it be neuer ſo long, yet it is but as yeſterday, and as a ſhadowe vaniſheth.

(d) Meaning, that as a ruſh without moiſture can not growe: ſo can not an euil man liue, without repentance moiſtned with gods grace.

(e) As Bildad argueth, Job ſhalbe alſo if he ſo continue murmuring agaynſt God as an hypocrite, counting him ſelfe faultleſſe, and not repenting.

(f) Whiche is ſpun to day, and to morowe ſwept away, wherto is likened the houſe of the wicked, his richeſſe, and his ſubſtance.

(g) That is, the wicked floriſhe, til gods diuine iudgement fal on them.

(h) If God ſhal afflict hym.

(i) Bildad concludeth, that Job is not iuſt, but is plagued for his offences, perſwading him therefore to repentance: for God woulde not thus caſt hym away yf he were iuſt.

" Or, take the vngodly by the hande.

The.ix. Chapter.

1 Job declareth the mighty power of God, and that mans righteouſneſſe is nothyng.

A 1 IOb (a) anſweared, and ſayde,

2 I knowe it is ſo of a trueth: For howe may a man [compared] vnto God, be iuſtified?

3 If he wyl argue with hym, he can not anſweare hym (b) one thing of a thouſande.

4 He is wyſe in hart and mighty in ſtrength: (c) Who hath ben fearce agaynſt hym, and hath proſpered?

5 He tranſlateth the mountaynes, or euer they be aware, it is he that ouerthroweth them in his wrath.

6 He remoueth the earth out of her place, that the pillers thereof ſhake withal.

7 He commaundeth the ſunne, and it ryſeth not: he cloſeth vp yͤ ſtarres as vnder a ſignet.

8 He him ſelfe alone ſpreadeth out the heauens, & goeth vpon the " waues of the ſea.

9 He maketh the waynes of heauen, (d) the Orion, the ſeuen ſtarres, and the ſecrete places of the ſouth.

10 He dooth great thinges and vnſearcheable, yea, and woonders without number.

11 Loe, (e) when he goeth by me, I ſhal not ſee him, and when he paſſeth, I ſhal not perceiue hym.

12 If he be haſtie to take away, who wyl make him (f) reſtore it? or who wyl ſay vnto hym, what doeſt thou?

13 God wyl not withdraw his anger, and the moſt mighty helpes doo ſtowpe vnder hym:

(a) Anſweared to Eliphas and Bildads orations, confeſſing mans iuſtice to be nothing, beyng compared to God, as Eliphas ſayde in the fourth Chap.

(b) That is, he ſhal not be hable to anſweare one thyng for a thouſand, that God can charge hym withal.

(c) Here foloweth the infinite powre of God, whereby dooth appeare mans wickedneſſe the more.

" Or, heighthes.

(d) Theſe be the names of certayne ſtarres, declaring that the powers of heauen are at his commaundement.

(e) Though his wonderous workes be before mine eyes, yet am I not hable to comprehend them.

(f) Declaring that God doth al things iuſtly, and is vnſearcheable in his doings, whiche not one can controle.

14 Howe muche leſſe ſhal I anſweare him? or howe ſhoulde I finde out my woordes with hym?

15 For though I were ryghteous, yet myght I not geue hym one woorde agayne, but meekely ſubmit my ſelf to him as my iudge.

16 If I had called vpon him, and he had anſweared me, (g) yet would I not beleue that he hearde my voyce:

17 He troubleth me ſo with the tempeſt, and woundeth me out of meaſure without a cauſe.

18 He wyl not ſuffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitterneſſe.

(g) A miſerable caſe when man is brought to ſuche deſperation, whereas God hym ſelfe ſayth, before they crye I wyl heare them.

19 If [menne wyl ſpeake] of ſtrength, loe he is ſtrong: yf [menne wyl ſpeake] of iudgement, who ſhal bryng me in to pleade?

D 20 If I wyl iuſtifie my ſelfe, myne owne mouth ſhal condempne me: yf I wyl [put foorth my ſelfe for] a perfect man, he ſhal proue me a wicked dooer.

21 For though I be an innocent, and my conſcience cleare, yet am I weery of my lyfe.

22 This is one poynt, and therefore I ſayd, He deſtroyeth both the perfect and vngodly.

23 And though he ſlaye ſodaynely with the ſcourge, yet wil he laugh at the pouniſhment of the innocent.

24 As for the worlde, it is geuen ouer into the hande of the wicked, and he ſhal couer the faces of the iudges thereof: yf not, where is he, or who is he [that can ſhewe the contrary?]

25 My dayes are more ſwyft then a runner, they are gone, and haue ſeene no good thing.

26 They are paſſed away, as the ſhippes that be good vnder ſayle, and as the Eagle that fleeth to the pray.

E 27 If I ſay, I wyl forgeat my complaynyng, I wyl ceaſſe from my wrath, and comfort my ſelfe:

28 Then am I afrayde of al my ſorowes, for I knowe that thou wylt not iudge me innocent.

29 If I be wicked, why then (h) labour I in vayne?

30 If I waſhe my ſelfe with ſnowe water, and make myne handes neuer ſo cleane at the wel:

31 Yet ſhalt thou " dippe me in the myre, and (i) myne owne clothes ſhal defile me.

32 For he that I muſt geue anſweare vnto, and with whom I goe to the lawe, is not a man as I am:

33 Neither is there any dayesman to laye his hande betweene vs.

(h) As yf he had ſayde, If I be wicked, and ſhalbe iudged as the vngodly, why tarieſt thou ſo long to thruſt me into the graue, why doo I bide al this in vaine? " Or, plunge me in the pit. (i) Shewing our righteouſneſſe before God to be nothyng, but as a defiled cloth.

34 Let hym take his rodde away from me, yea, let hym make me no more afrayde of hym.

35 And then ſhal I anſweare him without any feare: but becauſe I am not ſo, I holde me ſtyl.

The. x. Chapter.

1 Job is weery of his lyfe, and ſetteth out his fragilitie before God. 20 He deſyreth him to ſtay his hande. 22 A deſcription of death.

A 1 My (a) ſoule is cutte of, though I liue, I wyl powre out my cōplaint againſt my ſelfe, and wil ſpeake out of the very heauineſſe of my ſoule.

2 I wyl ſay vnto God, O (b) doo not condempne me, but ſhewe me wherefore thou contendeſt ſo with me?

3 Thinkeſt thou it wel donne to oppreſſe me? to caſt me of beyng the woorkes of thy handes? and to (c) mainteyne the counſel of the vngodly?

4 Haſt thou (d) fleaſhy eyes? or dooeſt thou looke as a man looketh?

5 Or are thy dayes as the dayes of (e) man? and thy yeeres as mans yeeres?

6 That thou makeſt ſuch inquiſition for my wickedneſſe, and ſearcheſt out my ſinne?

7 Whereas thou knoweſt (f) whether I ſhal doo wickedly or no, and that none can deliuer me out of thyne hande.

8 (g) Thy handes haue made me, and faſhioned me altogeather rounde about, wylt thou then deſtroy me?

(a) Learne here that al thinges are ſowre and vnſauerie when God is abſent from vs: as for example, this Job who once beyng the richeſt and happieſt of al, doth wiſhe nowe to dye for ſorowe. (b) That is, in thy ſecrete iudgement do not lay thinges to my charge. (c) Wylt thou helpe the wicked, and leaue me deſtitute. (d) That is, art thou ignorant as man? and dooeſt thou not knowe howe it goeth with me. (e) That is, changeable, as though he woulde ſay, art thou not the ſame God that thou waſt woont to be? merciful and good to Job?

9 Remember I beſeche thee, that thou madeſt me as the moulde of the earth, and ſhalt bryng me into duſt agaime.

10 Haſt thou not powred me as it were milke, and turned me to cruddes lyke cheeſe?

11 Thou haſt couered me with ſkinne and fleaſhe, and ioyned me togeather with bones and ſinowes.

12 Thou haſt graunted me lyfe, and donne me good: and thy viſitation hath preſerued my ſpirite.

13 Thou haſt hyd theſe thinges in thyne hart, [yet] I am ſure that thou remembreſt this thing.

14 If I did ſinne, thou haddeſt an eye vnto me, and ſhalt not pronounce me innocent from myne offence.

15 If I haue donne wickedly, wo is me therefore: If I haue donne righteouſly, yet (h) dare I not lyft vp my head, ſo ful am I of confuſion, and ſee myne owne miſerie.

(h) That is, I wyl walke in meeke humilitie.

(f) That is, I can not offende, by reaſon thou keepeſt one lawe in affliction.
(g) Here Job deſcribeth Gods marueylous woorkes in mans creation.

16 And let it encreaſe, hunt me as a Lion, and returne and ſhewe thee ſelfe marueylous vpon me.

17 Thou bryngeſt freaſhe " witneſſe againſt me, and thy wrath increaſeſt thou vpon me: diuers & many are the plagues that I am in.

" Or, plagues.

18 Wherefore haſt thou brought me out of the wombe? O that I had periſhed, and that no eye had ſeene me, 19 And that I were, as though I hadde not benne, but brought from the wombe to the graue.

20 Are not my dayes fewe? Let him then leaue of fro me, and let me alone, that I may comfort my ſelfe a litle, D

21 Afore I goe [thyther from whence] I ſhal not turne agayne, euen to the lande of darkneſſe and ſhadowe of death:

22 Yea, a lande as darke, as darkneſſe it ſelfe, and into the ſhadow of death where is none order, but the light is there as darkneſſe.

The.xi.Chapter.

1 Job is vniuſtly reprehended of Sophar. 7 God is incomprehenſible. 14 He is merciful to the repentant. 18 Their aſſurance that liue godly.

A 1 Then anſweared Sophar the Naamathite, & ſayde,

2 Shoulde not [he that maketh] many woordes (a) be anſweared? ſhoulde he that bableth muche be commended therein?

(a) For not he that ſpeaketh muche, but he that ſpeaketh truely, ſpeaketh wel.

3 Shoulde thy lies make menne holde theyr peace, and when thou mockeſt [others] ſhal no man make thee aſhamed?

4 For thou haſt ſaid, (b) My doctrine is pure, and I am cleane in thyne eyes.

(b) Here Sophar layeth to Jobs charge, woordes that he ſpake.

5 But (c) O that GOD woulde ſpeake, and open his lippes agaynſt thee:

(c) Sophar goeth about to proue Job to be iuſtly plagued.

6 That he myght ſhewe thee the ſecretes of wyſedome, howe thou haſt deſerued double, accordyng to right: Knowe therefore that God hath forgotten thee for thyne iniquitie.

7 Art thou hable to finde out [the ſecretes of] God? or wylt thou atteyne to the perfectneſſe of the almighty?

B 8 It is (d) hygher then heauen, what art thou hable to doo? deeper then the hel, howe wylt thou then knowe it?

(d) Job is reproued in that he ſhoulde report hym ſelfe innocent before God, whiche thyng he knoweth not, becauſe Gods ſecrete iudgement is vnſearcheable

9 The meaſure of it, is longer then the earth, and broder then the ſea.

10 Though he turne al things vpſide downe, cloſe them in, geather them togeather, who wyl turne hym from his purpoſe?

11 For it is he that (e) knoweth vaine menne, he ſeeth their wickedneſſe alſo, ſhould he not then conſyder it?

(e) Not onlye the outwarde appearance, but euen the very thoughtes of the hart. Why ſhoulde not then a vaine man be afeard to thinke euyl, muche more to doo it.

12 Yet vayne man woulde be wyſe, though man [newe] borne, is like a wylde aſſes coult.

13 If thou preparedſt thyne hart, and lyftedſt vp thyne handes towarde hym:

14 If thou wouldeſt put away the wickedneſſe whiche thou haſt in hande, ſo that no vngodlineſſe dwel in thy houſe: C

15 Then myghteſt thou (f) lyft vp thy face without " ſhame, and then ſhouldeſt thou be ſure, and haue no neede to feare.

(f) Suche are the quiet myndes of thoſe that truly repent.

" Or, ſpottes

16 Then ſhouldeſt thou forgeat thy miſerie, and thinke no more vpon it, then vpon the waters that runne by.

17 Then ſhoulde thy " lyfe be as cleare as the noone day, thou ſhouldeſt ſhine foorth, and be as the mornyng.

" Or, age,

18 Then mighteſt thou be bolde, becauſe there is hope, & take thy reſt quietly, as compaſſed with a trenche.

19 Then myghteſt thou lye downe, and none to make thee afrayde, yea many one ſhoulde make ſuite vnto thee.

20 As for the eyes of the vngodly, they ſhal faile, and they ſhal not eſcape: and their hope ſhalbe ſorowe of minde.

The.xii.Chapter.

1 Job accuſeth his freendes of ignorance. 7 He declareth the myght and power of God. 17 And howe he changeth the courſe of thinges.

A 1 So Job anſweared, and ſayde,

2 Then no doubt ye are the menne (a) alone, and wyſedome ſhal periſhe with you.

(a) Nothyng is more deteſtable before God, then arrogancie, wherewith the three men before named, were infected.

3 (b) But I haue vnderſtandyng aſwel as ye, and am not inferior to you: Yea who knoweth not theſe thinges?

(b) This ſpake Job in the ſpirite of humilitie, or els it had not benne wel ſpoken.

4 I am as one mocked of his neyghbour, who calleth vpon God, and he heareth him: (c) The iuſt and the vpryght, is laughed to ſcorne.

(c) As though he ſhould ſay, no marueyle though I be ſcorned, for euen the godly are mocked.

5 Beyng as a light (d) deſpiſed in the hartes of the riche, and as one ready to fal.

(d) That is, as he that deſpiſeth the lyght in the nyght ſeaſon may ſoone ſtumble, ſo they that refuſe the afflicted whiche ſhine before gods face, doo geat to them ſelues his wrath to their peril.

6 The houſes of (e) robbers are in wealth and proſperitie, and they that maliciouſly meddle agaynſt God, dwel without care, in thoſe thinges that God hath (f) geuen richely with

7 Aſke the cataple,(g) and they ſhal enfourme thee: the foules of the ayre, and they ſhal telle thee.

8 Or the encreaſe of the earth, & it ſhal ſhewe thee: or the fiſhes of the ſea, and they ſhal certifie thee.

9 What is he but he knoweth, that the hande of the Lorde made al theſe?

10 In whoſe hande is the (h) ſoule of euery liuing thing, and the breath of al mankinde.

11 Haue not the eares (i) pleaſure in hearing? and the mouth in taſting the thyng that it eateth?

12 Among(k) olde perſons there is wiſedome, and in age is vnderſtandyng.

13 Yea, with [God] is wyſedome & ſtrength, it is he that hath counſel & foreknowledge.

14 Behold(l) if he breake downe a thing, who can ſet it vp agayne? yf he ſhut a thing, who wyl open it?

15 Beholde, yf he withholde the waters, they drye vp: yf he let them goe, they deſtroy the earth.

16 With him is ſtrength and wiſedome: both the deceiuer, and he that is deceiued, are his.

17 He caryeth away the wyſe menne, as it were a ſpoyle, and bringeth the iudges out of their wittes.

18 He taketh away the ſubiection of the people from their kinges, & girdeth their loines with a bonde.

19 He leadeth away the great menne into captiuitie, & turneth the myghty vpſide downe.

20 He ſtoppeth the mouth of them that ſpeake trueth, and diſapoynteth the aged of theyr reaſon. D

21 He powreth contempt vpon princes, and maketh the ſtrength of the mighty weake.

22 Looke what lyeth hyd in darkeneſſe, he declareth it openly, and the very ſhadowe of death, bryngeth he to lyght.

23 He [both] increaſeth the people, & deſtroyeth them, he maketh them to multiplie, and diminiſheth them.

24 He taketh away the hart of them that be heades of the people of the earth, and cauſeth them to wander in the wyldernesse out of the way.

25 They grope in the darke without lyght, and he maketh them to ſtacker lyke a drunken man.

(g) For euen the cataple & al creatures doo declare gods power, as it is ſayde, The heauens declare the glory of God.

(h) For God dooth not only create his creatures, but alſo noriſheth, cheriſheth, & preſerueth them ſtyl.

(i) Can not I diſcerne your woordes, as the meate is tryed by the taſte, and holſome counſel by hearing of it.

(k) The anſweare to Bildads obiection. Cap. 8 that though olde menne by experience growe wyſe, yet it is nothyng in reſpect of gods wyſedome.

(l) Here Iob proueth, that nothyng is comparable to gods power, or can preuaile againſt it.

The.xiii. Chapter.

1 Iob compareth his knowledge with the experience of his freendes. 16 The penitent ſhalbe ſaued, and the hypocrite condempned. 20 He prayeth vnto God, that he woulde not handle hym rigorouſly.

A

1 Loe,(a) al [this] haue I ſeene with myne eye, hearde with myne eare, and vnderſtande it.

2 What ye knowe, that ſame doo I knowe alſo, neither am I inferior vnto you.

3 Neuertheleſſe, I talke with the almyghty, and my deſyre is to commune with God.

4 As for you, ye are woorkemaiſters of lyes, and (b) vnprofitable phiſitians altogeather.

5 Woulde God ye kept (c) your tongue, for then myght ye be taken for wyſe men.

6 Nowe heare my (d) reaſoning, and ponder the argument of my lippes.

7 Wyl you ſpeake wickedly for goddes [defence] and talke deceitfully for his [cauſe?]

8 Wyl ye accept the perſon of him? or wyl ye contende for God?

9 Shal that helpe you when he calleth you to reckening? For as one man mocketh an other, ſo doo ye mocke him.

10 He ſhal puniſhe you, and reproue you, yf ye doo ſecretly accept any perſon.

11 Shal not his excellencie make you afrayde? Shal not his terrible feare fal vpon you?

12 Your (e) remembraunce is lyke vnto a ſparke, and your bodyes lyke the claye.

13 Holde your tongues for my ſake, that I alſo may ſpeake, and my ſorowe ſhalbe the leſſe.

14 Wherefore doo I (f) beare my fleaſhe in my teethe, and (g) put my ſoule in myne handes?

15 Loe, though he ſlay me, yet wyl I truſt in hym: but I wil reproue mine owne waies in his ſight.

16 He ſhalbe my ſaluation: for there may no (h) hypocrite comme before hym.

17 Heare diligently my woordes, and ponder my ſayeinges with your eares.

18 Behold, nowe haue I prepared my iudgement, and knowe that I ſhalbe founde (i) ryghteous.

19 What is he that wyl (k) goe to lawe with me? If I nowe holde my (l) tongue, I dye.

20 Neuertheleſſe, (m) graunt me two thinges, and then wyl I not hyde my ſelfe from thee:

21 Withdrawe thyne hande from me, and let

(a) Meaning, I knowe the power of God aſwel as you.

(b) That is, you are vnmeete for my diſeaſe, which ſeeke not the medicine to cure it, but rather to encreaſe it with your lyes and tales to trouble me.

(c) For the foole holding his peace, is counted wyſe, as ſayth Salomon.

(d) Marke what I ſhal lay agaynſt you, for I blame you not in that ye declare gods power, but becauſe you faigne a carnal and humane iuſtice to be in hym, and ſo of true thinges, ye conclude lyes.

(e) Whiche ſoone dyeth, & goeth out of it ſelfe, as the memorie of the vniuſt ſhal.

Or, aſhes.

(f) That is, ſore vexed and tormented, as though I ſhoulde rent & teare my fleſh with my teeth.

(g) That is, to ſet my lyfe in great perils and dangers.

(h) Here it appeareth, that Iobs truſt and hope in God was not al periſhed, diſcharging him ſelfe of hypocriſie wherewith they charged hym.

(i) That is, not condempned for my ſinnes, as you doo reaſon.

(k) To proue that God plagueth me for mine offences.

(l) That is, If I keepe ſilence, al men wyl count me giltie, and ſo condempne me.

(m) That is, graunt that I may be deliuered from two thynges: the one is, thy wrath: the other, the affliction: which two maketh vs afrayde of thy preſence.

not the fearful dreade of thee make me afrayde.

22 Then calle, and I wyl anſweare: or let me ſpeake, and geue me then an anſweare.

23 Howe many are my miſdeedes and ſinnes? let me knowe my tranſgreſſions & offences.

24 Wherefore hideſt thou thy face, and holdeſt me for thyne enimie?

25 Wylt thou breake a leafe driuen to and fro, and wylt thou purſue the drye ſtubble?

26 For thou layeſt ſharply to my charge, and puniſheſt me for the ſinnes of my youth.

27 Thou putteſt my feete alſo in the ſtockes, and lookeſt narowly vnto al my pathes, and makeſt the * print therof in the heeles of my feete:

28 And I as a rotten thing doo conſume away, as a garment that is motheaten.

* Or, the rootes.

The.xiiii. Chapter.

1 Iob deſcribeth the ſhortneſſe and miſerie of the lyfe of man. 14 Hope ſuſtaineth the godly. 22 The condition of mans lyfe.

A

(a) Here Iob diſcribeth the miſerie of man.

(b) This expreſſeth mans ſhortnes of lyfe, and the vnſtableneſſe thereof, being compared to a floure, to a ſhadowe, and to the graſſe in the feelde.

(c) Meaning, that ſeeing man is ſo fraile, he ſhoulde not handle hym ſo extremely.

Iob.7.a.

1 Man that is [a] borne of woman, hath but a ſhort time to liue, and is ful of miſerie.

2 He commeth vp, and is cut downe [b] lyke a flower: he fleeth as it were a ſhadowe, and neuer continueth in one ſtate.

3 Doeſt thou [c] open thyne eyes vpon ſuche one, and bringeſt me into thy iudgement?

4 Who can make it cleane, that commeth of an vncleane thing? no body.

5 *The dayes of man ſurely are determined, the number of his monethes are knowen only vnto thee, thou haſt appoynted him his bondes, whiche he can not goe beyonde.

6 Goe from hym, that he may reſt vntil his day comme whiche he looketh for, like as an hyreling dooth.

(d) He ſheweth mans miſerie the more in that he maketh it in woorſe ſtate, then the tree cut downe, whereof there is ſome hope that he wyl ſpring againe: but man once dead, returneth no more.

(e) Iob ſayth not this as hauing no hope of immortalitie, but as one ſore tormented.

7 For yf a tree be cut downe, there is [d] ſome hope yet that it wil ſproute and ſhoote foorth the braunches agayne.

8 Though the roote of it be waxen olde, and the ſtocke thereof be dead in the grounde:

9 Yet when it getteth the ſent of water, it wil budde and bryng foorth bowes, like as a tree that is planted.

10 [e] But as for man, when he is dead, periſhed, and conſumed away, what becommeth of hym?

11 As the waters paſſe from the ſea, and as the flood decayeth and dryeth vp:

12 So man, after he is a ſleepe ryſeth not, he ſhal not wake, tyl the heauens be no more, nor ryſe out of his ſleepe.

13 O that thou wouldeſt hide me in the graue, and keepe me ſecrete, vntil thy wrath were paſt, and to appoint me a time wherein thou myghteſt remember me.

14 May a dead man liue againe? Al the dayes of my lyfe, wyl I waite ſtil, til my changing ſhal comme.

15 Thou ſhalt [f] cal [me] and I ſhal anſweare thee, " deſpiſe not thou the woorke of thyne owne handes.

16 For nowe thou [g] numbreſt al my goings, and geueſt no delay vnto my ſinne.

17 Myne iniquitie is ſealed vp, as it were in a bagge, and thou addeſt [puniſhment] vnto my wickedneſſe.

18 The mountaynes fal away at the laſt, the rockes are remoued out of their place.

19 The waters pearſe through the very ſtones by litle and litle, the floodes waſhe away the grauel and earth: ſo ſhalt thou deſtroy the hope of man.

20 Thou preuaileſt ſtil agaynſt hym, ſo that he paſſeth away: thou changeſt his " eſtate, and putteſt him from thee.

21 And whether his children comme to worſhip or no, he can not tel: And yf they be men of lowe degree, he knoweth not.

22 But whyle his fleaſhe is vpon him, it muſt haue ſorowe: and his ſoule ſhal mourne within hym.

(f) Thou plageſt me nowe, yet when thou ſhalt calme vp at doomes day, I ſhal anſweare thee, for thou art merciful.

" Or, thou ſhalt loue.

(g) That is, thou haſt al my deedes numbred, ſpare me therfore.

" Or, face.

The.xv. Chapter.

1 Eliphas reprehendeth Iob, becauſe he aſcribeth wyſedome and pureneſſe to hym ſelfe. 16 He deſcribeth the curſe that falleth on the wicked, reckoning Iob to be one of that number.

(a) Woordes to no effect ſpoken, are lykened to the eaſt winde, whiche dryeth vp the moyſture, aſſoone as it falleth: So fooliſhe words vainely periſhe, aſſoone as they be ſpoken.

1 Then anſweared Eliphas the Themanite, and ſaid,

2 Shal a wyſe mans anſweare be as the winde, & fil a mans belly as it were with the [a] wind of yͤ eaſt?

3 Shal he reproue with a woord that is nothyng woorth, and ſpeake the thinges whiche can doo no good?

4 Surely thou haſt caſt of feare, and reſtraineſt prayer before God.

5 For thy mouth ſetteth foorth thyne owne iniquitie, ſeeing thou haſt choſen the tongue of the craftie.

6 [b] Thyne owne mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yea thyne owne lyppes ſhape an anſweare agaynſt thee.

7 [c] Art thou the fyrſte man that euer was borne? or waſt thou made before the hilles?

8 Haſt thou heard the ſecrete counſel of God? and dooeſt thou reſtrayne wyſdome to thee?

9 What knoweſt thou, that we know not? and what vnderſtandeſt thou, but we can the ſame?

10 With vs are both olde and aged menne, yea ſuche as haue lyued longer then thy father.

11 Thynkeſt thou it a ſmal thyng of the conſolations of GOD? With thee is a lying woorde.

12 Why dooth thyne [d] harte ſo bewitch thee? And wherefore winckeſt thou with thyne eyes, 13 That thy mynde is ſo [e] puffe vp agaynſte God, and letteſt ſuche woordes goe out of thy mouth?

14 What is man, that he ſhoulde be cleane? and he whiche is borne of a woman, whereby he myght be ryghteous?

C

15 Beholde, he dooth not truſt his ſaintes, yea the very heauens are not cleane in his ſight:

16 Howe muche more then an abominable and vyle man, which drynketh wickednes lyke water.

17 I wyl tel thee, heare me, and I wyl [f] ſhew thee that I haue ſeene:

18 Whiche wyſe menne haue tolde, and haue not hyd that which they receiued from theyr fathers:

19 Unto whom alone the earth was geuen, and no ſtranger went among them.

20 The [g] vngodly ſoroweth al the dayes of his lyfe, as it were a woman with chylde, and the [h] number of a tyrantes yeeres is vnknowen.

[b] Eliphas chargeth Iob vncharitably.

[c] That is, art thou ſo ancient, that al wyſedome is in thy head?

[d] As one ſtandyng in thyne owne conceite.

[f] Eliphas endeuoureth to proue Iob wicked by the auctoritie of the auncient fathers, becauſe he is plagued as wicked menne are wont.

[g] Here he repeateth certaine places of the leuitical lawe for his proofe, whiche in deede the fathers ſo ſpake, but dyd not vnderſtande them as Eliphas dyd.

[h] He ſhalbe alwayes in feares, day and nyght, not knowyng any thyng certain.

21 A fearful ſounde is [euer] in his [illegible]es, and when he is in peace, the deſtroyer ſhal come vpon hym.

22 He beleueth neuer to be delyuered [i] out of darkeneſſe: for the ſworde is alwayes before his eyes.

23 He wandreth abroade for bread where it is, knowyng that the [k] day of darkeneſſe is ready at his hande.

24 Trouble and anguiſhe wyl make hym afrayde, & compaſſe hym about, as is a kyng in the myddeſt of an armie.

25 For he hath ſtretched out his hand againſt God, and armed hym ſelfe agaynſte the almyghtie.

26 He runneth proudely vpon hym, and with a ſtiffe necke fyghteth he agaynſt hym.

27 Whereas he [l] couereth his face with fatneſſe, and maketh his body wel lykyng.

28 Therefore ſhal his dwellyng be in [m] deſolate cities, and in houſes whiche no man inhabiteth, but are becomme heapes of ſtones.

29 He [n] ſhal not be riche, neyther ſhal his ſubſtance continue, neyther ſhal the proſperitie thereof be prolonged vpon earth.

30 He ſhal neuer departe out of darkeneſſe, the flame [o] ſhal drye vp his branches, with the blaſte of the mouth [of God] ſhal he be taken away.

31 He beleueth not that he erreth in vanitie, and yet vanitie ſhalbe his recompence.

32 He ſhal periſh afore his tyme be worne out, and his [p] branche ſhal not be greene.

33 He ſhalbe plucked of as an vntymely grape from the vine, and ſhal let his floure falle as the Oliue dooth.

34 For the congregation of the hypocrites ſhalbe deſolate, and the fire ſhal conſume the houſes of ſuche as are greedy to receiue gyftes.

35 He conceiueth trauaile, and beareth vanitie, and theyr body bryngeth forth deceyte.

[i] That is, out of the troubles and feares whiche ſal vpon hym.

[k] The day of plagues and feares extreme.

[l] That is, abundance of riches hath made hym ſo proude, that he forgetteth God.

[m] That is, he ſhal haue no certayne & ſure place to dwel in.

[n] Meaning, though God permit hym for a tyme to proſper, yet it ſhal not continue, but his proſperitie ſhal ſoone turne to miſerie.

[o] That is, ſuche bleſſyng as God gaue hym, ſhalbe turned into curſyng.

[p] That is, his progenie or offſpryng ſhal not continue.

The. xvi. Chapter.

1 Iob moued by the importunacie of his friendes, 7 counteth in what extremitie he is,
19 and taketh God witneſſe of his innocencie.

A 1 IOb anſweared, and ſayd,

2 I haue oft tymes heard ſuche thynges: [a] miſerable geuers of comfort are ye al the ſorte of you.

3 * Shal not vayne woordes comme yet to an ende? Or what maketh thee bolde ſo to anſweare?

4 I coulde ſpeake as ye doo alſo: but would God that your [b] ſoule were in my ſoules ſteede, then coulde I frame woordes for you, and ſhake my head at you:

5 I ſhould comfort you with my mouth, and releaſſe your payne with the talkyng of my lippes.

6 For al my woordes, my ſorowe wyl not ceaſſe: And [c] though I holde my tongue, what am I eaſed?

7 But nowe that [God] hath ſent me aduerſitie, thou haſt troubled al [d] my congregation.

[a] For they more vyte hym with cruel woordes, then comfort hym.

* Or, woordes of wynde.

[b] Woulde ye ſuffered that whiche I ſuffer?

[c] For God wyl haue his pleaſure ouer me.

[d] My houſhold, children, and ſubſtance.

8 And [illegible] thou (e) haſt fylled me with wrynckles my fleaſhe is recorde, and my leanenesse ryſeth vp agaynſt me, and beareth witneſſe thereof in my face.

9 His wrath hath torne [me] he hateth me, & gnaſheth vpon me with his teeth: myne enimie looketh fiercely vpon me with his eyes.

9 They haue opened theyr mouthes wyde vpon me, and (f) ſmytten me vpon the cheeke diſpitefully, they geather them ſelues togeather agaynſt me.

11 God hath ſhut me vp with the vngodly, and deliuered me (g) into the handes of the wicked.

12 I was in wealth, but he hath brought me to nought: he hath taken me by the necke, he hath al to ſhaken me, and ſet me as a marke for hym ſelfe.

13 His (h) archers compaſſe me rounde about, he woundeth my reynes, and dooth not ſpare, my bowels hath he powred vpon the grounde.

14 He hath geuen me one wounde vpon another, and is fallen vpon me lyke a giant.

15 I haue ſowed a ſackcloth vpon my ſkinne, and walowed my head in the duſt.

16 My face is wythered with weepyng, and in myne eyes is the ſhadowe of death.

17 Howebeit, there is (i) no wickedneſſe in my handes, but (k) my prayer is cleane.

18 O earth couer not thou my blood, and let (l) my cryeing fynde no roome.

19 For loe, (m) my witneſſe is in heauen, and he that knoweth me, is in the heyght.

20 My friendes geue me manye woordes to ſcorne, and myne eye powreth out teares vnto God.

21 O that a body myght pleate with God, as one man dooth with another:

22 Yet the number of my yeeres is comme, and the way that I muſt goe is at hande, from whence I ſhal not turne agayne.

(e) Not by reaſon of yeeres, but by reaſon of my greefe, ſhewing his extreme paynes.

(f) That is, diſpitefully handeled me, which ſtriking on the cheeke ſignifieth.

(g) To proue hym, and not to deſtroy hym.

(h) His plagues and afflictions wherewith he vexeth me.

(i) And therfore the cauſe of my affliction is vnknowen to me.

(k) That is, without hypocriſie.

(l) No place to be hyd, but be knowen to al menne.

(m) I take God to recorde that I am innocent, though man blame me.

The.xvii.Chapter.

1 Job ſayth that he conſumeth away, and yet dooth patiently abyde it. 10 He exhorteth his friendes to repentance, 13 ſhewyng that he looketh but for death.

A 1 My breath is corrupte, my daies are ſhortened, I am harde at deathes doore.

2 (a) ˮ Frowarde menne are with me, and myne eye muſt continue in the bytterneſſe of them.

3 O deliuer me, and (b) looke out one to be my ſuretie in thy ſyght: what is he that knoweth who wyl promiſe for me?

4 For thou haſt withholden theyr hartes (c) from vnderſtandyng, therfore ſhalt thou not ſet [them] vp on hygh.

5 He that ſpeaketh flatterie to his friende, the eyes of his chyldren ſhal fayle.

6 He hath made me a bywoorde of the people, where as afore I was theyr ioy.

7 Myne eye is dimme for very heauineſſe, and al my ſtrength is lyke a ſhadowe.

8 Vertuous menne therefore ſhal wel conſyder this, and the innocent ſhal take parte agaynſt the hypocrite.

9 The ryghteous alſo wyl (d) keepe his way, and he that hath cleane handes wyl euer be ſtronger and ſtronger.

10 As for al you, turne you, and ˮ geat you hence [I pray you] ſeeyng I can not fynd one wyſe man among you.

11 My dayes are paſt, and my counſayles and thoughtes of my harte are vaniſhed away, 12 (e) Changyng the nyght into day, and the lyght approchyng into darkeneſſe.

13 (f) Though I tarry neuer ſo muche, yet the graue is my houſe, & I haue made my bed in the darke.

14 I ſaide to corruption, Thou art my father, and to the wormes, You are my mother, & my ſyſter.

15 (g) Where is then nowe my hope? or who hath conſydered the thyng that I looke for? Theſe ſhal goe downe with me into the pit, and lye with me in the duſt.

(a) In al Jobs extreme afflictions, yet this one made the reaſt moſt greeuous, that they that ſhoulde cherefully comfort hym, did cruelly vexe hym, and mocke hym.

ˮ Or, mockers.

(b) That is, make promiſe with me, O God, that I may talke with thee, for I wyl not reaſon with them, for they are fooles.

(c) That they can not vnderſtand the cauſe of my pouniſhmēt, but iudge me wicked, not knowyng thy wyſdome, whereby thou dooeſt afflict thy chyldren.

(d) Though the godly ſee them ſelues afflicted of God as the wicked are, yet they diſpaire not, knowyng that the iuſt alſo are pouniſhed for proofe of the.

ˮ Or, comme nowe.

(e) That is, the thoughtes of my harte haue brought me ſorowes in ſteede of ioy.

(f) Though my former eſtate returne, wherewith you perſwade me, yet wyl it not continue, for death ſoone commeth and diſpatcheth me.

(g) Seeyng I am but corruption.

The.xviii.Chapter.

1 Bildad rehearſeth the paynes of the vnfaythful and wicked.

A 1 Then anſweared Bildad the Suhite, and ſayde,

2 When wyl ye make an ende (a) of your woordes? Marke wel, & then we wil ſpeake.

3 Wherfore are we counted as beaſtes, and reputed ſo vyle in your ſight?

4 He deſtroyeth hym ſelfe with his anger: Shal the earth be forſaken, or any ſtone remoued out of his place, (b) becauſe of thee?

5 Yea, the lyght of the vngodlye ſhalbe put out, and the ſparke of his fyre ſhal not ſhine.

6 The (c) lyght ſhalbe darke in his dwelling, and his candle ſhalbe put out with hym.

7 The ſteps of his ſtrength ſhalbe reſtrayned, & his owne counſayle ſhal caſt hym downe:

8 For

(a) Wherein ye account your ſelfe ſo wyſe, and controlle vs.

(b) That is, ſhal God change the accuſtomed order of his operation for thee? and not afflict the wicked as his order is?

(c) His wyſdome ſhal periſhe, & from this place vnto the ende of the chapter, Bildad goeth about to proue Job wicked, becauſe God plagueth him, as he dooth the wicked man.

(d) That is, he ſhal not attayne to that whiche he deſyreth, for al his power and myght ſhalbe taken away by hunger.
(e) Meaning, the vngodly ſhalbe the deſtruction of the ſtrength of his owne ſkin, that is, of his chyldren and poſteritie. Meanyng, that he and his poſteritie ſhalbe ſubiect to moſt greeuous diſeaſes.
(f) That is, a cruel diſeaſe, ſomme take it for death that commeth before his tyme: and ſomme for the fyrſte pangues of death that comme.
(g) That is, to a thyng moſt terrible and ful of feares.

8 For his feete are taken [as it were] in the net, and he walketh vpon the ſnares.

9 The grinne ſhal take him by the heele, and it ſhal catche hym that is thyrſtie of blood.

10 The ſnare is layde for hym in the ground, and a pitfalle in the way.

11 Fearefulneſſe ſhal make hym afrayde on euery ſyde, and ſhal dryue hym to his feete, 12 Hunger ſhalbe his ſtrength, and deſtruction ſhalbe ready at his ſyde.

13 (e) It ſhal eate the ſtrength of his owne ſkin, euen the (f) firſte borne of death ſhal eate his ſtrength.

14 His hope ſhalbe rooted out of his dwelling, and ſhal bryng hym to the (g) kyng of feare.

15 Other menne ſhal dwel in his houſe, and it ſhalbe none of his, and brymſtone ſhalbe ſcattered vpon his habitation.

16 His rootes ſhalbe dryed vp beneath, and aboue ſhal his branche be cut downe.

17 His remembrance ſhal (h) periſhe from the earth, and he ſhal haue no name in the ſtreet.

18 They ſhal dryue hym from the (i) lyght into darkeneſſe, and chaſe hym cleane out of the worlde.

19 He ſhal neyther haue ″ chyldren nor kynſfolkes among his people, no, nor any poſteritie in his dwellynges.

20 They that comme after hym, ſhalbe aſtonied at (k) his day, and ″ they that goe before, ſhalbe afrayde.

21 Suche are nowe the dwellynges of the wicked, and this is the place of hym that knoweth not God.

(h) The wicked ſhal not only be deſtroyed in body & goodes, but theyr name, and fame and progenie ſhal vtterly periſhe for euer.
(i) From proſperitie, to aduerſitie.
″ Or, ſonne, nor nephew.
(k) That is, at his fal.
″ Or, elders, or ancientes.

The.xix.Chapter.

1 Iob reproueth his friendes, 15 and reciteth his miſeries and greeuous paynes.
15 He aſſureth hym ſelfe of the general reſurrection.

1 Iob anſweared, and ſayde,

A 2 Howe long wil ye vexe my ſoule, and trouble me with woordes?

3 Loe, (a) ten times haue ye reproched me, and are not aſhamed, but haue laughed me to ſcorne.

(a) That is, more then neede. For the number of them, is the number of conſummation or finiſhing.

4 Be it that I haue erred in deede, myne (b) errour then remayneth with my ſelfe.

5 But if ye wyl aduance your ſelues agaynſt me, & rebuke me for the ſhame that is come vpon me:

(b) As though he would ſay, what haue you to doo with that, the fault is myne, and not yours.

6 Knowe this then, that it is God whiche hath ouerthrowen me, and hath compaſſed me with his net.

7 If I complayne of the violence that is donne vnto me, I can not be hearde: and yf I crye, there is no ſentence geuen with me.

8 He hath hedged vp my way that (c) I can not paſſe, and he hath ſet darkeneſſe in my pathes.

9 He hath ſpoyled me (d) of myne honour, & (e) taken the crowne away from my head.

10 He hath deſtroyed me on euery ſyde, and I am ″ gonne: my hope hath he taken away as a tree pluckt vp by the roote.

11 His wrath is kyndeled agaynſt me, he taketh me as though I were his enimie.

12 (f) His menne of warre comme togeather, whiche made theyr way ouer me, and beſieged my dwellyng rounde about.

13 He hath put my brethren farre away from me, and myne acquaintance are alſo become ſtrangers vnto me.

(c) That is, I can not goe from theſe my afflictions.
(d) That is, of my riches and ſubſtance.
(e) That is, deſtroyed my chyldren, for the crowne of the aged are chylders chyldren, as it is in the prouerbes.
″ Or, vndonne.
(f) That is, his great plagues layde on me.

14 Myne owne kynſfolkes haue forſaken me, and my beſt acquaynted haue forgotten me.

15 ″ The ſeruantes and maydens of myne owne houſe tooke me for a ſtranger, and I am becomme as an aliant in theyr ſyght.

″ Or, they that dwell with me.

16 I called my ſeruant, and he gaue me no anſweare: [no though] I prayed hym with my mouth.

17 Myne owne wyfe myght not abyde my breath, though I prayed her for the children ſake of myne owne body.

18 Yea, the young menne deſpiſed me, & when I roſe, they ſpake euyl vpon me.

19 Al my moſte familiers abhorred me: and they whom I loued beſt, are turned againſt me.

20 My (g) bone cleaueth to my ſkynne and to my fleaſhe, only there is leaft me the ſkynne about my teeth.

21 Haue pitie vpon me, haue pitie vpon me, O ye my friendes, for the hande of God hath touched me.

(g) Seeyng theſe miſeries are comme vpon me, ſay not you that I fayne as an hypocrite ſpecially you that ſhould be my conſolation.

22 Why doo ye perſecute me as God [dooth] and are not ſatiſfied with my fleaſhe?

23 (h) O that my woordes were nowe written, O that they were put in a booke, 24 And grauen with an iron penne in lead, or in ſtone, to continue.

25 For I am ſure (i) that my redeemer lyueth, and he ſhal rayſe vp at the latter day them that lye in the duſt:

26 And though after my ſkynne the [wormes] deſtroy this body, yet ſhal I ſee God in my fleaſhe:

(h) To teſtifie that he hath not blaſphemed God as they report.
(i) Here is an euident confeſſing of Iobs fayth, with the aſſured hope of reſurrection.

27 Whom I my ſelfe ſhal ſee, and myne eyes ſhal beholde, and none other for me, though my reynes are conſumed within me.
28 But ye ſayde, why is he perſecuted? and there was a deepe matter in me.
29 (k) But beware of the ſworde: for the ſworde wylbe auenged of wickedneſſe, and be ſure that there is a iudgement.

The.xx.Chapter.

1 Sophar ſheweth that the wicked and the couetous ſhal haue a ſhort ende, 22 though for a tyme they floriſhe.

1 THen anſweared Sophar the Naamathite, and ſayde,
2 For the ſame cauſe doo (a) my thoughtes compelle me to anſweare, and therfore make haſte.
3 I haue ſufficiently hearde the (b) checkyng of my reproofe, therfore the ſpirite of myne vnderſtandyng cauſeth me to anſweare.
4 Knoweſt thou not this of olde, and ſince God plagued man vpon earth,
5 (c) That the gladneſſe of the vngodlye hath benne ſhorte, and that the ioy of hypocrites continued but the twincklyng of an eye?
6 Though he be magnified vp to the heauen, ſo that his head reacheth vnto the cloudes:
7 Yet at a (d) turne he periſheth for euer, inſomuche that they whiche haue ſeene hym, ſhal ſay, Where is he?
8 He ſhal vaniſhe as a dreame, ſo that he can no more be founde, and ſhal paſſe awaye as a viſion in the nyght.
9 So that the eye whiche ſawe hym before, ſhal haue no more ſyght of hym, and his place ſhal " knowe hym no more.
10 His children ſhalbe fayne to agree with the poore, & his handes ſhal reſtore their goodes.
11 From his youth his bones are (e) ful of pleaſures, but now ſhal it lie downe within hym in the " earth.
12 When wickedneſſe was (f) ſweete in his mouth, he hyd it vnder his tongue.
13 That he fauoured, that woulde he not forſake, but kept it cloſe in his throte.
14 The bread that he dyd eate, is turned to the (g) poyſon of ſerpentes within his body.
15 The riches that he deuoured, ſhal he parbreake agayne: for God ſhal drawe them out of his belly.
16 He ſhal ſucke the (h) galle of ſerpentes, and the adders tongue ſhal ſlay hym:
17 So that he ſhal no more ſee the (i) ryuers, and brookes of hony and butter.
18 The thyng he hath laboured for, ſhal he reſtore, and (k) ſhal not eate of it: great trauaile ſhal he make for riches, but he ſhal not enioy them.
19 And why? he hath oppreſſed the poore, and not healped them: houſes hath he ſpoyled, and not buylded them.
20 Becauſe he coulde not perceiue when his belly was wel, through his greedy deſyre, he ſhal not eſcape.
21 There (l) ſhal none of his meate be leaſt, therefore ſhal no man looke for his goodes.
22 When he had plenteouſneſſe of euery thing, yet was he poore, though he was healped on euery ſyde.
23 And it ſhal comme to paſſe, that wherwith he purpoſed to fyl his belly, God ſhal powre the furie of his wrath thereon, and ſhal cauſe his indignation to raigne vpon hym, and vpon his meate.
24 He ſhal flee from the iron weapon, and the bowe of ſteele ſhal ſtryke hym through.
25 The [arowe] is taken foorth, and gonne out of the quyuer, and a glyſteryng ſworde through the gal of hym, ſo feare ſhal comme vpon hym.
26 Al darkeneſſe ſhalbe hyd in their ſecret places, (m) an vnkyndeled fyre ſhal conſume hym: & looke what remayneth in his houſe, it ſhalbe deſtroyed.
27 The heauen ſhal (n) declare his wickednes, and the earth ſhal take part agaynſt hym.
28 The ſubſtance that he hath in his houſe, ſhalbe taken away, and periſhe in the day of the Lordes wrath.
29 This is the portion that the wicked man ſhal haue of God, & the heritage that he may looke for of God, becauſe of his wordes.

¶ The

(k) That is, the iudgement of God, the reuenger of iniquitie: meanyng, though their wicked endeuour take place now, yet God wil hereafter conſyder hym, and be reuenged of the euyl.

(a) Becauſe Iob bragged of his innocencie (as they thought) Sophar interrupted his talke, as though he boſted in vain, for that God accepteth none but the repentant ſynner.

(b) For two cauſes Sophar ſpake: one, becauſe Iob in anſwearyng toucheth him, and for that he deemed his knowledge ſufficient to anſweare agayne.

(c) Sophar euen to the ende of this chapter alleageth true ſentences, but he erreth in that he thought Iob for impietie and hypocriſie to be plagued.

(d) That is, ſodenly.

" Or, ſee.

(e) Meanyng, the iniquitie of his youth.

" Or, duſt.

(f) As honye by continual taſt wexeth ſowre, and is vomited agayne: ſo pleaſant vice hath a deteſtable ende.

(g) The bleſſyng of the wicked is turned into curſes, whereby that which to others is ſweete foode, to them it ſhal be poyſon.

(h) He ſhal receiue curſyng. And here il gotten goodes are lykened to the ſerpentes gal, for Sophar falſly thought Iobs goodes to be ſuche.

(i) That is, he ſhal want gods bleſſing, ſo that when al menne haue abundance, he ſhal want.

(k) For yl gotten goodes God wil ſoone take away, and reſtore to them from whom they were craftily ſpoyled and rauened.

(l) That is, his heyres and executers ſhal gape in vayne.

(m) That is, fyre from heauen: and here Sophar toucheth Iob for that his friendes and chyldren were conſumed by fyre.

(n) There is nothyng hidde that ſhal not be opened, and the earth ſhal eyther be vnfruitful, or bryng foorth thynges hurtful to the wicked.

The.xxi.Chapter.

1 Iob declareth howe the proſperitie of the wicked maketh them proude, 15 inſo muche that they blaſpheme God. 16 Theyr deſtruction is at hande. 23 None ought to be iudged wicked for affliction, neyther good for proſperitie.

A 1 Iob anſweared, and ſayd,

2 O heare diligently my woordes, and that ſhalbe in ſteede of your conſolations,

3 Suffer, me that I may ſpeake, and when I haue ſpoken, mocke on.

4 Is it for (a) mans ſake that I make this diſputation? Whiche if it were ſo, ſhould not my ſpirite then be in ſore trouble?

5 Marke me [wel] and be abaſhed, and (b) lay your hande vpon your mouth.

6 For whē I conſyder [my ſelfe] I am afraid, and my fleaſhe is ſmytten with feare.

B 7 Wherefore (c) doo wicked menne lyue, comme to theyr olde age, & increaſe in riches?

8 Theyr " chyldren lyue in theyr ſyght, and theyr generation before theyr eyes.

9 Theyr houſes are ſafe from al feare, and the rodde of God is not vpon them.

10 Theyr bullocke gendereth, and that not out of tyme, theyr cowe calueth, and is not vnfruteful.

11 They ſende foorth theyr children by flockes, and theyr ſonnes [leade the] daunce.

12 They beare with them tabrets and harpes, and reioyce in the ſounde of the organs.

13 They ſpende theyr dayes in wealthineſſe, but (d) ſodainly they goe downe to the graue.

14 They ſay alſo vnto God, (e) Goe from vs, we deſyre not the knoweledge of thy waies.

15 Who is the almyghtie that we ſhould ſerue hym? And what profite ſhoulde we haue if we ſhoulde pray vnto hym?

C 16 Loe, there is vtterly no goodneſſe in theyr hande, therefore wyl I not haue to doo with the counſayle of the vngodly.

17 Howe oft ſhal the (f) candle of the wicked be put out, and theyr deſtruction comme vpon them? O what ſorow ſhal God geue them for theyr part in his wrath?

18 Yea, they ſhalbe euen as hay before yͤ wind, and as chaffe that the ſtorme carrieth away.

19 God wyl laye vp the ſorowe of the father for his chyldren: and when he rewardeth hym, he ſhal knowe it.

D 20 Theyr owne miſerie ſhal they ſee with theyr eyes, and drynke of the fearful wrath of the almyghtie.

21 For what careth he for his houſe after his death, when the (g) number of his monethes is cut ſhort?

22 Seeyng God hath the hygheſt power of al, who can teache hym any knowledge?

23 (h) One dyeth in his ful ſtrength, beyng in al eaſe and proſperitie, 24 His breaſtes are ful of mylke, & his bones runne ful of marowe.

25 Another dyeth in the (i) bytterneſſe of his ſoule, and neuer eateth with pleaſure.

26 They ſhal ſleepe both alyke in the earth, and the wormes ſhal couer them.

27 Behold, (k) I knowe what ye thynke, yea & the ſubtiltie that ye imagine agaynſt me.

28 For ye ſaye, (l) Where is the princes palace? and where is the dwellyng of the vngodly?

29 Haue ye not aſked thē that goe by the way? Doubtleſſe ye can not denye theyr tokens, 30 That the wicked is kept vnto the day of deſtruction, and the vngodlye ſhalbe brought foorth to the day of wrath.

31 Who (m) dare declare his way to his face? Who wyl rewarde hym for that he dooth?

32 Yet ſhal he be brought to his graue, and dwel among the heape [of the dead,]

33 Then ſhal the (n) ſlymie valley be ſweete vnto hym, al menne alſo muſt folowe hym, as there are innumerable gonne before hym.

34 Howe vayne then is the comforte that ye geue me, ſeeyng falſhood remayneth in al your anſweares?

(a) As though he ſhould ſay, my cauſe is before God, whom I can not eſcape, and not before you

(b) That is, keepe ſcilence.

(c) Iob proueth agaynſt Sophar, that the wicked are in proſperitie, not meanyng to contemne the ſentences before whiche are true: but Sophars miſconſtruing of them is opened.

" Or, ſeede,

(d) Not beyng plagued with long ſickneſ.

(e) They ſay this, not with tongue, but by the wickedneſſe and impietie of theyr harte they ſeeme ſo to ſay.

(f) That is, theyr great felicitie and wealth.

(g) For the wicked dye vnwares, and neuer endure the courſe of theyr dayes to the ende,

(h) Meanyng the wicked: where Iob ſaith, that it is not for man to reaſon with God why he dooth thus plague the iuſt, and proſpereth the vniuſt: for who can teach God wyſedome?

(i) And this he meaneth by the godly.

(k) Howe ye thynke me wicked, becauſe I am plagued.

(l) Thus they calle Iobs houſe, by ſcornyng and mocking at it.

(m) For no man can iudge by the wicked mens proſperitie, what ſhal becomme of them.

(n) That is, he ſhalbe content with a homely houſe of clay, which before was not contented with a kyngly palace.

The.xxii.Chapter.

2 Eliphas affyrmeth that Iob is pouniſhed for his ſynnes. 6 He accuſeth hym of vnmercifulneſſe. 13 and that he denyed Gods prouidence. 21 He exhorteth hym to repentance.

A 1 SO (a) Eliphas the Themanite gaue anſweare, and ſayde,

2 May a man be profitable vnto God, as he that is wyſe may be profitable vnto hym ſelfe?

3 Is it anye aduantage to the almyghtye that thou arte ryghteous? Or ſhal it profite hym that thou makeſt thy wayes perfect?

4 Is he afrayde to reproue thee, and to ſteppe foorth with thee into iudgement?

5 Is (b) not thy wickedneſſe great, and thy vngratious deedes innumerable?

6 For thou (c) haſt taken the pledge from thy brother for nought, and robbed the naked of theyr clothyng.

(a) The whole courſe of this chapter is, that man compared to God is vniuſt, and therfore ought to repent.

(b) They knewe not that Iob had ſo greatly offended: but they coniectured, becauſe God ſo plagued him, whiche was not for his ſynnes, ſo muche as for to proue hym, and therfore al theyr concluſions are falſe.

(c) Thou haſt benne vncharitable, and vniuſt.

7 To ſuch as were weery, haſt thou geuen no water to drynke, & haſt withdrawen bread from the hungry.

8 But the myghtie man had the earth, and he that was in aucthoritie dwelt in it.

9 Thou haſt ſent wydowes away emptye, and the armes of the fatherleſſe were broken.

10 Therfore art thou (d) compaſſed about with ſnares, and ſodenly vexed with feare.

11 Shouldeſt thou then ſee no (e) darkeneſſe? ſhoulde not the water fludde run ouer thee?

12 Is not God on hygh in the heauen? behold the heyght of the ſtarres howe hye they are.

13 Wylt thou therfore ſay, Tuſhe, how ſhould God know? can he iudge through the darke cloude?

C 14 Tuſhe, the cloudes couer him that he may not ſee, and he walketh on the toppe of heauen.

15 Haſt thou marked the way of the worlde, wherein wicked menne haue walked?

16 Whiche were cut downe out of tyme, and whoſe (f) fundation was as an ouerflowing ryuer.

17 Whiche ſayde vnto God, Goe from vs: and aſked what the almyghtie coulde doo for them?

18 He fylled theyr houſes with good thynges: but the counſel of the vngodly be farre from me.

19 The righteous ſawe it, and were glad, and the innocent laughed them to ſcorne.

20 Is our ſubſtance hewen downe? As for the remnant of them, (g) the fyre hath conſumed. D

21 Therefore (h) reconcyle thee vnto God, and be at peace, ſo ſhal al thynges proſper with thee ryght wel.

22 Receiue I pray thee the lawe at his mouth, and lay vp his woordes in thyne hart.

23 For if thou wylt turne to the almyghtie, thou ſhalt be buylte vp, and put al vnryghteouſneſſe from thy dwellyng.

24 Thou ſhalt laye vp golde [as plentiful] as the duſt, and the gold of Ophir as the flintes of the ryuers.

25 Yea almyghtie God his owne ſelfe ſhalbe thy defence, and thou ſhalt haue plentye of ſyluer.

26 Then ſhalt thou haue thy delight in the almyghtie, and lyft vp thy face vnto God.

27 Then ſhalt thou make thy prayer vnto hym, and he ſhal heare thee, and thou ſhalte ″ keepe thy promiſes.

28 Thou ſhalt alſo decree a thyng, and he ſhal eſtabliſhe it vnto thee, and the (i) lyght ſhal ſhyne in thy wayes. E

29 When [the wicked] be caſt downe, thou ſhalt ſay, I am lyfted vp, and God ſhal ſaue the humble perſon.

30 The innocent ſhal delyuer the Ilande: (k) it ſhalbe preſerued by the pureneſſe of thyne handes.

(d) That is, therefore art thou thus plagued euery way.

(e) Trouble.

(f) That is, vnſure and vnſtable.

(g) Meaning the euyl and vngodly perſons.

(h) Eliphas exhorteth Iob to repentance by the great goodneſſe that commeth thereof.

″ Or, render thy vowes.

(i) That is, the fauour of God.

(k) The place fareth the better, where the ryghteous are

The xxiii. Chapter.

2 Iob affyrmeth that he both knoweth and feareth the power and ſentence of the iudge, and that he is not pouniſhed only for his ſynnes.

A 1 Iob anſweared, and ſayd,

2 Though my talke be this day in (a) bytterneſſe, and my plague greater then my gronyng.

3 O that I (b) might know hym and fynde hym, and that I myght comme before his ſeate.

4 I woulde pleade my cauſe before him, and fyl my mouth with argumentes:

5 I would knowe what anſweare he would geue me, and vnderſtande what he woulde ſay vnto me.

6 Wyl he pleade agaynſt me with his great power? Noe, but he wil make me the ſtronger.

B 7 There the ryghteous myght diſpute with hym, ſo ſhould I be delyuered for euer from my iudge.

8 Beholde, though I goe forewarde, I fynd hym not: If I goe backward I can geat no knowledge of hym:

9 If I goe on the leaft ſyde where he dooth his woorke, I can not attayne vnto hym: Agayne, if I goe on the right ſyde, he hydeth hym ſelfe that I can not ſee hym.

10 But as for my way, he knoweth it, and tryeth me, that as the golde I may come foorth.

11 My (c) foote dooth keepe his path, his hygh way haue I holden, & wyl not goe out of it.

12 I wil not forſake the commaundement of his lyppes, I haue eſteemed the woordes of his mouth more then mine appoynted food.

13 He is ſtil at one poynt, and (d) who can turne hym? He dooth as hym liſteth, and bryngeth to paſſe what he wyl.

14 He (e) perfourmeth the thing that is appointed for me, and many ſuch thynges dooth he.

15 This is the cauſe that I ſhrynke at his preſence, ſo that when I conſyder him, I am afrayde of hym, 16 For God maketh my hart (f) ſofte, and the almyghtie putteth me in feare.

17 Becauſe I am not (g) cut of before the darkneſſe, neyther hath he couered the (h) cloude fro my face.

(a) In this chapter is expreſſed howe hard, yea how impoſſible it is to comme to God, without a mediatour.

(b) Iob being admoniſhed before to returne to God, ſayth, If I ſhould comme to hym, where is he, or where might I fynd hym to pleade my cauſe before hym.

(c) That is, Gods wayes, prouyng therfore hym ſelfe not to deſerue ſuch greeuous plagues and afflictions for his faultes.

(d) For God is immutable, and his decrees ſtande faſt.

(e) That is, he hath decreed thus to pouniſhe me appoynted hereunto, although I can not attayne to the ſecrete iudgement of God therein, and therfore I doo feare his preſence.

(f) That is, maketh it ſo weake that it can not but be in feare.

(g) Out of paynes, troubles, and afflictions.

(h) That is, cleared my eyes that I may ſee the ende of my troubles.

The .xxiiii. Chapter.

1 Iob deſcribeth the wickedneſſe of men, and ſheweth what curſe belongeth to the wicked.
12 How al thinges are gouerned by Gods prouidence, 17 and the deſtruction of the wicked.

A 1 Conſydering (a) then that there is no time hid from the almyghtie, howe happeneth it that they which knowe hym, doo not regarde his dayes?

2 For ſomme menne remoue the lande markes, robbe men of their cattel, and feede of the ſame:

3 They dryue away the aſſe of the fatherleſſe, and take the wydowes oxe for a pledge:

4 They cauſe the poore to turne out of the way, ſo that the poore of the earth hide them ſelues togeather.

5 Beholde, as wylde (b) aſſes in the deſart goe they foorth to theyr worke, and ryſe betymes to ſpoyle: yea the very (c) wylderneſſe miniſtreth foode for them and theyr chyldren.

6 They reape the corne fielde that is not their owne, and let the vineyarde of the vngodly alone.

B 7 They cauſe the naked to lodge without garment, and without couering in the cold.

8 They are wet with the ſhowres of the mountaynes, & embrace the rocke for want of a couering.

9 They plucke the fatherleſſe from the breaſt, and take the pledge from the poore.

10 They let him goe naked without clothing, and haue taken away the ſheafe of the hungry.

11 The poore are fayne to labour in theyr oyle mylles, yea and to treade in theyr wyne preſſes, and yet to ſuffer thyrſt.

12 Menne out of the citie crye vnto the Lorde with ſighyng, the ſoules of the ſlayne alſo crye out, yet God regardeth not theyr complaynt.

13 Whereas they are conuerſant among them that abhorre the lyght, they knowe not his way, nor continue in his pathes.

C 14 The murtherer ryſeth early, and kylleth the poore and needy, and in the nyght is as a theefe.

15 The (d) eye of the adulterer wayteth for the darkeneſſe, and ſayth, There ſhal no eye ſee me: and diſguiſeth his face.

16 In the darke they dygge through houſes, whiche they marked for them ſelues in the day tyme: they knowe not the lyght.

17 The mornyng is to them euen as the ſhadowe of death: if one knowe them, they are in the terrours of the ſhadowe of death.

18 [The vngodly] is ſwyft vpon the water: theyr portion ſhalbe curſed in the earth, and he ſhal not beholde the way of ye vineyardes.

19 As the drye grounde & (e) heate conſume the ſnowye waters: ſo ſhal the graue the ſynners.

20 The (f) pitiful manne ſhal forgeat hym, he ſhalbe ſweete to the wormes, he ſhalbe no more remembred, and his wickedneſſe ſhalbe broken as a tree.

21 He hath oppreſſed the barren that can not beare, and vnto the wydowe hath he donne no good.

22 He (g) drewe the myghtie after hym with his power, and when he was gotten vp, no man was ſure of lyfe.

23 And though they gaue hym to be in ſafetie, yet his eyes are vpon theyr wayes.

24 They are exalted for a litle, but [ſhortly] are gonne, brought to pouertie, and taken out of the way, yea & vtterly pluckt of, as the eares of corne.

25 Is (h) it not ſo? Who wyl then reproue me as a lyer, and ſaye that my wordes are nothing worth?

(a) This ſpeaketh Iob in his extreme paſſions, acordyng to worldly wit in mans feeble nature, which is foolyſhneſſe before God, whereby he woulde proue, that God conſydereth not the ſynnes.

(b) The curſed crueltie of tyrauntes towarde the poore, folowyng.

(c) That is, they lyue by robbery and theft.

(d) Not only the tyrant, but alſo the adulterer eſcapeth free, and is not corrected.

(e) Although ſuch abominable ſinners lyue vncorrected in this worlde, yet at the length hel ſhal deuoure them ſodenly.

(f) Becauſe they pitied not others, they ſhal not be pitied at al.

(g) That is, when they haue plagued and ouerrun the poore and weake, they wyl oppreſſe the ſtrong and myghtie alſo.

(h) Then I lye not, and none of you can reproue me.

The .xxv. Chapter.

Bildad proueth that no man is cleane nor without ſynne before God.

1 Then anſweared Bildad the Suhite, and ſayde,

2 Is there (a) power and feare with hym aboue, that maketh (b) peace ſitting in his hyghneſſe?

3 Is there any number of his (c) armies, and vpon whom ſhal not his lyght aryſe?

4 (d) But howe may a man, compared vnto God, be iuſtified? Or howe can he be cleane that is borne of a woman?

5 Beholde, the Moone ſhyneth nothyng in compariſon to hym, and the Starres are vncleane in his ſyght.

6 Howe muche more then man that is but " corruption, and the ſonne of man whiche is but a worme?

(a) Bildad woulde proue here that God plagueth the iuſt, yet afterward he proſpereth: and becauſe god deale not ſo with Iob, he concludeth that he was wicked.

(b) That is, ordereth and ruleth al thynges.

(c) For he is called the God of Sabbaoth, that is the God of hoſtes.

(d) For the ſunne & moone are darke, compared to hym, and howe muche more man beyng borne in ſinne and corruption, and beyng but a worme?

" Or, worme

¶ The

The.xxvi.Chapter.

1 Job ſheweth that man can not helpe God, and proueth it by his miracles.

A 1 IOb anſweared and ſayd,

2 (a) Whom haſt thou healped? hym that is without ſtrength? ſaueſt thou the arme that hath no ſtrength?

3 Where is the counſel that thou ſhouldeſt geue him which hath no wyſedome? Haſt thou ſhewed the waye of ryght lyuyng?

4 To whom haſt thou ſpoken theſe woordes? who made the breath to comme out of thy mouth?

5 (b) Are not dead thynges ſhapen vnder the waters, and thynges by the waters ſyde?

6 (c) He is naked before hym, and the very deſtruction it ſelfe can not be hydde out of his ſyght.

7 He ſtretcheth out the noorth ouer the empty place, & (d) hangeth the earth vpon nothing.

8 He byndeth the water in his cloudes, and the cloude is not broken vnder them.

9 (e) He holdeth backe the face of his throne, and ſpreadeth his cloude before it.

10 He hath compaſſed the waters with certayne boundes, (f) vntyl the day and nyght comme to an ende.

11 The (g) very pyllers of heauen tremble and quake at his reproofe.

12 He ſtylleth the ſea with his power, and through his wyſdome ſmyteth he yͤ ſtrength thereof.

13 His ſpirite hath (h) garniſhed the heauens, and his hande hath made (i) the crooked ſerpent.

14 Loe, this is nowe a (k) ſhort ſumme of his wayes: but howe litle a portion heare we of hym? Who can vnderſtande the thunder of his power.

(a) Here Job reprehendeth Bildad, for that he ſpeaketh not ynough to Gods prayſe, who needeth not mans woordes, neyther comforteth him, being voyde of comfort.

(b) That is, ſuch thynges are in the waters without lyfe, as mettalles, and ſuche lyke, wherein is expreſſed Gods great power.

(c) That is, it is open and moſt playne in his ſyght, for he ſeeth al thynges.

(d) The moſt excellent and myghtie power of God.

(e) His throne of Maieſtie which are the heauens, he couereth from vs.

(f) That is, ſo long as the worlde endureth.

(g) Not that heauen hath pillers, but by the pillers be vnderſtanded al thynges vnder heauen.

(h) That is, the wynde breakyng the cloudes, the heauens are cleare.

(i) That is, a circle in heauen, wyndyng round lyke a ſerpent, called Lacteus circulus.

(k) For though theſe fewe thynges of his power be wonderful, yet they are nothyng in comparison of the reaſt of his workes, whiche mans capacitie can not reache to.

The.xxvii.Chapter.

3 The conſtancie and perfectneſſe of Job. 13 The rewarde of the wicked, and of the tyrantes.

1 AND Job proceeded and went foorth in his parable, ſayeing,

2 (a) As God lyueth whiche hath taken away my iudgement, and the almyghtie that hath (b) vexed my mynde:

3 While my breath is in me, (c) and the wind that God hath geuen me, is in my noſtrels,

4 My lippes ſhal talke of no vanitie, and my tongue ſhal ſpeake no deceite.

5 God forbydde that I ſhoulde graunte your cauſe to be ryght: as for me, vntyl myne end comme, wyl (d) I neuer goe fro myne innocencie.

6 My righteous dealyng kepe I faſt, which I wyl not forſake: my hart ſhal not reproue me (e) of my dayes.

7 Therefore (f) myne enimie ſhalbe found as the vngodly, and he that taketh part againſt me, as the vnryghteous.

8 For (g) what hope hath yͤ hypocrite though he haue great good, if God take awaye his ſoule?

9 Wyl (h) God heare his crye, when trouble commeth vpon hym?

10 Hath he ſuche pleaſure and delite in the almyghtie, (i) that he dare alway calle vpon God?

11 I wyl teach you in the * name of God, and the thyng of the almyghtie wyl I not keepe from you.

12 (k) Beholde, al ye your ſelues haue ſeene it, why then doo ye thus vaniſhe in vanitie?

13 Sayeing, (l) This is the portion that the wicked haue of God, and the heritage that tyrantes ſhal receiue of the almyghtie.

14 If he geat many children, they ſhal periſhe with the ſwoord, and his poſteritie ſhal haue ſcarſeneſſe of bread.

15 His remnant ſhalbe buryed in death, and his wydowes ſhal not weepe.

16 Though he (m) heape vp ſyluer as the duſt, and prepare rayment as the clay:

17 He may wel prepare it, but the godly ſhal put it on, and the innocent ſhal deale out the money.

18 He (n) buyldeth his houſe as the moth, and as a booth that the watcheman maketh.

19 When the ryche man ſleepeth, he ſhal not be geathered [to his fathers,] they opened theyr eyes, and he was gonne.

20 Terrour taketh holde vpon hym (o) as a water fludde, and the tempeſt ſtealeth hym away in the nyght ſeaſon.

21 A (p) vehement eaſt wynde carryeth hym hence, & he departeth: a ſtorme hurleth hym out of his place.

22 God ſhal caſt vpon hym, and not ſpare, though he woulde fayne flee out of his hande.

23 Then clap men theyr handes at hym, and hiſſe at hym out of his place.

(a) This was the order of the Hebrues to ſweare.

(b) My afflictions are ſo greeuous, that men iudge me only by outward ſhew to be wicked.

(c) That is, as long as I lyue, I wyl not reſiſt the trueth, and offende God contrary to my promiſe, though menne ſay neuer ſo euyl of me.

(d) That is, I wyl not confeſſe that God plagues me for myne offence.

(e) Of my former lyfe paſt.

(f) That is, becauſe they reprehended me vnwoorthyly, they rather myght be accompted wicked, and the plague ſhal lyght on them, and be ryd from me.

(g) What auayleth it a man if he gain al the worlde, and looſe his owne ſoule.

(h) We haue no greater gyft of God, then the ſpirite of prayer, wherby if we pray, God doth here vs.

(i) The hypocrite neyther truſteth nor prayeth to God: yea though he pray, God wyl not heare hym.

(k) Gods ſecrete workes is layde before you, and yet your blyndeneſſe wyl not permit you to ſee it.

(l) That is, not only the wicked ſhalbe plagued, but alſo theyr poſteritie ſhalbe rooted out.

(m) As it is ſayde in the lawe, thou ſhalt buyld an houſe, and not dwel in it thy ſelfe, whiche is the plague of the wicked.

(n) Meaning, it ſhalbe weake, of ſmal eſtimation: and beyng lothed, ſhal ſoone decay.

(o) That is, moſt abundantly.

(p) That is, he ſhal ſodenly be blowen away by death, nor after death ſhal he be honorably buried: and this is the ende of the tyrantes.

* Or, hande.

The.xxviii.Chapter.

1 Iob ſheweth that the wyſedome of God is vnſearcheable.

A 1 There is a [a] place where ſiluer is brought out of, and where golde is tried,

2 Where iron is digged out of the ground, and [b] ſtones reſolued to metal.

3 [c] The darkneſſe that once comme to an ende: he can ſeeke out the grounde of al thinges, the ſtones, the darke, and the ſhadowe of death.

4 He cauſed the floodes to breake out agaynſt the inhabitant, and the waters forgotten of the foote, beyng hygher then man, are gonne away.

5 [d] Out of the ſame earth commeth bread, and vnder it as it were fyre is turned vp.

6 The [e] ſtones of it, are a place of Saphires, and the duſt of it is golde.

7 There is a way that the birdes knowe not, that no vultures eye hath ſeene:

8 Wherein the Lions whelpes walke not, and where no Lion commeth.

9 [There] [f] putteth he is hande vpon the ſtonie rockes, and ouerthroweth the mountaynes by the rootes.

10 Riuers flowe out of the rockes, and looke what is pleaſant, his eye ſeeth it.

11 He bindeth the floods, that they doo not ouerflowe: and the thing that is hyd, bringeth he to lyght.

12 Where then is wyſedome founde? and [g] where is the place of vnderſtandyng?

13 Verely no man can telle howe [h] worthy a thing ſhe is, neither is ſhe founde in the land of them that liue.

14 The deepe ſayth, She is not in me: the ſea ſayth, She is not with me.

15 She can not be gotten for gold, neither may the price of her be bought with any ſiluer.

16 No [i] wedges of golde of Ophir, no precious [k] Onix ſtones, no Saphires may be valued with her.

17 No, neither golde nor chriſtal ſhal be equal vnto it, nor her exchange ſhalbe for the plate of fine golde.

18 No mention ſhalbe made of Coral, nor of the Gabis: for wyſedome is more precious then pearles.

19 The [l] Topas of Ethiopia, ſhal not be equal vnto it, neither ſhal it be valued with the wedge of pure golde.

20 Whence then commeth wyſedome? and where is the place of vnderſtandyng?

21 She is hydde from the eyes of al menne liuing, yea and from the foules of the " ayre.

22 Deſtruction and death ſay, We haue heard the fame thereof with our eares.

23 But God ſeeth her way, and knoweth her place.

24 For he beholdeth the endes of the worlde, and looketh vpon al that is vnder heauen.

25 When he wayed the windes, and meaſured the waters:

26 When he made a decree for the raine, and a way for the lightninges of the thunder:

27 Then dyd he ſee her, then declared he her, prepared her, and knewe her.

28 And vnto man he ſayde, [m] To feare the Lorde is wyſedome, and to forſake euyl, is vnderſtandyng.

(a) Iob mooneth here, that though menne attayne to many ſecretes of nature, yet they are neuer hable to reach to the wyſedome of God which is vnſearcheable.
(b) For braſſe and leade groweth in the ſtones, which beyng mined vp, is called ore: and by vehement fire molte, the metal is ſeparate from ẏ ſtones.
(c) Here he deſcribeth gods ſecrete workes, thereby meanyng that al things ſhal haue an ende, ſauing the vnſercheable wyſedome of God.
(d) As the fruitful fieldes tilled & plowed bryngeth foorth corne: ſo it beyng deepely digged, there are founde ſtones, out of the which the fire is ſtroken.
(e) The Saphires doo ſhine with golden poyntes, ſo that here by Saphires is ment cloddes of golde. Al theſe thinges are found, but gods wyſedome who can reache?
(f) Here he ſheweth gods power: the earth may be digged, hilles ouerthrowen, a fountayne made among ſtones, riuers turned from their courſe: but gods wyſedome is not to be founde.
(g) Gods wyſedome is partly ſeene in theſe worldly thynges, but his heauenly wyſedome and ſecrete iudgement, is hydde and vnknowen to al menne.
(h) That is, it paſſeth mans capacitie to attayne to it.
(i) Ophir is the region by Ganges the riuer of India, ſo called of Ophir the ſonne of Iektan, who poſſeſſed the ſame with his brethren.
(k) This ſtone is founde in Ganges the riuer of India.
(l) Thus the wyſedome of gods maieſtie dooth farre excel al thinges.
" Or, heauen
(m) Meaning by this, that man hath ſo muche of this excellyng wyſedome of God, as he dooth ſhewe in vertue of liuing, due obedience and feare of hym.

The.xxix.Chapter.

1 Iob complaineth of the proſperitie of the time paſt. 7 His auethoritie, 12 iuſtice, and equitie.

A 1 So Iob proceeded, & went foorth in his parable, ſaying,

2 O that I were, as I was in the monethes by paſt, & in the dayes when God preſerued me:

3 When his [a] lyght ſhined vpon my head, when I went after the ſame light and ſhining, euen through the darkneſſe:

4 As it ſtoode with me when I was young, when God proſpered my houſe:

5 When the almighty was yet with me, when my chyldren ſtoode about me:

6 When my wayes [b] ranne ouer with butter, and when the ſtonie rockes gaue me riuers of oyle:

7 When I went out to the gate, euen to the iudgement ſeate, and when I prepared my ſeate in the ſtreete:

8 The [c] young menne ſawe me, and hydde them ſelues, and the [d] aged aroſe, and ſtoode vp.

9 The [e] princes leaft of their talking, and layed theyr hande to their mouth:

10 The myghty kept ſtil their voyce, and their tongue cleaued to the roofe of their mouth.

11 When the eare heard me, it bleſſed me: and

(a) That is, when as his fauour preſerued me.
(b) That is, when I hadde al thinges moſt abundantly. For milke and oyle ſignifie al plentifulneſſe: and here Iob deſcribeth his felicitie in times paſt, to the increaſe of his griefe.
(c) As a baſhed at his countenance, and aſhamed of their youthful lightneſſe.
(d) Knowyng both my wyſedome and eſtimation.
(e) Only to heare him for the great patience that appeared in him, excellyng the, cauſed theyr tongues to be in ſcilence.

When the eie ſawe me, it gaue witneſſe to me:

12 For I (f) deliuered the poore when he cryed, and the fatherleſſe, and hym that had none to helpe hym.

13 The bleſſing of him that was ready to periſhe, came vpon me, and I cauſed the wydowes hart to reioyce.

14 And why? I put vpon me righteouſneſſe, whiche couered me as a (g) garment, & equitie was my crowne.

15 I was an eye to the blinde, and a foote to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poore: and when I knew not yͤ cauſe, I ſought it out diligently.

17 I brake the (h) iawes of the vnrighteous man, and pluckt the ſpoyle out of his teeth.

18 Then I ſayde, I ſhal dye in my (i) neſt: and I ſhal multiplie my dayes as the ſande.

19 For my (k) roote was ſpread out by the water ſide: and the (l) deaw lay vpon my " corne.

20 Myne honour encreaſed more and more, and my bowe was " euer the ſtronger in my hande.

21 Vnto me menne gaue eare, me they regarded, and with ſcilence they taried for my counſel.

22 After my woordes they replied not, and my talke dropped vpon them.

23 They (m) wayted for me as for the raine: and gaped vpon me, as [the grounde doeth to receiue] the latter ſhoure.

24 When I laughed, they beleued it not, and the light of my countenance would they not put out.

25 When I agreed vnto their way, I was the chiefe, and ſate as a kyng with his armie about hym: and when they were in heauines, I was their comfortour.

(f) Becauſe Bildad and Sophar dyd ſo muche blame hym, he here yeeldeth accompt of his lyfe paſt.

(g) Iuſtice is to deliuer the poore: and iudgement is to pouniſhe the wicked: theſe two are in deede a kingly veſture and garment.

(h) That is, the tyranny.

(i) That is, in my bed, quietly without theſe plagues.

(k) That is, I haue al thynges plentifully that apparteyne to my neceſſaries.

(l) By the deawe is ſignified happy and proſperous eſtate, and by the corne is ment his chyldren, as though he would ſay, my poſteritie alſo ſhalbe in felicitie.

" Or, harueſt.

" Or, renued.

(m) Here is ſhewed of what excellencie, an vpright and vertuous lyfe is.

2 For whereto myght the ſtrength of (b) their handes haue ſerued me? for the tyme was but loſt among them.

3 For very (c) miſerie and hunger, they fledde into the wylderneſſe, a darke place, horrible and waſte,

4 Plucking vp nettles among the buſſhes, and the iuniper rootes for their meate.

5 And when they were driuen foorth, menne cryed after them, as it had ben after a thiefe.

6 Their (d) dwelling was in the cliefts of brookes, yea in the caues and dennes of the earth.

7 Among the buſſhes went they about crying, & vnder the thornes they geathered them ſelues togeather.

8 They were the chyldren of fooles and vyllaynes, whiche are more vile then the earth.

9 Now am I their (e) ſong, and am becomme theyr ieſtyng ſtocke.

10 They abhorre me, and flee from me, and ſtayne my face with ſpittle.

11 Becauſe God hath looſed my corde & humbled me, they haue looſed yͤ (f) bridle before me.

12 Vpon my (g) ryght hande ryſe the young menne agaynſt me, they haue hurt my feete, treadyng vpon me, as vpon the wayes of their deſtruction.

13 My (h) pathes haue they cleane marred, it was ſo eaſie for them to doo me harme, that they needed no man to helpe them.

14 They felle vpon me, as it had ben the breaking in of waters, and came in by heapes to deſtroy me.

15 Feare is turned vpon me, and they purſue my ſoule as the winde, and my health paſſeth away as (i) a cloude.

16 Therefore is my ſoule now powred out vpon me, and the dayes of my trouble haue taken holde vpon me.

17 My bones are pearſed through in the night ſeaſon, and my ſinowes take no reaſt.

18 For the vehemencie of ſorowe is my garment changed, which compaſſeth me about as the (k) coller of my coate.

19 He hath caſt me into the myre, and I am become lyke aſſhes and duſt.

20 When (l) I crye vnto thee, thou dooeſt not heare me: and though I ſtande before thee, yet thou regardeſt me not.

21 Thou art becomme mine enimie, and with thy violent hande, thou takeſt part agaynſt me.

22 [In times paſt] thou diddeſt (m) ſet me vp on high, to be caried as it were aboue the winde, [but nowe] haſt thou geuen me a very ſore falle.

23 Sure I am, that thou wylt bryng me vnto death, euen to the (n) lodging that is due vnto al men liuing.

24 Notwithſtanding, thou wilt not (o) ſtretch out thyne hande agaynſt him that is in the graue: ſhal menne crye out againſt him that is in deſtruction?

(a) Before is declared howe greatly God dooth bleſſe the godly, and here is ſhewed howe heauy a croſſe he layeth on them to proue them.

(b) They nowe deſpiſe me, whiche with al their powre when I was in proſperitie, could nothing helpe me, it was ſo weake.

(c) Here Iob declareth what abiectes they were that nowe reuiled hym, and ſheweth that they are wicked lyke vnto theyr fathers, whiche dyed yer they came to age.

(d) Shewing hereby theyr baſeneſſe and their pouertie, beyng ſuche outcaſtes: yet nowe they ſcorne Iob, whiche is a great greefe, to be mocked of ſuche.

(e) What great greefe is this, that Iob beyng once in hygh authoritie, nowe to be in miſerie, and mocked of ſuche vile villaynes.

(f) That is, ſeeyng me nowe in miſerie, not hable to correct thē, they ieſt and ſcorne at me without meaſure, as vnbrideled in theyr affectiōs.

(g) The ryght hande declareth felicitie, and the leaſt hande affliction and miſerie: ſo that Iob meaneth by the young menne that ryſe agaynſt hym on the ryght hande, that they tooke away his ſubſtance and his felicitie, as the Arabians dyd, as is before.

(h) That is, they ouerthrewe al my doynges without help of any other.

(i) That is, moſt ſwiftly.

(k) It is the maner among the Hebrues, to haue theyr garmentes ſowed rounde in euery part, ſauyng a hole only in the hygheſt of it, to put foorth the necke.

(l) Iob ſayth not this as blaming God, but greeuous affliction moued affection.

(m) That is, thou dydſt ſet me in high authoritie, and ſodenly thou putteſt me downe.

(n) Meanyng death, that ſhoulde bryng hym to the graue.

(o) He that is once dead, can no more be hurt.

25 Dyd not I weepe with him that was in trouble? Had not my ſoule compaſſion vpon the poore?

26 Yet neuertheleſſe, where as I looked for good, euyl came vnto me: and (p) where I wayted for light, there came darkneſſe.

(p) I ſte[a]de of comfort they gaue me mockes.

27 My bowels ſeethe in me without reaſt, for the dayes of my trouble are comme vpon me.

28 I went mournyng without heate, I ſtoode vp in the congregation, and (q) communed with them.

29 But nowe I am a brother of dragons, and a felowe of Eſtriches.

30 My ſkinne vpon me is [turned] to (r) blacke, and my bones are brent with heate.

31 My harpe is turned to mournyng, and my organs into the voyce of them that weepe.

(q) My [illegible] was ſo lamentable, and my crying ſo great, that I myght wel be called a companion of dragons and Eſtriches.
(r) with the heate of my ſore troubles.

The.xxxi.Chapter.

1 Iob reciteth the innocencie of his liuing, and number of his vertues, which he declareth what ought to be the lyfe of the faythful.

A 1 I Made a (a) couenant with mine eies: why then (b) should I loke vpon a mayden?

2 For howe great a portion ſhal I haue of God? and what inheritance from the almighty on hygh?

3 Is not deſtruction to the wicked? & ſtrange (c) puniſhment to the workers of iniquitie?

4 Dooth not he ſee my wayes, and tel al my goynges?

5 If I haue walked in (d) vanitie, or yf my feete haue runne to deceite:

6 Let me be wayed in an euen balance, that God may ſee myne innocencie.

7 If my ſteppe hath turned out of the way, and myne hart walked after myne eyes, and yf any blot haue cleaued to my handes:

8 Then ſhal I ſowe, & an other eate: yea my " poſteritie ſhalbe cleane rooted out.

9 If my hart haue benne deceiued by a woman, or yf I haue layed wayte at my neighbours doore:

10 Then let my wyfe (e) grinde vnto an other man, and let other menne " lye with her.

11 For this is a wickedneſſe, and ſinne that is woorthy to be pouniſhed:

12 Yea a (f) fire that vtterly ſhoulde conſume and roote out al my increaſe.

13 If I euer thought ſcorne to doo ryght vnto my ſeruantes and maydens, when they had any matter agaynſt me:

14 When God (g) wyl ſit in iudgement, what ſhal I doo? & when he wyl viſite me, what anſweare ſhal I geue hym?

15 He that (h) faſhioned me in my mothers wombe, made he not him alſo? Were we not both ſhapen a lyke in our mothers bodyes?

16 If I denied the poore of their deſyre, or haue cauſed the eyes of the wydowe to wayte in vaine:

17 If I haue eaten my (i) morſel alone, that the fatherleſſe hath not eaten thereof:

18 (For from my youth it hath growen vp with me as with a father, and from my mothers wombe I haue benne guyde to the [wydowe]

19 If I haue ſeene any periſhe for want of clothyng, or any poore for lacke of rayment: D

20 If his loynes haue not bleſſed me, becauſe he was warmed with ẏ fleece of my ſheepe.

21 If I haue lyft vp myne hande agaynſt the fatherleſſe, when I ſawe that I might helpe him in the gate:

22 Then let myne arme falle fro my ſhoulder, and myne arme holes be broken from the bone.

23 For I haue euer feared the vengeance and puniſhment of God, & [knewe very wel that] I was not hable to beare his burthen.

24 Haue I put my truſt in golde? or haue I ſaid to the wedge of gold, Thou art my confidence?

25 Haue I reioyced becauſe my power was great, and becauſe my hande gate ſo muche?

26 Dyd I euer greatly regarde the (k) ryſing of the ſunne? or had I the goyng downe of the moone in great reputation?

27 Hath my hart medled priuily with any deceite? or dyd I euer (l) kiſſe myne owne hande?

28 (That were a wickedneſſe woorthy to be pouniſhed: for then ſhoulde I haue denied the God that is aboue.)

29 Haue I euer reioyced at the hurt of myne enimie? or was I euer glad that any harme happened vnto him? [Oh, no.] E

30 I neuer ſuffered my mouth to ſinne, by wiſhing a curſe to his ſoule.

31 Dyd not the menne of myne owne houſeholde ſay, Who ſhal let vs to haue our belly ful of his fleaſhe?

32 The ſtranger dyd not lodge in the ſtreete, but I opened my doores vnto him that went by the way.

33 Haue I kept ſecrete my ſinne, and hydde myne iniquitie, as Adam dyd?

34 Though I coulde haue made afearde a

(a) In this Chapter Iob declareth his vpright liuing not to boſt agaynſt God, but to refel the falſe ſlaunder of his aduerſaries.
(b) The fleaſh was obedient to the ſpirite, neyther was he led with carnal deſire.
(c) Iob here ſheweth that the feare of God, dyd dryue hym from wickedneſſe.

(f) Though mans puniſhment for adulterie be omitted, yet gods plague wyl neuer ceaſt to conſume and roote it out.
(g) That is, yf I in lawe haue reiected the complaint of my ſeruant, what ſhoulde I doo when God calleth me to lawe?
(h) Iob expreſſeth the cauſe why he dyd pitie his ſeruantes, for that they had one creator, and both made of the ſame ſubſtance
(i) Meaning, that he hath ben beneficial to the poore to the fatherleſſe and wydowes
(k) By the riſing vp of the ſunne, and goyng downe of the moone, he meaneth the proſperitie and felicitie that he was in.

great [m] multitude, yet the moſt contemptible of the families dyd feare me: ſo I kept ſcilence, and went not out of the [n] doore.

35 O that I had one whiche would heare me: beholde my ſigne in the whiche the almighty ſhal anſweare for me, though he that is my contrary partie, hath written a booke agaynſt me.

36 Yet wyl I take it vpon my [o] ſhoulder, and as a garlande binde it about my head.

37 I wyl tel hym the number of my goinges, and goe vnto hym as to a [p] prince.

38 But yf caſe be that my lande [q] crye againſt me, or that the [r] forowes thereof make any complaint:

39 If I haue eaten the fruite thereof vnpayed for, yea yf I haue greeued the ſoules of the maiſters thereof:

40 Then let thiſtels growe in ſteede of my wheate, and cockle for my barlye.

[m] That is, I dyd not feare to doo iuſtice, eyther by geuing eare to the multitude, or to geat yͤ fauour of my frendes and kynred.

[n] Meaning that he dyd not holde his peace, or kepe at home in the iuſt ſuite or cauſe of any.

[o] That is, I wyl carie the booke that the aduerſarie ſhal make, vpon my ſhoulder, and wyl accept it for a great gyft, meanyng he would confeſſe his fault, yf he had offended.

[p] That is, with great reuerence.

[q] That is, yf the hyreling that hath laboured in the land, haue ben defrauded of his wages by me.

[r] That is, yf I haue by violence compelled my lande to be eared, and not geuen foode to the labourers.

Here ende the woordes of Iob.

The,xxxii,Chapter.

1 Elihu reprooueth them of folly. 8 Age maketh not a man wyſe, but the ſpirite of God.

A 1 SO theſe three menne ceaſſed to anſweare Job, [a] becauſe he helde hym ſelfe a ryghteous man.

2 But Elihu yͤ ſonne of Barachel the [b] Buzite, of the kinred of Ram, was very ſoare diſpleaſed at Job, becauſe he called him ſelfe iuſt before God.

3 And with Jobs three freendes he was angry alſo, becauſe they had founde no reaſonable anſweare, and yet condempned Job.

4 Nowe taried Elihu, tille they had ended their communication with Job: for why? they were elder then he.

5 So when Elihu ſawe that theſe three men were not hable to make Job anſweare, he was miſcontent.

6 Therefore Elihu the ſonne of Barachel the Buzite anſweared, and ſaide, [Conſydering that] I am young, and ye be menne of age, I was afrayde, and durſt not ſhewe foorth my minde.

7 For I thought thus within my ſelfe: " It becommeth olde men to ſpeake, and the " aged to teache wyſedome.

B 8 Euery man no doubt hath a minde, but it is the inſpiration of the almighty, that geueth vnderſtandyng.

9 Great menne are not alway wyſe, neyther dooth euery aged man vnderſtande " the thing that is lawful:

10 Therefore I ſay, heare me, and I wyl ſhew you alſo myne vnderſtandyng.

11 For when I had wayted til ye made an end of your talking, and heard your wyſedome, [c] what argumentes ye made in your communication,

12 Yea, when I had diligently pondred what ye ſayde, I founde not one of you that made any good argument agaynſt Job, that directly coulde make anſweare vnto his woordes, 13 Leſt ye ſhoulde ſay, We haue founde out wyſedome, [d] GOD ſhal caſt him downe, and no man.

C 14 He hath not ſpoken vnto me, and I wil not anſweare hym as ye haue donne.

15 For they were ſo abaſhed, that they coulde not make anſweare, nor ſpeake one woorde.

16 When I hadde wayted (for they ſpake not, but ſtoode ſtil, and anſweared no more:)

17 Then anſweared I in my turne, and I ſhewed myne opinion.

18 For I am ful of " matter, and the ſpirite within me compelleth me.

19 Beholde, my [c] belly is as the wine, which hath no vent, lyke the newe bottelles that bruſte.

20 [Therefore] wyl I ſpeake, that I may haue a vent: I wyl open my lippes, and make anſweare.

21 I wyl [f] regarde no manner of perſon, no man wyl I ſpare.

22 For yf I would goe about to [g] pleaſe men, I knowe not howe ſoone my maker would take me away.

[a] The Hebrues reade, was iuſt in his owne eyes.

[b] This Elihu deſcended frō Buz, who was the ſonne of Nahor, the brother of Abraham, or as in the Chaldees paraphras Abram.

" Or, the dayes ſhal ſpeake.

" Or, the multitude of yeeres ſhal.

" Or, iudgement.

[c] To proue Job pleadyng for his offences.

[d] And as though therefore it had ben wyſedome for them to holde their peace.

" Or, wordes.

[e] That is, I ſhoulde breake in the middes, yf I ſhoulde not ſpeake, my minde is ſo hot within me.

[f] I wyl ſay trueth, al thinges layde apart.

[g] The Hebrue word is, to alter the name, calling a rude man learned, or a wicked man iuſt.

The.xxxiii.Chapter.

5 Elihu accuſeth Iob of ignorance. 14 He ſheweth that God hath diuers meanes to inſtruct man, and to drawe hym from ſinne. 19 He afflicteth man, and ſodenly delivereth hym. 26 Man beyng deliuered, geueth thankes to God.

A 1 Wherefore heare my woordes, O Iob, and hearken vnto al that I wyl ſay:

2 Behold, I haue nowe opened my mouth, my tongue hath ſpoken in my throte.

3 My hart dooth order my woordes aryght, and my lippes talke of pure wyſedome.

4 The[(a)] ſpirite of God hath made me, and the breath of the almighty, hath geuen me my lyfe.

5 If thou canſt then geue me anſweare, prepare thee ſelfe, and ſtande before me face to face.

6 Beholde, [(b)] before God, I am euen as thou: for I am faſhioned & made, euen of the ſame molde.

7 Beholde, my terrour ſhal not feare thee, neither ſhal my hande be heauy vpon thee.

8 [(c)] Nowe haſt thou ſpoken in myne eares, and I haue heard the voyce of thy woordes:

9 I am cleane without any fault, I am innocent, and there is no wickedneſſe in me.

10 But loe, he hath piked a quarel againſt me, and taketh me for his enimie.

11 He hath put my foote in the ſtockes, and looketh narowly vnto al my pathes.

12 Behold, in this haſt thou not donne right, I wyl make anſweare vnto thee, that God is greater then man.

13 And why dooeſt thou then ſtriue agaynſt hym? for he ſhal not geue thee accomptes of al his woordes.

14 For God ſpeaketh [(d)] once or twyſe, and yet man vnderſtandeth it not.

15 In dreames and viſions of the night, when ſlumbring commeth vpon menne, that they fall a ſleepe in their beddes,

16 He roundeth them in the eares, and ſealeth their correction:

17 That he may withdrawe man from euyl enterpriſes, and deliuer hym from [(e)] pride,

18 And kepe his ſoule from the graue, and his lyfe from the ſwoorde.

19 He chaſteneth hym with ſickneſſe vpon his bedde, he layeth ſore pouniſhment vpon his bones:

20 So that his[(f)] life may away with no bread, and his ſoule abhorreth to eate any dayntie meate:

21 [(g)] In ſo muche, that his body is cleane conſumed away, and his bones appeare, which before were not ſeene.

22 His ſoule draweth vnto the graue, and his lyfe to " death.

23 Now [(h)] yf there be a meſſenger, one among a thouſand, ſent for to ſpeake vnto man, and to ſhewe hym the ryght way:

24 Then the Lord is merciful vnto hym, and ſayth, He ſhalbe deliuered, that he falle not downe to the graue: for I am ſufficiently reconciled.

25 Then ſhal his [(i)] fleaſhe be as freaſhe as a childes, and ſhal returne as in the dayes of his youth.

26 He ſhal pray vnto God, and he wyl be fauourable vnto hym, and he ſhal ſee his face with [(k)] ioy, for he wyl render vnto man his ryghteouſneſſe.

27 A reſpect hath he vnto menne, let man then ſay, I haue offended, I dyd vnryghteouſly, and[(l)] it hath donne me no good:

28 Yea, he hath deliuered my ſoule from deſtruction, and [(m)] my lyfe ſhal ſee the lyght.

29 Loe, al theſe woorketh God alway with man:

30 That he bring backe his ſoule from the graue to the light, yea the lyght of the liuing.

31 Marke wel, O Iob, and heare me: holde thee ſtil, and I wyl ſpeake.

32 But yf thou haſt any thing to ſay, then[(n)] anſweare me, and ſpeake: for I deſyre to iuſtifie thee.

33 If thou haſt nothing, then heare me, & hold thy tongue, & I ſhal teache thee wiſedome.

(a) There is cauſe why ye ſhoulde not deſpiſe me although I be young: for I am as you are, made by gods ſpirite, created of the earth, and receiue lyfe of hym.

(b) Iob before deſyred to pleade his cauſe before God without feare, therfore ſayth Elihu, I am here in gods ſteede, whom thou nedeſt not to feare: for I am made of the matter that thou art.

(c) I haue hearde the boaſt of thy righteous life, that thou art innocent and iuſt, therefore wyl I not proue thee wicked of thy former lyfe, but by theſe thy woordes.

(d) God ſpeaketh two manner of wayes vnto menne, eyther by ſleepe, or by his rodde of ſickneſſe, and other plagues.

(e) For to beate downe the pride of man, God ſendeth his plagues.

(f) That is, ſickneſſe that decayeth lyfe, can take no ſuſtenance.

(g) Here ſpeaketh he of the ſeconde way, whereby god ſpeaketh to man by afflictions.

" Or, to the buriers.

(h) If there be a meſſenger ſeene to declare gods wyl truely, and ſhewe his benefites one of a thouſande, & man regardeth the ſame: then wyl God haue mercie.

(i) The health of the body, is the bleſſing of God.

(k) He ſhal feele the comfort of the holy ghoſt.

(l) But it prouoked gods wrath vpon me.

(m) That is, my ſoule ſhal appeare cleare in the lande of the liuing.

(n) That is, to ſhewe thy ſelfe iuſt, and not wicked.

The.xxxiiii.Chapter.

5 Elihu chargeth Iob, that he calleth hym ſelfe righteous. 12 He ſheweth that God is iuſt in iudgementes. 24 God deſtroyeth the mighty. 30 By him the hypocrite raigneth.

A 1 Elihu proceedyng in his anſweare, ſayde,

2 Heare my woordes, O ye [(a)] wyſe men, hearken vnto me, ye that haue vnderſtandyng:

3 For the eare diſcerneth woordes, and the mouth taſteth the meates.

4 As for [(b)] iudgement, let vs ſeeke it out among our ſelues, that we may knowe what is good.

5 [And why?] Iob hath ſayde, I am ryghteous, and GOD hath [(c)] taken away my iudgement.

(a) Here Elihu prooueth that God can not be vniuſt, becauſe he is the iudge of the worlde, the gouernour and creator of al.

(b) Let vs ſcan the cauſe by reaſonyng in order of iuſtice.

(c) That is, he hath not dealt with me, accordyng to the equitie of my cauſe.

6 In my right, I ſhould be a lier: my wound is incurable without my fault.

(d) That is, for his fooliſhneſſe, he beareth the ſcornful reproofes of the mockers

7 Where is there ſuche a one as Iob, that (d) drinketh vp ſcornefulneſſe lyke water?

8 Whiche goeth in the companie of wicked dooers, and walketh with vngodly menne?

B

9 For he hath ſayde, It profiteth a man nothyng that he ſhoulde walke with God.

10 Therefore hearken vnto me, ye that haue vnderſtandyng: farre be it from God, that he ſhoulde meddle with wickedneſſe, and farre be it from the almyghty, that he ſhould meddle with vnryghteous dealing.

11 For he ſhal reward man after his workes, and cauſe euery man to finde accordyng to his wayes.

12 Sure it is, that God wyl not doo wickedly, neyther wyl the almyghty paruert iudgement.

13 Who ruleth the earth but he? or who hath placed the whole worlde?

C

14 If he ſet his hart vpon [man,] and geather vnto him ſelfe his ſpirite and his breath, 15 All fleaſhe ſhal comme to nought at once, and al menne ſhal turne agayne vnto duſt.

16 If thou nowe haue vnderſtandyng, heare what I ſay, and hearken to the voyce of my wordes:

(e) As though Elihu would ſay, is it meete that the vniuſt and wicked ſhalbe rulers, or innocentes commit wickedneſſe, or inferiours to controle princes, or ſubiectes to reſiſt the kyng: how muche leſſe then oughteſt thou to doo ſo to God, the kyng of al kynges.

17 May he be a (e) ruler that loueth not right? or may he that is a very innocent man doo vngodly?

18 Is it reaſon thou ſhouldeſt ſay to the king, Thou art wicked, or thou art vngodly, and that before the princes?

19 God hath no reſpect vnto the perſons of the lordly, and regardeth not the riche more then the poore: for they be al the worke of his handes.

(f) That is, ſodenly before they are aware of it.

20 In the (f) twinckling of an eye ſhal they dye, and at midnyght when the people and the tyrantes rage, then ſhal they periſhe, and be taken away without handes.

21 For his eyes looke vpon the waies of man, and he ſeeth al his goynges.

22 There is no darkneſſe nor ſhadow of death, that can hide the wicked dooers from hym.

23 For God wil not lay vpon man, more then he hath ſinned, that he ſhoulde enter into (g) iudgement with hym.

(g) For mans fraile nature can not reache to Gods inſearcheable ſecretes, and therefore muſt leaue thē with al humilitie.

24 He ſhal deſtroy the myghty without ſeeking, and ſhal ſet other in their (h) ſteede.

(h) God exalteth one, and humbleth an other, as the foure Monarches of the worlde for example, that is, of the Aſſyrians, of the Perſians, of the Gretians, and of the Romanes: as God dooth myghtyly, ſo dooth he iuſtly.

25 Therefore ſhal he declare their workes: he ſhal (i) turne the nyght, and they ſhalbe deſtroyed.

(i) That is, he ſhal bryng to lyght, that whiche lay in darkneſſe.

26 The vngodly dooth he pouniſhe (k) openly,

(k) That is, in the ſight of al menne.

27 Becauſe they turned backe from him, and woulde not conſyder al his wayes:

28 Inſomuche that they haue cauſed the voice of the (l) poore to comme vnto him, and now he heareth the complaint of ſuche as are in trouble.

(l) Through their cruel and vnmerciful handling of them.

29 When he geueth quietneſſe, who canne make trouble? and when he hydeth his face, who can beholde hym? whether it be vpon nations, or vpon one man only:

30 Becauſe the hypocrite dooth raigne, becauſe the people are ſnared.

31 Surely, of God only it can be ſayde, I haue pardoned, I wyl not deſtroy.

32 If I haue gonne amiſſe, enfourme thou me: If I haue donne wrong, I wyl leaue of.

33 Wyl he perfourme the thing through thee? for thou haſt reprooued his iudgement, thou alſo haſt thyne owne minde, and not I: But ſpeake on what thou knoweſt.

34 Let menne of vnderſtandyng telle me, and let a wyſe man hearken vnto me.

35 Iob hath not ſpoken of knowledge, neither were his wordes accordyng to wyſedome.

(m) Elihu dooth not wiſhe to Iob any euil, but deſireth God that he may acknowledge his offence, whiche can not be brought to paſſe, but by affliction.

″ Or, vnto the ende.

36 O (m) father, let Iob be ″ wel tryed, becauſe he hath anſweared for wicked menne:

37 Yea, aboue his ſinne he dooth wickedly, triumpheth among vs, and multiplieth his wordes agaynſt God.

The.xxxv.Chapter.

6 Neither dooth godlineſſe profite, or vngodlineſſe hurt God, but man. 18 The wicked crie vnto God, and are not hearde.

A

(a) Iob holdyng his peace, Elihu went on in his talke.

1 ELihu (a) ſpake moreouer, and ſayde,

2 Thinkeſt thou it ryght that thou ſayeſt, I am more ryghteous then God?

3 For thou ſayeſt, What aduauntage wyl it be vnto thee, and what profite ſhal I haue of my ſinne?

(b) To ſuche as are lyke to thee in obſtinacie, not leauing thy great errour.

4 Therfore wyl I geue anſweare vnto thee, and to thy (b) companions with thee.

(c) If the cloudes are higher then thou, howe muche more is God excelling thee in al.

5 Looke vnto the (c) heauen, & beholde it, conſyder the cloudes which are higher then thou.

(d) It dooth nothyng aduauntage God, whether we be good or euil, for he needeth not mans helpe, he is moſt mighty, his maieſtie is moſt glorious.

6 If thou haſt (d) ſinned, what haſt thou donne agaynſt him? If thyne offences be many, what haſt thou donne vnto him?

(e) As though he would ſay, yf we doo good, it is our owne: yf we doo euil, it is ours alſo.

7 If thou be (e) ryghteous, what geueſt thou him? or what wyl he receiue of thine hande?

8 Thy wickednes [may hurt] a man as thou art, and thy ryghteouſneſſe [may profite] the ſonne of man.

9 They whiche are oppreſſed, crye out vpon the multitude, yea they crye out for the power of the myghtie:

10 But (f) none ſayth, Where is god that made me? and that geueth * vs occaſion to praiſe hym in the nyght?

11 Whiche teacheth vs more then the beaſtes of the earth, and geueth vs more wyſedome then the foules of heauen.

12 If any (g) ſuche complayne, no man geueth anſweare, and that becauſe of the wickednes of proude tyrantes.

13 For God wyl not heare vanitie, neither wil the almyghtie regarde it.

14 Although thou ſayeſt [to God] thou wylt not regarde it: yet iudgement is before hym, truſt thou in hym.

C

15 But nowe becauſe his anger hath not (h) viſited, neyther called menne to accompt with great extremitie:

16 Therefore dooth Iob open his mouth but in vayne, and he maketh manye woordes without knowledge.

(f) Iob ſayde before, that God ſeemed not to haue care of mortal thynges: by proofe, becauſe that the wicked are in proſperitie, and the godly are afflicted. But Elihu refelleth that, ſeyeing: The cauſe of theyr plague is, for that they calle not to God, nor pray, nor truſt in hym.

* Or, ſonges.

(g) That is, God heareth them not, becauſe they pray not hartily to hym in fayth.

(h) For if god ſhould plague Iob accordyng to his deſart, he were not able to ſpeake: but becauſe God is fauourable, Iob ſpeaketh ſo vnwyſely.

The.xxxvi.Chapter.

1 Elihu ſheweth the power of God, 6 and his iuſtice, 9 and wherefore he pouniſheth.
13 The propertie of the wicked.

A

1 ELihu alſo proceeded, and ſayde,

2 Holde thee ſtylle a little, & I ſhal ſhew thee what I haue yet to ſpeake on Gods behalfe.

3 I wyl open vnto thee yet farre higher knowledge, & wyl aſcribe ryghteouſneſſe vnto my maker.

4 And truely my woordes ſhal not be vaine, ſeeyng he is with thee that is (a) perfect in knowledge.

5 Beholde, the great God caſteth awaye no man, for he hym ſelfe is (b) myghtie in power and wyſedome.

6 As for the vngodly he ſhal not preſerue him, but ſhal helpe the poore to theyr ryght.

7 He ſhal not turne his eyes awaye from the ryghteous, but as (c) kynges ſhal they be in theyr throne, he ſhal ſtabliſhe them for euer, and they ſhalbe exalted.

8 But yf they be layde in chaynes, or bounde with the bondes of trouble,

9 Then wyl he (d) ſhewe them theyr woorke, and theyr ſynnes whiche haue ouercomme them.

10 He with pouniſhyng & nurturing of them, roundeth them in the eares, warneth them to leaue of from theyr wickedneſſe, and to amende.

11 If they nowe wil take heede and ſerue him, they ſhal weare out theyr dayes in proſperitie, and theyr yeeres in pleaſure.

12 But if they wyl not hearken, they ſhal goe through the ſwoorde, and periſhe or euer they be aware.

13 As for (e) hypocrites in harte, they ſhal heape vp wrath [for them ſelues] for they cal not vpon hym, though they be his pryſoners.

(a) And therfore credite my ſayeinges, for I comme to pleade for Gods cauſe.

(b) And therfore he wyl not deſtroy the iuſt, the wyſe, and the godly, ſeeyng they are therein lyke vnto hym.

(c) So God dooth exalt the godly, and they that loue hym.

(d) If he ſhal plague the ryghteous, he wyl declare the cauſe of the ſame.

(e) Hypocrites that confeſſe God in theyr mouthes, and not in theyr hartes, wyl not acknowledge theyr offence, and ſo runne into deſperation, and confuſion.

14 Thus ſhal theyr ſoule periſhe in * fooliſhnes, and theyr lyfe among the fornicatours.

15 The poore ſhal he deliuer out of his affliction, and * rounde them in the eare when they be in trouble.

16 Euen ſo woulde he take thee out of the ſtraite place, into a broade place in the which there is no ſtraytneſſe: yea, and make thy table quiet, repleniſhed with fatneſſe.

17 Neuertheleſſe, (f) thou haſt commended the iudgement of the vngodly, & euen ſuche a iudgement and ſentence ſhalt thou ſuffer.

18 And ſeeyng there is (g) wrath with God, beware leſt he take thee away in thy wealth, and al that thou haſt to redeeme thee, can not deliuer thee.

19 Thynkeſt thou that he wyl regarde thy rycheſſe? he ſhal not care for golde, nor for al them that excel in ſtrength.

20 (h) Spend not ẏͤ night in careful thoughtes, howe he deſtroyeth ſomme, and bryngeth other in theyr place.

21 But beware that thou turne not aſyde to wickedneſſe and ſynne, whiche hytherto thou haſt choſen more then affliction.

22 Behold, (i) God is of a mightie hygh power: Where is there ſuche a guyde, and lawe geuer as he?

23 Who wyl reproue hym of his way? Who wil ſay vnto him, Thou haſt donne wrong?

24 Remember that thou doo magnifie his woorke whiche menne doo prayſe, 25 Al menne ſee it, yea menne doo beholde it a farre of.

26 Behold, ſo great is God, that he paſſeth our knowledge, (k) neyther can the number of his yeeres be ſearched out.

27 Sometyme he reſtrayneth the rayne, and agayne he ſendeth rayne by his cloudes:

28 Whiche rayne the cloudes doo droppe, and let fal abundantly vpon menne.

* Or, youthfulneſſe.

* Or, open theyr eare.

(f) Thou haſt alowed the counſayle of the wicked, and layd aſide the counſayle of God as vniuſt.

(g) Meaning, thou ſhalt be in paynes, which can not be releaſſed for any price.

(h) That is, do not wickedly, waytyng a tyme to doo euyl, as the robbers in the nyght, or muſe not when thou art ſolitarie in the nyght, why ſomme people doo periſh, and ſomme doo not, for therin thou offendeſt, becauſe it belongeth to the ſecrecie of gods maieſtie.

(i) What lawe maker then is more iuſt then he, for he gaue the holy and immaculate lawe, who durſt then to cal hym vniuſt?

(k) For he is God from euerlaſtyng, without beginning or endyng.

29 Who can conſyder the (l) ſpreadinges out of his cloudes, the coueringes of his tabernacle?
30 Beholde, he dooth ſtretche his lyght vpon it, and couereth the bottome of the ſea.
31 For by theſe gouerneth he his people, and geueth them abundance of meate.
32 With the cloudes he hydeth the lyght, and at his commaundement it breaketh out:
33 Whiche daſhing vpon the nexte cloudes, ſhewe tokens of wrath.

(l) Gods maieſtie is wonderfully declared in his creatures

The.xxxvii.Chapter.

2 Elihu proueth that the vnſearcheable wyſedome of God is manifeſt by his woorkes, 4 as by the thunders, 6 the ſnowe, 9 the whyrle wynde, 11 and the rayne.

A 1 At (a) this alſo my hart is aſtonied, and moued out of his place.

2 Heare (b) then the ſound of his voyce, & the noyſe that goeth out of his mouth.

3 He directeth it vnder the whole heauen, and his lyght vnto the endes of the worlde.

4 A roaryng voyce foloweth it, for his glorious Maieſtie geueth a thunder clappe, and he wyl not ſtay when his voyce is hearde.

5 God thundereth marueylouſly with his voyce, great thynges dooth he, whiche we can not comprehend.

6 He commaundeth the ſnow, & it falleth vpon earth: he geueth the rayne a charge, and the ſhowres haue their ſtrength, & fal downe.

7 With the force of the rayne he ſhutteth mē vp, that al men may knowe his (c) woorkes.

8 The beaſtes (d) creepe into theyr dennes, & remayne in theyr places.

9 Out of the ſouth commeth the tempeſt, and colde out from the north wynde.

10 At the (e) breath of God the hoare froſt is geuen, and the broade waters are froſen.

11 He maketh the (f) cloudes to labour in geuing moyſteneſſe, and agayne with his (g) lyght he dryueth away the cloude.

12 He turneth yͤ heauens about by his gouernement, that they maye doo whatſoeuer he (h) cōmaundeth them vpon the whole worlde, 13 Whether it be for pouniſhemente, or for his lande, or to doo good to them that ſeeke him.

14 Hearken vnto this, O Job, ſtand ſtyl, and conſyder the woonderous woorkes of God.

15 Dyddeſt thou knowe when God diſpoſed them? & cauſed the lyght of (i) his cloudes to ſhyne?

16 Haſt thou knowen yͤ varietie of the cloudes, and the woonderous woorks of him which is perfect in knowledge?

17 And howe thy clothes are warme, when the lande is ſtyl through the ſouth wynde?

18 Haſt thou healped hym to ſpreade out the heauens, whiche are ſtrong and bryght as a (k) lookyng glaſſe?

19 Teache vs what we ſhal ſaye vnto hym: for we are vnmeete to frame our talke, becauſe of (l) darkeneſſe.

20 Shal it be tolde hym what I ſaye? Shal man ſpeake when he ſhal be deſtroyed?

21 For menne ſee not the lyght that ſhineth in the cloudes: but the wynde paſſeth & cleanſeth them.

22 The fayre weather commeth out of the north, the prayſe thereof is to God, who is terrible.

23 It is the almyghtie, we can not fynde hym out: he is excellent in power and iudgement, and abundant in Juſtice: he afflicteth not.

24 Let menne therefore (m) feare hym: for there ſhal no man ſee hym, that is wyſe in his owne conceit.

(a) That is, at Gods wonderful creatures, as the thunder, and ſuche lyke.
(b) As though he would ſay, the thunder is the dreadful voyce of God.
(c) Whiche woorkes are as it were a confirmation of Gods maieſtie: for as ſoone as the thunder commeth, they flee for feare, wherein they ſhewe theyr owne weakenes, and doo witneſſe a maieſtie of God on hygh.
(d) Not onely manne, but beaſtes alſo are witneſſes of Gods power and maieſtie, when thei runne to their dennes for feare of the thunder.
(e) Meaning, the wyndes whiche are called the breath of God, which as they blow whot or colde, ſo they friſe or thawe the waters, makyng them leſſer and greater.
(f) That is, togeather vapours from the earth, & to powre them downe at gods pleaſure, to the watryng of the ſame. (g) That is, he ſcattreth the cloudes abroade with the lyghtenynges that are incloſed in them. (h) Gods creatures are al at his becke to do his pleaſure, eyther to plague any land of his, or to doo good to any.
(i) That is, the lyghtnyng.
(k) For the cleareneſſe or bryghtneſſe of them.
(l) That is, of our ignorance.
(m) Meaning to Job.

The.xxxviii.Chapter.

God ſpeaketh to Job, and declareth the weakenes of man in the conſyderation of his creatures, by whoſe excellencie, the power, iuſtice, and prouidence of the creator is knowen.

A 1 Then anſweared the Lord vnto Job out of the (a) whyrle wynde, and ſayde,

2 What is he that (b) darkneth his counſayle by woordes without knowledge?

3 Gyrde vp thy (c) loynes lyke a man: for I wyl queſtion with thee, ſee thou geue me a direct anſweare.

4 Where waſt thou when I (d) layde the fundations of the earth? Telle playnely, if thou haſt vnderſtandyng.

5 Who hath meaſured it, knoweſt thou? or who hath (e) ſpread the lyne vpon it?

6 Whereupon are the (f) fundations ſet? or who hath layde the (g) corner ſtone thereof?

7 Where waſt thou whē the morning ſtarres prayſed me togeather, and al the chyldren of God reioyced triumphantly?

8 Who (h) ſhut the ſea with doores, when it brake foorth as out of the wombe?

9 When I made the cloudes [to be] a couerynge for it, (i) and ſwadled it with the darke:

10 When I gaue it my commaundement, makyng doores and barres for it,

11 Sayeing,

(a) To ſhewe his maieſtie, and to inſtruct Job, before whō he ſpake.
(b) That ſpeaketh ſo couertly and obſcurely.
(c) That is, prepare thee ſelfe to anſweare.
(d) Inferring by this, that if he could not conceiue gods woonderful woorkes, much leſſe his vnſearcheable wyſedome.
(e) That is, compaſſed the earth with his bondes.
(f) Meaning, the handes of God, whiche holde vp as a pyller the heauens and the earth that it falleth not.
(g) That is, who layde the fundations of the earth, and made it ſo ſtedfaſt that it falleth not.
(h) That is, who after the creation ſhut vp the ſeas within theyr limits as with doores.
(i) As though the huge ſeas were but a weake chylde in gods hand, to rule at his pleaſure.

11 Sayeing, hytherto ſhalt thou comme, but no further: and here ſhalt thou laye downe thy proud and hye waues.

12 Haſt thou geuen the mornyng his charge ſince thy dayes, and ſhewed the day ſpryng his place, 13 That it might take hold of the " corners of the earth, and that the vngodlye myght be ſhaken out of it?

* Or, wyngs

14 (k) They are faſhioned as the claye with the ſeale, and al ſtande vp as a garment,

15 The vngodly ſhalbe diſappoynted of theyr lyght, and " the arme of the proude ſhalbe broken.

(k) Though the vngodly truſt in theyr eſtate to endure long, yet they ſhalbe as weake as clay, and as a garment, ſhal ſoone periſhe.

* Or, the hygh arme.

16 (l) Cameſt thou euer into the " grounde of the ſea, or walkedſt in the lowe corners of the deepe?

17 Haue the gates of death ben opened vnto thee? or haſt thou ſeene the doores of the ſhadowe of death?

18 Haſt thou alſo perceiued howe broade the earth is? If thou haſt knowledge of al this:

19 Then ſhew me the way where lyght dwelleth, and where is the place of darkeneſſe?

(l) A iudge ought to be ſkylful in the cauſe that he iudgeth: but ſeeyng thou knoweſt none of theſe things that are viſible, why wylt thou preſume to iudge of thynges inuiſible?

* Or, bottoms.

20 That thou ſhouldeſt receiue it in the boundes thereof, and knowe the pathes to theyr houſes.

21 Kneweſt thou afore thou waſt borne, how olde thou ſhouldeſt be?

22 (m) Wenteſt thou euer into the treaſures of the ſnowe, or haſt thou ſeene the ſecret places of the hayle,

(m) No man can goe in the place where the ſnowe is gendred: muche leſſe may Iob clyme vp to heauen to knowe Gods ſecretes.

23 Whiche I haue prepared agaynſt the tyme of trouble, agaynſt the tyme of batayle and warre?

24 By what way is the light parted? and into what lande breaketh the eaſt wynde?

25 Who diuideth the waters into diuers chanels? or who maketh a way for the lyghtnyng and thunder,

26 To cauſe it rayne on the earth where no man is, and in the wyldernesse where none inhabiteth?

E

27 To ſatiſfie the deſolate and waſte ground, and to cauſe the bud of the hearbe to ſpryng foorth.

28 Who is the (n) father of the rayne? or who hath begotten the droppes of the deawe?

29 Out of whoſe wombe came the yce? who hath gendred the " coldeneſſe of the ayre?

(n) Meaning God is the creator and maker of al thynges.

* Or, froſt of the heauen.

* Or, ſomme reade, harde.

30 That the waters are " hydde as [with] a ſtone, and lye congealed aboue the deepe.

31 Wylt thou hynder the ſweete influences of the ſeuē ſtarres? or looſe the bandes of Orion?

32 Canſt thou bryng foorth Mazzaroth in theyr tyme? canſt thou alſo guyde Arcturus with his ſonnes?

33 Knoweſt thou the courſe of heauen, that thou mayeſt ſet vp (o) the ordinance thereof vpon the earth?

(o) The influence.

34 Moreouer, canſt thou lifte vp thy voyce to the cloudes, that they maye powre downe a great rayne vpon thee.

35 Canſt thou ſende the lyghtnynges alſo that they may goe their way and be obedient vnto thee, ſayeing, Loe here are we?

36 Who hath put wyſedome in the reynes? or who hath geuen the hart vnderſtandyng?

37 Who numbreth the cloudes in wyſedome? who ſtylleth the vehement " waters of the heauen?

* Or, bottels.

38 (p) To cauſe the earth to growe into hardeneſſe, and the clottes to cleaue faſt togeather?

39 (q) Wylt thou hunt the praye for the lion? or fylle the appetite of the lions whelpes, 40 When they couche in theyr places, and tarry in the couert to lye in wayte?

41 Who prouideth meate for the rauen, when his young ones crye vnto God, & flee about for lacke of meate?

(p) For ſo groweth the earth by the want of raine.

(q) After he had ſhewed his maruailes aboue, he commeth to the earthly creatures, as though God woulde ſaye. The thynges on the cloudes are vnknowen to thee, yea euen thynges on earth thou durſt not doo, howe muche leſſe then durſt thou to reache to gods ſecrete wyſedome.

The.xxxix.Chapter.

1 The bountie and prouidence of God, whiche extendeth euen to beaſtes, geueth man ful occaſion to put his confidence in God.

A 1 KNoweſt thou the tyme when the wylde goates bryng foorth their young among the ſtony rockes? or (a) layeſt thou wayte when the hyndes vſe to calue?

(a) He chiefly reciteth theſe beaſtes, for they bryng foorth theyr younglinges with greateſt payne.

2 Canſt thou number the monethes that they goe with young? or knoweſt thou the time when they bryng foorth?

3 They lye downe, they calue theyr young ones, and they are deliuered of theyr trauaile and payne:

4 Yet theyr young ones growe vp, and waxe fatte through good feedyng with corne: They goe foorth, and returne not agayne vnto them.

5 Who letteth the wylde Aſſe to goe free? or who looſeth the bondes of the wylde mule?

6 Euen I whiche haue geuen the wyldernesse to be theyr houſe, and the (b) vntylled land to be theyr dwellyng.

7 They (c) force not for the multitude of people in the citie, neyther regarde the cryeing of the dryuer:

8 But ſeeke theyr paſture about the mountaynes, and folowe the greene graſſe.

9 Wyl the (d) Unicorne doo thee ſeruice, or a-byde

(b) Somme reade, ſalt places, meanyng barraine grounde.

(c) For the wylde aſſe is of al beaſtes moſt vntameable.

(d) If thou canſt not rule the Unicorne, canſt thou knowe Gods ſecretes, or appoynt hym to doo thy wyl hyde ſtyl by thy cribbe?

10 Canſt thou bynde the yoke about the Unicorne in the forowe, to make hym plowe after thee in the valleys?

11 Mayeſt thou truſt him becauſe he is ſtrong, or commit thy labour vnto hym?

11 Mayeſt thou beleue hym that he wyl bring home thy " corne, or carrye any thyng vnto thy barne?

13 Gaueſt thou the fayre wynges vnto the Pecockes, or wynges and feathers vnto the Eſtriche?

C 14 For ſhe leaueth her egges in the earth, and heateth them in the duſt.

15 She remembreth not that they myght be troden with feete, or broken with ſomme wylde beaſt.

16 So harde is ſhe vnto her young ones, as though they were not hers, and (e) laboureth in vayne without any feare.

17 And that becauſe God hath (f) taken wyſedome from her, and hath not geuen her vnderſtandyng.

18 When her time is that ſhe fleeth vp on high, ſhe careth neyther for the horſe, nor the ryder.

19 (g) Haſt thou geuen the horſe his ſtrength, or learned hym to ney couragiouſly?

20 Canſt thou make hym afrayde as a Graſhopper? Where as the ſtoute neying that he maketh is fearful.

21 He breaketh the grounde with the hooves of his feete, he reioyceth chearefullye in his ſtrength, and runneth to meete the harneſſe menne.

22 He layeth aſide al feare, his ſtomacke is not abated, neyther ſtarteth he backe for anye ſworde.

23 Though the quyuers rattle vpon hym, though the ſpeare and ſhielde glyſter:

24 Yet ruſheth he in fiercelye beatyng the grounde, he thynketh it not the noyſe of the trumpettes:

25 But when the trumpettes make moſte noyſe, he ſayth, " Tuſhe, for he ſmelleth the batayle a farre of, the noyſe of the captaynes, and the ſhoutyng.

26 Commeth it through thy wyſedome that the Goſhauke fleeth towarde the (h) South?

27 Dooth the Egle mount vp, and make his neſt on hygh at thy commaundement?

28 He abydeth in ſtonye rockes, and dwelleth vpon the hygh toppes of mountaynes:

29 From whence he ſeeketh his praye, and looketh farre about with his eyes.

30 His young ones alſo ſucke vp blood: and where any dead body lyeth, there is he.

The.xl.Chapter.

2 Howe weake mans power is, beyng compared to the workes of God, 10 whoſe power appeareth in the creation and gouernyng of the great beaſtes.

A 1 Moreouer the Lord ſpake vnto Job, and ſayde,

2 Shal he whom the almyghtie wyl chaſten, contende with hym? Shoulde not he whiche diſputeth with god, geue hym an anſweare?

3 Then Job (a) anſweared the Lord, ſayeing,

4 Behold, I am vyle, what ſhal I anſweare thee, [therefore] I wyl laye my hande vpon my mouth.

5 Once haue I ſpoken, but I wyl ſaye no more: yea twyſe, but I wyl procede no further.

6 Then anſweared the Lorde vnto Job out of the whirle wynde, and ſayde,

B 7 Gyrd vp thy loynes now lyke a man: I wil demaunde of thee, & make thou anſweare.

8 Wylt thou (b) diſanul my iudgement? or wylt thou condemne me, that thou mayeſt be ryghteous?

9 Is thy " power then like yͤ power of God? maketh thy voyce a ſounde as his dooth?

10 Decke thee ſelfe nowe with excellencie and maieſtie, and aray thee ſelfe with (c) beautie and glory:

11 Caſt abrode the indignation of thy wrath, & beholde euery one that is proud, & abaſe him:

12 Looke on euerye one that is arrogant, and bryng hym lowe, and deſtroy the wicked in theyr place.

13 Hyde them in the duſt togeather, and couer theyr faces in (d) ſecrete:

14 Then wyl I confeſſe vnto thee alſo, that (e) thyne owne ryght hande ſhal ſaue thee.

15 Beholde the beaſt (f) Behemoth, whom I made with thee, which eateth hay as an oxe:

16 Loe how his ſtrength is in his loynes, and what power he hath in yͤ nauil of his body.

17 When he wyl, he ſpreadeth out his tayle lyke a Cedar tree, al his ſinowes are ſtiffe.

18 His bones are lyke pipes of braſſe, yea his bones are lyke ſtaues of iron.

19 He is the chiefe of the wayes of God, he that made hym wyl make his ſword to approch vnto hym.

20 Surely the mountaines bryng him foorth graſſe, where al the beaſtes of the fielde take theyr paſtyme.

21 He reaſteth hym in the ſhade, in the couerte of the reede, and fennes.

22 The

" Or, ſeede.

(e) The Eſtriche when ſhe hath hatched her egs, hydeth them in the ſande, and by the heate of the ſunne the young are brought forth, but ſhe leaueth the egges as carleſſe, forgeattyng the place where ſhe put them, and ſo her labour is vayne.

(f) To be natural towarde her owne.

(g) Thus in al creatures, the glory of Gods Maieſtie is declared.

" Or, ha ha.

(h) That is flee into the regions that are whot when colde commeth.

(a) Here Job confeſſeth his offence, and durſt not ſpeake: for when God dooth reprehend, who can anſweare?

(b) Meaning, that for a man to accompt him ſelfe iuſt, is to accuſe God for vniuſt.

" Or, arme.

(c) Whiche no man is able to doo, for theſe thynges are only perteynyng to God.

(d) That is, cauſe them to dye, if it lye in thy power.

(e) Whiche God can only doo, and therefore truſtyng in thine owne ſtrength, thou compareſt with God.

(f) The Hebrues ſay, Behemoth ſignifieth an Oliphant, ſo called for his hugeneſſe, by the whiche may be vnderſtand the deuil.

22 The trees couer hym with theyr ſhadowe, and the wyllowes of the brooke compaſſe hym about.

23 Beholde, he drynketh vp whole riuers, and feareth not, he thynketh that he can drawe vp Jordane into his mouth.

24 He taketh it with his eyes, and yet the hunter putteth (a) a brydle into his noſe.

25 Canſt thou drawe out (b) Leuiathan with an hooke? or bynde his tongue with a corde?

26 Canſt thou put an hooke in the noſe of him, or bore his iawe through with a " naule?

27 Wyl he make manye fayre woordes with thee [thynkeſt thou] or flatter thee?

(a) Meaning, he is inuiſible amongſt men, yet God can leade hym.
(b) Leuiathan is a whale.
" Or, angle.

28 Wyl he make a couenant with thee? or wylt thou take hym for a ſeruant for euer?

29 Wylt thou take thy paſtime with hym as with a byrde, wylt thou bynde hym for thy maydens?

30 That thy companions may make a refection of hym: or ſhal he be parted among the marchantes?

31 Canſt thou fyl the baſket with his ſkynne? or the fiſhe (c) pannier with his head?

32 Laye thyne hande vpon hym, remember the batayle, and doo no more ſo.

33 Beholde his hope is in vayne: for ſhal not one periſhe euen at the ſyght of hym?

(c) For it is daungerous to truſt Satan in any thyng, yea it is hurtful to touche hym, for Leuiathan repreſenteth Satan.

The. xli. Chapter.

1 By the greatneſſe of this monſter Leuiathan, God ſheweth his greatneſſe and his power, whiche nothyng can reſiſt.

A 1 NO (a) man is ſo fierce that dare ſtirre him vp: Who is able to ſtand before me?

2 Or who hath geuen me any thing aforehand, that I maye rewarde hym agayne? al thynges vnder heauen are myne.

(a) If the creature can not be reſiſted, who can compare with the creator?

3 I wyl not keepe ſecrete his greate ſtrength, his power, nor his comely proportion.

4 Who can diſcouer the face of his garment? or who ſhal comme to hym with a double brydle?

5 Who (b) ſhal open the doores of his face? for he hath horrible teeth rounde about.

(b) That is, who dare looke in his mouth.

6 His ſcales are as it were ſtrong ſhieldes, ſo faſtened togeather as if they were ſealed:

B 7 One is ſo ioyned to another, that no ayre can comme in:

8 Yea, one hangeth ſo vpon another, & ſticketh ſo togeather, that they can not be ſundred.

9 His (c) neeſinges make a gliſtering lyke fire, and his eyes lyke the " mornyng ſhyne.

10 Out of his mouth goe torches, and ſparkes of fyre leape out.

(c) That is, he ſpouteth out flames of fyre out of his mouth.
" Or, eye liddes of the mornyng.

11 And out of his noſthrilles there goeth a ſmoke, lyke as out of an hot ſeethyng pot, or caldron.

12 His breath maketh the coales burne, and the flame goeth out of his mouth.

13 In his (d) necke there remayneth ſtrength, and nothyng is to labourous for hym.

14 The members of his bodye are ioyned [ſo ſtraight one to another,] and cleaue ſo faſte togeather, that he can not be moued.

15 His (e) hart is as hard as a ſtone, & as faſt as " the ſtithie that the Smyth ſmyteth vpon.

16 When he goeth, the myghtie are afrayde, and feare troubleth them.

(d) For Satan is the prince of the worlde, who ouercame by action: but Chriſte ouerthrewe his kyngdome by his paſſion.
(e) Satan is called harde of harte, becauſe he is vnmerciful, cruel, and vntreatable.
" Or, the nether mylſtone.

17 If any man drawe out a ſwoorde at him, it ſhal not hurt hym, there may neyther ſpeare, iauelyn, nor breſtplate, abyde hym.

18 He ſetteth as muche by iron as by a ſtraw, and as much by braſſe, as by a rotten ſticke.

19 He ſtarteth not away from hym that bendeth the bowe: and as for ſlyng ſtones, he careth as muche for ſtouble as for them.

20 He counteth the dartes no better then a ſtrawe, he laugheth hym to ſcorne that ſhaketh the ſpeare.

21 (f) Sharpe ſtones are vnder hym lyke potſheardes, and he lyeth vpon ſharpe thynges as vpon the ſoft myre.

22 He maketh the (g) deepe to boyle lyke a pot, & ſtirreth the ſea togeather like an oyntment.

23 He maketh the (h) path to be ſeene after him, and he maketh the deepe to ſeeme al hoarie.

24 Upon earth there is no power lyke vnto his: for he is ſo made that he feareth not.

25 He beholdeth al the hygh thynges, (i) he is a kyng ouer al the chyldren of pryde.

(f) For the hardneſſe of his ſkynne is ſuche, that he lyeth vpon it without payne as in the ſofte myre.
(g) He ſpouteth out the water in ſuche ſorte, that the ſeas ſeeme to boyle.
(h) With a white froth vpon the water.
(i) He deſpiſeth al, and is proudeſt of al.

6 The repentance of Job. 9 He prayeth for his friendes, 12 and his goodes are reſtored double vnto hym.

A 1 THen Job anſweared the lord, and ſayde,

2 I knowe that thou haſt power ouer al thynges, & that there is no thought hid vnto thee.

3 For who can keepe his owne counſayle ſo ſecrete, but it ſhalbe knowen? Therfore haue I ſpoken that I vnderſtoode not, euen the thynges that are to woonderful for me, and paſſe myne vnderſtanding.

4 O (b) hearken thou vnto me alſo, and let me ſpeake: anſweare vnto the thyng that I wyl aſke thee.

(a) Job confeſſeth the omnipotencie of God, and bewayleth his offence, that he he ſpake he wiſt not what

(b) Job deſyreth to learne of God.

5 I haue

5 I haue hearde of thee by the hearyng of the eare, but nowe myne eye (c) ſeeth thee.

(c) He ſawe hym not but by his woorde, whiche is the face & image of God, as Chriſte.

6 Wherefore, I geue myne owne ſelfe the blame, and take (d) repentance in the duſte and aſhes.

(d) As the manner of mourners was then that repented.

7 Nowe when the Lorde had ſpoken theſe woordes vnto Iob, it came to paſſe that the Lorde ſayde to Eliphas the Themanite, I (e) am diſpleaſed with thee, and thy two friendes: for ye haue not ſpoken of me the thyng that is ryght, lyke as (f) my ſeruante Iob hath donne.

B

(e) Becauſe they defended the iuſtice of God with carnal reaſons.

(f) For Iob offended of ignorance.

8 Therefore take you nowe ſeuen oxen, and ſeuen rammes, and goe (g) to my ſeruante Iob, and offer vp for your ſelues a burnt offeryng, and my ſeruant Iob ſhal pray for you: hym wyl I accept, and not deale with you after your fooliſhneſſe, in that ye haue not ſpoken of me the thyng whiche is right, lyke as my ſeruant Iob hath donne.

(g) Reconciling your ſelues to hym, in that ye haue donne hym offence, and then wyl I heare hym for you.

9 So Eliphas the Themanite, and Bildad the Suhite, and Sophar the Naamathite, went and dyd accordyng as the Lorde commaunded them: the Lorde alſo accepted " the perſon of Iob.

" Or, the face

10 And the Lorde (h) turned the captiuitie of Iob when he prayed for his friendes: Yea the Lorde gaue Iob twyſe as muche as he hadde afore.

(h) He rydde hym from his troubles and plagues.

11 And then came there vnto hym al his brethren, al his ſyſters, and al they that had ben of his acquayntance (k) afore, and dyd eate bread with hym in his houſe, and had compaſſion on hym, and comforted hym ouer al trouble that the Lorde had brought vpon hym, euerye man alſo gaue hym a certayne ſumme of money, and " a iewel of golde.

(i) That is, al they that were of his kynred.

(k) Here is the exceedyng bleſſynges of God towardes the godly, and they that ſtedfaſtly truſt in hym.

" Or, an earyng.

12 So the Lorde bleſſed the laſte dayes of Iob more then the fyrſte, for he hadde fourtiene thouſand Sheepe, ſyxe thouſand Cammels, a thouſande yoke of oxen, and a thouſande ſhee Aſſes:

13 He had ſeuen ſonnes alſo, & three daughters.

14 The fyrſte daughter called he (l) Iemima, the ſeconde (m) Kezia, and the thyrde (n) Kerenhapuch.

(l) Paſſyng in beautie as the day, and long lyuing.

(m) As ſweete as caſſia, or fyne ſpices.

(n) The childe of beautie.

15 In al the lande were no women founde ſo fayre as the daughters of Iob: and theyr father gaue them inheritance among theyr brethren.

16 After this liued Iob an hundred and fourtie yeeres: ſo that he ſawe * his chyldren, and his chyldrens chyldren, into the fourth generation.

A Prologue of ſaint Baſil the great, vpon the Pſalmes.

DAVID that notable king and prophete, a man ſingulerly choſen of almightie God after his owne heart, being indued both with the knowledge of his creatour, and with the knowledge of him ſelfe, and being throughly exerciſed in the whole ſtate of his life with the experience of the world: vttreth his ſundry affections (as his occaſions ſerued him) in this his booke of pſalmes, a booke ſet out with diuers names, but ſounding all to one thing. The Hebrues name it Tehillim ספר תלים & ספר תהלות that is to ſay, a booke of laudes and hymnes. The Grecians expreſſe it by the name of a muſicall inſtrument ψάλτηριον ſo called. Our ſauiour Chriſte calleth it a booke of pſalmes (as his diſciple Peter doth the ſame.) Some intituleth it, liber contemplationum, ſiue ſoliloquiorum: A booke of contemplations or ſecrete meditations, whereby the godly ſpeaketh ſolitarily and alone to almighty God: A booke of holy ſcripture, no doubt moſt comfortable in doctrine, high in myſterie, and profounde in ſenſe: but yet familier and ready to be vnderſtanded of the true chriſten heart. To the diligent vſing of which booke, the holy Apoſtle ſaint Paule by graue aduiſement, no leſſe then in two of his epiſtles exhorteth vs, ſaying in the one thus: Let the woorde of Chriſte dwell in you richly, in all wyſdome (thereof) teaching and admoniſhing your ſelues in pſalmes and hymnes and ſpirituall ſonges, ſinging with grace in your heartes to the Lorde. An admonition ſo ſerious ought not to be contempned. Nowe foraſmuch as the vſe of the pſalmes hath a ſpeciall peculiar grace aboue all other partes of ſcripture, therefore it ought of all other chiefely to be eſteemed, and duely to be vſed, as euermore in the Church of God, aſwell of the olde people of Iſrael, as of the new people of the Chriſtians, it hath ben in moſte frequent vſe and reuerence. Furthermore all maner of ſcripture, for that it is inſpirde from God aboue (as neceſſary for inſtruction) is expreſſed by the determination of the holy ghoſt, to the intent that all men in common ſhoulde gather out thereof (as out of a ſtore houſe of phiſicke for the ſoule) peculiar remedies, euery one of vs for our owne infirmities: for ſuch phiſicke (as one writeth) wyll reſtraine great and many ſinnes. Now whereas the prophetes haue doctrine proper to them ſelues, and the bookes of the deuine hiſtories matter by them ſelfe: the law haue his peculiar fourme of teaching, and the prouerbiall bookes haue their ſeuerall kinde of exhortations: The booke of the pſalmes comprehende in it ſelfe the whole commoditie of all their doctrines aforeſaide, for it prophecieth of thinges to come, it recyteth the hiſtories, it ſheweth lawe for the gouernaunce of lyfe, it teacheth what ought to be done: and to be ſhorte, it is a common ſtorehouſe of all good doctrine, which doth aptly diſtribute matter to euery man peculiar to him ſelfe: for it healeth not only olde feſtured woundes of the ſoule, but alſo can geue quicke remedie to ſuch as be newly made. It ſtayeth and comforteth that member which is ſicke and corrupt, and preſerueth that which is whole and ſounde, it plucketh vp by the rootes (as much as is poſsible) all ſuch euill affections as do raigne ſo tyrannically in the whole courſe of mans lyfe, which effect it worketh as it were with a greeable delectation, inſtilling pleaſauntly into our hearte all ſober honeſtie. For where as the holy ghoſte perceaued that mankinde was hardly trayned to vertue, and that we be very negligent in thinges concerning the true lyfe in deede, by reaſon of our inclination to worldly pleaſures and delectations: What hath he inuented? He hath mixte in his fourme of doctrine the delectation of muſicke, to the intent that the commoditie of the doctrine might ſecretly ſteale into vs, whyle our eares be touched with the pleaſauntneſſe of the melodie. Euen much lyke as expert Phiſitions vſe to do, when they miniſter their bitter potions to ſicke children, leſt they ſhoulde abhorre their health for the bitterneſſe of their drinkes, for the moſt part they annoynt the brinkes of the cuppes with hony. And for this ende be theſe ſweete and harmonious ſonges deuiſed for vs, that ſuch as be children either by age, or children by maners, ſhould in deede haue their ſoules wholeſomly inſtructed, though for the time they ſeeme but to ſinge onely. Furthermore, we ſee commonly that they which be of the vulgare people, or of rude and groſſe nature, can not redylie beare away and keepe in minde the graue preceptes of the Apoſtles or Prophetes, where yet the deuine pſalmes they ſinge at home in their houſes, and abrode they can recorde them. And certainely, though a man were neuer ſo furiouſly raging in ire and wrath, yet aſſoone as he heareth the ſweete tunes of the pſalmes, ſtraight way is he aſſwaged of his fury, and muſt depart more quiet in minde by reaſon of the melody. The pſalme is the reſt of the ſoule, the rodde of peace, it ſtilleth and pacifieth the raging bellowes of the minde, for it doth aſſwage and molifie that irefull power and paſsion of the ſoule, it induceth chaſtitie where raigned wantonneſſe, it maketh amitie where was diſcord, it knitteth friendes togeather, it returneth enimies to an vnitie againe. For who can longe repute him as an enimie, with whom he ioyneth him ſelfe in lyfting vp his voyce to God in prayer? So that the ſonge of the pſalme worketh charitie, which is the greateſt treaſure of all goodneſſe that can be, deuiſing by this enducement of concord ſinging, the knot and bonde of vnitie, ſo ioyning the people togeather after the ſimilitude of a quyer in their vnitie of ſinging. The pſalme is an introduction to beginners, it is a furtherer to them which go forwarde to vertue, it is to the perfect man a ſtable foundation to reſt on, it is the ſweete voyce, the only mouth of the ſpouſe of Chriſt the Church. The pſalme doth cheare the feaſtfull day the better to reioyce, it worketh that ſame heauineſſe which is heauineſſe to Godwarde: For the pſalme is able to plucke out teares of any mans heart, though it be neuer ſo ſtony harde. O wyſe and maruelous deuiſe of our heauenly ſchoolemaiſter, who coulde inuent that we ſhoulde both pleaſauntly ſing and therewith profitably learne, whereby wholeſome doctrine might be the deeper printed in vs: for that which with violence and force is learned of vs, is not wont to abide longe: but that which entreth into vs with pleaſure, and by louing grace, it continueth the longer in our heartes, it ſticketh the faſter in our memories. Nowe as for the matter and content of the pſalme, what is there but that a man may learne it there? Is not there to be learned the valiauntnes of fortitude, the righteouſneſſe of iuſtice? the ſobernes of temperaunce? the perfection of prudence, the fourme of penaunce, the meaſure of pacience? Yea and whatſoeuer ſoundeth to vertue or perfection, is it not there taught? In the pſalme is contayned abſolute diuinitie, both prophecie of Chriſtes comming in the fleſhe, the threatfull warninges of the iudgement, the hope of our ryſing againe, the feare of Gods puniſhmentes, the promyſes of euerlaſting ioy, the reuelation of all myſteries: all theſe be layde and couched vp in the pſalter booke, as in a great treaſure houſe common to all men. Whiche booke the prophete Dauid framed moſt aptly (among many inſtrumentes of muſicke) to agree with the inſtrument called the Pſalterie: ſignifying thereby (as I can iudge) the grace of God to come from aboue by the inſpiration of the holy ghoſt. For this onely inſtrument of all other, haue the cauſe of his ſounde from his vpper part, where the harpe or the lute by their wreſtes haue their ſounde comming foorth out of the lower part of them: but the Pſalterie put foorth the ſweeteneſſe of his harmonious melodie from the vpper part, teaching vs thereby that we ſhould ſet our whole ſtudie and meditation in heauenly thinges aboue, and not by the ſweeteneſſe of the tunes, to be borne downe to the ſenſuall affections and delectations of the fleſhe.

THE ſweete tunes, O Lord, wherto thy holy ſcriptures geue ſo liuely a grace, when they be ſong with the moderate voyce of expert men, I do confeſſe that they do ſomwhat delectably ſtirre me: but yet not for that I would dwell and abide ſtill there, but for that my minde might ryſe vpwarde to godly affection and heauenly deuotion. Notwithſtanding, when I feele this in my ſelfe, that the melodie moueth me more then the matter of the dittie which is ſonge: I confeſſe then that I offend mortally therein.

10.Lib.cōfeſſ.cap.33.

NOW let the gentle reader haue this Chriſtian conſyderation within him ſelfe, that though he findeth the Pſalmes of this later tranſlation folowing, not ſo to ſounde agreeably to his eares in his wonted woordes and phraſes, as he is accuſtomed with: yet let him not be to much offended with the worke, which was wrought for his owne commoditie and comfort. And if he be learned, let him correct the woorde or ſentence (which may diſlike him) with the better, and whether his note ryſeth either of good wyll and charitie, either of enuie and contention not purely, yet his reprehenſion, if it may turne to the finding out of the trueth, ſhall not be repelled with griefe, but applauded to in gladneſſe, that Chriſte may euer haue the prayſe: To whom with the father and the holy ſpirite, be all glory and prayſe for euer. Amen.

Beatus vir qui non abijt. Pſal.j. The argument.

¶ The firſt pſalme ſeemeth to be a preface vnto the reſidue. It declareth that the iuſt man only hath the true felicitie in this worlde, whoſe delight is wholly in practiſing the lawe of God. As for the vngodly man, although he ſeeme for a tyme to proſper and to floriſhe, yet his ende is very miſerable and wretched.

The tranſlation vſed in common prayer.

1 Bleſſed is that man that hath not walked in the counſel of the vngodly, nor ſtand in the way of ſinners: and hath not ſit in ÿ ſeate of the ſcorneful.

2 But his delyght is in the lawe of the Lorde: and in his lawe wil he exerciſe him ſelfe day and nyght.

3 And he ſhalbe lyke a tree planted by the water ſyde: that wyl bryng foorth his fruite in due ſeaſon.

4 His leafe alſo ſhal not wyther: and looke whatſoeuer he dooth, it ſhal proſper.

5 As for the vngodly, it is not ſo with them: but they are like the chaffe which the winde ſcattereth away from the face of the earth.

6 Therefore the vngodly ſhal not be able to ſtande in the iudgement: neyther the ſinners in the congregation of the ryghteous.

7 But the Lorde knoweth the way of the ryghteous: and the way of the vngodly ſhal periſhe.

The tranſlation after the Hebrewes.

1 Bleſſed is the man that walketh not in the counſel of the vngodly: nor ſtandeth in the way of ſinners, nor ſitteth in the ſeate of the ſcorneful.

2 But his delight (is) in the lawe of God: and in (God) his lawe exerciſeth him ſelfe day and nyght.

3 And he ſhalbe lyke a tree planted ʻʻ by the waters ſyde, that bryngeth foorth her fruite in due ſeaſon: and whoſe leafe wythereth not, for whatſoeuer he dooth (a) it ſhal proſper.

4 (As for) the vngodly (it is) not ſo (with them:) but they (are) like the chaffe which the winde ſcattereth abrode.

5 Therfore the vngodly ſhal not (be able to) ʻʻ ſtande in the iudgement: neither the ſinners in the congregation of the righteous.

¶ Dauid comforteth the godly, that they be not offended at the proſperitie of the wicked, or withdrawen thereby from godlyneſſe, as though God had no regarde of iuſtice, innocencie, and vpright dealing, when they ſee commonly the woorſt ſort of menne to haue the world at theyr wyl, aboundyng in health, riches, and aucthoritie. 5 He made a couenant with Jacob, and gaue Jſrael a lawe : whiche he commaunded our forefathers to teache theyr children.

8 That they might put their truſt in God : and not to forgeat the woorkes of God, but to kepe his commaundementes.

9 And not to be as theyr forefathers, a faythleſſe and ſtubburne generation : a generation that ſet not their hart aryght, and whoſe ſpirite cleaueth not ſtedfaſtly vnto God.

10 Like as the children of Ephraim : whiche being harneſſed and carying bowes, turned them ſelues backe in the day of battayle.

11 They kept not the couenant of God : and woulde not walke in his lawes.

12 But forgat what he had donne: and the woonderful woorke that he had ſhewed for them.

13 Marueylous thinges did he in the ſight of our forefathers in the land of Egypt: euē in the feelde of Zoan.

14 He diuided the ſea, and let them goe through: he made the waters to ſtande on an heape.

15 In the day time alſo he led them with a cloude: and al the night through with a light fyre.

16 He claue the harde rockes in the wilderneſſe: and gaue them drinke thereof, as it had benne out of the great deapth,

17 He brought waters out of the ſtonye rocke: ſo that it guſhed out like the riuers.

18 Yet for al this, they ſinned more agaynſt hym: and prouoked the moſt hygheſt in the wilderneſſe.

19 They tempted God in theyr hartes: and required meate for their luſt.

20 They ſpake agaynſt God alſo, ſayeing: ſhal God prepare a table in the wilderneſſe?

21 He ſmote the ſtonie rocke in deede, that the water guſhed out, and the ſtreames flowed withal: but can he geue bread alſo, or prouide fleaſhe for his people?

22 When the Lorde hearde this, he was wroth: ſo the fire was kindled in Iacob, and there came vp heauie diſpleaſure agaynſt Iſrael.

23 Becauſe they beleued not in God: and put not their truſt in his helpe.

24 So he commaunded the cloudes aboue: and opened the doores of heauen.

25 He rayned downe Manna alſo vpon them for to eate: and gaue them foode from heauen.

26 So man did eate angels foode: for he ſent them meate yenough.

27 He cauſed the Eaſt winde to blowe vnder the heauen: & through his power he brought in the Southweaſt winde.

28 He rayned fleaſhe vpon them as thicke as duſt: and feathered fowles like as the ſande of the ſea.

29 He let it fal among their tentes: euen round about their habitation.

30 So they did eate, and were wel filled: for he gaue them their owne deſyre, they were not diſapoynted of theyr luſt.

31 But while the meate was yet in theyr mouthes, the heauie wrath of god came vpon them, and ſlue the wealthieſt of them: yea and ſmote downe the choſen menne that were in Iſrael.

32 But for al this they ſinned yet more: and beleued not his woonderous woorkes.

33 Therfore their dayes did he conſume in vanitie: and theyr yeeres in trouble.

34 When he ſlue them, they ſought him: and turned them early, and enquired after God.

35 And they remēbred that god was their ſtrength: and that the high God was their redeemer.

36 Neuertheleſſe, they dyd but flatter hym with theyr mouth: and diſſembled with hym in theyr tongue.

37 For theyr hart was not whole with hym: neyther continued they ſtedfaſt in his couenant.

38 But he was ſo merciful: that he forgaue theyr miſdeedes, and deſtroyed them not.

39 Yea, many a time turned he his wrath away: and woulde not ſuffer his whole diſpleaſure to aryſe.

40 For he conſydered that they were but fleaſhe: and 11 But they forgat his woorkes: and his woonders whiche he had ſhewed them.

12 Marueilous thinges did he in the ſight of their fathers: in the land of Egypt, in the feelde "of Zoan.

13 He diuided the ſea, and let them goe thorowe: he made the waters to ſtande as on an heape.

14 In the day time alſo he led them with a cloude: and al the night through with a light of fire. C

15 He cloued the harde rockes in the wylderneſſe: and gaue them drinke thereof, as it had benne out of the great deepe waters.

16 He brought running ſtreames out of a ſtonie rocke: and cauſed waters to guſhe downe, like as out of riuers.

17 Yet for al this they ſinned ſtil againſt him: ſo that they prouoked the moſt higheſt in the wilderneſſe.

18 And they tempted God in their hartes: in requiring meate for their " luſt.

" ſoule.

19 They ſpake agaynſt God: they ſaid, can god prepare a table in the wilderneſſe?

20 Beholde, he hath ſmitten the ſtonie rocke, and waters haue guſhed out, and ſtreames haue flowed out abundantly: but can he likewiſe geue bread, can he prouide fleaſhe for his people?

21 VVherefore God hearde (them,) he was wroth, a fire was kindled in Iacob: and there aroſe vp heauie diſpleaſure againſt Iſrael. D

22 Becauſe they beleued not in the Lorde: nor did put their truſt in his ſaluation.

23 And yet he commaunded the cloudes aboue: and opened the doores of heauen.

24 He raigned downe " Manna alſo vpon them, that they ſhould eate: and gaue them corne frō heauen.

25 (So) man did eate the bread of " angels: he ſent them meate yenough.

26 He remoued the eaſt winde from vnder the heauen: & through his power he brought in the ſouth winde.

27 He raigned fleaſhe vpon them as thicke as duſt: and feathered fowles like as the ſande of the ſea.

28 He let it fal among their tentes: euen rounde about their pauilions. E

29 So they did eate and were wel filled, for he gaue them their owne deſire: neuertheleſſe they were not alienated from their luſt.

30 But while the meate was yet in their mouthes, the heauie wrath of God came vpon them, & ſlue the wealthieſt of them: & made the choſen menne of Iſrael to ſtoupe.

31 For al this they ſinned ſtil: and beleued not his woonderous woorkes.

32 Therefore their dayes did he conſume in vanitie: and their yeeres in a ſhort (troublous) time.

33 VVhen he ſlue them, they ſought him: they repented them, and [a] made God their morninges woorke.

[a] They roſe in the morning to pray to God.

34 And they remembred that the Lorde was their rocke: and that the Lorde moſt higheſt was their redeemer.

35 Neuertheleſſe, they did but flatter him with their mouth: and they made him a lie with their tongue. F

36 For their hart was not vpright with him: neither continued they faithful in his couenant.

37 Yet for al that he being moſt merciful: cleane pardoned al their miſdeedes, & deſtroyed them not.

38 Yea many a time he did muche for to repreſſe his anger: and neuer woulde ſuffer his whole rage to breake out.

39 For he conſydered that they were but fleaſhe: &

9 O Lorde God of hoſtes, who is lyke vnto thee: thy trueth (moſt mightie Lorde) is on euery ſyde.

10 Thou ruleſt the raging of the ſea: thou ſtilleſt the waues thereof when they ariſe.

11 Thou haſt ſubdued Egypt, and deſtroyed it: thou haſt ſcattered thyne enimies abroade with thy mightie arme.

12 The heauens are thyne, the earth alſo is thyne: thou haſt layde the fundation of the round world, and al that therein is.

13 Thou haſt made the North and the South: Tabor and Hermon ſhal reioyce in thy name.

14 Thou haſt a mightie arme: ſtrong is thy hande, and hygh is thy right hande.

20 Thou ſpakeſt ſometyme in viſions vnto thy ſaintes, and ſaydeſt: I haue layde helpe vpon one that is mightie, I haue exalted one choſen out of the people.

¶ In this prayer he ſetteth foorth the euerlaſting diuinitie of God, and his woonderful prouidence towardes his people. There is alſo a lamentation of the breuitie and miſerie of this preſent lyfe, the cauſe whereof is our ſinnes. For God diſpleaſed with our wickedneſſe, cauſeth our dayes of this lyfe to be both ſhort and miſerable, whiche thing he that conſydereth, ſhoulde be incited thereby to be wiſe. ¶ It ſeemeth that the prophete made this pſalme to be ſong vnto the people vpon the Sabboth dayes, for to ſtirre them vp the better to know God, and to praiſe God in his woorkes. ¶ A ſong of high degrees.

Morning prayer.

1 LOrde remember Dauid: and al his trouble.

2 Howe he ſware vnto the Lorde: & vowed a vowe vnto the almightie God of Iacob.

3 I wyl not comme within the tabernacle of my houſe: nor climbe vp into my bed.

4 I wyl not ſuffer myne eyes to ſleepe, nor myne eye lyddes to ſlumber: neither the temples of my head to take any reſt.

5 Vntil I finde out a place for the Temple of the Lord: an habitatiō for the mightie God of Iacob.

6 Loe, we heard of the ſame at Ephrata: & founde it in the wood.

7 We wyl goe into his tabernacle: and fal lowe on our knees before his footeſtoole.

8 Ariſe, O Lorde, into thy reſtyng place: thou and the arke of thy ſtrength.

9 Let the prieſtes be clothed with righteouſneſſe: and let thy ſaintes ſing with ioyfulneſſe.

10 For thy ſeruant Dauids ſake: turne not away the preſence of thyne annoynted.

11 The Lorde hath made a faythful othe vnto Dauid: and he ſhal not ſhrinke from it.

12 Of the fruite of thy body: ſhal I ſet vpō thy ſeate.

13 If thy chyldren wyl keepe my couenant and my teſtimonies that I ſhal learne them: their chyldrē alſo ſhal ſit vpon thy ſeate for euermore.

14 For the Lorde hath choſen Sion to be an habitation for him ſelfe: he hath longed for her.

15 This ſhalbe my reſt for euer: here wyl I dwelle, for I haue a delight therein.

16 I wil bleſſe her vittayles with encreaſe: and wil ſatiſfie her poore with bread.

17 I wyl decke her prieſtes with health: and her ſaintes ſhal reioyce and ſing.

18 There ſhal I make the horne of Dauid to floriſh: I haue ordeyned a lanterne for myne annoynted.

19 As for his enimies, I ſhal clothe them with ſhame: but vpon him ſelfe ſhal his crowne floriſh.

1 O GOD, be mindful of Dauid: with al his affliction. A

2 VVho ſwore vnto god: who made a vowe vnto the moſt mightie (Lorde) of Iacob.

3 (Sayeing) I wyl not enter into the tabernacle of my houſe: nor get vp into my bed.

5 Vntyl I finde out a place for the temple of God: an habitation for the moſt mightie Lord of Iacob.

10 For thy ſeruant Dauids ſake: turne not away (frō) the face of thyne annoynted.

11 God hath ſworne for a trueth vnto Dauid, and he wyl not goe from it: I wyl place vpon thy throne ſomme of the fruite of thy body.

12 If thy chyldren wyl keepe my couenant and my teſtimonies which I wil teach them: their children alſo ſhal ſit vpon thy throne for euermore.

13 For god hath choſen (to be in) Sion: he had a deſire that it might be an habitation for him.

14 This (is ſayeth he) my reſt for euer: here I wyl dwelle, for I haue a deſyre to it. C

15 I wil abundantly powre my bleſſinges vpon her victuals: and I wyl ſatiſfie her poore with bread.

16 I wyl clothe her prieſtes with (b) ſaluation: and her ſaintes ſhal make an exceeding ioyful noyſe.

17 I wil make there the horne of Dauid to bud vp: I wil ordeine a light for mine annointed.

18 I wyl clothe his enimies with ſhame: but his crowne ſhal floriſhe vpon him ſelfe.

11 Quicken me, O Lord, for thy names ſake: and for thy righteouſneſſe ſake bring my ſoule out of trouble.

11 But the Lordes delyght is in them that feare him: and put their truſt in his mercy.

12 Praiſe the Lord, O Hieruſalem: praiſe thy god, O Sion.

13 For he hath made faſte the barres of thy gates: and hath bleſſed thy children within thee.

14 He maketh peace in thy borders: and filleth thee with the flowre of weate.

15 He ſendeth foorth his commaundement vpon earth: and his woorde runneth very ſwiftly.

16 He geueth ſnowe like wool: and ſcattereth the hoare froſt like aſhes.

17 He caſteth foorth his yſe like morſelles: who is able to abide his froſt?

18 He ſendeth out his woord, and melteth them: he bloweth with his winde, and the waters flowe.

19 He ſheweth his woord vnto Iacob: his ſtatutes and ordinances vnto Iſrael.

20 He hath not dealt ſo with any nation: neither haue the heathen knowledge of his woorde.

Laudate dominum de cœlis. Pſal. Cxlviii. The argument.

¶ The prophete calleth vpon al creatures whiche be in heauen or earth to prayſe God: but eſpecially vpon the people of God, who haue greater cauſe geuen them for to doo it then other.

A 1 PRaiſe ye the Lorde, praiſe ye God out of heauen: praiſe ye him on high aboue.

2 Praiſe him al ye his angels: praiſe him al ye his hoſt.

3 Praiſe ye him ſunne and moone: praiſe him al ye ſtarres (that geue) light.

4 Praiſe ye him al ye “ heauens: and ye waters that be aboue the heauens.

“ the heauens of heauens.

5 Euen they ſhoulde praiſe the name of God: for he commaunded, and they were created.

6 He hath ſet them ſure for euer and euer: he hath geuen them a law whiche ſhal not be broken.

B 7 Praiſe ye God from the earth: ye dragons and al deepes.

8 Fire and haile, ſnowe and vapours: ſtormie winde fulfilling his woorde.

9 Mountaines and al hilles: fruiteful trees and al Cedars.

1 O Praiſe the Lorde of heauen: prayſe hym in the height.

2 Praiſe him al ye angels of his: praiſe him al his hoſt.

3 Prayſe hym Sunne and Moone: praiſe him al ye ſtarres and light.

4 Prayſe hym al ye heauens: and ye waters that be aboue the heauens.

5 Let them praiſe the name of the Lord: for (he ſpake the woorde, and they were made) he commaunded, and they were created.

6 He hath made them faſte for euer and euer: he hath geuen them a law which ſhal not be broken.

7 Prayſe the Lorde vpon earth: ye dragons, and al deepes.

8 Fyre and hayle, ſnowe and vapours: winde and ſtorme fulfilling his woorde.

9 Mountaines and al hilles: fruiteful trees and al Cedars.

10 Beaſtes and al cattel: woormes and feathered fowles.

11 Kinges of the earth and al people: princes and al iudges of the worlde.

12 Young menne and maidens, olde menne & children, prayſe the name of the Lorde: for his name only is excellent, and his praiſe aboue heauen and earth.

13 He ſhal exalt the horne of his people, al his ſaintes ſhal praiſe him: euen the children of Iſrael, euen the people that ſerueth him.

10 Beaſtes and al cattel: woormes and feathered fowles.

11 Kinges of the earth and al people: princes and al iudges of the earth.

12 Young menne and maidens, olde menne with children, ſhoulde praiſe the name of God: for his name only is moſt excellent, & his maieſtie aboue earth and heauen.

13 He hath exalted the horne of his people, the praiſe of al his ſaintes: euen of the children of Iſrael, a people that is moſte nigh vnto him. Praiſe ye the Lorde.

Cantate domino. Pſal. Cxlix. The argument.

The prophete exhorteth the children of Iſrael to expreſſe a ioy towardes God by prayſyng him, by ſyngyng vnto him, and by playeing on muſical inſtrumentes, partly for that God is pleaſed with them, partly alſo for that God hath geuen them a victorie ouer the heathen theyr enimies.

1 O Syng vnto the Lorde a newe ſong: let the congregation of ſaintes prayſe hym.

2 Let Iſrael reioyce in him that made him: and let the children of Sion be ioyful in theyr kyng.

3 Let them praiſe his name in the daunce: let them ſyng praiſes vnto him with Tabret and Harpe.

4 For the Lorde hath pleaſure in his people: and helpeth the meeke harted.

5 Let the ſaintes be ioyful with glory: let them reioyce in their beddes.

6 Let the prayſes of God be in theyr mouth: and a two edged ſwoorde in their handes.

7 To be auenged of the heathen: and to rebuke the people.

8 To binde their kinges in chaynes: and their nobles with linkes of iron.

9 That they may be auenged of them, as it is written: ſuche honour haue al his ſaintes.

1 PRaiſe ye the Lord, ſing vnto God a new ſong: A
"he ought to be praiſed in the congregation of ſaintes.

2 Iſrael ſhoulde reioyce in his maker: the children of Sion ſhoulde be ioyful in their king.

3 They ſhoulde praiſe his name in a daunce: they ſhoulde ſing pſalmes vnto him vpon a Tabret and a Harpe.

4 For GOD hath a pleaſure in his people: he wil beautifie the afflicted with ſaluation.

5 "The ſaintes ſhalbe ioyful with glory: they ſhal expreſſe a ioyful noiſe in their beddes.

6 The high promotions of the Lord ſhalbe in their mouth: and a two edged ſwoorde in their handes.

7 That they may take auengement of the heathen: & correction of the nations. B

8 That they may binde their kinges in chaines: and their nobles with iron fetters.

9 That they may execute the iudgement preſcribed: this honour ſhalbe to al his ſaintes. Praiſe ye the Lorde.

" his prayſe ſhoulde be.

" The godly diſpoſed.

Laudate dominum. Pſal. Cl. The argument.

The prophete exhorteth generally al liuing creatures to prayſe the mightineſſe and greatneſſe of God. He willeth menne to doo it with inſtrumentes of muſicke.

1 O Prayſe God in his holineſſe: praiſe him in the firmament of his power.

2 Prayſe him in his noble actes: praiſe him according to his excellent greatneſſe.

3 Praiſe him in the ſounde of the trumpet: prayſe him vpon the Lute and Harpe.

4 Prayſe him in the Cymbales and daunces: praiſe him vpon the ſtrynges and pype.

5 Praiſe him vpon the wel tuned Cymbales: praiſe him vpon the loude Cymbales.

6 Let euery thyng that hath breath: prayſe the Lorde.

1 PRaiſe ye the Lorde, praiſe ye the Lorde in his ſanctuarie: praiſe ye him in the firmament(a) of his power. A

2 Praiſe ye him in his ſtrength: praiſe ye him in his excellent greatneſſe.

3 Praiſe ye him in the ſounde of a Trumpet: praiſe ye him vpon a Lute and an Harpe.

4 Praiſe ye him with a Tabret and a daunce: praiſe ye him vpon the ſtringes, and vpon the Organes.

5 Praiſe ye him vpon the wel tuned Cymbales: praiſe ye him vpon the loude Cymbales.

6 Euery thing that draweth breath: ought to praiſe the Lorde. Praiſe ye the Lorde.

(a) In the firmament Gods power appeareth.

The Prouerbes of Solomon.

The firſt Chapter.

1 The power and vſe of the woorde of God. 7 Of the feare of God and knowledge of his woorde. 10 We may not conſent to the intiſinges of ſinners. 20 Wiſdome complayneth that ſhe is contemned. 24 The pouniſhment of them that contemne her.

A 1 THE prouerbes of Solomon yͤ ſonne of Dauid, king of Iſrael:

2 To learne wyſedome and inſtruction, & to perceiue the woordes of vnderſtandyng,

3 To receiue the inſtruction of wyſedome, iuſtice, iudgement, and equitie:

4 To geue wit vnto the ſimple, and that the young menne might haue knowledge and vnderſtanding.

5 The wyſe man wyl geue eare, and wyl comme by more wyſdome, and he that is endued with vnderſtanding, ſhal atteyne vnto [wiſe] counſayles,

6 To vnderſtand a parable, and the interpretation thereof, the woordes of the wyſe, and their darke ſpeaches.

B 7 *The feare of the Lorde is the begynnyng of knowledge: but fooles diſpiſe wiſedome and inſtruction. Iob.28.b. Eccle.i.c. Pſal.116.b. Prou.ix.c.

8 My ſonne, heare thy fathers doctrine, and forſake not the " lawe of thy mother: " Or, inſtruction

9 For they ſhalbe an encreaſe of grace vnto thy head, and [as] a chayne about thy necke.

10 My ſonne, if ſinners " entice thee, conſent not vnto them. " Or, leade thee out of the way.

11 If they ſay, Comme with vs, let vs lay wayte for blood, and lurke priuily for the innocent without a cauſe:

12 Let vs *ſwallowe them vp like the graue quicke and whole, as thoſe that goe downe into the pit: Pſal.24.a.

13 So ſhal we find al manner of coſtly riches, and fille our houſes with ſpoyles:

C 14 Caſt in thy lot among vs, and let vs al haue one purſe.

15 My ſonne, walke not thou with them, refrayne thy foote from their wayes.

16 For *their feete runne to euyl, and are haſty to ſhed blood. Pſal.xiiij.a

17 But [as] in vayne, the net is layde foorth before the birdes eyes:

18 So theſe lay wayte for the blood of them, and lye priuily for their lyues.

19 Suche [are] the wayes of euery one that is greedie of gayne, who taketh away the lyfe of the owner thereof.

20 *Wiſedome cryeth without, and putteth foorth her voyce in the ſtreetes: Prou.8.a.

21 She calleth before the congregation in the open gates, & ſheweth her woordes through the citie, ſayeing, D

22 O ye children, howe long wyl ye loue childiſhneſſe? howe long wyl the ſcorners delite in ſcornyng, and the vnwyſe hate knowledge?

23 O turne you at my correction: loe I wil expreſſe my minde vnto you, & make you vnderſtande my woordes.

24 *Becauſe I haue called, and ye refuſed, I haue ſtretched out my hande, and no man regarded: Eſai.lxv.b Ierem.7.a

25 But al my counſels haue ye deſpiſed, and ſet my correction at nought:

26 Therfore wil I alſo laugh at your deſtruction, and mocke you, when the thing that ye feare commeth vpon you,

27 Euen when the thing that ye be afrayde of falleth in ſodenly like a ſtorme, & your miſerie lyke a tempeſt, yea when trouble and heauyneſſe commeth vpon you.

28 Then ſhal they calle vpon me, but I wyl not anſweare: they ſhal ſeeke me early, but they ſhal not finde me: E

29 And that becauſe they hated knowledge, and dyd not chooſe the feare of the Lorde,

30 They woulde none of my counſayle, but diſpiſed al my correction.

31 Therfore ſhal they eate of the fruite of their owne way, and be filled with their owne inuentions.

32 For the turnyng away of the vnwiſe ſhal ſlay them, and the proſperitie of fooles ſhal deſtroy them.

33 *But who ſo hearkeneth vnto me, ſhal dwel ſafely, and be ſure from any feare of euyl. Prou.iij.a

The.ii.Chapter.

1 Wiſedome exhorteth to obey her. 5 She teacheth the feare of God. 6 She is geuen of God. 10 She preſerueth from wickedneſſe.

A 1 My ſonne, if thou wylt receiue my woordes, and lay vp my commaundementes within thee,

2 That thou wilt encline thyne eares vnto wyſedome: applie thyne hart then to vnderſtandyng.

3 For if thou cryeſt after wiſedome, and cryeſt for knowledge:

4 If thou ſeekeſt for her as for ſiluer, and ſearcheſt for her as for treaſures:

5 Then ſhalt thou vnderſtande the feare of the Lorde, and finde the knowledge of God.

7 He ſtirreth vp health for the righteous: and defendeth them that walke vprightly,

9 Then ſhalt thou vnderſtande righteouſnes, and iudgement, and equitie, yea and euery good path.

10 When wyſedome entreth into thyne hart, and thy ſoule deliteth in knowledge:

11 Then ſhal counſayle preſerue thee, and vnderſtanding ſhal keepe thee,

12 That thou mayeſt be deliuered from the euyl way, and from the man that ſpeaketh frowarde thinges:

13 From ſuche as leaue the wayes of ryghteouſneſſe, to walke in the wayes of darkeneſſe:

20 Therfore walke thou in the way of ſuche as be vertuous, and keepe the pathes of the righteous. D

21 For the iuſt ſhal dwelle in the lande, and they that be perfect ſhal remayne in it.

22 But the vngodly ſhal be cut of from the earth: and the wicked dooers ſhalbe rooted out of it.

The.iii.Chapter.

1 The woorde of God geueth lyfe. 5 Truſt in God. 7 Feare him. 9 Honour him. 11 Suffer his correction. 22 To them that folowe the woorde of God, al thinges ſhal ſucceede wel.

5 Put thy truſt in God with al thyne hart: and leane not vnto thyne owne wit.

29 Intende no hurt agaynſt thy neyghbour, ſeeyng he hopeth to dwelle in reſt by thee.

30 Striue not with any man without a cauſe, where as he hath donne thee no harme.

31 *Folowe not a wicked man, and chooſe none of his wayes: Prou.i.a.

32 For the Lord abhorreth the frowarde: but his " counſayle is among the righteous. " or, ſecrets.

33 The curſe of the Lorde is in the houſe of the vngodly: but he bleſſeth the dwellynges of the righteous.

34 As for the ſcorneful, dooth he not laugh them to ſcorne? but he geueth grace vnto the lowly.

35 The wyſe ſhal haue honour in poſſeſſion: but ſhame is the promotion that fooles ſhal haue.

The .iiij. Chapter.

1 Wiſedome and her fruites ought to be ſearched. 14 The way of the wicked muſt be refuſed. 20 By the woorde of God, the hart, eyes, and courſe of lyfe muſt be guided.

A 1 Heare, O ye chyldren, a fatherly inſtruction, & take good heede, that ye may learne vnderſtandyng.

2 For I haue geuen you a good doctrine, forſake not ye my lawe.

3 For when I my ſelfe was my fathers deare ſonne, and tenderly beloued of my mother:

Deut.6.b. 11.c.32.g. 4 He taught me alſo, and ſaid vnto me, *Let thyne hart receiue my woordes, keepe my commaundementes, and thou ſhalt liue.

5 Geat thee wyſedome, and geat thee vnderſtandyng: forgeat not the woordes of my mouth, and ſhrinke not from them.

6 Forſake her not, and ſhe ſhal preſerue thee, loue her, and ſhe ſhal keepe thee.

B 7 The chiefe poynt of wyſdome, is to poſſeſſe wiſedome: and before al thy goodes to geat thee vnderſtanding.

Deut.26.d 8 *Make muche of her, and ſhe ſhal promote thee, yea if thou embrace her, ſhe ſhal bryng thee vnto honour:

9 She ſhal beautifie thy head with manyfolde graces, and garniſh thee with a crowne of glorie.

10 Heare my ſonne, and receiue my woordes, and the yeeres of thy lyfe ſhalbe many.

11 I haue ſhewed thee the way of wiſedome, and led thee into the right pathes.

12 So that if thou goeſt in them, there ſhal no ſtraytneſſe hinder thee: and when thou runneſt, thou ſhalt not falle.

13 Take faſt holde of doctrine, and let her not goe: keepe her, for ſhe is thy lyfe.

14 *Comme not in the pathe of the vngodly, and walke not in the way of the wicked: C Pſal.i.a. &.xxvij.a.

15 Abhorre it, and goe not therein, depart aſide, and paſſe ouer by it.

16 For they ſleepe not except they haue donne miſchiefe: and ſleepe is taken from them, vntyl they haue donne harme.

17 For they eate the bread of wickedneſſe, and drinke the wine of robberie.

18 The pathe of the righteous ſhineth, as the light that is euer brighter and brighter vnto the perfect day.

19 But the way of the vngodly is as the darkneſſe, they knowe not where they falle.

20 *My ſonne, marke my woordes, and encline thine eare vnto my ſayeinges: Deut.vi.b and.xi.c.

21 Let them not depart from thyne eyes, but keepe them euen in the middeſt of thine hart: D

22 For they are lyfe vnto thoſe that finde thē, and health vnto al their bodies.

23 Keepe thyne hart with al diligence, for out of it iſſueth lyfe.

24 Put away from thee a frowarde mouth, and let the lippes of ſlaunder be farre from thee.

25 Let thine eyes beholde that thyng that is right, and let thyne eye liddes looke ſtrayght before thee.

26 Ponder the path of thy feete, and let al thy wayes be ordered aright.

8 Keepe thy way farre from her, and comme not nigh the doores of her houſe:

9 That thou geue not thy honour vnto other, and thy yeeres to the cruel:

10 That other menne be not fylled with thy vertues, and that thy labours comme not in a ſtrange houſe.

11 Yea, that thou mourne not at the laſt, whē thou haſt ſpent thy body and luſtie youth, and then ſay,

The.vii. Chapter.

4 Say vnto wyſedome, Thou art my ſiſter: and calle vnderſtanding thy kinſewoman:

Prou.ii,b and,xi,a 5 That they may keepe thee from the ſtrange woman, & from the forrayne woman which geueth ſweete woordes.

6 For at the wyndowe of my houſe I looked through the windowe,

B 7 And behelde among the ſimple people, and among the chyldren, a young man voyde of wit,

8 Goeyng ouer the ſtreate by the corner in the way towarde her houſe

9 In the twilight of the euening, when it began nowe to be night and darke:

10 And behold there met him a woman * with open tokens of an harlot, onely her hart was hid: Eccle,ix.a

11 She was fulle of loude woordes, and ready to dally, whoſe feete coulde not abyde in the houſe:

13 She caught him, and kiſſed him, and was not aſhamed, ſayeing,

14 I had a vowe of peace offeryngs to pay, and this day I perfourme it: C

15 Therfore came I foorth to meete thee, that I might ſeeke thy face, and ſo haue I founde thee.

16 I haue deckt my bed with coueryngs of tapeſſarie, and clothes of Egypt.

17 My bed haue I made to ſmelle of Myrre, Aloes, and Cinamom.

18 Comme, let vs take our fyl of loue vntyl the mornyng, & let vs ſolace our ſelues with the pleaſures of loue.

19 For the good man is not at home, he is gonne farre of.

D 20 He hath taken the bagge of money with hym, and wyl returne at the appoynted ſolempne feaſt.

21 Thus with many ſweete wordes ſhe ouercame him, and with her flattering lippes ſhe entiſed him.

22 Sodaynly he folowed her, as it were an oxe led to the ſlaughter, and lyke as it were a foole [that laugheth] when he goeth to the ſtockes to be poniſhed,

24 Heare me nowe therefore, O my chylde, and marke the wordes of my mouth:

5 Take heede vnto knowledge, O ye ignorant, be ye wyſe in hart, O ye fooles.

¶The ende of the Prouerbes of Solomon.

¶ For Solomon is called in ſcripture by three ſundry names. The one Solomon, that is, the maker of peace. The ſeconde Ididа, that is, beloued of Gods. The thirde Eccleſiaſtes, that is, a preacher, teachyng that true and eternal felicitie conſiſteth not in any worldly wyſedome, or abundance of ryches, or in carnal pleaſure, whiche al be but vayne and tranſitorie: but he proueth that true felicitie conſiſteth in a whole ioining our ſelues to God by pure religiõ, that is, with a ſincere faith, and the feare of God obſeruyng his commaundementes.

The firſt Chapter.

2 Al thinges in this worlde are ful of vanitie, and of none indurance. 13 Al mans wyſedome is but folly and griefe.

1 THE woordes of the preacher the ſonne of Dauid kyng of Hieruſalem.

2 (a) Al is but moſt vayne vanitie ſayth the preacher, and al is moſt vayne [I ſay] and but playne vanitie.

3 For what (b) els hath a man of al the labour that he taketh vnder the ſunne?

4 (c) One generation paſſeth away, another commeth: but the earth abydeth ſtyl.

5 (d) The ſunne aryſeth, yͤ ſunne goeth downe, and returneth to his place, that he may there ryſe vp agayne.

6 The winde goeth towarde the South, and turneth vnto the North, fetcheth his compaſſe, whirleth about, and goeth foorth, and returneth agayne to his circuites frõ whence he dyd comme.

7 Al fluddes runne into the ſea, and yet is the ſea it ſelfe not fylled: for looke vnto what place the waters runne, thence they comme to flowe agayne. B

8 Al thynges are ſo harde to be knowen, that no man can expreſſe them: (e) The eye is not ſatiſfied with ſight, the eare not fylled with hearyng.

9 (f) The thyng that hath benne, commeth to paſſe agayne, and the thyng that hath benne donne, ſhalbe donne agayne: There is no newe thyng vnder the ſunne.

10 Is there any thing whereof it may be ſaid, Loe this is newe? for it was long agoe in the times that benne before vs.

(a) He dooth not condemne the creatures and giftes of God as euyl: but the careful ſeekyng of them, and the pride and truſt that man hath in worldly thinges. He proueth by ſixe reaſons that true felicitie is not to be put in any worldly thyng.

(b) The firſt reaſon is, that nothyng can be attayned in this life without labour and care.

(c) 2 Mans lyfe is but ſhort and vncertayne. And though the earth it ſelfe continueth for a longer time, yet it cõmeth to an ende at the laſt.

(d) 3 Neyther aſtronomie, nor any other ſcience is perfectly knowen in this lyfe.

(e) 4 Man in this lyfe is ſo deſirous to ſee & heare newes alwayes, that he is neuer ſatiſfied, nor cõtent with his eſtate.

(f) 5 The firſt clauſe is vnderſtanded of thynges made by nature, the ſecond of thinges donne by art.

11 The thyng that is paſt, is out of remembrance: euen ſo the thynges that are for to comme, ſhal no more be thought vpon among them that comme after.

12 I my ſelfe the preacher was kyng of Iſrael at Hieruſalem,

13 And dyd applye my mind to ſeeke out and ſearche for knowledge of al thynges that are donne vnder heauen: (g) Suche trauaile and labour hath God geuen vnto the chyldren of menne, to exerciſe them ſelues therein.

14 Thus haue I conſydered al theſe thynges that comme to paſſe vnder the ſunne: and loe, they are al but vanitie, and vexation of mynde.

15 (h) The crooked can not be made ſtraight, nor the imperfection of thinges can be numbred.

16 I commined with myne owne hart, ſaying, Lo I am comme to great eſtate, and haue gotten more wyſdome then al they that haue benne before me in Hieruſalem.

17 Yea my hart had great experience of wyſdome & knowledge: for thereunto I applyed my minde, that I might knowe what were wyſdome and vnderſtandyng, what were errour and fooliſhneſſe: and I perceiued that this was alſo but a vexation of mynde.

18 For where muche wyſdome is, there is alſo great trauayle and diſquietneſſe: and the more knowledge a man hath, the more is his care.

(g) 6 It is the reward of the ſinne of curioſitie, of our forefather Adam, that knowledge can not be attayned vnto without great trauayle: the ende of al whiche knowledge, is for to teache man humilitie.

(h) Man is not able of his owne power to refourme that is amiſſe, and to ryſe vp from ſinne, nor to knowe his imperfection & weakeneſſe, to doo any thyng that is good, without the grace of god.

The.ii.Chapter.

1 Pleaſures, ſumptuous buyldynges, riches, and poſſeſſions, are but vanitie. 14 The wiſe and the foole haue both one ende touchyng the bodily death.

He prooueth by foure reaſons, that true felicitie conſiſteth not in any worldly pleaſure.

1 Then ſayde I thus in my hart, Nowe goe to, (a) I wyl take myne eaſe, and haue good dayes: But loe, that is vanitie alſo.

2 Inſomuche, that (b) I ſayd vnto the man geuen to laughter, Thou art mad: and to myrth, what dooeſt thou?

3 (c) So I thought in my hart to geue my fleaſhe vnto wine, and agayne to apply my mynde vnto wyſdome, and to comprehend fooliſhneſſe: vntyl the tyme that among al the thynges whiche are vnder the ſunne, I myght ſee what were beſt for menne to doo ſo long as they liue vnder heauen.

4 (d) I made gorgious fayre woorkes: I builded my houſes, and planted vineyardes.

5 I made me orchardes and gardens of pleaſure, and planted trees in them of al manner of fruites.

6 I made pooles of water, to water the greene and fruiteful trees withal.

7 I bought ſeruantes and maydens, and had a great houſholde: As for cattel & ſheepe, I had more ſubſtance of them then al they that were before me in Hieruſalem.

B 8 I geathered togeather ſiluer and golde, and the cheefe treaſures of kynges and landes: I haue prouided me menne ſingers and women ſingers, and the delightes of the ſonnes of menne, as a woman taken captiue, and women taken captiues.

9 And I was greater and in more woorſhip then al my predeceſſours in Hieruſalem: For wyſdome remayned with me.

10 And looke whatſoeuer myne eyes deſired, I let them haue it: and whereinſoeuer my hart delighted or had any pleaſure, I withhelde it not from it: Thus my hart reioyced in al that I dyd, and this was my portion of al my trauayle.

11 But when I conſydered al the woorks that my handes had wrought, and al the labour that I had taken therin: loe al was but vanitie and vexation of mynde, and nothyng of any value vnder the ſunne.

12 (e) Then turned I me to conſyder wiſdome, errour, & fooliſhneſſe (for what is he among menne that myght be compared to me the king in ſuche woorkes?)

13 And I ſawe that wiſdome excelleth fooliſhneſſe, as farre as lyght dooth darkneſſe.

14 For a wiſe man hath his eyes in his head, but the foole goeth in darkneſſe: I perceiued alſo that they both (f) had one ende. C

15 Then thought I in my mynde, yf it happen vnto the foole as it dooth vnto me, what needeth me then to labour any more for wiſdome? So I confeſſed within my hart that this alſo was but vanitie.

16 For the wyſe are euer as litle in remembrance as the fooliſhe: for the dayes ſhal comme (g) when al ſhalbe forgotten: yea the wyſe man dyeth as wel as the foole.

17 Thus began I to be weery of my lyfe, inſomuche that I coulde away with nothyng that is donne vnder the ſunne: for al was but vanitie and vexation of mynde.

18 (h) Yea I was weery of my labour whiche I had taken vnder ÿ ſunne, becauſe I ſhould be fayne to leaue them vnto another man that commeth after me.

19 (i) And who knoweth whether he ſhalbe

a wiſe

(a) 1 There is no long contentatiō in any caſe or pleaſure in this lyfe.

(b) 2 The mother of vaine pleaſure, & muche laughter, is fooliſhneſſe.

(c) 3 He that applyeth hym ſelf to the ſtudie of godly wyſdome, may not haue to muche pleaſure in drynking of wine.

(d) 4 The more plentie of gorgious buildyng, apparel, riches, or worldly pleaſure, the more vexation of minde: and al are but vanitie in compariſon of godly felicitie, as Solomon affirmeth of his owne experience.

(e) God hath appoynted that man ſhould be obedient to godly reaſon, as to his king: and not to be ledde with carnal affection.

(f) They both ſuffer like aduerſitie in this worlde: or as touching the corruption of the body, they dye both a lyke.

(g) Meaning in this worlde.

(h) That he myght ſeeke the true felicitie whiche is in God.

(i) He rebuketh men that maketh careful prouidence to enrich their heires by vnlawful meanes to their owne damnation, not knowyng who or what they ſhalbe, eyther good or euyl.

a wyſe man, or a foole? And yet ſhal he be lorde of al my labours whiche I with ſuche wiſdome haue taken vnder the ſunne: This is alſo a vayne thyng.

20 So I turned me to refrayne my mynde from al ſuche trauayle as I tooke vnder the ſunne.

D 21 Forſomuche as a man ſhoulde weery hym ſelfe with wyſdome, with vnderſtandyng, and oportunitie, and yet be fayne to leaue his labours vnto another that neuer ſweat for them: This is alſo a vayne thyng, and great miſerie.

22 For what getteth a man of al the labour and trauayle of his mind that he taketh vnder the ſunne?

23 But heauineſſe, ſorowe, and diſquietneſſe al the dayes of his lyfe? Inſomuche that his hart can not reaſt in the nyght: This is alſo a vayne thyng.

24 (k) Is it not better then for a man to eate and drynke, and his ſoule to be mery in his labour? yea I ſawe that this alſo was a gift of God.

(k) As it is the bleſſyng of God to obteyne riches honeſtly, ſo is it no leſſe bleſſyng to refreaſhe hym ſelfe with the fruites therof in meaſure. Of both whiche bleſſynges Solomon confeſſeth hym ſelfe to haue taſted largely, and yet not happy thereby.

25 For who wyl eate or goe more luſtily to his worke then I?

26 And why? God geueth to the man that is good before hym, wyſdome, vnderſtanding, and gladneſſe: but vnto the ſinner he geueth weeryneſſe, that he may geather and heape togeather the thyng that afterwarde ſhalbe geuen vnto hym whom it pleaſeth GOD: This is nowe a vayne thyng, yea a very diſquietneſſe, and vexation of mynde.

The.iii.Chapter.

1 Al thynges haue theyr tyme. 14 The workes of God are perfect, and cauſe vs to feare hym. 17 God ſhal iudge both the iuſt and vniuſt.

A 1 Euery[a] thyng hath a time, yea al that is vnder the heauen hath his conuenient ſeaſon.

(a) Although true felicitie is not to be put in any worldly thing: yet God hath appoynted al neceſſarie thynges to be done in due tyme. order, and meaſure.

2 There is a tyme to be borne, and a tyme to dye: there is a tyme to plant, and a tyme to plucke vp the thyng that is planted.

3 A time to ſlay, and a time to make whole: a time to breake downe, and a tyme to build vp.

4 A tyme to weepe, and a tyme to laugh: a tyme to mourne, and a tyme to daunce.

5 A tyme to caſt away ſtones, and a time to geather ſtones togeather: A time to imbrace, and a tyme to refrayne from imbracing.

6 A tyme to winne, and a tyme to loſe: a time to ſpare, and a time to ſpende.

B 7 A time to cut in peeces, and a tyme to ſowe togeather: A time to kepe ſcilence, and a time to ſpeake.

8 A tyme to loue, and a tyme to hate: A tyme of warre, and a tyme of peace.

9 What hath a man els that dooth any thing, but weerineſſe and labour?

10 (b) For as touchyng the trauayle and carefulneſſe whiche God hath geuen vnto men, I ſee that he hath geuen it them to be exerciſed in it.

(b) God hath appoynted that euery man ſhoulde diligently trauaile and take paynes in his vocation, to the ende he woulde haue hym humble and feare god.

11 Al this hath he ordeyned marueilous goodly, to euery thyng his due tyme: He hath planted ignorance alſo in the hartes of men, that they ſhould not comprehend the ground of his workes whiche he dooth from the begynnyng to the ende.

12 So I perceiued that in thoſe thynges there is nothyng better for a man then to be mery, and to doo wel as long as he lyueth.

13 For al that a man eateth and drynketh, yea whatſoeuer a man enioyeth of al his labour: that ſame is a gyft of God.

14 I conſydered alſo that whatſoeuer God C dooth, it continueth for euer: And that nothyng can be put vnto it, nor taken from it, & that God dooth it to the intent that menne ſhoulde feare hym.

15 *The thing that hath benne, is nowe: and the thing that is for to comme, hath benne afore tyme: for God reſtoreth agayne the thyng that was paſt.

Eccle. 1.d.

16 Moreouer, I ſawe vnder the ſunne vngodlineſſe in the ſteade of iudgement, and iniquitie in ſteade of ryghteouſneſſe.

17 Then thought I in my mynde, God ſhal ſeparate the ryhgteous from the vngodly: and then ſhalbe the tyme and indgement of al counſayles and workes.

18 I communed with myne owne hart alſo concernyng the chyldren of menne, how god hath choſen them, and yet letteth them appeare as though they were beaſtes.

19 (c) For it happeneth vnto menne as it dooth vnto beaſtes, euen one condition vnto them both: as the one dyeth, ſo dyeth the other, yea they haue both one manner of breath: ſo that in this a man hath no preeminence aboue a beaſt, but are al ſubdued vnto vanitie.

(c) There is no difference betwixt a man and a beaſt as touching the body, whiche of them both dyeth: but the ſoule of man liueth immortally, and the body of man riſeth vp agayne by the mighty power of the ſpirite of God.

20 They goe al vnto one place: for as they be al of duſt, ſo ſhal they al turne vnto duſt agayne.

21 (d) Who knoweth the ſpirite of " man that goeth

(d) The immortalitie of the ſoule is not knowen by carnal reaſon or ſenſe: but by the worde and ſpirite of god.

goeth vpwarde, and the breath of the beaſt that goeth downe to the earth?

22 Wherefore I perceiue that there is nothing better for a man, then to be ioyful in his labour, for that is his portion: But who wyl bryng hym to ſee the thing that ſhal comme after hym?

The.iiii.Chapter.

1 The innocent are oppreſſed. 4 Mens labours are ful of abuſe and vanitie. 9 Mans ſocietie is neceſſarie. 13 A young man poore and wyſe, is to be preferred before an olde kyng that is a foole.

A 1 SO I turned me, and * conſydered al the violent wrong that is donne vnder the ſunne: and beholde the teares of ſuche as were oppreſſed, and there was no man to comfort them, or that would deliuer and defend them from the violence of theyr oppreſſours.

Abac. 1.a.
Eccle. 5.b.

2 Wherefore I ‖ iudged thoſe that are dead, to be more happy then thoſe that be alyue:

‖ Or, prayſed.

3 (a) Yea hym that is yet vnborne, to be better at eaſe then they both: becauſe he ſeeth not the miſerable workes that are donne vnder the ſunne.

(a) He ſpeaketh here accordyng to the iudgement of the fleaſhe, whiche can not wel abyde perſecution & trouble.

4 (b) Agayne, I ſawe that al trauayle and diligence of labour that euery man taketh in hand, was donne of enuie againſt his neighbour: This is alſo a vayne thyng, and a vexation of mynde.

(b) The more perfect that ẏ worke is, the more it is enuied of the wycked.

5 (c) The foole foldeth his handes togeather, and eateth vp his owne fleaſhe.

(c) For idleneſſe deſtroyeth him ſelfe.

6 One handful [ſayth he] is better with reaſt, then both the handes ful with labour and trauayle of mynde.

B 7 Moreouer I turned me, and beholde yet another vanitie vnder the ſunne:

8 There is one man, no mo but hym ſelfe alone, hauyng neyther chylde nor brother, yet is there no ende of his careful trauayle, his eyes can not be ſatiſfied with riches: [yet ſayth he not] for whom doo I take ſuche trauayle? For whoſe pleaſure doo I thus conſume away my lyfe? This is alſo a vayne and miſerable thyng.

9 (d) Therefore two are better then one, for they may wel enioy the profite of theyr labour: For yf one of them fal, his companion helpeth hym vp agayne.

(d) Mutual ſocietie is both comfortable & neceſſarie for a mans lyfe.

10 But wo is hym that is alone: for yf he fal, he hath not another to helpe hym vp.

11 Agayne, when two ſleepe togeather, they are warme: but howe can a body be warme alone?

12 One may be ouercome, but two may make reſiſtance: A three folde gable is not lightly broken.

13 A poore childe beyng wyſe, is better then an olde king that doteth, ‖ and can not beware in time to comme.

‖ Or, and wyl not receiue admonition.

14 * Somme one commeth out of priſon, and is made a king: and another whiche is borne in the kingdome, commeth vnto pouertie.

Gen. 12.b.
1.Reg.16.c

15 And I perceiued that al menne liuing vnder the ſunne, (e) goe with the ſeconde chylde that ſhal ſtande vp in the ſteade of the other.

(e) Menne ſeeke rather to pleaſe and to comme into fauour with hym that ſhal ſucceede into the place of honour, then with him that dooth occupie the preſent eſtate.

16 As for the people that haue benne before hym, and that comme after hym, they are innumerable, and they that comme after hym ſhal not (f) reioyce of hym: This is alſo a vaine thyng, and vexation of mynde.

(f) The people wyl not be long pleaſed with hym that occupieth the place of honour.

17 When thou commeſt into the houſe of god, keepe thy foote, and drawe nygh, that God whiche is at hand may heare that thou geue not the (g) offeryng of fooles: for they knowe nought but to doo euyl.

(g) We muſt direct our fayth, prayer, and workes, by the worde of God: and not by a blind or wycked intent.

The.v.Chapter.

1 Not to ſpeake lyghtly, cheefely in Gods matters. 9 The couetous can neuer haue yenough, 11 The labourers ſleepe is ſweete. 14 Man when he dyeth, taketh nothyng with hym. 18 To lyue ioyfully and with a contented mynde, is the gyft of God.

A 1 BE (a) not haſtie with thy mouth, and let not thyne hart ſpeake any thyng raſhly before God: For God is in heauen, and thou vpon earth, therfore let thy wordes be fewe.

(a) Be not raſhe in ſpeakyng of the maieſtie of god: or in vowyng and praying to God.

2 For where muche carefulneſſe is, there are many dreames: and where many wordes are, there menne may heare fooles.

3 * If thou make a vowe vnto God, be not ſlacke to perfourme it: As for fooliſhe vowes he hath no pleaſure in them: yf thou promiſe any thyng, pay it.

Deut. 22.c
Baruc.6.c.

4 (b) For better is it that thou make no vow, then that thou ſhouldeſt promiſe, & not pay.

angel that it is thine ignorance: for then god wyl be angry at thy voyce, and deſtroy al the worke of thyne handes.

6 (d) And why? Whereas are many dreames, and many woordes, there are alſo diuers vanities: but looke that thou feare God.

B 7 If thou ſeeſt the poore to be oppreſſed and wrongfully dealt withal, ſo that equitie and right of the lawe is wreſted in the land, marueyle not thou at ſuche a thyng: for he that is (e) hygher then the higheſt regardeth, and there be higher then they.

8 (f) The increaſe of the earth vpholdeth al thyng: yea the king him ſelfe is maynteined by huſbandrie.

9 He that loueth money, wyl neuer be ſatiſfied with money, & he that loueth riches, ſhalbe without the fruite thereof: This is alſo a vayne thing.

10 Whereas muche riches is, there are many alſo that ſpende them away: And what pleaſure more hath he that poſſeſſeth them, ſauing that he may looke vpon them with his eyes?

11 A labouryng man ſleepeth ſweetely, whether it be litle or muche that he eateth: but the abundance of the riche wyl not ſuffer hym to ſleepe.

12 (g) Yet is there a ſore plague whiche I haue ſeene vnder the ſunne [namely] riches kept to the hurt of hym that hath them in poſſeſſion:

13 For oft tymes they periſhe with his great miſerie and trouble: and if he haue a chylde, it getteth nothyng.

14 *Lyke as he came naked out of his mothers wombe, ſo goeth he thither agayne, and caryeth nothyng away with hym of al his labour. C

15 This is a miſerable plague, that he ſhal goe euen as he came away: What helpeth it hym then that he hath laboured in the wynde?

16 (h) All the dayes of his lyfe alſo he dyd eate in the darke, with great carefulneſſe, ſickneſſe, and ſorowe.

17 (i) Therefore me thynke it a better and a fayrer thyng, a man to eate and drynke, and to be refreaſhed of al his labour that he taketh vnder the ſunne, al the dayes of his lyfe whiche God geueth hym: for this is his portion.

18 For vnto whom ſo euer god geueth riches, goodes, & power, he geueth it hym to enioy it, to take it for his portion, and to be refreaſhed of his labour: this is the gyft of God.

19 For he thinketh not muche howe long he ſhal lyue, foraſmuche as God filleth his hart with gladneſſe.

(d) Dreames are not to be credited: but God is to be feared.

(e) Meanyng that God wyl redreſſe theſe thynges, and therefore we muſt depende vpon hym.

(f) The decay of huſbandry is the decay of the prince.

(g) A plague of the couetous man.

* Iob. 1. d. 1. Tim. 6. b

(h) That is, in vayne, and without profite.

(i) Man by reaſon can comprehende nothyng better in this lyfe then to vſe the gyftes of god ſoberly and comfortably: for to knowe farther, is a ſpecial gyft of god reuealed by his ſpirite.

The.vi.Chapter.

The miſerable eſtate of hym to whom God hath geuen riches, and not the grace to vſe them.

A 1 There is yet a plague vnder the ſunne, and it is a general thyng among menne: When God geueth a man riches, goods, & honour, ſo that he wanteth nothyng of al that his hart can deſyre, and yet God geueth hym not leaue to enioy the ſame, but another man ſpendeth them: This is a vayne thyng, and a miſerable plague.

2 If a man begeat a hundred chyldren, and liue many yeeres, ſo that his dayes are many in number, and yet can not enioy his good, (a) neyther be buried: as for hym, I ſay, that vntymely birth is better then he.

3 For he commeth to nought, and ſpendeth his tyme in darkeneſſe, and his name is forgotten.

4 Moreouer he ſeeth not the ſunne, and knoweth not of it: & yet hath he more reaſt then the other.

5 Yea, though he liued two thouſand yeeres, yet hath he no good life: Comme not al to one place?

6 (b) All the labour that a man taketh, is for hym[n] ſelfe, and yet his deſyre is neuer filled after his mynde.

7 For what hath the wyſe more then the foole? What helpeth it the poore that (c) he knoweth to walke with fooles before the liuyng.

8 (d) The cleare ſyght of the eye, is better then that the ſoule ſhoulde walke after deſyres of the luſt: Howbeit, this is alſo a vaine thing, and a diſquietneſſe of mynde.

9 The thyng that hath benne, is named already, and knowen that it is euen man hym ſelfe: neyther may he goe to lawe with hym (e) that is mightier then he.

10 Many thynges there be that encreaſe vanitie, and what hath a man els?

11 For who knoweth what is good for man liuing in the dayes of his vayne lyfe, whiche is but a ſhadowe? Or who wyl tel a man what ſhal happẽ after him vnder the ſunne?

(a) The wycked couetous man by many kynde of offẽces, wanteth the honour of a Chriſtian mans burial, either by murtheryng hym ſelf, or by ſuch other kynde of offence.

(b) That is, to death, meaning that he is nothyng better then the vntymely frutte.

[n] Or, for his mouth.

(c) That is, that he knoweth howe to vſe his riches wel in the iudgement of the wyſe.

(d) It is better to be content with that god hath geuen, then to folowe his deſire that neuer wyl be ſatiſfied.

(e) That is with god, who wyl teache hym that he is mortal.

The.vii.Chapter.

Diuers preceptes to folowe that whiche is good, and to auoyde the contrary.

Prou. 22.a
Canti. 1.a.

(a) Becauſe that this corporal death is the entring into lyfe euerlaſtyng.

2 (b) It is better to goe into an houſe of mournyng, then into a banketting houſe: for there is the end of al menne, and he that is liuing taketh it to hart.

(b) The houſe of mournyng put vs in mind of death, and ſo to examine and amende our lyues.

3 (c) Grauitie is better then to laugh: for when the countenance is heauie, the hart is refourmed.

(c) The hart of a ſinner is ſooner refourmed by an angrie countenance, then by a ſmilyng.

4 The hart of the wyſe is in the mournyng houſe: but the hart of the foolyſhe is in the houſe of myrth.

Pro.17.a. 5 *It is better to geue eare to the chaſtenyng of a wyſe man, then to heare the ſongue of fooles:

6 For the laughyng of fooles, is lyke the (d) crackyng of thornes vnder a pot: and that is but a vayne thyng.

(d) Thornes in the fyre crackleth for a while, but they are ſoone gonne out.

B 7 The wiſe man hateth wrong dealing, and abhorreth the hart that coueteth rewardes.

8 Better is it to conſyder the ende of a thyng, then the begynnyng: The patient of ſpirite, is better then the high mynded.

9 Be not haſtily angry in thy mynde: for wrath reaſteth in the boſome of fooles.

10 (e) Say not thou, What is the cauſe that the dayes of the olde tyme were better then they that be nowe? for that were no wyſe queſtion.

(e) Good dayes are not to be eſteemed by proſperitie, but by vertue and true religion, as the dayes of Chriſte are better thē the former dayes of Moſes.

11 Wyſdome with inheritance is good, yet better is it with them that without care may beholde the ſunne:

12 For wiſdome defendeth as wel as money, and the excellent knowledge and wyſdome, geueth lyfe vnto hym that hath it in poſſeſſion.

13 Conſyder the woorke of God, howe that no man can make the thyng (f) ſtrayght, whiche he maketh crooked.

(f) No man can make him ſee or goe, whō god hath appoynted to be borne blind or lame.

15 Al thynges haue I conſydered in the tyme of my vanitie: that the (h) iuſt man periſheth for his ryghteouſneſſe ſake, and the vngodly liueth in his wickedneſſe.

16 (i) Therefore be thou neyther to ryghteous, (k) nor ouer wyſe, that thou periſhe not.

(i) Folow not thy good intent in thoſe things whiche be contrary to Gods commaundement, or punish not euery lyght fault with extremitie.

(k) Be not wyſe in thyne owne conceipt.

17 (l) Be neyther to vnryghteous alſo, nor to fooliſhe, leſt thou dye before thy tyme.

(l) Depart quickly from that that is wicked.

18 It is good for thee to (m) take holde of this, and not to let that goe out of thy hande: For he that feareth God, commeth foorth with them al.

The.iii.Chapter.

2 To obey princes and magiſtrates. 17 The woorkes of God paſſe mans knowledge.

ſee thou continue in no euil thyng: for whatſoeuer it pleaſeth hym, that dooth he.

4 Like as when a king geueth a charge, his commaundement is mighty: Euen ſo, *Who may ſay vnto hym, What dooeſt thou?

Iob.11.b.

5 *Who ſo kepeth the commaundement, ſhal feele no harme: but a wiſe mans hart diſcerneth the tyme and iudgement.

Leuit.18.a

6 For euery thyng wil haue oportunitie and iudgement: & this is the thing that maketh menne ful of carefulneſſe and ſorowe.

B 7 And why? a man knoweth not what is for to comme: for who can tel hym when it ſhalbe?

8 Neither is there any man that hath power ouer the ſpirite to kepe ſtyl the ſpirite, nor to haue any power in the tyme of death, nor that can make an ende of the battayle, neyther may vngodlyneſſe deliuer them that meddle withal.

9 Al theſe thynges haue I conſydered, and applyed my mynde vnto euery worke that is vnder the ſunne, howe one man hath lordſhip vpon another to (c) his owne harme.

10 For I haue ſeene often the vngodly brought to theyr graues, (d) and yet they haue returned into the citie agayne: and (e) came from the place of holy menne, whiche in the citie were growen out of memorie, as were thoſe alſo that lyued wel: This is alſo a vayne thyng.

11 (f) Becauſe nowe that euyl workes are not haſtily pouniſhed, the hart of man geueth hym ſelfe ouer vnto wickedneſſe.

(c) As commeth often times to tyrantes & wicked rulers.
(d) That is, the vngodly hath benne praiſed after theyr burial.
(e) That is, the holy men after their burial grow out of memorie.

(f) Where iuſtice is delayed, there ſinne raigneth

12 Becauſe an euil perſon offendeth an hundred tymes, and God deferred, geuyng hym long lyfe, therefore am I ſure that it ſhal goe wel with them that feare God, whiche haue hym before theyr eyes.

13 Agayne, as for the vngodly it ſhal not be wel with hym: neyther ſhal he prolong his dayes: but euen as a ſhadowe, ſo ſhal he be that feareth not God.

14 Yet is there a vanitie vpon earth: There be iuſt menne vnto whom it happeneth as though they had the workes of the vngodly: Agayne, there be vngodly, with whom it goeth as though they had the workes of the ryghteous: This haue I called alſo a vayne thyng. C

15 Therefore I commende gladneſſe, becauſe a man hath no better thing vnder the ſunne, then to eate and drynke, and to be merye: (g) for that ſhal he haue of his labour, al the dayes of his lyfe which God geueth hym vnder the ſunne.

(g) This he ſpeaketh in the perſon of a carnal man.

16 And ſo I applied my minde to learne wyſdome, and to knowe the trauayle that is in the worlde, and that of ſuche a faſhion, that I ſuffered not myne eyes to ſleepe, neyther day nor nyght.

17 I vnderſtoode of al the workes of God, but it is not poſſible for a man to attayne vnto the workes that are donne vnder the ſunne: and though he beſtowe his labour to ſeeke them out, yet can he not reache vnto them: yea though a wiſe man woulde vndertake to knowe them, yet ſhal he not fynde them.

The.ix.Chapter.

1 By no outwarde thyng can man knowe whom God loueth or hateth. 11 No man knoweth his ende. 19 Wiſdome excelleth ſtrength.

A 1 FOr al theſe thynges purpoſed I in my mynde to ſeeke out: The ryghteous and wiſe, yea & theyr ſeruantes alſo, are in the hand of God, (a) and there is no man that knoweth eyther loue or hate, but al thynges are before them.

(a) By any outwarde thyng in this lyfe no man knoweth whether he is loued or hated of God.

2 It happeneth vnto one as vnto another, it goeth with the ryghteous as with the vngodly, (b) with the good and cleane, as with the vncleane, with hym that offereth, as with hym that offereth not: lyke as it goeth with the vertuous, ſo goeth it alſo with the ſinner: as it happeneth vnto the periured, ſo happeneth it alſo to him that is afrayde to be forſworne.

(b) Proſperitie, & aduerſitie, commeth in this lyfe, as wel to the godly, as to the wicked.

3 Among al thinges that comme to paſſe vnder the ſunne, this is a miſerie, that it happeneth vnto al alike: This is the cauſe alſo that the hartes of menne are ful of wickedneſſe, and madde fooliſhneſſe is in theyr hartes as long as they lyue, vntyl they dye.

4 And why? as long as a man lyueth, he hath an hope: for a quicke (c) dogge [ſay they] is better then a dead lion.

5 For they that be liuyng, knowe that they ſhal dye: but they (d) that be dead, knowe nothyng, neyther deſerue they any more, for theyr memorial is forgotten.

6 Alſo theyr loue, and theyr hatred, and theyr enuie is nowe periſhed, neyther haue they any more part in the worlde in al that is donne vnder the ſunne.

B 7 (e) Goe thou thy way then, eate thy bread with ioy, and drynke thy wine with a glad hart, for thy workes pleaſe God: Let thy garmentes be allwayes white, * and let thy head lacke no oyntment.

(e) The wycked flatter thē ſelues to be in Gods fauour whatſoeuer they doo, for that they doo abounde in proſperitie.
Mat.6.b.
Pro.5.c.

8 Uſe thy ſelfe to liue ioyfully with thy wife, whom thou loueſt al the dayes of thy lyfe, whiche is but vayne, that God geueth thee vnder the ſunne al the dayes of thy vanitie: for that is thy portion in this life, of al thy labour and trauaile that thou takeſt vnder the ſunne.

9 Whatſoeuer thou takeſt in hand to doo, that doo with al thy power: for in the graue that thou goeſt (f) vnto, there is neyther worke, counſayle, knowledge, nor wyſdome.

(f) There is no tyme of working, or repentance after this lyfe.

10 So I turned me vnto other thyngs vnder the ſunne, and I ſaw that in running it helpeth not to be ſwift, in battaile it helpeth not to be ſtrong, to feedyng it helpeth not to be wyſe, to riches it helpeth not to be a man of muche vnderſtanding, to be had in fauour it helpeth not to be cunnyng: (g) but that al lyeth in tyme and fortune.

(g) Thus the wicked worldlinges are deceiued, attributing to fortune ỹ whiche is ordered by the ſecrete prouidēce of god, for that the rewarde, according to mens doings, is not in this life, but cheefely in the lyfe to comme.

11 For a man knoweth not his tyme: but like as the fiſhes are taken with the angle, and as the byrdes are caught with the ſnare: euen ſo are menne taken in the perillous time, when it commeth ſuddenly vpon them.

12 (h) This wiſdome haue I ſeene alſo vnder the ſunne, and me thought it a great thyng:

(h) A praiſe of wyſe menne.

13 There was a litle citie, & a few menne within it: ſo there came a great kyng and beſieged it, and made great bulwarkes agaynſt it.

14 And in the citie there was founde a poore man, but he was wyſe, whiche with his wiſdome deliuered the citie, yet was there no body that had any reſpect to ſuche a ſimple man. C

15 Then ſayde I, wyſdome is better then ſtrength: Neuertheleſſe, a ſimple mans wiſdome is deſpiſed, and his wordes are not hearde.

16 A wiſe mans counſayle that is " folowed in ſcilence, is farre aboue the cryeing of a captayne among fooles.

" Or, heard.

17 * For wyſdome is better then harneſſe: but one ſinner alone deſtroyeth muche goodneſſe.

The xii. Chapter.

1 To thinke on God in youth, and not to deferre til age. 7 The ſoule returneth to God. 12 Wiſdome is the gyft of God, and conſiſteth in fearyng hym, and keeping his commaunmentes.

2 Remember thy maker the ſooner in thy youth, or euer the dayes of aduerſitie comme, and or the yeeres drawe nye when thou ſhalt ſay, I haue not pleaſure in them.

3 Before the ſunne, the lyght, the moone, and ſtarres be darkened, and or the cloudes turne agayne after the rayne:

1 The familier talke and myſtical communication of the ſpiritual loue betweene Ieſus Chriſte and his Churche. 6 The domeſtical enimies that perſecute the Churche.

A 1 O That (a) he woulde kyſſe me with the kiſſes of his mouth: for thy loue is more pleaſant then wine, and that becauſe of the good & pleaſant ſauour of thy moſt precious baulmes.

A 1 I am (a) comme into my garden, O my ſyſter, my ſpouſe, I haue geathered my myrre with my ſpice: I haue eaten hony with my hony combe, I haue drunken my wyne with my mylke: Eate, O ye frendes, drynke and be merie, O ye beloued.

(a) The gardē ſignifieth the Churche of God, in the which Chriſte beſtoweth his ſinguler benefites.

2 I am a ſleepe, but my hart is wakyng: I heare the voyce of my beloued whē he knocketh, ſayeing, Open to me, O my ſiſter, my loue, my doue, my dearlyng: for my head is ful of deawe, and the lockes of my heare are ful of the night droppes.

3 I haue put of my coate, how can I doo it on agayne? I haue waſhed my feete, how ſhal I fyle them agayne?

4 My loue put in his hande at the hole, and my hart was moued within me.

5 I ſtoode vp to open vnto my beloued, and my handes dropped with Myrre, and the Myrre ranne downe my fyngers vpon the locke.

6 I opened vnto my beloued, but he was departed, and gonne his way: Nowe when he ſpake, my hart was gonne: (b) I ſought him, but I could not finde him: I cried vpon him, neuertheleſſe he gaue me no anſweare.

(b) Chriſte doeth leaue his for a time, for that he woulde ſtyrre vp in them a greater deſyre of hym.

B 7 So the watchmen that went about the citie, founde me, ſmote me, and wounded me: yea they that kept the walles tooke away my kerchaffe from me.

8 I charge you therefore, O ye daughters of Hieruſalem, if ye finde my beloued, that ye tel hym howe that I am ſicke for loue.

9 What manner of man is thy loue aboue other louers, O thou fayreſt among women? Or what can thy loue doo more then other louers, that thou chargeſt vs ſo ſtraitly?

10 As for my loue, he is white and red coloured, a (c) goodly perſon, among tenne thouſande.

(c) The Churche ſetteth forth Chriſte to be of moſt perfection and comlyneſſe.

11 His head is as the moſt fine golde, yͤ lockes of his heare are buſhed, & blacke as a crowe.

12 His eyes are as the eyes of doues by the water brokes, as though they were waſhed with milke, " and are ſet lyke pearles in gold.

" Some reade, and remayne by the ful veſſels.

13 His cheekes are lyke a garden bed, wherein the Apothecaries plant al manner of ſweete thynges.

14 His lyppes are lyke lillies that drop ſweete ſmellyng Myrre: His handes are lyke golde rynges, hauing incloſed the precious ſtone of Tharſis. C

15 His body is as the pure iuorie, dect ouer with Saphires: His legges are as the pillers of Marble ſet vpon ſockettes of golde.

16 His face is as Libanus: and as the beautie of the Cedar trees.

17 The woordes of his mouth are ſweete: yea he is altogeather louely: Suche a one is my loue, O ye daughters of Hieruſalem, ſuch a one is my loue.

The.vi.Chapter.

2 The Churche aſſureth her ſelfe of the loue of Chriſte. 3 The prayſes of the Churche. 8 She is but one, and vndefiled.

A 1 Whyther is thy loue gonne then, O thou faireſt amõg women? whither is thy loue departed, and we wil ſeeke hym with thee?

2 [a] My loue is gonne downe into his garden vnto the ſweete ſmelling beddes, that he may refreaſhe him ſelfe in the garden, and geather lillies.

(a) Chriſte is conuerſant in his Churche, whiche is directed by his ſcriptures.

3 My loue is myne, and I am his, which feedeth among the lillies.

4 Thou art beautiful, O my loue, as is [the place] Thirza, thou art fayre as Hieruſalem, feareful as an armie of menne with their banners.

5 Turne away thyne eyes from me, for they " haue ſet me on fyre: Thy hearie lockes are lyke a flocke of goates ſhorne vpon yͤ mount of Gilead.

" Or, ouercomme me.

6 Thy teeth are lyke a flocke of ſhorne ſheepe whiche goe out of the waſhing place, where euery one beareth twinnes, and not one vnfruitful among them.

B 7 Thy cheekes are like a peece of a pomegranate within thy lockes of heare.

8 [b] There are threeſcore queenes, foureſcore wiues, and damſelles without number.

9 [c] One is my doue, one is my dearelyng: She is the onely beloued of her mother, and deare vnto her that bare her: When yͤ daughters ſawe her, they ſayde ſhe was bleſſed, yea the queenes and wiues prayſed her.

(b) There be many in the Churche of God, & diuers orders and degrees therein.

(c) Diuers perticuler Churches diſperſed, maketh but one catholique Churche.

10 What is ſhe this that looketh foorth as the morning, fayre as the moone, cleare as the ſunne, and fearefull as an armie of menne with their banners?

11 [d] I went downe into the nut garden, to ſee what grewe by the brookes, and to looke if the vineyarde floriſhed, or if the pomegranates were not foorth.

(d) Chriſte looketh vpon his Churche ſubiect to affliction, what fruite it bryngeth.

12 I knewe not that my ſoule had made me the chariot of yͤ people that be vnder tribute.

13 Turne agayne, turne agayne, O thou perfect one, turne agayne, turne agayne and we wyl looke vpon thee: What wyl ye ſee in the [e] Sulamite? She is lyke menne of warre ſingyng in a companie.

(e) Sulamite, that is, Hieruſalem, the whiche was Shalem, that ſignifieth peace.

The.vii.Chapter.

1 The beautie of the Churche in al her members. 10 She is aſſured of Chriſtes loue towardes her.

A 1 O howe pleaſant are thy treadings with thy ſhoes, thou princes daughter? the ioyntes of thy thighes are lyke a fayre iewel, whiche is wrought by a cunning woorkemaiſter.

2 Thy [a] nauel is like a rounde goblet, which is neuer without drinke.

3 Thy [b] wombe is lyke a heape of wheate that is ſet about with lillies.

4 [c] Thy two breaſtes are like two twinnes of young roes.

5 [d] Thy necke is as it were a towre of iuorie: thyne [e] eyes alſo are lyke the water pooles that are in Heſebon, beſide the port of Bathrabbim, thy [f] noſe is like the towre of Libanus, whiche looketh towarde Damaſcus.

6 [g] That head that ſtandeth vpõ thee is like Carmel: and the heare of thy head is lyke purple, and lyke a king dwellyng among many water conduites.

7 O howe fayre and louely art thou my dearlyng in pleaſures?

8 Thy ſtature is lyke a [h] paulme tree, and thy breaſtes lyke the grapes.

(a) Thy nauel is repleniſhed with the riche knowledge of Gods woord, and heauenly deſyres.
(b) The Church is ful of ſpiritual treaſures.
(c) The two teſtamentes commeth from God, and they be of equal auctoritie.
(d) The preachers ought to be pure.
(e) The magiſtrates muſt be wel inſtructed in the woord of God
(f) The iudges of good and euyl.
(g) The prince that alwayes ſtãdeth aboue, lyke a watchman to defend the body.
(h) The Church dooth encreaſe, the more it is preſſed and perſecuted.

9 I ſayde, I wyl climbe vp into the paulme tree, and take holde of his hye branches.

10 [i] Thy breaſtes alſo ſhalbe as the wine cluſters, the ſmel of thy noſethrilles lyke as the ſmel of apples.

(i) The preachers and miniſters of the ſacramentes, muſt folowe yͤ pure woorde of God alway

11 And thy rooffe of thy mouth lyke the beſt wine, whiche is meete for my beſt beloued, pleaſant for his lyppes, and for his teeth to chawe.

12 I am my beloueds, and he ſhal turne hym vnto me.

13 O comme on my loue, we wyl goe foorth into the fielde, and take our lodgyng in the villages.

C 14 [k] In the morning wil we goe ſee yͤ vineyarde, we wil ſee if the vine be ſprong foorth, if the grapes be growen, and if the pomegranates be ſhot out.

15 [l] There wyl I geue thee my breaſtes: the Mandragoras geue their ſweete ſmel, and beſide our doores are al manner of pleaſant fruites both newe and olde, whiche I haue kept for thee, O my beloued.

(k) Chriſte wyl cal them that profeſſe his woorde to accompt what fruite they doe bryng.
(l) God geueth his graces to the faithful, the whiche be in his Churche.

The.viii.Chapter,

2 The Churche wyl be taught by Chriſte. 3 She is vpholden by hym. 6 The vehement loue where with Chriſte loueth her. 11 She is the vine that bryngeth foorth fruite to the ſpiritual Solomon, whiche is Jeſus Chriſte.

A 1 O That (a) I myght fynde thee without, & kyſſe thee, whom I loue as my brother which ſuckt my mothers breaſtes, & that thou ſhalt not be deſpiſed,

(a) The fathers of the old teſtament, deſireth to ſee the incarnation of Chriſte.

2 I wil leade thee, & bring thee into my mothers houſe, that thou mightest teache me, and that I myght geue thee drynke of the ſpiced wine, and of the ſweete ſappe of my pomegranates.

Canti.2.b. 3 * His (b) leaſt hande ſhalbe vnder my head, and his ryght hande ſhal imbrace me.

(b) His gratious fauour ſhal preſerue me from deſperation in aduerſitie, and from preſumption in proſperitie.

4 I charge you, O ye daughters of Hieruſalem, that ye wake not vp my loue, nor touch her, tyl ſhe be content her ſelfe.

5 (What is ſhe this that commeth vp from the wyldernesſe, and leaneth vpon her loue?) I wake thee vp amōg the apple trees where thy mother conceiued thee, where thy mother [I ſay] brought thee into the worlde.

6 (c) O ſet me as a ſeale vpon thyne hart, and as a ſeale vpon thyne arme: for loue is myghtie as the death, and gelouſie as the hel.

(c) The Church deſyreth to be ioyned vnto Chriſte by the ſeale of the holy ghoſt.

B 7 Her coales are coales of fire, and a very vehement flambe [of the Lorde]: ſo that many waters are not able to quenche loue, neyther may the ſtreames drowne it: yea if a man would geue al the good of his houſe for loue, he ſhoulde count it nothyng.

8 (d) Our ſiſter is but young & hath no breaſtes: what ſhal we doo for our ſiſter whē ſhe ſhalbe ſpoken for?

(d) The Jewes Church ſpeaketh this of ẏ Church of the Gentiles, the which wanted both teſtamentes.

9 (e) If ſhe be a wal, we ſhal buylde a ſyluer bulwarke there vpon: if ſhe be a doore, we ſhal faſten her with boordes of Cedar tree.

(e) The Apoſtles preacheth to them that are called in worſhip of god to ſaluation.

10 I am a wal, and my breaſtes like towres, then was I as one that hath founde fauour in his ſyght.

11 Solomon hath a vineyarde at Baalhamon: and this vineyarde deliuered he vnto the keepers, that euery one for the fruite thereof ſhoulde geue hym a thouſande peeces of ſiluer.

12 My vineyarde whiche is myne, is in my ſight: thou (O Solomon) muſt haue a (f) thouſand, & the keepers two hundred, which keepe the fruite.

(f) By this thouſande, is ſignified the greateſt profite, whiche is ipſe euerlaſtyng, whiche is obteyned by the grace of God, & not by our merites.

13 Thou that dwelleſt in the gardens, (g) O let me heare thy voyce, that my companions may hearken to the ſame.

(g) Chriſte dwelleth in his Churche, and his ſheepe heare his voyce.

14 (h) O geat thee away my loue, and be as a Roe or a young Hart vpon the ſweete ſmellyng mountaynes.

(h) The Church dooth pray that Chriſte departing with his bodyly preſence, he woulde aſſiſt her in al kindes of neceſſities with the grace of his heauenly ſpirite.

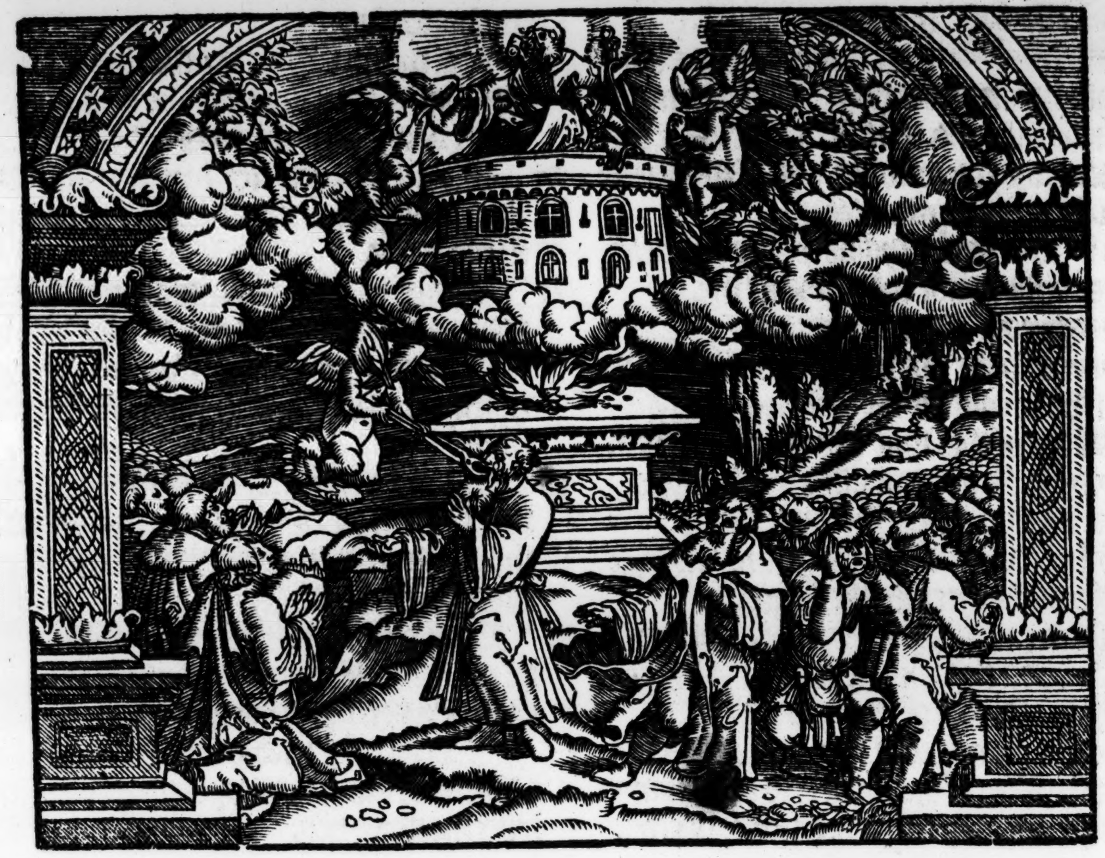
The booke of the prophete Eſai.

The firſt Chapter.

2 The prophete accuſeth the ſinnes of the people: namely of ingratefulneſſe, ſtubburneſſe, 11 faythleſſe ſeruice of God, 24 and ſheweth Gods terrible iudgement agaynſt them, vnleſſe they repent.



A 1 THE (a) viſion of Eſai the ſonne of Amos, which he ſawe vpon Iuda and Hieruſalem, in the dayes of Vzia & Ioathan, Ahaz and Iehezekiah, kinges of Iuda.

(a) A reuelation, or prophecie.

2 Heare, O heauens, and hearken, O earth: for the lord hath ſpoken, I haue nouriſhed and brought vp chyldren, and they haue donne vnfaythfully agaynſt me.

3 The oxe hath knowen his owner, and the aſſe his maiſters cribbe: [but] Iſrael hath not knowen, my people hath geuen no heede.

4 Ah, ſinneful nation, a people laden with iniquitie, a ſeede of the wicked, corrupt children: they haue forſaken the Lorde, they haue prouoked the holy one of Iſrael vnto anger, they are gonne backewarde.

5 Why ſhoulde ye be ſtriken any more? [for] ye are euer fallyng away: euery head is diſeaſed, and euery hart heauie:

6 From the ſole of the foote, vnto the head, there is nothing ſounde in it: [but] woundes, blaynes, and putrifieyng ſore: they haue not benne ſalued, neyther wrapped vp, neyther molified with the oyntment.

7 Your land is waſted, your cities are burnt vp, ſtrangers deuour your lande before your face, and it is made deſolate, as it were the deſtruction of enimies [in the tyme of warre.] B

8 And the daughter of Sion ſhalbe leaft as a cotage in a vineyarde, lyke a lodge in a garden of Cucumbers, like a beſieged citie.

9 Except the Lorde of hoſtes had leaft vs a ſmalle remnant, we ſhoulde haue benne as Sodoma, and lyke vnto Gomorra.

10 Heare the woord of the Lorde ye lordes of Sodoma, and hearken vnto the lawe of our God, thou people of Gomorra.

11 Why offer ye ſo many ſacrifices to me, wyl the Lorde ſay? I am ful of the burnt offeringes of weathers, and of the fatneſſe of fed beaſtes, (b) I haue no pleaſure in the blood of bullockes, lambes, and goates.

(b) God hateth al maner of ſeruice and workes ſeeme they neuer ſo good & holy, when they be donne without faith, and pureneſſe of mynde.

12 When ye comme to appeare before me, treadyng in my courtes, who hath required this at your handes?

13 Offer me no mo oblations, for it is but loſt labour: incenſe is an abominable thyng vnto me, I may not away with your newe moones, your ſabbothes and ſolempne meetinges, your ſolempne aſſemblies are wicked.

C 14 I hate your newe moones, and appointed feaſtes, euen from my very hart, they make me weery, I can not abyde them.

15 When you holde out your handes, I wyl turne myne eyes from you: and though ye make many prayers, yet I wyl heare nothing at al, ſeeyng your handes are ful of blood.

16 Waſhe you, make you cleane, put away your euyl thoughtes out of my ſyght: ceaſſe from dooyng of euyl,

17 Learne to doo wel, apply your ſelues to equitie, deliuer the oppreſſed, helpe the fatherleſſe to his right, let the widdowes complaint comme before you:

18 And then goe to, ſayth the Lorde, Let vs talke togeather: though your ſinnes be as red as ſcarlet, they ſhalbe as whyte as ſnowe: and though they were lyke purple, they ſhalbe as whyte as wool.

19 If ye be wyllyng and obedient, ye ſhal eate the good of the lande:

20 But if ye be obſtinate and rebellious, ye ſhalbe deuoured with the ſwoorde: for the mouth of the Lorde hath ſpoken [it.]

D 21 Howe happeneth it then that the ryghteous citie which was ful of equitie, is become vnfaythful as a whoore? Ryghteouſneſſe dwelt in it, but nowe murtherers.

22 Thy ſiluer is turned to droſſe, & thy wine mixt with water.

23 Thy princes are wicked, and companions of theeues: they loue gyftes altogeather, and gape for rewardes: As for the fatherleſſe they helpe hym not to his ryght, neyther wyl they let the wyddowes cauſes comme before thẽ.

24 Therefore ſaith the Lorde God of hoſtes, the mightie one of Iſrael: Ah, I muſt eaſe me of myne enimies, and auenge me of mine aduerſaries:

25 And I ſhal lay my hande vpon thee, and purely purge away thy droſſe, & take away al thy tinne:

26 And ſet thy iudges agayne as they were ſometyme, and thy ſenatours as they were from the beginning: and then thou ſhalt be called the righteous citie, the faythful citie.

27 Sion ſhalbe redeemed with equitie, and her conuertes with righteouſneſſe.

28 But the tranſgreſſours, and the vngodly, and ſuche as forſake the Lorde, ſhal altogeather be vtterly deſtroyed. E

29 For ye ſhalbe confounded for the trees whiche ye haue deſyred: and ye ſhalbe aſhamed of the gardens that ye haue choſen.

30 For ye ſhalbe as a tree whoſe leaues are fallen away, and as a garden that hath no moyſtneſſe.

31 And the very ſtrong one [of your idols] ſhalbe as towe, & the maker of it as a ſparke [of fire] and they ſhal both burne togeather, and no man quenche them.

The.ij.Chapter.

1 A prophecie of Chriſte and his kingdome. 12 Pryde, couetouſneſſe, ſuperſtition, and idolatrie are reproued. 17 Gods terrible iudgement agaynſt theſe.

A 1 The ſelfe ſame woord that Eſai the ſonne of Amos ſawe vpon Iuda & Hieruſalem.

2 And [this] ſhal comme to paſſe in the later dayes: yͤ hyl of the Lordes houſe (a) ſhalbe prepared in the height of the mountaynes, and ſhalbe higher then the hilles, and al nations ſhal preaſſe vnto hym.

(a) Chriſt, his Churche, and his woordes.

3 And a multitude of people ſhal goe, ſpeaking [thus one to another] Comme, let vs aſcende to the hyl of the Lorde, to the houſe of the God of Iacob, and he wyl inſtruct vs of his wayes, and we wil walke in his pathes: for out of Sion ſhal comme a lawe, and the woorde of the Lorde from Hieruſalem:

4 And ſhal geue ſentence among the Heathẽ, and ſhal refourme the multitude of people: they ſhal breake their ſwoordes alſo into mattockes, and their ſpeares to make ſithes: And one people ſhal not lift vp a weapon agaynſt another, neyther ſhal they learne to fight from thencefoorth.

5 Comme ye, O houſe of Iacob, and let vs walke in the light of the Lorde:

6 For thou haſt forſaken thy people the houſe of Iacob, (b) becauſe they be replenyſhed [with euyls] from the eaſt, and with ſorcerers like the Philiſtines, and in ſtrange chyldren they thinke them ſelues to haue yenough.

(b) The cauſes why God forſaketh his people is, idolatrie, heatheniſhe ſuperſtition, couetouſneſſe, & truſt in other thinges then in God alone.

7 Their lande is ful of ſiluer and golde, neyther is there any ende of their treaſure: their lande is alſo ful of horſes, and no ende is there of their charrettes. B

8 Their lande alſo is ful of vayne gods, and before the woorke of their owne handes they haue bowed them ſelues, yea euen before the thyng that their owne fingers haue made.

9 There kneeleth the man, there falleth the man downe [before them:] therefore forgeue them not.

10 Geat thee into the rocke, and hyde thee in the grounde for feare of the Lorde, and for the glorie of his maieſtie.

11 The hygh lookes of man ſhalbe brought lowe, and the hautyneſſe of menne ſhalbe bowed downe: and the Lorde alone ſhalbe exalted in that day.

12 For the day of the Lorde of hoſtes [ſhalbe] vpon al the proude, loftie, and vpon al that is exalted, and he ſhalbe brought lowe:

13 And vpon al hygh and ſtoute Cedar trees of Libanus, and vpon al the okes of Baſan,

C 14 And vpon al the hygh mountaynes, and vpon al the hygh hylles,

15 And vpon euery hygh towre, and vpon euery fenced wal,

16 And vpon al the ſhippes of Tharſis, and vpon al pictures of pleaſure.

17 And yͤ pride of man ſhalbe brought downe, & the loftineſſe of menne ſhalbe made lowe, & the Lorde alone ſhalbe exalted in that day:

18 As for the idolles he ſhal vtterly abolyſhe:

19 And they ſhal creepe into holes of ſtone, and into caues of the earth for feare of the Lord, and for the glorie of his maieſtie, when he aryſeth to deſtroy [the wicked ones of] the earth.

20 In the ſelfe ſame day ſhal man caſt away his gods of ſyluer, and his gods of golde, into the holes of Mowles, and Backes, whiche he neuertheleſſe had made to hym ſelfe to honour them.

21 And they ſhal creepe into the cliftes of the rockes, and into the toppes of the hard ſtones for feare of the Lorde, and for the glorie of his maieſtie, when he aryſeth to deſtroy [the wicked ones of] the earth. D

22 Ceaſſe therefore from man in whoſe noſethrilles there is breath: for wherein is he to be accompted of?

The.iij.Chapter.

1 The miſchiefes that God ſendeth on common weales for the contempt of his woorde.
14 The couetouſneſſe of rulers reproued. 16 The proude niceneſſe of women pouniſhed to their ſhame.

A 1 FOR loe, the Lorde God of hoſtes doth take away from Hieruſalem & Juda al manner of ſtay, al ſtay of meate and drinke.

2 The captayne and the ſouldiour, the iudge & the prophete, the (a) prudent and the aged man,

(a) The prudent, that is, ſuche as can forſee by their prudencie thinges to comme.

3 The captayne of fiftie, and the honorable, the ſenatour, the cunning artificer, and the eloquent oratour.

4 And I ſhal geue chyldren to be their princes, and babes ſhal rule ouer them.

5 And the people ſhal eche one of them violently oppreſſe another, & euery one agaynſt his neyghbour: The boye ſhal preſume againſt the elder, and the perſon of low degree againſt the honorable.

6 Yea one ſhal take a friende of his owne kinrede by the boſome, and ſay, Thou haſt clothyng, thou ſhalt be our head, & ſtay this ruine with thy hande.

B 7 Then ſhal he ſweare, and ſay, I can not helpe you: there is neither meate nor clothing in my houſe, make me no ruler of the people

8 For Hieruſalem and Juda muſt decay: becauſe that both their woordes and counſailes are againſt the Lord, to prouoke the preſence of his maieſtie to anger.

9 Their very countenance bewrayeth them, yea they declare their owne ſinnes [thē ſelues] as Sodome, they hyde it not: Wo be to their owne ſoules, for they haue rewarded euil vnto them ſelues.

10 Say to the ryghteous that it ſhal goe wel with them: for they ſhal eate yͤ fruite of their owne ſtudies.

11 [But] Wo be vnto the wycked, for it ſhalbe euyl with hym: for he ſhalbe rewarded after his owne workes.

12 Children are extortioners of my people, and women rule ouer them: O my people, thy leaders deceiue thee, and corrupt the way of thy foteſteppes.

13 The Lord is here to commune of the matter, and ſtandeth to iudge the people.

14 The Lorde ſhal enter into iudgement with the elders and princes of his people, [and ſhal ſay to them:] It is ye that haue burnt vp my vineyarde, the ſpoile of the poore is in your houſes. C

15 What meane ye that ye bray [as in a morter] my people, and grynde the faces of the poore: ſayth the Lorde God of hoſtes.

16 Moreouer the Lorde hath ſayde, Seeyng the daughters of Sion are waxen proude, & walke with ſtretched foorth neckes, & wanton lookes, goeyng and tripping nicely, and tinckling with their feete:

17 Therefore ſhal the Lord ſhaue the heades of the daughters of Sion, and ſhal diſcouer their filthineſſe.

18 In that day ſhal the Lorde take away the gorgiouſneſſe of the attyre about theyr feete, and the caules, and the rounde tyres [after the faſhion of the moone.]

19 The ſweete perfumes, and the bracelettes, and the mufflers,

20 The bonettes, and the ſloppes, and the headbandes, and the tablettes, and the earinges,

D 21 And ryngs, and noſe iewels:

22 The coſtly apparel, and the vayles, and the wimples, and the criſpyng pinnes,

23 And the glaſſes, and the fine linnen, and the hoodes, and the lawnes.

24 And in ſteede of good ſmel, there ſhalbe ſtynke, and in ſteede of theyr gyrdle, a rent, and for wel ſet heare, there ſhalbe baldneſſe, in ſteade of a ſtomacher, a ſackcloth, and [ſunne] burnyng, for beautie.

25 Thy menne ſhal periſhe with the ſwoord, and thy valiant ſouldiours in the battayle [O Hieruſalem.]

26 And her gates ſhal mourne and bewayle: and ſhe beyng deſolate, ſhal ſytte vpon the grounde.

The.iiii.Chapter.

1 The miſerie of the ſtubburne. 3 A promiſe of Gods fauour to the reſidue.

A 1 IN that day, ſeuē women ſhal take holde of one man, ſayeing, We wyl fynde our ſelues meate and apparel: only let vs be called by thy name, to take our ſhameful reproofe [from vs.]

2 (a) In that day ſhal the budde of the Lorde be beautiful and glorious, and the fruite of the earth ſhalbe excellent & pleaſant, for them that are eſcaped of Iſrael.

(a) The incarnation of Chriſt, is the ioy of the faythful.

3 Then ſhal the remnant in Sion, and the remnant at Hieruſalē be called holy: [namely] al ſuche as are written among the lyuyng in Hieruſalem,

4 (b) After that the Lord hath waſht away the fylthineſſe of the daughters of Sion, and hath purged the blood out from Hieruſalem in the ſpirite of iudgement, and in the ſpirite of fyre. B

(b) They are ſaued whoſe ſinnes are remitted and waſht away with the blood of Chriſte.

5 And vpon al the dwellinges of the hilles of Sion, and vpon her congregations, the lord ſhal create a cloude and ſmoke by day, and the ſhining of a flamyng fyre by nyght: for al the (c) glorie ſhalbe preſerued.

(c) Chriſt wyl preſerue and defend the glory, that is, the faithful in al troubles & temptations.

6 And there ſhalbe a tabernacle for a ſhadow in the day tyme from the heate, and a ſafe place and refuge from weather and rayne.

The.v.Chapter.

1 Of Chriſte and his vineyarde, 8 with an execration of couetouſneſſe, 11 drunkenneſſe, 19 and contempt of Gods woorde.

A 1 NOwe wyl I ſyng my beloued freende, a ſong of my freende touchyng his vineyarde: My beloued freende hath a vineyarde in a very fruiteful plenteous grounde.

2 This he hedged, & geathered out the ſtones from it, and planted it with the choiſeſt vine: In the middeſt of it builded he a towre, alſo made a wine preſſe therein: (a) and he looked that it ſhould bring hin grapes, & it brought foorth wylde grapes.

(a) God looketh to receiue of his people the thankful fruites of fayth, and not the vnpleaſant woorkes of faythleſſe ingratitude.

3 Nowe, O citizen of Hieruſalem, and man of Iuda, iudge, I pray thee, betwixt me and my vineyarde:

4 What more could haue benne donne for it, that I haue not donne? Wherfore then hath it geuen wylde grapes, where I looked to haue had grapes of it?

5 Wel, nowe I ſhal tel you howe I wyl doo with my vineyarde: I wyl take the hedge from it, that it may periſhe, & breake downe the wal thereof, that it may be troden vnder foote.

6 I wyl lay it waſte, it ſhal neyther be dygged nor cut, but beare thornes and bryers: I wyl alſo forbyd the cloudes that they ſhal not rayne vpon it.

7 As for the vineyarde of the Lord of hoſtes, it is the houſe of Iſrael: and the man of Iuda, the plant of his pleaſure: Of theſe he looked for equitie, but ſee there is oppreſſion for ryghteouſneſſe, and loe, it is a cryeing. B

8 Wo vnto them that ioyne one houſe to another, and bryng one lande ſo nygh vnto another, that there is no more place: Wyl ye be placed alone in the myddeſt of the earth?

9 Theſe thynges are in the eares of the Lorde of hoſtes: of a trueth great and fayre houſes ſhalbe without any dweller in them.

10 And tenne acres of vines ſhal geue but a quart, and thirtie buſhels of ſeede ſhal geue but an Epha.

11 Wo be vnto them that ryſe vp early to folowe drunkenneſſe, continuyng vntil night, tyl they be ſet on fyre with wine.

12 In theyr feaſtes are Harpes and Lutes, Tabrettes and Pypes, and wine: but they regard not the worke of the Lord, and conſyder not the operation of his handes.

13 Therefore commeth my folke into captiuitie, becauſe they haue no vnderſtandyng: (b) Their glory is famiſhed with hunger, and theyr multitude dryed vp with thirſt.

(b) Theyr glorie, theyr noble and honourable perſonages.

C 14 Therefore gapeth hel, & openeth her mouth marueylous wide, that their glorie, multitude, and wealth, with ſuch as reioyce in her, may deſcende into it.

15 Thus hath man a fal, and is brought low, and the high looke of the proude ſhalbe layde downe.

16 But the Lorde of hoſtes ſhalbe exalted in iudgement, and God that is holy, is ſanctified in ryghteouſneſſe.

17 Then ſhal the ſheepe eate as they were woont, and the riche mennes landes that were layde waſte ſhal ſtrangers deuour.

18 Wo be vnto them that drawe wickedneſſe with cordes of vanitie, and ſinne, as it were a cart rope.

19 Whiche vſe to ſpeake on this manner, Let hym make ſpeede and haſten his worke, that we may ſee it: let the counſayle of the holy one of Iſrael comme, and drawe nye, that we may knowe it.

20 Wo be vnto them that cal euyl good, and good euil, whiche make darkneſſe light, and lyght darkneſſe, that make ſowre ſweete, and ſweete ſowre.

D 21 Wo be vnto them that are wiſe in their owne ſyght, and thinke them ſelues to haue vnderſtandyng.

22 Wo be vnto them that are ſtrong to ſuppe out wine, and expert menne to ſet vp drunkenneſſe.

23 Wo be vnto them that geue ſentence with the vngodly for rewardes, but condemne the iuſt cauſe of the ryghteous.

24 Therefore like as fire licketh vp the ſtraw, & as the flambe conſumeth the ſtubble: euen ſo their roote ſhalbe as corruption, and theyr bloſſome ſhal vaniſhe away lyke duſt: for they haue caſt away the lawe of the Lorde of hoſtes, and deſpiſed the worde of the holy one of Iſrael.

25 Therefore is the wrath of the Lorde kyndled agaynſt his people, and hath ſtretched foorth his hande vpon them, yea he hath ſmitten them: and the hilles did tremble, and their carkaſes did lie torne in the open ſtretes: and in al this the wrath of God hath not ceaſſed, but his hande ſtretched out ſtyl.

26 And he ſhal geue a token to a people of a farre countrey, and ſhal hiſſe vnto them from the ende of the earth: and beholde they ſhal comme haſtily with ſpeede.

27 There ſhal not be one faynt nor feeble among them, no not a ſluggiſhe nor ſleepie perſon: there ſhal not one of them put of his gyrdle from his loynes, nor looſe the latchet of his ſhoe.

28 His arrowes are ſharpe, and al his bowes bent: his horſe hoofes are as flint, and his cart wheeles like a whirle winde. E

29 His crye is as it were of a Lion, and he roareth like Lions whelpes: they ſhal roare and hantche vpon the pray, and no man ſhal recouer it, nor geat it from them.

30 In that day he ſhalbe ſo fierce vpon hym as the ragyng of the ſea: then one ſhal beholde the (c) lande, and loe darkeneſſe and ſorowe, and the lyght is darkened in the heauens thereof.

(c) The lande of Iuda ſhalbe ouerwhelmed with miſerable affliction.

The.vi.Chapter.

1 Eſai ſawe the glory of the Lorde. 9 And was ſent to prophecie the deſolation of Iurie.

A 1 IN the yeere that king Oziah dyed, I ſawe alſo the Lorde ſyttyng vpon an high and glorious ſeate, and his trayne fylled the temple.

2 And about hym ſtoode Seraphims, whereof one had ſixe wynges, with twayne eche couered his face, with twayne his feete, and with twayne dyd he flee.

3 They cryed alſo eche one to another on this manner, Holy, holy, holy is the Lorde of hoſtes: the whole earth is ful of his glory.

4 And the lyntels of the doore cheekes mooued at his cryeing, and the houſe was ful of ſmoke.

5 Then ſayd I, wo is me, for I am loſt, in as muche as I am a man of vncleane lippes, and dwel among people that hath vncleane lippes alſo: for mine eyes haue ſeene the king, the Lorde of hoſtes.

6 Then flewe one of the Seraphims vnto me hauyng a hot coale in his hande, whiche he had taken from the aulter with the tongues,

B 7 And layde it vpon my mouth, & ſayd, Loe, [this] hath touched thy [a] lippes, and thyne vnryghteouſneſſe ſhalbe taken away, and thy ſinne forgeuen.

(a) Gods ſacramentes are not bare ſignes, but with the ſigne & the woorde, the mater ſignified, is exhibited to the faythful.

8 Alſo I hearde the voyce of the Lord on this manner: Whom ſhal I ſende, and who wyl be our meſſenger? Then I ſayde, Here am I, ſende me.

9 And he ſayde, Goe and tel this people: Heare in deede, yet vnderſtande not, ye ſhal playnely ſee, and yet perceiue not.

10 Harden the hart of this people, ſtop theyr eares, and ſhut theyr eyes: leſt they ſee with theyr eyes, heare with theyr eares, and vnderſtande with theyr hartes, and conuert, and be healed:

11 Then ſpake I, Lorde, howe long? He anſweared, Untyl the cities be vtterly waſted without inhabiters, and the houſes without menne, and tyl the lande alſo be vtterly deſolate.

12 For the Lorde ſhal put the menne farre away, and [there ſhalbe] great waſte in the middeſt of the lande.

13 Yet in it ſhal ſucceede tenne kynges, and it ſhal returne and be afterward waſted: [But] as the Teyle tree and the Oke in the falle of theyr leaues haue yet the ſappe remaynyng in them, [euen ſo] the holy ſeede ſhalbe the ſtay thereof.

The.vii.Chapter.

1 The Syrians moou e battayle agaynſt Hieruſalem. 14 A virgin ſhal beare a chylde.

A 1 IT happened in the tyme of Ahaz the ſonne of Jotham, whiche was the ſonne of Uziah kyng of Juda, that Razin the kyng of Syria, and Pecah the ſonne of Romeliah kyng of Iſrael, went vp towarde Hieruſalem to beſiege it: but Razin was not able to winne it.

2 Nowe when the [a] houſe of Dauid hearde woorde thereof, that Syria and Ephraim was confederate togeather, his hart quaked, yea and the hartes alſo of his people, lyke as when the trees of the wood are moued with the winde.

(a) Dauids houſe, that is, Ahaz.

3 Then ſayde God vnto Eſai, Goe meete Ahaz, thou and thy ſonne Sear Jaſub, at the head of the ouer poole in the footepath by the Fullers grounde,

4 And ſay vnto him, Take heede to thy ſelfe, and be ſtyl, feare not, neyther be faynt harted, for theſe two tayles, that is, for theſe two ſmokyng fyrebrandes, the wrath and furiouſneſſe of Razin the Syrian, and Romelies ſonne:

5 Becauſe that the Syrian, Ephraim, and Romelies ſonne haue wickedly conſpired agaynſt thee,

6 Sayeing, We wyl goe vp agaynſt Juda, vexe them, and bring them vnder vs, and ſet a kyng there, euen the ſonne of Tabel:

B 7 Thus ſayth the Lord God thereto, It ſhal not ſo goe foorth, neyther ſo comme to paſſe.

8 For the head citie of the Syrians is Damaſcus, but the head of Damaſcus is Razin: And after threeſcore and fiue yeeres ſhal Ephraim be no more a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, but the head of Samaria is Romelies ſonne: yf ye beleue not, ſurely ye ſhal not be eſtabliſhed.

10 Moreouer, God ſpake agayne vnto Ahaz, ſayeing,

11 Require to thee ſelfe a token of the Lorde thy God, whether it be towarde the deapth beneath, or towarde the heighth aboue.

12 Then ſayde Ahaz, I wyl require none, neyther wil I tempt the Lorde.

13 The prophete anſweared, Then heare ye of the houſe of Dauid: Is it not yenough for you that ye be greeuous vnto menne, but ye muſt greeue my God alſo?

14 Therefore the Lorde hym ſelfe ſhal geue C you a token: Beholde, a virgin ſhal conceiue and beare a ſonne, & ſhal cal his name Emmanuel.

15 Butter and honye ſhal he eate, vntyl he know to refuſe the euil, and chooſe the good.

16 For or euer the childe comme to knowledge to eſchewe the euyl, and chooſe the good, the lande that thou ſo abhorreſt, ſhalbe deſolate of both her kynges.

17 The Lorde alſo ſhal ſende a tyme vpon thee, vpon thy people, and vpon thy fathers houſe, ſuche as neuer came ſince the tyme that Ephraim departed from Juda, namely through the kyng of the Aſſyrians.

18 For at the ſame tyme ſhal the Lorde hiſſe for the flyes that are about the water of Egypt, and for the bees in the Aſſyrians lande:

19 Theſe ſhal comme, and ſhal light al in the deſolate valleys, in the holes of ſtones, and vpon al thornie and buſhie places.

20 At the ſame tyme ſhal the Lorde ſhaue the [b] heare of the head, and the feete, and the bearde cleane of, with the raſer that he ſhal hyre beyonde the waters: namely with the kyng

(b) The heare of the head, and the beard, the princes & menne of auctoritie, the feete, the common ſort of people.

kyng of Aſſyrians.

D 21 At the ſame tyme ſhal a man nouriſhe a young Cowe, and two ſheepe.

22 Then becauſe of the abundance of mylke that they geue, he ſhal eate butter: ſo that euery one whiche remayneth in the lande, ſhal eate butter and hony.

23 At the ſame tyme al vineyardes wherein there ſhalbe a thouſand vines, worth a thouſande ſiluerlynges, ſhalbe turned to bryers and thornes.

24 They ſhal comme into the lande with arrowes and bowes, becauſe al the lande ſhal become bryers and thornes.

25 As for al hilles that ſhalbe dygged with the mattocke, there ſhal not comme vpon them any feare of bryers and thornes: but the catel ſhalbe driuen thither, and the ſheepe ſhal feede there.

The.viii.Chapter.

8 The deliuerance of the lande by Emmanuel. 14 The ſtone of offence, at whiche many ſhal ſtumble.

A 1 MOreouer, the Lorde ſayd vnto me, Take thee a great roule, and wryte in it as menne doo with a penne: make haſtie ſpeede to robbe, and haſte to the ſpoyle.

2 And I called vnto me faythful witneſſes to recorde, Uriah the prieſt, and Zachariah the ſonne of Barachiah.

3 After that went I vnto the prophetiſſe, and ſhe conceiued and bare a ſonne: Then ſayde the Lord to me, Geue him his name, A ſpeedie robber, an haſtie ſpoyler.

4 For why, or euer the chylde ſhal haue knowledge to crye, my father and mother, ſhal the riches of Damaſcus, and the ſpoyle of Samaria be taken away before the kyng of the Aſſyrians.

5 The Lorde ſpake alſo vnto me agayne, ſayeing,

6 Forſomuche as the people refuſeth the ſtyl runnyng water of Silo, and put theyr delight in Razin and Romelies ſonne:

B 7 Beholde, the Lorde ſhal bryng myghtie & great fluddes of water vpon them, namely the king of the Aſſyrians with al his power, whiche ſhal climbe vp vpon al his fluddes, and runne ouer al his bankes,

8 And ſhal breake in vpon Juda, he ſhal flowe and paſſe through, tyl he comme vp to the necke thereof: he ſhal fil alſo the wideneſſe of thy lande with his wynges, O Emmanuel.

9 Breake downe, O ye people, (a) and ye ſhalbe broken downe, hearken to al ye of farre countreyes: muſter you, and you ſhalbe broken downe, prepare you, and you ſhalbe torne in peeces.

(a) Mans policie and deuiſe without God preuayleth not.

10 Take your counſayle togeather, yet ſhal your counſaile comme to nought: determine the matter, yet ſhal it not proſper: for God is with vs.

11 For the Lorde ſpake thus to me in a mightie prophecie, (b) and warned me that I ſhoulde not walke in the way of this people, ſayeing,

(b) Affiance is to be put in God, and not in mans policie or helpe.

12 Ye ſhal not ſpeake [wordes] of conſpiracie in al thynges, when this people ſhal ſay conſpiracie: feare them not, neyther be afrayde of them.

13 But ſanctifie the Lorde of hoſtes, let hym be your feare and dread.

C 14 For he ſhalbe the holy place to flee to, and ſtone to ſtumble at, the rocke to fal vpon, a ſnare and net to both the houſes of Iſrael, and the inhabitours of Hieruſalem:

15 And many among them ſhal ſtumble, and falle, and be broken, yea they ſhalbe ſnared and taken.

16 Binde vp the teſtimonie, ſeale the lawe in my diſciples.

17 (c) And I wyl wayte vpon the Lorde that hydeth his face from the houſe of Jacob, and I wyl looke for hym.

(c) The wordes of Chriſt.

18 But loe, as for me, and the chyldren whiche the Lorde hath geuen me, we are to be a token and a woonder in Iſrael from the Lord of hoſtes, whiche dwelleth vpon the hyl of Sion.

19 And yf they ſay vnto you, Aſke counſayle at the Soothſayers, Witches, Charmers, and Coniurers: [then make them this anſweare,] Is there a people any where that aſketh not counſayle at his God? ſhoulde menne runne vnto the dead for the liuing?

20 Geat thee to the lawe, (d) and the teſtimonie: and yf they ſpeake not after this worde, there is no lyght in them.

(d) We muſt ſeeke in gods worde what to folow, for in meanes without gods worde there is no lyght.

D 21 And they ſhal wander through this lande hardly beſteade and hungry, and when they ſuffer hunger, they wyl be out of patience, and curſe their king and theyr God, and ſhal looke vpward and downeward to the earth,

22 And beholde there is trouble and darkeneſſe, dymneſſe is rounde about hym, and he ſhalbe driuen into darkeneſſe.

23 Neuertheleſſe, the darkeneſſe ſhal not be ſuche as was in her vexation, when at the firſt he lyghtly afflicted the lande Zabulon, and the lande of Nephthali, and afterwarde dyd more greeuouſly afflict her by the way of the ſea beyonde Iordane in Galilee of the heathen.

The.ix.Chapter.

¶ He prophecieth of Chriſtes natiuitie and dominion.

A 1 THE people that walked in darkneſſe, haue ſeene a great lyght: As for them that dwel in the lande of the ſhadowe of death, vpon them hath the lyght ſhyned.

2 Thou haſt multiplied the people, and not increaſed theyr ioy: they reioyce before thee, euen as menne make merie in harueſt, and they be ioyful as menne that doo diuide the ſpoyle [after the victorie.]

3 For thou haſt broken the yoke of his burthen, the ſtaffe of his ſhoulder, and the rodde of his oppreſſour, as in the day of Madian.

4 And truely euery batayle that the warrier maketh, is donne with confuſed noyſe: and defylyng theyr garmentes with blood, [but this batayle] ſhalbe with burnyng and conſumyng of fyre.

(a) Chriſt, his kyngdome, & his names.

5 For vnto vs a (a) chylde is borne, and vnto vs a ſonne is geuen, vpon his ſhoulder dooth the rule lye, and he is called with his owne name, woonderful, the geuer of counſayle, the myghtie God, the euerlaſtyng father, the prince of peace.

6 He ſhal make no ende to encreaſe the rule and peace, and ſhal ſit vpon the ſeate of Dauid, and in his kyngdome, to order the ſame, and to ſtabliſhe it with equitie and ryghteouſneſſe from henceforth for euermore: This ſhal the zeale of the Lorde of hoſtes bryng to paſſe.

B 7 The Lorde ſent a woorde into Iacob, the ſame is comme into Iſrael.

8 And al the people of Ephraim ſhal knowe, and they that dwelle in Samaria that ſay with pryde and hygh ſtomackes [on this manner,]

9 The tyle worke is fallen downe, but we wyl builde it with ſquared ſtones: the Mulberie timber is broken, but we ſhal ſet it vp agayne with Cedar.

10 But the Lorde ſhal ſtrengthen the enimies of Razin, and ioyne his aduerſaries togeather agaynſt hym.

11 The Syrians before, and the Philiſtines behynde, and ſhal deuoure Iſrael with open mouth: After al this is not the wrath of the Lord ceaſſed, but yet his hande ſtretched out ſtyl.

12 For the people turneth not vnto hym that chaſtiſeth them, neyther doo they ſeeke the Lorde of hoſtes.

13 Therefore hath the Lorde rooted out of Iſrael both head and tayle, bough and reede in one day.

14 By the head, is vnderſtande the ſenatour and honourable man, and by the tayle, the prophete that preached lyes, C

15 For the guides of this people are deceiuers, and thoſe that be gouerned are vtterly loſt.

16 Therefore ſhal the Lorde haue no pleaſure in theyr young menne, neyther haue pitie of theyr fatherleſſe and wydowes: for they are altogeather hypocrites and wycked, and al theyr mouthes ſpeake folly: After al this is not the Lordes wrath ceaſſed, but yet his hande is ſtretched out ſtyl.

17 For vngodlyneſſe burneth as a fyre, and ſhal deuour bryers and thornes, and it ſhal burne as in the thicket of a wood, and [the wicked] aduance them ſelues, as the ſmoke is caryed vp.

18 Through the wrath of the Lorde of hoſtes is the land ful of darkneſſe, and the people be conſumed as it were with fyre: no man dooth ſpare his brother.

19 But he robbeth on the ryght hande, and dooth famiſhe, he eateth on the left hande, and he ſhal not haue yenough: euery man ſhal eate the fleaſhe of his owne arme.

20 Manaſſes [ſhal eate] Ephraim, and Ephraim Manaſſes, and they both togeather ſhal eate Iuda: After al this is not the Lordes wrath ceaſſed, but yet his hande ſtretched out ſtyl.

The.x.Chapter.

1 He threatneth the oppreſſours of the poore. 12 And prophecieth agaynſt Sennacherib.

A 1 WO be vnto thē that make vnryghteous lawes, and that cauſeth their actuaries to wryte greeuouſneſſe,

2 Wherthrough the poore are put from theyr ryght, and my ſeelie people robbed of iudgement, that wydowes may be theyr pray, and that they may rob the fatherleſſe.

3 What wyl ye doo in the tyme of viſitation, and when deſtruction ſhal comme from farre? to whom wyl ye runne for helpe? and where wyl you leaue your glory?

4 That when I withdrawe my hande, ye comme not among the pryſoners, nor lye among the dead? After al this dooth not the wrath of the Lord ceaſſe, but yet is his hand ſtretched out ſtyl.

5 O Aſſur whiche art the ſtaffe of my wrath, in whoſe hand is the rodde of mine indignation.

6 I wyl ſende him among thoſe hypocritiſhe people: among the people that haue deſerned my diſfauour wyl I ſende hym, that he vtterly robbe them, ſpoyle them, and treade them downe like the myre in the ſtreete.

B 7 Howbeit his meanyng is not ſo, neyther thynketh his hart on this faſhion: But he imagineth howe he may roote out & deſtroy muche people.

8 For he ſaith, Are not my princes al kinges?

9 Is not Chalno as eaſie to winne, as Charchamis? Is it harder to conquer Hamath, then Arphad? or is it lyghter to ouercome Damaſcus, then Samaria?

10 [As who ſay] I were able to winne the kingdomes of the idolaters and theyr gods, but not Hieruſalem and Samaria.

11 Shal I not doo vnto Hieruſalem and her images, as I dyd vnto Samaria and her idols?

12 Wherefore it ſhal comme to paſſe, that as ſoone as the lord hath perfourmed his whole woorke vpon the hyl of Sion and Hieruſalem, then wil I viſite the fruite of the ſtoute hart of the kyng of Aſſyria, with his proude lookes.

13 For he ſtandeth thus in his owne conceipt, This doo I through the power of myne owne hande, and through my wyſdome: for I am wyſe, I am he that remoue the landes of the people, I robbe their treaſure, and haue pulled downe the inhabitantes lyke a valiant man.

14 My hande hath founde out the ſtrength of the people, as it were a neſt: and like as egges that were layde here and there, are geathered togeather, ſo doo I geather al countreys, and there was none [ſo bolde] as to moue the winge, that dare open his mouth, or once whiſper. C

15 Shal the axe boaſt it ſelfe agaynſt hym that heweth therewith? or ſhal the ſawe make any braggyng agaynſt hym that ruleth it? that were euen lyke as yf the rodde did exalt him ſelfe agaynſt hym that beareth it, or as though the ſtaffe ſhould magnifie it ſelfe [as who ſay] it were no wood.

16 Therefore ſhal the Lorde the God of hoſtes ſende among his fatlynges, leanneſſe, and burne vp his glory as it were with a fyre.

17 And the lyght of Iſrael ſhalbe that fyre, and his holy one ſhalbe the flame: and it ſhal kindle and burne vp his thornes and bryers in one day.

18 Yea al the glory of his woodes and feeldes ſhalbe conſumed with body and ſoule, and they ſhalbe as an hoſt of menne, whoſe ſtanderde bearer fayleth.

19 The trees alſo of his wood whiche remaine, ſhalbe of ſuche a number that a chylde may tel them.

20 After that day ſhal the remnant of Iſrael, and ſuche as are eſcaped out of the houſe of Iacob, ſeeke no more comfort at hym that ſmote them: but vnfaynedly ſhal they truſt vnto the Lorde, the holy one of Iſrael.

21 The remnant, euen the poſteritie of Iacob, ſhal conuert vnto God the myghtie one. D

22 For though thy people, O Iſrael, be as the ſande of the ſea, yet ſhal the remnant of them conuert vnto hym: The decreed conſumption ouerfloweth with ryghteouſneſſe.

23 And therefore the Lorde of hoſtes ſhal perfectly fulfyl the thyng that he hath determined, in the myddeſt of the whole worlde.

24 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde God of hoſtes: Thou my people that dwelleſt in Sion, be not afrayde for the kyng of the Aſſyrians: he ſhal ſmyte thee with a rodde, and ſhal lyft vp his ſtaffe agaynſt thee, as the Egyptians did ſometyme.

25 But very ſoone after ſhal my wrath and indignation be fulfilled in the deſtruction of them:

26 Moreouer, the Lord of hoſtes ſhal ſtirre vp a ſcourge for hym, like as was the ſlaughter of Madian vpon the rocke Oreb, and as the deſtruction of the Egyptians when he lyfted vp his rodde vpon the ſea.

27 Then ſhal his burthen be taken from thy ſhoulders, and his yoke from thy necke, yea the ſame yoke ſhalbe deſtroyed becauſe of the vnction.

E 28 He ſhal comme to Aiath, and goe through towarde Migron, at Michmas ſhal he lay vp his harneſſe.

29 They ſhal goe ouer the foorde, Geba ſhalbe theyr reaſtyng place, Rhama ſhalbe afrayde, Gibea Saul ſhal flee away.

30 Lyft vp thy voyce, O daughter Gallim, geue eare to Laiſa thou poore Anathoth.

31 Madmena ſhal tremble for feare, but the citizens of Gabim are manly.

32 Yet ſhal he remayne at Nob that day: after that ſhal he lyft vp his hande agaynſt the mount of the daughter Sion the hyl of Hieruſalem.

33 But ſee the Lord God of hoſtes ſhal breake downe the bough with feare, he ſhal hewe downe the proud, and felle the high minded.

34 The thickettes alſo of the wood ſhal he roote out with iron, and Libanus ſhal haue a falle through the myghtie.

The.xi.Chapter.

1 He prophecieth of the natiuitie of Chriſte, and of his people. 6 Of the remnant of Iſrael. 10 And of the fayth of the heathen or gentiles.

A 1 AND there ſhal comme a ſprigge foorth of the [(a)] ſtemme of Eſai, ⁊ a young ſhoote ſhal growe out of his roote.

(a) Chriſte ſhalbe borne of the ſeede of Eſai.

2 The ſpirite of the Lorde ſhal reaſt vpon hym, the ſpirite of wyſdome and vnderſtandyng, the ſpirite of counſayle and ſtrength, the ſpirite of knowledge and of the feare of the Lorde,

3 And ſhal make hym of deepe iudgement in the feare of God: For he ſhal not geue ſentence after the thyng that ſhalbe brought before his eyes, neyther reproue after the hearyng of his eares:

4 But with righteouſneſſe ſhal he iudge the poore, and with equitie ſhal he refourme the ſimple of the worlde, and he ſhal ſmyte the worlde with the rodde of his (b) mouth, and with the breath of his mouth ſhal he ſlay the vngodly.

(b) The armour of Chriſte, and of his kyngdome.

5 Ryghteouſneſſe ſhalbe the gyrdle of his loynes, and faythfulneſſe the gyrdyng vp of his reynes.

6 The woolfe ſhal dwelle with the Lambe, and the Leoparde ſhal lye downe by the Goate: Bullockes, Lions, and catel ſhal keepe company togeather, ſo that a litle child ſhal leade them.

B 7 The Cowe and the Beare ſhal feede togeather, ⁊ their young ones ſhal lye togeather: the Lion ſhal eate ſtrawe like the Oxe or the Cowe.

8 The chylde whyle he ſucketh ſhal haue a deſire to the ſerpentes neaſt, and when he is weaned, he ſhal put his hande into the Cockatrice denne.

9 No man ſhal doo euyl vnto another, No, no man ſhal deſtroy another in the hyl of my holyneſſe: for the earth ſhalbe ful of the knowledge of the Lorde: euen as the ſea floweth ouer with water.

10 And in that day ſhal the gentiles enquire after the roote of Ieſſe, whiche ſhalbe ſet vp for a token vnto the people, ⁊ his reaſt ſhalbe glorious.

11 At the ſame tyme ſhal the Lorde take in hande agayne to recouer the remnant of his people, which ſhalbe left aliue, from the Aſſyrians, Egyptians, Arabians, Morians, Elamites, Chaldees, Antiochians, and from the Ilandes of the ſea, 12 And he ſhal ſet vp a token among the gentiles, and geather togeather the diſpearſed of Iſrael, yea and the outcaſtes of Iuda from the foure corners of the worlde.

13 The hatred of Ephraim alſo, and enimies of Iuda ſhalbe cleane rooted out: Ephraim ſhal beare none euil wil to Iuda, and Iuda ſhal not vexe Ephraim.

14 But they both togeather ſhal flee vpon the ſhoulders of the Philiſtines towarde the weſt, and ſpoyle them togeather that dwel towarde the eaſt: The Idumites and the Moabites ſhal comme vnder theyr handes, and the Amonites ſhalbe obedient vnto them. C

15 The Lorde alſo ſhal cleaue the tongues (c) of the Egyptians ſea, and with his mightie winde ſhal he lift vp his hande ouer Nilus, and ſhal ſmyte his ſeuen ſtreames, and make menne goe ouer drye ſhod.

(c) The tongue, that is, the arme of the ſea, that hyndereth the paſſage.

16 And thus ſhal there be a way for his people that remayneth from the Aſſyrians, lyke as it happened to the Iſraelites what tyme they departed out of the lande of Egypt.

The.xii.Chapter.

4 The ſong of the Churche for the obteynyng of the victorie, and ouercommyng of the worlde.

A 1 And in that day thou ſhalt ſay, O Lord, I wyl praiſe thee, for thou waſt diſpleaſed at me: but refrayne thou from thy wrath, and comfort me.

2 Beholde, God is my ſaluation, in whom I wyl truſt, and not be afrayde: for the Lord God is my ſtrength and [my] ſong, he alſo is become my ſaluation.

3 Therefore with ioy ſhal ye drawe water out of the welles of ſaluation:

4 And then ſhal ye ſay, Geue thankes vnto the Lorde, cal vpon his name, declare his workes among the people, keepe them in remembrance, for his name is excellent. B

5 O ſyng prayſes vnto the Lorde, for he hath donne great thynges, as it is knowen in al the worlde.

6 Crye out, and ſyng, thou that dwelleſt in Sion: for great is the holy one of Iſrael in the middeſt of thee.

The.xiii.Chapter.

1 He prophecieth the deſtruction of Babylon, the captiuitie, and the comming agayne of the people.

A 1 This is the (a) burthen of Babylon, whiche Eſai the ſonne of Amos did ſee.

(a) Burthen, that is, the prophecie.

2 Lyft vp the banner vpon the hygh hyl, cal vnto them, wagge your hand, that they may goe into the gates of the princes.

3 I haue commaunded my ſanctified, I haue alſo called my valiant ones, ioyeing in my honour to execute my wrath.

4 There is a noyſe of a multitude in the mountaynes, like as of a great people, a ruſhing as though the kyngdomes of the nations came togeather: the Lorde of hoſtes muſtreth his armie to batail.

5 They comme out of a farre countrey from the ende of the heauen, euen the Lorde hym ſelfe with the miniſters of his wrath, to deſtroy the whole lande.

6 Mourne ye, for the day of the Lorde is at hande, and ſhal comme as a deſtroyer from the almyghtie.

B 7 Therefore ſhal al handes be letten downe, and al mennes hartes ſhal melt away.

8 They ſhal ſtande in feare, carefulneſſe, and ſorowe ſhal comme vpon them, and they ſhal haue payne, as a woman that trauayleth with chylde: One ſhalbe abaſhed of another, and theyr faces ſhal burne like the flame of fyre.

9 Beholde, the day of the Lorde ſhal comme terribly, and ful of indignation, furie, and wrath, to make the lande waſte, and to roote out the ſinners thereof.

10 For the ſtarres and planettes of heauen ſhal not geue theyr lyght, the ſunne ſhalbe darkened in the ryſyng, and the moone ſhal not ſhine with her lyght.

11 And I wyl viſite the wyckedneſſe of the worlde, and the ſinnes of the vngodly. The high ſtomackes of the proude wyl I take away, and wyl lay downe the boaſtyng of the tyrant.

12 I wyl make a man dearer then fine golde, and a man to be more woorth then a golden wedge of Ophir.

13 Therefore I wyl ſhake the heauens, and the earth ſhal romoue out of her place in the wrath of the Lorde of hoſtes, and in the day of his feareful indignation.

14 And [Babylon] ſhalbe as an hunted or chaſed Doe, and as a ſheepe that no man taketh vp: Euery man ſhal turne to his owne people, and flee eache one into his owne lande. C

15 Who ſo is founde, ſhalbe ſhot through: and who ſo taketh theyr part, ſhalbe deſtroyed with the ſwoorde.

16 Theyr children ſhalbe ſlayne before theyr eyes: theyr houſe ſpoyled, and theyr wyues rauiſhed.

17 For loe, I ſhal bring vp the Medes againſt them, whiche ſhal not regarde ſyluer, nor be deſyrous of golde:

18 With bowes ſhal they deſtroy the young menne, and haue no pitie on women with chylde, and theyr faces ſhal not ſpare the chyldren.

19 And Babylon, that glory of kyngdomes, and beautie of the Chaldees honour, ſhalbe deſtroyed, euen as God deſtroyed Sodome and Gomor.

20 It ſhal not endure for euer, neyther ſhal there be any more dwelling there from generation to generation: The Arabians ſhal pitche no tentes there, neyther ſhal the ſheepheardes make theyr foldes there any more.

21 But feareful wylde beaſtes ſhal lye there, and the houſes ſhalbe ful of great Owles, Eſtriches ſhal dwelle there, and Apes ſhal daunce there.

22 Wylde cattes ſhal crye in the palaces, and dragons ſhalbe in the pleaſant houſes: And as for Babylons tyme it is at hande, and her dayes ſhal not be prolonged.

The.xiiii.Chapter.

1 The returne of the people from captiuitie, the proſperitie of the people of God, and affliction of their enimies. 13 The pryde of Babylon.

A 1 But the Lord wil be mercyful vnto Iacob, & wyl yet chooſe Iſrael agayne, & ſet them in their owne land, ſtrãgers ſhal cleaue & geat them to the houſe of Iacob.

2 The people ſhal take them and carrie them home to their owne lande: and the houſe of Iſrael ſhal poſſeſſe them in the lande of the Lorde, that they may be ſeruantes and handmaydes: and they ſhal take thoſe priſoners whoſe captiues they had benne before, and rule thoſe that had oppreſſed them.

3 When the Lorde nowe ſhal bryng thee to reſt from thy trauayle, feare, and harde bondage that thou waſt laden withal:

4 Then ſhalt thou vſe this mockage vpon the kyng of Babylon, and ſay, Howe happeneth it that the oppreſſour leaueth of? Is the golden tribute comme to an ende?

5 The Lorde hath broken the ſcepter of the vngodly, and the rod of the lordly,

6 Whiche when he is wroth, ſmiteth the people with continual ſtrokes, & in wrath raigneth ouer the Heathen, whom he perſecuteth without compaſſion.

B 7 And therefore the whole worlde is nowe at reſt and quietneſſe, and menne ſing for ioy.

8 Yea euen the Firre trees and Cedars of Libanus reioyce at thy fal, ſayeing, Nowe that thou art layd downe, there comme no mo vp to hewe downe vs.

9 Hel alſo beneath trembleth to meete thee at thy commyng, and for thy ſake hath rayſed his dead, al mightie menne and princes of the earth, al kinges of the earth ſtande vp from their ſeates,

10 That they may al anſweare and ſpeake vnto thee, Art thou become weake alſo as we? Art thou become lyke vnto vs?

11 Thy pompe and thy pride is layde downe into the pit, & ſo is the melodie of thy inſtrumentes. Wormes be layde vnder thee, and wormes be thy coueryng.

12 How art thou fallen from heauen, O Lucifer, thou fayre mornyng childe? Howe haſt thou gotten a fal euen to the grounde, which didſt weaken the nations?

13 For thou ſaideſt in thine hart, I wil climbe vp into heauen, and exalt my throne aboue, beſyde the ſtarres of God, I wyl ſit alſo vpon the mount of the congregation towarde the North.

14 I wyl clymbe vp aboue the cloudes, and wyl be lyke the hygheſt of al. C

15 Yet thou ſhalt be brought downe to the deepe of hel, to the ſides of the lake.

16 They that ſee thee ſhal narrowly looke vpõ thee, and thinke in them ſelues, [ſayeing,] Is this the man that brought al landes in feare, and made the kyngdomes afrayde?

17 [Is this he] that made the world in a manner waſte, and layde the cities to the grounde, whiche let not his priſoners goe out?

18 The kinges of the nations lye euery one in his owne houſe with worſhip.

19 And thou art caſt out of thy graue lyke a filthy abominable branch, like as dead mens rayment that are ſhot thorow with yͤ ſword, and goe downe to the ſtones of the deepe, as a dead coarſe that is troden vnder feete.

20 Thou art not buried with them: euen becauſe that thou haſt waſted thy land, and deſtroyed thy people: The generation of the wicked ſhalbe out of memorie for euer.

21 Let there a way be ſought to deſtroy their children that be in their fathers wickedneſſe, that they comme not vp agayne to poſſeſſe the lande, and fylle the worlde ful of enimies. D

22 I wyl ſtande vp agaynſt them, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, and roote out the name and remnant, ſonne and ſonnes ſonne of Babylon, ſayth the Lorde.

23 I wyl geue it to the Otters, and wil make water puddles of it, and I wyl ſweepe them out with the beſome of deſtruction, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes.

24 The Lorde of hoſtes hath ſworne an oth, ſayeing, It ſhal comme to paſſe as I haue determined, and ſhalbe fulfylled as I haue deuiſed, 25 So that Aſſyria ſhal I deſtroy in my land, and vpon my mountaines wil I treade him vnder foote, wherethrough his yoke ſhal comme from them, and his burthen ſhalbe taken from their ſhoulder.

26 This deuiſe hath God taken through the whole world, and this is his hande ſtretched out ouer al people.

27 For if the Lorde of hoſtes determine a thyng, who is able to diſanul it? And if he ſtretche foorth his hande, who may returne it agayne?

E 28 The ſame yeere that king Ahaz died, was this burthen:

29 Reioyce not thou whole Paleſtina, becauſe the rod of him that beateth thee is broken: for out of the ſerpentes roote there ſhal comme an Adder, and his fruite ſhalbe a fierie fleeing worme.

30 But the firſt borne of the poore ſhalbe fed, and the ſimple ſhal dwelle in ſafetie: Thy roote alſo wyl I deſtroy with hunger, and it ſhal ſlay the remnant.

31 Mourne thou porte, weepe thou citie, for, O whole lande of Paleſtina, thou art layde waſte: for there ſhal comme from the North a ſmoke, that not one alone may abyde at home in his tymes.

32 What ſhal one then anſweare the meſſengers of the Gentiles? For the Lorde hath ſtabliſhed Sion, and the poore of his people that be therein, ſhal put their truſt in it.

The.xv.Chapter.

A propheſie agaynſt Moab.

A 1 THis is the burthen vpon Moab: Ar of Moab was deſtroyed, & ouerthrowen in the night ſeaſon, Kir alſo in Moab was deſtroyed, & peryſhed in the night.

2 Moab went vp to the idolles houſe, euen to Dibon, to the hygh places, to weepe: for Neba & Moab ſhal mourne for Medba: Al their heades were balde, and al their beardes ſhauen.

3 In her ſtreates are they girded about with ſackcloth: In al the toppes of her houſes and ſtreates, ſhalbe nothyng but mournyng and weepyng.

4 Heſbon and Eleale ſhal crie, that their voyce ſhalbe hearde vnto Jahaz: and therefore the armed ſouldiours alſo of Moab, ſhal bleate out and crye for very ſorowe of their mindes.

5 Wo ſhal my hart be for Moabs ſake, they ſhal flee vnto the citie of Zoar, which is like a fayre young bullocke of three yeere olde, for they ſhal al goe vp to Luith weepyng: euen ſo, by the way towarde Horonaim they ſhal make lamentation for their vtter deſtructiõ.

6 For the waters of Nimrim ſhalbe dryed vp, by reaſon whereof the graſſe is withered, the heardes deſtroyed, and the greene thinges gonne. B

7 Therefore the goodes that remayneth in Moab, and the riches thereof, they ſhal carrie to the brooke of willowes.

8 For the crye went ouer the whole lande of Moab, vnto Eglaim, and vnto Beer Elim was there nothyng but mournyng.

9 Becauſe the waters of Dimon were ful of blood, I wyl adde more vpon Dimon: and lions vpon the remnant of the lande, and on them that are eſcaped from Moab.

The.xvi.Chapter.

The deſtruction of Moab.

A 1 SEnde the lord of the world a lambe frõ the rocke that lyeth towarde the deſart, vnto the hyl of the daughter Sion.

2 For as for the daughters of Moab, they ſhalbe as a tremblyng birde that is put out of her neſte: for they ſhal carrie them vnto Arnon.

(a) The careleſſe and obſtinate diſpiſers of tymely repentance, moued by ỷ preaching of gods worde, ſhal repent when it is to late.

3 Geather your counſel, comme togeather in iudgement, couer vs with your ſhadowe in the midday, as the nyght dooth hyde the chaſed, and bewray not them that are fled.

4 Let my perſecuted people dwelle among you, Moab be thou their refuge agaynſt the deſtroyer: for the aduerſarie is brought to nought, the robber is vndonne, the tyrant is waſted out of the lande.

5 And in mercie ſhal the ſeate be prepared, and he ſhal ſit vpon it in the trueth in the tabernacle of Dauid, iudging, & ſeeking iudgement, and making haſte vnto ryghteouſneſſe.

6 We haue hearde of the pryde of Moab, he is very proude, preſumptuous, arrogant, and ful of indignation, and vayne are his lyes.

7 Therefore ſhal Moab make lamentation, becauſe of the Moabites [that ſhalbe ſlayne] yea they ſhal wayle altogeather: becauſe of the fundations of the citie that is made of bricke ſhal ye complayne, euen ye lame people that are left onely behynde. B

8 For the vines of Heſbon are cut downe: as for the vine of Sibma, the lordes of the heathen haue broken downe her principal branches, they are comme euen vnto Jazer, they went on wanderyng vnto the wyldernesse, her her goodly braunches were throwen downe as they went ouer the ſea.

9 Therefore wyl I mourne for Iazer, and for the vine of Sibma, I wyl poure my teares vpon thee, O Heſbon and Eleale: for the crye of thyne enimies is fallen vpon thy ſommer fruites, and vpon thy harueſt.

10 The mirth and cheare is taken away out of the plentiful fielde, and in the vineyardes there ſhalbe no ioy nor gladneſſe: The treader ſhal treade out no wine in their preſſes, the ſong of their mery cheare haue I laid downe.

11 (a) Wherefore my bowels ſhal rumble lyke an harpe for Moabs ſake, and mine inward partes for the cities ſake that is made of bricke.

12 And it ſhal comme to paſſe, that when it is ſeene that Moab ſhalbe made werry of his hyl chappelles, he ſhal comme to his temple to pray, (b) but he ſhal not be able.

13 So then this is the ſayeing that the Lorde hath ſpoken concernyng Moab ſynce that tyme.

14 But now the Lord hath ſpoken, ſayeing, C In three yeeres, whiche ſhalbe as the yeeres of an hyred ſeruant, ſhal the glorie of Moab be turned into contempt throughout al his multitude, which is very great: & that which remayneth ſhalbe very ſmalle, and feeble.

(a) The ſuperſtitious & idolaters haue more truſt in one idol, and in ſome one place then in another: but al in vayne.

(b) Not be able through weerineſſe, or it ſhal not profite hym.

The.xvii.Chapter.

A propheſie agaynſt Damaſcus.

A 1 This is the burthen vpon Damaſcus: Behold Damaſcus is taken away to be no more a citie, but ſhalbe an heape of broken ſtones.

2 The waſte cities of Aroer ſhalbe foldes for cattel whiche ſhal lye there, & there ſhalbe none to fray them away.

3 Ephraim alſo ſhal no more be ſtrong, and Damaſcus ſhal no longer be a kyngdome, and the remnant of Syria ſhalbe as the glorie of the children of Iſrael, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes.

4 And in that day it ſhal comme to paſſe, that the glorie of Iacob ſhalbe made very thinne, and the fatneſſe of his fleaſh ſhal waxe leane.

5 And he ſhalbe as one that geathereth vp corne in harueſt, euen lyke him whoſe arme reapeth the eares of corne: He ſhalbe alſo like him that geathereth eares of corne in the valley of Rephaim.

6 Somme geatheryng in deede ſhal there be left in it, euen as in the ſhakyng of an Olyue tree there remayne two or three berries in the toppe of the vppermoſt bowe, and foure or fyue in the broade fruitful braunches thereof, ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael.

B 7 Then ſhal man turne agayne to his maker, and his eyes ſhal haue reſpect to the holy one of Iſrael.

8 As for the aulters which are his owne handy worke he ſhal not regarde them, and the thynges that his fyngers hath made, as groues and images, thoſe ſhal he not caſt his eye vnto.

9 In that day ſhal their ſtrong cities be as the forſaken ſhrubbes and braunches, whiche they left becauſe of the children of Iſrael, and the lande ſhalbe deſolate.

10 Becauſe thou haſt forgotten the God of thy ſaluation, and haſt not benne myndful of thy ſtrong rocke: therfore ſhalt thou ſet pleaſant plantes, and ſhalt graffe the braunche of another mans vine.

11 In that day ſhalt thou make thy plant to growe, and early in the mornyng ſhalt thou make thy ſeede to floriſh: The harueſt ſhalbe gonne in the day of inheritance, & there ſhalbe ſorowe without hope of comfort.

12 Wo ſhalbe to the multitude of muche people, whiche ſhal make a ſounde lyke to the noyſe of the ſea, and the violence of the nations whiche rage lyke the ruſhyng in of many waters.

13 Euen lyke many waters ſhal the people rage, God ſhal rebuke hym, and he ſhal flee farre of, he ſhalbe chaſed away lyke as drye ſtrawe vpon yͤ mountaines before the wind, & lyke a thyng that turneth before the ſtorme.

14 At euen, beholde there is trouble, and or E euer it be mornyng, loe it is gonne: This is the portion of them that oppreſſe vs, and the lot of them that robbe vs.

The.xviij.Chapter.

1 An exhortation to the Ethiopians and the countreys nygh adioynyng to them.
7 The vocation of the Gentiles.

A 1 O That lande that truſteth vnder the ſhadowe of wynges, [that lande] whiche is beyonde the waters of Ethiopia,

2 Sendyng meſſengers by the ſea, euē in veſſels of reedes ouer the water: Geat you hence ye ſpeedy meſſengers to a nation that is ſcattered abroade, and robbed of that they had, a feareful people from their beginning hytherto, a nation troden downe by litle and litle, whoſe lande the fluddes haue ſpoyled.

3 Al the inhabitours of the worlde, and indwellers of the earth, looke vp when he ſetteth vp a token in the mountaines, and hearken when he bloweth with the trumpe.

4 For ſo the Lorde ſayde vnto me [as for me] I wyl take my reſt, and looke vpon the matter in my habitation, lyke a fayre heate after the rayne, and lyke a cloude of deawe in the heate of harueſt.

5 For afore the harueſt, when the branche is growen, there ſhal comme rype fruite of the floure: and he ſhal cut downe the increaſe with ſithes, and the branches ſhal he take away with hookes.

6 Thus ſhal they be left togeather vnto the foules of the mountaynes, and to the beaſtes of the earth: for in ſommer the birdes ſhal remayne vpon it, and euery beaſt of the lande ſhalbe vpon it in winter.

7 In that time ſhal there a preſent be brought vnto the Lorde of hoſtes, euen a people that is ſcattered abroade, and robbed of that they had, that ſame people whiche haue benne feareful from their beginning hytherto, a nation troden downe by litle and litle, whoſe lande the fluddes haue ſpoyled, to the place of the name of the Lorde of hoſtes, euen to the mount Sion. B

The.xix.Chapter.

1 He prophecieth agaynſt Egypt, 18 and the vocation of the Gentiles to Chriſte.

A 1 THE burthen of Egypt. Behold, the Lorde rideth vpon a ſwift cloude, and ſhal comme into Egypt, and the idolles of Egypt ſhal tremble at yͤ preſence of hym, and the hart of Egypt ſhal quake in the middeſt of her.

2 And I wyl ſet the Egyptians one agaynſt another, ſo that one brother ſhal fight againſt another, and one neighbour againſt another, citie againſt citie, and realme againſt realme.

3 The mynde alſo of Egypt ſhalbe cleane without counſayle within it ſelfe, and the deuice that they take, wyl I deſtroy: and they ſhal ſeeke counſaile at idols, and at ſorcerers, at woorkers with ſpirites, & at ſoothſayers.

4 And the Egyptians wyl I geue ouer into the hande of a marueylous cruel lorde, and a mightie king ſhal haue dominiō ouer them, ſaith the Lorde God of hoſtes.

5 The waters of the ſea ſhal fayle, and the riuer ſhal decreaſe, and be dryed vp.

6 The waters ſhalbe drawen out, the riuers of Egypt ſhalbe emptyed and dryed vp, the reedes and flagges ſhalbe cut downe.

B 7 The graſſe in the riuer, and by the riuers bancke, & al that groweth by the riuer, ſhal wither away, and be brought to nought.

8 The fiſhers alſo ſhal mourne, and al they that caſt angle into the water, ſhal make lamentation: and they that lay foorth their net beſyde the waters, ſhalbe rooted out.

9 Moreouer, they that woorke in flaxe, and make fine woorkes, ſhalbe confounded, and ſo ſhal they that weaue open woorkes.

10 For their open woorkes ſhal euen be deſtroyed, and al they that make pondes and ſlues for fiſhe, ſhal comme to nought.

11 But you fooliſhe princes of Zoan, ye wiſe counſaylers of Pharao, whoſe wit is turned to fooliſhneſſe, howe ſay ye vnto Pharao, I am comme of wyſe menne, and of ancient kynges?

12 Where are thy wyſe menne? Let them tel thee if they can, what yͤ Lorde of hoſtes hath deuiſed vpon Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fooles, the princes of Noph are deceiued, they haue deceiued Egypt, euen they that were taken for the chiefe ſtay thereof.

14 In the middeſt of it hath the Lorde powred the ſpirite of wickedneſſe: and they haue deceiued Egypt in euery woorke therof, euen as a drunken man ſtaggereth in his vomite. C

15 Neither ſhal the (a) head or taile, the branche or reede, be able to doo any woorke in Egypt.

16 In that day ſhal Egypt be lyke vnto women: It ſhalbe afrayde, and ſtande in feare at the motion of the hande of the Lorde of hoſtes, whiche he ſhaketh ouer it.

17 And Egypt ſhalbe afrayde of the lande of Iuda: ſo that euery one that maketh mention of it, ſhalbe afrayde thereat, becauſe of the counſayle of the Lorde of hoſtes, whiche he deuiſed for it.

18 In that day ſhal fiue cities in the lande of Egypt ſpeake the language of Chanaan, & ſweare by the Lorde of hoſtes: the citie of deſolation ſhalbe called one of them.

19 In that day ſhal the aulter of the Lorde be in the middeſt of the land of Egypt, and this title beſide it, Unto the Lorde.

20 And it ſhalbe a token and a witneſſe vnto the Lorde of hoſtes in the land of Egypt: For they ſhal crye vnto the Lorde, becauſe of ſuch as

(a) By yͤ head and branche are meant the honorable and chiefeſt of the lande: by the tayle & reede, the multitude and lower ſort of people.

XUM

as trouble them, and he ſhal ſende them a ſauiour and a great man to delyuer them.

D 21 And the Lorde ſhalbe knowen in Egypt, and the Egyptians ſhal knowe the Lorde in that day, and doo ſacrifice and oblation: yea they ſhal vowe a vowe vnto the Lorde, and perfourme it.

22 The Lord alſo ſhal ſmite Egypt ſore, and heale them agayne: and they ſhalbe conuerted vnto the Lorde, and he ſhalbe intreated of them, and ſhal heale them.

23 In that day ſhal there be a common way out of Egypt into Aſſyria, and Aſſyria ſhal comme into Egypt, and Egypt into Aſſyria: ſo that the Egyptians and the Aſſyrians ſhal ſerue the Lorde togeather.

24 In that day ſhal the nation of Iſrael be the thirde with Egypt and Aſſyria: and they ſhalbe bleſſed in the middeſt of the lande, 25 Whiche lande the Lorde of hoſtes hath bleſſed, ſayeing, Bleſſed is my people of Egypt, Aſſur alſo is the worke of my handes, and Iſrael is mine inheritance.

The.xx.Chapter.

Agaynſt Egypt and Ethiopia.

A 1 IN the yeere that Tharthan came vnto Aſdod, when Sargon the king of Aſſyria had ſent hym, and had fought agaynſt Aſdod, and taken it:

2 At the ſame time ſpake the Lorde by the hande of Eſai the ſonne of Amos, ſaieing, Goe and take of the ſackcloth from thy loynes, & put of thy ſhoe from thy foote. And he dyd ſo, walkyng naked and barefoote.

3 And the Lorde ſayde, Lyke as my ſeruant Eſai hath walked naked and barefoote, for a ſigne and woonder, three yeeres vpon Egypt and Ethiopia:

4 Euen ſo ſhal the king of Aſſyria take away out of Egypt and Ethiopia, chyldren and olde menne, naked & barefoote, with their loynes vncouered, to the great ſhame of Egypt.

5 They ſhalbe brought in feare alſo, and be aſhamed of Ethiopia their hope, & of Egypt wherein they are wont to glorie.

6 And they that dwelle in the ſame Iſle ſhal ſay in that day, Beholde ſuche is our hope, whyther ſhal we flee for helpe, that we may be deliuered from the kyng of Aſſyria? And howe ſhal we eſcape?

The.xxi.Chapter.

Agaynſt Babylon, Idumea, and Arabia.

A 1 THe burthen of the (a) waſte ſea. Euen as the ſtormie weather paſſeth through at the noone day from the wilderneſſe, ſo ſhal it come from the terrible lande.

(a) The waſte ſea is Babylō, or Chaldee.

2 A greeuous viſion was ſhewed vnto me: let one deceiptful offendour comme agaynſt another, and one deſtroyer againſt another: Up Elam, lay ſiege thou of Media, al their groning haue I layd downe.

3 Therfore are my loynes filled with ſorowe, heauineſſe hath taken holde vpon me as the panges of a woman that is trauaylyng: it made me ſtoupe when I hearde it, & it vexed me when I ſawe it.

4 My hart panted, fearefulneſſe came vpon me: the nyght of my voluptuouſneſſe hath he turned agaynſt me into feare.

5 Whyle they garniſhed the table, the watchman looked: and whyle I was eatyng and drinking, it was ſayd, Up ye captaynes, take you to your ſhielde.

6 For thus hath the Lord ſayd vnto me, Goe and ſet a watcheman to tel what he ſeeth.

B 7 And he ſawe a charret whiche two horſemen ſate vpon, with the cariage of an Aſſe, and the cariage of a Camel: So he looked, and tooke diligent heede.

8 And he cryed, A lion, my Lord I ſtand continually vpon the watche towre in the day tyme, and am appoynted to keepe my watch euery nyght.

9 And beholde here commeth a charret of menne, with two horſemen, and he anſweared and ſayde, Babylon is fallen, it is fallen, and al the images of her gods hath he ſmitten downe vnto the grounde.

10 Thou art he whom I muſt threſhe, and thou belongeſt to my corne floure: This that I hearde of the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, haue I ſhewed vnto you.

11 The burthen of Duma. He calleth to me out of Seir: Watchman, what haſt thou eſpied by nyght? Whatchman, what haſt thou eſpied by night?

12 The watchman ſayd, The morning commeth, and ſo dooth the nyght: If ye wyl aſke me any queſtion, then aſke it: Returne and comme agayne.

13 The burthen concernyng Arabia. In the wooddes of Arabia ſhal ye tarie al nyght, euē in the ſtreates of Dedanim.

14 The inhabitours of the lande of Thema C brought foorth water to hym that was thirſtie, they preuented him that was fled away with their bread.

15 For becauſe of ſwoordes they are become fugitiue, euen for the drawen ſwoorde, and for the bent bowe, and becauſe of the greeuouſneſſe of warre.

16 For thus hath the Lorde ſayde vnto me: There is yet a yeere, accordyng to the yeeres of an hyred ſeruant, and al the glorie of Cedar ſhal fayle.

17 And the number of them that ſhal eſcape from the bowes, ſhalbe miniſhed by yͤ mightie children of Cedar: for the Lorde God of Iſrael hath ſpoken it.

The.xxii, Chapter.

A prophecie againſt Hieruſalem.

A 1 THE burthen of the (a) valley of viſion. What haſt thou to doo here, that thou clymbeſt to yͤ houſe tops?

(a) Hieruſalem is meant by the valley of viſion.

2 Thou that art ful of tumultuouſneſſe, thou troubleſome and proude citie: Thy ſlayne menne are neyther put to death with the ſwoorde, nor dead in battaile.

3 All thy captaynes are fugitiue togeather, the archers haue taken them priſoners: All they I ſay that are found in thee are in captiuitie togeather, and they alſo that fled farre of.

Luke.19.f. Ierem.9.a 4 Therefore ſayde I, Let me alone, and * I wyl make lamentation: Ye ſhal not be able to comfort me, becauſe of the deſtruction of the daughter of my people.

5 For this is a day of trouble, of ruine, and of deſtruction, that the Lorde the God of hoſtes wyl bryng to paſſe in the valley of viſion, breakyng downe the citie, and cryeing vnto mountaynes.

6 Elam bare yͤ quiuer with a charret of footemen and horſemen, & the citie of Kir ſhewed the ſhielde open.

B 7 Thy chiefe valley alſo was ful of charets, and the horſemen ſet their faces directly towarde the gate.

8 And in that day dyd the enimie take away the couer of Iuda, and then dydſt thou looke towarde the (b) armour of the houſe of the foreſt.

(b) The armourie that Solomon made and furniſhed with munition. 1.Reg.7.

9 Ye haue ſeene alſo the broken places of the citie of Dauid, howe that they are many, and ye geathered togeather the waters of the lower poole.

10 As for the houſes of Hieruſalem ye haue numbred them, and the houſes haue ye broken downe, to make the wal ſtrong.

11 A pit alſo haue ye made betweene the two walles for the waters of the old poole, (c) and haue not regarded the maker thereof, neither had reſpect vnto hym that faſhioned it long agoe.

(c) The Lord doeth not forbid to make prouiſion of ſure defence againſt the enimies, ſo that our truſt be put in hym, and not in our fortreſſes and ſtrong holdes.

12 And in that day dyd the Lorde GOD of hoſtes cal menne vnto weepyng and mournyng, to baldneſſe and girdyng about with ſackcloth.

13 And beholde they haue ioy and gladneſſe, ſlayeing oxen, & kylling ſheepe, eating fleaſh, and drinking wine: * Let vs eate and drinke, for to morowe we ſhal dye.

1.Cor.15.c Sapi.2.b.

C 14 And it came to the eares of the Lorde of hoſtes, This iniquitie ſhal not be purged from you tyl ye dye, ſayth the Lorde God of hoſtes.

15 Thus ſayth the Lorde GOD of hoſtes, Geat ye vnto yonder treaſurer, euen vnto * Sebna, whiche is the ruler of the houſe.

Eſai.36,a.

16 What haſt thou to doo here? and whom haſt thou here? that thou ſhouldeſt here hewe thee out a ſepulchree, as it were one that heweth him out a ſepulchree on hye, or that graueth an habitation for hym ſelfe on an harde rocke?

17 Beholde, O thou man, the Lorde ſhal carie thee away into captiuitie, and ſhal ſurely couer thee with confuſion.

18 The Lorde ſhal turne thee ouer lyke a bal with his handes [and ſhal ſende thee] into a farre countrey: there ſhalt thou dye, and there in ſteade of the charrettes of thy pompe, ſhal the houſe of thy Lorde haue confuſion.

19 I wyl driue thee from thy place, and out of thy dwellyng ſhal he ouerthrowe thee.

20 And in that day ſhal I calle my ſeruant Eliakim the ſonne of Helkia:

21 And with thy garmentes wil I cloth him, and with thy girdle wyl I ſtrength him: thy power alſo wil I commit into his hand, and he ſhalbe a father of ſuch as dwelle in Hieruſalem, and in the houſe of Iuda. D

22 * And the key of the houſe of Dauid wyl I lay vpon his ſhoulder: ſo that he ſhal open, and no man ſhut, he ſhal ſhut, and no man open.

Iob.xii.b Apoc.iij.b

23 And I wyl faſten hym as a nayle in a ſure place, and he ſhalbe the glorious ſeate of his fathers houſe.

24 Moreouer, al generations and poſterities ſhal hang vpon hym al the glorie of their fathers houſe, al veſſels both great and ſmalle, and al inſtrumentes of meaſure & muſicke.

25 In that day, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, ſhal the nayle that is faſtened in the ſure place, depart and be broken, and fal: and the burthen that was vpon it ſhalbe pluckt away, for ſo the Lorde hath ſpoken.

The xxiij. Chapter.

1 A prophecie agaynſt Tyrus, 17 and a promiſe that it ſhalbe reſtored agayne.

Ezec. 25. a

A 1 THE burthen of * Tyre. Mourne ye ſhyppes of Tharſis, for there cōmeth ſuche deſtruction, that ye ſhal not haue an houſe to enter into: and that there ſhalbe no traffike out of the lande of Cittim, they haue knowledge of this plague.

2 Be ſtyl ye that dwelle in the Iſle, the marchantes of Zidon, and ſuche as paſſe ouer the ſea haue made thee plenteous.

3 The corne that groweth by the great waters of Nilus, & the fruites of the riuer were her vittayles, ſo that it became a common mart of the nations.

(a) By the ſea & the ſtrength of the ſea, is meant Tyrus

4 Be aſhamed thou Zidon: for the (a) ſea, euen the ſtrength of the ſea hath ſpoken, ſayeing, I haue not trauayled nor brought foorth chyldren, nor nouriſhed vp young menne, or brought vp virgins.

5 When tydynges cōmeth to the Egyptians, they ſhalbe ſory for the rumour of Tyre.

6 Geat you to Tharſis, mourne you that dwelle in the Iſle.

B 7 Is not this that glorious citie of yours whiche hath benne of olde antiquitie? her owne feete ſhal carie her foorth to be a ſoiourner into a farre countrey.

(b) That crowneth her ſelfe, that is, which boaſted her ſelfe to be as it were the Queene of al cities on the ſea coaſt.

8 Who hath deuiſed this agaynſt Tyre that (b) crowneth her ſelfe? whoſe marchantes are princes, and whoſe factours are honorable in the worlde.

9 Euen the Lord of hoſtes hath deuiſed this, to put downe the pride of al ſuche as be glorious, and to miniſhe al them that be proude vpon the earth.

10 Geat thee out of thy lande, lyke a fludde, vnto the daughter of Tharſis, for thou haſt no more ſtrength.

11 He that ſmote the kyngedomes togeather, holdeth out his hande ouer the ſea: euen the Lorde hym ſelfe hath geuen a commaundement agaynſt the ſame common place of marchandiſe, that they ſhal vtterly deſtroy the myght thereof.

12 And he ſayde, Make no more thy boaſt, O virgin, thou daughter Zidon, thou ſhalt be brought downe: Up, geat thee ouer vnto Cittim, where neuertheleſſe thou ſhalt haue no reſt.

13 Beholde, this people came not of the Chaldees, but Aſſur made them ſtrōg with great ſhyppes: They ſet vp the ſtrong holdes therof, and deſtroyed his palaces: and he brought it in decay.

14 Mourne ye ſhippes of Tharſis, for your strength is brought downe. C

15 And in that day ſhal Tyre be forgotten ſeuentie yeeres, accordyng to the yeeres of one king: and after the ende of the ſeuentie yeeres, ſhal Tyre ſing as dooth an harlot.

16 Take an harpe, and goe about the citie, thou harlot that haſt benne forgotten, make ſweet melodie, ſing mo ſonges, that thou mayeſt be had in remembrance.

17 And after the ende of the ſeuentie yeeres ſhal the Lorde viſite Tyre, and ſhe ſhal conuert vnto her rewarde, and ſhal commit fornication with al the kyngdomes of the earth that are in the worlde.

18 Their occupyeing alſo, and their rewarde ſhalbe holy vnto the Lorde: their gaines ſhal not be layde vp, nor kept in ſtore, but it ſhalbe theirs that dwelle before the Lorde, that they may eate yenough, & haue clothing ſufficiēt.

The. xxiiii. Chapter.

A prophecie of tribulation to comme vpon the worlde, becauſe of ſinne.

A 1 BEholde, the Lorde maketh the earth waſte and emptie, he turneth it vpſide downe, and ſcattereth abroade the inhabitours thereof.

2 And the prieſt ſhalbe as the people, and the maiſter as the ſeruant, the miſtreſſe lyke the mayde, the ſeller lyke the byer, he that lendeth vpon vſurie, lyke hym that boroweth vpon vſurie, the creditour as the dettour.

3 The lande ſhalbe cleane waſted and vtterly ſpoyled: for ſo the Lorde hath ſpoken.

4 The earth is ſore, & conſumeth away, the world is feeble and periſheth, the proude people of the earth are comme to nought.

5 The earth alſo is become vnprofitable vnder the inhabitours therof, which haue tranſgreſſed the lawes, changed the ordinance, broken the euerlaſtyng couenant.

6 Therfore hath the curſe conſumed the earth, and they that dwelle therein are fallen into treſpaſſe: wherefore the inhabitours of the earth are periſhed with drought, and fewe menne are left behynde.

B 7 The wine faileth, the vine hath no might, al they that haue benne merie of hart are comme to mournyng.

8 The myrth of tabrettes is layde downe, the noyses of such as haue made mery is ceassed, the ioy at the harpe is at an ende.

9 They ſhal drinke no more wine with mirth, ſtrõg drinke ſhalbe bitter to them that drinke it.

10 The citie of vanitie is broken downe, euery houſe is ſhut vp, that no man may comme in.

11 In the ſtreates is there a cryeing, becauſe of wine, al cheare is vaniſhed away, the myrth of the lande is gonne.

12 In the citie is leaſt deſolation, and the gate is ſmitten with deſtruction.

13 For in the middes of the land, euen among the people, it ſhal comme to paſſe as at yͤ ſhakyng of oliues, and as the grapes are when the wine harueſt is donne.

C 14 They ſhal lyft vp their voyce, and make a merie noyſe: and in magnifieyng of the Lorde ſhal they crye out of the weaſt.

15 Wherefore prayſe ye the Lorde in the valleys, euen the name of the Lorde God of Iſrael in the Iſles of the ſea.

16 From the vttermoſt part of the earth haue we hearde prayſes and myrth, becauſe of the ryghteous: And I ſayde, I knowe a thyng in ſecrete, I knowe a thyng in ſecrete, wo is me: the tranſgreſſours haue offended, yͤ tranſgreſſours haue greeuouſly offended.

17 Fearefulneſſe, the pit, & the ſnare are vpon thee, O thou that dwelleſt on the earth.

18 It wyl comme to paſſe, that whoſoeuer eſcapeth the feareful noyſe, ſhal fal into the pit, and he that commeth vp out of the pit, ſhalbe taken with the ſnare: for the windowes from on hygh are open, and the fundations of the earth are moued.

19 The earth is vtterly broken downe, the earth hath a ſoare ruine, the earth quaketh exceedyngly:

20 The earth ſhal reele to and fro like a drunkarde, & ſhalbe remoued lyke a tent, and the iniquitie thereof ſhalbe heauie vpon it, it ſhal falle, and not ryſe vp agayne.

21 And in that day ſhal the Lorde viſite the D hoſt aboue that is on hygh, and the kinges of the worlde that are vpon the earth.

22 And they ſhalbe geathered togeather as they that be in priſon, and they ſhalbe ſhut vp in warde, and after many dayes ſhal they be viſited.

23 *The moone ſhalbe abaſhed, and the ſunne aſhamed, whẽ the Lord of hoſtes ſhal raigne in mount Sion, and in Hieruſalem with worſhip, and in the ſight of ſuche as ſhalbe of his counſel. Luke.21.c

The.xxv.Chapter.

1 A thankes geuing to God for his woorkes.

A 1 THOU art my Lorde my God, I wil magnifie thee, I wyl geue thankes vnto thy name, for thou haſte brought woonderful thinges to paſſe, accordyng to thyne olde counſels, truely and faythfully.

Eſai.26.a. 2 *Thou haſt made a citie a heape of ſtones, and brought a ſtrong towne into decay: the habitation of ſtrangers haſt thou made to be no citie, neither ſhal it be builded any more.

3 Therefore ſhal the mighty people geue glorie vnto thee, the citie of the valiant heathen ſhal feare thee.

4 For thou haſt benne a ſtrength vnto the poore, & a ſuccour for the needie in his trouble, a refuge agaynſt euyl weather, a ſhadowe agaynſt yͤ heate: for the blaſte of raging menne is lyke a ſtorme that caſteth downe a wal.

5 Lyke as the heate in a drie place waſteth al thinges: ſo ſhalt thou ſuppreſſe the noyſe of aliantes, the heate [is abated] with the ſhadow of the cloude, [euen ſo ſhal God] aſſwage the noyſe of the cruel tyrantes.

6 And in this mountayne ſhal *the Lorde of hoſtes make vnto al people a feaſt of plenteous and delicate thinges, euen of moſt pleaſant and dayntie diſſhes. Luke.14.d

7 And in this mountayne ſhal the Lorde de- B ſtroy the couering that al people are wrapped in, and the hangyng that is ſpread vpon al nations.

8 *As for death, he hath deſtroyed it for euer, *and the Lorde God ſhal wipe away teares from al faces, and the rebuke of his people ſhal he take away out of al the earth, for ſo the Lorde hath ſayde. Oſee.13.e Apoc.7.c. and.xxi.c 1. Cor.15.f

9 And in that day it ſhalbe ſayde, Loe, this is our God, we haue wated for hym, * and he ſhal ſaue vs, this is the Lorde in whom we haue hoped, we wyl be merie, and reioyce in the ſaluation [that commeth] of hym. Ephe.ij.a

10 For in this mountayne ſhal the hande of the Lorde ceaſſe, and Moab ſhalbe threſſhed vnder him, euen as ſtrawe is trodẽ to doung on the doungthyl.

11 And he ſhal ſtretche out his hande in the middes of them, as he that ſwimmeth caſteth out his handes to ſwimme: and with the ſtrength of his handes ſhal he bryng downe theyr pryde.

12 The ſtrong holde alſo, and defence of thy walles hath he ouerthrowen, & caſt downe, and brought them to the grounde, euen vnto duſt.

The.xxvi.Chapter.

A ſong of deliuerance of the people.

A 1 IN that day ſhal this ſong be ſong in the lande of Juda, We haue a ſtrong citie, ſaluation ſhal God appoint in ſtede of walles and bulwarkes. Pro.18.c. Zach,2.a.

Pſal.118,b. 2 * Open ye the gates, that the ryghteous people whiche keepeth the trueth may enter in.

Rom,5,a. 3 By an aſſured purpoſe wylt thou preſerue perfect * peace, becauſe they put theyr truſt in thee.

4 Put ye your truſt alway in the Lorde: for in the Lorde God there is ſtrength for euermore.

Eſai.25.a. 5 * For he hath brought downe the high minded citizens: as for the proude citie, he hath brought it lowe, euen to the grounde ſhal he caſt it downe, and bryng it vnto duſt.

6 The foote, euen the foote of the poore, and the ſteppes of ſuche as be in neceſſitie, ſhal treade it downe.

B 7 The path of equitie wylt thou graunt vnto the iuſt, [O thou moſt righteous,] * thou ſhalt order the path of hym that is ryghteous. Prou.6.a. Iere.10.d.

8 Yea in the way of thy iudgementes, O Lorde, haue we put our truſt in thee: thy name alſo, and the remembrance of thee, is the thyng that our ſoule longeth for.

Pſal.63,a. and.143,a. 9 *My ſoule hath longed for thee al the night, and with my ſpirite, whiche is within me, wyl I ſeeke thee early in the mornyng: For when thy iudgementes are in the earth, the inhabiters of the worlde ſhal learne ryghteouſneſſe.

10 Shal the vngodly man be fauoured, whiche hath not learned ryghteouſneſſe, but dooth wickedly in the earth, where nothing ought to be donne but that whiche is ryghteous: he ſhal not ſee the glory of the Lorde.

11 Lorde, when thy hande is lyft vp to ſtrike, they ſee it not: but they ſhal ſee it, and be confounded with the zeale of the people, and the fyre that conſumeth the enimies ſhal deuour them.

12 Lorde vnto vs thou ſhalt prouide peace: * for thou alſo haſt wrought al our workes in vs. Philip.2,a 13 O Lord our God, other lordes beſyde thee hath ſubdued vs: but we wyl be myndful only of thee, and of thy name.

C 14 The dead wyl not lyue, they that be out of life wil not ryſe agayne, therfore haſt thou viſited and rooted them out, and deſtroyed al the memorie of them.

15 Thou haſt increaſed the people, O Lorde, thou haſt increaſed the people, thou art glorious, thou haſt ſent them farre of vnto al the coaſtes of the earth.

16 * Lorde, in trouble haue they viſited thee, they powred out theyr prayer when thy chaſtenyng was vpon them. Leui.26.g.

17 * Lyke as a woman with chylde that draweth nigh towardes her trauayle, is ſory and cryeth in her paynes: euen ſo haue we benne in thy ſyght, O Lorde. Iohn,16.c.

18 * We haue benne with childe, and ſuffered payne, as though we had brought foorth winde: for there is no ſaluation in the earth, neyther doo the inhabiters of the worlde ſubmit them ſelues. Rom.8.d.

19 * Thy dead menne ſhal liue, euen as my body ſhal they ryſe agayne: Awake and ſing ye that dwel in duſt, for thy deaw is euen as the deawe of hearbes, and the earth ſhal caſt out them that be vnder her. 1.Cor.6.d.

20 Comme my people, * enter thou into thy chambers, and ſhut thy doores about thee, *hide thy ſelfe for a litle whyle, vntil the indignation be ouerpaſt. Gen,19,c. Apoc.6.a.

21 * For beholde, the Lorde is commyng out of his place, to viſite the wickedneſſe of ſuche as dwel vpon earth: the earth alſo ſhal diſcloſe her bloods, and ſhal no more hide them that are ſlayne in her. Miche,1.a

The.xxvii.Chapter.

1 A prophecie of the commyng of Chriſte, and deſtruction of idolatrie.

1 IN that day, the Lorde with his ſoare, great, and myghtie swoorde, ſhal viſite (a)*Leuiathan the fugitiue ſerpent, euen Leuiathan that crooked ſerpent, and he ſhal ſlay the dragon that is in the ſea. 1.Cor,15.c Apoc.12,c

(a) By Leuiathan the greateſt of fiſhes in the ſea, is meant ÿ kyngdome of Satan, and the myghtie tyrantes of the worlde, enimies to Chriſte, and perſecuters of his religion.

2 In that day ſee that ye ſyng of the congregation, which is the vineyarde that bringeth foorth the beſt wine:

3 Euen I the Lorde doo keepe it, in due ſeaſons ſhal I water it: and leſt the enimie doo it any harme, I wyl both night and day preſerue it.

4 There is no diſpleaſure in me, els when the vineyarde bringeth me foorth bryers and thornes, I would goe through it by warre, and burne it vp togeather.

5 Let it take holde of my (b) ſtrength, and it ſhalbe at one with me, euen at one ſhal it be with me.

(b) God calleth his worde his ſtrength, becauſe thereby he winneth menne, & bindeth them vnto him ſelfe.

6 The dayes are commyng that Iacob ſhal take roote, Iſrael ſhalbe greene and floriſhe, and the worlde ſhalbe filled with fruite.

B 7 Hath he ſmitten hym as ſoare as he did the other that ſmote hym? Or is he ſlayne with [illegible] ſoare a ſlaughter as they that ſlue hym?

8 Thou wylt puniſhe it in the branches, yet not beyonde meaſure: for in the day that the eaſt winde bloweth ſoare, it taketh away the fruites.

9 By this meanes therefore ſhal the iniquitie of Iacob be pourged, and this is al the fruite [namely] the (c) takyng away of his ſinne, yf he make al the ſtones of the aulter of idols as chalke ſtones that are beaten in ſunder, that their groues and images riſe not vp againe.

(c) God vſeth affictions, as meanes to cal men to repentance, whereupon foloweth forgeueneſſe of ſinnes.

10 Els ſhal the ſtrong citie be deſolate, and the habitation forſaken and leaft lyke a wilderneſſe: there ſhal the Calfe feede, and there ſhal he lye, and eate vp the graſſes thereof.

11 When the branches of it are drye, they are broken of, and the women comme & ſet them on fyre: * for it is a people of no vnderſtandyng, and therefore he that made them, ſhal not fauour them, and he that created them, ſhal geue them no grace. Deut.32.b

12 And in that day ſhal the Lorde make a threaſhyng, from the myddeſt of the ryuer Euphrates, vnto the riuer of Egypt, and ye children of Iſrael ſhalbe geathered togeather one to another.

13 In that day ſhal the great trumpe be blowen, ſo that they whiche were loſt in the lande of Aſſyria, and they that were baniſhed in the lande of Egypt, ſhal comme and worſhyp the Lorde in the holy mount of Hieruſalem.

The.xxviii.Chapter.

1 Agaynſt the pride of Ephraim. 9 and agaynſt falſe prieſtes and preachers.

A 1 VO be vnto the crowne of pryde, euen * to the drunken people of Ephraim, whoſe great pompe is as a flowre that fadeth away vpon the head of the valley of ſuche as be in wealth, and are ouerladen with wine. Oſee.3.a.

Mat.16,c. 2 Beholde, * there commeth a vehement and ſoare day from the Lorde, like an vnmeaſurable hayle, and perillous tempeſt, euen lyke the force of mightie and horrible waters that violently beareth downe al thynges.

3 The crowne of the pryde of the drunken Ephraemites ſhalbe troden vnder foote:

Eſai. 60. a. 4 * So that the flowre of his fayreneſſe, and beautie whiche is in the head of the valley of fatneſſe, ſhal fade away as dooth an vntimely rype figge before harueſt: whiche when a man eſpyeth, he looketh vpon it, and whyle it is yet in his hande, he eateth it vp.

5 In that day ſhal the Lorde of hoſtes be the crowne of glorie, and diamonde of beautie, vnto the reſidue of his people.

6 He wyl be alſo a ſpirite of perfect knowledge to hym that ſitteth in iudgement, and ſtrength vnto them that turne away the battayle to the gate [of the enimies.]

7 But they are out of the way by reaſon of wine, yea farre out of the way are they thorowe ſtrong drynke: * The prieſt alſo and the prophete are gonne aſtray by the meanes of ſtrong drinke, they are drunken with wine, they goe amiſſe through ſtrōg drinke, they fayle in prophecieyng, and ſtumble in iudgement. B Eſai.3,c.

8 For al tables are ful of vomit and fylthyneſſe, that no place is cleane.

9 Whom then ſhal ſuche one teache knowledge? and whom ſhal he make to vnderſtande the thyng that he heareth? for they are as ignorant as young chyldren that are taken from the mylke, and are weaned.

10 For they that be ſuche, muſt take after one leſſon, another leſſon, * after one commaundement, another commaundement, for one rule, another rule, after one inſtruction, another inſtruction, there a litle, and there a litle. Eſai,10.a. Mat,23.a.

11 For he that ſpeaketh vnto this people, is euen as one that vſeth rudeneſſe of ſpeache, and a ſtrange language.

12 If any man ſay vnto them, Loe, this is the reaſt wherewith ye may eaſe him that is weerie, this is the refreaſhyng: they wil not hearken.

1.Cor.14.c 13 * Therefore ſhal the woorde of the Lorde be vnto them, leſſon vpon leſſon, commaundement vpon commaundement, rule vpon rule, inſtruction vpon inſtruction, there a litle, and there a litle: that they may goe on and fal backwarde, be bruſed, tangled, and ſnared.

C 14 Wherefore heare the woorde of the Lord ye mockers, ye that haue rule of this people whiche is at Hieruſalem.

15 Becauſe ye haue ſayde, We haue made a couenant with death, and with hel are we at agreement: and though there goe foorth a ſoare plague, it ſhal not comme vnto vs, for we haue made falſhood our refuge, and vnder vanitie are we hyd.

16 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I lay in Sion for a fundation a ſtone, euen a tryed ſtone, a pretious corner ſtone, a ſure fundation: who ſo beleueth, let hym not be to (a) haſtie.

17 Iudgement alſo wyl I lay to the rule, and ryghteouſneſſe to the ballance, ſo that the (b) hayle ſhal ſweepe away as a brome your vayne confidence, and the priuie place of your refuge ſhal the waters runne ouer.

18 And thus the couenant that ye made with death, ſhalbe diſſanulled, & your agreement that ye made with hel, ſhal not ſtande, yea when the ſoare plague goeth foorth, ye ſhalbe troden downe vnder it.

19 From the tyme that it goeth foorth, it ſhal take you away: for early in the mornyng euery day, yea both day and night ſhal it goe through, and when the noyſe thereof is perceiued, it ſhal gender vexation.

(a) who ſo through fayth doth ſtay him ſelfe vpon Chriſte in haſtie goeing forwarde, ſhal not fal, that is, ſhal not fayle of that he hopeth to obtayne.

(b) The Goſpel is compared to hayle & fluddes, for that it breaketh downe and carieth away idolatrie and ſuperſtition, wherein men do truſt in vayne.

20 For the bedde is narrowe, and not large, and the couering ſo ſmal that a man can not winde hym ſelfe [vnder it.]

21 * For the Lorde ſhal ſtande as in mount Perazim, and ſhalbe wroth lyke as in the valley * Gibeon, that he may doo his worke, his ſtrange woorke, and bryng to paſſe his acte, his ſtrange acte. D Eſai.36.f. 2.Reg.5.b. Ioſu.10.b. 2.Par.13.d.

22 Nowe therefore, ſee that ye be no mockers, leſt your pouniſhment increaſe: for I hearde of the Lord of hoſtes, that there ſhal comme a ſhort ende vpon the whole earth.

23 Heare ye then, and hearken vnto my voyce, conſyder and ponder my ſpeache.

24 Dooth not the huſbandman plowe al the day, and openeth and breaketh the clottes of his grounde, that he may ſowe?

25 When he hath made it playne, wyl he not ſpreade abroade the Fitches, and ſowe Commin, and caſt in wheate by meaſure, and the appoynted Barley and Rye in theyr place?

26 God wyl inſtruct hym to haue diſcretion, euen his God wyl teache hym.

27 For Fitches ſhal not be threaſhed with an harrowe, neyther ſhal a cart wheele be brought through the Commin: but the Fitches are beaten out with a ſtaffe, and Commin with a rodde.

28 But the ſeede that bread is made of, is threaſhed, though it be not alway a threaſhing, and the cart wheele muſt be brought ouer it, leſt he grinde it with his teeth. E

29 This alſo commeth of the Lord of hoſtes, whiche woorketh with woonderful wiſdome, and bryngeth excellent woorkes to paſſe.

The.xxix.Chapter.

1 A prophecie agaynſt Hieruſalem, 13 and agaynſt the vayne traditions of menne.

A 1 WO vnto thee, O Ariel, Ariel, thou citie that Dauid dwelt in: Goe on from yeere to yeere, and let the lambes be ſlayne. 2.Reg.5.b

2 I wyl lay ſiege vnto Ariel, ſo that there ſhalbe heauineſſe and ſorowe in it: and it ſhalbe vnto me euen an aulter of ſlaughter.

3 I wil beſiege thee rounde about, and fight agaynſt thee through a bulwarke, and wyl reare vp diches agaynſt thee.

4 Thou ſhalt be brought downe, and ſhalt ſpeake out of the grounde, & thy ſpeache ſhal goe lowe out of the duſt:

5 Thy voyce alſo ſhal come out of the ground lyke the voyce of a witche, and thy talkyng ſhal whiſper out of the duſt:

6 Moreouer, the noyſe of the ſtrange enimies ſhalbe like thinne duſt, and the multitude of tyrauntes ſhalbe * as drye ſtrawe that can not tarry: euen ſuddenly and in haſte ſhal theyr blaſt goe. Pſal.1.b.

7 Thou ſhalt be viſited of the Lord of hoſtes with thunder, earthquake, and with a great noiſe, with ſtorme and tempeſt, and with the flambe of a conſumyng fyre. B

8 And the multitude of al nations that fight agaynſt Ariel, ſhalbe as a dreame ſeene by night: * euen ſo ſhal they be that make warre agaynſt it, and ſtrong holdes to ouercome it, and that lay any ſiege vnto it. Pſal.83.c

9 In concluſion, it ſhalbe euen as when a hungry man dreameth that he is eatyng, and when he awaketh his ſoule is emptie: or as when a thirſtie man dreameth that he is drynking, and when he awaketh, he is yet fainte, and his ſoule hath appetite: euen ſo ſhal the multitude of al nations that fighteth agaynſt mount Sion.

Mat.15.d. 9 Ponder theſe thinges once in your mindes, & woonder: * Blinded are they them ſelues, and the blynde guides of other: They are drunken, but not with wine: they are vnſtable, but not through ſtrong drynke.

10 For the Lorde hath couered you with a ſlumbring ſpirite, and hath cloſed your eyes: your prophetes alſo and rulers that ſhoulde ſee, them hath he couered.

Eſai.6.b. 11 * And the viſion of al the prophetes is become vnto you as the woordes of a booke that is ſealed vp, whiche menne delyuer to one that is learned, ſayeing, Reade thou in it: and he ſayth, I can not, for it is ſealed.

12 And the booke is geuen to hym that is not learned, ſayeing, Reade thou in it: and he ſayth, I am not learned.

Mat.15.a. Mar.7.a. 13 Therefore thus hath the Lorde ſayde, Forſomuche as this people when they be in trouble, doo honour me with theyr mouth, and with their lippes, but theyr hart is farre fro me, and the feare whiche they haue vnto me proceedeth of a commaundement that is taught of menne:

C 14 Therefore wyl I doo marueyles among this people, euen marueylous thyngs [I ſay] and a woonder: * For the wyſdome of their Abdi.1.c. 1.Cor.1.c. wyſe menne ſhal peryſhe, and the vnderſtandyng of theyr wittie menne ſhal hyde it ſelfe.

15 Wo vnto thē that kepe ſecrete their thoughtes, to hyde theyr counſayle from the Lord, & to doo theyr woorkes in darkneſſe, ſayeing, * Who ſeeth vs? And who knoweth vs? Eſai.47.b. Eccle.23.d Ezech.9,c 16 Doubtleſſe your deſtruction is in reputation as the potters clay: And dooth the woorke ſay of hym that made it, He made not me? And dooth an earthen veſſel ſay of hym that faſhioned it, He had no vnderſtandyng?

17 Is it not harde at hande that Libanus ſhalbe turned into a lowe feelde, and that the lowe feelde ſhalbe taken as the wood?

18 And in that day ſhal deafe menne heare the woordes of the booke, and the eyes of the blynde ſhal ſee, euen out of the cloude, and out of darkneſſe.

19 The meeke ſpirited alſo ſhalbe meerie in the Lorde, and the poore among them that be lowly, ſhal reioyce in the holy one of Iſrael:

20 For he that dyd violence, is brought to nought, and the ſcorneful man is conſumed, and they rooted out that made haſte early to vnryghteouſneſſe,

31 Makyng a man to ſinne in the woorde, and D that tooke hym in a ſnare, whiche reproued them in the open place, and they that haue turned the cauſe of the righteous to nought.

22 Therfore thus ſaith the Lorde to the houſe of Iacob, euen thus ſayth he that redeemed Abraham: * Iacob ſhal not nowe be confounded, nor his face pale. Eſai.14.a.

23 But when he ſeeth his children, the woorke of my handes, in the myddeſt of hym, they ſhal ſanctifie my name, and prayſe the holy one of Iacob, and feare the God of Iſrael.

24 They alſo that haue benne of an erronious ſpirite, ſhal comme to vnderſtandyng, and they that haue benne ſcornful, ſhal learne doctrine.

The.xxx, Chapter.

1 Agaynſt them that forſake the counſayle of God, and cleaue to the counſayle of menne.
3 The prophete alſo threatneth the remnant of the people, that after the deſtruction of Hieruſalem, went into Egypt.

A 1 ALas for thoſe diſobedient chyldren, ſayth the Lorde, * that they wil take counſayle, and not of me, that they wyl take a ſecrete aduice, and not out of my ſpirite, and therfore adde they ſinne vnto ſinne. Eſai.8.b.

2 Euen they that walke to goe downe into Egypt, and haue aſked no queſtion at my mouth, but ſeeke ſtrength in the myght of Pharao, and truſt in the ſhadowe of Egypt.

3 Therefore ſhal the ſtrength of Pharao be your confuſion, and the truſt in the ſhadowe of Egypt your ſhame.

4 For his captaynes were at Zoan, and his embaſſadours came vnto Hanes.

5 * They were aſhamed of the people that could doo them no good, and that might not helpe them, nor ſhewe them any profite, but were theyr confuſion and rebuke. 4.Re.18.d. Iere.17.b. Ezec.29.a.

6 The burthen of the beaſtes of the ſouth. In a lande of trouble and anguiſhe, from whence ſhal comme the young and old lion, the viper and fiery ſerpent that fleeth againſt them that vpon coltes beare theyr riches, and vpon camels theyr treaſures, to a people that can doo them no good.

7 For vayne and nothyng woorth ſhal the B helpe of the Egyptians be: Therefore haue

I cryed vnto Hieruſalem, they ſhal haue ſtrength yenough, yf they wyl ſettle theyr myndes in quietneſſe.

Eſai. 8,a. 8 *Nowe therefore goe thy way, and wryte this before them in a table, and note it in a booke: that it may finally remayne, and be kept ſtyl for euer.

Eſai,1,d. 9 For this is an obſtinate people, * and diſſemblyng chyldren, chyldren that refuſe to heare the lawe of the Lorde.

10 For they ſay vnto the ſeers, See not: and to them that be cleare of iudgement, Looke not out ryght thynges for vs: but ſpeake fayre woordes vnto vs, looke out errours.

11 Geat you out of this way, depart out of this path, and turne the holy one of Iſrael from vs.

12 Wherefore thus ſayth the holy one of Iſrael, Becauſe your hartes ryſe agaynſt this woorde, and becauſe you truſt in wrong dealyng, and peruerſe iudgement, and put your confidence therein:

13 Therefore ſhal ye haue this miſchiefe for your deſtruction and fal, like as an high wal that falleth becauſe of ſomme ryft or blaſte, whoſe breakyng commeth ſuddaynely.

C Pſal,2,b. 14 *And the hurt thereof, is lyke an earthen veſſel whiche breaketh without helpe, ſo that in the burſtyng of it, there is not found one ſheuer to fetche fyre in, or to take water withal out of the pyt.

15 For thus ſayth the Lorde God, euen the holy one of Iſrael: In repentance, & in * reaſt ſhal ye be ſafe, in quietneſſe and ſure confidence ſhalbe your ſtrength, but ye haue had no luſt thereto.

Exod.14,c 1,Par,20,c

16 For ye haue ſayde, No, but we wyl eſcape through horſes, therefore ſhal ye flee: And we wyl geat vs vp vpon ſwift beaſtes, and therfore ſhal your perſecuters be ſwifter.

Leui.26.a. Ioſu. 23. a. 17 *A thouſande ſhal flee at the rebuke of one, and at the rebuke of fyue ſhal ye al flee, tyl ye be leaſt as a ſhip maſte vpon the toppe of a mountayne, and as a beakon vpon an hyl.

Rom,2,a 18 *Therefore dooth the Lorde cauſe you to wayte, that he may haue mercy vpon you, to the intent that he may haue the preeminence when he is gratious vnto you: For the Lorde is the God of iudgement, Bleſſed are al they that hope in hym.

19 If the people remayne in Sion, and at Hieruſalem, thou ſhalt not be in heauineſſe: but at the voyce of thy complaynt ſhal he haue mercy vpon thee, and when he heareth it, he ſhal geue thee an anſweare.

20 And though the Lorde geue you the bread of trouble, and the water of aduerſitie, thy rayne ſhalbe no more ſo ſcant, but thine eyes ſhal ſee thy rayne.

21 Yea and thyne eare ſhal heare the talkyng of hym that dooth ſpeake behind thee: * This is the way, walke ye in it, turne not aſyde, neyther to the ryght hande, nor to the leaſt. D Deut.4.a.

22 Ye ſhal deſtroy alſo the coueryng of your ſyluer images, and the deckyng of your golden idols, euen as fylthyneſſe ſhalt thou put them away: And thou ſhalt ſay vnto it, Geat thee hence.

23 Then ſhal God geue rayne vnto thy ſeede, that thou ſhalt ſowe the grounde withal, and bread, of the increaſe of the earth, whiche ſhalbe fat, and very plenteous: in that day alſo ſhal thy catel be fed in large paſtures.

24 The oxen lykewyſe, and the young aſſes that eare the grounde, ſhal eate cleane prouender, whiche is pourged with the winde, and the fanne.

25 Finally, vpon euery hygh mountayne and hil, ſhal there be riuers, and ſtreames of waters, * in the day of the great ſlaughter, when the towres fal. 2.Pet,3,b 26 Moreouer, the lyght of the moone ſhalbe as the light of the ſunne, and the ſunne light ſhalbe ſeuen folde, and haue as muche ſhine as in ſeuen dayes beſyde, when the Lorde bindeth vp the ſore of his people, and healeth the ſtroke of theyr wounde.

27 Beholde, the fame of the Lorde commeth from farre, and his preſence is ſo hotte, that no man is able to abyde: his lippes are ful of indignation, and his tongue is as a conſumyng fyre.

28 His breath is a vehement fludde of water, that reacheth vp to the necke: that he may ſyft away the heathen in the ſiue of vanitie, and his breath is a brydle of errour in the iawes of the people. E

29 And ye ſhal ſyng, lyke as in the nyght, when the holy ſolemnitie begynneth, and ye ſhal haue gladneſſe of hart, lyke as when one commeth with a pype vnto the hyl of the Lorde, and to the moſt myghtie one of Iſrael.

30 And the Lord ſhal cauſe his glorious voyce to be hearde, and ſhal declare his ſtretched out arme, with a terrible countenance, and with the flambe of a conſumyng fyre, with noyſome lyghtenyng, with a ſhowre, and with hayleſtones.

31 For through the voyce of the Lorde, ſhal * Aſſur be deſtroyed, which ſmote other men with the rodde. Eſai.10,a

32 And it ſhal comme to paſſe, that whyther

ſoeuer he goeth, the rodde ſhal cleaue vnto hym, whiche the Lorde ſhal lay vpon hym, with tabrettes and harpes: and with great warre ſhal he fyght agaynſt his hoſt.

Mat.25.b. 33 *For the fyre of hel is ordayned from the beginnyng, yea euen for the kyng is it prepared: This hath the Lorde ſet in the deepe, and made it wyde, the burnyng whereof is fyre and muche wood: The breath of the Lorde, whiche is lyke a riuer of brymſtone, dooth kyndle it.

The.xxxi.Chapter.

1 He curſeth them that forſake God, and ſeeke for the helpe of menne.

A 1 WO be vnto them that goe downe into Egypt for helpe, and truſt in horſes, and put theyr confidence in charrets, becauſe they be many, and in horſemen, becauſe they be luſtie and ſtrong: but they regarde not the holy one of Iſrael, and they aſke no queſtion at the Lorde.

2 And he neuertheleſſe is wiſe, and wil plague the wicked, and goeth not from his woorde, he wyl aryſe agaynſt the houſholde of the frowarde, and agaynſt the helpe of euyl dooers.

3 Nowe the Egyptians are menne, and not God, and theyr horſes fleaſhe, and not ſpirite: And aſſoone as the Lorde ſtretcheth out his hande, then ſhal the helper fal, and he that ſhoulde haue benne helped, and they ſhal altogeather be deſtroyed.

4 For thus hath the Lorde ſpoken vnto me: Apoc.5.2. Gen.49.b *Like as the lion and *lions whelpe roareth vpon the pray that he hath gotten, and is not afrayd though the multitude of ſhepheardes crye out vpon hym, neyther be abaſhed for al the heape of them: ſo ſhal the Lorde of hoſtes comme downe to fyght for mount Sion, and defende his hyl.

5 Lyke as the byrdes flutter about theyr neaſtes, *ſo ſhal the Lorde of hoſtes keepe, ſaue, defende, and deliuer Hieruſalem. Deut.32.d

6 Therefore, O ye chyldren of Iſrael, turne againe vnto him whom you haue ofttimes forſaken.

7 *For in that day euery man ſhal caſt out his idols of ſyluer, and his idols of golde, whiche ye haue made with your owne handes vnto your ſinne. B Eſai.2.c.

8 *Aſſur alſo ſhalbe ſlayne with the ſwoord, not with a mans ſwoorde, neyther ſhal the ſwoord of any man deuour him, and he ſhal flee from the ſlaughter, and his choiſe young menne ſhalbe diſcomfited. Eſai.37.c.

9 He ſhal goe for feare to his ſtrong holdes, and his princes ſhal flee from his ſtanderde, ſayth the Lorde, whoſe fyre is in Sion, and his furnace in Hieruſalem.

The.xxxii.Chapter.

1 The conditions of good rulers and officers.

A 1 BEholde, a kyng ſhal gouerne after the rule of ryghteouſneſſe, and the princes ſhal rule accordyng to the ballance of equitie.

2 And that man ſhalbe vnto menne as a defence for the winde, and as a refuge for the tempeſt, lyke as a ryuer of water in a thirſtie place, and the ſhadowe of a great rocke in a drye lande.

3 The eyes of the ſeeyng ſhal not be dimme, and the eares of them that heare, ſhal take diligent heede.

4 The hart of the vnwyſe ſhal attayne to knowledge, and the vnperfect tongue ſhal ſpeake playnely, and diſtinctly.

5 Then ſhal the fooliſhe niggard be no more called gentle, nor the churle liberal.

6 But the niggarde wyl ſpeake niggardly, and his hart wil woorke euil, and play the hypocrite, and imagine abominations agaynſt God, to make the hungry leane, and to withholde drinke from the thirſtie.

7 The weapons of the churliſhe are euyl, he deuiſeth noyſome deuiſes, that he may beguile the poore with deceiptful woordes, yea euen there as he ſhoulde geue ſentence with the poore. B

8 *But the liberal perſon imagineth honeſt thynges, and commeth vp for liberalitie vnto promotion. Pro.17.b.

9 Up ye riche and idle women, hearken vnto my voyce, ye careleſſe daughters marke my woordes.

10 Many yeeres and dayes ſhal ye be brought in feare, O ye careleſſe women: for the vintage ſhal fayle, and the harueſt ſhal not comme.

11 Be ye baſhed you that liue in abundance, tremble you that lyue careleſſe, caſt of your rayment, make your ſelues bare, and put ſackcloth about you.

12 For as the infantes weepe when their mothers teates are dryed vp: ſo ſhal you weepe for your fayre feeldes, and fruiteful vineyardes.

13 My peoples feelde ſhal bryng thornes, and thiſtles: and ſo ſhal it be in euery houſe of voluptuouſneſſe, and in euery citie that reioyceth.

C 14 The palaces alſo ſhalbe broken, and the greatly occupied cities deſolate: The towres and bulwarkes ſhal become dennes for euermore, where wilde aſſes take theyr pleaſure, and ſheepe theyr paſture, 15 Unto the tyme that the ſpirite be powred vpon vs from aboue, and that the wylderneſſe be a fruiteful feelde, and the plenteous feelde be reckened for a wood.

16 Then ſhal equitie dwel in the deſart, and ryghteouſneſſe in a fruiteful lande.

17 * And the worke of ryghteouſneſſe ſhalbe peace, and her fruite reaſt and quietneſſe for euer. Rom.5.a.

18 * And my people ſhal dwel in the innes of peace, and in ſure dwellinges, in ſafe places of comfort. Iere.33.

19 And when the hayle falleth, it ſhal fal in the wood, and the citie ſhalbe ſet lowe in the valley.

20 O howe happy ſhal ye be when ye ſhal ſafely ſowe your ſeede beſyde al waters, and driue thither the feete of your oxen and aſſes.

The.xxxiii.Chapter.

1 Threatnyng agaynſt the Aſſyrians. 20 A deſtruction of them that ſhal ſee the Lorde.

A 1 VO to thee that deſtroyeſt when thou waſt not deſtroyed, thou breakeſt the league, whereas none hath broken it with thee: for whẽ thou ſhalt leaue deſtroyeing, * thou thy ſelfe ſhalt be deſtroyed: and when thou ceaſſeſt from breakyng the league, then ſhal they breake it to thee. Exo.21.b. Leui.24.d Sapi.11.c. Mat.7.a.

2 O Lorde haue mercie vpon vs, we haue put our whole truſte in thee: be an arme to ſuche early, and * our health in the tyme of trouble. Pſal.9.b.

3 At that confuſe noyſe the people fledde, and at thyne exaltyng, the heathen were ſcattered.

4 And the ſpoyles ſhalbe geathered, whiche ſhalbe yours, as are the geatheryng of Bruchus, and the multitude goeing to it, ſhalbe as Locuſtes, runnyng to and fro.

5 The Lorde is exalted, for it is he that dwelleth on high, he hath filled Sion with iudgement, and ryghteouſneſſe.

6 And a ſure ſtabliſhyng of thy tymes, ſhalbe ſtrength, health, wyſdome, and knowledge: and the very feare of the Lorde ſhalbe the treaſure of it.

B 7 Beholde the meſſengers ſhal crye without: and the embaſſadours of peace ſhal weepe bitterly.

8 Theyr ſtreetes are waſte, there walketh no man therein: God hath broken the appoyntment, the cities are caſte away, and menne are nothyng regarded.

9 The deſolate earth is in heauineſſe, Libanus is ſhamed, and hewen downe, Saron is lyke a wylderneſſe, Baſan and Charmel are ſpoyled of theyr fruites.

10 And therefore, ſayth the Lorde, I wyl vp nowe, nowe wyl I be aduaunced, now wil I be exalted.

11 * Ye ſhal conceiue ſtubble, and beare ſtraw: and your ſpirite ſhalbe the fyre, that it may conſume you. Iere.5.c.

12 And the people ſhalbe burnt like lime, and as thornes burnt, that are hewen of and caſt in the fyre.

13 Nowe hearken to ye that are farre of, howe I haue donne, and conſyder my power ye that are at hande.

14 The ſinners at Sion are afrayde, a ſuddaine fearefulneſſe is comme vpon the hypocrites: What is he among vs, ſay they, that ſhal dwel by the conſumyng fyre? Whiche of vs may abyde the euerlaſtyng heate? C

15 * He that leadeth a godly lyfe, and ſpeaketh the truth, he that abhorreth gaynes by violence and deceipt, he that keepeth his hande that he touche no rewarde, whiche ſtoppeth his eares that he heare no counſayle agaynſt the innocent blood, whiche holdeth downe his eyes that he ſee no euyl: Pſal.14.a. and.23.a.

16 He it is that ſhal dwel on hygh, whoſe ſafegarde ſhalbe in a bulwarke of rockes: to him ſhalbe geuen meate, and his waters ſhal not fayle.

17 Thine eyes ſhal ſee the kyng in his glorie, euen the kyng of the farre countreyes ſhal they ſee.

18 Thine hart ſtudied for feare, thinking thus: * What ſhal then become of the ſcribe? of the 1.Cor.1.a.

the receiuer of our money? What of hym that taxed our fayreſt houſes?

19 There ſhalt thou not ſee a cruel people of a ſtrange tongue, to haue ſo diffuſed a language that it may not be vnderſtanded, neyther ſo ſtrange a ſpeache but it ſhalbe perceiued.

20 Looke vpon Sion the head citie of our ſolemne feaſtes: thyne eyes ſhal ſee Hieruſalem that glorious habitation, * the tabernacle that neuer ſhal remooue, whoſe nayles ſhal neuer be taken out worlde without ende, whoſe cordes euery one ſhal neuer corrupt. Hed.9,b.

D 21 For the glorious maieſtie of the Lorde ſhal there be preſent among vs, as a place where faire broade riuers and ſtreames are, through the whiche ſhal neither galley row, nor great ſhip ſayle.

22 * For the Lorde is our iudge, the Lorde is our lawe geuer, the Lorde is our kyng, and he hym ſelfe ſhalbe our ſauiour. Iacob.4.c

23 Thy tacklyng is looſed, therefore it can not make faſt the maſt, nor ſpread the ſayle: then there is dealed great ſpoyle, yea lame menne runne after the pray.

24 There lieth no man that ſayth, I am ſicke: but al euyl is taken away from the people that dwel there.

The.xxxiiii.Chapter.

1 The laſt deſtruction of the ſynagogue, in whiche the kyngdome and prieſthood of the people was tranſlated to the Churche and congregation of Chriſte.

A 1 Comme ye heathen and heare, take heede you people: hearken thou earth, and al that is therein, thou rounde compaſſe, and al that dwelleth therupon.

2 For the Lorde is angry with al people, and his diſpleaſure is kindled agaynſt al the multitude of them, he hath deſtroyed them, and deliuered them to the ſlaughter.

3 So that theyr ſlayne ſhalbe caſt out, and theyr bodies ſtinke, that euen the very hilles ſhalbe wet with the blood of them.

4 Al the ſtarres of heauen ſhal waſte, and the heauens ſhal folde togeather lyke a rol, and al the ſtarres thereof ſhal falle, lyke as the leaues falle from the vines and fygge trees.

5 For my ſwoorde ſhalbe bathed in heauen, & ſhal immediatly comme downe to iudgement vpon Idumea, and vpon the people whiche I haue curſed.

6 And the Lordes ſwoord ſhalbe ful of blood, and be ruſtie with the fatneſſe and blood of lambes and goates, with the fatneſſe of the kydneyes of weathers: For the Lorde ſhal kyl a great offeryng in Bozra, and a great ſlaughter in the lande of Idumea.

B 7 There ſhal the Unicornes fal with them, and the Bulles with the Giantes, and theyr land ſhalbe throughly ſoked with blood, and theyr grounde corrupt with fatneſſe.

8 For it is the (a) day of Gods vengeance, and the yeere of recompence for the reuenge of Sion.

9 And his fluddes ſhalbe turned to pitche, and his earth to brymſtone, and therewith ſhal the lande be kyndled,

10 So that it ſhal not be quenched day nor nyght, but ſmoke euermore, and ſo foorth lye waſte: and no man ſhal goe through it for euer.

11 But Pellicanes, Storkes, great Owles, and Rauens, ſhal haue it in poſſeſſion, and dwel therein: for God ſhal ſpreade out the lyne of deſolation vpon it, and the ſtones of emptineſſe.

12 Her nobles ſhal calle, and there is no kyngdome: and al her princes ſhalbe nothyng.

13 Thornes ſhal grow in their palaces, nettles and thiſtles in theyr ſtrong holdes, that the dragons may haue theyr pleaſure therin, and that they may be a court for Eſtriches.

14 There ſhal ſtrange viſures, and monſterous beaſtes meete one another, & the wylde C keepe company togeather: there ſhal the Lamia lye, and haue her lodgyng.

15 There ſhal the Owle make her neaſt, build, be there at home, and bring foorth her young ones: there ſhal the Kytes comme togeather, eche one to his lyke.

16 Seeke through the booke of the Lorde, and reade it: there ſhal none of theſe thynges be leaſt out, there ſhal not one nor ſuche lyke fayle: for his mouth commaundeth, and that ſame dooth his ſpirit geather togeather, or fulfyl.

17 He hath caſt the lot for them, and to thoſe beaſtes hath his hande diuided it by the line: therefore thoſe ſhal poſſeſſe it for euer, from generation to generation ſhal they dwelle therein.

(a) God declareth his loue and care to preſerue his Churche by his ſeuere puniſhing of the enimies to his Churche.

The.xxxv.Chapter.

1 Of the tyme and kyngdome of Chriſte.

A 1 BUt (a) the deſart and wylderneſſe ſhal reioyce, the waſt ground ſhal be glad and floriſhe as the lilye.

(a) The baren nature of mankynde to al goodnes ſhalbe made fruitful by grace promiſed in Chriſte.

2 She ſhal floriſhe pleaſantly, and be ioyful, and euer be geuyng thankes more and more: For the glorie of Libanus, the beautie of Charmel and Saron ſhalbe geuen her: Theſe ſhal knowe the honour of the Lorde, and the maieſtie of our God.

Heb.xij.b 3 * And therefore (b) ſtrength the weake handes, and comfort the feeble knees.

Deut.xx.a &.xxxi.b

4 Say vnto them that are of a fearefulhart, be of good cheare and feare not, *behold your God commeth to take vengeance, & you ſhal ſee the rewarde that God geueth: God commeth his owne ſelfe, and wyl delyuer you.

(b) God geueth ſtrength of grace to the feeble conſciences by preachyng the woorde.

Mat.xi.a and.xv.c Luk.17.c

5 Then ſhal the eyes of the blynde be lyghtened, and the eares of the deaffe opened.

6 Then ſhal the lame menne leape as an hart, & the * dumbe mans tongue ſhal geue thankes: * for in the wylderneſſe there ſhal welles ſpring, and fluddes of water in the deſart.

Pſal.viij.a Eſai.41.e 43.c.44.a

7 The drye grounde ſhal turne to riuers, and the thirſtie to ſprynges of water: wheras dragons dwelt afore, there ſhal growe ſweete flowres, and greene ruſſhes. B

8 There ſhalbe foote pathes and common ſtreates, this ſhalbe called the holy way: no vncleane perſon ſhal goe through it, for the lord him ſelfe ſhal goe with them that way, and the wayfairer nor ignorant ſhal not erre.

9 There ſhalbe no lyon, & no rauiſhyng beaſtes ſhal comme therein, nor be there, but menne redeemed ſhal goe there free and ſafe.

10 And the redeemed of the Lorde I ſay ſhal conuert and comme to Sion with thankeſgeuing: euerlaſtyng ioy ſhal they haue, pleaſure and gladneſſe ſhalbe among them, and as for al ſorowe & heauineſſe, it ſhal vaniſhe.

The.xxxvi.Chapter.

1 Hieruſalem is beſieged by Sennacherib in the tyme of kyng Hezekias.

A 1 IN * the foureteenth yeere of kyng Hezekias, came Sennacherib king of the Aſſyrians downe, to lay ſiege vnto al the ſtrong cities of Iuda, to conquer them.

4.Re.18.c. 2.Par,32.a. Eſai.vij.b. 8.b.10.a. 17.d.&32.a

2 And the kyng of the Aſſyrians ſent Rabſakeh frō Lachis towarde Hieruſalem, againſt Hezekias, with an exceedyng hoſt, whiche ſet hym by the conduite of the ouer poole in the way that goeth through the fullers lande.

3 And ſo there came forth vnto him Eliakim Helkias ſonne, the chiefe ouer the houſholde, *Sobna the ſcribe, and Ioah Aſaphs ſonne the ſecretarie:

Eſai,xxij.a

4 And Rabſakeh ſayde vnto them, Tel Hezekias that the great kyng ſayth thus vnto hym: What preſumption is this that thou truſteſt vnto?

5 I ſayde ſurely that thou truſteſt in vayne woordes, when counſayle and ſtrength are neceſſarie to battayle: but nowe wherto truſteſt thou, that thou rebelleſt agaynſt me?

4.Re.18.b. 6 *Loe, thou putteſt thy truſt in a brokē ſtaffe of reede[I meane]Egypt, whiche he that leaneth vpon, it goeth into his hande, and ſhooteth it through: euen ſo is Pharao the kyng of Egypt vnto al them that truſt in hym.

Ezec,29.a.

B 7 But if thou wouldeſt ſay vnto me, We truſt in the Lorde our God: Is not he that God whoſe hygh places & aulters Hezekias tooke downe, and commaunded Iuda and Hieruſalem to worſhip only before this aulter?

8 Nowe therefore deliuer hoſtages, that thou rebel no more agaynſt my Lorde the kyng of the Aſſyrians, and I wyl geue thee two thouſande horſes, if thou be able to ſet menne vpon them.

9 Howe dareſt thou reſyſt the power of the ſmalleſt prince that my Lorde hath? how dareſt thou truſt in the charrets and horſemen of Egypt?

10 Moreouer, thinkeſt thou that I am comme vp hyther to deſtroy this lande without the Lordes wyl? The Lorde ſaid vnto me, Goe vp agaynſt this lande, and deſtroy it.

11 Then ſayde Eliakim, Sobna, and Ioah, vnto Rabſakeh: Speake to vs thy ſeruantes we pray thee, in the Syrians language, for we vnderſtande it wel, and ſpeake not to vs in the Iewes tongue, leſt yͤ folke heare which lyeth vpon the wal.

12 Then anſweared Rabſakeh: Hath my maiſter ſent me to ſpeake this onely to thy maiſter and thee? hath he not ſent me to them alſo that lye vpon the wal? that they may be compelled to eate their owne dunge, & drinke their owne ſtale with you?

13 And Rabſakeh ſtoode ſtiffe, and cryed with a loude voyce in the Iewes tongue, and ſaid, Nowe take heede howe the great kyng of the Aſſyrians geueth you warnyng.

C 14 Thus ſayth the kyng, Let not Hezekia deceiue you, for he ſhal not be able to deliuer you.

15 Moreouer, let not Hezekia comfort you in the Lorde when he ſayth, The Lorde without doubt ſhal defende vs, and ſhal not geue ouer this citie into the handes of the kyng of the Aſſyrians.

16 Hearken not to Hezekia, for thus ſayth the kyng of Aſſyria: Obteyne my fauour, enclyne to me, ſo may euery man enioy his vineyardes and figge trees, and drinke the water of his ceſterne:

17 Unto the time that I comme my ſelfe, and bring you into a land that is like your owne, wherin is wheate and wine, whiche is both ſowen with ſeede, and planted with vineyardes.

18 Let not Hezekia deceiue you, when he ſaith vnto you, The Lord ſhal deliuer vs: *Might the gods of the Gentiles keepe euery mans lande from the power of the kyng of the Aſſyrians? Eſai.x.a

19 Where is the god of Hemath and Arphad? Where is the god of Sepharuaim? and who is able to defende Samaria out of my hand?

20 Or whiche of al the gods of theſe landes hath deliuered their coũtrey out of my power? Is the Lorde in deede able to deliuer Hieruſalem from my hande?

21 Unto this, Hezekias meſſengers helde their tongues, and anſweared not one woorde: for the kyng had charged them that they ſhould geue hym no anſweare. D

22 So came Eliakim Helkias ſonne yͤ chiefe ouer the houſholde, Sobna the ſcribe, & Ioah Aſaphes ſonne the ſecretarie, vnto Hezekia with rent clothes, and tolde him the woordes of Rabſakeh.

The.xxxvij.Chapter.

1 Hezekia humbleth hym ſelfe before the Lorde. 36 The armie of Sennacherib is ſlayne of the angel of the Lorde, 38 and he hym ſelfe is kylled of his owne ſonnes.

A 1 When Hezekia hearde that, he rent his clothes,* and put on ſackcloth, & went into the temple of the lord. 4.Re.19,a

2 But he ſent Eliakim the chiefe ouer yͤ houſhold, Sobna the ſcribe, with the eldeſt prieſtes clothed in * ſacke, vnto the prophete Eſai the ſonne of Amos, Iona.iij.a

3 And they ſayde vnto hym, Thus ſayth Hezekia: This is the day of trouble, of plague, & of blaſphemie: for the chyldren are comme to the place of birth, but there is no power to bryng them foorth.

4 The Lorde thy God [no doubt] hath wel conſydered the woordes of Rabſakeh, whom his lorde kyng of the Aſſyrians hath ſent to defie and blaſpheme the liuing GOD, with ſuche woordes as the Lorde thy God hath hearde ryght wel: and therefore lyft vp thy prayer for the remnant that yet are left.

5 So the ſeruantes of the king Hezekia came to Eſai,

6 And Eſai gaue them this anſweare: Say thus vnto your lord, Thus ſayth the Lorde, Be not afraide of the woordes that thou haſt hearde, wherewith the king of the Aſſyrians ſeruantes haue blaſphemed me.

B 7 *Behold, I wyl rayſe vp a winde agaynſt hym, and he ſhal heare a rumour, and he ſhal goe agayne into his countrey, there wyl I deſtroy hym with the ſwoorde in his owne lande. Eſai.31.b

8 *Now when Rabſakeh returned, he found the kyng of Aſſyria layeing ſiege to Libnas: for he had vnderſtanding that he was departed from Lachis. 1.Reg.23,c

9 And there came a rumour that Tharakas kyng of Ethiopia was comme foorth to warre agaynſt hym: and when the kyng of Aſſyria heard that, he ſent other meſſengers to king Hezekia with this commaundement.

10 Say thus to Hezekia kyng of Iuda, Let not thy God deceiue thee, in whom thou hopeſt, and ſayeſt Hieruſalem ſhal not be geuen into the handes of the kyng of Aſſyria.

11 For loe, thou knoweſt wel how the kinges of Aſſyria haue handled al the landes that they haue ſubuerted: and hopeſt thou to eſcape?

12 Were the people of the gentiles, whom my progenitours cõquered, deliuered at any time through their goddes? *[As namely] Goſan, Haran, Rezeph, and the chyldren of Eden, whiche were at Thalaſſar? 3.Reg.17.a

13 Where is the kyng of Hemath, & the kyng of Arphad, and the king of the citie Sepharuaim, Ena, and Aua?

14 Nowe when Hezekia had receiued the letter of the meſſengers, and read it, he went vp into the houſe of the Lorde, and opened the letter before the Lorde, C

15 And Hezekia praied vnto the Lord [on this manner.]

16 O Lorde of hoſtes, thou GOD of Iſrael, whiche dwelleſt vpon *Cherubim, thou art the God that onely is GOD of al the kyngdomes of the worlde, for thou only haſt *created heauen and earth.

17 *Encline thyne eare Lorde and conſyder, open thyne eyes Lorde and ſee, and ponder al the woordes of Sennacherib, whiche hath ſent his embaſſage to blaſpheme the lyuyng God.

18 It is true, O Lorde, that the kynges of Aſſyria haue conquered al kyngdomes and landes,

19 And caſt their gods in the fyre: for thoſe were no goddes, but the workes of mens handes, of wood or ſtone, therefore haue they deſtroyed them.

20 Nowe therefore deliuer vs, O Lorde our God, from the handes of Sennacherib, that al the kyngdomes of the earth may knowe that thou onely art the Lorde.

D 21 Then Eſai the ſonne of Amos ſent vnto Hezekia, ſayeing, Thus ſaith the Lorde God of Iſrael: Wheras thou haſt made thy prayer vnto me as touching Sennacherib the king of Aſſyria, 22 This is the anſweare that the Lorde hath geuen concernyng hym: Diſpiſed art thou & mocked, O daughter Sion, he hath ſhaken his head at thee, O daughter of Hieruſalem.

Actes,9,c

23 But thou Sennacherib, *whom haſt thou defied and blaſphemed? Againſt whom haſt thou lifted vp thy voyce, & exalted thy proude lookes? euen agaynſt the holy one of Iſrael.

24 Thou with thy ſeruantes haſt blaſphemed the Lorde, and thus holdeſt thou of thy ſelfe: I wyl couer the hye mountaynes and ſydes of Libanus with my horſemen, and there wyl I cut downe the hye Cedar trees, and the fayreſt Firre trees: I wyl vp in the height of it, and into the chiefeſt of his timber woodes.

25 If there be no water, I wyl graue and drinke: and as for waters of defenſe, I wyl drye them vp with the feete of myne hoſt.

26 Yea, haſt thou not heard what I haue taken in hande & brought to paſſe of olde time? That ſame wyl I doo nowe alſo, and waſt, deſtroy, and bring ſtrong cities vnto heapes of ſtones.

27 For their inhabitours ſhalbe lyke lame menne brought in feare & confounded: they ſhalbe lyke graſſe and greene hearbes in the field, like the hay vpon the houſe toppes, that withereth before it be growen vp.

28 I knowe thy wayes, thy goeyng foorth, and thy commyng home, yea and thy madneſſe agaynſt me. E

29 Therfore thy furiouſneſſe againſt me, and thy pride is comme before me, I wyl put my ryng in thy noſe, & my bridle bit in the iawes of thee, and turne thee about euen the ſame way thou cameſt.

30 I wil geue thee alſo this token [O Hezekia] this yeere ſhalt thou eate ſuche as groweth of it ſelfe, and the ſeconde yeere that whiche ſpringeth againe of the ſame, and in the third yeere ye ſhal ſowe and reape, yea ye ſhal plant vineyardes, and enioy the fruites thereof.

31 And ſuche of the houſe of Iuda as are eſcaped, ſhal comme togeather, and the remnant ſhal take roote beneath, and bryng foorth fruite aboue.

32 For the eſcaped ſhal goe out of Hieruſalem, and the remnant from the mount Sion: and this ſhal the zeale of the Lord of hoſtes bring to paſſe.

33 Therfore thus ſayth the Lorde concerning the king of the Aſſyrians: He ſhal not comme into this citie, and ſhal ſhoote no arrowe into it, there ſhal no ſhielde hurt it, neyther ſhal they caſt ditches about it.

34 The ſame way he came, he ſhal returne, and not comme at this citie, ſaith the Lorde.

35 And I wil keepe and ſaue this citie [ſaith he] for myne owne and for my ſeruant Dauids ſake. F

36 *Thus the angel of the Lord went foorth, & ſlue of the Aſſyrians hoſt an hundred foureſcore and fiue thouſande: and when menne aroſe vp early in the mornyng, beholde they were ſlayne, and al lay ful of dead bodyes.

37 So Sennacherib the kyng of the Aſſyrians brake vp, and dwelt at Niniue.

38 Afterwarde it chanced, as he prayed in the temple of Neſroch his God, that Adramalech and Sarazer, his owne ſonnes, ſlue hym with the ſwoorde, and fledde into the lande of Armenia: & Aſarhaddon his ſonne raigned in his ſteede.

The.xxxviii.Chapter.

1 Hezekia is ſicke vnto death, 5 but is yet reuiued by the Lorde, and liueth fifteene yeeres after: 10 for which benefite he geueth thankes.

A 1 4.Re.20.a 2.Par.34.f. About* this time was Hezekia ſicke vnto death,* and the prophete Eſai the ſonne of Amos came vnto hym, and ſayde, Thus commaundeth the Lord: Set thyne houſe in order, for thou muſt dye, and ſhalt not eſcape.

2 Then Hezekia turned his face towarde the wal, and prayed vnto the Lorde,

3 And ſayde, Remember, O Lorde, I beſeeche thee, that I haue walked before thee in trueth and a ſtedfaſt hart, and haue donne the thing that is pleaſant to thee. And Hezekia wept ſore.

4 Then ſayde God vnto Eſai,

5 Goe and ſpeake vnto Hezekia: The Lorde God of Dauid thy father ſendeth thee this woorde, I haue hearde thy prayer, and conſydered thy teares: *beholde I wyl put fifteene yeeres mo vnto thy lyfe, Ion.iij.b.

6 And deliuer thee and the citie alſo from the hande of the kyng of Aſſyria: for I wyl defende the citie.

B 7 3.Reg.2.g *And take thee this token of the Lord, that he wyl doo it as he hath ſpoken.

8 Beholde, I wyl returne the ſhadowe of Ahaz dial that now is layde out with ẏ ſunne, and bring it ten degrees backwarde:* So the ſunne turned tenne degrees backwarde, the whiche he was deſcended afore. Ioſu.x,c

9 A thankeſgeuing whiche Hezekia king of Iuda wrote, when he had benne ſicke, and was recouered.

10 I thought I ſhoulde haue gonne to the gates of hel when myne age was ſhortened, and haue wanted the reſidue of my yeeres.

11 I ſpake within my ſelfe, I wyl neuer viſite the Lorde [the Lorde I ſay] in this lyfe: I wyl neuer ſee man among the dwellers of the worlde.

12 Myne age is folden togeather, and taken away from me lyke a ſheepheardes cotage, I haue hewen of my lyfe by my ſinnes, lyke as a weauer cutteth of his webbe: He wyl with pyning ſickneſſe make an ende of me, yea he wyl make an ende of me in one day.

13 * I thought I woulde haue lyued vntyl the morowe, but he bruiſed my bones lyke a lion: and in one day thou wilt make an ende of me. Iob.iiij.b

14 Then chattered I lyke a ſwallowe, and C lyke a crane, and mourned lyke a doue, I lift vp myne eyes into the heyght: O Lorde, [ſayde I] my ſickneſſe keepeth me downe, eaſe thou me.

15 What ſhal I ſay? The Lorde hath made a promiſe to me, yea and he hym ſelfe hath perfourmed it: I ſhal therefore ſo long as I lyue remember this bitterneſſe of my lyfe.

16 O Lord, to al thoſe that ſhal liue hereafter, yea to al menne ſhal it be knowen, that euen in thoſe yeeres I haue a ioyful lyfe, and that it was thou that cauſedſt me to ſlepe againe, thou haſt geuen lyfe to me.

17 Beholde, bitter as galle was my penſiueneſſe, ſo ſore longed I for health, and it was thy pleaſure to deliuer my life from the filthy pit: for thou it is [O Lorde] that haſt caſt al my ſinnes behynde thy backe.

18 * For hel prayſeth not thee, death dooth not magnifie thee: they that goe downe into the graue prayſe not thy trueth: Pſal.vi.a 78.b.115.b.

19 But the lyuing, yea the liuing knowledge thee, as I doo this day: the father telleth his children of thy faythfulneſſe.

20 *To heale me it is the Lordes woorke, and we wyl ſing my ſonges in the houſe of the Lorde al the dayes of our lyfe. Luke,i.g

21 And Eſai ſayde, Take a plaſter of figges, D and lay it vpon the ſore, ſo ſhal it be whole.

22 Then ſayde Hezekia, O what a miracle is this, that I ſhal goe vp into the houſe of the Lorde.

The.xxxix.Chapter.

3 Hezekia is reproued of Eſai, becauſe he ſhewed his treaſure vnto the emballadours of Babylon.

A 1 4.Re.20.c. At *the ſame tyme Merodach Baladan, Baladans ſonne kyng of Babylon, ſent letters and preſentes to Hezekia: for he vnderſtood that he had benne ſicke, ⁊ was recouered agayne.

2 2.Par.32.c *And Hezekia was glad therof, and ſhewed them the houſe of his treaſures of ſiluer and golde, of ſpices, and rootes, of precious oyles, and al that was in his cubbordes ⁊ treaſure houſes: there was not one thing in Hezekias houſe, and ſo throughout al his kyngdome, but he let them ſee it.

3 Then came Eſai the prophete to kyng Hezekia, and ſayde vnto hym, What haue the menne menne ſayde, and from whence came they vnto thee? Hezekia anſweared, They came out of a farre countrey vnto me, out of Babylon.

4 Eſai ſayde, What haue they looked vpon in thy houſe? Hezekia anſweared, Al that is in my houſe haue they ſeene, & there is nothyng in my treaſure but I ſhewed it them.

5 Then ſayd Eſai vnto Hezekia: Underſtand the woorde of the Lorde of hoſtes:

4.Re.24.c 6 *Beholde, the time wyl comme that euery thing whiche is in thyne houſe, & al that thy progenitours haue laid vp in ſtore vntyl this day, ſhalbe caried to Babylon, and nothyng left behynde, thus ſayth the Lorde.

7 Yea & part of thy ſonnes that ſhal comme of thee, and whom thou ſhalt begeat, ſhalbe caried hence, and become gelded chamberlaynes in the king of Babylons court. B

8 Then ſayde Hezekia to Eſai, Good is the woorde of God whiche thou haſt tolde me. He ſaid moreouer, For there ſhalbe peace and faythfulneſſe in my tyme.

B 7 The graſſe is withered, the floure falleth away, for the breath of the lorde bloweth vpon them: of a trueth the people are graſſe.

Pſal.33.b and.117. i.Pet.i.d Iacob.i.b 8 The graſſe withereth, and the floure fadeth away:* yet the woorde of our God endureth for euer.

9 Goe vp vnto the hye hil, O Sion, thou that bryngeſt good tydynges, lyft vp thy voyce with power, O thou preacher Hieruſalem, lyft it vp without feare, & ſay vnto the cities of Iuda: Beholde your God,

10 Behold the Lorde God ſhal comme with power, and ſhal of him ſelfe beare rule with his arme: beholde his rewarde with hym, and his woorkes before hym.

11 He ſhal feede his flocke lyke an heardman, he ſhal geather the lambes togeather with his arme, and carie them in his boſome, and ſhal kyndly intreate thoſe that beare young.

12 Who hath meaſured the waters in his fiſt? Who hath meaſured heauẽ with his ſpanne, and hath comprehended al the earth of the worlde in three meaſures? Who hath wayed the mountaynes and hylles in a ballance?

14 Who is of his counſayle, and geueth hym vnderſtandyng, and hath taught hym the path of iudgement? Who taught hym cunnyng, and opened to him the way of vnderſtandyng? C

15 Beholde, al people are in compariſon of hym as a droppe of a bucket ful, & are counted as the leaſt thyng that yͤ ballance wateth: yea and the Iſles he taketh vp as a very litle thyng.

16 Libanus is not ſufficient to miniſter fire to his offering, and al the beaſtes thereof are not yenough for one ſacrifice.

17 Al people in compariſon of him are reckened as nothyng: *if they be compared with hym, leſſe then nothyng, and as it, that is not. Pſal.lxij.d

18 To whom then wyl ye lyken GOD? or what ſimilitude wyl ye ſet vp to hym?

19 Shal the caruer make hym a carued image? And ſhal the goldeſmith couer hym with gold, or caſt him into a fourme of ſiluer plates?

20 Moreouer, ſhal the image maker, that the poore man whiche is diſpoſed may haue ſomme thyng to ſet vp alſo, ſeeke out and chooſe a tree that is not rotten, and carue therout an image that moueth not?

the heauens as a couering, he ſtretcheth them out as a tent to dwel in.

23 He bringeth princes to nothyng, and the iudges of the earth as though they were not.

24 So that of them it may be ſayde, they be not planted nor ſowen agayne, neither their ſtocke rooted agayne in the earth: for aſſoone as he bloweth vpon them, they wither and fade away like the ſtrawe in a whirle wind.

25 To whom nowe wyl ye lyken me, and whom ſhal I be lyke, ſayth the holy one?

26 Lyft vp your eyes on hygh, and conſyder *who hath made thoſe thynges whiche comme out by ſo great heapes, and he calleth them al by their names: there is nothing hid from the greatneſſe of his power, ſtrength, and might.

Pſal.147.a

27 Howe may then Iacob thynke, or may Iſrael ſay, My wayes are hid from the lorde, & my god knoweth not of my iudgementes?

28 Knoweſt thou not, or haſt thou not heard that the euerlaſtyng God, the Lorde whiche made al the corners of the earth, is neyther weerie nor faynt? and that his wiſedome can not be comprehended? E

29 It is he that geueth ſtrength vnto the weerie, and power vnto the faint.

30 Children are weerie and faint, and the ſtrongeſt menne falle:

31 *But vnto them that haue their truſt in the Lorde, ſhal ſtrength be increaſed: Egles winges ſhal growe vpon them, when they runne they ſhal not falle, and when they goe they ſhal not be weerie.

(b) By the iuſt man, is meant Abraham, who beyng called out of Ur of the Chaldeans, who beyng iuſtified by faith, became the father of many natiōs, whom God alwayes defended agaynſt al his enimies.

3 He foloweth vpon them, and goeth ſafely him ſelf, and that in a way where before his foote had not troden.

25 Neuertheleſſe, * I haue waked vp one frō the North, ⁊ he ſhal comme from the Eaſt, he ſhal calle vpon my name, and ſhal treade vpon princes as vpon clay, and as the potter treadeth downe the mire.

26 Who declared this from the begynnyng, and we wyl knowe hym: or from the olde tymes, and we wyl confeſſe and ſay that he is righteous: but there is none that ſheweth or declareth any thing, there is none alſo that heareth your wordes.

27 The firſt is he that ſhal ſay to Sion, Beholde, beholde, they are preſent: and to Hieruſalem it ſelfe wyl I geue an euangeliſt.

28 But when I conſyder, there is not a man amōg them, nor any that can geue counſaile, nor that when I examine them that can anſweare one worde. E

29 Loe wicked are they, and vayne, with the thinges alſo that they take in hand, yea their images are but wynde and vayne thinges.

Mat.iij.b

A 1 BEhold, this is my ſeruant vpon whom I leane, my elect in whom my ſoule is pacified: I haue geuen my ſpirite vpon him, that he may ſhewe foorth iudgement among the Gentiles.

2 He ſhal not be an outcryer, nor lyft vp his voyce, his voyce ſhal not be hearde in the ſtreates.

3 And a brooſed reede ſhal he not breake, and the ſmokyng flaxe ſhal he not quenche: but faythfully and truely ſhal he geue iudgemēt.

4 He ſhal not be penſiue nor careful, that he may reſtore righteouſneſſe vnto the earth: ⁊ the Gentiles alſo ſhal looke for his lawes.

5 *For thus ſayth God the Lorde vnto hym, Euen he that made the heauens, and ſpread them abroade, and ſet foorth the earth with her increaſe, whiche geueth breath vnto the people that is in it, and ſpirite to them that dwelle therein,

6 I the Lorde haue called thee in ryghteouſneſſe, and wyl holde thee by the hande, * and wyl alſo defende thee, and geue thee for a couenant of the people, to be the * lyght of the Gentiles;

Pſal.150.a

8 Euen I am the Lorde, ⁊ this is my name: * and my glory wil I geue to none other, neither mine honour to grauen images.

9 Beholde, olde thynges are comme to paſſe, and newe thinges doo I declare, and or euer they comme I telle you of them.

10 Sing vnto the Lord a newe ſong of thankeſgeuyng, blowe out his prayſe from the ende of the worlde: they that be vpon the ſea, and al that is therin praiſe him, the Iſles and they that dwelle in them.

11 Let the wyldernesſe, with the cities, lyft vp her voyce, the townes alſo that they of Cedar dwelle in: let them be glad that ſytte vpon rockes of ſtone, ⁊ let them crye downe from the hygh mountaynes, 12 Aſcribing glorie vnto the Lord, and magnifyeing hym among the Gentiles.

13 The Lord ſhal comme foorth like a giant, and take a ſtomacke to hym lyke a freaſhe man of warre: he ſhal roare and crye, ⁊ ouercomme his enimies. C

14 I haue long holden my peace [ſaith the lord] (a) I haue benne ſtyl, and reſtrayned my ſelfe, but nowe I wyl crye lyke a trauaylyng woman, and at once wyl I deſtroy and deuoure.

15 I wyl make waſte both mountayne and hyl, ⁊ drye vp euery greene thyng that groweth thereon: I wyl drye vp the ſluddes to become Ilandes, and drinke vp the riuers.

(a) Chriſte for a tyme deferreth, as it were with payne, to deliuer his elect from the tyrannie of Antechriſte, but at the time appointed, he wil enforce hym ſelfe, as a woman in her trauayle, to deliuer his people.

16 I wyl bryng the blynde into a ſtreate that they know not, and leade them into a foote path that they are ignorant in: I ſhal make darkeneſſe light before them, and the thyng that is crooked to be ſtraight: Theſe thinges haue I donne vnto them, and not forſaken them.

Eſai.44.b. 17 *They are fallen backe, yea and let them be aſhamed earneſtly that hope in idols, and ſay to the moulten images, Ye are our gods.

18 Heare, O ye deafe menne, and ſharpen your eyes to ſee, O ye blynde.

Mat.xv.b. 19 *Who is blynde but my ſeruant? or ſo deafe as [(b)] my meſſenger whom I ſent vnto thẽ? for who is ſo blinde as the perfect man, and ſo blynde as the Lordes ſeruant?

(b) By the ſeruant, meſſenger, and the perfect man, he meaneth the Iewes & their prieſtes, who ought of al other people to haue had knowledge, & to haue ſerued God perfectly.

20 Thou haſt ſeene muche, and keepeſt nothing: the eares are open, & no man heareth.

21 The Lorde is merciful vnto them for his righteouſneſſe ſake, that his woorde myght be magnified and prayſed:

22 (c) But the people them ſelues is robbed and troden vnder the foote, chayned in dungeons, and they al, I ſay, are ſhut into priſon houſes: *they be carryed away captiue, and no man doth looſe them: they be troden vnder foote, and no man dooth labour to bryng them agayne. Deut.28.b

(c) A greeuous ſentence agaynſt thoſe that wyl not beholde the lyght when it ſhineth, nor beleue Gods woorde when it is preached.

Eſa.44.d 23 *But who is he among you that pondereth this, that conſydereth it, and taketh it for a warnyng in tyme to comme?

Baruc.i.d. Tob.iij.a Dan.ix.a 24 *Who gaue Iacob to be trodẽ vnder foote, and Iſrael to be ſpoyled? Did not the Lorde? Becauſe we haue ſinned agaynſt hym, and haue had no delyght to walke in his wayes, neyther benne obedient vnto his lawe:

8 Heare nowe therefore thou delicate one, that ſitteſt ſo careleſſe, and ſpeakeſt thus in thyne hart, * I am alone, and without me is there none, I ſhal neuer be widowe, nor deſolate agayne. Eſai,20.b. Apoc.18.c

9 And yet both theſe thinges ſhal comme to thee vpon one day, in the twincklyng of an eye, * namely, widdowhood, and deſolation: they mightily fal vpon thee, for the multitude of thy witches, and for the great heape of thy coniurers. Dani,5.c.

10 For thou haſt truſted in thy wyckedneſſe, and haſt ſayde, * No man ſeeth me: thyne owne wiſdome and cunning hath deceiued thee, in that thou haſt ſayde in thyne hart, I am alone, and without me there is none. Eſai,29.c

11 Therefore ſhal trouble comme vpon thee, and thou ſhalt not knowe from whence it ſhal ariſe: Miſcheefe ſhal fal vpon thee, whiche thou ſhalt not be able to put of, a ſudden vtter deſtruction ſhal comme vpon thee or euer thou be ware.

12 Now goe to thy coniurers, and to the multitude of thy witches, with whom thou haſt weeryed thy ſelfe from thy youth, yf they may helpe thee, or ſtrength thee.

13 Thou haſt hitherto had many counſayles of them: So let the heauen gaſers, and the beholders of ſtarres, and mone prophetes, comme on nowe and deliuer thee, yea and let them ſhewe when theſe newe thynges ſhal comme vpon thee.

14 Beholde, they ſhalbe like ſtrawe, whiche yf it be kyndled with fyre, no man may ryd it for the vehemencie of the flambe, and yet it geueth no ſinders to warme a man by, nor cleare fyre to ſyt by. C

15 Thus are they with whom thou haſt weeried thy ſelfe, and thus are thy marchantes that haue benne with thee from thy youth: euery one hath taken his owne way, and none of them ſhal defende thee.

The.xlviii.Chapter.

1 The hypocriſie of the Iewes is reprooued. 11 The Lorde alone wil be woorſhipped, whiche hath choſen vs, 20 and whiche ſuccoureth vs for his owne ſake.

A 1 HEare this, O thou houſe of Iacob, ye that are called by the name of Iſrael, and are come out of one ſtocke with Iuda: which ſweare by the name of the Lorde, and beare witneſſe by the GOD of Iſrael, but not with trueth and ryght.

Ephe.2.b. 2 For they are named * of the holy citie, and are grounded vpon the GOD of Iſrael, * whoſe name is the Lorde of hoſtes.

Eſai.51.c. and.54.a. Iere,31.f. 3 The thynges that I haue ſhewed you euer ſince the begynnyng, haue I not brought them to paſſe immediatly as they came out of my mouth, and declared them, and they are comme?

4 Howbeit, I knowe that thou art obſtinate, and that thy necke hath an iron ſinow, and that thy browe is of braſſe.

5 Neuertheleſſe, I haue euer ſince the begynnyng ſhewed thee of thynges for to comme, and declared them vnto thee or euer they came to paſſe: that thou ſhouldeſt not ſay, Mine idol hath donne it, my carued or moulten image hath ſhewed it.

6 Thou heardeſt it before, and beholde it is comme to paſſe: And ſhal not ye your ſelues ſhewe foorth or confeſſe the ſame? But as for me, I tolde thee before at the beginnyng, newe and ſecrete thynges whiche thou kneweſt not of,

B 7 * And ſomme donne of olde tyme, whereof thou neuer heardeſt before they were brought to paſſe, that thou canſt not ſay, Beholde I knewe of them. Eſai,38.c.

8 Moreouer, there be ſomme, whereof thou haſt neither heard nor knowen, neither haue benne opened vnto thyne eares aforetyme: For I knewe that thou wouldeſt malitiouſly offende, therefore haue I called thee a tranſgreſſour, euen from thy mothers wombe.

9 Neuertheleſſe, for my names ſake, I wyl withdrawe my wrath, and for my honours ſake, I wil patiently forbeare thee, that I doo not roote thee out.

10 Beholde, I haue pourged thee, yet not as ſyluer, * I haue choſen thee in the fyre of affliction: Exod,3.b.

11 And that only for myne owne ſake, yea euen for myne owne ſake wyl I doo this: or els what diſhonour woulde they doo to my name? ſurely I wyl not geue my glory vnto another. Eſai.41.a. 43.b.44.b

12 Hearken vnto me, O Iacob, and Iſrael whom I haue called: I am euen he that is, I am the firſt, and the laſt.

13 My hande hath layde the fundation of the earth, and my ryght hand hath ſpanned ouer the heauens: as ſoone as I calle them, they ſtande togeather.

14 Geather you altogeather, and hearken: whiche of yonder gods hath declared this? The Lorde hath a loue vnto hym, and he ſhal perfourme his wyl agaynſt Babel, and declare his power agaynſt the Chaldees. C

15 I my ſelfe alone, euen I haue tolde you this, I did cal hym, and bryng hym foorth, and he ſhal make his iourney proſperous.

16 Comme to me, and heare this: Haue I ſpoken any thing darkly ſince the begynnyng? From the tyme that this thyng begynneth, I am there: wherefore the Lorde God and his ſpirite hath ſent me.

17 And thus ſayth the Lorde God thy redeemer, the holy one of Iſrael, I am the Lorde thy GOD, whiche teache thee * profitable thynges, and leade thee the way that thou ſhouldeſt goe, Rom.7.b. 1.Tim.1.b Tit.3.b.

18 * O that thou hadſt regarded my commaundementes, then had thy wealthineſſe benne as the water ſtreame, and thy ryghteouſneſſe as the waues flowyng in the ſea: Deut.28.

19 Thy ſeede alſo had benne like as the ſande in the ſea, and the fruite of thy body lyke the grauel ſtones thereof: His name ſhould not be rooted out, nor deſtroyed before me.

20 * Goe away from Babylon, flee from the Chaldees, with a mery voyce ſpeake of this, declare it abroade, and goe foorth into the ende of the worlde, ſay, The Lorde hath redeemed his ſeruant Iacob. Iere.51.a. 1.Eſd.1.b.

21 They ſuffred no thirſt, he led them through the wylderneſſe, and cauſed the waters to flowe out vnto them from out of the rocke: * he claue the rocke a ſunder, and the water guſhed out. Exo.17.b. Nu.20.b

22 * As for the vngodly they haue no peace, ſayth the Lorde. Eſai.57.c.

The.xlix.Chapter.

6 Chriſte ſhal geather togeather al nations, be they neuer ſo farre of.

A 1 YE Iſles hearken vnto me, and take heede ye people from farre: The Lorde hath called me from my birth, and made mention of my name from my mothers wombe:

Eſai. 51. c. Ephe.6.c. 2 *He hath made my mouth * lyke a ſharpe ſwoorde, vnder the ſhadowe of his hande hath he defended me, and hyd me in his quiuer as a good arrowe, Ioh,17.b. 3 And ſayde vnto me, Thou art my ſeruant Iſrael, * I wyl be honoured in thee.

4 Then I anſweared, I haue loſt my labour, I haue ſpent my ſtrength in vayne: Neuertheleſſe, I wyl commit my cauſe and my woorke vnto the Lorde my God.

5 And nowe, ſayth the Lorde, euen he that faſhioned me from my mothers wombe to be his ſeruant, that I may bryng Iacob agayne vnto hym, albeit Iſrael wyl not be geathered vnto hym agayne, yet in Gods ſight ſhal I be glorious, my God ſhalbe my ſtrength.

6 And he ſayde, It is but a ſmal thyng that thou art my ſeruant to ſet vp the kynredes of Iacob, and to reſtore the deſtruction of Iſrael: * For I haue made thee the lyght of the gentiles, that thou mayeſt be my health vnto the ende of the worlde.

Eſai.42.b. Iohn. 8.b. Act,13.c.

B 7 Moreouer, thus ſayth the Lorde, the redeemer and holy one of Iſrael, concernyng the abhorred and deſpiſed among the gentiles, the ſeruant of them that beare rule, kynges and princes ſhal ſee and aryſe, and woorſhyp becauſe of the Lorde that is faythful, and becauſe of the holy one of Iſrael that hath choſen thee.

2.Cor. 6.a Iere.11.a. Eſai.13.a. Eſai.42.a. 8 And thus ſayth the Lorde, * In the tyme accepted haue I hearde thee, and in the day of ſaluation haue I helped thee: * I wyl preſerue thee, and make thee to be the attonement of the people, that thou mayeſt helpe vp the earth agayne, and poſſeſſe agayne the deſolate heritages.

Zach.9.b. Luk.4.b. 9 *That thou mayeſt ſay vnto the pryſoners, Goe forth: and to them that are in darkneſſe, Comme into the lyght: they ſhal feede thee in the hygh wayes, & geat their paſture in al hygh places.

Apoc.6.c 10 * They ſhal neither hunger nor thirſt, heate nor ſunne ſhal not hurt them: for he that fauoureth them ſhal leade them, & geue them drynke of the wel ſprynges.

11 I wyl make wayes vpon al my mountaynes, and my footepathes ſhalbe exalted.

12 And beholde, theſe ſhal comme from farre, loe, ſomme from the north and weſt, ſomme frõ the lande of Sinis [which is in the ſouth.]

13 * Reioyce ye heauens, and ſyng prayſes thou earth, talke of ioy ye hilles: for GOD hath comforted his people, & wil haue mercy vpon his that be in trouble. Eſai.52.e.

14 But Sion ſayde, *God hath forſaken me, and my Lorde hath forgotten me. C Rom.11.a

15 Wyl a woman forgeat her owne infant, and not pitie the ſonne of her owne wombe? And though they doo forgeat, yet wyl I not forgeat thee.

16 Beholde, I haue written thee vp vpon my handes, thy walles are euer in my ſyght.

17 They make haſte who buildeth thee vp agayne: as for thoſe that ouerthrowe thee and make thee waſte, they ſhal depart from thee.

18 *Lift vp thyne eyes and looke about thee, al theſe geather them togeather and comme to thee: As truely as I liue, ſayth the Lorde, thou ſhalt put them al vpon thee as an apparel, and girde them to thee as a bride dooth her iewels. Gen.15.a Eſai. 40.a

19 As for thy lande that lyeth deſolate, waſted, and deſtroyed, it ſhalbe to narowe for them that ſhal dwelle in it: and they that woulde deuoure thee, they ſhalbe farre away.

20 Then thy chyldren whom the barren ſhal bring forth, ſhal ſay in thine eare, This place is to narrowe, geue place that I may haue roome.

21 Then ſhalt thou thinke by thy ſelfe, who hath begotten me theſe, ſeeyng I am barren and alone, a captiue and an outcaſt? and who hath nouriſhed them vp for me? I am deſolate and alone, but from whence comme theſe? D

22 And therefore thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl ſtretche out my hande vnto the gentiles, and ſet vp my token to the people, they ſhal bryng thee thy ſonnes in theyr lappes, and carry thy daughters vnto thee vpon theyr ſhoulders.

23 For kynges ſhalbe thy nurſyng fathers, and queenes ſhalbe thy nurſyng mothers: They ſhal fal before thee with theyr faces flat vpon the earth, and licke vp the duſt of thy feete: that thou mayeſt knowe howe that I am the Lorde, * and that who ſo putteth their truſt in me, ſhal not be confounded.

24 Shal the ſpoyle be taken from the myghtie? or the lawful priſoner from the taker?

25 But thus ſayth the Lorde, The priſoners ſhalbe taken from the myghtie, & the ſpoyle ſhalbe recouered from the violent: for I wyl maynteyne thy cauſe agaynſt thine aduerſaries, and I wyl ſaue thy ſonnes.

26 And I wil feede thyne enimies with theyr owne fleaſh, and make them drunken with their owne blood, as with ſweete wine: And al fleaſhe ſhal knowe, O Iacob, that I am the Lorde, thy ſauiour, thy noble redeemer.

The l. Chapter.

1 The Iewes are reproued, and alſo called.

A 1 Ierc.3.a. Eſai.59.a. Thus ſayth the lord, Where is the byl of your mothers deuorcement, whom I ſent away? or who is the vſurer to whom I ſolde you? *Beholde, for your offences are ye ſold, and becauſe of your tranſgreſſion, is your mother forſaken.

2 Num.11.c Eſai.59.a Exo.14.c. Ioſu.3.d. Exod.19.c For why would no man receiue me when I came? and when I called, no man gaue me anſweare? *Is my hande ſhortened, that it myght not helpe? or haue I not power to deliuer? loe, *at a woorde I drynke vp the ſea, *and of water fluddes I make drye land: ſo that for want of water the fiſhe corrupt, and dye for thirſt.

3 *As for heauen I clothe it with darkneſſe, and put as it were a ſacke vpon it.

1,Cor.1.a. 4 The Lorde God hath geuen me a wel learned tongue,* ſo that I can comfort them that are troubled, yea and that in due ſeaſon: he wakeneth mine eare vp betymes in the mornyng, betymes in the mornyng, I ſay, he wil waken mine eare, that I might hearken as to the ſchoolemaiſters.

Pſal.39.b. Heb.10.a. 5 *The Lorde God hath opened myne eare, and I haue not gaineſayde, nor withdrawen my ſelfe.

B 7 And the Lorde God ſhal helpe me, therfore ſhal I not be confounded: I haue therefore hardened my face like a flint ſtone, for I am ſure that I ſhal not comme to confuſion.

8 He is at hande that iuſtifieth me, who wyl then goe with me to lawe? Let vs ſtand togeather, yf there be any that wyl reaſon with me? let hym comme here foorth to me.

Rom.8.d. 9 *Beholde, the Lorde God wyl helpe me, what is he then that can condemne me, loe, Pſal.102.b 2.Pet.3.b. *they al ſhal ware old like a cloth, the moth ſhal eate them vp.

10 Therefore, who ſo feareth the Lorde among you, let hym heare the voyce of his ſeruant: who ſo walketh in darkneſſe, and no lyght ſhyneth vpon hym, let him put his truſt in the name of the Lord, and holde him by his God.

11 But take heede, ye al kindle a fyre, and ſtirre vp the coales: walke on in the gliſtering of your owne fire, and in the coales that ye haue kyndled: This commeth vnto you from my hande [namely] that ye ſhal ſleepe in ſorowe.

The. li. Chapter.

1 Conſolation and comfort is promiſed vnto the faythful.

A 1 Hearken vnto me ye that holde of ryghteouſneſſe, and ye that ſeeke the lord: take heede to the ſtone whereout ye are hewen, and to the graue wherout ye are dygged.

2 Gen.21.a. Rom.4.a. Conſyder Abraham your father, and Sara that bare you, how that *I called him alone, and bleſſed hym, and encreaſed hym.

Gen.12.a. 3 Therefore ſhal the Lorde comfort Sion, and repayre al her decay, makyng her deſart as a paradiſe, and her wilderneſſe as the garden of the Lorde: Myrth and ioy ſhalbe founde there, thankeſgeuyng and the voyce of prayſe.

4 Haue reſpect vnto me then, O my people, both high and lowe, and lay thine eare vnto me: * for a lawe and an ordinance ſhal goe Eſai.2.a. foorth fro me, to lighten the gentiles.

5 It is harde by, that my health and my ryghteouſneſſe ſhal goe foorth, and the people ſhalbe ordered with mine arme: the Ilandes [that is the gentiles] ſhal hope in me, and put theyr truſt in myne arme.

6 Lyft vp your eyes towarde heauen, and looke vpon the earth beneath: * for the heauens Pſal.102.d. Mat.24.e. 2.Pet.3. ſhal vaniſhe away lyke ſmoke, and the earth ſhal ware old like a garment, and they that dwel therin ſhal periſhe in like manner: But my ſaluation ſhal endure for euer, and my ryghteouſneſſe ſhal not ceaſſe.

Pſal.102.b 8 * For woormes and mothes ſhal eate them vp lyke cloth and wool: but my ryghteouſneſſe ſhal endure for euer, and my ſauyng health from generation to generation.

9 Wake vp, wake vp, and be ſtrong, O thou arme of the Lorde, wake vp, lyke as in time paſt, euer, and ſince the worlde began.

Eſai.14.d. Exo.14.c. 10 * Art not thou the ſame arme that haſt wounded the proude, and hewen the dragon in peeces? Art not thou euen the ſame whiche haſt dryed vp the deepe of the ſea, whiche haſt made playne the ſea grounde, that the deliuered myht goe through?

11 Therefore the redeemed of the Lorde ſhal turne agayne, and comme with ioy vnto Sion, * continual ioy ſhalbe on theyr head, and mirth and gladneſſe ſhalbe with them, and ſorowe and wo ſhal flee from them. 1.Eſd.1.b.

12 Yea I, [euen] I am he that in al thynges geueth you conſolation: What art thou then that feareſt a mortal man and the chylde of man, whiche * goeth away as dooth the flowre? 2.Cor.1.c. Eſai.40.a. 1.Pet.1.d.

13 And forgetteſt the Lorde that made thee, that ſpread out the heauens, and layde the foundation of the earth: but thou art euer afrayde for the ſyght of thyne oppreſſour, whiche is ready to doo harme: Where is the wrath of the oppreſſour?

C 14 The exile maketh haſte to be looſed, that he dye not in pryſon, and that his bread fayle hym not.

Mat.8.a. Eſai.48.a. 15 * I am the Lorde thy God that diuide the ſea, and his waues ſhal rage, * whoſe name is the Lorde of hoſtes.

16 * I haue put my woordes in thy mouth, and haue defended thee in the ſhadowe of my hande, that I may plant the heauens, and lay the foundation of the earth, and ſay vnto Sion, Thou art my people. Eſai.49.a.

17 Awake, awake, and ſtande vp, O Hieruſalem, thou that from the hande of the Lorde haſt drunken * out the cuppe of his wrath, thou that haſt ſupped of and ſucked out the ſlumbryng cuppe to the bottome. Pſal.75.b. Iere.25.c.

18 For among al the ſonnes whom he hath begotten, there is not one that may holde it vp, and not one to leade it by the hande of al the ſonnes that he hath nouriſhed.

19 Both theſe thynges are happened vnto thee, but who is ſory for it? yea deſtruction, waſting, hunger, and ſwoorde, but who wil comfort thee?

20 Thy ſonnes lye comfortleſſe at the head of euery ſtreete like a taken veniſon, and are ful of the terrible wrath of the Lorde, and pouniſhment of thy God.

21 And therefore thou miſerable and drunken D (howbeit not with wine) heare this:

22 Thus ſayth the Lorde, thy Lord and God, the defendour of his people: Beholde, I wyl take the ſlumbryng cuppe out of his hande, euen the cup with the dregges of my wrath, that from henceforth thou ſhalt neuer drinke it more.

23 But I wil put it into theyr hand that trouble thee, whiche haue ſpoken to thy ſoule, Stoupe downe, that we may goe ouer thee, make thy body euen with the grounde, and as the ſtreete to goe vpon.

11 Beholde, thou poore, vexed, and diſpiſed, I wyl make thy walles of pretious ſtones, and thy foundation of Saphires, Eſai,vi,a 12 Thy wyndowes of Chriſtal, thy gates of fine cleare ſtone, & al thy borders of pleaſant ſtones.

13 *Thy chyldren ſhalbe al taught of God, & I wyl geue thee plenteouſneſſe of peace. 1.Iohn.2.d &.Ioh.6.c

14 In ryghteouſneſſe ſhalt thou be grounded, and be farre from oppreſſion: for the whiche thou needeſt not be afrayd, neyther for hinderance, for it ſhal not comme nygh thee. C

15 Loe, who ſo geathereth togeather [agaynſt thee, dooth it] without me, and who ſo within thee dooth ioyne togeather agaynſt thee, ſhal ſurely falle.

16 Beholde, I make the ſmith that bloweth the coales in the fire, and he maketh a weapon after his handy woorke: I make alſo the waſter to deſtroy.

17 But al the weapons that are made againſt thee ſhal not proſper: *and as for al tongues that ſhal reſiſt thee in iudgement, thou ſhalt ouercome them, and condempne them: This is the heritage of the Lordes ſeruantes, and their ryghteouſneſſe commeth of me, ſayth the Lorde. Luk.xxi.b Act.iiij,a

The.lv.Chapter.

1 An exhortation and comfort to the people. 9 The fruite and profite of the woorde of God.

A 1 Comme* to the waters al ye that be thirſtie, and ye yͤ haue no money, Come, bye, that ye may haue to eate: Comme, bye wyne & mylke without any money, or money woorth. Eccle.li,d Iohn.7.d Apoc,22,d 2 Wherfore doo ye lay out any money for the thyng that feedeth not, and ſpende your labour about the thyng that ſatiſfieth you not? But hearken rather vnto me, & ye ſhal eate of the beſt, and your ſoule ſhal haue her pleaſure in plenteouſneſſe.

3 Encline your eares, and comme vnto me, take heede [I ſay] and your ſoule ſhal lyue: * For I wyl make an euerlaſtyng couenant with you, euen the ſure mercies of Dauid. Act.xiij,d 2.Reg,7.e.

4 Beholde, I gaue him for a witneſſe amõg the folke, for a prince and a teacher vnto the people.

5 Loe, thou ſhalt calle an vnknowen people: and a people that had no knowledge of thee ſhal runne vnto thee, becauſe of the Lord thy God, and the holy one of Iſrael whiche glorifieth thee.

6 Seeke the Lorde while he may be founde, and calle vpon hym while he is nye.

7 * Let the vngodly man forſake his owne wayes, and the vnrighteous his owne imaginations, and turne agayne vnto the Lord, ſo ſhal he be mercyful vnto hym: and to our God, *for he is very redy to forgeue. B Ezec,18,c and,33,c. Pſal.103,a

8 For thus ſayth the Lorde, My thoughtes are not your thoughtes, and your wayes are not my wayes. Eſai.65,d

9 But as farre as the heauens are hygher then yͤ earth: ſo farre doo my wayes exceede yours, and my thoughtes yours.

10 * And lyke as the rayne and ſnowe commeth downe from heauen, and returneth not thyther agayne, but watereth the earth, maketh it fruitful and greene, that it may geue corne vnto the ſower, and bread to hym that eateth: Deut,32.a.

11 So the woorde alſo that commeth out of my mouth ſhal not turne agayne voyde vnto me, but ſhal accompliſh my wyl, and proſper in the thyng whereto I ſende it.

12 And ſo ſhal ye goe foorth with ioy, and be led with peace: The mountaynes and hilles ſhal ſyng with you for ioy, and al the trees of the fielde ſhal clappe their handes.

13 For thornes, there ſhal growe Firre trees, and the Myrre tree in the ſteede of briers: And this ſhalbe donne to the prayſe of the Lorde, and for an euerlaſtyng token that ſhal not be taken away.

The.lvi.Chapter.

1 An exhortation to iudgement and righteouſneſſe, and to the ſpiritual keepyng of the Sabboth. 10 Agaynſt ſheepheardes that deuoure their flocke.

A 1 Thus ſaith the lord, *Keepe equitie, and doo ryght: for my ſauyng health ſhal comme ſhortly, and my ryghteouſneſſe ſhalbe opened. Mat.iij.c

2 Bleſſed is the man that dooth this, and the mans chylde whiche keepeth the ſame: *He that taketh heede that he vnhalowes not the Sabboth [that is] he that keepeth hym ſelfe that he doo no euyl. Eſa,lviij.c

3 Then ſhal not the ſtranger whiche cleaueth to the Lorde, ſay, *Alas the Lorde hath ſhut me cleane out from his people: Neyther ſhal the gelded man ſay, Loe, I am a drye tree. Deut,23.c Sap.iij,b

4 For thus ſayth the Lorde vnto the gelded that keepeth my Sabboth, [namely] that holdeth greatly of the thyng that pleaſeth me, and keepeth my couenant:

5 Unto them wil I geue in my houſhold and within my walles, a better heritage & name then if they had benne called ſonnes & daughters: *I wyl geue them an euerlaſting name that ſhal not periſhe. Iohn.i.c

6 Agayne, the ſtrangers that ſticke to the lord to ſerue hym, and to loue his name, * and to be his ſeruantes, and al they whiche keepe thẽ ſelues that they vnhalowe not the Sabboth, namely that they fulfyl my couenant: Iohn.8.c

7 Them wil I bring to my holy mountaine, B and make them ioyful in my houſe of praier: their burnt offerynges and ſacrifices ſhalbe accepted vpon myne aulter: *for my houſe ſhalbe called an houſe of prayer for al people. 3.Reg.8.c Mat.21.b Mark.xi.b Luke.19.d

8 Thus ſaith the Lorde God whiche geathereth togeather the ſcattered of Iſrael, I wyl bryng yet another congregation to hym.

9 Comme al ye beaſtes of the fielde, that ye may deuour al the beaſtes of the wood.

10 *For his watchemen are al blynde, they haue altogeather no vnderſtandyng, they are al dumbe dogges, not beyng able to barke, they are ſleepy, ſluggiſh are they, and lye ſnortyng. Iere.xij.b Ezec.34.a

11 They are ſhameleſſe dogges that be neuer ſatiſfied: The ſheepheardes alſo in like manner haue no vnderſtanding, *but euery man turneth his owne way, euery one after his owne couetouſneſſe with al his power. Ierem.6.b

12 *Comme [ſay they] I wyl fetche wyne, ſo ſhal we fyl our ſelues, that we may be drunken: and doo to morowe lyke as to day, yea and muche more. Eſai.22.b 1.Cor.15.d Sapi.ij.b

The.lvii.Chapter.

1 The good menne are taken away, 3 The wicked ones take pleaſure in idolatrie, the godly receiue comfort, the wicked dooth periſhe.

A 1 ThE*righteous periſheth, and no man regardeth it in his hart: good godly people are taken away, & no man conſydereth it, namely, that yͤ ryghteous is conueyed away from the wicked. Sapi.ij.b

2 He commeth into peace, and godly menne reſt in their chambers, and before the godly man goeth peace.

3 Comme hyther therefore ye charmers chyldren, ye ſonnes of the adulterer & the whoore. Mat.xij.d

4 Wherin take ye your pleaſure? vpon whõ gape ye with your mouth, & bleare out your tongue? Are ye not chyldren of tranſgreſſion, and a ſeede of diſſimulation? Ezec.16.b Eſai.lxv.a Iere.vij.a Deut.18.b

5 *Ye make your fire vnder the okes, and vnder al greene trees, and ye offer chyldren in the valleyes, and dennes of ſtone. Ezec.xx.d Leui.xx.a Deut,32.c

6 Thy part ſhalbe with the ſtony rockes by the riuer, yea euen theſe ſhalbe thy part: For there thou haſt powred meate and drinke offering vnto them: Should I delight in that?

7 Thou haſt made thy bed vpon hye mountaynes, B thou wenteſt vp thyther, and there thou haſt ſlayne ſacrifices.

8 *Behynde the doores and poſtes haſt thou ſet vp thy remembrance, when thou hadſt diſcouered thy ſelfe to another then me, when thou wenteſt vp and made thy bed wyder, and with thoſe idolles haſt thou made a couenant, & louedſt their couches where thou ſaweſt them. Deut.37.b

9 Thou wenteſt ſtraight to kynges with* oyle and diuers ointmentes [that is] thou haſt ſent thy meſſengers farre of, and yet art thou fallen into the pit. Eze.xvi.b Oſee.12.b

10 Thou art weerie for the multitude of thine owne wayes, yet ſaideſt thou neuer, There is no hope:* Thou haſt had the lyfe that thy handes wrought, and therefore thou art careleſſe. Mat.ix,b 11 For whom wylt thou be abaſhed or feare, ſeeyng thou haſt broken thy promiſe, and remembreſt not me, neyther haſt me in thyne hart? Thynkeſt thou that I alſo wyl holde my peace as aforetyme, that thou feareſt me not?

12 Yea verily I wil declare thy goodneſſe and thy workes, but they ſhal not profite thee.

13 When thou crieſt, let thy choſen heape deliuer thee: but the wynde ſhal blowe them foorth, and vanitie ſhal take them al away: * Neuertheleſſe, they that put their truſt in me, ſhal inherite the lande, and haue my holy hyl in poſſeſſion. Rom,xi.a

C 14 And therfore thus he ſaith: *Make plaine, make playne, and clenſe the ſtreate, take vp the ſtumbling blockes out of the way of my people. Eſai.xl.c

15 For thus ſaith the hygh and excellent, euen he that dwelleth in euerlaſtyngneſſe, whoſe name is the holy one: * I dwelle hye aboue, and in the ſanctuarie, and with him alſo that is of a contrite & humble ſpirite doo I dwelle, that I may heale a troubled mynde, and a contrite hart. Pſal.l.b Eſai.lxvi,a

16 *For I chyde not euer, and am not wroth without ende: but the blaſtyng goeth from me, and is included in the body, and I made the breath. Pſal.ciij.a, Iere,iij.e

17 I am wroth with hym for his couetouſneſſe, I ſmite him, I hide me, and am angrie, and he turneth him ſelfe, and foloweth thee by the way of his owne hart.

18 I haue ſeene his wayes, and I heale hym, *I leade him, aud reſtore to him comfort, and to thoſe that were ſorie for hym. Luke.xv,a

19 I make the fruites of thankeſgeuing, that he may ſay, Peace, peace, vnto them that are farre of, and to them that are nygh, ſayth the Lorde, I make hym whole. Epheſ,ij.c

20 But the wicked are lyke the ragyng ſea that can not reſt, whoſe water fometh with the myre and grauel.

21 Euen ſo the *wicked haue no peace, ſayth GOD. Eſai,48.d

The.lviij.Chapter,

4 The Lorde (by the mouth of the prophete) reproueth the people for their faſtinges, whiche were ful of hypocriſie.

A 1 Crye *nowe as loude as thou canſt, leaue not of, lyft vp thy voyce lyke a trumpet, and ſhewe my people their offences, and the houſe of Iacob their ſinnes. Ezec.iij.c Iere,29.a

2 For they ſeeke me dayly, and wyl knowe my wayes, euen as it were a people that dyd ryght, and had not forſaken the ſtatutes of their God: they aſke of me concernyng right iudgement, and wyl be nye vnto God.

Mat.ix.d 3 *Wherefore faſt we [ſay they] and thou ſeeſt it not? We put our lyues to ſtraitneſſe, and thou regardeſt it not?

Eſai,j.b 4 * Beholde, when ye faſt, your luſt remayneth ſtyl, for ye doo no leſſe violence to your detters: loe, ye faſt to ſtrife and debate, and to ſmite with your fiſt without mercie: Nowe ye ſhal not faſt thus, that your voyce myght be hearde aboue.

Zach,vij.a 5 *Thinke ye this faſt pleaſeth me, that a man ſhoulde chaſten hym ſelfe for a day? and to hang downe his head lyke a bulruſhe, and to lie vpon the earth in an hearie cloth? Should that be called faſtyng, or a day that pleaſeth the Lorde?

6 Dooth not this faſtyng rather pleaſe me, That thou * looſe the wicked bandes, that thou take of the ouer heauie burthens, that thou let the oppreſſed goe free, and breake al manner of yoke? Deut.xv.a

7 *To deale thy bread to the hungrie, and to bring the poore wanderyng home into thy houſe? When thou ſeeſt the naked, that thou couer hym, and hyde not thy ſelfe from thy neighbour, & deſpiſe not thyne owne fleaſhe? B Ezec.18.b. Mat.xv.c

8 *Then ſhal thy lyght breake foorth as the mornyng, and thy health floriſhe right ſhortly: righteouſneſſe ſhal goe before thee, and the glorie of the Lorde ſhal embrace thee. Luke,xi,d

9 *Then if thou calleſt, yͤ lorde ſhal anſweare thee, if thou cryeſt, he ſhal ſay, Here I am: yea if thou layeſt away from thee thy burthens, and holdeſt thy fingers, and ceaſſeſt from vngratious talking: Prou,21.b.

10 *If thou haſt compaſſion vpon the hungrie, and refreaſheſt the troubled ſoule: then ſhal thy lyght ſpring out in the darkeneſſe, and thy darkneſſe ſhalbe as the noone day. Zach.vij.a Mat.v,b

11 The Lorde ſhal euer be thy guyde, and ſatiſfie the deſyre of thyne hart in the tyme of drought, and fylle thy bones with marow: Thou ſhalt be lyke a freſhe watred garden, *and lyke the fountayne of water that neuer leaueth runnyng. Iohn.4.b

12 Then yͤ places that haue euer benne waſt, ſhalbe buylded of thee, there ſhalt thou lay a fundation for many kinredes: Thou ſhalt be called the maker vp of the breache, and the buylder agayne of the way to dwelle in.

Eſai.56.a and,66.d 13 Yea if thou turne thy feete from the *Sabboth, ſo that thou doo not the thyng whiche pleaſeth thee ſelfe in my holy day, & thou calle the pleaſant, holy, and glorious Sabboth of the Lorde, and that thou geue hym the honour, ſo that thou doo not after thyne owne imagination, neyther ſeeke thyne owne wyl, nor ſpeake thyne owne woordes:

14 Then ſhalt thou haue thy pleaſure in the Lorde, and I wyl carrie thee hygh aboue the earth, and feede thee with the heritage of Iacob thy father: for the Lordes owne mouth hath ſo promiſed. C

The.lix.Chapter,

1 The Lorde is mighty to ſaue, and redy to heare our requeſtes, 12 our ſinnes are the cauſe why God heareth not vs, neyther graunteth our requeſtes.

A 1 Eſai.50.a Num.11.a Behold, *the Lordes hand is not ſo ſhortened that it can not helpe, neyther is his eare ſo ſtopped that it may not heare:

Iere.v.b 2 But *your miſdeedes haue ſeparated you from your GOD, and your *ſinnes hyde his face from you, that he heareth you not. Eſai,i.d

3 For your handes are defiled with blood, and your fingers with vnryghteouſneſſe: your lyppes ſpeake leaſinges, and your tongue ſetteth out wickedneſſe.

4 No man regardeth ryghteouſneſſe, and no man iudgeth truely: euery man hopeth in vayne thynges, and imagineth deceipt, *conceiueth weerineſſe, and bringeth foorth euyl. Iob,15.d Pſal.vij.b

5 They breede cockatrice egges, and weaue the ſpyders webbe, who ſo eateth of theyr egges, dyeth: but if one treade vpon them, there commeth vp a ſerpent.

6 Their webbe maketh no cloth, & they may not couer thē with their labours: their deedes are the deedes of wickednes, and the woorke of robberie is in their handes.

B 7 Prou.i.a Pſal.v.d and,13.a Rom,13.d, *Their feete runne to euyl, and they make haſt to ſhed innocent blood: their counſels are wicked counſels, harme *and deſtruction are in their wayes.

8 But the way of peace they knowe not, in their goeynges is no equitie: their wayes are ſo crooked, that whoſoeuer goeth therein knoweth of no peace.

9 And this is the cauſe that equitie is ſo farre from vs, and that ryghteouſneſſe commeth not nigh vs: *We looke for light, lo it is darkneſſe: for the mornyng ſhine, ſee, we walke in the darke. Eſai.v.a, Iob,30,b

Deut.28.c Iohn,12,c 10 We grope lyke the blynde vpon the wal, we grope euen as one that hath none eyes, we ſtumble at the noone day, as though it were toward night, in the falling places, like menne that are halfe dead.

11 We roare al lyke beares, and mourne ſtyl lyke doues: we looke for equitie, but there is none: for health, but it is farre from vs.

12 For our offences are many before thee, and our ſinnes teſtifie agaynſt vs: yea we muſt confeſſe that we offend, and knowledge that we doo amiſſe,

13 [Namely] tranſgreſſe and diſſemble agaynſt the Lord, and fal away from our God, vſing preſumpteous & trayterous imaginations, and caſtyng falſe matters in our hartes.

14 And therefore is equitie gonne aſyde, and ryghteouſneſſe ſtandeth farre of, *trueth is fallen downe in the ſtreate, & the thing that is playne and open, may not be ſhewed. C Oſee.4.a

15 Yea the trueth is taken away, and he that refrayneth him ſelfe from euyl, muſt be ſpoyled: When the Lorde ſawe this, it diſpleaſed hym ſoare that there was no equitie.

16 He ſawe alſo that there was no man ryghteous, and he woondred that there was no man to helpe hym: wherefore he helde hym by his owne power, and he ſuſteyned hym by his owne ryghteouſneſſe.

17 He put ryghteouſneſſe vpō him for a breſt plate, he ſet the helmet of health vpon his head: He put on wrath in the ſteade of clothyng, & tooke ielouſie about him for a cloke. Epheſ.6.b i.Theſſ,5.a

18 Euen as when a man goeth foorth wrathfully to recompence his enimies, and to be auenged of his aduerſaries, he wil recompence and rewarde the Ilandes.

19 They ſhal feare the name of the Lorde frō the ryſyng of the ſunne, and his maieſtie vnto the goeyng downe of the ſame, for he ſhal comme as a violent water ſtreame, whiche the wynde of the Lorde hath moued.

20 But vnto Sion there ſhal comme a redeemer, & vnto them in Iacob that turne from wickedneſſe, ſayth the Lorde. Rom.11.d. Pſal.13.a

21 I wyl make this couenant with them (ſayth the Lorde,) My ſpirite that is vpon thee, and the woordes whiche I haue put in thy mouth, ſhal neuer goe out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy childers children, from this tyme foorth for euermore, worlde without ende, ſayth the Lorde.

The.lx.Chapter.

1 A conſolation and comfort to Hieruſalem. 5 The Churche is geathered togeather among the Gentiles by preachyng of the Goſpel, 16 and aboundeth with al good thynges.

A 1 Act.26.c Epheſ.v.b GEt thee vp betimes, & be bryght [O Hieruſalem] for thy light commeth, & the glorie of the Lorde is riſen vp vpon thee.

2 For lo, whyle the darkeneſſe, & cloude couereth the earth, & the people, the Lord ſhal ſhewe thee lyght, and his glorie ſhalbe ſeene in thee.

3 The Gentiles ſhal comme to thy light, and kinges to the brightneſſe that ſpringeth forth vpon thee.

Eſai.49.d Mark.8.d Gen.xv.a 4 * Lyft vp thyne eyes, and looke rounde about thee: al theſe geather them ſelues and comme to thee, thy ſonnes ſhal comme vnto thee from farre, and thy daughters ſhal geather them ſelues to thee on euery ſyde.

5 Then thou ſhalt ſee this, and be glorious, thou ſhalt marueyle exceedyngly, and thyne hart ſhalbe opened: when the abundance of the ſea ſhalbe conuerted vnto thee [that is] when the ryches of the Gentiles ſhal comme vnto thee.

6 The multitude of camels ſhal couer thee, the dromedaries of Madian and Epha: * al they of Saba ſhal comme, bryngyng golde and incenſe, and ſhewyng the prayſe of the Lorde. Pſal.72.d Mat.ij.b

B 7 Al the cattel of Cedar ſhalbe geathered vnto thee, the rammes of Nabaioth ſhal ſerue thee to be offred acceptably vpō mine aulter, * and the houſe of my glorie wyl I garniſhe. Heb,13.b

8 But what are theſe that flee here ly[illegible] the cloudes, and as the doues fleeyng to their wyndowes?

9 The Iſles alſo ſhal wayte for me, and ſpecially the ſhippes of Tharſis, that they may bryng thy ſonnes from farre, and their ſiluer, and their golde with them, vnto the name of the Lorde thy God, vnto the holy one of Iſrael that hath glorified thee.

Eſai.53.d 10 * Strangers ſhal build vp thy walles, and their kinges ſhal doo thee ſeruice: for when I was angrie, I ſmote thee, and of my mercie I pardoned thee.

Apoc,21.d 11 * Thy gates ſhal ſtande open ſtyl both day and nyght, and neuer be ſhut, that the hoſt of the gentiles may comme, & that their kinges may be brought vnto thee.

12 For euery people, and kyngdome that ſerueth not thee, ſhal periſhe, and be deſtroyed with vtter deſtruction.

13 The glorie of Libanus ſhal comme vnto thee, the Firre trees, Boxes, & Cedars togeather, to garniſhe the place of my ſanctuarie: for I wyl glorifie the place of my feete.

14 Moreouer, thoſe ſhal comme kneelyng vnto thee that haue vexed thee, and al they that deſpiſed thee ſhal fal downe at thy foote: Thou ſhalt be called the citie of the Lorde, Sion [the citie] of the holy one of Iſrael. C

15 Becauſe thou haſt benne forſaken and hated, ſo that no man went thorow thee: I wyl make thee glorious for euer and euer, & ioyful throughout al poſterities.

16 * Thou ſhalt ſucke the milke of the Gentiles, and kynges breaſtes ſhal feede thee: and thou ſhalt knowe that I the Lorde am thy ſauiour and redeemer, the mightie one of Iacob. Eſai.49.c

17 For braſſe, wyl I geue thee golde, and for iron, ſyluer, for wood, braſſe, and for ſtones, iron: I wil turne thine oppreſſion into peace, and thyne exactions into ryghteouſneſſe.

18 Violence and robberie ſhal neuer be hearde of in thy land, neyther harme and deſtruction within thy borders: thy walles ſhalbe called health, and thy gates the prayſe of God.

19 * The ſunne ſhal neuer be thy day lyght, and the lyght of the moone ſhal neuer ſhyne vnto thee: but the Lorde hym ſelfe, ſhalbe thyne euerlaſtyng lyght, and thy God ſhalbe thy glorie. Apoc,21.a

20 * Thy ſunne ſhal neuer goe downe, and thy moone ſhal not be hyd: for the Lord him ſelfe ſhalbe thyne euerlaſtyng lyght, and thy ſorowful dayes ſhalbe ended. Apo.22.b.

21 Thy people ſhalbe al ryghteous, and poſſeſſe the land euer, the flowre of my planting, the worke of my handes whereof I wyl reioyce. D

22 Thy youngeſt and leaſt, ſhal growe into a thouſande, and the ſimpleſt into a ſtrong people: I the Lorde ſhal ſhortly bryng this thyng to paſſe in his tyme.

The.lxi.Chapter.

1 He propheſieth that Chriſte ſhalbe annoynted, and ſent to preache.

Luk.iiij.c and.vij.c Eſai.xi.a
Eſai.57.b and.66.a

A 1 THE ſpirite of the Lorde is vpon me: for the Lorde hath annoynted me, and ſent me to preache good tydynges vnto yͤ poore, that I myght bynde vp the wounded hartes, that I might preache deliuerance to the captiue, and open the priſon to them that are bounde:

Mat.xv.a and,xi.a

2 That I might declare the acceptable yeere of the Lorde, and the day of the vengeance of our God:* that I myght comfort al them that are in heauineſſe:

3 That I might geue vnto thē that mourne in Sion, that I might geue [I ſay] beautie in ſteede of aſſhes, ioyful oyntment for ſighing, pleaſant rayment for an heauie mynde, that they myght be called trees of ryghteouſneſſe, a plantyng of the Lorde for hym to reioyce in.

4 They ſhal buylde the long rough wylderneſſe, and ſet vp the olde deſart: they ſhal repayre the waſte places, & ſuche as haue benne voyde throughout many generations.

5 Strangers ſhal ſtande and feede your cattel, and the aliantes ſhalbe your plowmen, & dreſſers of your vines.

Eſai.66.a Iere.33.d

6 *But ye ſhalbe named the prieſtes of the Lorde, and menne ſhal cal you the ſeruantes of our GOD: ye ſhal enioy the goodes of the Gentiles, and triumph in their ſubſtance.

7 For your great reproofe you ſhal haue double ioy, & for ſhame ſhal they haue ioy of their portion: for they ſhal haue double poſſeſſion in their land, and euerlaſting ioy ſhalbe with them. B

8 For I the Lorde whiche loue ryght, and hate robberie (though it were offered me) ſhal make their workes ful of faithfulneſſe, and make an euerlaſtyng couenant with them.

9 Their ſeede alſo, and their generation ſhalbe knowen among the gentiles, and among the people: al they that ſee them, ſhal knowe that they are the high bleſſed ſeede of the lord.

Luke.ij.b. Pſal.132.a
Eze.xvi.b

10 And therefore I am ioyful in the Lorde, and my ſoule reioyceth in God: For he hath put vpon me the garment of ſaluation, and couered me with the mantle of ryghteouſneſſe:* He ſhal decke me lyke a brydegrome, and as a bryde that hath her apparel vpon her.

11 For lyke as the ground bryngeth forth her fruite, & as the garden ſhooteth foorth ſeede: ſo ſhal the Lorde GOD cauſe ryghteouſneſſe and prayſe to flooriſhe foorth before al the Heathen.

The.lxii.Chapter.

1 A prophecie of the comming of Chriſte.

A 1 FOR Sions ſake wyl I not holde my tongue, and for Hieruſalems ſake I wyl not ceaſſe vntyl their righteouſnes breake forth as the ſhinyng lyght, and their ſaluation as a burnyng lampe.

Iohn.i.a Apoc.ij.c

2 Then ſhal the Gentiles ſee thy ryghteouſneſſe, and al kinges thy glorie: Thou ſhalt be named *with a newe name, which yͤ mouth of the Lorde ſhal ſhewe.

3 Thou ſhalt be a crowne in the hande of the Lorde, and a glorious garlande in the hande of thy God.

4 From this time foorth thou ſhalt neuer be called the forſaken, & thy lande ſhal no more be called the wylderneſſe: but thou ſhalt be called, My pleaſure is in her, and thy lande ſhalbe called, The maried woman: for the Lorde loueth thee, and thy lande ſhalbe ioyned in mariage.

Eze.xvi.b Oſee.ij.c Eſai.liiij,a

5 *And lyke as a young man taketh a virgin to mariage, ſo ſhal thy ſonnes be maried vnto thee: and as a brydegrome is glad of his bryde, ſo ſhal thy God reioyce ouer thee.

6 I haue ſet watchemen vpon thy walles, O Hieruſalem, whiche ſhal neyther ceaſſe day nor nyght to preache the Lorde: and ye alſo that remember the Lorde, ye ſhal not keepe hym cloſe,

7 Nor leaue to ſpeake of hym, vntyl Hieruſalem be ſet vp, and made the prayſe of the worlde. B

8 The Lorde hath ſworne by his right hand, & by his ſtrong arme, that from henceforth he wyl not geue thy corne to be meate for thine enimies, nor thy vine wherein thou haſt laboured, to be drinke for the ſtrangers.

9 But they that haue geathered in the corne, ſhal eate it, and geue thankes to the Lorde: and they that haue borne in the vine, ſhal drinke it in the court of my ſanctuarie.

10 Goe you, goe you thorow the gates, make cleane the way for the people, make playne, make playne the foote path, and take away the ſtones out of it, and ſet out a token for the people.

The.lxiij.Chapter,

7 Of the redemption promiſed to the people.

A 1 What is he this that commeth from Edom, with redde coloured clothes from Boſra? He is honorably arrayed, and commeth in myghtily with his power: I am he that teacheth ryghteouſneſſe, and am of power to helpe.

2 Wherefore then is thy clothyng red, and thy rayment lyke his that treadeth in the wyne preſſe?

3 I haue troden the preſſe my ſelfe alone, and of al people there is not one with me: Thus wyl I treade them downe in my wrath, and ſet my feete vpon them in myne indignation, and their blood ſhal be ſprong vpon my clothes, and ſo wyl I ſtayne al my rayment.

Eſai.34.b 4 *For the day of vengeance is aſſigned in my hart, and the yeere when my people ſhalbe deliuered is comme.

5 I looked about me, and there was no man to ſhewe me any helpe, I marueyled that no man helde me vp: Then I helde me by mine owne arme, and my feruentneſſe ſuſtayned me.

6 And thus wyl I treade downe the people in my wrath, ⁊ bath them in my diſpleaſure, and vpon the earth wyl I lay their ſtrength.

B 7 *I wyl declare the goodneſſe of the Lorde, yea and the prayſe of the Lorde for al that he hath geuen vs, for the great good that he hath donne for Iſrael, whiche he hath geuen them of his owne fauour, and accordyng to the multitude of his louing kyndneſſes. Exod.xv.a Eſai.xij.a

8 For he ſayd, Theſe no doubt are my people, and no ſhrynkyng children: and ſo was he their ſauiour.

Exod.xiij. 14.d.24.c 9 In their troubles, he was alſo troubled with them, and the angel that went foorth from his preſence deliuered them: of very loue and kindnes that he had vnto them, he redeemed them, he hath borne them and caried them vp euer ſince the worlde began.

10 But after they prouoked hym to wrath, ⁊ vexed his holy ſpirite, he was their enimie, and fought agaynſt them hym ſelfe.

11 Yet remembred Iſrael the old time of Moſes and his people, ſayeing, Where is he that brought them frō the water of the ſea, *with them that feede his ſheepe? Where is he that hath geuen his holy ſpirite among them? Exod.43.c Pſal.77.d

12 He led them by the ryght hande of Moſes with his glorious arme, diuiding the water before them, whereby he gate hym ſelfe an euerlaſtyng name.

13 He led them in the deepe as an horſe is led in the playne, that they ſhoulde not ſtumble.

14 As a tame beaſt goeth in the field, and the ſpirite of GOD geueth hym reſt: Thus (O God) haſt thou led thy people, to make thy ſelfe a glorious name withal. C

15 *Looke downe then from heauen, and beholde from the dwellyng place of thy ſanctuarie and thy glorie: Howe is it that thy gelouſie, thy ſtrength, the multitude of thy mercies, and thy louyng kyndneſſe wil not be intreated of vs? Deut.:6.d Baruc.ij.c

16 Yet art thou our father: for Abraham knoweth vs not, neyther is Iſrael acquaynted with vs: but thou Lorde art our father and redeemer, and thy name is euerlaſtyng. Mat.vi.d Luke.xj.a and.23.a

17 O Lorde, wherefore haſt thou led vs out of the way? *Wherefore haſt thou hardened our hartes that we feare thee not? Be at one with vs agayne for thy ſeruantes ſake, and for the generation of thyne heritage. Pſal.119.b

18 Thy holy people haue had but a litle while thy ſanctuarie in poſſeſſion, for our enimies haue troden downe thy holy place.

19 And we were thyne from the begynnyng, when thou waſte not their Lorde, for they haue not called vpon thy name.

The.lxiiii.Chapter.

1 The prophete (vnder the perſon of the Jewes) bewayleth theyr exile and baniſhment.
6 Mans ryghteouſneſſe is like a cloth defiled.

A 1 O That thou wouldeſt cleue the heauens in ſunder and comme downe, that the mountaynes myght melt away at thy preſence:

2 Like as at an hotte fire, and [that the malitious myght boyle away] as the water dooth vpon the fyre: whereby thy name myght be knowen among thine enimies, and that the gentiles might tremble before thee.

3 When thou wroughteſt woonderous ſtrange workes, we looked not for them: thou cameſt downe, and the hilles melted at thy preſence.

B 7 There is no man that calleth vpon thy name, that ſtandeth vp to take holde by thee: therefore hydeſt thou thy face from vs, and conſumeſt vs, becauſe of our ſinnes.

8 But nowe, O Lorde, thou father of ours, *We are thy clay, and thou art our potter, and we al are the worke of thy handes. Rom.9.c

Pſal.79.a Iere.10.d 9 *Be not to ſoare diſpleaſed, O Lorde, and keepe not our offences to long in thy remembrance: but conſyder that we al are thy people.

Mich.3.c 10 The cities of thy ſanctuarie lye waſte, *Sion is a wilderneſſe, and Hieruſalem a deſart.

11 Our holy houſe, whiche is our beautie where our fathers prayſed thee, is brent vp: yea, al our commodities and pleaſures are waſted away.

12 Wylt thou not be entreated, O Lorde, for al this wilt thou hold thy peace, and ſcourge vs ſo ſoare?

Rom.11.b 4.Re.19.c Rom.9.c 8 Moreouer, thus ſayth the Lord, *Lyke as when newe wine is founde in the cluſter, and one ſayth, Loſe it not, for there is bleſſing therein: *euen ſo wyl I doo alſo for my ſeruantes ſakes, that I wyl not deſtroy them al.

that ye ſhalbe deſtroyed altogeather: for that when I called, no man gaue me anſweare, when I ſpake, ye hearkened not vnto me, but dyd wyckedneſſe before mine eyes, and choſe the thynges that pleaſed me not.

13 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, my ſeruantes ſhal eate, but ye ſhal haue hunger: beholde, my ſeruantes ſhal drynke, but ye ſhal ſuffer thirſt: beholde, my ſeruantes ſhalbe merrie, but ye ſhalbe confounded:

The firſt Chapter.

1 The ſtocke of Jeremie, and in what tyme he propheſied. 6 He excuſeth hym ſelfe, and woulde refuſe the office of a prophete, becauſe he is young and vnexpert. 8 He is taught of the Lorde, and becommeth bolde, 11 God openeth vnto hym, that the deſtruction of the Jewes by the Babylonians is at hand, 17 Jeremie is commaunded to ſpeake the woorde of God vnto the Jewes without feare.

A 1 These are the ſermons of Jeremie the ſonne of Helkiah the prieſte, one of thē that dwelt at * Anathoth in the lande of Beniamin, Iere.11.a

2 When the Lord had firſt ſpoken with hym in the tyme of Joſiah the ſōne of Amon king of Juda, in the.xiii.yeere of his raigne:

3 And ſo during vnto the tyme of Jehoakim the ſonne of Joſiah, kyng of Juda, * and vntyl the.xi. yeere of Zedekiah the ſonne of Joſiah kyng of Juda were ended, when Hieruſalem was taken, euen in the fyfth moneth. 4.Re.25.a. Iere.39.a.

4 The woorde of the Lord ſpake thus vnto me,

5 * Before J faſhioned thee in thy mothers wombe, J dyd knowe thee: and or euer thou waſt borne, J ſanctified thee, and ordeyned thee to be a prophete vnto the people. Eſai.44.a. and.46.a Pſal.70.a.

6 Then ſayde J, * O Lorde God, J can not ſpeake, for J am yet but young. Exod.4.c. Actes.9.c.

7 And the Lorde anſweared me thus, Saye not ſo, J am to young: for thou ſhalt goe to al that J ſhal ſende thee vnto, * and whatſoeuer J commaunde thee, that ſhalte thou ſpeake. B Mat.10.c. 1.Co.3.a.

8 Be not afraid of theyr faces: for J am with thee, to deliuer thee, ſayth the Lorde.

11 After this the Lorde ſpake vnto me, ſayeing, Ieremie what ſeeſt thou? And I ſayde, (a) I ſee a rod of an Almonde tree.

(a) God ſheweth to Hieruſalem the deſtruction of the Iewes by the Babylonians to be at hande.

12 Then ſayde the Lorde vnto me, Thou haſt ſeene ryght, for I wyl make haſte ſpeedily vpon my woorde to perfourme it.

16 And through them ſhal I declare my iudgement, vpon al the wyckedneſſe of thoſe menne that haue forſaken me, that haue burnt incenſe vnto ſtrange gods, and worſhypped the woorkes of theyr owne handes.

17 * And therefore girde vp thy loynes, aryſe, & tel them al that I geue thee in commaundement: Feare them not, leſt I deſtroy thee before them.

2 God rehearſeth his benefites donne vnto the Iewes. 8 Agaynſt prieſtes and prophetes or preachers that contemne or deſpiſe God. 12 The Iewes are deſtroyed becauſe they forſooke God, and becauſe they ranne a whore hunting after idols.

A 1 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Goe thy way, crye in the eares of Hieruſalem, and ſay, Thus ſayth the Lorde, I remember thee, the kyndneſſe of thy youth, and the loue of thy deſpouſyng, in that thou folowedſt me through the wyldérneſſe in an vntylled lande.

(c) The propertie of idolaters is, not only to contemne the voyce of the preacher, calling them to repentance: but ſhameleſly to prooue yͤ loue of ſtrangers, and the folowyng of them, that is, the worſhipping of ſtocks and ſtones, and ſeruing of God agaynſt his worde, after their owne deuiſes.

26 Lyke as a theefe that is taken with the deede, commeth to ſhame: euen ſo is the houſe of Iſrael comme to confuſion, the common people, their kinges and rulers, their prieſtes and prophetes.

27 For they ſay to a ſtocke, Thou art my father: and to a ſtone, Thou haſt begotten me: *yea they haue turned theyr backe vpon me, and not theyr face: but in the tyme of theyr trouble, when they ſay, Stand vp, and helpe vs:

2.Par.24.d

31 Oh generation, hearken vnto the woord of the Lorde: Am I become a wylderneſſe vnto the people of Iſrael? or a lande that hath no lyght? Wherefore ſayth my people then, We are lordes, we wyl comme no more vnto thee?

32 Dooth a mayde forgeat her rayment, or a bryde her ſtomacher? but my people hath forgotten me a very long whyle.

35 Yet dareſt thou ſay, I am [without ſinne &] giltleſſe, Tuſhe, his wrath can not comme vpon me: Beholde, I wyl reaſon with thee, becauſe thou dareſt ſay, I haue not offended. F

36 Why gaddeſt thou ſo muche hither and thither, to change thy wayes? for thou ſhalt be confounded as wel of Egypt, as thou waſt of the Aſſyrians.

A 1 O Iſrael, yf thou wilt turne thee, then turne vnto me, ſayth the Lorde: and yf thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my ſyght, thou ſhalt not be mooued.

Iere. 5.a &.12.a 2 * And ſhalt ſweare, The Lorde lyueth, in trueth, in equitie, and ryghteouſneſſe, and al people ſhalbe fortunable, and ioyful in hym.

8 Wherefore gyrde your ſelues about with ſackcloth, mourne, and weepe: for the feareful wrath of the Lord is not withdrawen from vs.

9 At the ſame tyme, ſayth the Lorde, the hart of the kyng and of the princes ſhalbe gonne, the prieſtes ſhalbe aſtoniſhed, and the prophetes ſhalbe ſoare afrayde.

10 Then ſayde I, Oh Lorde God, haſt thou then deceiued this people and Hieruſalem, ſayeing, * Ye ſhal haue peace: and nowe the ſwoorde goeth through theyr lyues? Deut. 23.a

25 I looked about me, and there was no body: and al the birdes of the ayre weare away.

26 I marked wel, and the plowed fielde was become waſte, yea al their cities were broken downe at the preſence of the Lord, and indignation of his wrath.

27 For thus hath the Lorde ſaid, The whole lande ſhalbe deſolate, yet wil I not then haue donne.

4 Therfore I thought in my ſelfe: peraduenture they are ſo ſimple and foolyſhe, that they vnderſtande nothing of the lordes way, and iudgementes of their God.

Deut.17.d 5 *Therfore wil I goe vnto their heades and rulers, and talke with them, if they knowe the way of the Lorde, and iudgementes of their god: But theſe [in like manner] haue broken the yoke, and burſt the bondes in ſunder.

28 * For they are al ſtubborne apoſtates, and fallen away, walkyng deceiptfully, they are cleane braſſe and iron, for they hurt and deſtroy euery man.

29 The bellowes are brent in the fyre, the leade is not moulten, the melter melteth in vayne, for the euyl is not taken away from them.

30 Therefore doo they calle them naughtie ſyluer, becauſe the Lorde hath caſt them out.

The.vii.Chapter.

2 Ieremie is commaunded to ſhew vnto the people the woord of God, which truſteth in the outwarde ſeruice of the temple. 13 The euyls that ſhal happen to the Iewes for the deſpiſing of their prophetes. 21 Sacrifices dooth not the Lorde chiefly require of the Iewes, but that they ſhoulde obey his woorde.

A 1 These are the woordes that God ſpake vnto Ieremie, ſayeing,

Iere.17.b and,26.a 2 *Stand vnder the gate of the Lordes houſe, and crie out theſe wordes there with a loude voyce, and ſay, Heare the woorde of the Lorde al ye of Iuda, that goe in at this doore to woorſhyp the Lorde:

3 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, the GOD of Iſrael: *Amende your wayes, and your counſels, and I wyl let you dwelle in this place. Eſai.i.e Iere,26.e

4 Truſt not in falſe lyeing woordes, ſayeing, Here is the temple of the Lorde, here is the temple of the Lorde, here is the temple of the Lorde:

5 But rather in deede amende your wayes and counſels,* & iudge ryght betwixt a man and his neyghbour, Exod.22.e Zacha.8.c

Leuit.29.g Iob.23.a 6 Oppreſſe not the ſtranger, the fatherleſſe, and the widowe, ſhed not innocent blood in this place, cleaue not to ſtrange goddes to your owne deſtruction:

B 7 Then wyl I let you dwelle in this place, yea in the lande that I gaue aforetyme to your fathers for euer.

8 But take heede, ye truſt in lyeing tales, that beguile you, and doo you no good.

9 For when ye haue ſtollen, murthered, committed adulterie and periurie, when ye haue offered vnto Baal, folowing ſtrange and vnknowen goddes: ſhal ye be vnpouniſhed?

10 Yet then comme ye, and ſtande before me in this houſe* (which hath my name geuen vnto it) & ſay, Tuſhe, we are abſolued quite, though we haue donne al theſe abominations. 3, Reg.8.9.

11 What, thinke you this houſe that beareth my name, is a denne of theeues? *And yet I ſee what you thinke, ſayth the Lorde. Eſai.lix.b Iob.ii.b Mat.21.b

12 Goe to my place in Silo, whereunto I gaue my name aforetyme, and looke wel what I did to the ſame place for the wickedneſſe of my people of Iſrael. Iere,32. Ioſu.18.a Iere.26.a 1.Reg.3.4.5.6.

13 And nowe ſeeyng ye haue donne al theſe deedes, ſayth the Lorde, and I my ſelfe roſe vp euer betymes to warne you, and to commune with you, yet woulde ye not heare me: *I called, ye woulde not anſweare: Prou.i.c

Eſai.65.b Luk.xxi.a 14 Therefore, *euen as I haue donne vnto Silo, ſo wyl I doo to this houſe that my name is geuen vnto, and that you put your truſt in, yea vnto the place that I haue geuē to you and your fathers:

15 And I ſhal thruſt you out of my ſyght, *as C I haue caſt out al your brethren the whole ſeede of Ephraim. 1.Reg.17.a

16 *Therfore thou ſhalt not pray for this people, thou ſhalt neyther geue thankes, nor byd prayer for them: make thou no interceſſion for them, for in no wyſe wyl I heare thee. Iere.14.b Ezec.14.c 1,Ioh,v,c

17 Seeſt thou not what they doo in the cities of Iuda, and in the ſtreates of Hieruſalem?

18 *The chyldren geather ſtickes, the fathers kindly the fire, the women kneade the dough to bake cakes for the queene of heauen: they powre out drynke offerynges vnto ſtrange goddes, to prouoke me vnto wrath. Iere.44.c

19 Howbeit they hurt not me, ſaith the Lord, but rather confounde & ſhame them ſelues.

20 And therfore, thus ſaith yͤ Lord God, Beholde, my wrath & indignation ſhalbe powred out vpon this place, vpon menne and cattel, vpon trees in the fielde, and fruite of the lande: and it ſhal burne, ſo that no man may quenche it.

21 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes the God D of Iſrael, Heape vp your *burnt offerynges with your ſacrifices, and eate the fleaſhe. Eſai.i.a

22 *For when I brought your fathers out of Egypt, I ſpake no woorde vnto thē of burnt offerynges and ſacrifices: Deut.x.a Eſai.43.a

23 But this I commaunded them, ſayeing, *Hearken, and obey my voyce, and I ſhalbe your God, and ye ſhalbe my people, ſo that ye walke in al the wayes whiche I haue commaunded you, that ye may proſper. Exod.19.a

24 *But they were not obedient, they inclined not their eares therunto: but went after their owne imaginations, and after the motions of their owne wicked hart, and ſo turned them ſelues away, and conuerted not vnto me. Zach,vij.a

25 And this haue they donne from the tyme that our fathers came out of Egypt, vnto this day: *Neuertheleſſe, I ſent vnto you al my ſeruantes the prophetes, I roſe vp early, and ſent you woorde. Iere.25.a 29.c.&43.a

26 Yet would they not hearken nor offer me their eares, but were obſtinate, & worſe then their fathers.

27 And thou ſhalt now ſpeake al theſe wordes vnto them, but they ſhal not heare thee: thou ſhalt crye vpon them, but they ſhal not anſweare thee.

E 28 Therfore ſhalt thou ſay vnto them, This is the people that neither heareth the voyce of the Lorde their God, nor receiueth his correction: *faithfulneſſe and trueth is cleane rooted out of their mouth. Iere,v.a

Ezec.v.a 29 *Wherefore cut of thyne heare, O Hieruſalem, and caſt it away, take vp a complaynt on hye: for the Lorde hath caſt away and forſaken the people that he is diſpleaſed withal.

30 For the chyldren of Iuda haue donne euyl in my ſight, ſaith the Lord: *they haue ſet vp their abominatiōs in the houſe that hath my name, and haue defiled it: Iere,32.d

Deut,32.c 4.Re,24.c Pſal.cvi.c Iere.43.a 31 They haue alſo builded an aulter at Thopheth, whiche is in the valley of the chyldren of Hennom, that they myght burne their ſonnes and daughters in fire: which I neuer commaunded them, neither came it euer in my thought.

32 And therfore behold, the dayes ſhal comme (ſayth the Lorde) that it ſhal no more be called Thopheth, or the valley of the children of Hennom, but the valley of ſlaughter: * for in Thopheth they ſhal be buryed, becauſe they ſhal els haue no roome. Iere.xix.e

33 *Yea the dead bodyes of this people ſhalbe eaten vp of the foules of the ayre, and wylde beaſtes of the earth, & no man ſhal fray them away. Iere.viij.b and.ix.e

34 *And as for the voyce of myrth and gladneſſe of the cities of Iuda and Hieruſalem, the voyce of the brydegrome and of the bryde, I wyl make them ceaſſe: for the lande ſhalbe deſolate. Iere.xvi.b and.25.d Exe.16.b

The.viij.Chapter.

1 The deſtruction of the Iewes. 4 The Lorde moueth the people to amendment, reckening vp their ſinnes. 10 He reprehendeth the lyeing doctrine of the prophetes and prieſtes.

A 1 AT the ſame time, ſaith the Lorde, the bones of the kinges of Iuda, the bones of his princes, the bones of the preachers and prophetes, yea and the bones of the citizens of Hieruſalem, ſhalbe brought out of their graues,

Deut.4.c 2 And layde agaynſt the *ſunne, the moone, and al the heauenly hoſt, whom they loued, whom they ſerued, whom they ranne after, whom they ſought and worſhypped: they ſhal neyther be geathered togeather nor buried, but ſhal lye as dounge vpon the earth.

Luke.24.c 3 *And al they that remayne of this wicked generation, ſhal deſyre rather to dye then to lyue, whereſoeuer they remayne, and where as I ſcatter them, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes.

4 Thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto them alſo, Thus ſayth the Lorde, Doo menne fal ſo, that they ariſe not vp agayne? or if Iſrael repent, wyl not God turne agayne to them?

5. Wherefore then is this people of Hieruſalem gonne ſo farre backe, that they turne not agayne? They are euer the longer the more obſtinate, and wyl not be conuerted.

6 For I haue looked and conſydered, but there is no man that ſpeaketh a good woorde, there is no man that taketh repentance for his ſinne, that wyl ſo muche ſay, What haue I donne? but euery man turneth to his owne courſe, lyke a fierce horſe headlong to the battayle.

B 7 The Storke in the ayre knoweth his appoynted tyme, the Turtle doue, the Swallow and the Crane conſyder the time of their trauayle: *but my people wyl not know the tyme of the pouniſhment of the Lorde. Eſai,j.a

8 Howe dare ye ſay then, We are wyſe, we haue the law of the Lord among vs? Truely in vayne hath he prepared his penne, and vaynely haue the writers written it.

9 Therfore ſhal the wyſe be confounded, they ſhalbe afrayde and taken: for loe, * they haue caſt out the woorde of the Lorde, what wiſedome can then be among them? Deut.54.a Pſal.xix.a

10 Wherefore, I wyl geue their wiues vnto aliantes, and their fieldes to deſtroyers: * For from the loweſt vnto the higheſt they folow filthy lucre, and from the prophete vnto the prieſt they deale al with lyes. Ezec.vi.d

11 * Neuertheleſſe, they heale the hurt of my people very ſlenderly, ſayeing, Peace, peace: where there is no peace at al. Eſai.56.c Iere.vi.b Eze,xiij.d

12 Fye for ſhame, howe abominable thinges doo they? and yet they be not aſhamed, yea they knowe of no ſhame: *Wherefore in the tyme of their viſitation they ſhal falle amōg the dead bodyes, and be ouerthrowen, ſayth the Lorde. Iere.vij.d

13 Moreouer, I wyl conſume them in deede (ſaith the Lorde) ſo that there ſhal not be one grape vpon the vine, neyther one figge vpon the figge tree, and the leaues ſhalbe pluckt of: and the thyng that I haue geuen them, ſhalbe taken from them.

14 Why prolong we the tyme? Let vs geather our ſelues togeather, and goe into the C ſtrong citie, there ſhal we be in reſt: for the Lorde our God hath put vs to ſcilence, and geuen vs water mixt with gal to drinke, becauſe we haue ſinned agaynſt hym.

Iere.14.d 15 *We looked for peace, and we fare not the better, we wayted for the tyme of health, and loe, here is nothyng but trouble.

16 The noiſe of his horſes is heard from Dan, the whole lande is afrayde at the neyghyng of his ſtrong horſes: for they are comme in, & haue deuoured the lande, withal that is in it, the cities, and thoſe that dwel therein.

Leui.26.d 17 *Moreouer, I wyl ſende Cockatrices and Serpentes among you (whiche wyl not be charmed) and they ſhal byte you, ſayth the Lorde.

18 I would haue had comfort againſt ſorow: but ſorowe is comme vpon me, and heauyneſſe vexeth my hart.

19 For loe, the voyce of the cryeing of my people is hearde, [for feare of them that comme] frō a farre countrey: Is no the Lord in Sion? Is not her king in her? Wherfore then haue they greeued me [ſhal the Lord ſay] with their images, and fooliſh ſtrange faſhions of a forraine God?

20 The harueſt is gonne, the ſommer hath an ende, and we are not helped.

21 I am ſore vexed becauſe of the hurt of my people, I am heauie and abaſhed:

22 Is there not triacle at Gilead? Is there no phiſition there? Why then is not the health of my people recouered?

The.ix.Chapter.

1 The complaynt and bewaylyng of the prophete, 3 the malice of the people. 24 In the knowledge of God ought we onely to reioyce. 26 The vncircumciſion of the hart.

A 1 Eſai.22.a O Who *wyl geue my head water yenough, & a welle of teares for myne eyes, that I may weepe nyght and day for the ſlaughter of my people?

2 Woulde GOD that I had a cottage ſomewhere farre from folke, that I myght leaue my people, and goe from them: for they be al adulterers, & a ſhrynkyng ſort.

3 They bende their tongues lyke bowes to ſhoote out lyes, they ware ſtrong vpon earth: As for the trueth, they may nothyng away withal in the worlde, for they goe from one wickedneſſe to another, and wyl not knowe me, ſayth the Lorde.

Iere.12.b 4 *Yea, one muſt keepe hym ſelfe from another, no man may ſafely truſt his owne brother: for *one brother vndermindeth another, one neyghbour beguileth another. Mat.x.e Mich.vij.a

5 Pſal.28.a Yea, one diſſembleth with another, and they deale with no trueth: *They haue practiſed their tongues to lye, and taken great paynes to doo miſchiefe.

6 Thou ſitteſt in the myddes of a deceiptful people, whiche for very diſſembling falſhood wyl not knowe me, ſayth the Lorde.

B 7 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, Beholde, I wyl melt them, and trye them: for what ſhoulde I els doo to my people?

Prou.18.a Pſal.18.a 8 *Their tongues are lyke ſharpe arrowes to ſpeake deceipt: with their mouth they ſpeake peaceably to their neighbour, but priuily thei lay wayte for him.

Iere.v.b 9 * Shoulde I not pouniſhe them for theſe thynges, ſayth the Lorde? or ſhoulde I not be auenged of any ſuche people as this?

10 Upon the mountaynes wyl I take vp a lamentation and a ſorowful crye, & a mourning vpon the fayre places of the wyldernes: Namely, howe they are ſo brent vp, that no man goeth there any more, yea a man ſhal not heare one beaſt crye there: byrdes and cattel are al gonne from thence.

11 I wyl make Hieruſalem alſo an heape of ſtones, and a denne of venemous wormes: and I wyl make the cities of Iuda ſo waſte, that no man ſhal dwelle therein. Pſal.79.a Mich.iij.c

12 What man is ſo wyſe as to vnderſtande this? or to whom hath the Lorde ſpoken by mouth, that he may ſhewe this, and ſay, O thou lande, why periſheſt thou ſo? Wherefore art thou ſo brent vp, and lyke a wylderneſſe that no man goeth thorowe?

13 Yea the Lorde him ſelfe tolde the ſame vnto them that forſoke his lawe, and kept not the thing that he gaue them in commaundement, neyther liued thereafter:

14 *But folowed the wickedneſſe of their owne hartes, and ſerued ſtrange goddes as their forefathers taught them. C Deut.29.a Ioſu.24.c

15 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, Beholde, I wyl feede this people with wormewood, and geue them galle to drinke.

16 *I wyl ſcatter them alſo among the Heathen, whom neyther they nor their fathers haue knowen: *and I wyl ſende a ſwoorde amōg them to perſecute them, vntyl I bring them to nought. Deut.22.b Iere.23.c Deut.20.c

17 Moreouer, thus ſaith the Lorde of hoſtes, Beware of the vengeance that hangeth ouer you, and cal for mourning wyues, and ſende for wyſe women, that they comme ſhortly,

18 And ſing a mournyng ſong of vs, that the teares may falle out of our eyes, and that our eye lyddes may guſhe out of water.

19 For there is a lamentable noyſe hearde of Sion: O howe are we ſo ſore deſtroyed? O howe are we ſo pitiouſly confounded? We muſt forſake our owne natural countrey, & we are ſhut out of our owne lodginges.

20 Yet heare the woorde of the Lorde (O ye women) & let your eares regard the woordes of his mouth: that ye may learne your daughters to mourne, & that euery one may teache her neyghbour to make lamentation.

D 21 [Namely thus] Death is clymyng vp in at our windowes, he is comme into our houſes, to deſtroy the chylde before the doore, and the young man in the ſtreate.

22 But telle thou playnely, thus ſayth the Lorde: * The dead bodyes of menne ſhal lye vpon the grounde as the dounge vpon the fielde, and as the handful after the mower, and there ſhalbe no man to take them vp.

Iere.7.d and,8.d

23 Thus ſayth the Lorde, Let not the wyſe man reioyce in his wyſedome, nor the ſtrong man in his ſtrength, neyther the ryche man in his riches:

24 But who ſo wyl reioyce, let hym reioyce in this, that he vnderſtandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lorde whiche doo mercie, equitie, and righteouſneſſe vpon the earth: * therefore haue I pleaſure in ſuche thynges, ſayth the Lorde.

Eſai.55.c 1.Cor.1.d. 2.Cor.9.a Mat.9.d. and.12.a Oſee.vi.b

25 Beholde, the tyme commeth (ſayth the Lorde) that I wil viſite al them whoſe foreſkinne is vncircumciſed, and the circumciſed,

26 The Egyptians, yͤ Iewes, the Edomites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, * and the ſhauen Madianites that dwel in the wildernes: for al yͤ Gentiles are al vncircumciſed in the fleaſhe, but al the houſe of Iſrael are vncircumciſed in the hart.

Eſai.47.c

2 Thus ſaith the Lorde, ye ſhal not learne after yͤ manner of the Heathen, & ye ſhal not be afraide for the tokens of heauē: for the Heathen are afrayde of ſuche.

Apoc.15.a

7 Who woulde not feare thee, O kyng of the Gentiles? for thyne is the dominion: for among al the wyſe menne of the gentiles, and in al their kingdomes, there is none that may be lykened vnto thee.

8 They are altogeather brutiſhe and vnwiſe in this one thing: (a) Wood is the teachyng of vanitie.

(a) By wood is ment al kynde of matter whereof images are wont to be made, whiche although they be garniſhed with gold and ſyluer, & clothed in purple and ſilke, & ſet vp, as ſomme menne ſay, to be lay mens bookes, yet teach they nothing ſaith the prophete, but vanitie.

9 Siluer is brought out of Tharſis, and beaten to plates, & golde from Ophir, * a woorke that is made with the hande of the craftesman, and they are clothed with yelowe ſilke & ſcarlet: al theſe are the woorke of cunnyng menne.

17 Geather vp thy wares out of the lande, thou that art in the ſtrong place.

18 For thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde, I wyl nowe throwe as with a ſtone ſlyng, the inhabiters of this lande at this once, and I wil bring trouble vpõ them, that they ſhal proue true the woordes that I haue ſpoken by the prophetes.

19 Alas howe am I hurt? alas howe payneful are my ſcourges vnto me? for I conſyder this ſorowe by my ſelfe, and I muſt ſuffer it.

20 My tabernacle is deſtroyed, and al my cordes are broken, my chyldren are gonne fro me, and can no where be founde: Now haue I none to ſpreade out my tent, nor to ſet vp my hanginges.

22 Beholde, the noyſe is harde at hande, and great ſedition out of the North, to make the cities of Iuda a wyldernеſſe, and a dwelling place for dragons.

The.xi.Chapter.

1 A curſe to them that obey not the woord of Gods promiſe. 10 The people of Iuda, folowyng the ſteppes of their fathers, wooꝛſhippeth ſtrange goddes. 15 The Lorde ſayth that he wyl not heare the Iewes, and forbiddeth alſo Ieremie to pray for them.

A 1 This is a ſermon which the Lorde commaunded Ieremie for to preache, ſayeng,

2 Heare the woordes of this couenant, and ſpeake vnto the menne of Iuda, and to al them that dwelle at Hieruſalem,

3 And ſay vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lorde GOD of Iſrael, *Curſed be euery one that is not obedient vnto the woordes of this couenant, Deut.27. and.28.b Galat.3.b.

4 Whiche I cõmaunded vnto your fathers, what time as I brought them out of Egypt from the iron furnace, ſayeing, *Be obedient vnto my voyce, and doo according to al that I commaunde you, ſo ſhal ye be my people, and I wyl be your God: Exod,19,a

Gen.xv,c. 26.a,&27.c 5 And wyl keepe my promiſe *that I haue ſworne vnto your fathers, [namely] that I woulde geue them a lande whiche floweth with milke and honie, as ye ſee it is comme to paſſe vnto this day. Then anſweared I, and ſayde, Amen: let it be euen ſo Lorde as thou ſayeſt.

6 Then the Lorde ſayde vnto me agayne, Preache this in the cities of Iuda, and round about Hieruſalem, ⁊ ſay, Heare the woordes of this couenant, and keepe them.

B 7 For I haue diligently exhorted your fathers, euer ſince the tyme that I brought them out of the lande of Egypt vnto this day, I gaue them warnyng betymes, ſayeing, Hearken vnto my voyce.

8 *Neuertheleſſe, they woulde not obey me, nor encline their eares vnto me: but folowed the wicked imaginations of theyr owne hartes, and therefore I haue brought vpon them al the woordes of this couenant that I gaue them to keepe, whiche they [notwithſtandyng] haue not kept. Iere.xiij.c

9 And the Lorde ſayde vnto me, It is founde out that whole Iſrael, ⁊ al the cities of Hieruſalem are gonne backe.

10 They haue turned them ſelues to the blaſphemies of their forefathers, whiche had no luſt to heare my woordes: Euen lykewyſe haue theſe alſo folowed ſtrange goddes, and wooꝛſhipped them: The houſe of Iſrael and Iuda haue broken my couenant whiche I made with their fathers.

11 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde, I wyl ſende a plague vpon them, whiche they ſhal not be able to eſcape: and they ſhal crye vnto me, and I wyl not heare them.

12 *Then ſhal the townes of Iuda, and the citizens of Hieruſalem goe ⁊ cal vpon *their goddes vnto whom they made their oblations: but they ſhal not be able to helpe them in tyme of their trouble. Zach.7.b Deut.35.c.

13 *For as many cities as thou haſt, O Iuda, ſo many goddes haſt thou had alſo: ⁊ looke howe many ſtreates there be in thee (O Hieruſalem) ſo many ſhameful aulters haue ye ſet vp, aulters [I ſay] to offer vpon them vnto Baal. Iere.ij.b

14 *Therefore pray not thou for this people, Iere.7.d and.xv,a byd neyther prayſe nor prayer for them: for though they crye vnto me in theyr trouble, yet wyl I not heare them.

15 What part hath my beloued in my houſe, ſeeyng he hath woorked abomination, ſeruyng many goddes? Agge,2.b *The holy fleaſhe offerynges in the temple are gonne from thee [O Iuda] and thou when thou haſt donne euyl, makeſt thy boaſt of it.

Iere,17.d Mat,7.b Rom,11.c 16 *The Lord called thee a greene Oliue tree, a fayre one, a fruiteful one, a goodly one: but with great clamour hath the enimie ſet fyre vpon it, and the branches of it are deſtroyed.

17 For the Lorde of hoſtes that planted thee, hath deuiſed a plague for thee (O thou houſe of Iſrael and Iuda) for the euyl that ye haue donne to prouoke hym to wrath, in that ye dyd ſeruice to Baal.

18 This (O Lorde) haue I learned of thee, and vnderſtande it: for thou haſt ſhewed me their imaginations.

Eſai,53.b 19 *But I am as a meeke lambe, an oxe that is caryed away to be ſlayne, not knowyng that they had deuiſed ſuche a counſayle agaynſt me, [ſayeing,] *We wyl deſtroy his meate with wood, and driue hym out of the lande of the liuing, that his name ſhal neuer be thought vpon. Iere,18.b

20 Therefore *I wyl beſeeche thee nowe (O Lorde of hoſtes) thou ryghteous iudge, thou that tryeſt the reynes and the hartes, let me ſee thee auenged of them: for vnto thee haue I committed my cauſe. Iere,20.a and,17.b

21 The Lorde therefore ſpake thus of the citizens of Anathoth that ſought to ſlay me, ſaying, *Preache not vnto vs in the name of the Lorde, or els thou ſhalt dye of our handes: D Eſai,30.d Amos,7.d

22 Thus [I ſay] ſpake the Lord of hoſtes, Beholde, I wyl viſite you, your young menne ſhal periſhe with the ſwoorde, your ſonnes and your daughters ſhal vtterly dye of hunger,

23 So that none ſhal remayne: for vpon the citizens of Anathoth wyl I bryng a plague, euen the yeere of theyr viſitation.

The.xii.Chapter.

1 The prophete marueyleth greatly at the proſperitie of the wycked, although he confeſſe God to be righteous. 7 The Iewes are forſaken of the Lorde. 10 He ſpeaketh agaynſt curates and preachers that ſeduce the people. 14 The Lorde threatneth deſtruction vnto the nations that bordered vpon Iurie, whiche troubled and vexed it.

A 1 O Lord, thou art more righteous, then that I ſhoulde diſpute with thee: neuertheleſſe, let me talke with thee in thynges reaſonable. Iob.21.a Abac.1.b Pſal.73.a *Howe happeneth it that the way of the vngodly is ſo proſperous? and that it goeth ſo wel with them whiche without any ſhame offende, and liue in wickedneſſe?

2 Thou planteſt them, they take roote, they growe, and bryng foorth fruite: they boaſt muche of thee, yet art thou farre from theyr (a) reynes.

(a) By the reynes he meaneth the inward affections and ſecretie of the mynde.

3 But thou Lorde, to whom I am wel knowen, thou that haſt ſeene and prooued my hart, *take them away, lyke as a flocke is caried to the ſlaughter houſe, & appoynt them for the day of ſlaughter. 2,Pet.2,c.

Iere,14.a 4 Howe long ſhal the lande mourne, *and al the hearbes of the feelde periſhe for the wickedneſſe of them that dwel therin? The catel and the birdes are gonne, yet ſay they, Tuſhe, *God wil not deſtroy vs vtterly. Deu,19.c. Iere,5.b and,23.e. Sopho.1.e

5 Seeyng thou art weery in runnyng with the footemenne, howe wilt thou then runne with horſes? In a peaceable ſure lande thou mayeſt be ſafe: but howe wylt thou doo in the furious pride of Iordane?

6 For thy brethren and thy kinrede haue altogeather deſpiſed thee, and cryed out vpon thee altogeather: *Beleue them not though they ſpeake fayre woordes to thee. Iere.9.a

7 As for me [I ſay] I haue forſaken mine owne dwelling place, and left mine heritage: my life alſo that I loue ſo wel, haue I geuen into the handes of mine enimies. B

8 *Mine heritage is become vnto me as a lion in the wood: it cryed out vpon me, therefore haue I forſaken it. Eſai,19.e

9 Is not mine heritage vnto me as a ſpeckled birde? are not the birdes rounde about agaynſt her? Comme and geather ye togeather al the beaſtes of the feelde, comme, that ye may eate it vp.

10 *Diuers heardmen haue broken downe my *vineyarde, and troden vpon my portion: of my pleaſant portion they haue made a wyldernesſe and deſart. Eſai,56.c Eſai.5.a.

11 They haue layde it waſte, and nowe that it is waſte, it ſigheth vnto me: yea the whole lande lyeth waſte, and no man regardeth it.

12 The deſtroyers comme ouer the borders in the deſart euery way: for the ſwoorde of the Lorde dooth conſume from the one ende of the lande to the other, and no fleaſhe hath reaſt.

XUM

13 They haue ſowen wheate, & reaped thornes, they haue taken heritage in poſſeſſion, but it dooth them no good: and they were aſhamed of your fruites, becauſe of yͤ great wrath of the Lorde.

C 14 Thus ſayth the Lorde vpon al my euyl neighbours that lay hande vpon mine heritage whiche I haue poſſeſſed, euen my people of Iſrael: Beholde, I wyl plucke them [namely Iſrael] out of their lande, and put out the houſe of Iuda from among them.

Deut,4.c. &,30,a. Eſai,53,b
15 *And when I haue rooted them out, I wil be at one with them agayne, and I wil haue mercy vpon them, * and bring them againe euery man to his owne heritage, and into his lande. 1,Eſd,1,a

16 And yf they [namely that trouble my people] wyl learne the wayes of them to ſweare by my name, The Lorde liueth: lyke as they learned my people to ſweare by Baal, then ſhal they be built among my people:

17 *But yf they wyl not obey, then wyl I roote out the ſame folke, and deſtroy them, ſayth the Lorde. Mat,22,b

The.xiii.Chapter.

1 The deſtruction of the Iewes is prefigured, and theyr ſparſyng abroade. 11 Why Iſrael was receiued to be the people of God, and why they were forſaken.

A 1 Thus ſayth the Lorde vnto me, Goe thy way and geat thee a linnen girdle, & gird it about thy loines, let it not be wet.

2 Then I got me a girdle accordyng to the commaundement of the Lorde, and put it about my loynes.

3 After this, the ſeconde tyme the Lord ſpake vnto me agayne,

4 Take the gyrdle that thou haſt prepared, and put about thee, and geat thee vp, and goe vnto Euphrates, and hyde it there in a hole of the rocke:

5 So went I, and hyd it at Euphrates, as the Lorde commaunded me.

6 And it happened long after this, that the Lorde ſpake vnto me: Up, and geat thee to Euphrates, and fetch the girdle from thence, whiche I commaunded thee to hyde there.

B 7 Then went I to Euphrates, & digged vp, and tooke the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and beholde, the girdle was corrupt, ſo that it was profitable for nothyng.

8 Then ſayde the Lorde vnto me,

9 Thus ſayth the Lorde, Euen ſo wil I corrupt the pride of Iuda, and the high minde of Hieruſalem.

Iere,7.c 11,b,18.c and,19,c
10 This people is a wicked people, they wil not heare my woorde, they folowe the wycked imaginations of theyr owne hart, and hang vpon ſtrange goddes, them they ſerue and woorſhyp, and therefore they ſhalbe as this breeche that ſerueth for nothyng.

11 For as ſtrayghtly as a gyrdle lyeth vpon a mans loynes, ſo ſtrayghtly dyd I bynde the whole houſe of Iſrael, and the whole houſe of Iuda vnto me, ſaith the Lord: *that they myght be my people, that they myght haue a glorious name, that they myght be in honour: but they woulde not obey me.
Deut.4.c. and.26.d Iere,30,d

12 Therefore lay this riddle before them, & ſay, Thus ſaith the Lorde God of Iſrael, Euery pot ſhalbe filled with wine. And they ſhal ſay vnto thee, Thinkeſt thou we know not that euery pot ſhalbe filled with wine?

13 Then ſhalt thou ſay vnto them, Thus ſaith the Lorde, Beholde, I ſhal fyl al the inhabitours of this lande with drunkenneſſe, the kings that ſit vpon Dauids ſtoole, yͤ prieſtes and prophetes, with al that dwel at Hieruſalem.

14 And I wil ſet them one agaynſt another, yea the fathers agaynſt the ſonnes, ſayth the Lorde: I wyl not pardon them, I wyl not ſpare them, nor haue pitie vpon them: but deſtroy them. C

15 Heare, geue eare, take not diſdayne at it: for it is the Lorde hym ſelfe that ſpeaketh.

16 Honour the Lorde your God or he take his light from you, & or euer your feete ſtumble in darkneſſe at the hyl, leſt when you looke for the lyght, he turne it into the ſhadowe and darkneſſe of death.

17 But yf ye wil not heare me that geue you ſecrete warnyng, I wyl mourne from my whole hart for your ſtubburneſſe: *Piteouſly wil I weepe, and the teares ſhal guſhe out of mine eyes, for the Lordes flocke ſhalbe caried away captiue. Iere,31.c Thre,1.a

18 Tel the king and the queene, humble your ſelues, ſit you downe lowe, for your dignitie ſhalbe throwen downe, and the crowne of your glory ſhal fal from your head.

19 The cities towarde the ſouth ſhalbe ſhut vp, and no man ſhal open them: al Iuda ſhalbe caried away captiue, ſo that none ſhal remayne.

20 Lyft vp your eyes, and beholde them that comme from the north, where is the flocke [O thou lande] that was geuen thee? and Where are thy fat and riche ſheepe?

D 21 * To whom wylt thou make thy mone when the enimie ſhal comme vpon thee? for thou haſt taught them thy ſelfe, and made them maiſters ouer thee: Shal not ſorowe comme vpon thee as on a woman trauaylyng with childe? Iere,19.a Eſai.13.b

22 And if thou wouldeſt then ſay in thine hart, wherefore comme theſe thynges vpon me? * Euen for the multitude of thy blaſphemies ſhal thy hynder partes and thy feete be diſcouered. Iere.15.b

23 May a man of Inde change his ſkinne, and the cat of the mountayne her ſpottes? ſo, may ye that be exerciſed in euil, doo good?

24 Therefore wyl I ſcatter them lyke as the ſtubble that is taken away with the ſouth winde.

25 This ſhalbe your portion, and the portion of your meaſure wherwith ye ſhalbe rewarded of me, ſayth the Lorde, becauſe ye haue forgotten me, and put your truſt in deceiptful thinges.

26 * Therefore ſhal I turne thy clothes ouer thy head, and diſcouer thy ſhame. Ozee, 2.b

27 Thy adulteries, thy neyghynges, thy ſhameful whordome on the hylles in the feeldes, and thy abominations haue I ſeene: Wo be vnto thee (O Hieruſalem) wilt thou neuer be cleanſed any more? Or when ſhal that be?

The.xiiii.Chapter.

1 Of the dearth that ſhoulde comme in Iurie. 7 The prayer of the people aſkyng mercie of the Lorde. 10 The vnfaythful people are not hearde. 12 Of prayer, faſtyng, & of falſe prophetes that ſeduce the people.

A 1 The woorde of the Lorde ſhewed vnto Ieremie concerning the dearth of the fruites.

2 Iuda hath mourned, his gates are deſolate, they are brought to heauineſſe, euen vnto the grounde, and the crie of Hieruſalem goeth vp.

3 The lordes ſent their ſeruantes to fetche water, and when they came to the welles, they did finde no water, but caried theyr veſſels home emptie: they be aſhamed and confounded, and couer theyr heades.

4 * For the grounde is dryed, becauſe there commeth no rayne vpon it: the plowmen alſo be aſhamed, and couer theyr heades. Iere,23.b

5 The Hinde alſo forſooke the young fawne that he brought foorth in the feelde, becauſe there was no graſſe.

6 The wilde Aſſes did ſtande in the high places, and drewe in their winde lyke the dragons, their eyes did fayle for want of graſſe.

B 7 Doubtleſſe our owne wyckedneſſe dooth rewarde vs: but Lorde doo thou accordyng to thy name, though our tranſgreſſion and ſinnes be many, and agaynſt thee haue we ſinned.

8 * For thou art the comfort and helpe of Iſrael in the tyme of trouble: Why wylt thou be as a ſtranger in the lande, and as one that goeth his iourney, and commeth in only to remayne for a night? Eſai.49.b Iere.16.c, and.17.c,

9 Why wilt thou make thy ſelfe a cowarde, & as it were a giant that yet may not helpe? But thou, O Lorde, art in the middeſt of vs, and thy name is called vpon of vs, forſake vs not.

10 Thus hath the Lorde ſayde vnto his people, ſeeyng they haue had ſuch a luſt to wander abroade, and haue not refrayned theyr feete: therefore the Lorde hath no pleaſure in them, but he wyl nowe bryng agayne to remembrance al their miſdeedes, and pouniſhe al their ſinnes.

11 Yea euen thus ſayde the Lorde vnto me, *Thou ſhalt not pray to do this people good. Iere.7.d

12 For though they faſt, I wil not heare their prayers, & though they offer burnt offeringes and ſacrifices, yet wyl not I accept them: for I wyl deſtroy them with the ſwoorde, hunger, and peſtilence.

13 Then anſweared I, O Lorde God, * the prophetes ſay vnto them, Tuſhe, ye ſhal *neede to feare no ſwoorde, & no hunger ſhal comme vpon you: but the Lorde ſhal geue you ſure reaſt in this place. Iere.5.d Sopho.1.e Iere.12.a and.23.c

14 And the Lorde ſayde vnto me, The prophetes preache lyes in my name, whereas I haue not *ſent them, neyther gaue I them any charge, neither did I ſpeake vnto them: yet they preache vnto you falſe viſions, charming, vanitie, and deceiptfulneſſe of theyr owne hart. C Iere.23.d

15 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde, As for thoſe prophetes that preache in my name, whom I neuertheleſſe haue not ſent, & that ſay, Tuſhe, there ſhal no ſwoorde nor hunger be in this lande: * With ſwoorde & with hunger ſhal thoſe prophetes periſhe, Zach.13.a

16 And the people to whom they preache, ſhalbe caſt out of Hieruſalem, dye of hunger, and be ſlayne with the ſwoorde, * and there ſhalbe no man to bury them, both they, and Iere,16.a

their wiues, theyr ſonnes, and their daughters: for thus wyl I powre theyr wyckedneſſe vpon them.

Thre.1.d and.2.e 17 This ſhalt thou ſay alſo vnto them, *Mine eyes ſhal weepe without ceaſſyng day and nyght: for my people ſhalbe deſtroyed with great harme, and ſhal periſhe with a great plague.

18 For yf I goe into the feelde, loe, it lyeth al ful of ſlayne menne: If I comme into the citie, loe, they be al famiſhed of hunger: yea theyr prophetes alſo and prieſtes ſhalbe ledde into an vnknowen lande.

19 Haſt thou then vtterly forſaken Iuda? Dooeſt thou ſo abhorre Sion? Wherefore haſt thou ſo plagued vs that we can not be healed no more? *We looked for peace, and there commeth no good: for yͤ time of health, and loe, here is nothyng but trouble. Iere.8.c

20 We knowledge (O Lorde) al our miſdeedes, and the ſinnes of our fathers: for we haue offended thee.

21 Caſt vs not of (O Lorde) for thy names ſake, *forgeat not thy louing kindneſſe, ouerthrowe not the (a) throne of thyne honour, breake not the couenant that thou haſt made with vs. Eſai.49.d

(a) The temple at Hieruſalem is called the ſeate of Gods honour, becauſe he had appoynted that place wherein ſpecially to be honoured, and there to ſhewe the tokens of his honourable preſence.

22 *Are there any among the gods of the gentiles that ſende rayne, or geue the ſhowres from heauen? Art not thou thy ſelfe our Lorde God? We wyl truſt in thee, for thou dooeſt al theſe thynges.

The.xv.Chapter.

1 The Lorde wyl not heare Moſes or Samuel yf they pray for the people, but wyl wrappe them in many miſeries. 4 The cauſe of ſuche great miſeries.

Iere.7.d 11.c.14.b. Eze.14.c A 1 Thus ſpake the Lorde vnto me, *Though Moſes and Samuel ſtoode before me, yet haue I no hart to this people: driue them away, that they may goe out of my ſight.

2 And yf they ſay vnto thee, Whither ſhal we goe? them tel them, The Lorde geueth you this anſweare: *Somme vnto death, ſomme to the ſwoorde, ſomme to hunger, ſomme into captiuitie. Ezech.5.c

3 For I wil bring foure plagues vpon them, ſayth the Lorde: the ſwoord ſhal ſlay them, the dogges ſhal teare them in peeces, *the fowles of the ayre, and beaſtes of the earth, ſhal eate them vp and deſtroy them. Iere.16.a

4 I wyl ſcatter them about alſo in al kyngdomes and landes to be plagued, becauſe of *Manaſſes the ſonne of Hezekia kyng of Iuda, for the thynges that he did in Hieruſalem. 4.Re.21.a

5 Who ſhal then haue pitie vpon thee, O Hieruſalem, who ſhalbe ſorie for thee? Or who ſhal make interceſſion to obtayne peace for thee?

6 Seeyng thou goeſt from me, and turneſt backwarde, ſayth the Lorde: therefore I did ſtretche out myne hande agaynſt thee to deſtroy thee, and I haue benne ſory for thee ſo long, that I am weerie.

B 7 I haue ſcattered them abroade with the fanne, on euery ſide of the land, *I haue waſted my people and deſtroyed them, yet they haue had no luſt to turne from theyr owne wayes. Iere.7.c

8 I haue made theyr wydowes mo in number then the ſandes of the ſea, vpon the mothers of their children did I bring a deſtroyer in the noone day, *ſuddenly and vnawares dyd I ſende a feare vpon theyr cities. 1.Theſ.5.a

9 She that hath borne ſeuen chyldren, hath none, her hart is ful of ſorowe: *the ſunne dooth fayle her in the cleare day, ſhe is confounded and fayntie for very heauineſſe: As for thoſe that remayne, I wyl deliuer them vnto the ſwoorde before theyr enimies, ſayth the Lorde. Amos.8.d

10 *O mother, alas that thou euer didſt beare me, a brawler & rebuker of the whole lande: though I neuer lent nor receiued vpon vſurie, yet al menne ſpeake euil vpon me. Iere.20.d

11 And the Lorde anſweared me, Verely thy (a) remnant ſhal haue wealth: Comme not I to thee when thou art in trouble, and helpe thee when thine enimie oppreſſeth thee?

(a) By the remnant is meant the times toward the laſt ende of his lyfe, when God cauſed Nabuzaradan to ſhewe fauour vnto Ieremie Iere.xl.

12 Dooth one iron hurt another? or one metal that commeth from the north another?

13 *As for thy riches and treaſure, I wyl geue them out into a pray: not for money, but becauſe of al thy ſinnes that thou haſt donne in al thy coaſtes. Iere.17.a and.20.b

14 *And I wil bring thee with thine enimies into a lande that thou knoweſt not: for the fyre that is kindled in mine indignation ſhal burne you vp. C Deut.32.c

15 O Lorde, thou knoweſt, therefore remember me, and viſite me, reuenge me of my perſecutours: take me not from this lyfe in the tyme of thyne anger, thou knoweſt that for thy ſake I ſuffer rebuke.

16 *When I had founde thy woordes, I dyd eate them vp greedily, they haue made my hart ioyful and glad: for thy name was called Pſal.19. Eze.3.a

(b) I am called thy prophete.

(b) called vpon me, O Lorde God of hoſtes.

17 I dwel not among the ſcorners, neyther is my delight therein: but I dwel alone becauſe of thy hande, for thou haſt fylled me with bitterneſſe.

18 Shal my heauineſſe endure for euer? Are my plagues then ſo great that they may neuer be healed? Wylt thou be as one that is falſe, and as a water that falleth, and can not continue?

19 Upon theſe woordes, thus ſayde the Lorde vnto me, If thou wylt turne agayne, I ſhal ſet thee in my ſeruice, and yf thou wylt take out the thinges that is precious from the vile, thou ſhalt be euen as myne owne mouth: *they ſhal conuert vnto thee, but turne not thou vnto them. Iere.21.a

20 And ſo ſhal I make thee a ſtrong braſen wal agaynſt this people: *They ſhal fyght agaynſt thee, but they ſhal not preuayle: for I my ſelfe wyl be with thee, to helpe thee, and deliuer thee, ſayth the Lorde: Iere.1.c

21 And I wyl rid thee out of the handes of the wycked, and deliuer thee out of the handes of tyrantes.

The.xvi.Chapter.

1 He prophecieth the miſerie of the Iewes. 2 He ſheweth that the woorſhyppyng of images and the contempt of Gods lawe, is cauſe of theyr miſerie. 13 He prophecieth the captiuitie of Babylon, and theyr deliuerance from thence agayne. 19 The callyng of the gentiles.

A 1 Thus ſayde the Lorde vnto me,

2 Thou ſhalt take thee no wyfe, nor begeat chyldren in this place.

3 For of the children that are borne in this place, of theyr mothers that haue borne them, and of theyr fathers that haue begotten them in this lande, thus ſayth the Lorde.

Leuit.10.d Iere,14.e 4 They ſhal dye an horrible death, *no man ſhal weepe for them, nor bury them, but they ſhal lye as doung vpon the earth: they ſhal periſhe through the ſwoorde and hunger, *and their bodies ſhalbe meate for the foules of the ayre, and beaſtes of the earth. Pſal.29.a Iere.15.a

5 For thus ſayth the Lorde, Goe not thou into the houſe of mournyng, nor comme to mourne and weepe for them: For I haue taken my peace from this people, ſayth the Lorde, yea my fauour and my mercies.

6 And in this lande ſhal they dye olde and young, and ſhal not be buried: no man ſhal beweepe them, no man ſhal clippe nor ſhaue hym ſelfe for them.

B 7 They ſhal not wryng theyr handes in mourning wiſe on theyr dead, one to comfort another: one ſhal not offer another the cuppe of conſolation, to forgeat theyr heauineſſe for their father and mother.

1.Cor.15.b 8 *Thou ſhalt not goe into theyr feaſt houſe, to ſit downe to eate or drynke with them:

9 For thus ſaith the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael: *Beholde, I ſhal take away out of this place the voyce of myrth and gladneſſe, the voyce of the brydegrome and of the bryde, yea and that in your dayes, that ye may ſee it. Iere.7.d &,25,b.

10 Nowe when thou ſheweſt this people al theſe woordes, & they ſay vnto thee, *Wherefore hath the Lorde deuiſed al this great plague for vs? or what is the offence and ſinne that we haue donne agaynſt the Lorde our God? Iere,5.d

11 Then make thou them this anſweare, *Becauſe your fathers haue forſaken me, ſayth the Lorde, and haue walked after ſtrange gods, whom they honoured and woorſhipped: but me haue they forſaken, and haue not keapt my lawe. Deut.4.d Iere.7.b

12 *And ye with your ſhameful blaſphemies haue exceeded the wyckedneſſe of your fathers: for euery one of you hath folowed the froward and euil imaginations of his owne hart, and is not obedient vnto me. Iere.7.d

13 *Therefore wil I caſt you out of this land, into a lande that ye and your fathers knowe not: and there ſhal ye ſerue ſtrange goddes day and nyght, there wyl I ſhewe you no fauour. Deut.28.c

14 *Behold therfore, ſaith the Lord, the dayes are comme that it ſhal no more be ſayd, The Lorde liueth whiche brought the children of Iſrael out of the lande of Egypt: C Iere,23.b

15 But it ſhalbe ſaide, The Lorde liueth that brought yͤ children of Iſrael from the north, and from al landes where he had ſcattered them: for I wyl bryng them agayne into the lande that I gaue theyr fathers.

16 Beholde, ſayth the Lorde, *I wyl ſende out many fiſſhers to take them, and after that wyl I ſende out many hunters, to hunt them out from al mountaynes and hylles, and out of the caues of ſtone. Mat.4.c

17 For mine eyes behold al theyr wayes, and they can not be hyd fro my face: neyther can their wicked deedes be keapt cloſe out of my ſyght.

18 But firſt wyl I ſufficiently rewarde theyr ſhameful blaſphemies and ſinnes, becauſe they haue defiled my land(a) with theyr ſtinkyng carions, & theyr abominations, wherewith they haue filled mine heritage.

(a) Gods ſeruice donne accordyng to his woord, ſauoureth ſweetely, that is, pleaſeth God: but Gods ſeruice and worſhyp without his worde, dooth ſauour lyke carion, that is, is abhorred, & muche diſpleaſeth God.

19 *O Lorde my ſtrength, my power and refuge in tyme of trouble: the gentiles ſhal comme vnto thee from the endes of the worlde, and ſay, Veryly our fathers haue cleaued vnto lyes, theyr idols are but vayne and vnprofitable.

20 Howe can a man make thoſe his goddes, whiche are not able to be gods?

21 And therefore I wyl once teache them, ſaith the Lord, I wyl ſhewe them my hande and my power, & they ſhal know that my name is the Lorde.

The xvii. Chapter.

1 The frowardneſſe of the Iewes. 5 Curſed be thoſe that put theyr confidence in man, and thoſe bleſſed that truſt in God. 9 Mans hart is wicked. 10 God is the ſearcher of the hart. 13 The liuing waters are forſaken. 21 The halowyng of the Sabboth is commaunded.

A 1 Your ſinne [O ye of the tribe of Iuda] is written in the table of your hartes, and grauen ſo vpon the edges of your aulters with a penne of iron, and with an Adamant clawe:

2 That as the fathers thinke vpon their children, ſo thinke you alſo vpon your aulters, woddes, thicke trees, high hylles, mountaynes, and feeldes.

Iere.15.b and.20.b 3 *[Wherefore] O my mount that ſtandeth in the feelde, I wyl make al thy ſubſtance and treaſure to be ſpoyled, for the great ſinne that thou haſt donne vpon thy high places thorowe out al the coaſtes of thy lande.

4 Thou ſhalt be caſt out alſo from the heritage that I gaue thee: and I wyl ſubdue thee vnder the heauie bondage of thy enimies, in a lande that thou knoweſt not: for thou haſt miniſtred fire to mine indignation, whiche ſhal burne euermore.

5 Thus ſayth the Lord, *Curſed be the man that putteth his truſt in man, & that taketh fleaſhe for his arme, and he whoſe hart departeth from the Lorde. Pſal.49.d Prou.11.e. Iere.46.c and. 48.a Ezec.29.a

6 He ſhalbe lyke the heath that groweth in wylderneſſe: As for the good thyng that is for to comme, he ſhal not ſee it, but dwelle in a drye place of the wylderneſſe, in a ſalte and vnoccupied lande.

B 7 *O bleſſed is the man that putteth his truſt in the Lord, and whoſe hope is in the Lorde hym ſelfe. Pſal.2.b &.39.c. Pro.22.c

8 *For he ſhalbe as a tree that is planted by the water ſyde, which ſpreadeth out the roote vnto moyſtneſſe, whom the heate can not harme when it commeth, but his leafe ſhalbe greene: And though there growe but litle fruite becauſe of drouth, yet is he not careful, but he neuer leaueth of to bryng foorth fruite. Pſal.1.a Pro.11.d

9 Among al thynges, man hath the moſte deceiptful and ſtubburne hart: Who ſhal then knowe it?

10 Euen I the Lorde ſearche out the ground of the hart, and trye the raynes, and reward euery man accordyng to his wayes, and accordyng to the fruite of his workes. Iere.11.d Apoc,2.d Pſal.7.b. Rom.2.a

11 *The Partriche maketh a neſt of egges, whiche ſhe layed not: he commeth by riches, but not righteouſly, in the myddeſt of his life muſt he leaue them behinde hym, and at the laſt be founde a very foole. Pro.23.a Pſal.52.b Luke,13.b

12 But thou (O Lord) whoſe throne is moſt glorious, excellent, and of moſt antiquitie, whiche dwelleſt in the place of our holy reſt:

13 Thou art the comfort of Iſrael, al they that forſake thee ſhalbe confounded, al they that doo depart from thee ſhalbe written in earth: *for they haue forſaken the Lord the very conduite of the waters of lyfe. Iere,3.b Eze,36.d Iohn.4.b

14 Heale me, O Lorde, and I ſhalbe whole: ſaue thou me, and I ſhalbe ſaued: for thou art my prayſe. C

15 Behold, theſe menne ſay vnto me, Where is the woorde of the Lord? let it comme nowe.

16 Whereas I neuertheleſſe obediently folowed thee as a ſheepehearde, and haue not vncalled taken this office vpon me, this knoweſt thou wel: my woordes alſo were right before thee.

17 Be not thou terrible vnto me, O Lorde: *for thou art he in whom I hope when I am in peril. Iere.14.a and.26.b

18 Let my perſecuters be confounded, but not me: let them be afrayde, and not me: Thou ſhalt bryng vpon them the tyme of plague, and ſhalt deſtroy them ryght ſoare.

19 Thus hath the Lorde ſayde vnto me, *Goe and ſtande vnder the gate wherethrough the people and the kynges of Iuda goe out & in, yea vnder al the gates of Hieruſalem, Iere.8.a and. 26.a

20 And ſay vnto them, Heare the woorde of the Lorde ye kynges of Iuda, and al thou people of Iuda, and al the citizens of Hieruſalem, that goe through this gate.

22 Ye ſhal beare no burthen alſo out of your houſes in the Sabboth, you ſhal doo no labour therein: but halowe the Sabboth, * as I commaunded your fathers.

23 Howbeit they obeyed me not, neither hearkened they vnto me: but were obſtinate and ſtubburne, & neyther obeyed me, nor receiued my correction.

24 Neuertheleſſe, yf ye wyl heare me, ſayth the Lorde, and beare no burthen into the citie through this gate vpon the Sabboth, yf ye wyl halowe the Sabboth, ſo that ye doo no worke therein:

25 Then ſhal there goe through the gates of this citie kynges and princes that ſhal ſitte vpon the throne of Dauid, they ſhalbe caried vpon charrettes, and ryde vpon horſes, both they and theyr princes: yea whole Juda and al the citizens of Hieruſalem ſhal goe here through, and this citie ſhal euer be inhabited.

26 There ſhal comme menne alſo from the cities of Juda, from about Hieruſalem, and from the land of Beniamin, from the playne feeldes, from the mountaynes, and from the wylderneſſe, whiche ſhal bryng burnt offerynges, ſacrifices, oblations, and incenſe, and offer vp thankeſgeuyng in the houſe of the Lorde.

27 But yf ye wyl not be obedient vnto me, to halowe the Sabboth, ſo that ye wyl beare your burthens through the gates of Hieruſalem vpon the Sabboth: then ſhal I ſet fyre vpon the gates of Hieruſalem, & it ſhal burne vp the houſes of Hieruſalem, and no man ſhalbe able to quenche it.

2 God ſheweth by the example of a potter, that it is in his power to deſtroy the deſpiſers of his woord, and to helpe them agayne when they amende. 18 The conſpiracie of the Jewes agaynſt Jeremie. 19 His prayer agaynſt his aduerſaries.

A 1 This is another communication that god had with Jeremie, ſayeing,

3 Nowe when I came to the potters houſe, I founde hym makyng his worke vpon a wheele.

The.xix.Chapter.

1 He prophecieth the deſtruction of Hieruſalem, for the contempt and deſpiſyng of the woorde of God.

A 1 Thus ſayd the Lorde, Goe thy way and buye thee an earthen pitcher, and bring foorth the ſenatours and cheefe prieſtes,

2 Unto the valley of the children of Hennom, whiche lyeth without the eaſt gate, and ſhewe them there the woordes that I ſhal tel thee.

3 And ſay thus vnto them, Heare the woorde of the Lorde ye kynges of Iuda, and ye citizens of Hieruſalem, *thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael: * Beholde, I wyl bryng ſuche a plague vpon this place, that the eares of al that heare it ſhal glowe: 3.Reg.21.c Iere.6.d

4 And that becauſe they haue forſaken me, and vnhalowed this place, and haue offered in it vnto ſtrange gods, whom neyther they, their fathers, nor the kynges of Iuda haue knowen: they haue filled this place alſo with the blood of innocentes.

Deut.12.d &.28.b Pſal.106.c Ezec.16.c. and.20.d 5 *And they haue ſet vp an aulter vnto Baal, to burne theyr chyldren for a burnt offeryng vnto Baal, whiche I neither commaunded nor charged them, neyther thought once thereupon.

Iere.7.d 6 Behold therfore, *the tyme commeth (ſayth the Lord) that this place ſhal no more be called Thopheth, nor the valley of the children of Hennom, but the valley of ſlaughter.

B 7 For in this place wil I bring to nought the counſayle of Iuda and Hieruſalem, and kille them downe with the ſwoorde before theyr enimies: and I wyl deliuer them into the handes of them that ſeeke theyr lyues, and theyr dead carkaſſes wyl I geue to be meate for the foules of the ayre, & the beaſtes of the feelde.

8 And I wyl make this citie ſo deſolate and deſpiſed, * that whoſoeuer goeth thereby, ſhalbe abaſhed, and ieſt vpon her, becauſe of al her plagues. 3.Re.10.f. Iere.18.d. 49.&.50.b

9 * I wyl feede them alſo with the fleaſhe of theyr ſonnes and theyr daughters, * yea euery one ſhal eate vp another in the beſiegyng and ſtraytneſſe wherewith theyr enimies [that ſeeke theyr liues] ſhal kepe them in. Thre.4.b Deut.27.c 4.Re.6.f

10 And the pitcher ſhalt thou breake in the ſight of the menne that goeth with thee,

11 And ſay vnto them, thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes: * Euen ſo wyl I deſtroy this people and citie, as a man breaketh an earthen veſſel that can not be made whole agayne: *in Thopheth ſhal they be buried, for they ſhal haue none other place. Iere.17.a Iere.7.d

12 Thus wyl I doo vnto this place alſo, ſaith the Lorde, and to them that dwel therin, yea I wyl make this citie as Thopheth.

13 For the houſes of Hieruſalem, and the houſes of the kynges of Iuda ſhalbe defiled lyke as Thopheth, and ſo ſhal al the houſes in whoſe roofes they did ſacrifice vnto al the hoſt of heauen, and powred drinke offerings vnto ſtrange gods.

14 And ſo Ieremie came from Thopheth where the Lorde had ſent hym to propheſie, and ſtoode in the court of the houſe of the Lorde, and ſpake to al the people, C

15 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, Beholde, I wil bring vpon this citie, & vpon euery towne about it, al the plagues that I haue deuiſed agaynſt them, * becauſe they haue benne obſtinate, and woulde not obey my warnynges. Iere.7.c

2 Ieremie is ſmitten and caſt into priſon for preaching the woorde of God. 4 He prophecieth the captiuitie of Babylon. 7 He complayneth that he is a mockyng ſtocke for the woorde of God. 9 He is compelled by the ſpirite to preache ths woorde.

A 1 WHEN Phashur the prieſt ẏ ſonne of Emmer, chiefe in the houſe of the Lorde, hearde Ieremie preache theſe wordes [ſo ſtedfaſtly.]

John.18.c Actes,14.a 2 *He ſmote Ieremie, and put him in the priſon that is in the hygh gate of Beniamin, towardes the houſe of the Lorde.

3 The next day folowyng, Phashur brought Ieremie out of the priſon agayne: Then ſaid Ieremie vnto hym, The Lorde ſhal cal thee no more Phashur [that is excellent and increaſing] but Magor [that is feareful and afrayde] euery where.

4 For thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde, I wyl make thee afrayde, euen thy ſelfe, and al that fauour thee, whiche ſhal peryſhe with the ſwoord of their enimies, euen before thy face, and I wil geue whole Iuda into the handes of the kyng of Babylon, whiche ſhal carrie ſomme vnto Babylon priſoners, and ſlay ſomme with the ſwoorde.

4.Re.20.e. Iere,xv,c and,xvij,a 5 *Moreouer, al the ſubſtance of this citie, whatſoeuer they haue gotten with their trauayle, al their pretious thynges, and al the treaſure of the kynges of Iuda, wyl I geue into the handes of their enimies, whiche ſhal ſpoyle them, and carrie them vnto Babylon.

6 But as for thee (O Phashur) thou ſhalt goe into captiuitie with al thyne houſholde, and to Babylon ſhalt thou comme, where thou ſhalt dye, and be buryed, thou & al thy fauourers to whom thou haſt preached lyes.

B 7 (a) O Lord, if I am deceiued, then haſt thou deceiued me, thou enforcedſt me, and haſt preuayled: dayly am I deſpiſed and laughed to ſcorne of euery man.

(a) The prophete aſſureth the trueth of his doctrine, agaynſt the ſlanderer, for it is ẏ woorde of God, who cannot deceiue nor be deceiued

8 For ſince I began to preache, I cryed out agaynſt violencie, and exclaymed againſt oppreſſion:* for the whiche cauſe they caſt the woorde of the Lorde in my teeth, to my reproche continually. Iere,vi,b

9 Wherefore I thought from hencefoorth not to ſpeake of hym, nor to preache any more in his name: but the woorde of the Lorde was a very burnyng fyre in my hart and in my bones, whiche when I would haue ſtopped, I myght not.

10 Verely I heard the euyl reportes of many, terrour was on euery ſyde of me: (b) cōplaine vpon hym, ſay they, and we wyl tel his tale: Yea al myne owne companions, and ſuche as were conuerſant with me, lay in wayte for my haltyng, ſayeing, Peraduenture he wyl be deceiued, & ſo ſhal we preuaile againſt hym, and be auenged of hym.

(b) The prieſtes and ſuche as were in aucthoritie with the king, ſtyrred vp, the people to watche narrowly Ieremies ſaieings, if they coulde fynde hym to halt in any thing, wherefore thei might accuſe hym to the kyng.

11 But the Lorde ſtoode by me lyke a mightie giant, therefore my perſecutours fel, and coulde doo nothing: they ſhalbe ſore confounded, for they haue donne vnwyſely, they ſhal haue an euerlaſting ſhame, which ſhal neuer be forgotten.

12 *And nowe, O Lorde of hoſtes, that tryeſt the ryghteous, whiche knoweſt the raynes & the very hartes, let me ſee them pouniſhed: for vnto thee I haue declared my cauſe. Iere,xi.d

13 Sing vnto the Lorde, and prayſe hym, for he hath deliuered the ſoule of the oppreſſed from the hande of the violent.

14 *Curſed be the day wherein I was borne, vnhappy be the day wherein my mother brought me foorth. C Iob,iij,a

15 *Curſed be the man that brought my father the tidinges to make hym glad, ſayeing, Thou haſt begotten a ſonne: Iere.xv.b Gen.xix.c

16 Let it happen vnto that man, as to the cities (c) which the Lord turned vpſidedowne, and repented not: Let hym heare cryeing in the mornyng, and at noone day lamentable howlyng.

(c) The moſt godly menne are ſometimes caryed away with the vnruly rage of immoderate affection, albeit in this prophete ẏ cauſe of this immoderate zeale was, for that he ſawe his trauayle to ſaue ẏ people, to be in vaine, Gods woordes contemned, and al godlyneſſe ſcornefully deſpiſed.

17 Why ſlueſt thou not me aſſoone as I came out of my mothers wombe? or that my mother had benne my graue her ſelfe, that the byrth myght not haue comme out, but remayned ſtyl in her?

18 Wherefore came I foorth of my mothers wombe? to haue experience of labour and ſorowe, and to leade my lyfe with ſhame?

B 7 *And therefore beholde, the tyme commeth
Iere,16,c ſayth the Lorde, that it ſhalbe no more ſayde,
The Lorde lyueth whiche brought the chyldren of Iſrael out of the lande of Egypt:

8 But, The lord liueth which brought foorth and led the ſeede of the houſe of Iſrael out of the North lande, & from al countreys where I had ſcattered them: and they ſhal dwelle in theyr owne lande agayne.

9 My hart breaketh in my body, becauſe of the falſe prophetes al my bones ſhake, I am become lyke a drunken man, that by reaſon of wine can take no reſt, for very feare of the Lorde, and his holy woordes.

10 Becauſe the lande is ful of adulterers, and Iere,14,a thorow ſwearing it mourneth, *and the pleaſant paſtures of the deſart are dryed vp: yea the way that menne take is wicked, & theyr power is nothyng ryght.

11 For the prophetes and the prieſtes them ſelues are polluted hypocrites, and their wic-kedneſſe haue I founde in my houſe, ſayth the Lorde.

A 12 Wherfore, their way ſhalbe ſlipperie in the darkneſſe, wherein they may ſtacker and falle: for I wyl bryng a plague vpon them, euen the yeere of theyr viſitation, ſayth the Lorde.

13 I haue ſeene folly among the prophetes of Samaria, that preached for Baal, & deceiued my people of Iſrael.

C 14 I haue ſeene alſo among the prophetes of Hieruſalem foule adultrie, & preſumptuous lyes: they take the moſt ſhameful menne by the hande, flatteryng them, ſo that they can not returne from their wickedneſſe: al theſe, with their citizens, are vnto me as Sodome,
and as the inhabitours of Gomorre.

15 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes
Iere.ix,b concernyng theſe prophetes, *Beholde, I wil feede them with wormewood, and make them drinke the water of galle: For from the prophetes of Hieruſalẽ is hypocriſie comme into al the lande.

16 And therefore the Lorde of hoſtes geueth
Iere.27.b you this warnyng: *Heare not the woordes and,29.b of the prophetes that preache vnto you, and deceiue you, truely they teache you vanitie:
for they ſpeake the meanyng of their owne
hart, and not out of the mouth of the Lorde.

17 *They ſay vnto thẽ that deſpiſe me, The Iere,xij.a
Lorde hath ſpoken it, tuſhe, ye ſhal proſper and,14.b right wel: and vnto al them that walke af- Sopho,i,c ter ẏ luſt of their owne hart, they ſay, Tuſhe, there ſhal no miſfortune happen you.

18 For who hath ſitten in the counſaile of the Lorde, that he hath hearde and vnderſtande what he is about to doo? who hath marked his deuice, and hearde it?

19 *Behold, the ſtormie weather of the Lord, Iere,30.d
[that is] his indignation, ſhal goe foorth, and a violent whirlewinde ſhal fal downe vpon the head of the vngodly.

20 And the wrath of the Lord ſhal not turne agayne, vntyl he perfourme and fulfyl the thought of his hart: * and in the latter dayes Iere,30.d ye ſhal knowe his meanyng.

21 I haue not ſent theſe prophetes [ſayth the D
Lord] and yet they ranne, *I haue not ſpoken Iere,14,b to them, and yet they preached.

22 But if they had continued in my counſaile, they had opened to my people my woordes, and they had turned my people from their euyl wayes, and wicked imaginations.

23 *Am I then God that ſeeth but the thyng Pſal.139.a
whiche is nygh at hand, and not that is farre Ezec,8.b
of, ſayth the Lorde?

24 *May any man hyde hym ſelfe ſo, that I Pſal.129.a
ſhal not ſee hym, ſayth the Lorde? *Doo not Amos.9,a
I fulfyl heauen and earth, ſayth the Lorde? Eſai.71,a 25 I haue hearde wel yenough what the pro- Actes.7.f.

phetes ſay that preache lies in my name, ſaie- and.17,b ing, I haue dreamed, I haue dreamed.

26 Howe long wyl this continue in the prophetes hart to tel lyes, and preache the craftie ſubtiltie of their owne hart?

27 Whoſe purpoſe is, with the dreames that euery one telle, to make my people forgeat my name, as their fathers dyd when Baal came vp.

28 The prophete that hath a dreame, let hym E tel it, *& he that vnderſtandeth my woorde, 2.Cor.4.a
let hym ſhewe it faythfully: for what hath 1,Pet.4.b
chaffe and wheate to doo togeather, ſaith the Lorde?

29 Is not my woorde lyke a fyre, ſayth the Lorde? and lyke an hammer that breaketh the harde ſtone?

30 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde,
I wyl vpon the prophetes that ſteale my woorde priuilie from euery man.

31 Behold, here am I, ſaith the Lord, againſt the prophetes that make tongues tender to ſpeake, and to ſay, The Lorde hath ſayde it.

32 Beholde, here am I, ſayth the Lorde, agaynſt thoſe prophetes that dare prophecie lyeing dreames, and deceiue my people with their vanities and inconſtant deuiſes, yet I neuer ſent nor commaunded them: They ſhal doo this people no good at al, ſayth the Lorde.

33 If this people, eyther any prophete or prieſt aſke thee, and ſay, What is the [a] burthen of the Lorde? Thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, What burthen? I wyl forſake you ſayth the Lorde.

34 And the prophete, prieſt, or people that vſeth this tearme, The burthen of the Lorde: hym wyl I viſite, and his houſe alſo.

35 But thus ſhal ye ſay euery one to another,
F & euery man to his brother: What anſweare hath the Lord geuen? or What is the Lordes commaundement?

36 And as for the burthen of the Lord, ye ſhal ſpeake no more of it, for euery mans owne woorde is his burthen: becauſe ye haue altred the woordes of the liuyng God, the Lorde of hoſtes, our God.

37 Thus ſhal euery man ſay to the prophetes: What anſweare hath the Lorde geuen thee? or What ſayth the Lorde?

38 And not once to name the burthen of the Lorde. Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde, Foraſmuche as ye haue vſed this terme (the burthen of the Lorde) where as I notwithſtanding ſent vnto you, and forbad you to ſpeake of the Lordes burthen:

39 Beholde therefore, I wyl take you vp as a burthen, and wil caſt you farre of from my preſence, yea & the citie alſo that I gaue you and your fathers:

40 And wil bring you to an euerlaſting confuſion, and into a ſhame that ſhal neuer be forgotten.

[a] The wicked mens hartes were ſo hardened agaynſt the trueth, that they vſed ſcornefully to ſcoffe at Gods threatnyng prophecies in mockage: calyng the gods fardle or burthen.

The .xxiiii. Chapter.

1 The viſion of the two panniers of figges. 5 The firſt viſion ſignifieth, that part of the people ſhoulde be brought agayne from captiuitie. 8 The ſeconde, that Zedechias and the reſt of the people ſhoulde be deſtroyed.

A 1 THE Lorde ſhewed me a viſion: Beholde, there ſtoode two maundes of figges before the temple of the Lorde, after that * Nabuchodonozor kyng of Babylon had led away captiue Iechonias, the ſonne of Iehoakim kyng of Iuda, the myghtie menne alſo of Iuda, with the workmaſters and cunning menne of Hieruſalem vnto Babylon.

4.Re.24.d

2 In the one maunde were very good figges, euen lyke thoſe that be firſt rype: in the other maunde were very naughty figges, whiche myght not be eaten, they were ſo euyl.

3 Then ſayde the Lorde vnto me: What ſeeſt thou Ieremie? I ſayde, * Figges, whereof ſomme be very good, and ſomme ſo euil that no man may eate them.

Oſee.ix.d

4 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, after this manner:

5 Thus ſaith the Lorde the GOD of Iſrael, Lyke as thou knoweſt the good fygges: ſo ſhal I knowe the menne led away, whom I haue ſent out of this place into the lande of the Chaldees for their profite:

6 And I wyl ſet myne eyes vpon them for the beſt, for I wyl bryng them agayne into this lande, I wyl buylde them vp, and not breake them downe, I wyl plant them, and not roote them out.

7 * And I wyl geue them an hart to knowe B howe that I am the Lorde: They ſhalbe my people, and I wyl be their God: for they ſhal returne vnto me with their whole hart.

8 * And lyke as thou knoweſt the naughtie figges, whiche may not be eaten they are ſo euyl: euen ſo wyl I, ſayth the Lorde, cauſe Zedechias the kyng of Iuda, yea and al his princes, and the reſidue of Hieruſalem that remayne ouer in this lande, and them alſo that dwelle in Egypt, to be vexed and plagued in al kyngdomes and landes.

Iere.29.c

9 And I wyl make them to be a * reproofe, a common byworde, a laughyng ſtocke and ſhame in al the places where I ſhal ſcatter them.

10 I wyl ſende the ſwoorde, hunger, and peſtilence among them, vntyl I haue cleane conſumed them out of the lande that I gaue vnto them and their fathers.

The.xxv.Chapter.

1 Ieremie propheciеth that they ſhalbe in captiuitie threeſcore and tenne yeeres, becauſe they contemned and deſpiſed the woorde of God. 10 He ſheweth that after the threeſcore and tenne yeeres, the Babylonians ſhoulde be deſtroyed. 14 The deſtruction of al nations is prophecied. 34 He moueth the prieſtes of the nations to wayling.

A 1 A Sermon that was geuen vnto Ieremie vpon al the people of Iuda, in the fourth yeere of Iehoakim the ſonne of Ioſias kyng of Iuda (that was in the firſt yeere of Nabuchodonozor kyng of Babylon.)

2 Which ſermon Ieremie the prophete made vnto al the people of Iuda, and to al the inhabitours of Hieruſalem, on this manner.

3 From the thirteenth yeere of Ioſias yͤ ſonne of Ammon kyng of Iuda, vnto this preſent day (that is euen twentie and three yeeres) the woord of the Lorde hath benne committed vnto me, *and ſo I haue ſpoken vnto you, I haue ryſen vp early, I haue geuen you warnyng in ſeaſon: but ye would not heare me. Iere.39.c 35.c.38.a

2.Par.36.c 4 *Though the Lord hath ſent his ſeruantes al yͤ prophetes vnto you in ſeaſon, yet would ye not obey, ye woulde not encline your eares to heare.

4.Re.17.c 5 He ſayde, *Turne agayne euery man from his euyl way, and from your wicked imaginations, ſo ſhal ye dwelle for euer in the lande that the Lord promiſed you and your forefathers.

6 And goe not after ſtrange goddes, ſerue thē not, woorſhyp them not, and anger me not with the workes of your owne handes, then wyl I not pouniſhe you.

B 7 Neuertheleſſe, ye would not heare me, ſaith the Lorde, but haue prouoked me to anger with the woorkes of your handes, to your great harme.

8 Wherefore, thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, *Becauſe ye haue not hearkened vnto my woorde, Iere.i.b

9 Loe, I wyl ſende out and cal for al the people that dwelle in the North, ſayth the Lord, and wyl prepare Nabuchodonozor the kyng of *Babylon my ſeruant, & wyl bryng them vpon this lande, and vpon al that dwel therin, & vpon al the people that are about them, and wyl vtterly roote them out: I wil make them amaſed, a mockage, and a continual deſart. Eſai.x.a Iere.17.a

Iere.8.b and.16.b 10 *Moreouer, I wyl take from them the voyce of gladneſſe and ſolace, the voyce of the brydegrome and the bryde, the noyſe of the milſtones, and the light of the creſſets.

11 And this whole lande ſhal become a wylderneſſe, and aſtoniſhed: and theſe nations ſhal ſerue the kyng of Babylon threeſcore yeeres and tenne.

12 *When the threeſcore and tenne yeeres are expired, I wil viſite al the wickedneſſe of the kyng of Babylon and his people, ſayth the Lorde, yea and the land of the Chaldees, and wyl make it a perpetual wylderneſſe, 2. Par.36.d i. Eſd.i.a Iere.v.e and.29.b Dan.ix.a Zach.i.b

13 And wyl fulfyl al my woordes vpon that lande whiche I haue deuiſed agaynſt it: yea al that is written in this booke, whiche Ieremie hath prophecied of al people.

14 So that they alſo ſhalbe ſubdued vnto diuers nations and great kynges, *for I wyl recompence them accordyng to their deedes, and woorkes of their owne handes. C Iob.34.d

15 For thus hath the Lorde GOD of Iſrael ſpoken vnto me: Take this wine cup of indignation fro my hande, that thou mayeſt cauſe al people to whom I ſende thee, for to drinke of it: Eſai.li.d Pſal.75.b

16 That when they haue drunken thereof, they may be madde and out of their wittes, when the ſwoord commeth that I wil ſende among them.

17 Then tooke I the cuppe from the Lordes hande, and made al people to drinke thereof, vnto whom the Lorde had ſent me:

18 But firſt the citie of Hieruſalem, and al the cities of Iuda, their kynges and princes, to make them deſolate, amaſed, deſpiſed, and hiſſed at, & curſed, accordyng as it is comme to paſſe this day:

19 Yea and Pharao the kyng of Egypt, his ſeruantes, his princes, and his people altogeather one with another:

20 And al kinges of the land of Hus, al kinges of the Philiſtines lande, Aſcalon, Azah, Accaron, and the remnant of Aſdod,

21 The Edomites, the Moabites, & the Ammonites, D

22 Al the kynges of Tyrus and Sidon, the kynges of the Iſles that are beyonde the ſea,

23 Dedan, Thema, Buz, and al them that dwelle in the vttermoſt partes of the worlde,

24 Al the kynges of Arabia, and [generally] al the kynges that dwelle in the deſart,

25 Al the kinges of Zimri, al the kinges of Elam, al the kinges of Medes,

26 Al the kinges towarde the north, whether they be farre or nygh, euery one agaynſt his neyghbour, yea and al the kyngdomes that are vpon the whole earth: and the kyng of Seſach ſhal drynke alſo after them.

27 Therefore, ſay thou vnto them, This is the commaundement of the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael: Drinke, and be drunken, ſpewe, and falle, that ye neuer aryſe, and that thorowe the ſwoorde whiche I wyl ſende among you.

E 28 But if they wyl not receiue the cup of thy hande, & drinke it, then telle them, thus dooth the Lorde of hoſtes threaten you, Drinke it you ſhal, and that ſhortly:

29 For lo, *I begin to plague the citie that my name is geuen vnto, thinke ye then that I wyl leaue you vnpouniſhed: ye ſhal not goe quite: for why? I calle for a ſwoorde vpon al the inhabitours of the earth, ſayth the lorde of hoſtes.

Iere.49.b
Ezec.ix.b
i.Pet.iiij.c

30 Therfore, telle them al theſe woordes, and ſay vnto them, *The Lorde ſhal crye from aboue, and his voyce ſhalbe hearde from his holy habitation, with a great noyſe ſhal he crye from his court regal: he ſhal geue a great voyce lyke the grape geatherers, & the ſounde thereof ſhalbe hearde vnto the endes of the worlde.

Ioel.iiij.c.
Amos.i.d.

31 For the Lorde hath a iudgement to geue vpon al people, and wil holde his court of iuſtice with al fleſhe, and wyl deliuer the vngodly to the ſwoorde, ſayth the Lorde.

32 For thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, *Beholde, a miſerable plague ſhal goe from one people to another, and a great ſtormie water ſhal ariſe from al the endes of the earth.

Iere.30.d

33 And the ſame day ſhal the Lorde hym ſelfe ſlay them from one ende of the earth to another: there ſhal no moane be made for any of them, none geathered vp, none buryed: but ſhal lye as dounge vpon the grounde.

34 Mourne, O ye ſhepheardes, and crye, ſprinckle your ſelues with aſhes, O ye rāmes of the flocke: for the tyme of your ſlaughter & breache is fulfylled, and ye ſhal falle lyke veſſels that were muche ſet by.

35 *The ſhepheardes ſhal haue no way to flee, and the rammes of the flocke ſhal not eſcape.

F
Pſal.142.a.

36 Then ſhal the ſhepheardes crye horribly, and the rammes of the flocke ſhal mourne: for the Lorde hath conſumed their paſture,

37 And their beſt fieldes lye dead, becauſe of the horrible wrath of the Lorde.

38 They haue forſaken their foldes lyke as a lion: for their lande is waſte, becauſe of the ſpoylers furious crueltie, and of his feareful indignation.

The.xxvi.Chapter.

2 Ieremie moueth the people to amendement. 7 He is taken of the prophetes and priſtes, and brought to iudgement. 23 Vrias the prophete is kylled of Iehoakim, contrarie to the wyl of God.

A 1 IN the begynnyng of the raigne of Iehoakim the ſonne of Ioſias kyng of Iuda, came this woorde from the Lorde, ſayeing,

2 Thus ſayth the Lord, *Stande in the court of the Lordes houſe, and ſpeake vnto al them whiche (out of the citie of Iuda) comme to doo woorſhyp in the Lordes houſe, al the woordes that I commaunde thee to ſay: *looke that thou keepe not one woorde backe.

Iohn.iij.b.

4 And after this manner ſhalt thou ſpeake vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lorde, If ye wil not obey me, to walke in my lawes whiche I haue geuen you,

5 And to heare the woordes of my ſeruantes the prophetes whom I ſent vnto you, ryſing vp tymely, and ſtyl ſendyng, yet you haue not hearkened:

6 Then wyl I doo to this houſe* as I dyd vnto Silo, and wyl make this citie to be abhorred of al the people of the earth.

Iere.vij.a

7 And the prieſtes, the prophetes, and al the people hearde Ieremie preache theſe woordes in the houſe of the Lorde.

B

8 Nowe when he had ſpoken out al the woordes that the Lorde commaunded hym to preache vnto the people, then the prieſtes, the prophetes, and al the people tooke holde vpon hym, and ſayde, Thou ſhalt dye:

9 Howe dareſt thou be ſo bolde as to ſay in the name of the Lord, It ſhal happen to this houſe as it dyd vnto Silo, and this citie ſhalbe ſo waſte that no man may dwelle therin?

10 And when al the people were geathered about Ieremie in the houſe of the Lorde, the princes of Iuda hearde of this rumour, and they came ſoone out of the kynges palace into the houſe of the Lorde, and ſate them downe before the *newe doore of the Lorde.

11 Then ſpake the prieſtes and the prophetes vnto the rulers, and to al the people theſe

Iohn.19.a. Mat.16.g. woordes, *This man is woorthy to dye: for he hath preached againſt this citie, as ye your ſelues haue hearde with your eares.

12 Then ſayde Ieremie vnto the rulers and to al the people, The Lorde hath ſent me to preache agaynſt this houſe, and agaynſt this citie, al the woordes that ye haue heard.

13 Therefore amende your wayes, and your aduiſementes, & be obedient vnto the voyce of the Lorde your God, ſo ſhal the Lorde repēt of the plague that he hath deuiſed againſt you.

C 14 Nowe as for me I am in your handes, doo with me as you thynke expedient and good:

15 But this ſhal ye knowe if ye put me to Mat.23.c death, *ye ſhal make your ſelues, this citie, & al the inhabitours thereof giltie of innocent blood: For this is of a trueth, that the Lorde hath ſent me vnto you, to ſpeake al theſe woordes in your eares.

16 Then ſayde the rulers and the people vnto the prieſtes and prophetes, This man may not be condempned to death, for he hath preached vnto vs in the name of the Lorde our God.

17 The elders alſo of the land ſtoode vp, and ſayde thus vnto al the people,

Mich.i.a 18 Micheas the Moraſthite, whiche was a prophete vnder Ezekias king of Iuda, ſpake to al the people of Iuda, thus ſaith the Lorde Mich.iii.c of hoſtes, *Sion ſhalbe plowed lyke a fielde, Hieruſalem ſhalbe an heape of ſtones, and the hyl of the Lordes houſe ſhalbe turned to an hye wood.

19 Dyd Ezekias the king of Iuda, and al the people of Iuda put him to death for this? No veryly: *but rather feared the Lorde, and Ionas.3.b. made their prayer vnto him, for the whiche cauſe alſo the Lorde (a) repented of the plague that he had deuiſed agaynſt them: Shoulde we then doo ſuche a ſhameful deede agaynſt our ſoules?

(a) In the deuine nature there is no ſuch affectiōs or changeableneſſe: but God is ſayde after the manner of menne to repent, when he dooth not execute that he had denoūced, or dooth deferre yͤ plague whiche he had threatned.

20 There was a prophete alſo that preached ſtifly in the name of the Lorde, called Vrias, the ſonne of Semaiah of Kiriathiarim: this man alſo preached agaynſt this citie, and agaynſt this lande, according to al as Ieremie ſayth.

21 Now when *Iehoakim the kyng, with al 3.Reg.22.d the eſtates & princes, had hearde his woordes, the kyng went about to ſlay hym: *When Mich.ii.c. Vrias perceiued that, he was afraid, and fled, and departed into Egypt.

22 Then Iehoakim the kyng ſent ſeruantes into the lande of Egypt [namely] Elnathan the ſonne of Achbor, & certayne menne with hym into Egypt:

23 Whiche fetched Vrias out of Egypt, and brought him vnto king Iehoakim, that ſlue hym with the ſwoorde, and caſt his dead body into the common peoples graue.

24 But Ahikam the ſonne of Saphan helped Ieremie, that he came not into yͤ handes of the people to be ſlayne.

The.xxvii. Chapter.

1 Ieremie at the commaundement of the Lorde ſendeth bondes to the kyng of Iuda, and to the other kynges that were nye, whereby they are moniſhed to become ſubiectes vnto Nabuchodonoſor. 9 He warneth the people, and the kynges, and rulers, that they beleue not falſe prophetes.

A 1 IN the begynnyng of the raigne of Iehoakim the ſonne of Ioſias kyng of Iuda, came this woorde vnto Ieremie from the Lorde, which ſpake thus vnto me:

2 Make thee bondes and chaynes, and put them about thy necke,

3 And ſend them to the kyng of Edom, to the kyng of Moab, to the kyng of Ammon, to the kyng of Tyrus, & to the kyng of Sidon, & that by the meſſengers which ſhal comme to Hieruſalem, vnto Zedekiah the kyng of Iuda:

4 And bid thē ſay vnto their maiſters, Thus ſaith the Lord of hoaſtes, the God of Iſrael, ſpeake thus vnto your maiſters,

Deut.x.c. 5 *I am he that made the earth, the menne, & the cattel that are vpon the grounde, with my great power and ſtretched out arme, and haue geuen it vnto whom it pleaſed me.

6 *And nowe wyl I deliuer al theſe landes Eccle.x.a. Iudi.xi.d. into the power of Nabuchodonoſor the king Iere.32.a. of Babylon *my ſeruant: the beaſtes alſo Dan.iiii.c of the fielde ſhal I geue hym, to doo hym ſer- Iere.xxv.b uice.

8 Moreouer, that people & kingdome whiche wil not ſerue Nabuchodonoſor, and that wil not put their neckes vnder the yoke of the kyng of Babylon: the ſame people wyl I viſite with the ſwoorde, with hunger, and peſtilence, vntyl I haue conſumed them in his handes, ſayth the Lorde.

Iere.23.c and,29.b 9 And therefore folowe not your prophetes, ſoothſayers, expounders of dreames, charmers, and witches, whiche ſay vnto you, Ye ſhal not ſerue the kyng of Babylon.

10 For they preache you lyes, to bring you farre from your lande, and that I might caſt you out, and deſtroy you.

11 But the people that put theyr neckes vnder the yoke of the kyng of Babylon, and ſerue hym, thoſe wyl I let remayne ſtyl in theyr owne lande, ſayth the Lorde, and they ſhal occupie it, and dwel therein.

12 Al theſe thinges tolde I Zedekiah the Iere.38.c kyng of Iuda, and ſayde, * Put your neckes vnder the yoke of the kyng of Babylon, and ſerue hym and his people, that ye may liue.

13 Why wilt thou and thy people periſhe with the ſwoorde, with hunger, with peſtilence, lyke as the Lorde hath deuiſed for al people, that wyl not ſerue the kyng of Babylon?

C 14 * Therefore, geue no eare vnto thoſe prophetes Iere.23.c and,39.b that tel you, Ye ſhal not ſerue the kyng of Babylon: for they preache you lyes.

15 Neither haue I ſent them, ſayth the Lorde, howbeit, they are bolde falſely to prophecie in my name, that I myght the ſooner driue you out, and that ye myght peryſhe with your preachers.

16 I ſpeake to the prieſtes alſo, and to al this people, Thus ſayth the Lorde, Heare not the woordes of your prophetes that preache vnto you, and ſay, Beholde, * the veſſelles of Iere.28.a the Lordes houſe ſhal ſhortly be brought hyther agayne from Babylon: for they prophecie lyes vnto you.

17 Heare them not, but ſerue the kyng of Babylon, that ye may liue: wherefore wyl ye make this citie to be deſtroyed?

18 But if they be true prophetes in very deede, and yf the woorde of the Lorde be committed vnto them, then let them pray the Lorde of hoſtes, that the remnant of the ornaments whiche are in the houſe of the Lorde, and in the houſe of the king of Iuda, and at Hieruſalem, be not caried to Babylon alſo.

19 For thus hath the Lorde of hoſtes ſpoken concerning the pillers, the lauer, the ſeate, and the reſidue of the ornamentes, that yet remaine in this citie,

20 Which Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon 4.Re.24.c tooke not, when he caried away Iechonias the ſonne of Iehoakim king of Iuda, with al the power of Iuda and Hieruſalem, vnto Babylon captiue.

21 Yea thus hath the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael ſpoken, as touchyng the reſidue of the ornamentes of the Lordes houſe, of the kyng of Iuda his houſe, & of Hieruſalem:

22 * They ſhalbe caried vnto Babylon, and 4.Re.25.c there ſhal they remayne vntil I viſite them, ſayth the Lorde: * then wil I bryng them 1.Eſd.1.b hyther agayne.

The.xxviii.Chapter.

1 The falſe prophecie of Hananias the prophete. 12 Ieremie ſheweth that the prophecie of Hananias is falſe, by the example of the other prophetes. 15 He beyng inſpired of the Lorde, reproueth Hananias, prophecieyng his death.

A 1 Iere.27.c And it came to paſſe the ſame yeere, euen in the begynnyng of the raigne of Zedekiah kyng of Iuda, in the fourth yeere, the fyft moneth, that Hananias the ſonne of Aſſur the prophete of Gibeon, ſpake to me in the houſe of the Lorde, in the preſence of the prieſtes, and of al the people, and ſayde,

2 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, I haue broken the yoke of the king of Babylon,

Iere.27.c 3 * And after two yeeres wil I bring againe into this place al the ornamentes of the Lordes houſe, that Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon caried away from this place vnto Babylon,

4 Yea I wyl bryng agayne Iechonias the ſonne of Iehoakim the kyng of Iuda hym ſelfe, with al the pryſoners of Iuda that are caryed vnto Babylon, euen vnto this place, ſayth the Lorde: for I wyl breake the yoke of the kyng of Babylon.

5 Then the prophete Ieremie gaue anſweare vnto the prophete Hananias before al the prieſtes, and before al the people that were preſent in the houſe of the Lorde.

6 * And the prophete Ieremie ſayde, Amen, Mich.3.c the Lorde doo that, & graunt the thing whiche thou haſt prophecied, that he may bryng agayne al the ornamentes of the Lordes houſe, and reſtore al the pryſoners from Babylon into this place.

7 Neuertheleſſe, hearken thou alſo what I wyl ſay, that thou and al the people may heare.

8 The prophetes that were before vs in time paſt, whiche prophecied of warre or trouble, or peſtilence,

9 Either of peace vpon many nations and great kyngdomes, were prooued by this (yf God hath ſent them in very deede) * when the thyng came to paſſe whiche the prophete tolde before. Deut.18,d

10 And Hananias the prophete toke the chaine from the prophete Ieremies necke, & brake it:

11 And with that ſayde Hananias that al the people myght heare, Thus hath the Lorde ſpoken: Euen ſo wyl I breake the yoke of Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon, from the necke of al nations, yea and that within this two yeere. And ſo the prophete Ieremie went his way.

12 Nowe after that Hananias the prophete had taken the chayne from the prophete Ieremies necke, and broken it, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto the prophete Ieremie, ſayeing, 13 Goe & tel Hananias theſe woordes, Thus ſaith the lorde, Thou haſt broken the chayne of wood, but in ſteede of wood thou ſhalt make chaynes of iron.

14 For thus ſayth the Lord of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, I wyl put a yoke of iron vpon the necke of al this people, that they may ſerue Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon, yea and ſo ſhal they doo: and I wyl geue hym the beaſtes of the feelde. C

15 Then ſayde the prophete Ieremie vnto the prophete Hananias: * Heare me Hananias, The Lord hath not ſent thee, but thou bringeſt this people into a falſe beleefe. Iere.29.c

16 And therefore thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde, I wyl ſende thee out of the lande, and within a yeere thou ſhalt dye, becauſe thou haſt falſely ſpoken agaynſt the Lorde.

17 So Hananias dyed the ſame yeere, in the ſeuenth moneth.

The.xxix.Chapter.

1 The Epiſtle of Ieremie ſent vnto them that were in captiuitie in Babylon. 10 He prophecieth theyr returne from the captiuitie after ſeuentie yeeres. 16 He prophecieth the deſtruction of the kyng and of the people that remayned in Hieruſalem. 21 He threatneth two prophetes that ſeduced the people. 25 The death of Semeiah the Nehelamite is prophecied.

A 1 These are the woords of the booke that Ieremie the prophete ſent from Hieruſalem vnto the priſoners, the ſenatours, prieſtes, prophetes, and al the people, whom Nabuchodonoſor had led from Hieruſalem vnto Babylon,

2 After that tyme that kyng Iechonias and his queene, his chamberlaynes, the princes of Iuda and Hieruſalem, the woorkmaiſters of Hieruſalem, were departed thyther.

3 Which booke Elaſah the ſonne of Saphan, & Gamariah the ſonne of Helkia did beare, whom Zedekias the king of Iuda ſent vnto Babylon to Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon: Theſe were the woordes of Ieremies booke.

4 Thus hath the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael ſpoken, vnto al the pryſoners that were fled from Hieruſalem to Babylon:

5 * Builde you houſes to dwel there in, plant you gardens, that you may enioy the fruites thereof. Iere.35.d

6 * Take you wiues to beare you ſonnes and daughters, prouide wiues for your ſonnes, and huſbands for your daughters, that they may geat ſonnes and daughters: and that ye may multiplie there, and decreaſe not. Gen.1.d and.2.a.

7 Seeke after the peace and proſperitie of the citie wherein ye be pryſoners, * and pray vnto the Lorde for it: for in the peace thereof ſhal your peace be. B Baruc.1.a. 1.Tim.2.a.

8 For thus ſayth the Lorde of hoaſtes, the God of Iſrael, * Let not theſe prophetes and ſoothſayers that be among you, deceiue you, and beleeue not your owne dreames: Iere.33.c and.27.b

9 For why? * they preache you lyes in my name, and I haue not ſent them, ſayth the Lorde. Iere.14.b

10 But thus ſayth the Lorde, * When ye haue fulfilled ſeuentie yeeres at Babylon, I wyl bring you home, & of myne owne goodneſſe I wil cary you hither againe into this place. 1.Par.26.d Iere.22.b 1.Eſd.1,a 11 For I knowe what I haue deuiſed for you, ſayth the Lorde: My thoughtes are to geue you peace, and not trouble, and to geue you an ende as you wiſhe and hope to haue.

12 * Ye ſhal crye vnto me, ye ſhal goe and cal vpon me, and I wyl heare you. Deu.4.e and.30.a

13 * Ye ſhal ſeeke me, and fynde me, yea yf ſo be that you ſeeke me with your whole hart. Iohn.7.d.

14 I wyl be founde of you, ſayth the Lorde, and wil deliuer you out of priſon, & geather you togeather againe out of al places wherin I haue ſcattered you, ſayth the Lorde, and wyl bryng you agayne to the ſame place from whence I cauſed you to be caried a way captiue. C captiue.

15 But where as ye ſay that God hath rayſed you vp prophetes at Babylon,

16 Thus hath the Lorde ſpoken to the kyng that ſitteth in the throne of Dauid, and to al the people that dwelle in this citie, your brethren* that are gonne with you into captiuitie: 4.Re.24.d

17 Thus [I ſay] ſpeaketh the Lorde of hoſtes, Beholde, I wyl ſende a ſwoorde, hunger, and peſtilence vpon them, and wyl make them like vntimely figges, that may not be eaten for bitterneſſe: Iere.24.b.

18 And I wyl perſecute them with yͤ ſwoord, with hunger and peſtilence, I wyl deliuer them vp to be vexed of al kyngdomes, to be curſed, abhorred, laughed to ſcorne, and put to confuſion of al the people among whom I haue ſcattered them:

19 And that becauſe they haue not benne obedient vnto my commaundements, ſayth the Lorde, whiche I ſent vnto them by my ſeruantes the prophetes: *I ſtoode vp early, and ſent vnto them, but they woulde not heare, ſayth the Lorde. Iere.25.a &.44.a

20 Heare therefore the woorde of the Lorde, al ye priſoners whom I ſent from Hieruſalem to Babylon.

D 21 Thus hath the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael ſpoken of Ahab the ſonne of Colaiah, and of Zedekiah the ſonne of Maaſiah, which prophecie lies vnto you in my name: Beholde, I wyl deliuer them into the hande of Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon, that he may ſlay them before your eyes.

22 And al the pryſoners of Iuda that are in Babylon, ſhal take this tearme of curſyng, and ſay, Nowe God doo vnto thee, as he did vnto Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the kyng of Babylon roſted in the fyre:

23 Becauſe they ſinned ſhamefully in Iſrael, for they haue not only defiled their neighbours wiues, but alſo preached lyeing woordes in my name, whiche I haue not commaunded them: Thys I teſtifie and aſſure, ſayth the Lorde.

24 But as for Semeiah the Nehelamite, thou ſhalt ſpeake vnto hym,

25 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, Becauſe thou haſt ſent letters in thyne owne name vnto al the people that is at Hieruſalem, and to Sophoniah the ſonne of Maaſiah the prieſt, yea and ſent them to al the prieſtes, wherein thou writeſt thus vnto hym,

26 The Lorde hath ordeyned thee to be prieſt in the ſteede of Iehoiada the prieſt, that thou ſhouldeſt be cheefe in the houſe of the Lorde aboue al prophetes and preachers, and that thou mighteſt ſet them vpon the pillorie, or in the ſtockes: 4.Re.11.a. 2.Par.23.a

27 Howe happeneth it then that thou haſt not reproued Hieremie of Anathoth, whiche neuer leaueth of his prophecieyng.

28 And beſyde al this, he hath ſent vs woord E vnto Babylon, and tolde vs playnely, that our captiuitie ſhal long endure, that we ſhoulde builde vs houſes to dwel therin, and to plant vs gardens, that we may enioy the fruites thereof. Iere.29.c

29 Whiche letter Sophonias the prieſt read, and let Ieremie the prophete heare it.

30 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto Ieremie, ſayeing,

31 Sende woorde to al them that be in captiuitie, on this manner, Thus hath the Lorde ſpoken concernyng Semeiah the Nehelamite: Becauſe that Semeiah hath prophecied vnto you without my commiſſion, and brought you into a falſe hope: Iere.28.c

32 Therefore thus the Lorde dooth certifie you, Beholde, I wyl viſite Semeiah the Nehelamite and his ſeede, ſo that none of his ſhal remayne among this people, and none of them ſhal ſee the good that I wyl doo for my people, ſayth the Lorde: for he hath preached falſely of the Lorde.

The.xxx.Chapter.

1 The returne of the people from Babylon. 8 God by his chaſtenyng ſheweth that the people is ſinful. 16 The deſtruction of the enimies of Iſrael.

A 1 These are the woordes that the Lorde ſheweth vnto Ieremie, ſayeing,

2 Thus ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael, *Write vp diligently al the woordes, that I haue ſpoken vnto thee, in a booke. Iere.30.c

3 For loe, the tyme commeth, ſayth the lord, that I wyl bryng agayne the pryſoners of my people of Iſrael and Iuda, ſayth the Lorde: for I wyl reſtore them vnto the land that I gaue to theyr fathers, and they ſhal haue it in poſſeſſion.

4 Agayne, theſe woordes ſpake the Lorde concernyng Iſrael and Iuda.

5 Thus ſayth the Lorde, We haue hearde a terrible crye, feare, and diſquietneſſe.

6 For what els dooth this ſignifie that I ſee? [Namely] that al ſtrong menne ſmyte euery man his hande vpon his loynes, as a woman in the paine of her trauayle: Who euer ſawe a man trauayle with childe? Enquire thereafter, and ſee, yea al theyr faces ar marueylous pale. Iere.13.b

B 7 Alas for this day, whiche is ſo dreadful that none may be likened vnto it, and alas for the tyme of Jacobs trouble, from the whiche he ſhal yet be deliuered.

8 For in that day, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, I wyl take his yoke from of thy necke, and breake thy bondes, and ſtrangers ſhal no more haue dominion ouer them:

9 But they ſhal doo ſeruice vnto God theyr Lorde, and to * Dauid theyr kyng, whom I wyl rayſe vp vnto them. Eze.34.d

Iere.46.g 10 * And as for thee, O my ſeruant Jacob, feare not, ſayth the Lorde, and be not afrayd, O Iſrael: For loe, I wil helpe thee alſo from farre, and thy ſeede from the lande of theyr captiuitie: And Jacob ſhal turne agayne, he ſhalbe in reaſt, and haue a proſperous lyfe, and no man ſhal make hym afrayde:

11 For I am with thee to helpe thee, ſayth the Lorde: * And though I ſhal deſtroy al the people among whom I haue ſcattered thee, yet wyl I not deſtroy thee, but correct thee, * and that with diſcretion: for I wyl not vtterly deſtroy thee. Amo.2.b. Iere.10.d

Exod.33.a Naum.1.a 12 * Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde, Thy bryſynges are perillous, and thy woundes ready to caſt thee into ſickneſſe.

13 There is no man to meddle with thy cauſe, or to lay plaſter vpon thee, or to bynde vp thy woundes to heale thee.

C 14 Al thy louers haue forgotten thee, and care nothyng for thee: for I haue geuen thee a cruel ſtroke, and chaſtened thee roughly, and that for the multitude of thy miſdeedes: for thy ſinnes haue had the ouer hande.

15 Why makeſt thou mone for thy harme? In deede thou art ſoare wounded, and in ieopardie: * but for the multitude of thy miſdeedes and ſinnes I haue donne this vnto thee. Iere.13.d

16 * And therefore, al they that deuour thee, ſhalbe deuoured, and al thine enimies ſhalbe led into captiuitie: al they that make thee waſte, ſhalbe waſted them ſelues, and al thoſe that robbe thee, wyl I make alſo to be robbed. Iere.12.a &.10.d

17 For I wyl geue thee thy health agayne, and make thy woundes whole, ſayth the Lorde, becauſe they reuiled thee as one caſt away and deſpiſed: Sion [ſayde they] is ſhe whom no man regardeth.

18 For thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde, I wyl bring agayne the captiuitie of Jacobs tents, and defende his dwellyng place: the citie ſhalbe builded in her old eſtate, and the houſes ſhal haue theyr ryght fundation. Num.24.a

19 And out of them ſhal goe thankeſgeuyng, and the voyce of ioy: I wil multiplie them, and they ſhal not be few, I ſhal endue them with honour, & no man ſhal ſubdue them.

20 Their children ſhalbe as afore time, & their congregation ſhal continue in my ſight: and al thoſe that vexe them wil I viſite.

21 * A captayne alſo ſhal comme of them, & a prince ſhal ſpring out from the middeſt of them, hym wyl I chalenge to my ſelfe, and he ſhal comme vnto me: * For what is he that geueth ouer his hart to comme vnto me, ſayth the Lorde? D Mich.5.a Ioh.6.c

22 * Ye ſhalbe my people alſo, and I wyl be your God. Iere.23.b 24.b.31.f.

23 * Beholde, on the other ſide ſhal the wrath of the Lorde breake out as a ſtormie water, as a myghtie whirle winde, and ſhal fal vpon the heades of the vngodly. Iere.23.c &.25.b.

24 The terrible diſpleaſure of the Lorde ſhal not leaue of, vntyl he haue donne and perfourmed the intent of his hart, * which in the latter dayes ye ſhal vnderſtande. Iere.23.c

The.xxxi.Chapter.

1 He prophecieth that the people of Iſrael ſhalbe reſtored agayne vnto theyr proſperitie. 18 To be turned from ſinne is the gyft of God. 27 The byrth of Chriſte is prophecied. 30 Al the wicked ſhal dye in theyr wyckednesse. 31 The newe Teſtament and couenant is prophecied. 33 The Chriſtians are taught and inſtruct of the Lorde. 34 Our ſinnes ſhal ſo be remitted that they ſhal not once be thought vpon. 36 God promiſeth that he wyl caſt of the Jewes. 38 The buyldyng agayne of Hieruſalem.

A 1 AT the ſame tyme, ſayth the Lorde, ſhal I be the God of al the generations of Iſrael, and they ſhalbe my people.

2 Thus ſayth the Lorde, * The people of Iſrael whiche eſcaped in the wyldernesse from the ſwoorde, founde grace to comme into theyr reaſt. Num.13.c

3 Euen ſo ſhal the Lorde nowe alſo appeare vnto me from farre [and ſay] * I loue thee with an euerlaſtyng loue: therefore by my mercy I haue drawen thee vnto me. John.6.b.

4 I wil repayre thee agayne, O thou daughter of Iſrael, that thou mayeſt be faſt and ſure: thou ſhalt take thy tabrettes agayne, and goe foorth with them that leade the daunce:

5 Thou ſhalt plant vines agayne vpon the hilles of Samaria, and the grape geatherers ſhal plant, and commonly eate of it.

Eſai,2.a

6 For the dayes ſhal comme, when the watchmenne vpon the mount of Ephraim, ſhal crye, * Aryſe, let vs goe vp vnto Sion to our Lorde God.

B 7 For thus ſayth the Lorde, Reioyce with gladneſſe becauſe of Iacob, crye vnto the head of the gentiles, ſpeake out, ſyng and ſay, O Lorde ſaue thy people the remnant of Iſrael.

8 Beholde, I wyl bryng them agayne from out of the north land, and geather them from the endes of the worlde, with the blynde and lame that are among them, with yͤ women that be great with childe, and ſuche as be alſo deliuered: and the companie of them that comme agayne, ſhalbe great.

Deu,23.a
Gen.47.d

9 They ſhal comme weepyng, & with merciful pitie wyl I bryng them hyther agayne: I wyl leade them into the riuers of water, in a ſtraight way, where they ſhal not ſtumble: * For I am Iſraels father, and * Ephraim is my firſt borne.

10 Heare the woorde of the Lorde, O ye gentiles, preache in the Iſles that lye farre of, and ſay, He that hath ſcattred Iſrael, ſhal geather hym togeather agayne, and ſhal keepe hym, as a ſheepehearde dooth his flocke.

11 For the Lorde hath redeemed Iacob, and ridde him from the hande of the violent.

12 And they ſhal comme, and reioyce vpon the hyl of Sion, and ſhal haue plenteouſneſſe of goodes, whiche the Lorde ſhal geue them, [Namely] wheate, wine, oyle, young ſheepe, and calues: and theyr ſoule ſhalbe as a wel watered garden, for they ſhal no more be hungry.

13 Then ſhal the mayde reioyce in the daunce, yea both young and olde folkes: for I wil turne theyr ſorowe into gladneſſe, and wyl comfort them from their ſorowes, and make them ioyful.

C 14 I wyl powre plenteouſneſſe vpon yͤ hartes of the prieſtes, and my people ſhalbe ſatiſfied with my goodneſſe, ſayth the Lorde.

Iere.3.c
Mat.2.c

15 Thus ſayth the Lorde, The voyce of heauineſſe, weepyng, and lamentation was hearde on high, euen of Rachel mournyng for her chyldren, and woulde not be comforted, becauſe they were not.

16 But nowe, ſayth the Lord, Leaue of from weepyng and cryeing, withholde thyne eyes from teares: for thy labour ſhalbe rewarded, ſaith the Lorde, and they ſhal comme agayne out of the lande of theyr enimies.

17 Yea euen thy poſteritie ſhal haue conſolation in this, ſayth the Lorde, that thy children ſhal comme againe into their owne lande.

Eze.20.c
Thre.5.c
Zach.1.a

18 Moreouer, I hearde Ephraim, that was led away captiue, complaine on this maner, * O Lorde, thou haſt correct me, and thy chaſtenyng haue I receiued as an vntamed calfe, * conuert thou me, and I ſhalbe conuerted: for thou art my Lorde God.

19 Yea aſſoone as thou turneſt me, I ſhal refourme mee ſelfe, and when I vnderſtande, I ſhal ſmyte vpon my thygh: For veryly I haue committed ſhameful thynges: for I haue borne the reproofe and confuſion of my youth.

Gen.48.d

20 Upon this complaint, I thought thus by mee ſelfe, * Is not Ephraim my deare ſonne? Is he not the child with whom I haue had al my mirth and paſtime? For ſince the time that I firſte communed with hym, I haue hym euer in remembrance: therefore my hart dryueth me vnto hym, gladly and louyngly wyl I haue mercy vpon hym, ſayth the Lorde.

D

21 Make thee ſelfe markes, ſet vp heapes of ſtone, ſet thine hart vpon the way that thou didſt walke, & turne agayne, O thou daughter of Iſrael, turne agayne to theſe cities of thine.

22 Howe long wylt thou goe aſtray, O thou ſhrinkyng daughter? for the Lorde wyl woorke a newe thyng vpon earth: A woman ſhal compaſſe a man.

23 For thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, the GOD of Iſrael, It wyl comme therto, that when I haue brought Iuda out of captiuitie, theſe woordes ſhalbe hearde in the lande, and in his cities, The Lorde bleſſe thee, O thou dwellyng place of ryghteouſneſſe, O thou holy hyl.

24 And there ſhal dwel Iuda, and al her cities, the ſheepeheardes, and huſbandmenne:

Mat.5.a
and,11,d

25 For I * ſhal feede the hungry ſoule, and refreaſhe al faynt hartes.

26 When I hearde this, I came agayne to mee ſelfe, I ſaw lyke as I had benne waked out of a ſweete ſleepe.

27 Beholde, ſaith the Lord, the dayes comme, that I wyl ſowe the houſe of Iſrael, and the houſe of Iuda, with menne and with catel.

Deu.28.g. Iere.32.e Zach.8.c 28 * Yea it ſhal comme thereto, that lyke as I haue gonne about in tymes paſte to roote them out, to ſcatter them, to breake them downe, to deſtroy them, and chaſten them: euen ſo wyl I alſo goe diligently about to builde them vp agayne, and to plant them, ſayth the Lorde.

E Eze.18.a 29 * Then ſhal it no more be ſayde, The fathers haue eaten a ſowre grape, and the childrens teeth are ſet on edge.

30 For euery one ſhal dye for his owne miſdeedes: ſo that who ſo eateth a ſowre grape, his teeth ſhalbe ſet on edge.

Heb.8.b 31 * Beholde the dayes wyl comme, ſayth the Lorde, that I wyl make a newe couenant with the houſe of Iſrael, and the houſe of Iuda:

32 Not after the couenant that I made with their fathers, when I tooke them by the hand, and led them out of the land of Egypt, whiche couenant they brake, yea euen when I as an huſbande had rule ouer them, ſayth the Lorde.

Heb.10.b 33 * But this ſhalbe the couenant that I wil make with the houſe of Iſrael after thoſe dayes, ſayth the Lorde: Eſai.51.b * I wyl plant my lawe in the inwarde partes of them, & wryte it in theyr hartes, Iere.24.b and.30.d * and wyl be theyr God, and they ſhalbe my people.

34 And from thencefoorth ſhal no man teache his neyghbour or his brother, & ſay, Knowe the Lorde: but they ſhal al knowe me from the loweſt vnto the hygheſt, ſayth the Lord: for I wyl forgeue theyr miſdeedes, and wyl neuer remember theyr ſinnes any more.

35 Thus ſayth the Lorde, whiche gaue the ſunne to be a light for the day, and the moone and the ſtarres to ſhine in the night, whiche mooueth the ſea, ſo that the fluddes therof ware fierce, his name is the Lorde of hoſtes. Gen.1.b

36 Like as this ordinance ſhal neuer be taken out of my ſyght, ſayth the Lorde: ſo ſhal the ſeede of Iſrael neuer ceaſſe, but alway be a people before me.

37 Moreouer, thus ſayth the Lorde, Like as the heauen aboue can not be meaſured, and as the fundations of the earth beneath may not be ſought out: * ſo wyl I alſo not caſt out the whole ſeede of Iſrael for that they haue committed, ſayth the Lorde. Rom.11.a

38 Beholde, the dayes comme, ſaith the Lord, that the citie of the Lorde ſhalbe enlarged, from the * towre of Hananeel, vnto the gate of the corner wal. 2.Eſd.3.a Zach.24.b

39 From thence ſhal the ryght meaſure be taken before her, vnto the hyl toppe of * Gareb, and ſhal comme about Gaath. Iere.19.b

40 And the whole valley of the dead carkaſſes, and of the aſhes, and al the feeldes, vnto the brooke of Cedron, and vnto the corner of the horſe gate towarde the eaſt, it ſhalbe holy vnto the Lord, and ſhal neuer be broken nor caſt downe any more.

The.xxxii.Chapter.

1 Ieremie is caſt into pryſon, becauſe he prophecied that the citie ſhoulde be taken of the kyng of Babylon. 7 By the feelde that Ieremie bought at the commaundement of the Lorde, is ſignified that the people ſhoulde comme agayne to theyr owne poſſeſſion. 38 The people of God are his ſeruantes, and he is theyr Lorde. 40 To feare God, is Gods gyft, to the intent that ſinnes may be eſchewed.

A 1 These woordes ſpake the Lorde vnto Ieremie in the tenth yeere of Zedekias kyng of Iuda, whiche was the eighteenth yeere of Nabuchodonozor,

2 What tyme as the kyng of Babylons hoſt layde ſiege vnto Hieruſalem: but Ieremie the prophete lay bounde in the court of the pryſon, whiche was in the kyng of Iudaes houſe,

3 Where Zedekias the kyng of Iuda cauſed hym to be layde, becauſe he had prophecied on this manner, Thus ſayth the Lord, Iere.34.a 38.a.&.39 * Beholde, I wyl deliuer this citie into the hands of the kyng of Babylon, whiche ſhal take it.

4 As for Zedekias the kyng of Iuda, he ſhal not be able to eſcape the Chaldees: but ſurely he ſhal comme into the handes of the kyng of Babylon, whiche ſhal ſpeake with hym mouth to mouth, and one of them ſhal looke another in the face.

5 And Zedekias ſhalbe caryed vnto Babylon, and there ſhal he be vntyl the tyme that I viſite hym, ſayth the Lorde: but yf thou takeſt in hand to fight againſt the Chaldees, thou ſhalt not proſper.

6 And Ieremie ſayde, Thus hath the Lorde ſpoken vnto me:

7 Beholde, Hananeel the ſonne of Sellum, thine vncles ſonne, ſhal comme vnto thee, and require thee to redeeme the lande that lyeth in Anathoth vnto thee ſelfe: for by reaſon of kindred it is thy ryght to redeeme it, and buy it out. B Leui.25.d Nu.24.a and.36.a. Ruth.4.a.

8 And Hananeel myne vncles ſonne came to me in the court of the pryſon, accordyng to the woorde of the Lorde, and ſayde vnto me, Buy my land, I pray thee, that lieth in Anathoth in the countrey of Beniamin, for by heritage thou haſt ryght to looſe it out for thee ſelfe, therefore redeeme it. Then I perceiued that this was the commaundement of the Lorde:

9 And ſo I bought the lande from Hananeel of Anathoth mine vncles ſonne, and wayed hym there the money, euen ſeuen ſicles, and ten ſyluer pence:

10 And I writ it in a booke, and ſealed it, and tooke witneſſes, and wayed hym there the money vpon the weightes.

11 So I tooke the euidence with the copie, when it was orderly ſealed, and read it ouer:

12 And I gaue the euidence to Baruch the ſonne of Neriah, the ſonne of Maaſiah, in the ſyght of Hananeel my coſin, and in the preſence of the witneſſes that be named in the euidence, and before al the Iewes that were thereby in the court of the priſon.

13 I charged Baruch alſo before them, ſaying,

C 14 The Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael commaundeth [thee] to take this ſealed euidence with the copie, and to lay it in the earthen veſſel, that it may long continue.

15 For the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, hath determined, that houſes, feeldes, and vineyardes, ſhalbe poſſeſſed agayne in this lande:

16 Nowe when I had deliuered the euidence vnto Baruch the ſonne of Neriah, I beſought the Lorde, ſayeing,

Gene.1.a Iere.10,b

17 O Lorde God, *it is thou that haſt made heauen and earth with thy great power and high arme, and there is nothyng hyd from thee:

Exod,54.a

18 * Thou ſheweſt mercie vpon thouſandes, thou recompenſeſt the wyckedneſſe of the fathers into the boſome of the chyldren that comme after them:

19 Thou art the great & mightie God, whoſe name is the Lorde of hoſtes, great in counſayle, & excellent in woorke, thine eyes looke vpon al the wayes of mennes chyldren, * to rewarde euery one after his way, and accordyng to the fruites of his inuentions:

Rom.2,a

Exod.7. vnto the 15.chapt.

20 *Thou haſt donne great tokens and woonders in the lande of Egypt, as we ſee this day, vpon the people of Iſrael, & vpon thoſe men, to make thy name great as it is comme to paſſe this day:

D 21 Thou haſt brought thy people of Iſrael out of the lande of Egypt, with tokens, with woonders, with a mightie hand, with a ſtretched out arme, and with great terribleneſſe:

22 And haſt geuen them this lande, lyke as thou haddeſt promiſed vnto theyr fathers, [namely] that thou wouldeſt geue them a lande that floweth with mylke and honie.

Iud.2,3.4 6,8.

23 * Nowe when they came therein, and poſſeſſed it, they folowed not thy voyce, & walked not in thy lawe: * but al that thou commaundeſt them to doo, that haue they not donne, and therefore comme al theſe plagues vpon them.

Eſther,5.b

34 Beholde, there are bulwarkes made nowe againſt this citie to take it, & it ſhalbe wonne of the Chaldees that beſiege it, with ſwoord, with hunger, and death: and looke what thou haſt ſpoken, that ſame ſhal comme vpon them: for loe, al thynges are preſent vnto thee.

35 Yet ſayeſt thou vnto me, O Lorde God, & commaundeſt me that I ſhal buy a peece of lande vnto mee ſelfe for money, and take witneſſes thereto: and yet in the meane ſeaſon the citie is deliuered into the power of the Chaldees.

29 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto Ieremie, ſayeing,

27 Behold, I am the Lord God of al fleaſhe: is there any thyng then to harde for me?

E 28 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde, *Behold, I ſhal deliuer this citie into the power of the Chaldees, and into the power of Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon, they ſhal take it:

Iere. 25. &.39.c

29 For the Chaldees ſhal comme and winne this citie, and ſet fyre vpon it, and burne it, with the gorgious houſes, in whoſe parlours they haue made ſacrifice vnto Baal, and powred drinke offerings vnto ſtrange gods, to prouoke me vnto wrath:

30 For the chyldren of Iſrael, and the chyldren of Iuda, haue only benne dooyng wickedneſſe before me from their youth vp, they haue benne only prouokyng me to wrath with the woorks of their owne hands, ſaith the Lorde.

31 For what hath this citie benne els, but a prouokyng of my wrath euer ſince the day that they builded it, vnto this houre wherein I caſt it out of my ſyght?

32 Becauſe of the great blaſphemies of the chyldren of Iſrael and Iuda, whiche they haue donne to prouoke me, yea they, theyr kynges, theyr princes, theyr prieſtes, theyr prophetes, the menne of Iuda, and the citizens of Hieruſalem:

Iere.2.b 33 * When I ſtoode vp early & taught them, & inſtructed them, they turned their backes to me, and not theyr faces,

Iere.8.d 34 They woulde not heare to be refourmed and correct: * but ſet their idols in the houſe that is halowed to my name, to defile it.

G 35 They haue builded high places for Baal in the valley of the children of Hennom, to cauſe their ſonnes and daughters to paſſe thorowe [fire] in the honour of Moloch, whiche I neuer commaunded them: neither came it euer in my thought to make Juda ſinne with ſuche abomination.

36 And nowe therefore thus hath the Lorde God of Iſrael ſpoken concernyng this citie, whiche as ye your ſelues confeſſe, ſhalbe deliuered into the hand of the king of Babylon, [when it is wonne] with the ſwoorde, with hunger, and with peſtilence.

Deut.30.a 37 *Beholde, I wyl geather them togeather from al landes, wherein I haue ſcattered them in my wrath, in fearful and great diſpleaſure, and wyl bryng them agayne vnto this place where they ſhal dwel ſafely:

38 And they ſhalbe my people, and I wyl be their God.

Pſal.119.e 39 * And I wyl geue them one hart and one way, that they may feare me al the dayes of theyr lyfe: that they and theyr chyldren after them may proſper.

40 * And I wyl ſet vp an euerlaſtyng couenant with them [namely] that I wyl neuer ceaſſe to doo them good, and that I wyl put my feare in theyr hartes, ſo that they ſhal not runne away from me. Eze.36.e

41 * Yea I wil haue a luſt and pleaſure to doo them good, and faythfully to plant them in this land with my whole hart, and with my whole ſoule. Deut,39 b Iere,21.c

42 For thus ſayth the Lord, Like as I haue brought al this great plague vpon this people: euen ſo wyl I alſo bryng vpon them al the good that I haue promiſed them.

43 And menne ſhal haue theyr poſſeſſions in this lande, whereof ye ſay nowe, that it ſhal neither be inhabited of the people nor of catel, but be deliuered into the handes of the Chaldees:

44 Yea lande ſhalbe bought for money, and euidences made thereupon, and ſealed before witneſſes in the countrey of Beniamin, and rounde about Hieruſalem, in the cities of Juda, in the cities that are vpon the mountaynes, and them that lye beneath, yea and in the cities that are in the ſouth: for I wyl bryng theyr priſoners hither agayne, ſayth the Lorde.

The.xxxiii.Chapter.

1 The prophete is moniſhed of the Lorde, to pray for the deliuerance of the people, whiche the Lorde promiſeth. 8 God forgeueth ſinnes, and dooth gratiouſly to the people for his owne renowme. 15 Of the byrth of Chriſte. 20 The kyngdome of Chriſte in the Churche ſhal neuer be ended.

A 1 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto Jeremie agayne, * when he was yet bounde in the court of the priſon. Iere.20. and,32.a

2 Thus ſayth the Lorde who made Hieruſalem, who faſhioned yͤ ſame to eſtabliſhe it, whoſe name is the Lorde:

Exod.14 1.Reg.7.d 3 * Crye vnto me, and I wyl anſweare, and ſhewe thee great and high thynges whiche were vnknowen vnto thee.

4 Thus [I ſay] ſpeaketh the Lorde God of Iſrael, concernyng the houſes of this citie, and the houſes of the kynges of Juda that are broken through the ordinance and the ſwoorde.

5 The inhabitours of this citie haue comme to fight agaynſt the Chaldees, and they are filled with the dead carkaſſes of men, whom I haue ſlayne in my wrath and diſpleaſure, when I turned my face from this citie, becauſe of al her wickedneſſe.

6 Beholde, ſayth the Lorde, I wyl repayre and heale theyr woundes, and make them whole: I wyl open them the large treaſure of peace and trueth,

7 And wil returne the captiuitie of Juda and Iſrael, and wyl ſet them vp agayne as they were before: B

8 * From al miſdeedes wherein they offended agaynſt me, I wyl cleanſe them: and al theyr blaſphemies whiche they haue donne agaynſt me when they regarded me not, I wyl forgeue them. Iere.44.d

9 And this ſhal geat me a name, a prayſe and honour among al the people of the earth, whiche ſhal heare al the good that I wyl ſhewe vnto them, yea they ſhalbe afrayde and aſtonied at al the good deedes and benefites that I wyl doo for them.

10 Moreouer, thus ſayth the Lorde, In this place (whereof ye ſay it ſhalbe a wylderneſſe, wherein neyther people nor catel ſhal dwel) in lyke manner in the cities of Juda, and in the ſtreetes of Hieruſalem (which alſo ſhalbe ſo voyde, that neyther people nor cattel ſhal dwelle there,)

11 Shal the voyce of gladneſſe be hearde againe, the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bride, the voyce of them that ſhal ſing, Praiſe the Lorde of hoſtes, for he is louyng, and his mercie endureth for euer, & the voyce of them that offer vp giftes in the houſe of the Lorde: for I wyl reſtore the captiuitie of this lande as it was afore, ſayth the Lorde.

Pſal.108,a. i.Mac.4.d

12 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, It ſhal comme yet thereto, that in this lande whiche is voide from menne and cattel, and in al the cities of the lande, there ſhalbe ſet vp ſhepheardes cottages to reſt their flockes.

13 In the cities vpon the mountaynes, and in the cities that lye vpon the playne, & in the cities of the South, in the lande of Beniamin, and rounde about Hieruſalem, and in the cities of Iuda ſhal the ſheepe paſſe agayne vnder the hande of hym that telleth them, ſayth the Lorde.

C Iere.23.a 14 * Beholde, the tyme commeth, ſayth the Lord, that I wil perfourme that good thing whiche I haue promiſed vnto the houſe of Iſrael, and vnto the houſe of Iuda.

15 In thoſe daies, and at the ſame time, I wil bryng foorth vnto Dauid the branche of ryghteouſneſſe, and he ſhal doo equitie and ryghteouſneſſe in the lande.

Eſai.32.d. 2.Reg.7.c

16 In thoſe dayes ſhal Iuda be ſaued, * and Hieruſalem ſhal dwelle ſafe: and this ſhalbe her name, (a) God our ryghteouſneſſe.

17 For thus the Lord promiſeth, Dauid ſhal neuer want one to ſit vpon the throne of the houſe of Iſrael:

18 * Neyther ſhal the Prieſtes and Leuites want one to offer alway before me burnt offerynges, to kyndle the meate offeringes, and to prepare the ſacrifices. i.Reg.ii.g.

19 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto Ieremie, after this manner.

20 Thus ſaith the Lorde, May the couenant whiche I haue made with day and night be broken, that there ſhoulde not be day & nyght in due ſeaſon?

21 Then may my couenant alſo be broken which I made with Dauid my ſeruant, and ſo he not to haue a ſonne to raigne in his throne: * ſo ſhal alſo the Prieſtes and Leuites neuer fayle, but ſerue me. D 2.Per.ii.a.

22 For like as the ſtarres of heauē may not be numbred, neither the ſande of the ſea meaſured: ſo wil I multiply the ſeede of Dauid my ſeruant, and the Leuites my miniſters. Gen.xv.b and.32.e

23 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came to Ieremie, ſayeing,

24 Cōſydereſt thou not what this people ſpeaketh: Two kinredes [ſay they] had the Lorde choſen, & thoſe ſame two hath he caſt away: for ſo they haue deſpiſed my people, and they reputed them as though they were no people.

25 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lord, If I haue made no couenant with day and nyght, and geuen no ſtatute vnto heauen and earth:

26 Then wyl I alſo caſt away the ſeede of Iacob and Dauid my ſeruant, ſo that I wil take no prince out of his ſeede to rule the poſteritie of Abraham, Iſaac and Iacob: but yet I wyl turne agayne their captiuitie, and be mercyful vnto them.

The.xxxiiij. Chapter.

2 He threatneth that the citie, and the king Zedekias alſo ſhalbe geuen into the handes of the kyng of Babylon. 11 He rebuketh them that brought ſuch of their brethren into captiuitie, as were pardoned to goe at their libertie.

A 1 THESE are the woordes whiche the Lorde ſpake vnto Ieremie, what time as Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon, and al his hoſt, and al the kyngdomes that were vnder his power, and al his people, fought agaynſt Hieruſalem, and al the cities thereof. Iere.39.a.

2 Thus ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael, Goe and ſpeake to Zedekias the kyng of Iuda, and telle hym, The Lorde ſendeth thee this woorde: Beholde, * I wil deliuer this citie into the hande of the kyng of Babylon, he ſhal burne it with fire, 4.Re.25.a. Iere.32.a xxxix.a.

3 And thou ſhalt not eſcape his handes, but ſhalt be taken priſoner, and deliuered into his power: Thou ſhalt looke the king of Babylon in the face, & he ſhal ſpeake to thee mouth to mouth, and then ſhalt thou goe to Babylon.

4 Yet heare the woorde of the Lorde, O Zedekias thou kyng of Iuda, thus ſayth the Lorde vnto thee, Thou ſhalt not be ſlayne with the ſwoorde, i.Reg.21.c

5 But ſhalt dye in peace: & as thy forefathers the kynges, thy (a) progenitours were brent, ſo ſhalt thou be brent alſo, and in thy mournyng they ſhal ſay, O Lorde: for thus haue I determined, ſayth the Lorde.

6 Then ſayde Ieremie the prophete al theſe woordes vnto Zedekias kyng of Iuda in Hieruſalem,

7 What tyme as the king of Babylons hoſt B

(a) This name hath God geuen to Chriſte, and dooth properly belong to him alone: but here it is attributed vnto the Churche, for that God yͤ father hath eſpouſed Chriſte his ſonne vnto the Churche, and hath endowed her with al that is his.

(a) Zedekias is promiſed to be brent after his death, that is, to haue his funeralles honourably done beſieged Hieruſalem, and the remnant of the cities [namely] Lachis and Azecah, whiche yet remayned of the *ſtrong defenſed cities of Iuda. 2.Par.xi.a.

8 These are the woordes that the Lord ſpake vnto Ieremie the prophete, when Zedekias was agreed with al the people at Hieruſalem, that there ſhoulde be proclaymed a *libertie: Exod.21.a Leuit.26.f Deut.15.b

9 So that euery man ſhoulde let his ſeruant and handmaide goe free, Hebrue & Hebrueſſe, and no Iewe holde his brother as a bondman.

10 Now as they had conſented, al the princes and al the people which had geathered vnto this agreement, that euery man ſhould ſet at libertie his bondſeruant and bondwoman, & no longer to holde them bounde: euen ſo they were obedient, and let them goe free.

11 But afterwarde they repented, and tooke againe the ſeruantes & handmaidens whom they had let goe free, and ſo made them bond agayne.

12 For whiche cauſe, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto Ieremie from the Lord him ſelfe, ſayeing,

Deut.15.a. Exod.21.a 13 Thus ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael: *I made a couenant with your fathers when I brought them out of the lande of Egypt, out of the houſe of bondage, ſayeing,

C 14 When ſeuen yeeres are out, euery man ſhal let his bought ſeruant an Hebrue goe free, yf he haue ſerued hym ſixe yeeres: but your fathers obeyed me not, and hearkened not vnto me.

15 As for you ye were nowe turned, and dyd ryght before me, in that ye proclaymed euery man to let his neighbour goe free, and in that ye made a couenant before me in the temple that beareth my name.

16 But yet ye turned your ſelues agayne, and blaſphemed my name, in this, that euery man hath required his ſeruant and handemayde agayne, whom ye had let goe quite & free, and compelled them to ſerue you againe, and to be boudmen and bond women.

17 And therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde, Ye haue not obeyed me, euery man to proclaime freedome vnto his brother and neyghbour: Wherefore I wyl calle you vnto freedome, ſayth the Lorde, euen vnto the ſwoorde, to the peſtilence, and to hunger, & wil make you to be plagued in al kyngdomes of the earth.

18 Yea thoſe menne that haue broken my couenant, and not kept the woordes of the appoyntment whiche they made before me, *when they hewed the calfe in two, & when they went thorowe the two halfes thereof, Gen.xv.b

19 The princes of Iuda, the princes of Hieruſalem, the gelded menne, the prieſtes, and al the people of the lande, whiche went thorow the two ſydes of the calfe:

20 Thoſe menne wyl I geue into the power of their enimies, and into the handes of them that folowe vpon their liues: *and their dead bodyes ſhalbe meate for the foules of the aire, and beaſtes of the fielde. Pſal.79.a Iere.vij.d.

21 As for Zedekias the king of Iuda, and his princes, I wyl deliuer them into the power of their enimies, and of them that deſyre to ſlay them, and into the hande of the kyng of Babylons hoſt, *whiche nowe is departed from you. D Iere.37.c

22 But thorowe my commaundement (ſaith the Lorde) they ſhal comme agayne before this citie, they ſhal fyght againſt it, winne it, and burne it: Moreouer, I wyl lay the cities of Iuda ſo waſte, that no man ſhal dwelle therein.

The.xxxv.Chapter.

1 He propoundeth the obedience of the Rechabites, and therby confoundeth the pride of the Iewes. 6 The commaundement of Ionadab the father of the Rechabites. 17 He threatneth pounishment vnto the rebellious Iewes. 19 He promiſeth proſperitie vnto the Rechabites for their obedience.

A 1 THE woordes whiche the lorde ſpake vnto Ieremie, in yͤ raigne of Iehoakim the ſonne of Ioſias kyng of Iuda, are theſe:

4.Reg.x.e 2 Goe vnto the houſe *of the Rechabites, and calle them out, and bring them to the houſe of the Lorde, into ſomme commodious place, and geue them wine to drinke.

3 Then tooke I Iazaniah the ſonne of Ieremie, the ſonne of Habazniah, & his brethren, and al his ſonnes, and the whole houſholde of the Rechabites,

4 And brought them into the houſe of the Lord, into the cloſet of the children of Hanan the ſonne of Iegedaliah the man of GOD, whiche was by the cloſet of the princes, that is aboue the cloſet of Maaſiah the ſonne of Sellum, whiche is the treaſurer.

5 And before the ſonnes of the kinred of the Rechabites, I ſet pottes ful of wine, & cuppes, and ſayde vnto them, Drinke wine:

6 But they ſayd, We wyl drinke no wine: for

Ionadab

Iere.29.b

Ionadab the ſonne of Rechab our father cõmaunded vs, ſayeing, Ye and your ſonnes ſhal neuer drinke wine, *buylde houſes, ſowe no ſeede, plant no vines,

B 7 Yea ye ſhal haue no vineyardes: but for al your time ye ſhal dwel in tentes, that ye may liue long in the land wherin ye be ſtrangers.

8 Thus haue we obeyed the cõmaundement of Ionadab the ſonne of Rechab our father, in al that he hath charged vs, & ſo we drinke no wine al our lyfe long, we nor our wyues, our ſonnes and our daughters,

9 Neither buylde we any houſe to dwel therin: we haue alſo among vs neyther vineyardes, nor corne lande to ſowe:

10 But we dwel in tentes, we obey, and doo accordyng vnto al that Ionadab our father commaunded vs.

11 But nowe that Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon came vp into the lande, we ſaid, Comme, let vs goe to Hieruſalem, that we may eſcape the hoſt of the Chaldees and the Aſſyrians: and ſo we dwelle nowe at Hieruſalem.

12 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto Ieremie, ſayeing,

13 Thus ſayth the Lord of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, Goe and tel the menne of Iuda, & the inhabitours of Hieruſalem: Wyl ye not be refourmed to obey my woordes, ſayth the lord:

C 14 The woordes whiche Ionadab the ſonne of Rechab cõmaunded his ſonnes, that they ſhoulde drinke no wyne, are faſt ſurely kept, for vnto this day they drinke no wyne, but obey their fathers commaundement: but as for me *I haue ſtande vp early, I haue ſpoken vnto you, and geuen you earneſt warning, and yet haue ye not benne obedient vnto me.

Iere.18.a. and,xxv.a

15 Yea I haue ſent my ſeruantes al the prophetes vnto you, I roſe vp early, and ſent you woorde, ſayeing, O turne you nowe euery man from his wicked way, amende your lyues, and goe not after ſtrange goddes to worſhip them, that ye may continue in the lande whiche I haue geuen vnto you and your fathers: but ye would neither heare me, nor folowe me.

16 The children of Ionadab Rechabs ſonne, haue ſtedfaſtly kept their fathers commaundement that he gaue them: but this people is not obedient vnto me,

17 And therfore, thus ſayth the lord of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, Behold, I wyl bring vpõ Iuda, & vpon euery one that dwelleth in Hieruſalem, al the trouble that I haue deuiſed againſt them: For I haue ſpoken vnto them, but they woulde not folowe, I haue called vnto them, neuertheleſſe they woulde geue me no anſweare.

Prou.i.c.
Eſai.xlv.b
Iere.vij.b.

18 Ieremie alſo ſpake vnto the houſholde of the Rechabites, Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, Foraſmuche as ye haue obeyed the commaundement of Ionadab your father, and kept al his preceptes, & donne accordyng to al that he hath bydden:

19 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes the God Iſrael, *Ionadab the ſonne of Rechab ſhal not fayle, but haue one out of his ſtocke to ſtande alway before me.

Iere.33.c.

The.xxxvi.Chapter.

1 Baruch writeth (as Ieremie enditeth) the booke of the curſes agaynſt Iuda and Iſrael. 9 He is ſent with the booke vnto the people, and readeth it before them al. 14 He is called before the rulers, and readeth it before them alſo. 20 The rulers ſhewe vnto the kyng the woordes of the booke. 23 Iehudi taketh the booke, and readeth a litle of it, and caſteth it into the fire. 28 There is another written at the commaundement of the Lorde.

A 1 IN the fourth yeere of Iehoakim the ſonne of Ioſias the kyng of Iuda, came the woord of yͤ lord vnto Ieremie, ſayeing,

Iere.xxx.a

2 *Take a booke, and write therin al yͤ woordes that I haue ſpoken to thee agaynſt Iſrael, agaynſt Iuda, and agaynſt al the people, from the tyme that I began to ſpeake vnto thee in the raigne of Ioſias, vnto this day:

3 That when the houſe of Iuda heareth of the plague whiche I haue deuiſed for them, they may peraduenture turne euery man frõ his wicked way, that I may forgeue theyr offences and ſinnes.

4 Then did Ieremie calle Baruch the ſonne of Neriah,* and Baruch wrote in the booke at the mouth of Ieremie, al the woordes of the Lorde whiche he had ſpoken vnto hym.

Iere.xlv.a

5 And Ieremie commaunded Baruch, ſayeing, I am in priſõ, ſo that I may not comme into the houſe of the Lorde:

6 Therefore goe thou thyther, and reade the booke that thou haſt written at my mouth [namely] the woordes of the Lorde, and reade them in the lordes houſe vpon the (a) faſtyng day, that the people, whole Iuda, and al they that comme out of the cities may heare.

7 Peraduenture they wyl pray meekely before the face of the Lorde, and turne euery one from his wicked way: for great is the wrath

(a) when Iehoakim the kyng of Iuda heard that the king of Babylon his armie was comming to beſiege Hieruſalẽ, he appoynted a ſolemne & publique faſt for al the people, cõmaunding thẽ to reſort vnto the temple at the tyme appoynted, and there to make their humble prayers vnto God for peace & his fauour, as the manner of Gods people was in al their diſtreſſes to faſt & pray in faithful repentance.

and diſpleaſure that the Lorde hath taken agaynſt this people.

8 So Baruch the ſonne of Neriah, did accordyng to al that Ieremie the prophete commaunded hym, readyng the woordes of the Lorde, out of the booke, in the Lordes houſe.

9 And this was donne in the fyfth yeere of Iehoakim the ſonne of Ioſias king of Iuda, in the nienth moneth, *when it was commaunded that al the people of Hieruſalem ſhould faſt before the Lord, and they alſo that were comme from the cities of Iuda, vnto Hieruſalem: Ioſu.iij.a

10 Then read Baruch the woordes of Ieremie out of the booke within the houſe of the Lorde, out of the treaſurie of Gamariah the ſonne of Saphan the ſcribe, whiche is beſide the hyer loft of the *newe doore of the Lordes houſe, that al the people myght heare. Ier.xxvj.a

11 Nowe when Micheas the ſonne of Gamariah, the ſonne of Saphan, hearde al the woordes of the Lorde out of the booke,

12 He went downe to the kynges palace into the ſcribes chambers, for there al the princes were ſet, Eliſama the ſcribe, Dalaiah the ſonne of Semei, Elnathan the ſonne of Achbor, Gamariah the ſonne of Saphan, Zedekias the ſonne of Hananias, with al the princes.

13 And Micheas tolde them al the woordes that he heard Baruch reade out of the booke before the people.

C 14 Then al the princes ſent Iehudi the ſonne of Nathaniah, the ſonne of Selemiah, the ſonne of Chuſi, vnto Baruch, ſayeing, Take in thyne hande the booke wherout thou haſt read before al the people, and comme. So Baruch the ſonne of Neriah toke the booke in his hande, and came vnto them.

15 And they ſayde vnto him, Sit downe, and reade the booke, that we may heare alſo: So Baruch read, that they myght heare.

16 Now whē they had heard al the woordes, they were abaſhed one vpon another, and ſayd vnto Baruch, We wyl certifie the king of al theſe woordes.

17 And they examined Baruch, ſayeing, Tel vs, how diddeſt thou write al theſe woordes out of his mouth?

18 Then Baruch anſweared them, He ſpake al theſe woordes vnto me with his mouth, and I wrote them in the booke.

19 Then ſayd the princes vnto Baruch, Goe thy way, hyde thee with Ieremie, ſo that no man knowe where ye be.

20 And they went in to the kyng to the court (but they kept the booke in the chamber of Elizama the ſcribe) and tolde the king al the woordes, that he myght heare.

21 So the kyng ſent Iehudi to fet hym the booke: whiche he brought out of Elizama the ſcribes chamber, and Iehudi read in it, that the kyng & al the princes whiche were about hym myght heare. D

22 Nowe the kyng ſate in the winter houſe (for it was in the nienth moneth) and there was a fyre before hym.

23 And when Iehudi had read three or foure leaues thereof, he cut yͤ booke in peeces with a penknife, and *caſt it into the fyre vpon the harth, vntyl the booke was al brent in the fire vpon the harth. i.Mach.2.c

24 Yet no man was abaſhed therof, nor rent his clothes, neyther the kyng hym ſelfe, nor his ſeruantes, though they hearde al theſe woordes.

25 Neuertheleſſe, Elnathan, Dalaiah, and Gamariah beſought the king that he would not burne the booke: notwithſtandyng, the kyng woulde not heare them:

26 But commaunded Ierahmel the ſonne of Amelech, Saraiah the ſonne of Ezriel, and Selemiah the ſonne of Abdeel, to lay handes vpon Baruch the ſcribe, and vpon Ieremie the prophete: but the Lorde kept them out of ſyght.

27 Nowe after that the kyng had brent the booke, and the ſermons whiche Baruch wrote at the mouth of Ieremie, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto Ieremie, ſayeing,

28 Take another booke, and write in it al the foreſayde ſermons that were written in the firſt booke whiche Iehoakim the kyng of Iuda hath brent. E

29 And telle Iehoakim the kyng of Iuda, thus ſayth the Lorde, Thou haſt brent the booke, & thoughteſt within thee ſelfe, Why haſt thou written therein, that the kyng of Babylon ſhal comme and make this lande waſte, ſo that he ſhal make both people and cattel to be out of it?

30 Therfore, thus the Lorde ſayth of Iehoakim the kyng of Iuda, *There ſhal none of his generation ſit vpon the throne of Dauid, his dead coarſe ſhalbe caſt out, that the heate of the day, and the froſt of the nyght, may comme vpon him. 4.Re.24.b Iere.xxii.c

31 And I wyl viſite the wickedneſſe of hym, of his ſeede, and of his ſeruantes: Moreouer, al the euyl that I haue promiſed thē, though they heard me not, wyl I bryng vpon them, vpon the inhabitours of Hieruſalem, & vpon al Iuda.

32 Then tooke Ieremie another booke, and gaue it Baruch the ſcribe the ſonne of Neriah, whiche wrote therein out of the mouth of Ieremie, al the ſermons that were in the firſt booke whiche Iehoakim the kyng of Iuda dyd burne: and there were added vnto them many mo ſermons, lyke vnto the former.

The.xxxvij.Chapter,

1 Zedekia ſucceedeth Cononiah, 3 he ſendeth vnto Ieremie to pray for hym. 12 Ieremie goeing into the lande of Beniamin is taken, 15 he is beaten and put in priſon, 17 he is deliuered by kyng Zedekia.

A 1 Zedekia the ſonne of Ioſiah, * whiche was made kyng through Nabuchodonoſor king of Babylon, raigned in the land of Iuda, in the ſteade of " Cononiah the ſonne of Iehoakim. 4.Reg.24. " or, Iechoniah.

2 But neyther he, nor his ſeruantes, nor the people in his lande, would obey the wordes of the Lorde which he ſpake by the prophete Ieremie.

Iere.31.a. 3 Neuertheleſſe, Zedekia the king ſent Iehucal the ſonne of Selemiah, and Sophoniah the ſonne of Maaſiah the prieſt, to the prophete Ieremie, ſayeing, O pray thou vnto the Lorde our God for vs.

4 Nowe Ieremie walked free among the people at that tyme, and was not put in priſon as yet.

Ezec.17.b 5 *Pharaoes hoſt alſo was comme out of Egypt: whiche when the Chaldees whiche beſieged Hieruſalem perceiued, they departed from thence.

6 Then came the worde of the Lorde vnto the prophete Ieremie, ſayeing,

B 7 Thus ſayth the Lorde GOD of Iſrael, This anſweare ſhal ye geue to the kyng of Iuda that ſent you vnto me for counſayle: *Beholde, Pharaoes hoſt whiche is comme foorth to helpe you, ſhal returne into Egypt into his owne lande. Iere.46.a

8 But the Chaldees ſhal comme againe, and fyght agaynſt this citie, winne it, and ſet fire vpon it.

9 For thus ſaith the Lorde, Deceiue not your owne myndes, thinkyng on this manner, Tuſhe, the Chaldees goe now their way frõ vs: No, they ſhal not goe their way.

10 For though ye had ſlayne the whole hoſt of the Chaldees that beſiege you, and that none remayned of thẽ but wounded menne, yet ſhoulde they ſtande vp, and ſet fyre vpon this citie.

11 Now when the hoſt of the Chaldees was broken vp from Hieruſalem for feare of the Egyptians armie, 12 Ieremie went out of Hieruſalem towarde the lande of Beniamin, to geat hym from among the people.

13 And whẽ he came vnder Beniamins port, there was a porter called Ieriah, the ſonne of Selemiah, the ſonne of * Hananiah, whiche fel vpon hym, and tooke hym, ſayeing, Thy minde is to runne to the Chaldees. Iere.28.b

14 Then ſaid Ieremie, It is not ſo, I goe not to yͤ Chaldees: Neuertheleſſe, Ieriah woulde not beleue him, but brought Ieremie bounde before the princes. C

15 Wherefore, the princes were angry with Ieremie, and ſmote hym, and layde hym in priſon in the houſe of Ionathan the ſcribe: for they had made that houſe the priſon.

16 Thus was Ieremie put into a dungeon and priſon, and ſo lay there a long tyme.

17 Then Zedekia the king ſent for him, and called hym, & aſked hym quietly in his owne houſe, ſayeing, Thinkeſt thou this buſineſſe [that is now in hande] commeth of the Lorde? Ieremie anſweared, yea that it dooth: & thou (ſayde he) ſhalt be deliuered into the kyng of Babylons power. Iere.38.c

18 Moreouer, Ieremie ſayde vnto kyng Zedekia, What haue I offended agaynſt thee, agaynſt thy ſeruantes, or agaynſt this people, that ye haue put me in priſon?

19 * Where are your prophetes whiche haue prophecied vnto you, and ſayde, That the king of Babylon ſhould not comme againſt you and this lande? Iere.28.c

20 And therefore heare nowe, O my Lorde the kyng, let my prayer be accepted before thee, and ſende me no more into the houſe of Ionathan the ſcribe, that I dye not there.

21 Then Zedekia commaunded to put Ieremie in the fore entrie of the priſon, and dayly to be geuẽ him a cake of bread of the bakers ſtreete, vntyl al the bread in the citie was eaten vp: Thus Ieremie remayned in the fore entrie of the priſon.

The.xxxviii.Chapter.

1 By the motion of the rulers,Jeremie is put into a dungeon. 14 At the requeſt of Abedmelech the chamberlayne, the kyng commaundeth Jeremie to be brought foorth of the dungeon. 17 Jeremie ſheweth the kyng howe he myght eſcape death.

A 1 Saphatiah the ſonne of Mathan, Gedaliah the ſonne of Paſchur, Jucal yͤ ſonne of Selemiah, and Paſchur the ſonne of Melchia,perceiued the wordes that Jeremie had ſpoken vnto al the people,namely, on this manner.

Iere.21.b and.27.a 2 Thus ſayth the Lord,*Who ſo remayneth in this citie,ſhal periſh either with yͤ ſwoord, with hunger, or with peſtilence: but who ſo falleth vnto the Chaldees ſhal eſcape, wynnyng his ſoule for a pray,and ſhal lyue.

Iere.22.e 3 For thus ſayth the lord,This citie no doubt muſt be deliuered into the power of the king of Babylon,and he alſo ſhal winne it.

4 Then ſayd the princes vnto the king,Sir, we beſeech you let this man be put to death: for thus he diſcourageth the handes of the ſouldiours that be in this citie, ⁊ the handes of al the people,when he ſpeaketh ſuch woordes vnto them: This man laboureth not for peace of the people,but miſchiefe.

5 Zedekia the king anſweared,and ſaid,Lo, he is in your handes: for the kyng may denie you nothyng.

6 Then tooke they Jeremie,and caſt hym into the dungeon of Melchiah the ſonne of Amelech,that dwelt in the fore entrie of the priſon, ⁊ they let downe Jeremie with coardes into a dungeon, where there was no water, but mire:So Jeremie ſtacke faſt in the mire.

B 7 Nowe when Abedmelech the Morian,beyng a chamberlayne in the kinges court,vnderſtoode that they had caſt Jeremie into the dungeon,

8 He went out of the kinges houſe,and ſpake to the kyng, whiche then ſate vnder the port of Beniamin,theſe woordes:

9 My lorde the kyng, where as theſe menne meddle with Jeremie the prophete, they doo hym wrong [namely] in that they haue put him in priſon,there to die for hunger:for there is no more bread in the citie.

10 Then the king commaunded Abedmelech the Morian, and ſayde, Take from hence thirtie menne,whom thou wylt, and drawe vp Jeremie the prophete out of the dungeon before he dye.

11 So Abedmelech toke the menne with him, and went to the houſe of the kyng, and there vnder the treaſurie he gate olde ragges and worne cloutes, ⁊ let them downe by a coarde into the dungeon to Jeremie.

12 And Abedmelech the Morian ſayde vnto the prophete Jeremie: O put theſe ragges and cloutes vnder thyne arme holes,betwixt them and the cordes:And Jeremie dyd ſo.

13 So they drewe vp Jeremie with cordes, ⁊ tooke hym out of the dungeon: and he remayned in the fore entrie of the priſon.

C Iere.37.c 14 *Then Zedekia the kyng ſent, and cauſed Jeremie the prophete to be called vnto him,into the thirde entrie that is in the houſe of the Lorde, and the kyng ſayde vnto Jeremie, I wyl aſke thee ſomewhat, but hyde nothyng from me.

15 Then Jeremie anſweared Zedekia, If I be playne vnto thee, thou wylt cauſe me to ſuffer death: if I geue thee counſayle, thou wylt not folowe me.

16 So the kyng ſwore an oth ſecreatly to Jeremie,ſayeing,As the Lord liueth that made vs theſe ſoules,I wyl not ſlay thee, nor geue thee into the handes of them that ſeeke after thy lyfe.

Iere.27.a 17 Then ſaid Jeremie vnto Zedekia, Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes,the God of Iſrael, If caſe be that thou wylt goe foorth vnto the kyng of Babylons princes, thou ſhalt ſaue thy lyfe, and this citie ſhal not be brent, yea both thou and thy houſhold ſhal eſcape with your lyues:

18 But if thou wilt not goe foorth to the king of Babylons princes, then ſhal this citie be deliuered into the handes of the Chaldees, whiche ſhal ſet fire vpon it, and thou ſhalt not be able to eſcape them.

19 And Zedekia ſayde vnto Jeremie, I am afrayde for the Jewes that are fled vnto the Chaldees, leaſt I comme into their handes, and ſo they to haue me in deriſion.

20 But Jeremie anſweared, No,they ſhal not betray thee: O hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde, I beſeehe thee, whiche I ſpeake vnto thee,ſo ſhalt thou be wel,and ſaue thy lyfe:

D 21 But if thou wylt not goe foorth,the Lord hath tolde me this playnely,

22 Beholde, al the women that are leaft in the kyng of Judaes houſe, ſhalbe led foorth vnto the king of Babylons princes:and they ſhal ſay, thou art deceiued, and the menne in whom thou dydſt put thy truſt, haue gotten thee vnder, and ſet thy feete faſt in the mire, and gonne their way from thee.

23 Therfore al thy wiues, with thy children, ſhal they leade foorth vnto the Chaldees, and thou ſhalt not eſcape their handes: but ſhalt be the kyng of Babylons priſoner, and this citie ſhalt thou cauſe to be burnt.

24 Then ſaid Zedekia vnto Ieremie, Looke that no body knowe of theſe woordes, & thou ſhalt not dye,

25 But if the princes perceiue that I haue talked with thee, & comme vnto thee, ſayeing, O ſpeake, what ſayde the kyng to thee, hyde it not from vs, and we wyl not put thee to death: tel vs (we pray thee) what ſayde the kyng to thee?

26 See thou geue them this anſweare: I haue humbly beſought the kyng, that he wyl let me lye no more in Iehonathans houſe, that I dye not there.

27 Then came al the princes vnto Ieremie, and aſked hym: and he tolde them after the manner as the kyng bade hym. Then they helde their peace, and let hym alone: for they perceiued nothyng.

28 *So Ieremie abode ſtyl in the fore entrie of the priſon, vntyl the day that Hieruſalem was wonne. Iere.39.c

The.xxxix, Chapter.

1 Nabuchodonoſor beſiegeth Hieruſalem. 4 Zedekia fleeth, 5 he is taken of the Chaldees, 6 his ſonnes are ſlayne, 7 his eyes are thruſt out, 11 Ieremie is prouided for. 25 Abedmelech is deliuered from captiuitie, becauſe of the confidence that he had in God.

A 1 NOwe *when the citie of Hieruſalem was taken (for in the nienth yeere of Zedekia kyng of Iuda, the tenth moneth, came Nabuchodonoſor yͤ kyng of Babylon & al his hoſt, and beſieged Hieruſalem, & fought againſt it, Iere.32.a 4.Re.25.a.

2 And in the eleuenth yeere of Zedekia, in the fourth moneth, the ninth day of the moneth, he brake into the citie)

3 Then al the princes of the kinge of Babylon came in, and ſate them downe vnder the port: Neregel Sereſer, Samgarnebo, Sarſachim, Rabſares, Neregel Sereſer, Rabmag, with al the other princes of the king of Babylon.

Iere,34.a 4 *And when Zedekia the kyng of Iuda with his ſouldiers ſawe them, then they fled & departed out of the citie by nyght through the kynges garden, & through the port that is betweene the two walles, and ſo the kyng went towarde the wylderneſſe:

5 But the Chaldees hoaſt folowed faſt after them, and tooke Zedekia in the fielde of Hiericho, and brought hym priſoner to Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon, vnto Reblath, that lieth in the land of Hemath, wher he gaue iudgement vpon hym.

6 So the kyng of Babylon cauſed the chyldren of Zedekia and al the nobles of Iuda to be ſlayne before his face at Reblath,

B 7 And made Zedekias eyes to be put out, & bound him with two chaynes, and ſent him to Babylon.

4.Re.25.d. Iere.22.d 8 *Moreouer, the Chaldees burnt vp the kynges palace with the other houſes of the people, and brake downe the walles of Hieruſalem.

9 As for the remnant of the people that were in the citie, and ſuch as were comme to him, & whatſoeuer was leaſt of the common ſort, Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne caried thẽ to Babylon.

10 But Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne let the raſcal people, and thoſe that had nothing, dwelle ſtyl in the lande of Iuda, and gaue them vineyardes & corne fieldes at the ſame tyme.

11 Nabuchodonoſor alſo the kyng of Babylon, gaue Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne a charge concernyng Ieremie, ſayeing, 12 Take and cheriſhe hym, and make much of hym, ſee thou doo hym no harme, but entreate hym after his owne deſyre.

13 So Nabuzaradan yͤ chiefe captayne, Nabuzarban, Rabſares, Neregel, Sereſer, Rabmag, and al the kyng of Babylons lordes, ſent for Ieremie,

14 *And cauſed hym to be fet out of the fore entrie of the priſon, and committed him vnto Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahikam, the ſonne of Saphan, that he ſhoulde cary him home: *and ſo he dwelt among the people. C Iere,38.d Iere.40.b

15 Nowe when Ieremie lay yet bounde in the fore entrie of the priſon, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto hym, ſayeing,

16 Goe and tel Abedmelech the Morian, thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, Beholde, the cruel and ſharpe plague that I haue deuiſed for this citie wyl I bring vpon them, that thou ſhalt ſee it:

17 But I wyl deliuer thee in that day, ſayth the Lorde, and thou ſhalt not comme in the handes of thoſe menne whom thou feareſt:

18 For doubtleſſe I wil ſaue thee, ſo that thou ſhalt not periſhe with the ſwoorde: but thy lyfe ſhalbe ſaued, and that becauſe thou haſt put thy truſt in me, ſayth the Lorde.

The.xl.Chapter,

1 Jeremie hath licence to goe whyther he wyl, 8 he dwelleth with the people that remayneth at Hieruſalem, ouer whom Gedaliah ruleth. 14 Johanan prophecieth death vnto Gedaliah.

A 1 This is the woorde that the lorde ſpake vnto Jeremie, *When Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine had let hym goe free from *Ramath, whyther he had led hym bounde among al the priſoners that were caryed from Hieruſalem & Juda vnto Babylon.

Iere.43.a
Ioſu.18.d

2 The chiefe captayne called for Jeremie, and ſayde vnto hym, The Lorde thy God ſpake mightily before of the miſerie vpō this place.

3 Nowe the Lorde hath ſent it, and perfourmed it as he hath promiſed: for ye haue ſinned agaynſt the Lorde, and haue not benne obedient vnto his voyce, therefore commeth this plague vpon you.

4 Beholde, I looſe the bandes from thy handes this day: if thou wylt nowe goe with me vnto Babylon, vp then, for I wyl ſee to thee, and prouide for thee: but if thou wilt not goe with me to Babylon, then remaine here: *Beholde, al the lande is at thy wyl, looke where thou thynkeſt conuenient and good for thee to abyde, there dwelle.

Gen.iij.b.
Tobi.i.b.

5 For as yet he was not gonne backe agayne to Gedaliah: therefore he ſayde to hym, Goe backe to Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam, the ſonne of Saphan, *whom the kyng of Babylon hath made gouernour ouer the cities of Juda, and dwelle with hym among the people, or remayne where ſoeuer it pleaſe thee. So the chiefe captayne gaue him his expences with a rewarde, and let hym goe.

4. Re.15.c.

6 *Then went Jeremie vnto Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam to Miſpa, and dwelt there with hym among the people that were leaſt in the lande.

Iere.39.c

B 7 Nowe when the captaynes of the hoſt of Juda, whiche with their felowes were ſcattered abroade on euery ſyde in the lande, vnderſtood that the kyng of Babylō had made Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam gouernour in the lande, and that man, wife, and childe, yea and the poore menne in the lande that were not led captiue vnto Babylon, ſhould be vnder his iuriſdiction:

8 They came to Gedaliah vnto Miſpa, [namely] Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah, Johanan & Jonathan the ſonnes of Careah, Sareah the ſonne of Thanehumeth, yͤ ſonnes of Ephai yͤ Netophatite, Jezaniah the ſonne of Maachati, with their companions.

9 And Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam, yͤ ſonne of Saphan, ſware vnto them & their felowes in this manner: *Be not afrayde to ſerue the Chaldees, dwel in the land, and doo the king of Babylon ſeruice, ſo ſhal ye proſper.

4.Re.15.c

10 Beholde, I dwel at Miſpa, to be an officer in the Chaldees behalfe, & to ſatiſfie ſuche as comme to vs: therfore geather wine, corne, & oyle, and keepe them in your ware houſes, & dwel in your cities that ye haue in keepyng.

11 Yea al the Jewes alſo that dwelt in Moab, vnder the Ammonites, Idumea, & in al the countreys, when they heard that the kyng of Babylon had made Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam, the ſonne of Saphan, gouernour vpon al them that were left in Juda:

12 All the Jewes [I ſay] returned out of al places where they were fled vnto, and came into the lande of Juda to Gedaliah vnto Miſpa, and geathered wine and other fruites, and that very muche.

13 Moreouer, Johanan the ſonne of Careah, and al the captaynes of the hoſt that were ſcattered on euery ſyde in the lande, came to Gedaliah to Miſpa, and ſayde vnto hym,

C 14 Knoweſt thou not that Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath ſent Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah to ſlay thee? But Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam beleued them not.

15 Then ſayde Johanan the ſonne of Careah vnto Gedaliah in Miſpa theſe woordes ſecretly, Let me goe, I pray thee, and I wil ſlay Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah, ſo that no body ſhal know it: wherfore wil he kil thee, that al the Jewes whiche reſort vnto thee might be ſcattered, and the remnant in Juda periſhe?

16 And Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam ſayde to Johanan the ſonne of Careah, Thou ſhalt not doo it: for they are but lies that thou ſaieſt of Iſmael.

The.xlj.Chapter.

2 Iſmael killeth Gedaliah guilefully, and many other with hym. 11 Johanan foloweth after Iſmael.

A 1 But in the ſeuenth moneth, it happened that Iſmael yͤ ſonne of Nathaniah, the ſonne of Eliſama, one of the kinges blood came, and the greateſt about the kyng, and tenne menne with him, vnto Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam to Miſpa, and they dyd eate togeather in Miſpa.

4.Re.25.a

2 And Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah, with thoſe ten menne that were with hym, ſtart vp, and ſmote Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam, the ſonne of Saphan with the ſwoord, and ſlue hym whom the kyng of Babylon had made a gouernour of the lande.

3 Iſmael alſo ſlue al the Iewes that were with Gedaliah at Miſpa, and al the Chaldees that he found there waiting vpon him, and thoſe that were able to fight he ſlue with hym.

4 The next day after that he had ſlayne Gedaliah, the matter was yet vnknowen:

5 And there came certayne menne from Sichem, from Silo, and Samaria, to the number of foure ſcore, whiche had ſhauen theyr beardes, rent theyr clothes, and were al heauie, bryngyng meate offerynges and incenſe in theyr handes, to offer it in the houſe of the Lorde.

6 And Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah went fourth of Miſpa * weepyng, to meete them: Eccl.12.c Nowe when he met them, he ſayde, Goe your way to Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam.

B 7 And when they came in the middeſt of the citie, Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah, with them that were with hym, ſlue them, euen at the middeſt of the pit.

8 Among theſe foure ſcore menne, there were ten that ſayde vnto Iſmael, O ſlay vs not, for we haue yet a great treaſure in the feeld, of wheate, barley, oyle, and hony: So he ſpared them, and ſlue them not with theyr brethren.

4.Re.25.c. 9 Nowe the pyt wherein Iſmael did caſt the dead bodyes of the menne whom he ſlue becauſe of Gedaliah, had kyng Aſa cauſed to be made for feare of Baſa the kyng of Iſrael, and the ſame pit did Iſmael fil with ſlaine menne.

10 As for the remnant of the people, the kings daughters, and al the people that were leaſt 4.Re.15.c at Miſpa, vpon whom * Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne, had made Gedaliah yͤ ſonne of Ahicam gouernour, Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah caryed them away priſoners towarde the Ammonites.

11 But when Iohanan the ſonne of Careah, and al they which had benne captaines ouer the kynges hoſt with hym, hearde of al the wickedneſſe that Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah had donne:

12 * They tooke theyr companions, and went Gen.13.c 1.Re,30.b. out for to fyght with Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah, and founde hym by the great waters that are at Gibeon.

13 Nowe when al the people whom Iſmael led captiue, ſawe Iohanan the ſonne of Careah, and al the other captaynes of the hoſt, they were glad.

14 So al the people that Iſmael had caryed C away from Miſpa, were brought agayne: and when they returned, they came to Iohanan the ſonne of Careah.

15 But Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah fledde from Iohanan with eyght companions, and went to the Ammonites.

16 Then Iohanan the ſonne of Careah, and al the captaynes of the hoſt that were with hym, tooke al the remnant of the people, whom Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah had led away when he had ſlayne Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam, whom they alſo had reſerued from hym, fyghtyng menne, women, and chyldren, and gelded menne, whom they brought agayne from Gibeon,

17 And went from thence, & ſate them downe at Geruth Camaam, whiche lyeth beſyde Bethlehem, * that they might goe into Egypt for feare of the Chaldees: Iere.12.c

18 Of whom they were afrayde, becauſe that Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah had ſlayne Gedaliah Ahicams ſonne, whom the kyng of Babylon had made gouernour in the Iere, 40,2. lande.

The.xlii.Chapter.

1 The captaynes aſke counſayle at Ieremie what they ought to doo. 19 Ieremie admoniſheth the remnant of the people not to goe into Egypt.

A 1 SO al the captaynes of Iohanan the ſonne of Careah, Iezaniah the ſonne of Oſiah, came, with al the people, fom the leaſt vnto the moſt,

2 And ſayde vnto Ieremie the prophete, * O heare our petition, that Iere.21.a and.37.a thou mayeſt pray for vs vnto the Lorde thy God, [namely] for al the remnant, whereof there be few of vs leaſt of many, as thou ſeeſt vs:

3 That the Lorde thy God may ſhewe vs a way to goe in, & tel vs what we ſhould doo.

4 Then Ieremie the prophete ſayde vnto them, I haue hearde you, beholde, I wyl pray vnto God your Lorde as ye haue required me: and looke what anſweare the Lord geueth, I ſhal certifie you thereof, and keepe nothyng backe from you,

5 And they ſayde vnto Ieremie, * The Lorde Ioſue,1.c be a true and faythful witneſſe betwixt vs, 1.Mac.2 d. Iere,14.a.

that we wyl doo al that the Lorde thy God commaundeth vs.

6 Whether it be good or euyl, we wil hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde God, to whom we ſende thee, that we may proſper when we haue folowed the voyce of the lord our God.

B 7 And after ten dayes came the woorde of the Lorde vnto Ieremie.

8 Then called he Iohanan the ſonne of Careah, and al the captaynes of the people that were with hym, yea and al the people from the leaſt to the moſt,

9 And ſaid vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lord God of Iſrael, vnto whom ye ſent me to lay foorth your prayers before hym:

Iere.21,b 10 * If ye wyl dwelle in this lande, I ſhal builde you vp, and not breake you downe, I ſhal plant you, and not roote you out: for I (a) repent as concerning the trouble that I haue donne to you.

(a) Gods repentance is nothyng els, but that he dooth not proſecute to the vtmoſt his wrath accordyng to the deſertes of this people.

11 Feare not the king of Babylon of whom ye ſtande in awe, O be not afrayde of hym, ſaith the Lorde: for I wyl be with you to helpe you, ⁊ deliuer you out from his hande.

12 I wil pardon you, I wyl haue mercy vpon you, and cauſe him to pitie you, and bring you agayne into your owne lande.

13 Neuertheleſſe, if ye purpoſe not to dwelle in this lande, nor to folowe the voyce of the Lorde your God:

C 14 But wyl ſay thus, We wil not dwel here, but goe into Egypt, where we ſhal neither ſee warre, heare the noyſe of the trumpe, nor ſuffer hunger, there wyl we dwel:

15 Wherefore, heare nowe the woorde of the Lorde, O ye remnant of Iuda, Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, If ye be wholly purpoſed to goe into Egypt, and to dwel there as ſtrangers, Iere.27.a

16 The ſwoorde that ye feared, ſhal ouertake you in Egypt: and the hunger whereof ye be here afrayde, ſhal hang vpon you, and folowe you into Egypt, and there ſhal ye dye. Iere, 41,c.

17 And al they that of ſet purpoſe vndertake to goe into Egypt to ſoiourne there, ſhal periſhe with the ſwoorde, with hunger, and peſtilence, not one of them ſhal remayne, there ſhal none eſcape the plague that I wil bryng vpon them.

18 For thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, Lyke as my wrath and indignation is mooued agaynſt the inhabitours of Hieruſalem: ſo ſhal my diſpleaſure be kindled agaynſt you alſo yf ye goe into Egypt, and there ye ſhalbe reuiled, abhorred, brought to ſhame and confuſion, and as for this place ye ſhal neuer ſee it more.

19 The Lorde forbiddeth you (O ye remnant of Iuda) that ye ſhal not goe into Egypt: and forgeat not that I haue warned you earneſtly this day.

20 For ye haue diſſembled with me: * for ye D ſent me vnto the Lord your God, and ſayde, Iere.42.a O pray thou the Lorde our God for vs, and looke what anſweare the Lorde our God geueth thee, that bryng vs agayne, and we ſhal doo thereafter:

21 Nowe haue I ſhewed and declared vnto you, but ye haue not obeyed the voyce of the Lorde your God, for the whiche cauſe he hath ſent me to you.

22 Nowe therefore * be ſure that ye ſhal periſhe with the ſwoorde, with hunger, and peſtilence, euen in the ſame place where your luſt is to goe and dwelle. Deut, 28,c

A 1 NOw when Ieremie had ended al yͤ woordes of the Lorde his god vnto the people, which to declare the lorde theyr God had ſent hym to them, euen al theſe wordes [I ſay,]

2 Azariah yͤ ſonne of Oſaiah, and Iohanan the ſonne of Careah, with al the ſtubburne perſons, ſayd vnto Ieremie, * Thou lieſt, the lord our God hath not ſent thee to ſpeake vnto vs, that we ſhoulde not goe into Egypt, and dwel there: Iere, 42,a

3 But Baruch the ſonne of Neriah prouoketh thee agaynſt vs, that he myght bryng vs into the captiuitie of the Chaldees, that they myght ſlay vs, and cary vs away priſoners vnto Babylon.

4 So Iohanan the ſonne of Careah, and al the captaynes of the hoſt, and al the people, folowed not the commaundement of the Lorde, [namely] to dwel in the land of Iuda:

5 But Iohanan the ſonne of Careah, and al the captaynes of the hoſt, caried away al the remnant of Iuda that were comme togeather agayne from al the heathen, among whom they had benne ſcattered, to dwel in the lande of Iuda, Iere, 41.c.

6 Menne, women, children, the kings daughters, al thoſe that Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne had leaſt with Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahikam, the ſonne of Saphan: they caried away alſo the prophete Ieremie, Baruch the ſonne of Neriah,

B 7 And ſo came into Egypt: for they were not obedient vnto the commaundement of God. Thus came they to Thaphnis.

8 And in Thaphnis the woorde of the Lord happened vnto Ieremie, ſayeing,

9 Take great ſtones in thine hande, and hide them in the bricke wal vnder the doore of Pharaoes houſe in Thaphnis, that al the menne of Iuda may ſee,

10 And ſay vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lord of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, *Beholde, I wyl ſende and cal for Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon my ſeruant, and wyl ſet his ſeate vpon theſe ſtones that I haue hyd, and he ſhal ſpreade his tent ouer them. Iere,46.c

11 And when he commeth, he ſhal ſmyte the lande of Egypt, ſomme with ſlaughter, ſomme with baniſhment, and ſomme with the ſwoorde.

12 He ſhal ſet fyre vpon the temple of the Egyptians goddes, and burne them vp, and take them ſelues pryſoners: Moreouer, he ſhal aray hym ſelfe with the lande of Egypt, lyke as a ſheepehearde putteth on his coate, and ſhal depart his way from thence in peace.

13 The pillers alſo of the temple of the ſunne, that is in Egypt, ſhal he breake in peeces, and burne the temples of the Egyptians gods.

The .xliiii. Chapter.

1 He reproueth the people for theyr idolatrie. 15 They that ſet lyght by the threatning of the Lorde are chaſtened. 26 The deſtruction of Egypt and the Iewes therein is prophecied.

A 1 This is the word that was ſhewed to Ieremie, concernyng al the Iewes whiche dwelt in Egypt, at Migdol, at Thaphnis, at Noph, and in the lande of Pathures.

2 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, Ye haue ſeene al the miſerie that I haue brought vpon Hieruſalem, and vpon al the cities of Iuda: ſo that this day they are deſolate, and no man dwellyng therein,

3 And that becauſe of the great blaſphemies, whiche they committed to prouoke me vnto anger, in that they went backe to doo ſacrifice & woorſhip vnto ſtrange gods, whom neyther they, nor ye, nor your fathers haue knowen.

4 Howbeit, I ſent vnto them my ſeruantes al the prophetes, I roſe vp early, I ſent vnto them, and gaue them warnyng, O doo no ſuche abominable thinges, and thinges that I hate. Iere.25,a and.29.a

5 But they woulde not folow, nor hearken, to turne from theyr wickedneſſe, and to doo no more ſacrifice vnto ſtrange goddes.

6 Wherefore, myne indignation and wrath was kindled, and it brent vp the cities of Iuda, with the ſtreetes of Hieruſalem, ſo that they were made waſte and deſolate, as it is comme to paſſe this day.

B 7 Nowe therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, Howe happeneth it that ye doo ſo great euil vnto your owne ſoules, thus to deſtroy the menne and women, chyldren and babes of Iuda, ſo that none of you is leaſt?

8 Becauſe ye prouoke me to wrath with the woorkes of your owne handes, when ye offer vnto ſtrange gods in the lande of Egypt, where as ye be gonne to dwel, that ye might vtterly periſhe, and that ye might be reuiled, and ſhamefully intreated of al nations?

9 Or haue ye nowe forgotten the wyckedneſſe of your forefathers, the wyckedneſſe of the kynges of Iuda, and theyr wyues, the wyckedneſſe that ye your ſelues and your wyues haue donne in the lande of Iuda, and in the ſtreetes of Hieruſalem?

10 Yet are ye not ſory this day, ye feare not, neyther walke ye in my lawe, & in my commaundementes that I haue geuen vnto you and your forefathers.

11 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, I am ſtedfaſtly aduiſed and determined to puniſh you, and to roote out al Iuda.

12 As for the remnant of Iuda that purpoſely went into Egypt there to dwelle, I wyl take them, and they ſhal al be deſtroyed, in the lande of Egypt ſhal they periſhe, beyng conſumed with the ſwoorde, and with hunger: for from the leaſt vnto the moſte, they ſhal periſhe with the ſwoorde, and with hunger: Moreouer, they ſhalbe reuiled, abhorred, ſhamed, and confounded.

13 For I wil viſite them that dwel in Egypt, *as I haue viſited Hieruſalem, with the ſwoord, with hunger, and with peſtilence. Eze.39.a

C 14 So that none of the remnant of Iuda whiche are gonne to dwel in Egypt, ſhalbe leaſt to come agayne into the lande of Iuda, although they thinke to comme thither agayne, & to dwel there: for none ſhal comme agayne but ſuche as are fled away.

15 Then al the men whiche knew that theyr wyues had offered vnto ſtrange goddes, and a great ſort of wiues that ſtoode there, yea and al the people that dwelt there in Egypt in the citie of Phatures, anſweared Jeremie, and ſayde,

16 As for the woordes that thou haſt ſpoken vnto vs in the name of the Lorde, we wyl in no wyſe heare them:

17 But whatſoeuer goeth out of our owne mouth, that wyl we doo, we wil doo ſacrifice, and offer oblations vnto the queene of heauen, *like as we and our forefathers, our kynges and our heades haue donne in the cities of Juda and in the ſtreetes of Hieruſalem: for then had we plenteouſneſſe of vitayles, then were we in proſperitie, and no miſfortune came vpon vs: Iere. 7.b

1.Mac.1.b. 18 *But ſince we leaſt to offer, and to doo ſacrifice vnto the queene of heauen, we haue had ſcarceneſſe of al things, and periſhe with the ſwoorde and hunger.

19 [Laſt of al] when we [women] dyd ſacrifice and offered vnto the queene of heauen: dyd we make her cakes, and powre vnto her drinke offeryuges to doo her ſeruice, without our huſbandes wylles?

20 Then ſayde Jeremie vnto al the people, to the menne, to the women, & to al the folke whiche had geuen hym that anſweare,

D 21 Did not the Lorde remember the ſacrifices that ye, your forefathers, your kynges and rulers, with al the people, haue offered in the cities of Juda, in the ſtreetes of Hierulem? and hath he not conſydered this in his mynde?

29 Inſomuche that the Lorde myght no longer ſuffer the wickednes of your inuentions, and the abominable thinges whiche ye dyd: *Is not your lande deſolate and voyde, yea and abhorred, ſo that no man dwelleth therin any more, as it is comme to paſſe this day? Eſai.1.a.

3.Re.17.b. Iere.2.c. 3.c. &. 5.c. Baruc.3.a 23 Did not al this happen vnto you becauſe ye made ſuche ſacrifice, and ſinned agaynſt the Lorde: ye haue not folowed his voyce, to walke in his lawe, in his ordinances and ſtatutes: yea this is the cauſe that al miſfortune happened vnto you, as it is comme to paſſe this day.

24 Moreouer, Jeremie ſpake vnto al the people, and to al the women, Heare the woorde of the Lorde, al Juda that be in the lande of Egypt.

25 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, ye and your wyues haue ſpoken with your owne mouth the thyng that ye haue fulfylled in deede, *yea thus haue ye ſayde, we wyl not fayle but perfourme the vowes that we haue vowed, we wyl doo ſacrifice, and powre out drynke offerynges to the queene of heauen: Purpoſely wyl ye ſet vp your owne meanynges, and perfourme your vowes. Iere.44.c.

26 And therfore heare the woorde of the Lord al Juda, that dwelle in the lande of Egypt, Behold, I haue ſworne by my great name, ſayth the Lorde, that my name ſhal not be rehearſed through any mans mouth of Juda in al the land of Egypt, to ſay, The Lord God lyueth. Gen.22.c

27 For I wil watche to plague them, and not for theyr wealth: *And al the menne of Juda that be in the lande of Egypt, ſhal periſhe with the ſwoorde, & with hunger, vntil they be vtterly deſtroyed. Iere.42.c

28 Neuertheleſſe, thoſe that fled away for the ſwoorde, ſhal comme agayne out of Egypt into the lande of Juda, but there ſhalbe very fewe of them: and al the remnant of Juda that are gonne into Egypt there to dwel, ſhal knowe whoſe woordes ſhalbe founde true, theirs, or myne. E

29 Take this for a token, that I wyl viſite you in this place, ſayth the Lorde, and that ye may knowe howe that I without doubt wyl perfourme my purpoſe vpon you, to pounyſhe you:

30 Beholde, ſayth the Lorde, I wyl deliuer Pharao Hophrea kyng of Egypt, into the handes of his enimies that ſeeke after his lyfe: *euen as I gaue Zedekia the kyng of Juda into the handes of Nabuchodonoſor king of Babylon his enimie, whiche ſought after his lyfe. 4.Re.25.a

The.xlv.Chapter.

2 Baruch is reproued of Jeremie.

A 1 These are the woordes that Jeremie the prophete ſpake vnto Baruch the ſonne of Meriah, *after that he had writtē theſe ſermons in a booke at the mouth of Jeremie, in the fourth yeere of Jehoakim the ſonne of Joſias kyng of Juda, ſayeing, Iere.36.a

2 Thus ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael vnto

thee, O Baruch:

3 Inſomuche as thou thoughteſt thus [when thou waſt wrytyng] Wo is me, the Lord hath geuen me paine for my trauaile, I haue weeried mee ſelfe with ſighyng, and haue found no reaſt:

4 Therefore tel hym, O Ieremie, that the Lord ſayth thus, Beholde, the thyng that I haue buylded, wyl I breake downe againe, and roote out the thing that I haue planted, yea this whole lande:

5 And ſeekeſt thou yet promotion [looke not for it, and] deſyre it not, for I wyl bryng a miſerable plague vpon al fleaſhe, ſayth the Lorde: * but thy lyfe wyl I geue thee for a pray in al places whyther ſoeuer thou goeſt. Iere.21.b

The.xlvi.Chapter.

1 He prophecieth the deſtruction of Egypt. 27 Deliuerance is promyſed to Iſrael.

A 1 Heare folow the woordes of the Lorde to the prophete Ieremie, whiche he ſpake againſt [al] the gentiles.

2 Theſe woordes folowyng preached he to * the Egyptians concernyng the hoſt of Pharao Necho kyng of Egypt, * when he was in Charchamis beſyde the water of Euphrates, what tyme as Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon ſlue him, in the fourth yeere of Iehoakim the ſonne of Ioſias king of Iuda.

Iere.36.a 3 * Make ready buckler and ſhielde, and goe foorth to fyght.

4 Harneſſe your horſes, and ſet your ſelues vpon them, ſet your ſallets faſt on, bring foorth ſpeares, ſcoure your ſwoordes, and put on your breaſt plates.

5 But alas, howe happeneth it that I ſee you ſo afrayd? why ſhrinke ye backe? Their woorthies are ſlayne, yea they runne ſo faſt away, that none of them looketh behynde hym: fearefulneſſe is fallen vpon euery one of them, ſayth the Lorde.

6 The lyghteſt of foote ſhal not flee away, and the woorthies ſhal not eſcape: towarde the north, by the water of Euphrates they dyd ſtumble and fal.

B 7 But what is he this that ſwelleth vp as it were a fludde, roaryng and ragyng lyke the ſtreames of water?

8 It is Egypt that ryſeth vp lyke the fludde, and caſteth out the waters with ſo great noyſe, and he ſayd, I wil goe vp, and wyl couer the earth, I wyl deſtroy the citie, with them that are therein.

9 Geat ye vp ye horſes, roule foorth ye charettes, comme foorth woorthies, ye Ethiopians, ye Libyans with your bucklers, ye Lydians with your bowes.

10 But this day of the Lorde God of hoſtes, is a day of vengeance, that he may auenge hym of his enimies: The ſwoorde ſhal deuoure, it ſhalbe ſatiſfied and bathed in their blood, for the Lord God of hoſtes ſhal haue a ſlayne offeryng towarde the north, by the water of Euphrates.

11 Goe vp vnto Gilead, and bryng triacle, O virgin thou daughter of Egypt: but in vaine ſhalt thou goe to ſurgerie, for thy wound ſhal not be ſtopped.

12 The heathen haue hearde of thy ſhame, and the lande is ful of thy confuſion, for one ſtrong man dyd ſtumble vpon another, and they are fallen both togeather.

13 * Theſe are the woordes that the lord ſpake to the prophete Ieremie, concernyng the commyng of Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon, whiche was ſent to deſtroy the lande of Egypt: Iere.43.b.

14 Preache out through the lande of Egypt, and cauſe it to be proclaymed at Migdol, Noph, and Thaphnis, and ſay, Stande ſtyl, make thee ready, for the ſwoorde ſhal conſume thee rounde about. C

15 How happeneth it that thy mightie woorthies are fallen? why ſtoode they not faſt? euen becauſe the Lorde thruſt them downe.

16 The ſlaughter was great, for one fel euer ſtyl vpon another: and they ſayde, Up, let vs goe agayne to our owne people, and to our owne natural countrey, from the cruel ſwoorde.

17 They dyd crye euen there, Pharao the king of Egypt, is a king of troubleſomneſſe, he hath ouerpaſt the appoynted tyme.

18 As I lyue (ſayth the kyng * whoſe name is the Lorde of hoſtes) ſo ſurely as Thabor ſtandeth among the mountaines, and Charmel in the ſea: euen ſo aſſuredly ſhal this miſcheefe comme [vpon Egypt.] Eſai.48.b

19 O thou daughter of Egypt, make ready thy geare to flit: for Noph ſhalbe voyde and deſolate, ſo that no man ſhal dwel therein.

20 The lande of Egypt is lyke a goodly fayre calfe: but deſtruction ſhal comme out of the north, [I ſay] it commeth.

lyke fat calues, they alſo ſhal flee away togeather, and not abyde: for the day of theyr ſlaughter, and the tyme of theyr viſitation ſhal comme vpon them.

22 The crye of them ſhal make a noyſe, as the hiſſyng of ſerpentes: for they ſhal enter in with theyr hoſtes, and comme agaynſt her with axes, as it were hewers downe of wood.

23 And they ſhal cut downe her (a) wood, ſaith the Lorde, they ſhalbe innumerable: for they ſhalbe mo in number then the graſhoppers, ſo that no man ſhalbe able to tel them.

(a) Her wood, that is, the whole multitude of the people whiche was lyke a great wood.

24 The daughter of Egypt is confounded, and deliuered into the handes of the people of the north.

25 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, Beholde, I wyl viſite that reſtleſſe people of Alexandria, Pharao, and Egypt, yea both theyr gods and theyr kynges, euen Pharao and al them that put their truſt in hym:

26 Yea I wyl deliuer them into the handes of thoſe that ſeeke after theyr lyues, [namely] into the power of Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon, and into the power of his ſeruantes: and after al theſe thynges, it ſhalbe inhabited as aforetyme, ſayth the Lorde.

27 Be not thou afrayde, O my ſeruant Iacob, feare not thou, O Iſrael: for loe, I wyl helpe thee from farre, and thy ſeede from the lande of theyr captiuitie: Iacob alſo ſhal comme agayne, and be in reaſt, he ſhal proſper, and no man ſhal doo hym harme.

28 Feare thou not (O Iacob my ſeruant) ſaith the Lord, for I am with thee, and wyl deſtroy al nations among whom I haue ſcattered thee: neuertheleſſe, I not wyl not conſume thee, but chaſten thee, and correct thee, yea and that with diſcretion, neither wil I vtterly deſtroy thee.

The.xlvii.Chapter.

1 The woorde of the Lord agaynſt the Philiſtines.

A 1 These are the woordes that the Lorde ſpake vnto Ieremie the prophet againſt the Philiſtines, before that Pharao ſmote [the citie of] Azah.

2 Thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde, there ſhal waters aryſe out of the north, and ſhal growe to a great fludde, runnyng ouer, and couering the land and al that is therein, the cities and them that dwelle therein: and the menne ſhal crye, and al they that dwel in the lande ſhal mourne,

3 At the noyſe and ſtampyng of theyr ſtrong barbed horſes, at the ſhaking of theyr charrets, and at the rumbling of the wheeles: the fathers ſhal not looke to theyr chyldren, ſo feeble and weerie ſhal theyr handes be,

4 At the ſame tyme when he ſhalbe there to deſtroy the whole lande of the Philiſtines, he ſhal make waſte both Tyrus, Sidon, and the reſidue of theyr ayde: for the Lorde wyl deſtroy the Philiſtines, the remnant of the Iſle of ″ Caphtor. B

″ Or, Capadocia.

5 Baldneſſe is comme vpon Azah, Aſcalon is put to ſcilence, with the reaſt of theyr valleyes: Howe long wylt thou teare thee ſelfe?

6 O thou ſwoorde of the Lorde, howe long wylt thou not ceaſſe? Turne agayne into thy ſheath, reaſt, and leaue of.

7 But howe can it ceaſſe, when the lord him ſelfe hath geuen it a charge agaynſt Aſcalon, and rayſed it vp agaynſt the cities of the ſea coaſt?

3 A voyce ſhal crye from Horonaim, Great waſtyng and deſtruction ſhal comme vpon them,

4 Moab is made deſolate, her litle ones haue cryed out.

5 For at the goeyng vp vnto Luith he aroſe with lamentation and mourning, & downe towarde Horonaim they hearde a cruel and deadly crye,

8 The deſtroyer ſhal comme vpon al cities, none ſhal eſcape: The valleyes ſhalbe deſtroyed, and the feeldes ſhalbe layde waſte, lyke as the Lorde hath ſpoken.

9 Geue wynges vnto Moab, that ſhe geat her away ſpeedily: for her cities ſhalbe made ſo deſolate, that no man ſhal dwelle therein.

10 Curſed be he that dooth the woorke of the Lorde fraudulently, and curſed be he that keepeth backe his* ſwoorde from ſheadding of blood. Iere. 47.b

11 Moab hath euer benne riche and careleſſe from her youth vp, ſhe hath benne ſtyl ſetled vpon lyes, ſhe was neuer yet put out of one veſſel into another [that is] ſhe neuer went away into captiuitie, therfore her taſte remayneth, and her ſauour is not yet changed.

12 But lo, the time commeth, ſaith the Lord, that I ſhal ſende her truſſers to truſſe her vp, whiche ſhal remoue her from her dwelling, and emptie her veſſels, and breake her wine pottes.

13 And Moab ſhalbe aſhamed of Chamos, lyke as Iſrael was aſhamed of * Bethel, wherein ſhe put her truſt. 3.Reg. 12.a

C 14 Wherefore doo ye thynke thus, We are mightie, and ſtrong menne of warre?

15 Moab is deſtroyed, and her cities brent vp, her choſen young menne be ſlayne, ſayth the kyng, whoſe name is the Lorde of hoſtes.

16 The deſtruction of Moab commeth on a pace, and her falle is at hande.

17 Al ye neyghbours mourne for her, and al ye that knowe her name, ſay, O howe happeneth it that the ſtrong ſtaffe and the goodly rodde is thus broken?

18 And thou daughter Dibon, comme downe from thy glory, and ſit in thirſt: for he that deſtroyeth Moab, ſhal comme vp to thee alſo, and breake downe thy ſtrong holdes.

19 And thou that dwelleſt in Aroer, geat thee to the ſtreete, and looke about thee, aſke them that are fled ⁊ eſcaped, and ſay, What thyng is happened?

20 Oh Moab is confounded and ouercome: mourne and crye, tel it out at Arnon, that Moab is deſtroyed.

D 21 For iudgement ſhal come vpon the plaine lande, [namely] vpon Holon, and Iahzah, and vpon Mephaath,

22 And vpon Dibon, vpon Nabo, and Beth Deblathaim,

23 Upon Kiriathaim, and vpon Beth Gamul, vpon Beth Maon,

24 And vpon Carioth, vpon Bozra, and al the cities in the lande of Moab, whеather they lye farre or neare.

25 The horne of Moab is ſmitten downe, and her arme broken, ſayth the Lorde.

26 Make her drunken, for ſhe magnified her ſelfe aboue the Lorde, that menne may clap theyr handes at her vomite, and that ſhe alſo may be laughed to ſcorne.

27 Diddeſt not thou laugh Iſrael to ſcorne, as though he had benne taken [with theft] among theeues? for ſo often as thou makeſt mention of hym, thou ſkippeſt for ioy.

28 Ye Moabites, leaue the cities, and dwel in rockes of ſtone, and become lyke doues that make theyr neaſtes in holes. E

29 * As for Moabs pryde we haue hearde of it, ſhe is very high minded, I knowe her ſtouteneſſe, her boaſtyng, her arrogancie, and the pryde of her ſtomacke, [ſayth the Lorde.] Eſai. 16.b. Iere. 49.c.

30 I knowe, (ſayth the Lorde) her indignation, ſhe dooth not ryght, her woordes are lyes, and they haue not dealt truely.

31 Therefore wyl I mourne for Moab, for whole Moabs ſake: my hart ſhal lament the menne of Kirchares.

32 O thou vineyarde of Sabamah, I wyl weepe for thee as for Iazer: thy vine branches ſhal comme ouer the ſea, vnto the ſea of Iazer, the deſtroyer ſhal breake into thy harueſt and grape geatheryng.

33 Myrth and cheare ſhalbe taken away from the fertile feelde, and from the lande of Moab: there ſhalbe no ſweete wine in the preſſe, the treader ſhal haue no ſtomacke to crye, yea there ſhalbe none to crye vnto hym,

34 Whiche aforetyme were hearde from Heſbon to Eleale, and Iahaz, whiche lyfted vp their voyce from Zoar vnto Horonaim, that bullocke of three yeeres olde, the waters alſo of Nemrim ſhalbe dryed vp. F

35 Moreouer, I wyl make Moab ceaſſe, ſayth the Lorde, from the offerynges and cenſyng that ſhe hath made vnto her goddes in hygh places.

36 Wherefore my hart mourneth for Moab, lyke a crowde playeing an heauie ſong, and for the mennes ſake of Kirchares my hart mourneth alſo, euen as a pype that pypeth a doleful ſong: for theyr riches whiche they haue geathered ſhalbe deſtroyed.

37 * Al heades ſhalbe ſhauen, and al beardes Eſai, 15.d

clipped of, al handes bounde, and al loynes gyrded about with ſackcloth.

38 Upon al the houſe toppes and ſtreetes of Moab there ſhalbe lamentable mournyng: for I wyl breake Moab like an vnprofitable veſſel, ſayth the Lorde.

39 O howe is ſhe deſtroyed? O howe mourneth ſhe? O how dooth Moab hang downe her head and is aſhamed? Thus ſhal Moab be a laughyng ſtocke, & had in deriſion of al them that be rounde about her.

Deut.28.c Iere.49.d 40 * For thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde, the enimie ſhal comme fleeyng as an Eagle, and ſpreade his winges vpon Moab.

F 41 They ſhal take the cities, and winne the ſtrong holdes: then the mightie mennes hartes in Moab, ſhalbe like the hart of a woman trauaylyng with chylde.

42 And Moab ſhalbe made ſo deſolate, that ſhe ſhal no more be a people, becauſe ſhe hath ſet vp her ſelfe agaynſt the Lorde.

43 * Feare, pyt, and ſnare, ſhal comme vpon thee, O Moab, ſayth the Lorde. Eſai.24.c.

44 Who ſo eſcapeth the feare, ſhal fal into the pit, and who ſo geatteth out of the pit, ſhalbe taken in the ſnare: for I wyl bryng a yeere of viſitation vpon Moab, ſayth the Lorde.

45 They that are able to flee, ſhal ſtande vnder the ſhadowe of Heſbon, for there ſhal goe a fyre out of Heſbon, and a flambe from Sion, and ſhal burne vp that proude people of Moab, and the toppe of thoſe ſeditious children.

46 Wo be vnto thee, O Moab, thou people of Chamos ſhalt periſhe: yea thy ſonnes and daughters ſhalbe led away captiue.

47 Yet at the laſt wyl I bryng Moab out of captiuitie agayne, ſayth the Lorde: Thus farre is of the plague of Moab.

The.xlix.Chapter.

1 The woord of the Lorde agaynſt the Ammonites, 7 agaynſt Idumea, 23 Damaſcus, 28 Cedar, 34 Elam.

A 1 AS concernyng the Ammonites, thus the Lorde ſaith, Hath Iſrael no children? or is he without any ayre? Why hath your kyng then taken Gad in? Wherfore dooth his people dwel in his cities? Eze.21.d and.25.a Amos.1.a

2 Beholde therefore, the time commeth, ſaith the Lorde, that I wil bring a noyſe of warre into Rabath of the Ammonites, and it ſhalbe layde on a deſolate heape, and her cities brent vp, and the Iſraelites ſhalbe lordes ouer thoſe that had them in poſſeſſion afore, ſayth the Lorde.

3 Heſbon ſhal mourne, for Ai ſhalbe rooted out of the grounde, [ſayth the Lorde:] the citie of Rabbath ſhal crye out, and gyrde them ſelues with ſackcloth, they ſhal mourne and runne about the walles, for their king ſhalbe led away priſoner, yea his prieſtes and princes with hym.

4 Wherfore glorieſt thou in the (a) valley? thy valley hath flowed away, O thou rebellious daughter, and thinkeſt thou that thou art ſo ſafe by reaſon of thy treaſure, that no man ſhal comme to thee?

5 Beholde, I wyl bryng a feare vpon thee, ſayth the Lorde God of hoſtes, from al thoſe that be about thee, ſo that ye ſhalbe ſcattered euery man from another, and no man ſhal geather them togeather agayne that be fled.

6 But after that, I wyl bryng the Ammonites alſo out of captiuitie agayne, ſayth the Lorde.

7 * Upon the Edomites hath the Lorde of hoſtes ſpoken on this manner, Is there no more wyſdome in Theman? Is there no more good counſayle among his people? Is their wiſdome then turned cleane to nought? B Eſai.21.b Exod.25.b and.35.a

8 Geat you hence, turne your backes, creepe downe into the deepe, O ye citizens of Dedan: for I wyl bryng deſtruction vpon Eſau, yea and the day of his viſitation.

9 If the grape geatherers comme vpon thee, ſhoulde they not leaue ſomme grapes? If the nyght robbers comme vpon thee, ſhould they not take ſo much as they thought were yenough?

10 But I wyl make Eſau bare, and diſcouer his ſecretes, ſo that he ſhal not be able to hide them: His ſeede ſhalbe waſted away, yea his brethren and his neighbours, and he him ſelfe ſhal not be leaſt behynde.

11 Thou ſhalt leaue thy fatherleſſe chyldren behynde thee, and I wyl keepe them, and thy widowes ſhal take theyr comfort in me. Iere.25.b

12 For thus hath the Lorde ſpoken, * Behold, they that menne thought were vnmeete to drynke of the cuppe, haue drunken with the firſt, and thinkeſt thou then to be free? No, no, thou ſhalt neither be quit nor free: but thou muſt drynke alſo. Eze.9.b 1.Pet.4.c

13 For why? I haue ſworne by mee ſelfe, ſaith the Lorde, that Bozrah ſhal become a wyldernеſſe, an open ſhame, a laughyng ſtocke,

and

(a) The plentifulneſſe of the ſoyle, the ſtrong ſituation of the place, & theyr great welth, cauſeth the Ammonites, lyke a rechleſſe wanton gyrle, to blaſpheme the Lorde, to annoy his people, and to be without al feare of enimies.

and curſing, and al her cities ſhalbe a continual deſart.

C 14 For I am perfectly infourmed of the lord, that he hath ſent a meſſage alredy vnto the Heathen: Geather you togeather, and goe foorth agaynſt her, make you redy to battayle.

Abd.i.a 15 For loe, * I wyl make thee but ſmalle among the Heathen, & litle regarded among menne.

Eſai.48.b Iere.48.d. 16 * Thy hye ſtomacke, and the pryde of thy hart hath deceiued thee, becauſe thou dooeſt dwelle in the holes of ſtony rockes, and haſt the hygh mountaynes in poſſeſſion: Neuertheleſſe, though thy neſt were as hygh as the Egles, yet I wyl caſt thee downe, ſayth the Lorde.

17 Moreouer, Idumea ſhalbe a wyldерneſſe, *whoſo goeth by it, ſhalbe abaſhed, & woonder at al her miſerable plagues.

Iere.18.b 19.b.&.l.b

Gen.xix.e 18 *Lyke as Sodom, Gomor, and the cities that lay there about, were turned vpſyde downe, ſaith the Lorde: ſo ſhal no body dwel in Idumea, and no man ſhal haue his habitation there.

19 Beholde, lyke as the Lion, ſo ſhal a deſtroyer comme vp from the pleaſant meddowes of Iordane, vnto the ſtrong dwelling place, and when I haue made hym quiet, I wyl make hym to flee from her, and al choſen menne wil I ſet in aray againſt her: Who is lyke vnto me? What is he that wyl ſtryue with me? What ſhepheard may ſtande in my handes?

Pſal.37.b 20 *Therefore, heare the counſel of the Lorde that he hath taken vpon Idumea, & his purpoſe that he hath deuiſed vpon the citizens of Theman: The leaſt of the flocke ſhal trayle them, and looke what fayre habitation they haue, they ſhal make it waſte, & them ſelues alſo.

D 21 At the noyſe of their fal ẏ earth ſhal quake, the crye of their voyce ſhalbe hearde vnto the red ſea.

Iere.xlviij 22 Beholde, *the enimie ſhal comme and flee vp hither lyke as it were an Egle, and ſpread his winges vpon Bozrah: then ſhal ẏ hartes of the woorthies in Edom, be as the hart of a woman trauayling of chylde.

Eſai.17.a Amos.i.a. 23 *Upon Damaſcus, Hemath, and Arphad, ſhal comme confuſion: for they ſhal heare euil tydinges, they ſhalbe toſſed to and fro like the ſea that can not ſtande ſtyl.

24 Damaſcus ſhalbe ſore afrayde, and ſhal flee: trembling commeth vpon her, ſorowe & paine ſhal ouertake her, as a woman trauailyng of chylde.

25 But howe happeneth it that the famous citie, the citie of my ioy, is not ſpared?

26 Her young menne ſhal fal in the ſtreetes, & al her menne of warre ſhalbe taken away in that tyme, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes.

27 I wyl kyndle a fyre in the walles of Damaſcus, whiche ſhal conſume the palace of Benhadad.

28 * As for Cedar and the kyngdome of Hazor, whom Nabuchodonoſor ẏ kyng of Babylon ſmote, the Lord hath ſpoken thus vpō them: Aryſe, and get you vp vnto Cedar, and deſtroy the people towarde the Eaſt. D Eſai.xxi.c

29 Their tentes and their flockes ſhal they take away, yea their hanginges & their veſſels, their Camels alſo ſhal they carrie away with them: they ſhal crye to them, feare is on euery ſyde.

30 Flee, geat you farre away, creepe into caues, that ye may dwelle there, O ye inhabiters of Hazor, ſaith the Lorde: for Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon hath holden a counſel concernyng you, and concluded his deuice agaynſt you.

31 Aryſe, and geat you vp againſt yonder riche and careleſſe people, ſayth the Lorde, whiche haue neither gates nor doore barres, but dwel alone.

32 Their Camels ſhalbe a pray, & the droues of their cattel dryuen away: Moreouer, thoſe wyl I ſcatter towarde al the wyndes, and to the fartheſt partes of the worlde, yea from al the ſydes thereof wyl I bryng their deſtruction, ſayth the Lorde.

33 Hazor alſo ſhalbe a dwellyng for dragons, and an euerlaſtyng wyldерneſſe, ſo that no body ſhal dwel there, and no man ſhal haue there his habitation.

34 These are the woordes that the Lorde ſpake to the prophete Ieremie concernyng * Elam, in the beginning of the raigne of Zedekias kyng of Iuda. Ezec.32.a Dan.8.a

35 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, Beholde, I wyl breake the bowe of Elam, their principal ſtrength. E

36 And vpon Elam I wyl bryng the foure wyndes from the foure quarters of heauen, and wyl ſcatter them agaynſt the ſame foure wyndes: and there ſhalbe no people, but ſome of Elam ſhal flee vnto them.

37 For I wyl cauſe Elam to be afrayde of their enimies, and of them that ſeeke their lyues, and wil bring vpon them a miſchiefe, euen my wrath ſayth the Lorde: And I wyl perſecute them with the ſwoorde ſo long, tyl I haue brought them to nought.

38 I wyl ſet my throne in Elam, I wyl deſtroy both the king and princes from thence, ſayth the Lorde: But in proceſſe of tyme I wyl bryng Elam out of captiuitie agayne, ſayth the Lorde.

The.l.Chapter.

1 He prophecieth the deſtruction of Babylon, and the deliuerance of Iſrael, whiche was in captiuitie.

A 1 The woordes that the Lord ſpake vnto the prophete Ieremie, concernyng Babylon, and the lande of the Chaldees:

Eſai.13.a. and.47.a and.51.a Iere.25.b Eſai.46.a Dan.5.a 2 * Preache among the Gentiles, let your voyce be hearde, make a token, crye out, keepe no ſcilence, but ſay, Babylon is wonne, *Bel is confounded, & Merodach is ouercome, * yea their goddes be brought to ſhame, and their images burſt in peeces:

3 For out of the North there dooth comme a people agaynſt her, whiche ſhal make her lande ſo waſte that no body ſhal dwelle therin, neyther man nor beaſt, for they ſhal flee, & depart from thence.

i.Eſd,i.a 4 *In thoſe dayes, and at that time, ſaith the Lorde, the chyldren of Iſrael ſhal comme, they and the chyldren of Iuda, weeping and making haſte, and ſhal ſeeke the Lorde their God.

5 They ſhal aſke the way to Sion, thyther ſhal they turne their faces, ſayeing, Comme, and we wil cleaue to the Lord in a couenant that neuer ſhalbe broken.

Iere.23.a Ezec.36.f. 6 My people haue benne a loſt * flocke, my ſhepheardes haue deceiued them, and haue made them goe aſtraye vpon the hylles, they haue gonne from the mountayne to the litle hyl, and forgotten their folde.

B 7 Al they that came vpon them, haue deuoured them, and their enimies ſayde, We haue made no fault agaynſt thẽ, for they haue diſpleaſed the Lord, [yea euen the Lord which is] the habitation of their righteouſneſſe, and the hope of their fathers.

8 Flee from Babylon, and depart out of the lande of the Chaldees, & be ye as the rammes that goe before the flocke.

Iere.50.g 9 *For lo, I wyl wake vp an hoſt of people from the northren lande, & bring them vpon Babylon, theſe ſhal lay ſiege to it, and winne it: their arrowes ſhal not miſſe, like as a cunning archer ſhooteth not wrong.

10 And the Chaldees ſhalbe ſpoyled, and al they that ſpoyle them, ſhalbe ſatiſfied, ſayth the Lorde:

Eſai.47.a 11 * Although ye were ſo chearful and glad, to treade downe myne heritage, and fulfilled your pleaſures as the calues in the graſſe, and triumphed ouer thẽ lyke bulles [when ye had gotten the victorie.]

12 Your mothers ſhalbe ſore confounded, and they that bare you ſhal comme to ſhame, ſhe ſhalbe the leaſt ſet by among the nations, voyde, waſted, and dried vp.

13 No man ſhalbe able to dwel there for the feare of the Lorde, but ſhe ſhalbe whole deſolate: *al they that goe by Babylon, ſhal ſtand ſtyl, and be abaſhed, and ſhal woonder at al her plagues. Iere.18.b 19.b. and xlix,c

14 Goe foorth in your aray agaynſt Babylon round about, al ye that can hãdle bowes, ſhoote at her, ſpare no arrowes: for ſhe hath ſinned agaynſt the Lorde. C

15 Crye out agaynſt her round about, ſhe ſhal yeelde her ſelfe, her fundations ſhal falle, and her walles ſhal comme downe, for it ſhalbe the vengeance of the Lorde, *yea vengeance ſhalbe taken of her: and as ſhe hath donne, ſo deale ye with her. Exod,21.b Leui.24.d Ioel.iii.b

16 Roote out the ſower from Babylon, and hym that handleth yͤ ſicle in harueſt: for feare of the ſwoorde of the enimie euery man ſhal geat him to his owne people, and euery man ſhal flee to his owne lande.

17 Iſrael is a ſcattered flocke, the Lions haue diſpearſed them: *Firſt the kyng of the Aſſyrians deuoured them, * laſt of al this Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon hath bruiſed al their bones. 4.Re.17.c. Eſai.x.a 3.Re.25.d

18 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, Beholde, I wyl viſite the kyng of Babylon, and his kyngdome, as *I haue viſited the kyng of the Aſſyrians, 3.Re.19.g. Eſai.14.d

19 And wyl bryng Iſrael agayne to his pleaſant paſture, that he may feede vpon Charmel and Baſan, and be ſatiſfied vpon the mount of Ephraim and Galaad.

20 In thoſe dayes, and at the ſame time, ſaith the Lorde, yf the offence of Iſrael be ſought for, there ſhal none be founde, yf menne enquire for the ſinne of Iuda, there ſhalbe none: for I wyl be mercyful vnto them whom I ſuffer to remayne.

21 Goe downe [O thou auenger] into the enimies land, and viſite them that dwel therin: downe with them, and ſmite them vpon the backes, ſayth the Lorde, doo accordyng to al that I haue commaunded thee.

22 There is gonne about the lande a crie of a ſlaughter and great murther [namely on this manner.]

23 How happeneth it that the hammer of the whole worlde is thus broken and bruiſed in ſunder? Howe chanceth it that Babylon is become a wyldernеſſe among the Heathen [on this manner?]

24 I mee ſelfe haue laide a ſnare for thee, and thou art taken vnawares, thou art trapped and ſnared: for why? thou haſt contended agaynſt the Lorde.

25 The Lorde hath opened his houſe of ordinance, and brought foorth the weapons of his wrath: for the thyng that is donne in the land of the Chaldees, it is the Lorde of hoſtes woorke.

26 Comme agaynſt her, for this is her ende, breake vp her cheſtes, threſhe her as ye threſh corne, deſtroy her that nothyng ſhalbe left.

27 Slay al their myghtie ſouldiers, and put them to death: wo be vnto them, for the day and tyme of their viſitation is at hande.

E 28 [Me thinke] I heare [alredy] a crye of them that be fled & eſcaped out of the lande of Babylon, which ſhewe in Sion the vengeance of the Lorde our GOD, the vengeance of his temple, [yea a voyce of them that crye agaynſt Babylon.]

29 Calle vp al the archers againſt Babylon, pitche your tentes rounde about her, that none eſcape, *recompence her as ſhe hath deſerued, and accordyng as ſhe hath donne, ſo deale with her againe: for ſhe hath *ſet vp her ſelfe agaynſt the Lorde, agaynſt the holy one of Iſrael. Iere.50.c Apoc.18.b 2.Theſ.2.a

30 Therfore, ſhal her young menne fal downe in the ſtreates, & al her menne of warre ſhalbe rooted out in that day, ſayth the Lorde.

31 Behold, I ſpeake vnto thee, O thou proude, ſayth the Lorde GOD of hoſtes, for thy day ſhal comme, euen the tyme of thy viſitation.

32 And the proude ſhal ſtumble and falle, and no man ſhal helpe him vp, I wyl burne vp his cities with fire, & it ſhal conſume al that is rounde about hym.

33 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, The children of Iſrael and Iuda ſuffer violence togeather, al they that haue them in captiuitie keepe them faſt, and wyl not let them goe.

34 But their reuenger and redeemer is mightie, whoſe name is the Lord of hoſtes, he ſhal mainteyne their cauſe, he ſhal make the land ſhake, and iudge them that dwelle therein, [one with another.]

F 35 The ſwoorde ſhal comme vpon the Chaldees, ſaith the Lorde, vpon them that dwelle in Babylon, vpon their princes, and vpon their wyſe menne.

36 The ſwoorde vpon their ſoothſayers, as for thoſe they ſhal become fooles: the ſwoord vpon their woorthies, ſo that they ſhal ſtand in feare.

37 The ſwoorde vpon their horſemen and charrettes, and vpon al the common people that dwelle among them, ſo that they ſhal al becomme lyke women: The ſwoorde vpon their treaſure, ſo that it ſhalbe ſtollen away.

38 A drought vpon their waters, ſo that they ſhalbe dryed vp: for the lande worſhyppeth images, and delyghteth woonderfully in idolles.

39 Therefore ſhal wylde beaſtes, Lamia, and Cat of mountaynes, and Eſtreches dwelle therin: for there ſhal neuer man dwelle there, neyther ſhal any man haue his habitation there for euermore.

40 Like as GOD deſtroyed *Sodome and Gomorre, with yͤ cities that lay there about, ſayth the Lorde, So ſhal no man dwel there alſo, neyther ſhal any man haue there his habitation. Gen.xix.

41 *Behold, there ſhal comme a people from the North with a great bonde of menne, and many kynges ſhal ſtande vp from the endes of the earth. Iere.50.b Deut.28.c

42 They beare bowes and bucklers, cruel are they and vnmercyful: their voyce roreth lyke the ragyng ſea, they ryde vpon horſes, and comme weaponed to fyght agaynſt thee, O Babylon. G

43 Aſſoone as the king of Babylon heare tel of them, his handes ſhal ware feeble, ſorowe and heauineſſe ſhal comme vpon hym as a woman trauaylyng with chylde.

44 Beholde, *like as the Lion commeth vp frõ the ſwelling of Iordane vnto the dennes of Ethan, ſo wyl I dryue them foorth, and make them runne agaynſt her: But whom ſhal I chooſe out & ordeyne to ſuche a thing? for who is lyke me? or who wyl ſtryue with me? or what ſhepheарde may ſtande agaynſt me? Iere.49.c.

45 Therfore heare the counſaile that the lord hath geuen vpon Babylon, and the deuice that he hath taken vpõ the land of the Chaldees, The leaſt among the people ſhal drawe them out, and looke what pleaſant houſes they haue, they ſhal lay them waſte.

46 The noyſe at the wynnyng of Babylon ſhal moue the earth, and the crie ſhalbe heard among the Gentiles.

The.lj.Chapter.

1 Howe Babylon ſhoulde be ouerthrowen. 59 Ieremie geueth his booke to Saraias.

A 1 Thus hath the Lorde ſayd, *Beholde, I wyl rayſe vp a perilous wynde againſt Babylon, and her citizens that beare euil wil againſt me.

Iere.25.b and.l.a

2 I wyl ſende alſo into Babylon fanners to fanne her out, and to deſtroy her lande: for in the day of her trouble they ſhal be about her on euery ſide.

3 Moreouer [the Lorde wyl ſay] vnto the bowmen, and to them that aduance them ſelues in their armour: Ye ſhal not ſpare her young menne, kyl downe al her hoſt.

4 Thus the ſlaine ſhal fal downe in the land of the Chaldees, & the woũded in the ſtreetes.

5 As for Iſrael and Iuda they ſhal not be forſaken of their God, of the Lord of hoſtes, yea (a) for the holy one of Iſraels ſake haue the Chaldees filled their lande ful of ſinne.

Iere.50.d

(a) For the holy one of Iſraels ſake, that is, for the greeuous afflictions, and great iniurie donne to gods people, which he reputeth as donne vnto him ſelfe.

6 Flee away from Babylon, euery man ſaue his lyfe, that ye be not rooted out with her wickedneſſe: for the tyme of the Lordes vengeance is comme, yea he ſhal rewarde her agayne.

B 7 Babylon hath benne in the Lordes hande *a golden cup, that maketh al landes drunken: of her wine haue al people drunken, therfore are they out of their wittes.

Eſai.48.b Iere.25.c

8 *But ſodaynely is Babylon fallen and deſtroyed: mourne for her, bryng plaſters for her woundes, if ſhe may peraduenture be healed agayne.

Eſai.xxi.b Apoc.18.a

9 We woulde haue made Babylon whole ſay they, but ſhe is not recouered, therfore wil we let her alone, and goe euery man into his owne countrey: for her iudgement is comme into heauen, and is gonne vp to the cloudes.

10 The Lorde hath brought foorth our (b) ryghteouſneſſe: and therefore comme on, we wyl ſhewe in Sion the woorke of the Lorde our God.

(b) Howe ſo euer yͤ Iewes had deſerued to be plagued at gods hand, yet had the Chaldees no cauſe on their partes why to deale ſo cruelly with them: and ſo God declareth their righteouſneſſe in reſpect to the Chaldees, by puniſhing them & deliuering his people.

11 Make ſharpe your arrowes, and multiplie your ſhieldes: for the Lorde ſhal rayſe vp the ſpirite of the king of the Medes, whiche hath alredy a deſyre to deſtroy Babylon: this ſhalbe the vengeance of the Lorde, and the vengeance of his temple.

12 Set vp tokens vpon the walles of Babylon, make your watch ſtrõg, ſet your watchmen in aray, yea holde priuie watches, and yet for al that ſhal the Lorde goe foorth with his deuice whiche he hath taken vpon them that dwelle in Babylon.

13 O thou that dwelleſt by the great waters, O thou that haſt ſo great treaſure and riches, thyne ende is comme, and the reckenyng of thy winninges.

C 14 *The Lord of hoſtes hath ſworne by him ſelfe, that he wyl ouerwhelme thee with menne lyke graſhoppers in number, whiche with a courage ſhal crye alarum alarum agaynſt thee:

Amos.6.c Iere.22.a

15 *Yea euen the Lorde of hoſtes that with his power made yͤ earth, with his wiſedome prepared the rounde worlde, and with diſcretion ſpread out the heauens:

Iere.35.b

16 Aſſoone as he letteth his voyce be hearde, the waters in the aire ware fierce: he draweth vp the cloudes from the endes of the earth, he turneth the lightninges to rayne, he bringeth the windes out of their ſecrete places.

17 [If they be eſteemed] by their wyſedome, al menne are become fooles: *confounded be al the caſters of images, for the thyng that they make, is but deceipt, and hath no breath.

Eſai.44.c Baruc.6.a

18 Vayne is it, and an erronious woorke, and in the time of viſitation it ſhal periſhe.

19 The portion of Iacob is none ſuche: but he that made al thynges, whoſe name is the Lorde of hoſtes, he is the rodde of his enheritance.

20 (c) Thou haſt benne myne hammer and weapons for warre: for with thee haue I broken the people in peeces, & with thee haue I deſtroyed kyngdomes.

(c) Thou haſt benne, this God ſpeaketh vnto Babylõ.

D 21 Through thee I haue beaten to powder horſe and horſemen, yea the charrettes, & ſuch as ſate vpon them.

22 Through thee haue I broken man & woman, olde and young, bacheler and mayden.

23 Through thee I haue deſtroyed the ſhepheard and his flocke, the huſbandman and his cattel, the princes and the rulers.

24 Therefore wil I rewarde the citie of Babylon, and al the inhabitantes of Chaldea, with al the euyl whiche they haue donne vnto Sion, yea that ye your ſelues ſhal ſee it, ſayth the Lorde.

25 Beholde, I comme vpon thee thou noyſome (d) hyl, ſaith the lord, thou that deſtroyeſt al landes, I wyl ſtretche out my hande ouer thee, & caſt thee downe from the ſtony rockes, aud wyl make thee a burnt hyl,

(d) Babylon is called an hyl, although it ſtoode in a low place, and no hilles about it: for that her walles and buyldynges were ſo great and hygh as mountaynes.

26 So that neither corner ſtones ſhalbe taken any more out of thee: buſt waſte and deſolate ſhalt thou lye for euermore, ſayth the Lorde.

27 Set vp a token in the lande, blowe the trumpets among the Heathen, prouoke the nations agaynſt her, calle the kyngdomes of
